Miami Hits the Road for Series with Boston College...

The University of Miami baseball team looks to get back on the winning track in league play this weekend, traveling to Boston College for a three-game series at Eddie Pellagrini Diamond at Commander Shea Field in Chestnut Hill, Mass. For the Eagles of BC, the series will be their first true home games of the year – already 23 games into the 2011 season.

Miami (15-11, 6-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) enters the weekend after collecting a 13-2 victory over Florida Gulf Coast on Tuesday evening at home. Boston College (10-13, 4-5 ACC) enters with a three-game losing skid, including a 4-0 setback against Rhode Island on Wednesday.

In ACC play, the 'Canes are 3-0 on the road – sweeping Wake Forest in a series two weeks ago in Winston-Salem, N.C. The 'Canes are 3 1/2 games behind Georgia Tech in the Coastal Division, and sit in fourth place in a loaded division that includes three Top 25 teams.

Boston College has won its last two ACC series against Maryland and Virginia Tech, respectively. The Eagles are tied with Clemson for second place in the Atlantic Division behind Florida State – the only Top 25 team in all four major polls in the division.

Miami is led at the plate by three players hitting above .270, including freshman third baseman Brad Fieger who has increased his average by 10 points over the last two weeks. He hits .275 for the Hurricanes with a team-high tying 25 hits. Behind him is Rony Rodriguez, batting .273 with a team-leading three home runs and .442 slugging percentage.

Sophomore outfielder Zeke DeVoss leads the Hurricanes in steals (15), base on balls (21), runs (20) and hit by pitches (5), and tied for the lead in hits (25). DeVoss hit his first homer of the year on Wednesday against FGCU, blasting a grand slam to left in the fourth inning – serving as his first grand slam since May 29, 2010 against Virginia in the ACC Tournament.

Miami will be without the services of shortstop Stephen Perez on the weekend, with the sophomore missing his second consecutive series due to an injury in his quadriceps. Junior Harold Martinez has been serving in his place, seeing action at shortstop for the first time since his high school career. For the Louisville Slugger Preseason All-America selection – Martinez – he has increased his batting average the past three weeks, now hitting .250 with a team-leading 19 RBI and swiping two bases on two attempts.

The weekend rotation on the hill will remain the same for the Hurricanes, going with freshman Bryan Radziewski (Friday), sophomore E.J. Encinosa (Saturday) and sophomore Eric Whaley (Sunday).

The weather for this weekend is expected to be cold with snow flurries possible each day. During practice on Thursday evening, the Hurricanes endured freezing rain and snow while taking batting practice and infield/outfield drills.

There is a possibility that Friday's game could be postponed due to a mixture of rain and snow, forcing a double-header on Saturday or Sunday.

Miami Against Boston College...

Miami holds a commanding 9-4 advantage in this short series against Boston College that dates back to 2003. The Hurricanes began the series rolling off seven consecutive wins before the Eagles bounced back to take three in a row. The Hurricanes have won two of the last three (collecting last year's regular season series in Coral Gables), but it was the Eagles outlasting the 'Canes in the ACC Tournament later in the season in Greensboro, N.C.

Carey Me Home...

Freshman outfielder Dale Carey picked up his first multi-hit game as a Miami Hurricane on Tuesday against Florida Gulf Coast, going 2-for-4 at the plate with a pair of RBI and a run scored. It was also the first multi-RBI game of the career for the native of Marietta, Ga. He shares a common bond with another UMiami athlete – DeQuan Jones of men's basketball, both being highly-touted athletes out of Wheeler High School in the Greater Atlanta Metropolitan Area.

Home-Field Advantage...

With the University of Miami owning a 9-4 advantage in the series against Boston College, the Hurricanes also hold a commanding 7-1 (.875) record in Coral Gables under Jim Morris. Since Alex Rodriguez Park opened prior to the 2009 season, with the renovations to Mark Light Field, UMiami holds a 2-1 (.333) against BC.

Something About Double-Digits...

In the four losses against the Eagles of Boston College, Miami has allowed double-digit runs in three-of-the four contests – including 12 during last year's Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) Tournament classic 12-inning

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI HEAD COACH JIM MORRIS - 18TH SEASON

2001, 1999, & 1994 National Coach of the Year • 2008 ACC COACH OF THE YEAR

In his 18th season at Miami, no other program, nor head coach, has qualified for the College World Series as much as Morris and his Hurricanes. Miami, which has qualified for the NCAA Tournament a NCAA-record 38 consecutive years, has made it to Omaha in 11 of Morris' 17 seasons in Coral Gables. Morris set an NCAA record for guiding a program to the CWS in each of his first six years at UM. In addition, Morris won a record 13 consecutive NCAA Regionals from 1994-2006. His teams have qualified for NCAA Regionals for the last 26 years, 17 at Miami and nine at Georgia Tech.

