THE GAME

► Miami plays its second-to-last home game when the Hurricanes welcome Wake Forest for Homecoming. Kickoff is scheduled for noon at Dolphin Stadium and the game will be televised on ESPNU.

► The Hurricanes are coming off a 49-31 ACC Coastal Division road win at Duke, which snapped a six-game conference losing streak. Freshman quarterback Jacory Harris threw a career-high four touchdown passes and ran for another touchdown. He completed 18-of-28 passes for 185 yards and rushed 10 times for 53 yards. He was first Miami quarterback since Kyle Wright against Wake Forest in 2005 to toss four TDs. He also was the first Hurricane since Wright to account for five touchdowns in a game.

► Freshman receiver Aldarius Johnson caught a career-high eight receptions for 84 yards and a touchdown against the Blue Devils. He now leads the team with 20 catches for 195 yards and two touchdowns.

► Defensively, safety Anthony Reddick matched a career-high with 12 tackles while linebacker Darryl Sharpton added 10 tackles in the Duke game. Senior linebacker Glenn Cook leads the team with 45 total tackles which includes a team-best seven tackles for loss. Reddick and Sharpton both have 42 tackles on the season. The Hurricanes are 21st nationally in overall defense and 20th in rushing defense.

► In three ACC games, UM has been tough to stop offensively. The Hurricanes lead the ACC in scoring offense with 37.3 points per game, which is 10 more points a game than Boston College, which averages 27.3 points in ACC play. The Hurricanes are 30th nationally in scoring offense (32.6 points per game).

THE OPPONENT

► Wake Forest is coming off a 26-0 loss at Maryland and bring a 4-2 overall record and 2-1 record in the ACC Atlantic Division. The Demon Deacons are 22nd nationally in scoring defense, 30th in total defense, fourth in turnover margin and 28th in pass defense. The Deacs are allowing just 16.8 points per game.

► Junior quarterback Riley Skinner leads the ACC in passing averaging 214.5 yards per game. He DID YOU KNOW?

► Of the 23 seniors on this year's squad, 13 have already earned degrees, while the remaining 10 are all on course to graduate either in December of 2008 or May of 2009.

► Last spring, the NCAA released its annual Academic Progress Report (APR) and the Hurricane football team scored a 969, the eighth-highest mark out of the 119 Bowl Sub-division football programs. Miami's score - also the third-highest mark in the 12-team Atlantic Coast Conference - put the team in the 80th-90th percentile nationally based on its performance in the classroom.

► Running back Graig Cooper (6 TDs) has the most touchdowns in a single season at UM since Tyrone Moss and Sinorice Moss scored 12 and six touchdowns respectively in 2005.

has completed 138-of-212 passes for 1,287 yards and seven touchdowns while completing 65.1 percent of his passes. Receiver DJ Boldin has 38 receptions for 383 yards and one touchdown.

▶ Linebacker Aaron Curry leads the team with 50 tackles and five tackles for loss. Wake Forest has 10 interceptions and 10 fumble recoveries. Defensive backs Kevin Patterson and Alphonso Smith each have three interceptions.

THE COACHES

▶ Randy Shannon is 9-10 overall and is in his second season at Miami. Wake Forest's Jim Grobe is 50-41 in his eighth season with the Demon Deacons.

THE SERIES

▶ This will be only the ninth game between the two schools, with Miami holding a 5-3 lead in the series. Wake Forest won the first meeting in 1928, 13-6, but UM has won the last four meetings, including both meetings since Miami joined the ACC. UM won 47-17 in Winston Salem, N.C. in 2005. The last time, the team's met in Miami, the Hurricanes won 52-7, in 2004.

HURRICANES EXCELLING IN THE CLASS ROOM

▶ Miami's APR score in 2008 was a slight improvement over its mark of 966 in 2007 when the team was ranked 10th nationally in academic success.

▶ Of the 23 seniors on this year's squad, 13 have already earned degrees, while the remaining 10 are all on course to graduate either in December of 2008 or May of 2009.

▶ The 13 players that have already earned degrees include: Carlos Armour (Sports Administration), Tyrone Byrd (Liberal Arts), Glenn Cook (Marketing and Business Management, Sports Management master's candidate), Romeo Davis (Liberal Arts), Dwayne Hendricks (Business Management), Khalil Jones (Sports Administration), Joe Joseph (Sports Administration), Eric Moncur (Liberal Arts), Anthony Reddick (Liberal Arts), Chris Rutledge (Liberal Arts), Xavier Shannon (Enrollment Management master's candidate), Derron Thomas (Sports Administration) and Chris Zellner (Geography).

▶ Last season, Miami had 12 early graduates - the second-highest total nationally behind fellow ACC member Boston College and in 2006, Miami had an ACC-high eight players named to the All-ACC Academic Football Team.

SWEET 16

► Sixteen Hurricanes - including seven true freshmen - have already reached the end zone through Miami's first seven games. Graig Cooper (6), Travis Benjamin (4), Jacory Harris (2), Aldarius Johnson (2), Kayne Farquharson (2), Shawnbrey McNeal (2), Laron Byrd (1), Javarris James (1), Jason Fox (1), Davon Johnson (1), Chris Zellner (1), Derron Thomas (1), Thearon Collier (1), Leonard Hankerson (1), Sean Spence (1) and Glenn Cook (1) have all reached paydirt at least once this season.

► A number of players who see regular action will be looking for their first touchdown of the season on Saturday, including freshman quarterback Robert Marve, junior tight end Dedrick Epps, junior wide receiver Sam Shields and senior wide receiver Khalil Jones, among others.

► Last year, UM has 11 players with a touchdown through the first seven games, while in 2006 only 10 players had scored at this point in the year. In both seasons, only 14 players had scored a touchdown by the end of the year. In 2005, only 12 players scored touchdowns (nine at the seven-game mark), while in 2004, 12 players had a TD at the seven-game mark with 16 eventually scoring by the end of the season.

Below is a list of the schools with the highest number of players that have scored at least one touchdown this season:

Rank	School	Touchdowns
1.	Utah	18
2t.	Miami	16
	USC	16
4.	TCU	15

FRESHMEN FRENZY

► Seven University of Miami freshmen have scored a touchdown this season, easily the highest total in the country. No two programs in the county can combine to equal UM's freshmen total, with seven schools ranking in a tie for second nationally with three freshmen who have scored. Travis Benjamin, who is second on the team with four touchdowns this season, leads a pack of freshman that includes Jacory Harris and Aldarius Johnson (2 touchdowns apiece) and four more that have reached paydirt once in Laron Byrd, Davon Johnson, Thearon Collier and Sean Spence.

Below is a list of the schools with the highest number of freshman that have scored at least one touchdown this season:

MIAMI MEDIA POLICIES

Releases Available Via E-Mail

Media members interested in receiving Miami football releases via e-mail should send requests to Football SID Kerwin Lonzo at klonzo@miami.edu.

Game Day Press Policies

Only working press will be admitted to the Dolphin Stadium press box. Seats will be issued according to the following criteria:

1. State newspapers by circulation, wire services, national publications, newspapers from opponent's area, and student newspapers from UM and opponent's schools.
2. Other daily newspapers, with preference to those that regularly cover UM.
3. Radio and television personnel not broadcasting, but considered reporting.
4. Non-daily newspapers, with preference to those which regularly cover UM.
5. Scouts. Freelance and/or non-daily writers may be asked to produce copies of actual publications in which their work has appeared. In some cases, these materials will be required as verification of the writers' status.

Conference Road Game Credentials

Writers covering UM on a regular basis should make all requests for conference road credentials directly with the home team.

Non-Conference Road Game Credentials

Writers covering UM on a regular basis may make requests for non-conference road credentials with the UM Sports Information Office. Credential requests are faxed to the opponent school by Monday two weeks prior to the contest.

ITS ALL ABOUT THE BENJAMIN

► Freshman receiver/returner Travis Benjamin had his best game of his young career three weeks ago against rival FSU, collecting an impressive 274 all-purpose yards against the Seminoles. Benjamin, who had just 183 all-purpose yards through Miami's first four games (45.75 ypg), has 560 his in UM's last three contests (185.33 ypg). In an increased role against the Seminoles, Benjamin finished with 185 yards on kick returns, 71 yards receiving and 18 yards rushing. Two weeks ago against UCF, Benjamin led the Hurricanes again in all-purpose yardage, collecting 112 (34 receiving, 62 kick returns, 16 punt returns) against the Knights. This past week, he continued his recent success with 170 all-purpose yards (3 rushing, 45 receiving, 92 kick returns, 30 punt returns). Here are some other notes about Benjamin's success this season:

- His 274 all-purpose yards against FSU was the most by a Hurricane since Edgerin James had 310 all-purpose yards (299 rushing, 11 receiving) against UCLA in 1998.
- He scored his first two touchdowns of his career against the Seminoles with an 18-yard rushing TD and a 51-yard receiving TD on a pass from running back Graig Cooper.
- For the season, Benjamin leads the team with 739 all-purpose yards, ahead of Cooper's 623 yards. Benjamin's 105.6 yards per game ranks sixth in the Atlantic Coast Conference through last weekend's games.
- Benjamin ranks second in the ACC and 16th nationally in punt return average (14.2) and fifth in the ACC and 29th nationally in kick return average (25.9).
- He also owns the team's longest kickoff return (57 yards) and longest reception (51)
- Benjamin's 739 all-purpose yards through the team's first seven games is the most at Miami since Willis McGahee had 847 all-purpose yards (all rushing) heading into the eighth game of the 2002 season.

YOUTH IS SERVED

► Miami's top five performers in terms of all-purpose yards gained this season are either in their first or second year in the UM program. Freshman Travis Benjamin leads the team with 739 all-purpose yards, while sophomore Graig Cooper sits in second with 623 yards. Freshman Aldarius Johnson, who had a team-high 84 yards receiving against Duke this past weekend, ranks third with 195 yards while senior Kayne Farquharson - a junior college transfer last year - ranks fourth with 163 yards. Finally, freshman Thearon Collier is fifth with 161 yards despite missing the Florida State game three weeks ago.

Here are some other notes on the young players at UM:

- True freshman have accounted for 1,405 of UM's 2,994 all-purpose yards this season (47%).
- Players in their first two years at UM have accounted for 2,412 of UM's 2,994 all-purpose yards this season (81%).
- 21 of UM's 29 touchdowns this season have been scored by either a sophomore or freshman.

FINDING FIFTY

► Junior linebacker Darryl Sharpton has been UM's most consistent tackler as of late, collecting 25 tackles the last three games (8.3 per game). Three weeks ago against Florida State, Sharpton had eight tackles (six solo, two assists), the next week against UCF he had seven tackles (four solo, three assists) and this past week against Duke he collected a season-high 10 tackles (five solo, five assists). In each of the last three games he has one tackle for a loss, including an eight-yard sack against UCF.

COUNTING COOPER

► Sophomore running back Graig Cooper has a team-high six touchdowns this season (four rushing, one receiving, one punt return). That total is the highest single season touchdown total at UM since 2005 when Tyrone Moss and Sinorice Moss scored 12 and six touchdowns respectively. Last season, Cooper led the team with five touchdowns, while in 2006, then-freshman Javarris James also led the 'Canes with five touchdowns. Benjamin ranks second on the team with four TDs (3 receiving, 1 rushing) thus far.

