Recreation

Our Philosophy Behind Recreation

Above all, our desire is that recreation is simply another tool for bringing your students into a living, meaningful relationship with Jesus Christ. It is an opportunity for your students to bond together and for walls to breakdown, allowing trust and friendships to be built. Hopefully, this trust and friendship will translate into enriching conversations in your breakout sessions/cabin times.

Be Intentional With Recreation

Encourage your students to get involved

If you are sitting under the tree not wanting to participate or having a bad attitude, they will follow you. Whether you win or lose, remember the point is to have fun and to build unity within your group.

Be Respectful

It is easy to get a little too competitive, even as counselors. Remember, these students are watching you!! If you are yelling at the refs or are being rude to the other teams, it will just turn ugly. Show your students what it looks like to be competitive with integrity. You as the counselor are responsible for the conduct of your students during recreation.

Try To Include All The Students

Try to highlight all your students throughout the different competitions. Some of your students will be more athletic than others, so try to include everyone on your team and look for ways to let each student feel like they are included.

Dress Appropriately

Help us by making sure your students are NOT wearing sandals or have bare feet during recreation, unless they are at the pool. Please be sure that students do NOT cut their shirts and are NOT wearing short shorts, spandex shorts, or skirts. Some games may be in the pool or lake, and may require you to wear a swimsuit.

Verse Guidelines

Memory Verse Philosophy

In light of recreation as a tool to bring students into a living, meaningful relationship with Jesus Christ, do not limit the use of these memory verses to winning recreation. Memory verses do earn valuable points, but more importantly, they are to assist you in meeting the spiritual needs of your students.

Each day is designed for you to gauge the spiritual temperature of your campers. Do these verses have any relevance and meaning in their lives? Your responsibility and privilege is to confront them, counsel them, and encourage them.

With the above philosophy in mind, please do not “force feed” your students. If they do not desire to memorize Scripture, they do not have to. In light of the eternal value (not just temporal point value) encourage them as much as possible.

Daily Guidelines

- Any translation may be used.
- Each verse must be said word perfect. No outside assistance.
- Verses may be recited any day.
- Scoresheet must be turned in to Ampersand by 5pm on Thursday.
- Counselors may participate in memory verses.

Memory Verses

Monday: Psalm 40:1-3

I waited patiently for the Lord; he inclined to me and heard my cry. He drew me up from the pit of destruction, out of the miry bog, and set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure. He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many will see and fear, and put their trust in the Lord.

Tuesday: Psalm 51:1-4

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin! For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment.

Wednesday: Psalm 19:7-10

The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple; the precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes; the fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; the rules of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb.

Thursday: Psalm 6:1-4

O Lord, how many are my foes! Many are rising against me; many are saying of my soul, “There is no salvation for him in God.” But you, O Lord, are a shield about me, my glory, and the lifter of my head. I cried aloud to the Lord, and he answered me from his holy hill. I lay down and slept; I woke again, for the Lord sustained me.

Bonus Memory Verse

Guidelines

- Any student is eligible to say the bonus verse.
- Bonus verses may be written out, but only if a counselor is present.

Friday: Psalm 103:1-19

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name! Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases, who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. The Lord works righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed. He made known his ways to Moses, his acts to the people of Israel. The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us. As a father shows compassion to his children, so the Lord shows compassion to those who fear him. For he knows our frame; he remembers that we are dust. As for man, his days are like grass; he flourishes like a flower of the field; for the wind passes over it, and it is gone, and its place knows it no more. But the steadfast love of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children's children, to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments. The Lord has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all.

 Monday

Devotional: Heart of God vs. Heart of Man

As we begin walking through the Psalms of David, we will start to understand the contrast between the heart of God and the heart of man. Luke 6:45 says this about the heart, "The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks."

The more we learn and intimately know the heart of God, the more we recognize our sinfulness and how different our hearts are from God's. The heart of God is holy, loving, just, merciful, gracious, faithful, patient, truthful and wise, while the human heart is sinful, dishonest, selfish, deceitful, and wicked.

Read Psalm 103.

In this psalm, we learn about God's character and His heart. His heart is unchanging, remaining the same through all time.