Morris has directed the Hurricanes to a 791-309-3 (.717) mark since arriving in 1994. Including his 12 seasons at Georgia Tech (1982-93), Morris has forged a 1,295-553-4 (.699) Division I record in 29 years as a head coach. Overall, Morris has been the head coach at the collegiate level for 32 seasons, spending the first four at DeKalb (Ga.) C.C. (now Georgia Perimeter College) from 1976-79, and has recorded a 1,426-594-4 (.704) mark.

In addition to carrying on Miami's great baseball reputation in the last 18 years, Morris has personally led the charge in the construction of Alex Rodriguez Park, and has logged hundreds of hours raising funds for the new stadium project.

MORRIS IS A REGIONAL REGULAR

Jim Morris earned his 26th consecutive NCAA regional bid in 2010 when he guided the 'Canes to the NCAA Coral Gables Regional. He has led Miami to a regional in each of his 17 seasons (1994-2010), winning 15 of his last 17 appearances. The 13 consecutive regional championships (94-06) was an NCAA record. He also went to nine straight regionals from 1985-93 with Georgia Tech. Additionally, Miami has advanced to nine Super Regionals under Morris.

Affectionately known as "3" by those surrounding the UM program, Morris has led the 2010 Hurricanes to their 38th-straight NCAA Tournament. Five players from the 2010 team were selected in last year's Major League Baseball Draft. In 2008, the 'Canes reached the College World Series after winning the Atlantic Coast Conference, widely considered one of the toughest - if not the toughest - collegiate baseball conference in the country.

MORRIS IN HIS 33RD SEASON AS A COLLEGE COACH

Morris currently has a 1,295-553-4 (.699) record at the Division I level. As a head coach overall, he has compiled a 1,426-594-4 (.704) record over 30-plus years.

Jim Morris notched his milestone 1,000th win against his former school, Georgia Tech, with a 16-13 win on April 4, 2004. Thirteen days later he notched win No. 500 at Miami with a 7-3 win against Florida State on April 17. Morris' 1,000th win as a head coach, including four years at DeKalb Junior College, came in a 5-3 win over Northeastern on March 23, 2001.

Prior to his 17 seasons in Coral Gables, Morris went 504-244-1 at Georgia Tech from 1982-1993. In his first stint as a head coach, he guided DeKalb Junior College to a 131-41 mark from 1976-79.

JIM MORRIS MAKING HISTORY

- Guided the Miami Hurricanes to College World Series National Championship in 1999 and 2001.
- The only coach in NCAA history to take a school to the College World Series in each of his first six years at a program. Morris has gone to Omaha with Miami in 11 of 17 seasons and led Miami to 13 straight NCAA Regional Championships, an NCAA record.
- Named National Coach of the Year five times while at Miami, by Baseball America in 1994 and by the ABCA and Collegiate Baseball in 1999 and

- Sent 150 players to the Pro's, including Yonder Alonso (Cincinnati Reds), Pat Burrell (Rays), Ryan Braun (Brewers), Danny Graves (Astros), Alex Cora (Mets), Nomar Garciaparra (Dodgers), Jon Jay (St. Louis Cardinals), Gabby Sanchez (Florida Marlins), Danny Valencia (Minnesota Twins) and Jason Varitek (Red Sox).
- Has served three stints with the U.S. National Team: Assistant Coach for 1987 Pan American Games (Silver), Head Coach for 1989 Presidential Cup (Silver) and Head Coach for 1990 Goodwill Games (Bronze).

SHORTSTOPS AND JIM MORRIS

Morris, who played shortstop during college at Elon and then in the Boston Red Sox organization, has had great success developing the position while a head coach. Over the last decade Morris has taught prominent shortstops such as Nomar Garciaparra at Georgia Tech and Bobby Hill and Alex Cora at Miami.

Morris worked with Javy Rodriguez, who entered 2002 as a preseason All-American. Rodriguez led UM in just about every category as a junior in 2001, including a national-high 66 stolen bases. He currently works with sophomore Stephen Perez, a slick-fielding switch-hitter expected to bat near the upper-half of the order this year for the 'Canes.