RED ZONE RESULTS

► The Hurricanes are a near-perfect 27-of-29 in the red zone on offense, converting 19 touchdowns and eight field goals this season. The 'Canes rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference with a 93.1 percent conversion rate. Florida State and Boston College rank in a tie for second in the league with a 92.0 conversion rate, with both teams converting 23-of-25 opportunities.

51

► UM's two longest plays from scrimmage this year resulted in a gain of 51 yards. Miami's longest run this year came when sophomore running back Graig Cooper broke through with a 51-yard touchdown run against Texas A&M on Sept. 20. A few weeks later against Florida State, Cooper was involved in the other big play when he connected with freshman wide receiver Travis Benjamin on a 51-yard touchdown pass against the Seminoles at Dolphin Stadium on Oct 4. UM's longest play overall this season came when Cooper scored on a 66-yard punt return against Charleston Southern in the season-opener.

2008 GAME NOTES

BEST BEHAVIOR

▶ Through head coach Randy Shannon's first 19 games at the helm of the University of Miami football program, the statistics have shown a drastic change in the Hurricanes' discipline on the field. For the first time in 14 years, Miami is on pace to have less penalty yards than its opponents this season. The last time the Hurricanes finished the season with fewer penalty yards than their opponents was 1994, when UM was penalized for 775 yards compared to 807 for its opponents. Last season, UM had just 11 more penalty yards than its opponent all season.

YEAR	PENALTY YARDAGE		+/-
	MIAMI	OPPONENTS
2008	346	392	-46
2007	622	611	+11
2006	805	507	+298
2005	841	626	+215
2004	736	584	+152
2003	1,027	766	+261
2002	1,055	517	+538
2001	944	687	+257
2000	887	609	+278
1999	783	544	+239
1998	822	670	+152
1997	820	661	+159
1996	675	384	+291
1995	739	722	+17
1994	775	807	-32

MULTIFACETED MATT

▶ Sophomore punter/kicker Matt Boshier is one of just a handful of players nationally that handles all of his team's field goals, punts and kickoffs. Despite the difficulty of taking on so many tasks, Boshier has been one of the best specialists in the ACC the first half of the season. He ranks third in the league in overall scoring (7.7 points per game) in addition to ranking third in punting (41.2), second in field goals (1.29 per game) and third in field goal percentage (90.0). He leads the league with 27 extra points and against FSU, he showed even more versatility in converting a crucial fake punt with a nine-yard run on a 4th-and-4 to keep a UM drive alive late in the contest. This past weekend against Duke, he booted a career-long 76 yard punt in the second half, forcing Duke into begin a drive at their own eight-yard line after UM punted from its own 11 and Duke was penalized five yards on an illegal return.

UNCOMMON SPENCE

▶ With the injury to regular starting linebacker Colin McCarthy, freshman linebacker Sean Spence has taken on an increased role the last three games and it is expected to remain that way the remainder of the season. Spence, who ranks fourth on the team with 33 tackles, has shown big play ability early in his career. His first career sack came against 2007 Heisman Trophy winner Tim Tebow, while his first career touchdown came a few weekends ago on a seven-yard interception return of a pass thrown by FSU's Christian Ponder. For the season, the Miami native also has four tackles for a loss as well as two pass break-ups.

LOCKER ROOM LEVERAGE

▶ Through Miami's first seven games, the Hurricanes are out-scoring opponents 137-to-62 in the first and third quarters combined. UM's most-effective quarter is the first, where it is out-scoring opponents 66-to-24, for an average of 9.4-to-3.4 heading into the second quarter. The 'Canes trail their opponents 33-50 in the second quarter before heading into the locker room at the half. When UM returns to the field for the second half however, the Hurricanes again have an edge over their opponents, out-scoring teams 71-38 in the third quarter, including a 21-7 edge over Duke last weekend after the Hurricanes trailed by three at the half.

TURNING POINT

▶ After creating just three turnovers its first four games, the Hurricanes returned to their usual ways against Florida State and UCF, forcing four turnovers (two interceptions, two fumbles) against the Seminoles and recovering a crucial fumble against UCF. FSU's Christian Ponder was picked off twice - once by senior cornerback Bruce Johnson (his first of the season) and once by freshman linebacker Sean Spence (his first career pick). A pair of FSU fumbles were also recovered by senior safety Ryan Hill (his second recovery this year) and redshirt freshman Adewale Ojomo (his first career). In addition to those turnovers, UM caused more havoc on special teams. Against FSU, UM forced botched punts that resulted in a safety on the first and better field position on the second and against UCF, the Hurricanes forced two more botches punts.

REVOLVING RECEIVERS

- ▶ Three Miami players - Freshmen Laron Byrd and Aldarius Johnson and junior Dedrick Epps - have caught a pass in six of UM's seven contests thus far.
- ▶ Johnson leads the team with 20 receptions thus far, while running back Graig Cooper ranks second with 13 despite not recording a catch in the first three games of the season.
- ▶ Following Johnson and Cooper, Epps ranks third with 13 catches while Kayne Farquharson and Thearon Collier each have 12 catches. Travis Benjamin continues to rise on the receptions chart, ranking sixth with 11 catches while fellow freshman Laron Byrd (10 receptions) gives the Hurricanes seven players with double-digit receptions.
- ▶ Leonard Hankerson is a catch away from double-digits with nine, and he is followed by Sam Shields (6), Derron Thomas (4) and Chris Zellner (4). Johnson leads the team in receiving yards (195) while Benjamin has a team-high three receiving touchdowns.
- ▶ Among 'Canes with at least five catches, Benjamin leads the group with a 15.8 yards per catch average.
- ▶ Johnson's eighty receptions against Duke was the most receptions in a game for a UM player since Greg Olsen had eight receptions against North Carolina on Oct. 7, 2006.

3 OUT OF 4

▶ This weekend's game against Wake Forest marks UM's third home game the last four weeks. After playing two of its first three games this season on the road, the Hurricanes began a three-game homestand against North Carolina on Sept. 27. The game against the Tar Heels was followed up by contests against Florida State (10/4) and UCF (10/11) at Dolphin Stadium before the team hit the road for its first ACC road game at Duke this past weekend (10/18). Miami's game against the Demon Deacons on Saturday marks the second-to-last home game for the Hurricanes this season, with the final home game coming next month on a Thursday night against Virginia Tech (11/13).

FOURTH DOWN FORTUNE

► Miami leads the country in fourth-down efficiency on offense among teams with at least 10 fourth down attempts this season. Tied with Pittsburgh and Utah at 80 percent, the Hurricanes have converted eight of 10 attempts. UM, Pitt and Utah sit in a tie for fifth overall in fourth-down offense, trailing Fresno State (6-for-6), Texas (5-for-5), Alabama (4-for-4) and Minnesota (8-for-9). The 'Canes also rank 11th nationally in fourth-down efficiency on defense among teams who have defended 10 or more fourth down attempts. The Hurricanes have stopped their opponents eight out of 12 times on fourth down through the season's first seven games.

FOR STARTERS

► Only six UM players have started all seven games this season. Four defensive players (Glenn Cook, Bruce Johnson, Darryl Sharpton and Steven Wesley) and two offensive players (Jason Fox and Xavier Shannon) have taken the first snap on their respective side of the ball heading into the Wake Forest game. Five players (Graig Cooper, Dedrick Epps, Orlando Franklin, Robert Marve and Anthony Reddick) have started six of seven contests thus far.

DON'T BLINK NOW

► When Miami's offense gets the ball in its hands, you better not get up out of your seat or you might miss something. Eighteen of UM's 25 offensive touchdowns this season have come on drives of three minutes or shorter, with nine of those 25 TDs coming in under a minute. In fact, UM's longest touchdown drive in terms of used game clock was a 4:28-drive resulting in a Shawnbrey McNeal one-yard rushing touchdown with 4:19 to play in the fourth quarter against Duke.

► The team's quick-strike ability was on display against Texas A&M in College Station, when three offensive TD drives lasted 35 seconds, 27 seconds and eight seconds respectively.

► Two weeks ago, UM had two touchdown drives of less than 30 seconds, with Travis Benjamin reaching the endzone on both. His first touchdown was the lone play of a seven second drive that saw him score on a run early in the second half. His second came on another one-play drive that lasted just 21 seconds with running back Graig Cooper hooking up with Benjamin on a 51-yard touchdown pass.

► Versus UCF, Miami recorded its third TD drive that lasted less than 10 seconds, with a one-play, five-yard touchdown run by Graig Cooper to secure the win for the Hurricanes.

► Of the seven touchdown Miami scored against Duke, five came in under 2:05 and four came in less than 1:20.

NFL LEAGUE LEADERS

The University of Miami has a number of players ranked in the Top 20 of many NFL statistical categories, but no category is more impressive than tackles, where four Hurricanes rank in the top 10 in the league and five rank among the top 20. D.J. Williams leads the league with 69 stops, Jonathan Vilma (63 tackles) is third, Nate Webster (56) is seventh, Jon Beason (52) is ninth and Ray Lewis (46) is 18th.

- Patriots safety Brandon Meriweather is tied for 5th in the league with three interceptions thus far.

-Portis (t-3rd) and Gore (t-10th) also rank in the Top 20 in touchdowns with seven and five respectively.

-Redskins linebacker Rocky McIntosh is tied for fourth in the league with two forced fumbles.

-Wayne and Moss are also tied for sixth in the league with four touchdown receptions.

MIAMI VS. THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

► The University of Miami is 33-18-1 all-time versus teams from the state of North Carolina. Since UM joined the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2004, the Hurricanes are 9-4 against teams from the Tar Heel State. Prior to two late season losses to N.C. teams last season, the Hurricanes had seven straight wins against the state from late 2004 to early last year.

► Before Miami joined the ACC, the 'Canes rarely faced teams from North Carolina, playing just four games against N.C. teams from the time Dennis Erickson took over the program in 1989 to the team's last year in the BIG EAST in 2003. Over that 15-year span, UM faced East Carolina three times and NC State once.

UM HIGHLIGHTS VERSUS WAKE FOREST IN 2005

► Despite playing in the same conference, the Hurricanes and Demon Deacons haven't faced each other since late in 2005, when Miami cruised past Wake, 47-17 on Nov. 12 in Winston-Salem. Below are some UM highlights from that contest:

- Kyle Wright had the best game of his career, throwing for 319 yards and five touchdowns
- Five different players caught a touchdown pass from Wright (Darnell Jenkins, Ryan Moore, Sinorice Moss, Greg Olsen, Lance Leggett).
- Charlie Jones led UM on the ground with two touchdowns and 90 yards on 17 carries
- Jon Beason had a team-high 12 total tackles (6 solo, 6 assists)
- Kenny Phillips and Rocky McIntosh each had 10 total tackles, a tackle for a loss and a fumble recovery
- Brandon Meriweather, Kelly Jennings and Lavon Ponder all had an interception
- Calais Campbell and Teraz McCray each had three tackles and a sack
- Kayne Farquharson had a game-high six catches for 46 yards and a touchdown
- UM out-gained Duke, 430-to-302

FOX IN THE FLAT

► Miami's anchor on the offensive line - left tackle Jason Fox - is one of a number of players on the UM roster that played multiple positions in high school. Fox, who stands 6-foot-7 and weighs 307 pounds, was recruited as an offensive lineman but also spent time as a tight end during his prep playing days. His versatility was on display late in the Florida State game when, after quarterback Robert Marve rolled right, Fox slid back behind Marve on the left side, caught a backwards pass, and ran it in for a five-yard touchdown.

