- Liaising with clients to ensure their needs are being met.
- Developing client relationships with both mortgage and our non-mortgage clients.
- Contributing to the development of the division as a senior member of the team.

About you

You may be a Senior Valuer ready for a management role or you may already be in a similar role and ready to join a highly respected company with a real focus on people. You will be CPV qualified, have significant commercial valuation, particularly mortgage experience. You will have well developed professional communication and relationship building skills and enjoy working as part of a team.

What you will love about working with us

Join our business and you will enjoy:

- The opportunity to undertake work for the biggest mortgage suppliers.
- A flexible workplace.
- Working with a professional team.
- A business that really values the importance of service, quality and being part of a team.
- A culture that is described to us as “large national company with a local team culture”.
- Being part of a company that really does care about its people.

- Benefits of working at HTW are extensive - Volunteer leave, Purchased leave, Wellbeing leave, Study Leave, Gender neutral paid Parental Leave just to name a few.