Morris coached Hill, who played for the San Diego Padres, from 1997-99. Before Hill, it was Cora and Mike Metcalfe. Both players went on to play at the Major League level with the Los Angeles Dodgers. Cora is currently with the Nationals. Garciaparra played under Morris during the coaches' final two seasons in Atlanta and went on to become an All-Star with the Red Sox and played for the Oakland A's in 2009.

Harold Martinez makes his fourth consecutive start at shortstop for the injured Stephen Perez...David Villasuso is back behind the plate after a day off on Sunday...Chris Pelaez, coming off a shoulder injury, makes his second start of the year – as he was slotted as the DH and hit sixth...Zeke DeVoss hit a two-out grand slam in the bottom of the fourth inning to give the Hurricanes a 10-0 lead...It was the second grand slam of the season for the 'Canes, as Michael Broad hit one exactly a week ago against UCF... For DeVoss, it was his first home run of the season, and his first since May 29, 2010, against Virginia in the ACC Tournament...It was also DeVoss' second career grand slam, last clearing the bases against Boston College on May 27 of last year – also in the ACC Tournament...Freshman outfielder Dale Carey recorded his first and second extra-base hits of his career when he doubled in the second and third innings, respectively...Carey's double in the second inning drove home a run – his third RBI in as many games... With a double in the eighth inning, Brad Fieger reached base four times in one game for the first time this season...Sophomore Michael Broad hit a deep home run over the left field fence in the fifth inning, his second blast of the season. This was the first game this season where the Hurricanes had hit two home runs in one game...Cade Kreuter pinch-hit for Rony Rodriguez in the bottom of the fifth, and took over for him at first base in the top of the sixth inning...It was the first time all season Kreuter saw action in the field, defensively.

Recapping the Last Game - vs. Florida Gulf Coast (March 29)...

The University of Miami scored in each of the first five innings, and sophomore Steven Ewing took care of the rest, as the Hurricanes blew out the visiting Florida Gulf Coast Eagles, 11-2, Tuesday evening at Alex Rodriguez Park.

Eight different starters reached base, as the Hurricanes (15-11) scored a season-high in runs scored. Sophomores Zeke DeVoss and Michael Broad each hit home runs, as the Hurricanes recorded five extra-base hits in the win.

Ewing (3-1, 2.60 ERA) threw 4 1/3 innings of no-hit baseball in earning the victory. After Ewing left in the sixth inning, the bullpen returned to dominance to allow FGCU (13-13) just three hits and no runs in the final 3 1/3 innings.

Miami scored in the first when Harold Martinez recorded his team-leading 19th RBI with a sacrifice fly to drive in the speedy DeVoss from third.

In the second inning, Miami added two more runs as freshman right fielder Dale Carey hit his first double of the year to drive in Chris Pelaez and Brad Fieger. The runs effectively ended the night for FGCU starter Brandon Bixler (0-3) who took the loss after leaving in the second inning with no outs.

After Miami plated another score in the third inning, the 'Canes blew it open, scoring six runs in the fourth inning – capped off by DeVoss' grand slam (his first since May 27, 2010 vs. Boston College in the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament in Greensboro, N.C.).

UMiami forced FGCU Eagles head coach Dave Tollett to go to his bullpen early and often, using four pitchers through the first five frames, as the Hurricanes walked a season-high tying eight times in addition to their 11 hits.

DeVoss recorded four RBI to lead the 'Canes, while Fieger, Carey, and Shane Rowland each added two RBI as Miami put a halt to a recent three-game skid.

The Hurricanes now hit the road, returning to ACC action against Boston College this weekend in Chestnut Hill, Mass. The first game of the series will be Friday, April 1, at 2:30 p.m. Miami will throw freshman Bryan Radziewski (3-2, 2.48 ERA) to open the series, while Boston College's starter will be announced following its game on Wednesday evening.

Last Weekend Recap - Yellow Jackets Weather the Storm...