MISSING MCCARTHY

► With junior linebacker Colin McCarthy out, Miami's defense suffered a serious blow. McCarthy, who played a key role the UM's first four games, leaves a big void in the linebacking core and maybe just as importantly, on special teams. No UM defender has more tackles than McCarthy over the last year-and-a-half, with the Clearwater native collecting 74 last season and 17 this year in UM's first four games. In addition to his play on the defensive side of the football, McCarthy had been a key contributor on special teams, setting several crucial blocks for UM return men on punt and kickoff returns.

GATORS, HEELS AND 'NOLES

► The Hurricanes three losses this season have come against teams with a combined record of 15-4. Six points are the difference between Miami's current 4-3 record and a possible 5-1 start for the Hurricanes. After a 26-3 loss at No. 5 Florida, UM dropped a pair of close battles with UNC (28-24) and FSU (41-39) to open ACC play but have since won their last two contests against UCF (20-14) and Duke (49-31). In the latest AP poll, Florida is ranked No. 5, Florida State is No. 24 and North Carolina is receiving votes just outside of the Top 25.

HURRICANES AT DOLPHIN STADIUM

► Miami is 5-2 all-time in games played in Dolphin Stadium. The 'Canes are 2-2 this season in their new home, with wins over Charleston Southern and UCF and a pair of losses to ACC foes North Carolina and rival Florida State. Before this season, the Hurricanes defeated Virginia, 31-21, in the Carquest Bowl in 1996; NC State, 46-23, in 1998 in the Micron PC Bowl and FSU, 16-14, in the 2003 Orange Bowl.

MIAMI LEADS THE NATION IN SCORES BY RETURNS THIS DECADE

► Since the turn of the century, only Virginia Tech has scored more touchdowns than Miami on various returns. The Hurricanes, tied with Virginia Tech three weeks ago, got an interception return for a touchdown by freshman linebacker Sean Spence against FSU to push the 'Canes one score ahead of the Hokies since 2000. This past weekend however, VT had two returns for a touchdown in a loss against Boston College, pushing the Hokies ahead by one this week. UM and Virginia Tech have three total returns apiece this year while Kansas State, owner of the nation's third highest return mark since 2000, already has seven this season. Here's the list:

TAKIN IT AWAY

► The University of Miami has always taken pride in creating turnovers. Since 2001, the Hurricanes have created at least 20 turnovers every season, including a national-high of 45 in 2001. During that seven-plus year span, UM ranks ninth nationally with 210 turnovers (28.7 per season through 2007).

LINEBACKERS ASSERTING THEMSELVES

► UM's current linebacking trio of senior Glenn Cook, junior Darryl Sharpton and freshman Sean Spence make up three of UM's top four tacklers through the season's first seven games. The group has combined for 120 tackles, or 28% of Miami's 426 total tackles this season.

► Cook leads the team with 45 total tackles (24 - UA, 21 - A) while Sharpton and Spence rank second and fourth with 42 and 33 total tackles respectively. Strong safety Anthony Reddick ranks in a tie with Sharpton for second on the squad with 42 tackles while cornerback Bruce Johnson rounds out the top five with 19. Linebacker Colin McCarthy, who has missed the last three contests, ranks sixth on the team with 18 stops. Spence had been a pleasant surprise coming off the bench in UM's first four games before starting the last three against FSU, UCF and Duke. So far this year he has recorded four tackles for losses (-16 yards), two pass break-ups, an interception returned seven yards for a touchdown against FSU and recorded a nine-yard sack of Florida quarterback Tim Tebow. Cook leads the team with seven tackles for a loss, three quarterback hurries and is one of five players, along with McCarthy, defensive end Eric Moncur, safety Lovon Ponder and corner Chavez Grant to force a fumble this year.

RUNNING WILD

► The University of Miami has developed a reputation as one of the top rushing teams nationally in recent years and this year appears to be no different. Through the season's first seven games, Miami is out-rushing its opponents 912-to-716 for an average of 130.2-to-102.3 per yards on the ground per game. This advantage is despite the fact that regular starting running back Javarris James had missed four-plus contests with a high-ankle sprain prior to returning in a limited role against Duke this past weekend.

► Sophomore Graig Cooper leads the team with 476 yards rushing and is second on the team with 623 all-purpose yards while Derron Thomas (106 - rush, 35 receiving) and James (90 - rush, 11 - receiving) rank sixth and eighth on the team in all-purpose yards. Cooper, who has two 100-plus yard performances on the ground this year vs. A&M and UNC, leads the team with six total touchdowns (four rush, one rec., one punt return) while sophomore Shawnbrey McNeal is second among running backs with two scores.

2008 GAME NOTES

UM IN THE POLLS

In 2007, the Miami Hurricanes were not ranked in either preseason poll (AP and USA Today/Coaches) for the first time since 1998. The Hurricanes have opened the 2008 season as an unranked team again but received votes in the most recent polls.

Here's how Miami has ranked in the AP preseason and final polls since 1983 (24 seasons):

Year	Preseason	Final
2008	UR	?
2007	UR	UR
2006	12	UR
2005	9	17

MORE RECEIVERS

▶ With the losses of wide receivers Darnell Jenkins (619 rec. yards) and Lance Leggett (238), UM returns only 25 percent of its receiving yards from 2007 (499 of 2,034). Sam Shields, Kayne Farquharson, Leonard Hankerson and Khalil Jones are the only four receivers on the roster to have caught a collegiate pass heading into the 2008 season, with Shields (847 career receiving yards) as the only one with more than 100 career yards coming into 2008 (former WR Ryan Hill - 182 career receiving yards - is now playing safety).

▶ Joining Shields, Farquharson, Hankerson and Jones is a talented freshman class, including Aldarius Johnson, Travis Benjamin, Laron Byrd, Thearon Collier and Davon Johnson.

▶ While only seven UM wide receivers caught a pass in 2007, the Hurricanes have surpassed that mark by three already this year. Johnson leads the team with 20 catches (for 195 yards), while Farquharson and Collier have 12 catches apiece.

YOUNG'S EARLY INFLUENCE

▶ New defensive coordinator Bill Young has the UM defense off to a strong start through the first seven games in 2008. Traditionally known for having one of the most athletically talented defenses nationally, Miami appears to be regaining some of its success Hurricanes' fans have become accustomed to the last three decades.

▶ Through UM's first seven games this season, the Hurricanes rank 20th nationally in rushing defense (102.29 ypg) and 21st in total defense (287.43 ypg). The Hurricanes also rank 24th in tackles for losses (6.86 pg) and 32nd nationally in first downs allowed per game (16.43).

▶ The 'Canes, after holding Charleston Southern to just 126 total yards of offense in the opener, shut down the fifth-ranked Gators' ground attack in Gainesville, holding 2007 Heisman Trophy winner Tim Tebow and the UF running game to just 89 rushing yards on 27 carries (3.29 ypc). In fact, the Miami defense held a strong Gators offense to just 18.85 yards per drive on UF's first seven drives of the contest.

▶ Against A&M, the Aggies gained just 87 yards on 35 carries for an average of 2.5 yards per carry.

▶ Versus UNC two weeks ago, the Hurricanes held the Tar Heels to just 35 yards on 33 carries (1.1 ypc). UNC running back Greg Little, who was averaging 60 yards rushing per game coming in, was held to just 38 yards while back-ups Ryan Houston and Shaun Draughn were held to just 18 and 13 respectively.

▶ UM's passing defense had a strong game against rival FSU two weeks ago, collecting two interceptions while holding the Seminoles to just 159 yards through the air.

▶ Versus UCF, the UM defense held the Knights to just 78 yards of total offense and sacked the UCF quarterbacks five times.

▶ Against Duke, Miami's defense forced the Blue Devils into seven punts, and held them to just six third down conversions on 17 attempts.

PLENTY OF FRESHMEN

▶ Take a look at UM's depth chart this week, and you'll see something you aren't accustomed to seeing a lot of at UM -- the abbreviation "Fr." Whether it be on offense, defense or special teams, a number of true freshmen are currently listed on UM's two-deep depth chart this week for the contest against UCF. In addition to names on the depth chart, it's certainly possible four or five more true freshman could see significant playing time at some point this season (16 true freshman were listed on UM's two-deep for the opener against Charleston Southern and 21 played).

COACHES AT THEIR ALMA MATERS

▶ Randy Shannon is one of 18 head coaches at their alma maters. The Hurricanes will face two coaches coaching at their alma maters this season in Virginia Tech's Frank Beamer and Virginia's Al Groh.

- Tom Amstutz - Toledo
- Chris Ault - Nevada
- Frank Beamer - Virginia Tech

HOPING FOR FRESHMAN DEJA VU

► Redshirt freshman quarterback Robert Marve will make his fourth career start against the Seminoles while true freshman Jacory Harris will serve as Marve's back-up and likely play. When Harris started UM's opener against Charleston Southern on Aug. 28, it marked the first time since the 1983 season that a freshman started the first game of the season. Redshirt freshman Bernie Kosar started the 1983 opener at Florida and finished his first collegiate game 24-of-45 for 223 yards and three interceptions as UF beat UM, 28-3, on Sept. 13, 1983 in Gainesville. Miami would go on to finish 11-1 on the season, winning its first national title.

NFL STARS

► Tune into nearly any NFL game on a Sunday or Monday, and you're likely to see several former Hurricanes excelling at the next level. No school in the country has as many former players in the NFL than the University of Miami, and that is evident by the number of current Pro Bowl players and Super Bowl champions that hail from "The U". The following list is the Top 15 performances by former UM players this past weekend in the NFL:

WEEK 7 STANDOUTS

1. Clinton Portis - Washington Redskins Running Back (vs. Cleveland)
 ► Had 27 carries for 175 yards and a touchdown in a three-point win over the Browns

2. Willis McGahee - Baltimore Ravens Running Back (vs. Miami)
 ► Rushed 19 times for 105 yards and touchdown in 14-point win over the Dolphins

3. D.J. Williams - Denver Broncos Linebacker (vs. New England)
 ► Finished with 15 total tackles and had a half a sack in loss to the Patriots on Monday night

4. Andre Johnson - Houston Texas Wide Receiver (vs. Detroit)
 ► Caught 11 passes for 141 yards against the Lions, his third straight 100-yard receiving game

5. Greg Olsen - Chicago Bears Tight End (vs. Minnesota)
 ► Finished with six catches and 74 yards and touchdown in win over the Vikings

6. Santana Moss - Washington Redskins Wide Receiver (vs. Cleveland)
 ► Caught four passes for 75 yards and a touchdown in win over the Browns

7. Brandon Meriweather - New England Patriots (vs. Denver)

 ► Finished with six total tackles from his cornerback position in win over the Seahawks

15. Kenny Phillips - New York Giants Safety (vs. San Francisco)
 ► Had five total tackles in win over the 49ers

PHILLIPS EXTENDS MIAMI'S UNPRECEDENTED STREAK

► The University of Miami extended its school record streak to 14 consecutive years in which a Hurricanes player was chosen in the first round of the NFL draft when junior safety Kenny Phillips was selected by the New York Giants with the 31st pick of the 2008 draft. Miami's streak of 14 straight years with a first-round draft choice is unprecedented in football history. The previous longest streak was nine straight years by the University of Florida (1983-91). The University of Miami's string began in 1995 when Warren Sapp was drafted in the first round. In the last 14 years, UM has had 33 players drafted in the first round of the NFL draft. Since 1982, Miami has had 50 players drafted in the first round of the NFL draft. Prior to 1982, only 11 UM players had ever been selected in the first round.

