Medical Information

You as a counselor are in a position to assist in having a safe week. It is your responsibility to see that your campers' health and safety are maintained while at camp.

Prevention

- Make sure you and your campers drink plenty of water.
- Encourage campers to eat all meals and drink plenty of fluids.
- If a camper is in need of a special meal plan, see the kitchen staff.
- Ensure campers regularly apply sunscreen and insect repellent.
- Do not allow your campers to hike or compete in activities barefoot. Bare feet are allowed in the pool and waterfront areas only.

Medicine

- Under California State Law you are not allowed to administer any medicine to a minor. At Hume, this includes prescription and non-prescription (vitamins, supplements and over-the-counter medications).
- Medications will be given to campers by the nurse or intern during meals and at bedtimes.
- Emergency self-carry medications (EpiPens, inhalers, insulin) are permitted to remain with campers, a designated adult or in the cabin ONLY with proper authorization and physician order.
- In your cabin there is a lock box for you to keep your medicine and personal belongings. Please store them safely in there.
- We will provide each counselor with a list of the campers in their wagon that have medications to take during meals and at bedtime. Please help to remind them to come and take those medications at the location at the times listed below:

Students may pick up their medicine during these times:

- Breakfast | Nurses station at Hotel
- Lunch | Nurses station at Hotel
- Dinner | Nurses station at Hotel

When you "head to bed" (outside the Outpost)

Illness/Injury

- During the day, report sick or injured campers to the nurse, interns or lead counselors.
- Try to remain calm when someone is injured. When injury occurs, your responsibility is crowd control. Contact a staff member and stay with the injured camper.
- At night, please use discretion when reporting an illness or injury. An emergency is something which cannot wait until the following morning.

CPR Training

If a camper is found unconscious and unresponsive please do the following:

- CHECK the scene, then CHECK the person.
- Tap on the shoulder and shout, "Are you okay?" and quickly look for breathing.
- Send someone to CALL or radio for 9-1-1 if no response and get an AED.
- AED's are located at: Wagon Train Pool and the Pavilion.
- If no response & not breathing, BEGIN CHEST COMPRESSIONS.
- Put the heel of one hand on the center of the chest with the heel of the other hand on top of it. Keep your arms straight with shoulders over your hands.
- Push hard (adult at least 2", child 2"), & fast (100-120/minute, to the rate of the song "Baby Shark").
- Let the chest rise completely before pushing down again.
- Continue chest compressions.
- DO NOT STOP unless: You see signs of life, another trained responder arrives and takes over, EMS takes over, you are too tired to continue, to put the AED on, or if the scene becomes unsafe.

Mandated Reporter

Suspected Abuse:

If you suspect that a camper has been abused in some way, we are considered “mandated reporters” and are required to report such abuse to Child Protective Service. Abuse is categorized in four ways listed below.

Neglect:

Neglect typically is seen in younger aged children. Key questions you will want to ask include: Does the child have an immediate need for medical attention? What is their quality of life? What are the physical conditions of the home?

Emotional Abuse:

This one is somewhat difficult to quantify, yet as its name implies, someone may not necessarily be physically injuring their children, yet they may be using their words as weapons.

Physical Abuse:

The first thing you want to find out is if there are any visibly significant injuries on the child. CPS recommends that we call in any claims of physical abuse, even if they seem bogus. One of the first things CPS will want to know is if the young person is in any kind of immediate danger.

Sexual Abuse:

According to the law, any kind of sex under the age of 18, consensual or not is considered illegal. Concerning rape, be sure to find out if this has been disclosed to anyone else (legal authorities) been called. Reporting is essential in this case.

Almighty God,
You are the creator of all things. Everything proclaims this truth, in one way or another. The heavens declare your glory. Existence shows the details of your work. Your words prove to be true and beneficial to all who submits to them.

Lord, let my thoughts, words, and actions bring you glory and lifegiving to those around me.

(Westminster Shorter Catechism, Question #4)

What is God?

God is a Spirit, infinite, eternal, and unchangeable, in his being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness, and truth.

(Baptist/Keach's Catechism, Question #3)

How may we know there is a God?

The light of nature in man and the works of God plainly declare there is a God; but his word and Spirit only do it fully and effectually for the salvation of sinners.

Monday Morning Devo

Pray

Righteous Lord,
You have given us your commands so that we can know how to glorify you. Yet we have turned away from and have rejected your instructions in different ways.

But Lord, take away our guilt. Free us from our sin so that we would not perish from its poison. You surround those who trust you with your steadfast love. May we turn from our wickedness and find favor in you forever and ever.

Amen.

(New City Catechism, Question #16)

What is sin?

Children: Sin is rejecting or ignoring God in the world he created, not being or doing what he requires in his law.

Adult: Sin is rejecting or ignoring God in the world he created, rebelling against him by living without reference to him, not being or doing what he requires in his law—resulting in our death and the disintegration of all creation.

(Heidelberg Catechism, Question #3)

From where do you know your sins and misery?

From the law of God

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal blue ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. In the bottom right corner, there is a small, faint circular logo or watermark. The logo appears to contain some stylized text or a symbol, but it is too light to be clearly discernible. The overall appearance is that of a clean, unused piece of stationery.

Gracious God,
Day to day we face struggles of all sorts. Yet you are always gracious.
We ask that you continue to look at us with grace. Have mercy on your beloved people.

Tuesday Morning Devo

Pray

Our Lord and Savior,
You are light! Only in you do we find salvation. Your gracious work on the cross enables the wonderful invitation that you have extended to sinners like us.

O God of our salvation, please don't leave us to the consequences that we surely deserve. Instead, from the riches of your mercy, deal graciously with us. Lord, save us that we would dwell in your house for the rest of our days.

How can we be saved?

Children: Only by faith in Jesus Christ and in his substitutionary atoning death on the cross.

Adult: Only by faith in Jesus Christ and in his substitutionary atoning death on the cross; so even though we are guilty of having disobeyed God and are still inclined to all evil, nevertheless, God, without any merit of our own but only by pure grace, imputes to us the perfect righteousness of Christ when we repent and believe in him.

Our Shepherd King,
You provide what we need and when we need it. You give peace

Thursday Morning Devo

Pray

Our good God,
May we delight in you always. In thought, in words and in all that we do.
Remind us that you have taken my anguish and given me peace. Let all who see us see that you are good.

(Heidelberg Catechism, Question #116)

Why is Prayer necessary for the Christian?

Because prayer is the most important part of the thankfulness which God requires of us. Moreover, God will give His grace and the Holy Spirit only to those who constantly and with heartfelt longing ask Him for these gifts and thank Him for them.

(Heidelberg Catechism, Question #117)

What belongs to a prayer which pleases God and is heard by Him?

First, we must from the heart call upon the one true God only, who has revealed Himself in His Word, for all that He has commanded us to pray.
Second, we must thoroughly know our need and misery, so that we may humble ourselves before God. Third, we must rest on this firm foundation that, although we do not deserve it, God will certainly hear our prayer for the sake of Christ our Lord, as He has promised us in His Word.