Game 1: Junior infielder and Louisville Slugger Preseason All-America selection Harold Martinez made his first career start at shortstop as a result of starter Stephen Perez's injured quadriceps and back-up Joey Porro's season-ending broken ankle...For the first time this season, Chantz Mack hit in the two-slot...UM's outfield traded places in the top of the seventh inning as Zeke DeVoss moved from left to center; Mack moved from right to left; and Dale Carey moved from center to right...Despite the loss, the 'Canes have won 10 out of the last 12 games since head coach Jim Morris' return from gall bladder surgery and an infection stemming from the surgery on March 8...Senior Chris Pelaez staked his first hit of the season on a single to the right side as a pinch hitter in the eighth inning...Both clubs came into tonight's contest on winning streaks – Miami having won its last nine, and Georgia Tech winning its last 13...After tonight's victory, GT remains the only program unbeaten in 2011 ACC play... Faces in the Crowd – Chicago Bears Tight End, and former 'Cane, Greg Olsen was in attendance... Former UM shortstop and recent University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame inductee Bobby Hill threw out the game's ceremonial first pitch...Miami head coach Jim Morris is familiar with the Yellow Jackets, having coached Georgia Tech from 1982-93 winning 504 games...Since moving from third base on March 11 versus Virginia Tech, Harold Martinez has resurged as a hitter going on a nine-game hitting streak...Before March 11, he was batting just .167. Since the switch, he is hitting .441...Tonight's game marks the sixth time this season in which the 'Canes have committed at least four errors...It also marks the second game in a row with at least four errant plays...Tonight's six errors are the most by a UM team since the 'Canes committed seven at Florida in the 2010 Gainesville Super Regional...Junior pitcher Sam Abrams, in 6 2/3 innings, has yet to give up a run this season...The bullpen's streak of 22 consecutive innings without an earned run came to an end when freshman Javi Salas gave up three runs in the eighth.

Game 2: With two RBI's on two hits, freshman Dale Carey recorded the first multi-hit game of his career...Carey is now on a three game hitting streak...Coming into the beginning of the week, Carey had only recorded one hit on the year...Harold Martinez, despite getting on base twice, was unable to get a hit to extend his hitting streak, which ended at nine games...Junior relief pitcher Sam Robinson gave up a double to lead off the eighth inning...This was the first extra-base hit given up by Robinson this season, after 16 previous innings without allowing an extra base hit...However, now with 17 innings pitched in 15 different appearances, Robinson has yet to allow a run...Junior closer Daniel Miranda also gave up the first home run of his season in the top of the 10th inning...Since moving from third base on March 11 versus Virginia Tech, Harold Martinez has resurged as a hitter going on a nine-game hitting streak...Before March 11, he was batting just .167...Since the switch, he is hitting .395 with a .425 on base percentage...After committing a season-high six errors the night before, the Miami defense, with the same lineup, responded with an error-free performance...All nine Georgia Tech runs in the 10th inning came with two outs...The 12 runs by the Yellow Jackets are the most allowed by the Hurricanes this year.

Game 3: Junior Harold Martinez started at shortstop every game of this series, and has started all 25 games this season...Freshman catcher Shane Rowland made his first start of the series behind the plate and batted eighth in the lineup...Starting pitcher Eric Whaley continues to pitch brilliantly, striking out a career-high 10 batters through seven innings...Whaley only gave up one run on two hits, but did not factor in the decision...For Whaley, it was his third consecutive start with eight-or-more strikeouts, and his fourth of the season...Collecting their 15th straight win, Sunday marked the first time the Yellow Jackets of Georgia Tech ever swept the Hurricanes in Coral Gables, and the first sweep overall by Georgia Tech since 1967...The last time the 'Canes were swept by anyone at home was Clemson in 2006...Reliever Sam Robinson gave up a run in the top of the ninth inning...For Robinson, it was his first earned run given up after 17 2/3 innings this season...Today's match-up was the 78th all-time meeting between the two schools in a series that dates back to 1958...After committing a combined 10 errors in games on Wednesday (Florida Gulf Coast) and Friday (Georgia Tech), the Miami defense responded with back-to-back error-free performances on Saturday and Sunday against the Rambling Wreck.

Notes from the FGCU Game (March 23)...

Zeke DeVoss started in center field tonight in place of Nathan Melendres – who served as designated hitter – and Chantz Mack suited up in left field with Rony Rodriguez over in right field...Late in the game, head coach Jim Morris made defensive substitutions with Martinez playing shortstop; Rodriguez moving to first base; Dale Carey going to center and Mack moving to right...DeVoss recorded his team-high tying fifth double of the night in the fourth inning, before swiping his team-leading 11th steal of the season – reaching safely at third...Junior pitcher Travis Miller saw action in his second game this year, picking up his first win since May 2, 2010...Miller toed the rubber in the fifth inning in relief of starter AJ Salcines...Miller's only other action came against Illinois State (March 8)...Daniel Miranda picked up his team-best sixth save of the year – sitting second-best in the ACC in that category...Miranda earned his fifth save in the last six games – and his fifth consecutive when toeing the rubber in relief...For the sixth consecutive game, the UMiami bullpen did not allow a single run, this time using the combination of Travis Miller – who earned the win, Adam Sargent, Sam Robinson and Daniel Miranda for the final five frames in relief of starter AJ Salcines who tossed the first four frames...Harold Martinez recorded a hit in his eighth straight game tonight, using a single to right in the sixth inning...Since making the move to first base in the series-opener against Virginia Tech on March 11, Martinez has a team-high .467 average at the plate – adding a team-leading 14 hits and a slugging percentage of .533 during that span.