TRUE FRESHMEN ON TAP

► According to available information, Jacory Harris was the first TRUE freshman to start at quarterback in a season opener for the University of Miami in his collegiate debut versus Charleston Southern. Miami has 33 newcomers on its squad this season with a 2008 recruiting class ranked No. 1 in the country by ESPN.com. Of the 100 total players on the roster, the Hurricanes list 40 freshmen - 31 true freshmen and nine redshirt freshmen. Three true freshmen started for Miami in the season-opener in Harris, wide receiver Aldarius Johnson and linebacker Marcus Robinson. Overall, 21 true freshmen played in the season-opening game: Harris, Robinson, Aldarius Johnson (WR), Thearon Collier (WR), Jordan Futch (LB), Kendal Thompkins (WR), Laron Byrd (WR), Travis Benjamin (WR), Davon Johnson (WR), Andrew Smith (DL), Marcus Forston (DL), Gavin Hardin (DL), Brandon Harris (DB), Vaughn Telemaque (DB), Sean Spence (LB), Jeremy Lewis (DL), Joe Wylie (DB), Arthur Brown (LB), Micanor Regis (DL), John Calhoun (FB) and Cannon Smith (QB).

TWO NEW COACHES ON 2008 STAFF

► Randy Shannon's 2008 team has two new assistant coaches - defensive coordinator Bill Young and wide receivers coach Aubrey Hill.

► Bill Young, Defensive Coordinator - Young is a 39-year coaching veteran, with 21 seasons as a defensive coordinator. He has been a defensive coordinator at Tulsa, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Southern California and most recently at Kansas, where the Jayhawks finished the 2007 season 12-1 with a victory in the Orange Bowl over Virginia Tech with a defense that ranked 12th in the nation. Young also had a one-year stint in the NFL.

► Under Young's guidance, the 2007 Kansas defense ranked fourth nationally in scoring defense (16.3 points per game) and turnovers gained (35), eighth in run defense (94.8 yards per game) and ninth in pass efficiency defense (105.3). It featured All-American cornerback Aqib Talib. Young was defensive coordinator at Kansas for six seasons under Mark Mangini. In 2006, Kansas finished third in the Big 12 and 28th in the nation in rushing defense (109.0 yards per game), as it held four opponents to under 70 yards of rushing and limited all opponents to a fourth-down conversion rate of less than 25 percent. Young was defensive line coach with the Detroit Lions in 2001. Prior to his stint in the NFL, he worked three seasons as defensive coordinator at Southern California under Paul Hackett. While at USC in 1999, his defense led the nation in total takeaways and topped the conference in rushing defense and turnover margin (third nationally). His USC defense in 1998 was No. 1 in the Pac-10 in total defense, pass efficiency defense (third nationally) and scoring defense. It was also ranked second in the country in forced turnovers.

► In addition to his three years at USC, his stints as defensive coordinator came at Tulsa in 1983-84, Ohio State from 1988-95 and Oklahoma in 1996-97.

► During his 27 years in college coaching, Young has helped elevate 31 players to the NFL. Prior to his college coaching career, Young spent six seasons on the prep level at two high schools in Oklahoma. He played outside linebacker and defensive end at Oklahoma State from 1965-67 and led the Cowboys in interceptions in 1965. He was an academic All-Big Eight selection as a senior in 1967 and earned his bachelor's degree in education that year. He then went on to earn his master's degree in secondary education at Central Oklahoma in 1971. He is married to Lawana Young.

► Aubrey Hill, Wide Receivers Coach - Hill played and coached in Steve Spurrier's "Fun 'n Gun" offense at Florida. He was a standout receiver at Florida from 1991-94 before moving into the coaching ranks. He spent the last three years on the Pittsburgh coaching staff, where he tutored first-team All-Big East performers with Greg Lee in 2005 and Derek Kinder in 2006 and a freshman All-America in Oderick Turner in 2006. In 2004 Hill coached at NCAA I-AA Elon (N.C.) University as receivers coach. Prior to that he was the receivers coach at Duke for five seasons and also served in a pair of NFL coaching internships.

► As a player, Hill helped Florida to a four-year record of 43-10-1 (.806) and three SEC championships. He totaled 86 receptions and 18 touchdowns during his career and caught a touchdown every 4.78 catches, the third best TD ratio in Gators history. He was a team captain as a senior in 1994. Following his playing career, Hill served as a UF graduate assistant from 1996-98. In his first season as an assistant, UF captured the national championship with a 12-1 mark, capped by a 52-20 win over FSU in the Sugar Bowl.

► During his three years on the Florida staff, the Gators went a combined 32-5 (.865). Hill earned his first full-time appointment at Duke, where he served as receivers coach from 1999-2003. He was instrumental in the development of Scottie Montgomery, who finished his collegiate career ranked second in career receptions (171) and third in yardage (2,379) in Blue Devil annals. He supplemented his collegiate experience with a pair of NFL internships, including stints with the Washington Redskins (summer 2001) and Miami Dolphins (summer 2002). Hill was involved with receivers and special teams in both internships. Hill owns two degrees from Florida, including a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport sciences and a master's degree in leisure/sports management. He and his wife, Shanae, were married on July 4, 2008. He has a 16-year-old daughter, Destini.

UM OFFENSIVE LINE NOTES

In addition to having two game-changing players at the running back position in Javaris James and Graig Cooper, Miami is relying upon a big, experienced offensive line this season. Below are a few notes on the big guys up front for the Hurricanes this season:

- All five opening-day starters on Miami's offensive line weigh at least 300 pounds
- Four of Miami's five OL starters stand at least 6-5

UM Starting Offensive Line

LT	Jason Fox (Jr.)	6-7	306
LG	Orlando Franklin (Soph.)	6-7	334
C	Xavier Shannon (Sr.)	6-1	302
RG	Joel Figueroa (Soph.)	6-5	344
RT	Reggie Youngblood (Sr.)	6-5	317

UM Starters Average Height/Weight

6-5 321

For comparison.....

NE Patriots Starters Average Height/Weight

6-3 306

- Miami's second-string offensive line averages 6-4, 309 pounds
- Miami's top 10 offensive linemen all weigh over 300 pounds
- UM has four offensive lineman on its roster that weigh 330 pounds or more
- Sophomore OL reserve Ian Symonette is the biggest player on Miami's roster in both height (6-9) and weight (351)

ADKINS, HARRIS EARN ACC WEEKLY HONORS (Aug. 25-31)

► University of Miami football players Spencer Adkins and Jacory Harris earned Atlantic Coast Conference Weekly honors the week of Aug. 25-31. Harris earned Rookie of the Week honors after starting in his first collegiate game, completing 16-of-26 passes for 190 yards while accounting for two touchdowns – one through the air and one on the ground -- in leading Miami to a 52-7 win over Charleston Southern. Harris led the 'Canes to touchdowns on four of their first five possessions. He scored his first collegiate touchdown on a 30-yard run on the seventh play of the game and finished with 212 yards of total offense. Adkins and UNC's E.J. Wilson also earned co-Defensive Lineman of the Week honors. Adkins helped a UM defense that held CSU to 126 total yards and 49 rushing yards. Adkins tallied three solo tackles, two tackles for loss and recorded two sacks from his middle linebacker position.

COOK, MARVE EARN ACC WEEKLY HONORS (Sept. 15-21)

► University of Miami football players Glenn Cook and Robert Marve earned Atlantic Coast Conference weekly honors after the performances in UM's win at Texas A&M on Sept. 20. It is the second time this season the Hurricanes had a Rookie and a Defensive Lineman of the Week. Marve earned Rookie of the Week honors after earning his first career win as UM's starting QB. He made his second career start, he completed 16-of-22 passes for 212 yards and two touchdowns. He threw his first career touchdown with 20 seconds remaining in the first half – a 26 yarder to freshman receiver Thearon Collier - and later had a 16-yarder to Kayne Farquharson in the third quarter. Marve completed 13 of his first 16 passes. For the game, he completed 72.7 percent of his passes. Cook picked up a season-high nine tackles (three solo and six assisted) – one shy of his career-high and returned a fumble for a touchdown. It was his second career fumble return for a TD. He knocked the ball loose, picked it up and ran it back two yards for a touchdown in the third quarter giving the Hurricanes a 41-10 lead. He also had a half tackle for loss.

HARRIS EARNS SECOND ACC WEEKLY HONORS (Oct. 12-18)

► University of Miami freshman quarterback Jacory Harris has earned Atlantic Coast Conference Rookie of the Week honors announced by the league office Monday. It is Harris' second ACC weekly honor this season. Harris threw a career-high four touchdown passes and ran for another touchdown in helping Miami to a 49-31 road win at Duke. He completed 18-of-28 passes for 185 yards and rushed 10 times for 53 yards. He was the first Miami quarterback since Kyle Wright against Wake Forest in 2005 to toss four TDs. He also was the first Hurricane since Wright – in that same Wake Forest game - to account for five touchdowns in a game. His 6-yard touchdown pass to Aldarius Johnson in the third quarter put the Hurricanes ahead for good and was one of three touchdowns he led Miami to in that quarter.

JAMES ON MAXWELL WATCH LIST

► Junior running back Javaris James has been named to the 2008 watch list for the Maxwell Award presented to the outstanding collegiate football player in America since 1937 and is named in honor of Robert W. "Tiny" Maxwell. Semifinalists for the Maxwell and Bednarik Awards will be announced in early November and three finalists for each award will be announced on November 25.

MONCUR ON HENDRICKS WATCH LIST

► Senior defensive end Eric Moncur is on the preseason watch list for the 2008 Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award. Previous recipients of the Hendricks Award include: Terrell Suggs (Arizona State), David Pollack (Georgia), Elvis Dumervil (Louisville), LaMarr Woodley (Michigan) and Chris Long (Virginia).
 ► The Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award is named in honor of college football's first three-time first-team All-American. As a defensive end at the University of Miami, Ted used his agility, height and reach to block passes and kicks, force interceptions and pressure quarterbacks and running backs. He roamed the front line, read plays and blitzed on impulse, completely transforming the way the defensive end position was played. His professional career spanned 15 years and 215 consecutive games. It included four Super Bowl victories, eight Pro Bowl selections and inductions into the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame. It is in the spirit of Ted Hendricks' aggressive style of play, winning attitude and determination that the Defensive End of the Year Award for college football's premier defensive end is presented.

MIAMI FOOTBALL: A HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

► The 2008 season is Miami's 83rd season of competition on the football field. In the previous 82 seasons of play, Miami has posted winning records in 55 seasons. The Hurricanes have played for a national championship 10 times in postseason bowl games, winning five times. Since 1980, Miami has posted at least seven victories a year in 26 of 28 seasons, including 22 seasons of at least nine wins and has won at least 10 games in a season an outstanding 14 times since 1983, earning 11 victories a total of 11 times during that span. Miami has an all-time record of 549-307-19 (.635). Miami has an all-time home record of 369-169-14 (.681), including a final record of 319-142-7 (.689) in games played at the Orange Bowl, the Hurricanes' home field from 1937 to 2007.