What do you believe to be true about God's heart?

As we learn about God this week, what do you hope to learn more about?

When we believe in the truth of who God is, it completely changes our lives. This week we will be examining the life of David through the Psalms. We will get a glimpse into the life of the believer and what it really looks like to walk with God through all seasons of the Christian walk. But first, we must come to a full understanding of the heart of God and what it means to put our faith in Him.

Pray: Thank God for who He is and ask Him to reveal His heart to you this week.

Cabin Time Questions

1. Which seminars did you attend and why did you choose those?
2. What is something you learned from the seminars that you can apply to your walk with the Lord?

 Tuesday

Devotional: Sin & Gospel

In 1 Samuel 15 and 16, we see how Saul is anointed king by the prophet Samuel, but God is displeased with Saul as king because of his disobedience. God then commands Samuel to anoint a new king. Samuel anoints David as the new king over Israel. During his time as king, David wrote Psalm 40.

Read Psalm 40.

In this psalm, we see David address his sin, praise God, delight in God's law, admit his heart's failures, and address God as his help and deliverer. David says in Psalm 40:8, "I delight to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart."

Do you find joy and delight in obeying God? Explain why or why not.

What does it mean to have God's law written on our hearts?

As we compare Saul and David, we see that David is obedient to God and committed to following Him completely. He delights in God's law and follows His will because he has fully surrendered his life over to Jesus. What would complete surrender to God look like in your life right now?

1 Samuel 16:13 tells us, “The Spirit of the LORD rushed upon David from that day forward.” The Holy Spirit fills us when we submit to following Jesus. Like David, we cannot do this life on our own, but God sends us a helper to accomplish His good work. If we believe in Jesus’ death and resurrection and proclaim Him as our Lord and Savior, then the Holy Spirit dwells within us. Hallelujah!

Pray: Thank God for the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Ask God for joy, delight, and surrender in obeying His Word through the Holy Spirit.

Tuesday Evening Notes

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Cabin Time Questions

1. How is David's life connected to Jesus the Messiah?
2. In what ways do you recognize the sinful nature of your heart?
3. What is the Gospel of Jesus Christ?
4. In what ways have you practiced trusting God's plans over your own plans?

Wednesday

Devotional: Confession, Repentance, & Forgiveness

In the life of any believer, though we are forgiven for our sins, we still fall into temptation. The reality is, we still continue to sin against God even after surrendering our lives to following Him. As we sin, God calls us to repent by confessing our sins.

1 John 1:9 explicitly says, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

As a follower of Jesus, we are called to regularly confess our sins and repent, knowing that God will forgive us. We see this practice in the life of David. He comes before God confessing his sins, turning away from his sins, and receiving forgiveness.

Read Psalm 51.

What does David ask God to do to his sins and transgressions?

What does David ask God to create within him?

Confessing our sins to God reminds us of our constant need for grace. It is not by our own doing that we are saved and not by good works, but by Jesus' death on the cross and resurrection from the grave. Like we see in the life of David, confession and repentance are daily rhythms in the Christian life.

What does confession currently look like in your life?

What sins do you need to confess and repent of before God right now?

Pray: Write a letter to God honestly confessing to Him, knowing that He is loving and forgiving.

Wednesday Morning Notes

[illegible]

Cabin Time Questions

1. Describe what confession means.
2. Describe what repentance means.
3. What are things you need to be honest about and bring to the feet of Jesus?
4. Describe a time when you experienced forgiveness.
5. How do repentance, confession, and forgiveness tune our hearts to God's heart?

Devotional: Worship, Praise, & Thanksgiving

Throughout David's life, we see that he worships God through tragic moments, mundane moments, and victorious moments. As followers of Jesus, our lives are not going to be easy and perfect by any means, but because of Christ, the battle over sin and death has been won, and for that we forever have a reason to worship God.

Read Psalm 19.

What does David praise God for in this psalm?

When David writes about various aspects of the Lord, what descriptive words does He use?

Psalm 19:14 says “Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.” What is David praying to God for in this verse?

God is personal, caring, and with us throughout all of the various seasons of our lives. A psalm that David wrote about this is Psalm 23.