Position Change...

In the second game of the series against Virginia Tech, Miami head coach Jim Morris elected to move All-American third baseman Harold Martinez to first, in a straight switch with freshman Brad Fieger. Since the move, Martinez has a .964 fielding percentage and has a .550 batting average. Fieger has also embraced the change well, committing just a single error in six games at the hot corner.

One Whale of a Game...

Sophomore pitcher Eric Whaley picked up his team-best third win of the year in Miami's series finale win (and series sweep) of Virginia Tech on Sunday, March 13, going a season-long tying seven innings — allowing just three hits and striking out three with zero walks issued to the Hokies. The Pompano Beach native has earned wins in all three home series finales on the campaign.

Notes from the Wake Forest Series...

Miami claimed its the sixth consecutive conference win with a sweep of the Demon Deacons on the road. It's the first time Miami has started the Atlantic Coast Conference season 6-0 since 2006...The 'Canes advanced to the College World Series that same year...The Hurricanes claimed their first three road wins of the year, entering the weekend 0-5 in that capacity...Bryan Radziewski laid claim to his third win of season while striking out a season-high 10 batters in 6 1/3 tossed on Friday night...Eric Whaley collected his team-leading fourth win of the season with six innings pitched, accounting for nine strikeouts and allowing three earned runs [a three-run homer]...Zeke DeVoss batted .500 for the weekend, scoring six runs and claiming five hits and walking a team-leading four times...Harold Martinez drove in the game-winning run in back-to-back games during the second and third game of the series, respectively...Junior Rony Rodriguez hit his third home run of the season in helping start a 'Canes come-from-behind win in Sunday's series finale.

Notes from the the Virginia Tech Series...

The 'Canes opened up ACC play last Friday night with a win against the Virginia Tech Hokies. Miami has dominated Virginia Tech in Coral Gables, winning six of the seven matchups on its home field. The 'Canes are now 5-3 all-time in ACC-opening games...Nathan Melendres returned to the lineup as well, playing center field after a four-game absence due to a hand injury...Playing Small Ball — Miami looked to manufacture runs against the Hokies, bunting six different times throughout the game — with four resulting in bunt singles and one in a sacrifice...UM also had three steal attempts on the night, with two successful tries by sophomore Stephen Perez...As a team, Miami improved to 17-22 with stolen bases on the season...Runners left on base plagued the Hurricanes once again in the opening game of the series, as they left 11 men on the base paths in tonight's game...The 'Canes left the bases loaded in three different innings, and two on in another, with each four of the innings ending in a strikeout...Freshman starting pitcher Bryan Radziewski tossed a gem in the series-opener, going seven shutouts innings to earn his second career victory...It was the longest start of his career; the second time he has gone 5-plus innings without giving up a run; and his third quality start of the season...Junior Sam Robinson pitched a perfect eighth, and has yet to give up a run on the season...Daniel Miranda came in and pitched a bumpy ninth, allowing his first run of the season, before closing the door on the Hokies...Freshman Dale Carey made a diving catch in the top of the ninth inning to rob shortstop Tim Smalling of a potential extra-base hit...The hit would have brought the tying run to the plate with nobody out...Carey was inserted into the game in the bottom of the eighth as a pinch-runner and later on Stephen Perez's RBI double...He stayed in the game as the right fielder, where he proceeded to make his clutch play...Sophomore right-hander E.J. Encinosa threw 96 pitches in eight and two-thirds innings of work. Encinosa earned his first win of the season and now stands at 1-2...On Saturday, Harold Martinez and Brad Fieger swapped positions at the corners Friday night and were back at the positions tonight...It's Fieger's second career start at third and Martinez's second start of the season at first...Martinez played 10 games at first base during the 2009 season...Harold Martinez recorded two singles in tonight for his second multi-hit game this season...Southpaw hurler Sam Robinson earned his second save of the season, throwing only two pitches to seal Miami's 2-1 win over Virginia Tech...Sam Robinson made his 10 appearances to date, including a string of the last six of eight contests this month...Sunday's 11 runs scored was the highest runs production for the Hurricanes all season. The previous high was 10 against Appalachian State in the series finale on February 26...Sunday's Starters — Six of today's starters collected hits, while all nine starters reached base safely. Harold Martinez posted multiple hits for the second time in as many games (third time this year), knocking in a season-high four RBI...Nathan Melendres registered a season-high three hits, adding a RBI and scoring twice...Rony Rodriguez and Stephen Perez both tallied multiple RBI in the series finale...Sophomore right-hander Eric Whaley had another solid production in his fourth start of the year...Whaley went seven innings on the hill, spreading out three hits with no runs, no walks and striking out eight batters...Whaley has a team second-best 23 strikeouts on the year...Scoring 11 runs on nine hits meant Miami scored runs with guys on base, moving them over with bunts and driving them in with timely hits...Miami began the game with three consecutive bunt singles...UMiami has tallied five-plus hits in each of the last six games, including 14 against Illinois State (March 8)...The 'Canes showed great plate awareness on Sunday, drawing 10 walks from six Virginia Tech pitchers...The 10 walks taken was a season-high for UM.