2008 GAME NOTES

RANDY SHANNON VISITS THE MIDDLE EAST

► University of Miami Head football coach Randy Shannon was one of five college football coaches to participate in a seven-day Middle East tour May 20-26. The tour was a joint effort of Morale Entertainment and Armed Forces Entertainment.

Joining Coach Shannon on the trip were Mark Richt of Georgia, Tommy Tuberville from Auburn, Yale University's Jack Siedlecki and Charlie Weis of Notre Dame. The group gathered at Scott Air Force Base in Illinois before beginning their journey on May 20. The trip took them to Landstuhl Regional Medical Center in Germany, at sea aboard the USS Nassau, Al Udeid Air Base and Camp As Sayliaha in Qatar, the Naval Service Center in Bahrain, a U.S. Air Base at an undisclosed location in Southwest Asia and concluded with a visit with President George Bush at the White House on Memorial Day.

The tour was a first-of-its-kind for NCAA football and for Armed Forces Entertainment. The NCAA coaches participated in meet and greets at various bases, as well as coached flag football teams made up of servicemen and women.

Additionally, the head coaches hosted three symposiums, where the audience members ask questions. Coach Shannon was accompanied on the tour by UM Senior Associate Athletic Director Tony Hernandez.

THE CHRONICLES OF REDDICK

► Nearly four full years have passed since Anthony Reddick's Freshman All-American season came to a close in on Dec. 31, 2004. Since then, Reddick -- now a 22-year-old graduate of the University of Miami -- has played in just 14 games and started just seven the last three-plus years. Despite a number of injury setbacks over the years, Reddick has persevered and has started at safety in six of UM's first seven games this season. Reddick's freshman campaign in 2004 saw the Fort Lauderdale native collect 73 tackles, two blocked punts, one forced fumble, one sack and one interception. He collected a career-high 12 tackles twice that season (Louisville, Virginia Tech) and was named UM's Defensive Rookie of the Year (along with Romeo Davis). This year, he ranks second on the team with 42 tackles (including a team-high 28 solo stops). This past weekend against Duke, Reddick matched high career high with a team-high 12 tackles against the Blue Devils.

COOPER FOURTH AMONG NCAA FRESHMEN IN RUSHING IN 2007

► Miami running back Graig Cooper ranked fourth nationally in rushing among true freshmen in 2007. Interestingly, the freshman who led the country, Pitt's LeSean McCoy, was Cooper's teammate in 2006 at Milford Prep Academy. As backfield mates a year ago, Cooper rushed for 1,327 yards on 106 attempts, and McCoy gained 547 yards on 77 carries.

True Freshmen Rushing in 2007	Rush	Yds	Avg	TD
LeSean McCoy, Pittsburgh	276	1,328	4.8	14
Ryan Mathews, Fresno State	145	866	5.9	14
Nicholas Grigsby, Arizona	161	704	4.4	2
Graig Cooper, Miami	125	682	5.5	4

Freshman	Year	Att	Yds	Avg	TD
Clinton Portis	1999	143	838	5.9	8
Javarris James	2006	175	802	4.7	4

RECAPPING THE SPRING GAME

► Freshman linebacker Arthur Brown recorded a team-high eight tackles and added an interception as the defense defeated the offense, 32-29, in the annual University of Miami spring game at the BankUnited Canesfest March 29 at Fort Lauderdale's Lockhart Stadium in front of an estimated crowd of 11,000. Rising sophomore running back Graig Cooper led the offense with eight carries for 91 yards and two touchdowns. Cooper finished with 103 total yards of offense and ran for a 44-yard touchdown run. Running back Javarris James caught four passes for 60 yards and ran once for a 25-yard gain, but it was Miami's defense that came away winners behind its linebackers Brown, Darryl Sharpton and Sean Spence. Sharpton finished with five tackles and recorded three of the defense's six sacks. Spence intercepted two passes on the day. The scoring was set up so that the defense earned two points each for a three-and-out, interception, fumble and one point for a defensive stop before the offense crossed the 50-yard line. The Hurricane offense racked up 19 first downs in four eight-minute quarters and gained 364 yards - 141 rushing and 223 through the air. Redshirt freshman quarterback Robert Marve completed 10-of-22 passes for 93 yards. True freshman quarterback Jacory Harris finished the game 9-of-17 for 64 yards while freshman Cannon Smith had 66-yard completion to sophomore Shawnbrey McNeal.

CHARLESTON GAME RECAP

MIAMI VS. CHARLESTON SOUTHERN NOTES

► OFFENSIVE PRODUCTION... Miami's 52 points against Charleston Southern marked the highest offensive production in a season opener since a 63-17 win over Florida A&M on Aug. 31, 2002. It was also the most points scored and the largest margin of victory since a 52-7 rout of Duke on Oct. 8, 2005.

► CHANGING ZIP CODES... After 71 seasons in the Orange Bowl, UM's season-opener on Aug. 28 marked the debut of the Hurricanes in their new home - Dolphin Stadium.

► RUSH HOUR... Five different players scored five rushing touchdowns for Miami - the most since the Hurricanes had five rushing TDs in a 51-10 win over Florida A&M on Sept. 9, 2006. Jacory Harris, Javaris James, Graig Cooper, Derron Thomas and Shawnbrey McNeal all ran the ball in for a touchdown. Thomas' 5-yard touchdown run in the third quarter marked the second of the senior's career.

► DAZZLING DEBUT... Jacory Harris' 190 passing yards versus Charleston Southern are the most for a true freshman quarterback in their first start since Ken Dorsey threw for 194 yards in his first start against Rutgers in a 55-0 win on Nov. 20, 1999.

► STOPPING THE RUN... Miami's defense held Charleston Southern to 49 yards rushing - the least allowed by a Hurricane defense since holding Boston College to just 24 yards rushing in a 17-14 win on Nov. 23, 2006. The 126 yards of total offense by CSU were the fewest by a UM opponent since the 'Canes limited FIU to 114 total yards of offense in a 35-0 win on Oct. 14, 2006.

► COOPER TAKES IT TO THE HOUSE... Sophomore Graig Cooper's 66-yard punt return for a touchdown marked the first of his career. Cooper is the first Hurricane since Devin Hester against Temple on Oct. 15, 2005 to return a punt for a touchdown.

► GETTING ON THE BOARD... With the win over CSU, the Hurricanes improved to 194-21 when scoring first.

► FIRST IMPRESSIONS... Charleston Southern was one of two new opponents Miami is scheduled to face in 2008. With the CSU win, the Hurricanes improved to 92-56-2 (.620) in first-ever meetings, including nine straight wins in inaugural games. Since 1991, the Hurricanes are 14-1 in first meetings. UM will play UCF for first time on Oct. 11.

► SPREADING THE WEALTH... Eleven different players made a reception in the 52-7 win over Charleston Southern. It marked the most receivers in a game since 12 Hurricanes made a catch in a 31-28 loss to North Carolina on Oct. 30, 2004.

► START IT UP... Jacory Harris' 30-yard rushing touchdown on Miami's opening drive marked the first time in exactly five years that the Hurricanes scored a touchdown on their opening drive in their season opener. On August 28, 2003, Ryan Moore gave the Hurricanes the early lead with a 24-yard touchdown pass from Brock Berlin as Miami went on to win, 48-9, at Louisiana Tech.

► ONE-TWO PUNCH... With Javaris James' 7-yard rushing touchdown on UM's second drive of the game, the 'Canes posted a TD on their first two possessions of the season-opener for the first time since that 2003 season-opening win at Louisiana Tech. James has recorded a rushing touchdown in two-straight home openers for the Hurricanes, posting a career-high two in last season's 31-3 season-opening win over Marshall.

► ADD A THIRD AND FOURTH... With Graig Cooper's 14-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter, the Hurricanes scored a touchdown on their first four possessions of the game for the first time since a 34-3 win at Temple on Oct. 15, 2005.

GAME 1 - MIAMI 52, CHARLESTON SOUTHERN 7

THURSDAY, AUGUST 28, 2008 - DOLPHIN STADIUM, MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

ATTENDANCE: 48,119

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (AP) - Graig Cooper had a 66-yard punt return for a touchdown and rushed for another score, quarterback Jacory Harris accounted for two touchdowns and Miami moved into its new home with a 52-7 season-opening win Thursday night over Charleston Southern.

Javaris James rushed 12 times for 73 yards and a touchdown for the Hurricanes (1-0), who took full control with a 21-point first quarter, their highest-scoring period since Sept. 9, 2006 against Florida A&M. Derron Thomas and Shawnbrey McNeal also had touchdown runs for Miami, which outgained its outmatched opponents from the Football Championship Subdivision 416-126. It won't be so easy next weekend; the Hurricanes visit No. 5 Florida on Sept. 6. Tribble Reese threw for 81 yards, including a 2-yard touchdown pass to Tyrese Harris for Charleston Southern. Harris was 16-for-26 for 190 yards for the Hurricanes, who didn't score more than 37 points in any game last season and eclipsed that with ease Thursday - albeit against an opponent with just two winning seasons in its history.

It was Miami's highest-scoring game since Oct. 8, 2005, a 52-7 win over Duke. So by almost any measure, Miami's first home game in Dolphin Stadium went according to plan. The Hurricanes ended a seven-decade stay at the decrepit, decaying - and now destroyed - Orange Bowl last season, and were lured north to the Miami Dolphins' home field, replete with modern amenities like luxury suites, gargantuan video screens and the potential for up to $5 million in new revenue for the private school's coffers each year. Other than the orange-and-blue seats and baseball diamond, there was no proof that either the Dolphins or Florida Marlins played at the stadium, which drew 48,119 for the opener - roughly two-thirds its capacity.

The Dolphins' ring of honor for the likes of Don Shula and Dan Marino was covered, Miami's distinctive "U" logo shielded the entrance to the tunnels plus adorned the sidelines, and Hurricanes' flags flew on all sides along the outside of the facility. The game drew 48,119. The debut wasn't totally flawless, at least in the logistical sense. A long-standing Miami pregame tradition - running out of a giant inflatable helmet and onto the field - had to be scrubbed at the last minute when crews couldn't pump enough air to make it work. The Hurricanes ran through a green plastic tunnel instead, with puffs of their trademark white smoke filling the sky. Alas, that was the closest thing Miami had to a major problem all night.

Harris, a true freshman who started only because first-string quarterback Robert Marve was serving a one-game suspension for disciplinary reasons, opened the scoring with a 30-yard run on a fourth-down play 2:37 into the contest, and the points kept coming from there. James scored on a 7-yard run on the next possession, and Harris then hit Leonard Hankerson with a 7-yard TD pass that pushed the lead to 21-0. Cooper scored on a 14-yard run early in the second quarter, then blew past everyone for his first career return touchdown to give Miami a 35-0 lead with 13:24 left in the third. Reese scrambled right and made a desperate flip to Harris for Charleston Southern's score, which capped a 10-play, 66-yard drive. Thomas answered with a 5-yard run late in the third, restoring Miami's 35-point cushion, and McNeal capped the scoring with a 1-yard plunge with 2:33 remaining.