Read Psalm 23.

What does it say about God's character?

Because of God's character, what does it say about you?

Write out a gratitude list of things you are thankful to God for.

Pray: Take time to slowly read Psalm 23 again, praying it over your life and worshipping God through it.

Wednesday Evening Notes

[illegible]

Cabin Time Questions

1. In Psalm 19 and 23, how is David worshipping God?
2. How do you worship God? How do you practice thanksgiving?
3. What would it look like to worship God in the hard seasons of life? In the easier seasons of life?
4. Describe ways you're thankful for God and His character.
5. How do worship, praise, and thanksgiving tune our hearts to God's heart?

 Thursday

Devotional: Prayers of Lament

As we see in David's life, we cannot be sanctified into the image of Christ if we are keeping up a facade of hiding and covering what is really going on within our souls. We often think we must approach God with "put-together" or "polite" prayers, when that just perpetuates the dishonest facade. God desires our whole hearts and wants us to communicate with Him through honest, real, and vulnerable prayer. He already knows what is going on and He can handle whatever it is that we are feeling and experiencing, so we are invited to be honest and open with our loving, forgiving, and caring God. Many of David's psalms are amazing examples of the internal world of a believer honestly displaying deep cries of lament to God.

Read Psalm 3 & Psalm 6.

It is refreshing to see prayers of such honesty, boldness, and reverence before the Lord. How does David honestly describe himself and his situations in these psalms?

What does David write about the character of God in these psalms?

The Psalms of Lament are powerful and honest expressions of passion, grief, sorrow, mourning, regret, and confusion that are prayed to God believing that He is all-powerful. Lamenting expresses deep personal pain to God, yet deep trust in God.

Lament Prayer Structure

Address: A cry to God

Complaint: Honestly describe the problem

Petition/Request: Plea for help from God

Affirmation: A statement of trust in God amidst such pain

Pray: Write a letter to God honestly confessing to Him, knowing that He is loving and forgiving.

Thursday Morning Notes

[illegible]

Cabin Time Questions

1. In what ways have you experienced God's heart of compassion and love?
2. How have you experienced praying a prayer of lament?
3. What have you been hiding or covering from God that you can bring to Him right now?
4. What would it look like to practice honest prayer to God in your daily life?
5. How does lament tune our hearts to God's heart?

Devotional: Fellowship of the Body of Christ

As we reflect on the entirety of the week, we first learned that God's heart and man's heart are wholly and completely different. Through David's life and psalms, we have explored the external and internal world of the believer. We learned ways that God tunes man's heart to His: through the Gospel of Jesus Christ, confession & forgiveness, worship & praise, and prayers of lament.

The Christian life was not meant to be lived alone but to be lived within the Church, the Body of Christ. We see the example of fellow believers within David's life through Nathan as well as through David's mighty men. Within the Church, we experience fellowship with other believers, corporate teaching, communal prayer, and communal worship. Through all these aspects of the Church, we are together and individually formed more into the image of Christ.

Read Psalm 122. This is a psalm about finding joy in gathering together as God's people. Together, God's people were going to the House of the Lord, referring to the Temple in Jerusalem in the Old Testament.

Read Psalm 133. This is a psalm that celebrates unity among God's people.

After reading these two psalms, what are some characteristics of God's people?

Gather together as a cabin and share encouragements of how you see God forming one another into the image of Christ.

By receiving the truth of the Gospel, practicing confession & forgiveness, in worship & praise, in honest laments to God, and in being a part of the Body of Christ, we become more and more like Jesus, reflecting the heart of God. Through this, He is glorified.

Pray: Thank God for the church family that you get to be a part of. Pray for joy, peace, and unity with your church.

Thursday Evening Notes

Cabin Time Questions

1. What does your community look like? Who are you surrounding yourself with?
2. What are some ways you have experienced the Body of Christ (Church) this week at camp?
3. As you reflect on this week of camp, how did God tune your heart toward His heart?
4. As you pursue a relationship with Jesus, what are you taking away from this week?
5. How can you reflect the heart of God in your families, schools, and communities when you go home?