Catch Me If "U" Can...

This year's UMiami team is full of speed from all areas of the lineup, and through the first 26 games it's quite prevalent. Head coach Jim Morris has preached aggressive base running throughout his illustrious career, with the 'Canes swiping 42-of-51 bases this season. Zeke DeVoss leads the way with 15 steals, followed by Nathan Melendres (7) and Stephen Perez (6).

In the last series against Georgia Tech, Miami swiped six bases in seven attempts against the Yellow Jackets, including a 4-for-5 effort from the speedy DeVoss.

The First Father/Son Duo...

Freshman catcher Shane Rowland has stepped right into the UMiami starting lineup and taken charge. He belted his first home run over the weekend against Appalachian State. The Tampa native is the son of former UMiami second baseman and current international scout for the New York Yankees, Donny Rowland. They are the first father/son duo to ever play baseball at the "U".

Miami Predicted to Finish Third In Coastal Division...

Miami baseball has been predicted to finish third in the Coastal Division of the Atlantic Coast Conference Coaches Preseason Poll. The poll is voted on by the league's 12 head coaches. Capturing a 20-10 league record in 2010, the Hurricanes finished the year third in the Coastal Division behind Virginia and Georgia Tech, respectively. Miami posted a 43-20 overall record en route to claiming the NCAA Coral Gables Regional title, and advancing to the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional.

Encinosa Has a Career Day in Gainesville...

Sophomore starting pitcher E.J. Encinosa went a career-long seven innings against top-ranked Florida (March 5). In a 1-0 loss to the Gators, Encinosa allowed just the one run on five hits and struckout three in a pitchers' duel with UF's Hudson Randall. Though not giving up the game-winning hit, Encinosa walked the first batter he faced in the eighth frame before being relieved out of the bullpen.

The 40-40 Club in Miami...

Once again, the Hurricanes achieved a 40-win season, finishing 43-20 and a spot in the NCAA Super Regional. All-time at UMiami, the 'Canes have achieved at least 40 wins 32 seasons - including 13 times under Jim Morris. In fact, UM has claimed 50-plus wins 19 times in school history, and 60-plus wins on three occasions. Miami posted at least 40 wins from 1973-1986, marking one of the longest streaks in NCAA history with a school collected 40 or more wins in consecutive years.

Miami in the ACC...

The 2011 season marks the seventh season the 'Canes have played in the Atlantic Coast Conference, and last year's 20-10 regular season mark in league play was the program's second-best behind the 2008 ACC championship squad that won 23 regular season league games.

Miami Jumps 12 Spots in Latest RPI Poll...

Sitting at No. 42 just a week ago in the RPI standings, the University of Miami made a leap 12 spot this week to No. 30, with wins against UCF and Wake Forest - two teams with high strength of schedules and RPIs. The sweep of Wake Forest by the 'Canes definitely helped after the Demon Deacons took two-of-three in the series victory over the Tar Heels two weeks ago in Winston-Salem, N.C.

early March, UMiami assistant coach Joe Mercadante returned to his old stomping grounds where he earned varsity letters in baseball for the University of Florida during the 2002 and '03 seasons. The former Gators catcher and Gainesville native appeared in 37 games for UF, holding a .312 (10-for-32) batting average and 19 runs batted in. Mercadante is in his seventh year with the Hurricanes program, coaching at P.K. Yonge High School (also his alma mater) prior to his arrival in Coral Gables.

Last Time vs. Boston College (5/27/2010)...