FLORIDA GAME RECAP

MIAMI VS. FLORIDA NOTES

► UM POINT TOTAL... Miami's three points were the fewest points in the series since Florida won, 18-0, in 1960.

► MARVE'S DEBUT... Redshirt freshman quarterback Robert Marve made his first career start tonight. Oddly enough, it was the second straight week that a freshman started at quarterback for the Hurricanes, which according to available records, is the first that Miami has ever started freshman quarterbacks in back-to-back games.

► FRESHMEN ON THE FIELD... For the second straight game, true freshmen were spotted all over the field the Hurricanes. Freshman defensive tackle Marcus Forston made his first career start. Ten true freshmen played against the Gators: Forston (DT), Brandon Harris (DB), Aldarius Johnson (WR), Vaughn Telemaque (DB), Jacory Harris (QB), Thearon Collier (WR), Sean Spence (LB), Kendal Thompkins (WR), Laron Byrd (WR) and Travis Benjamin (WR). Another three redshirt freshmen played Saturday night: Robert Marve, Adewale Ojomo (DE) and Chris Ivory (LS).

► MONCUR AND BAILEY RETURN... With 7:46 remaining in the first quarter, senior defensive end Eric Moncur and sophomore Allen Bailey made their first appearances of the season.

► GETTING GOING... Redshirt freshman quarterback Robert Marve completed his first career pass with 5:09 left in the first quarter. Marve's three-yard completion to Leonard Hankerson gave the Hurricanes a first down.

► BOSHER BOOTS CAREER LONG FG... Sophomore kicker Matt Boshier connected on a career-long 50-yard field goal with 12:51 left in the second quarter. It was Boshier's second career field goal. He kicked his first career field goal - a 22-yarder - in UM's win against Charleston Southern last week.

► WIDE RECEIVER NOTES... Senior wide receiver Kayne Farquharson caught a career-high three passes on the night. Fellow wide receiver Leonard Hankerson also tied a career-high with three receptions (set last week vs. Charleston Southern).

► PASSING GAME... Miami's 79 passing yards were the lowest since the Hurricanes passed for 56 yards against Georgia Tech, Oct. 13, 2007.

GAME 2 - NO. 5 FLORIDA 26, MIAMI 3
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 2008 - BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM, GAINESVILLE, FLA.
ATTENDANCE: 90,833

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) - - Tebow was good early and even better late, throwing two touchdown passes and helping the fifth-ranked Gators snap a six-game losing streak against Miami with a 26-3 victory Saturday night at The Swamp. It was Florida's first win since 1985 in the on-again, off-again series. The rebuilding Hurricanes (1-1), three-touchdown underdogs, hung close for three quarters. But Tebow and speedster Percy Harvin took over late and erased three quarters of frustration against Miami's improved defense. Florida's defense was stout all night, holding the Hurricanes to 140 total yards.

"Our defense played outstanding," Gators coach Urban Meyer said. "I thought they played great."
 So did Tebow. The Hurricanes pressured the junior with every snap, forcing him to scramble and make early, sometimes off-balance throws. Still, he finished 21-of-35 passing for 256 yards and two TD passes. He also ran 13 times for 55 yards. Harvin, who missed last week's opener while recovering from offseason heel surgery, ran five times for 27 yards.

"We can do much more with him and we will," Meyer said.
 Robert Marve, making his first career start for Miami, was 10-of-18 passing for 69 yards and was sacked three times.
 "We can build a lot of things off this game," Miami coach Randy Shannon said. "That's the one thing that we're excited about. They see where we can get better, and they also know we were able to play with a top-five team in this country and we had a shot. That's all you want is a shot, a chance on the road, hostile environment and we had that opportunity. But we have to capitalize on it next time."

Florida, whose two scores in the first half came off Miami miscues on special teams, led 9-3 to start the fourth quarter. But Tebow, Harvin & Co. finally found their rhythm, putting together consecutive drives of 86 and 95 yards to put the game away. The Gators, who finished with 345 total yards, took advantage of two favorable calls to score the first of the two late touchdowns. Tebow hooked up with Carl Moore for a 28-yard gain on third-and-9, putting the Gators at the 5-yard line. Moore was initially ruled out of bounds, but officials reviewed the play and said Moore's elbow touched down before his feet landed out of bounds.

"That was the play of the day," said Meyer. "That kind of changed momentum."
 Three plays later, on another third down, Miami's Randy Phillips was flagged for pass interference against Harvin. It gave the Gators a first-and-goal at the 2. Harvin took a pitch from Tebow on third down and outran several defenders for the score. Phillips insisted the pass to Harvin was not catchable and should not have been flagged.

"No way," he said. "But the ref made the call, so that's what we've got to live with. Chalk it up, play some more, bounce back."
 Florida's next drive was the most impressive of the night, a five-play, 95-yarder that sealed the victory. Tebow found Louis Murphy - yes, the guy who spouted off about Florida being better suited than Miami to be referred to as "The U" - in the corner of the end zone for a 19-yard strike. Jonathan Phillips added a 29-yard field goal with 25 seconds to play for the final score.

Florida might not have even scored in the first half had Miami not made two errors on special teams. Matt Boshier shanked a punt on the team's opening drive, a 14-yard kick that gave the Gators great field possession. Tebow made easy work of the short field, directing a 35-yard drive on five plays and giving Florida a 7-0 lead with a 14-yard touchdown pass to Hernandez.

Miami then sucked the energy out of Florida Field - most of the record 90,833 in attendance were clad in orange and blue - with a 16-play drive that took 8:42 off the clock and kept Tebow on the sideline. It ended with a field goal, but gave the Hurricanes plenty of confidence they could play with the Mighty Gators. Nonetheless, the Gators added to their lead with another special teams blunder. Miami left Jeff Demps, one of the fastest players on the field, to rush unblocked at Boshier. Demps blocked the punt, and Murphy nearly recovered for a touchdown, but couldn't hang and the ball trickled out of bounds for a safety and a 9-3 advantage.

"The ball didn't fall our way," Marve said. "We had some plays we left out there on the field. The offense, the numbers might not look great, but we did move the ball. Then we'd get stuck."

TEXAS A&M GAME RECAP

MIAMI VS. TEXAS A&M NOTES

► COOP... Sophomore running back Graig Cooper ran for two touchdowns in the first quarter, which was a career-high. Cooper's 51-yard touchdown run also was a career-long rushing touchdown. It was Miami's longest rushing touchdown since Tyrone Moss had a 50-yard TD run against Virginia Tech on Nov. 4, 2006. Cooper also collected his third career 100-yard rushing game (128 yards on 16 carries) and Miami's first since Javarris James ran for 103 yards on 13 carries against NC State last season (Nov. 3, 2007).

► MORE COOP... Graig Cooper's 128 yards on the ground set a new personal career-high for single-game rushing yards. His previous career-high of 116 was set against Marshall on Sept. 1, 2007 in his first collegiate game.

► FOR STARTERS... A few Hurricanes made their first starts of the season: senior Tyrone Byrd (right tackle), senior Chris Rutledge (right guard) and freshman Laron Byrd (wide receiver). It was Tyrone Byrd's and Laron Byrd's first career starts and Rutledge's first career start at guard.

► BIG PLAYS... Miami had five explosive plays in the first half and eight for the game against Texas A&M. An "explosive play" is a run of 18-plus yards or a pass of 20-plus yards, and that is a key factor in the team's success. In 2007, Miami only had four or more explosive plays in a game four times – the high of five coming against Duke and FIU. Here were the 'Canes' big plays:

- Kayne Farquharson – 29-yard completion (1st quarter)
- Graig Cooper – 19-yard rushing TD (1st quarter)
- Graig Cooper – 51-yard rushing TD (1st quarter)
- Kayne Farquharson – 21 yard completion (2nd quarter)
- Derron Thomas – 34-yard run (2nd quarter)
- Thearon Collier – 26-yard touchdown recept. (2nd quarter)
- Dedrick Epps – 36 yard reception (3rd quarter)
- Thearon Collier – 25-yard reception (3rd quarter)

► FIRST TIME SCORERS... Redshirt freshman QB Robert Marve threw his first career touchdown with 27 seconds to go in the second quarter to freshman Thearon Collier. It was also Collier's first career touchdown reception. He almost had a second one, but he had a 66-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter called back due to a penalty. Marve's second touchdown pass went to Kayne Farquharson with 6:36 left in the third quarter.

► ON THE ROAD... Graig Cooper's 19-yard rushing touchdown with 12:56 in the first quarter was the first time Miami scored on its opening possession on the road since a Jon Peattie 38-yard field goal at Georgia Tech on Oct. 28, 2006. UM actually scored first in the game on Glenn Cook's 19-yard fumble return with 14:34 on the clock.

- The 24 first-half points by the Hurricanes were the most since UM put up 30 points at Wake Forest on Nov. 6, 2005.
- The last time Miami scored at least 40 points was in a 47-17 win at Wake Forest on Nov. 6, 2005.

► PICKING IT OFF... Senior defensive end Eric Moncur picked up Miami's first defensive turnover and his first career interception. Miami had a fumble recovery on a muffed punt against Charleston Southern for the Hurricanes only turnover before today's game.

► A LITTLE DEJA VU... Senior linebacker Glenn Cook forced a fumble, recovered it and returned it for a two-yard touchdown with 5:43 left in the third quarter. Cook also had a fumble recovery for a touchdown back on Oct. 28, 2006 at Georgia Tech, which also was the last time Miami scored on its opening offensive drive.

► COOK COMES UP BIG... Senior linebacker Glenn Cook recorded nine total tackles (three solo, six assists), which is the highest tackle total of any Miami defender this season. Cook's nine total tackles fell just one short of his career-high of 10 set against Duke on Oct. 21, 2006.

GAME 3 - MIAMI 41, TEXAS A&M 23

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 2008 - KYLE FIELD, COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS

ATTENDANCE: 84,165

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) - Robert Marve threw two touchdown passes and Graig Cooper ran for career-high 128 yards and two scores as Miami picked apart Texas A&M's defense in a 41-23 rout Saturday.

Marve, a redshirt freshman making his second career start, completed 16 of 22 passes for 212 yards. The Hurricanes (2-1) piled up 398 yards on 57 plays - an average of 6.98 yards per offensive snap - and handed A&M its worst nonconference defeat at Kyle Field since a 30-10 loss to Alabama in 1988.

The Hurricanes gained 261 yards in the first half on Saturday. The Hurricanes had 12 first downs on 28 plays in the first half and led 24-10 at the break.

The Hurricanes took less than two minutes to score. Marve threw a 29-yard pass to Kayne Farquharson on Miami's first offensive play and three snaps later, Cooper scored on a 19-yard run.

Miami's next possession was more of the same. After Marve threw an 11-yard pass to Sam Shields, Cooper ran untouched for a 51-yard touchdown. Miami gained 121 yards on its first six plays.

Freshman Richie Bean kicked a 38-yard field goal to pull Texas A&M to 14-10 late in the first quarter.

Derron Thomas started Miami's next drive with a 34-yard run. Marve took a hard hit from A&M linebacker Von Miller and left the game after throwing a pass to Farquharson. Freshman Jacory Harris replaced Marve and Matt Boshier kicked a 20-yard field goal for a 17-10 lead.

