

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Funded by the McKinney Family Foundation, the Indiana Sustainability Development Program (ISDP) is a sustainability-focused workforce development program for IU undergraduate and graduate students.

Our aim is to:

- Develop a statewide network of sustainability professionals in the corporate, nonprofit, government, and higher education sectors;
- Learn how to best prepare students for sustainability careers by listening to industry professionals;
- Train and place interns in sustainability-focused positions through partnership development and an intensive boot camp; and
- Build the state of Indiana's sustainability workforce capacity by retaining skilled talent through employment and internship opportunities.

PARTNER COMMITMENT

- Supervise and mentor ISDP extern during Summer 2019 externship;
- Draft extern job description (with ISDP support);
- Provide financial support to ISDP through stipend payment;
- Provide expertise during 3-day Boot camp training (if desired) or provide a host site visit
- Identify or provide local housing for extern

PARTNER BENEFIT

- Highly skilled staff: professional and trained undergraduate/graduate student to tackle your sustainability challenges
- Expanded capacity: full-time student working 10 - 12 weeks to tackle your sustainability challenges (Summer 2019)
- Streamlined hiring process: ISDP will recruit, vet, and hire students on your behalf

2018-2019 PROGRAM TIMELINE