Fourth-seeded Miami was unable to hold on to a five-run ninth inning lead and eventually lost to eighth-seeded Boston College, 12-10, in 12 innings Thursday afternoon on day two of the Atlantic Coast Conference Baseball Championship at NewBridge Bank Park.

After Miami (40-16) scored five runs in the top of the ninth to take a commanding 10-5 lead, Boston College (30-27) responded with five of their own in the bottom half, sending the game into extra frames. Both teams were then held off the board until BC's 12th, when Andrew Lawrence hit the first pitch he saw over the wall in right for a two-run, walk-off blast.

Both teams are now 1-1 in the tournament. Miami has Friday off before playing top-seeded Virginia at noon on Saturday. Boston College will face fifth-seeded Florida State Friday at noon.

hit, including Yasmani Grandal and Harold Martinez, who combined to go 5-for-11 with two RBI and four runs scored. Grandal hit his 14th homer of the season and finished with three hits and a walk. Zeke DeVoss finished the day 1-for-3 with a grand slam, two walks, two runs scored and a career-high five RBI.

Travis Miller (1-1) suffered his first loss of the season, allowing the two-run homer in the 12th. Starter Chris Hernandez allowed five runs - three earned - on six hits while walking two and striking out four in 6 2/3 innings. Daniel Miranda allowed five runs on four hits in 1 1/3 innings, while Sam Robinson, Taylor Wulf and E.J. Encinosa all turned in scoreless outings in relief.

Kevin Moran (8-5) picked up the victory for Boston College, holding Miami hitless over the final 3 1/3 innings. Starter Mike Dennhardt allowed four runs in five innings and reliever Matt Brazis allowed five in just an inning.

Garret Smith led BC at the plate, going 3-for-5. John Spatola had four RBI, while Lawrence had two hits, two RBI and two runs scored.

The Eagles plated a pair of unearned runs in the first after a UM throwing error allowed one run to score before an RBI grounder to second put the Eagles up 2-0 after one.

A two-run double off the bat of Smith in the fifth scored BC's third run of the contest before an RBI groundout moved the Eagles' lead to 4-0 after five.

The Hurricanes finally got on the board in the sixth, scoring four runs to even things up. The inning was highlighted by a lead-off homer by Grandal

Morris Signs Contract Extension...

On Sept. 20, 2009, former University of Miami Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt announced that head baseball coach Jim Morris signed a contract extension through 2015. Morris, who is in his 17th season at the helm of the Miami baseball program, has led the Hurricanes to the College World Series in 11 of his 17 seasons in Coral Gables – including National Championship runs in 1999 and 2001.

Miami Gets Them Drafted...

Over the last three years, Miami has produced four first round MLB draft picks, more than any other school in the nation. Last year, Yasmani Grandal was selected in the first round by the Cincinnati Reds, with four other players—David Gutierrez (Minnesota Twins), Chris Hernandez (Boston Red Sox), Scott Lawson (Houston Astros) and Iden Nazario (Washington Nationals) all taken on the second day of the Draft.

Two of a Kind...

University of Miami head coach Jim Morris entered the season with 776 career wins with the Hurricanes and registered 504 wins at Georgia Tech prior to his arrival in Coral Gables. Morris is one of only two head coaches ever amass 500 or more wins at two separate Division I schools. Augie Garrido at the University of Texas entered the year with 602 wins with the Longhorns program. Garrido logged 928 wins as head coach at Cal State Fullerton before his current stint in Austin.

Closing In On the Lucky "8"...

Jim Morris is enjoying his 18th year at the helm in Coral Gables, and the skipper is closing in on his 800th career win. Morris sits at 791 wins at UMiami entering the weekend against the Eagles of Boston College.

New Era Behind the Plate...

Three catchers will be battling for playing time behind the plate this year, including junior David Villasuso. A season ago, Villasuso batted .245 with 20 RBI and five home runs while serving as a backup to MLB First Round Draft selection and 2010 ACC Player of the Year, Yasmani Grandal.

Others battling for playing time this season will be freshmen Corey Janson and Shane Rowland. After the fall season, Villasuso will probably make the start to begin the season, but don't be surprised if and when Rowland takes the spot behind the dish with improved confidence and skill.

Athletics Gets a Changing of the Guard...

On March 3, the University of Miami Department of Athletics and UMiami President Dr. Donna E. Shalala announced that Tony Hernandez would succeed Kirby Hocutt as Interim Director of Athletics. Hocutt resigned a week prior to take a similar position at Texas Tech University. Hernandez has served in a variety of areas within the Department of Athletics at UM in his 13 years of service, including the last year and a half as Deputy Athletic Director.