Miami's Travis Benjamin returned a punt 44 yards to the Aggies' 41 in the final minute of the half. Marve returned and found Thearon Collier wide open in the end zone with 20 seconds remaining.

Early in the third quarter, Marve threw a 36-yard pass to Dedrick Epps as the Aggies continued to blow coverages and miss tackles. The pass set up another short field goal by Boshier that put Miami up 27-10.

Defensive lineman Eric Moncur made a one-handed interception on Johnson's next pass at the Texas A&M 15.

Marve immediately threw a touchdown pass to Farquharson with 6:36 left in the third quarter to make it 34-10.

On the second play of A&M's next possession, Miami linebacker Glenn Cook swatted the ball out of Johnson's hands as he was being sacked, recovered the fumble and trotted into the end zone to make it 41-10.

NORTH CAROLINA GAME RECAP

MIAMI VS. NORTH CAROLINA NOTES

► STOPPING THE RUN... The Hurricanes kept the Tar Heels to just 35 yards rushing for a 1.1 yard per carry average. Miami's defense had kept opponents to just 2.4 yards per carry entering today's game, while North Carolina's offense had averaged 6.1 yards per carry entering the game.

► PASSING LANE... Kayne Farquharson caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Robert Marve with 11:02 remaining in the opening quarter to help the Hurricanes take the early 7-0 lead. It marked the second-straight game in which Marve and Farquharson have connected for a score.

► FAST STARTS... With that Farquharson TD today, the Hurricanes have scored on their opening drives in three of four games this season and in two straight.

► CAREER BEST... With a four-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to Aldarius Johnson - putting the Hurricanes ahead 24-14, Robert Marve threw for a career-high three touchdowns in today's game to three different receivers (Farquharson, Cooper, Johnson). It also marked Johnson's first collegiate touchdown. It is also the most touchdown receptions for the Hurricanes since a 35-0 win over Florida International on Oct. 14, 2006, when Kyle Wright had three touchdown passes.

► SUPER COOPER... Graig Cooper's 11-yard touchdown with 39 seconds remaining in the opening quarter marked his season-high fifth touchdown in four games this season. In 11 games last season, he recorded five. With 110 rushing yards today, Cooper notched his second-straight 100-yard rushing game and the fourth of his career. He ran for 128 yards at Texas A&M last week.

► IN THE ZONE... Including today's 4-5 effort, the Hurricanes are a near-perfect 14-of-16 in the red zone on offense this season. UM has converted 10 touchdowns and four field goals. Entering today's game, Miami led the ACC with a 90.9 percentage.

► AT THE HALF... The Hurricanes have outscored their opponents 72-26 during first-half play this season. Entering today's game, opponents are averaging just 130.7 yards of total offense in the opening half. Miami limited North Carolina to 87 yards of total offense in the first half, including just 19 rushing yards.

► ACC OPENERS... With today's loss, the Hurricanes fall to 2-3 in ACC openers and 3-2 in ACC home openers. The Hurricanes had won three-straight ACC home openers entering today's game. Today's loss also marks the first defeat of the Hurricanes at Dolphin Stadium, moving Miami to 4-1 all-time and 1-1 this season at Dolphin Stadium. It marked Miami's first September loss to an unranked opponent since Sept. 25, 1999, when the Hurricanes fell to an unranked East Carolina, 27-23.

GAME 4 - NORTH CAROLINA 28, MIAMI 24

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2008 - DOLPHIN STADIUM, MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

ATTENDANCE: 35,830

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (AP) - Cameron Sexton threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Brooks Foster with 46 seconds left, Trimane Goddard had two interceptions in the final minutes, and North Carolina rallied from an early 14-point deficit to beat Miami 28-24 on Saturday.

Sexton - playing because North Carolina starter T.J. Yates will miss six weeks with a broken left ankle - relieved starter Mike Paulus early and completed 11 of 19 passes for 243 yards, including two fourth-quarter scores. He found Hakeem Nicks with a 74-yard pass with 9 minutes remaining, then coolly found Foster in the right corner of the end zone in the final minute to give North Carolina (3-1, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) its first lead of the day.

Miami had one more chance, getting the ball at its own 31. Robert Marve found Kayne Farquharson for a 29-yard gain that took the Hurricanes to the North Carolina 20 with 15 seconds remaining. Marve nearly hooked up with Farquharson again on the final play of the game, but Goddard's second pick of the quarter sealed the Tar Heels' win. Farquharson had his hands on the ball in the end zone, yet Goddard was the one who wound up with possession.

Marve threw three touchdown passes for Miami (2-2, 0-1), and Graig Cooper rushed for 113 yards plus had a receiving TD for the Hurricanes, who lost to the Tar Heels for the second straight season.

A year ago, Miami almost pulled off a stunning comeback against North Carolina, nearly rallying from a 27-0 halftime deficit. This time, the Tar Heels showed the Hurricanes how to pull one of those off.

Down 24-14 midway through the fourth quarter after Marve connected with Aldarius Johnson on a 4-yard touchdown pass, the Tar Heels went to work. Nicks caught the ball ahead of a diving Bruce Johnson for the first North Carolina touchdown of the final quarter, seeming to stun the Hurricanes a bit, and then Sexton delivered the perfect touch pass at the end.

It was a stirring turnaround, especially considering how the game started.

The Hurricanes needed only eight plays to go 89 yards - with Cooper rushing three times for 60 of them - on the opening drive, capped by Marve finding Farquharson with a 9-yard touchdown pass. A special-teams blunder by the Tar Heels later in the opening quarter gave Miami a two-touchdown edge. North Carolina punter Terrence Brown dropped a snap, fell on the ball at the Tar Heels 11, and the Hurricanes quickly capitalized. Marve lofted the ball to Cooper on a middle screen that resulted in an 11-yard TD for a 14-0 lead. Miami made it look easy in the first 15 minutes, outgaining North Carolina 127-24, limiting the Tar Heels to minus-4 yards rushing and less than two yards per play.

Suddenly, everything that went right in the first quarter suddenly stopped for Miami.

Greg Little's 8-yard run early in the second quarter helped draw North Carolina within 17-7 at halftime, and Ryan Houston scored from 2 yards out midway through the third to draw the Tar Heels within 17-14.

FLORIDA STATE GAME RECAP

MIAMI VS. FLORIDA STATE NOTES

- ▶ AND SO WE MEET AGAIN... The game marked the second meeting between the Hurricanes and Seminoles in Dolphin Stadium. Miami was victorious in the previous meeting, 16-14, to win the 2003 Orange Bowl. Despite today's loss, the Hurricanes continue to lead the all-time series 30-23 and fall to 1-1 versus the Seminoles in Dolphin Stadium.
- ▶ MAKING IT TO THE PROS... Miami leads all schools with 46 players currently in the NFL, followed by Florida State in second place with 37.
- ▶ OCTOBERFEST... Since 2000, the Hurricanes are 24-7 during the month of October, including a 7-2 mark during the first week of the month. UM has gone 7-5 in October ACC games since joining the league in 2004. Miami still owns the 9-8 edge over FSU in October games this century.
- ▶ SUNSHINE STATE OPPONENTS... The Hurricanes have won 16 of their last 20 games versus Sunshine State opponents since 2000, including a 10-2 mark at home.
- ▶ CLOSE CALLS... History has favored the Hurricanes in close games in the UM-FSU series. When a game is decided by four points or fewer, Miami is 10-3 versus FSU, with those three losses coming in 2008, 2006 and 2005.
- ▶ I'LL TAKE THAT... True freshman Sean Spence recorded his first career interception and returned it seven yards for his first career touchdown in the fourth quarter to bring Miami within a touchdown of Florida State with 11:23 remaining in the game. It was Miami's second interception of the season.
- ▶ IT'S ALL ABOUT THE BENJAMINS... True freshman Travis Benjamin recorded a career-high two touchdowns this afternoon - the first of his career on an 18-yard run in the third quarter and his second on a career-long 51 yard reception from running back Graig Cooper later in the same quarter. Also forcing opponents to take notice on special teams, Benjamin had a career-long 57 yard kickoff return in the second quarter today and added a 42-yard return in the third quarter. For the game, he returned six kickoffs for 185 yards - the best performance by a Miami kick returner this season. He finished today with 274 all-purpose yards.
- ▶ MULTI-TALENTED... Graig Cooper's 51-yard touchdown pass to Travis Benjamin in the third quarter marked the first of his career. The last time a non-quarterback threw for a Miami touchdown was a 26-yard TD pass from kicker Francesco Zampogna to DajLeon Farr on Oct. 20, 2007, in UM's 37-29 win at Florida State. Also out of the norm, Miami punter Matt Boshier ran for his first first down with a nine-yard run in the fourth quarter.
- ▶ THAT'S A FIRST... Offensive lineman Jason Fox recorded the first touchdown of his career with a five-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.
- ▶ A RUSH TO VICTORY... Since 1988, the team that rushes for more yards in this series has won the game 17 of 22 times. At the half, FSU had 172 yards to Miami's 14 and went on to victory with a total of 281 rushing yards on 54 carries to just 51 rushing yards on 14 carries by UM.
- ▶ TAKE THAT... Adewale Ojomo recovered the first fumble of his career in the third quarter on a Christian Ponder fumble.
- ▶ WRAP 'EM UP... Sean Spence recorded a career-high six tackles (five solo, one assisted) by the end of the first quarter and had 10 tackles for the game (seven solo, three assisted). The freshman's previous high was five tackles at No. 5 Florida. Darryl Sharpton and Anthony Reddick posted a season-high eight tackles (six solo, two assisted) apiece.
- ▶ FIRST-ROUND PICK... Bruce Johnson made his first interception of the season and the second of his career, picking off a Christian Ponder pass in the endzone during Florida State's first series today. It is the second interception this season by the Hurricanes.
- ▶ TAKE THAT... Adewale Ojomo recovered the first fumble of his career in the third quarter on a Christian Ponder fumble.
- ▶ CAREER BEST... True freshman Aldarius Johnson had a career-long reception of 27 yards in the fourth quarter, finishing with a career-high 55 yards on five receptions.
- ▶ IN THE ZONE... Including today's 3-4 effort, the Hurricanes are a near-perfect 17-of-20 in the red zone on offense this season.

GAME 5 - FLORIDA STATE 41, MIAMI 39

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4, 2008 - DOLPHIN STADIUM, MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

ATTENDANCE: 65,786

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (AP) - Antone Smith rushed for a career-best four touchdowns, including a game-clinching 20-yarder with 3:57 remaining, and Florida State wasted most of an early 24-point lead before hanging on to beat Miami 41-39 on Saturday.

Smith - who scored three TDs last week - finished with 92 yards on 27 carries for the Seminoles (4-1, 1-1 ACC), who handed Miami its second straight home loss on a stormy afternoon. Christian Ponder ran for 144 yards, becoming the first Florida State quarterback since Charlie Ward in 1992 to run for triple-figures, and Tony Carter made two interceptions for the Seminoles.