Fresh Faces In the Dugout...

This season, head coach Jim Morris has one of his youngest teams in recent memory. UMiami has 13 newcomers on this year's roster (12 freshman and one sophomore transfer). The 'Canes lost 2010 ACC Player of the Year, Yasmani Grandal, to the MLB Draft—Grandal was selected 12th overall in the Draft.

'Canes In the Classroom...

During the fall semester of 2010, the University of Miami baseball team recorded its highest team GPA ever. Freshman catcher Corey Janson collected a 4.0 GPA last semester, giving him one of the highest GPAs in the entire UMiami Athletic Department.

and later a Stephen Perez single that eventually tied it up.

BC re-took the lead, 5-4, with a run in the seventh, but the 'Canes tied it right back up in the eighth with another Perez RBI single.

The 'Canes briefly broke the game open in the ninth, going ahead on a Martinez RBI single before an eventual grand slam homer by DeVoss.

The Eagles weren't phased however, scoring five of their own - capped off by a three-run shot by Spatola after two runs had come across earlier in the frame.

Free Baseball...

The Hurricanes are 2-2 in extra-inning games this year. The last extra-inning contest came against Georgia Tech on March 26, 2011, in a 10-inning affair in Coral Gables. UMiami began the year accomplishing a task that has never been achieved in school history – back-to-back games to open a season. The 'Canes went 1-1 in the opening two days against Rutgers.

Morris Has Surgery to Remove Gall Bladder...

On Friday, March 25, 18th-year head coach Jim Morris received surgery to remove his gall bladder at the University of Miami Hospital. He stayed in the hospital a few extra days due to an infection stemming from the surgery. The skipper returned faster than expected to the 'Canes dugout, coaching against Illinois State

Rookie Gets the Ball...

In starting the season-opener against Rutgers, freshman pitcher Bryan Radziewski became the first Hurricanes rookie hurler to start an opening night game in the 18-year tenure under head coach Jim Morris. Radziewski, a Florida Christian School alum, was named the Florida Class 1-4A Player of the Year in 2010 as a senior in high school.

You've Gotta Start Somewhere...

Sophomore Joey Porro made his first collegiate start (second base) on Feb. 26 against Appalachian State; followed by another start against Illinois State (shortstop) on March 9. Porro was a student-manager for UM in 2010, only to earn two starts and post a .286 average with two hits, three runs driven in and one score thus far in 2011.

Sacrifice Yourself...

Under head coach Jim Morris, the Hurricanes have always believed in "team" play, and sacrifice hits have always been a part of that philosophy, dating back to the Ron Fraser days at UMiami. This season, Miami has four players with multiple sac bunts/fliers.

Jerseys On the Wall...

At UNC, they have jerseys in the rafters honoring the retired numbers/jerseys in basketball. For UMiami baseball, they have the numbers on the outfield wall. The names and numbers of retired jerseys are few, but they are known nationally around the collegiate baseball community and beyond.

Up Next...

Upon returning from Boston College, the University of Miami will take on Florida Gulf Coast for the third and final time of the year – all within a three-week span. The 'Canes will travel to Fort Myers to battle the Eagles of FGCU in what will be the fifth consecutive game against the Eagles (FGCU and Boston College). After that, Miami hosts NC State for an Atlantic Coast Conference series in Coral Gables on April 8-10.

ALEX RODRIGUEZ PARK INFORMATION

Renovations to Alex Rodriguez Park are thanks in large part to a $3.9 million contribution by New York Yankees third baseman and 11-time MLB All-Star Alex Rodriguez. The gift - the largest ever to the University of Miami baseball program - has assisted the program in continuing to develop first-class facilities. The official announcement of his gift was made on Oct. 10, 2002.

Alex Rodriguez Park has taken form in a three-phase process:

- Phase I called for seating modifications, new dugouts, new stadium lighting and utility infrastructure and new rest rooms.
- Phase II entailed renovating below the grand stand area in addition to adding new concession areas.
- The final phase included adding a new clubhouse, weight room, training room, meeting room, video room and academic area. In addition, a new press box – along with four VIP suites – have been built atop the grandstand. This past offseason, addition seating was added down both lines while a new scoreboard was constructed in left field.

In 1971, former Miami Coach Ron Fraser had a dream of building a state-of-the-art college baseball field and Hurricane supporter George Light came forward with the funding. The field, dedicated in 1977, is named for Light's son, Mark, who died of muscular dystrophy.