Travis Benjamin had an 18-yard touchdown run on an end-around, caught a 51-yard TD pass from running back Graig Cooper, and finished with 274 all-purpose yards for Miami (2-3, 0-2), which has lost 12 of its last 15 conference games. The Canes trailed 24-3 at the half and 31-10 in the third quarter, then closed to within 34-32 with 8 minutes remaining. Two botched snaps on FSU punts led to Miami points, Sean Spence ran an interception in for a touchdown and the Hurricanes seemed poised for what would have been an enormous rally.

But Smith sealed the win with a third-down run up the middle, giving coach Bobby Bowden just his 14th win in 34 games all-time against Miami. Smith's other scoring runs were for 2, 19 and 5 yards, part of Florida State's 281-yard rushing day as a team. Ponder completed 14 of 31 passes for 159 yards for Florida State, including a 15-yard score to Greg Carr, and looked at ease in his first taste of the Seminoles-Hurricanes rivalry.

Miami quarterback Robert Marve, meanwhile, was 17-of-40 for 122 yards and two interceptions. And still, the Hurricanes nearly pulled it off. Left tackle Jason Fox rushed for a 5-yard touchdown with 14 seconds remaining, but the onside kick was controlled by the Seminoles, as a downpour made it difficult from one sideline to see the other. Ponder knelt for the final play, and the Seminoles began leaping in celebration - knowing they just dealt their biggest league rival a huge blow.

Florida State scored the game's first 24 points and wound up holding a 440-256 edge in total yards, largely because of Ponder's running ability. He had nine carries for 107 yards by intermission; in the previous 13 meetings between the teams, FSU quarterbacks ran for a combined 111 yards on 99 attempts. It looked like a mismatch. The first of Carter's interceptions set up Smith's opening score, and the Seminoles just kept rolling. When Graham Gano connected on a 53-yard field goal, the Seminoles had a 24-0 lead with 1:07 left in the half.

An odd decision followed, giving Miami some life. Florida State tried a short kickoff after the long field goal, giving Miami possession at its own 48. The Hurricanes only got a field goal out of it on the final play of the half, but to coach Randy Shannon, that 28-yard kick by Matt Boshier was huge.

"That's a real confidence booster," he said, trotting off the field. Seemed like it. Of course, Florida State's penchant for self-destruction didn't hurt, either. Smith fumbled early in the third quarter deep in Florida State territory, and Benjamin scored on the next play to give Miami some life. A high snap on a punt gave UM a safety, Benjamin gave the Canes great field position on the ensuing kickoff, and Cooper hit him with a perfect pass for a trick-play TD that drew the Hurricanes within 31-22.

Miami hadn't had an interception return for a touchdown since 2003, but with 11:23 left, Spence - playing in place of injured linebacker Colin McCarthy - caught a deflected pass and rumbled seven yards to make the score 34-29, and Boshier got Miami within two points with a field goal three minutes later.

But FSU went back to what worked - Ponder and Smith running right at Miami, to put the game away.

UCF GAME RECAP

MIAMI VS. UCF NOTES

▶ GETTING DEFENSIVE... Miami's defense held UCF to four yards rushing and just 78 yards of total offense. The four rushing yards is the lowest total allowed since Sept. 4, 2006 when UM held Florida State to one yard rushing on 25 carries. The 78 yards of total offense is the least allowed since Nov. 20, 1999 when Rutgers recorded just 64 yards of total offense.

▶ CARRYING THE LOAD... Miami sophomore running back Graig Cooper recorded a career-high 23 carries for 90 yards against UCF. His previous high for carries was 19 versus North Carolina earlier this year.

▶ MORE ON COOPER... Graig Cooper's five-yard TD run in the fourth quarter marked his team leading six touchdowns of the season (four rushing, one receiving, one punt return). The six touchdowns are the most in a season for a Hurricane since 2005 when Tyrone Moss and Sinorice Moss scored 12 and six touchdowns respectively.

▶ SACK ATTACK... Miami recorded five sacks against UCF marking a season-high for the Hurricanes. The previous high for Miami was three (Charleston Southern, Texas A&M).

▶ HOME COOKING... Miami senior linebacker Glenn Cook tied a career-high with 10 tackles against UCF matching his total against Duke in 2006.

▶ IT'S ALL ABOUT THE BENJAMINS... True freshman Travis Benjamin recorded his third career touchdown in the first quarter, a 25-yard TD reception from Robert Marve. Benjamin, who scored his first two touchdowns against Florida State, has now recorded three of Miami's last five offensive touchdowns and three of Miami's last six touchdowns overall.

▶ FIRST IMPRESSIONS... Today's game marked the first meeting between Miami and UCF. The Hurricanes are now 15-1 since 1991 when facing a school for the first time.

▶ OCTOBERFEST... Since 2000, the Hurricanes are 25-7 during the month of October.

▶ SUNSHINE STATE OPPONENTS... The Hurricanes have won 17 of their last 21 games versus Sunshine State opponents since 2000, including a 11-2 mark at home.

▶ IN THE ZONE... Miami scored on its lone trip to the UCF red-zone against UCF. The Hurricanes are a near-perfect 20-of-22 in the red zone on offense this season.

▶ FIRST QUARTER DOMINANCE... Miami has dominated the opening quarter at Dolphin Stadium this year. The Hurricanes shutout UCF 10-0 in the first quarter marking the third time in four home games that the Hurricanes have shutout an opponent at home in the opening quarter. Miami has outscored its opponents 45-7 in the opening quarter at home this season.

▶ BARNEY SEES FIRST ACTION... Junior offensive lineman Chris Barney (No. 79) saw his first action of the season on Matt Boshers' first quarter field goal. The Miami Northwestern graduate had been sidelined with a leg injury.

▶ INT FOR TD... UCF's Johnell Neal returned an interception 62-yards for a touchdown marking the first UM opponent to return a INT for touchdown since Toddrick Verdell (FSU) in 2007. It also marked the longest INT for TD since Dec. 7 2002 when Virginia Tech's Willie Pile returned an interception 96-yards for touchdown in a 56-45 Miami victory.

GAME 6 - MIAMI 20, UCF 14

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 2008 - DOLPHIN STADIUM, MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

ATTENDANCE: 40,011

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (AP) - Graig Cooper had a career-high 23 rushes for 90 yards, including the clinching touchdown after a muffed punt return late in the fourth quarter and Miami pulled out a sloppy 20-14 victory over Central Florida on Saturday to snap a two-game losing streak.

Robert Marve found Travis Benjamin with a 25-yard touchdown pass in the opening quarter for Miami (3-3), off-setting part of a three-interception day for the Hurricanes' starting quarterback.

Miami's defense simply overwhelmed the Knights, forcing Central Florida (2-4) into a school-record 12 punts and only allowing 78 yards.

Joe Burnett had a 91-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, Shar'eff Rashad had two interceptions and Johnell Neal returned one of Marve's turnovers for a Central Florida TD.

The Knights were poised to get the ball back trailing 12-7 with 5 1/2 minutes left, but Burnett - major college football's active career leader in punt returns - dropped the ball at his own 16, Sam Shields recovered for Miami at the 5, and Cooper rushed in on the next play. Jacory Harris ran in the 2-point conversion, and Miami had what seemed like a safe 20-7 lead.

Before Cooper's TD, the teams had gone 24 combined possessions without an offensive point.

The ensuing kickoff was nullified by a penalty against Miami's DeMarcus Van Dyke, giving Burnett chance to redeem himself. He took advantage, going 92 yards for a touchdown and making the score 20-14.

The Knights had one more chance, but on fourth-and-4 from the Miami 36 with 1:52 left, Rob Calabrese's pass for Brian Watters was knocked down by Miami's Darryl Sharpton, and the Hurricanes ran out the clock.

Central Florida came in with 10 interceptions this season, tied for third-best in the nation, and th Knights padded those stats quickly. Marve threw an interception to Rashad on the game's opening drive.

Miami escaped that one unscathed, but wasn't so lucky with the second.

Marve telegraphed a pass toward Benjamin, Neal stepped in front and went 62 yards for a score that drew the Knights within 10-7.

It didn't get easier for Marve, whose third interception came 27 seconds before halftime. He went into the half having completed only 4 of 11 passes for 40 yards, most on the score to Benjamin.

The halftime stats were baffling. Miami outgained Central Florida 168-42, held nearly a 2-to-1 edge in time of possession, allowed Calabrese to connect on just 4 of 18 passes (including eight straight incompletions in one stretch), forced seven punts and blocked one of them - yet still led by only a field goal.

Central Florida had chances, plenty of them.

The Knights started three possessions in Miami territory in the game's first 15 minutes, and not only didn't score on any, managed zero yards in those series.

And late in the third quarter, the Knights wasted another golden opportunity.

Still down 10-7, Burnett stood at midfield and got drilled by Shields before the ball arrived, costing the Hurricanes a 15-yard penalty. But Central Florida managed minus-5 yards before kicking the ball away once again, the Knights' 11th punt in the first three quarters.

DUKE GAME RECAP

MIAMI VS. DUKE NOTES

► FOR STARTERS... Junior defensive back Ryan Hill made his first career start at safety. Hill switched back to defensive back in 2008 after playing wide receiver in 2007. He began his career in the defensive backfield in 2006. Also making his first career start was wide receiver Thearon Collier, who started in the slot for the Hurricanes. -Also, redshirt freshman Jermaine McKenzie made his first appearance as a Hurricane with 14:30 to go in the fourth quarter.

► SWEET 16... Freshman wide receiver Davon Johnson caught his first career touchdown with 3:10 left in the first quarter becoming the 14th different Hurricane and sixth true freshman to reach the end zone this season. Right before halftime, senior tight end Chris Zellner became the 15th different Hurricane to catch a touchdown. It was Zellner's fourth career touchdown reception. Freshman receiver Laron Byrd then became the 16th different Hurricane to score this season when he caught his first career touchdown with 10:59 to play in the fourth quarter.

► DON'T BLINK NOW... The Hurricanes continued its quick strike ability against Duke. Eighteen of UM's 25 offensive touchdowns this season have come on drives of three minutes or shorter, with nine of those 25 TDs coming in under a minute. UM's longest touchdown drive in terms of used game clock was a 4:28-drive resulting in a Shawnbrey McNeal one-yard rushing touchdown with 4:19 to play in the fourth quarter against Duke.

► JAVARRIS RETURNS... Junior running back Javarris James made his return to the Miami lineup with 12:37 left in the second quarter. James had missed the previous four games with a high ankle sprain.

- Also returning for the Hurricanes was senior right tackle Reggie Youngblood, who had missed the last two games for Miami.

► RED ZONE CANES... Miami's success in the red zone continued against the Blue Devils. The Hurricanes moved to 27-of-29 in the red zone on offense, converting 19 touchdowns and eight field goals.

► RUNNIN' HARRIS... Freshman quarterback Jacory Harris' 15-yard touchdown run was his second TD run of the season. Harris' first career touchdown as a Hurricane was a 30-yard rushing TD against Charleston Southern.

► BOSHER'S BOOT ... Sophomore punter Matt Boshers' 76-yard punt in the third quarter was the fourth-longest punt inschool history. Boshers' previous career-long was a 75-yard punt against Virginia Tech in 2007, which was the previous fourth-longest punt in UM history.

► THIRD QUARTER CANES ... Miami put up 21 points in the third quarter against the Blue Devils, which was the third time this season that the Hurricanes have scored at least 14 points in the third quarter this season. UM has outscored opponents, 71-38, in the third quarter this season.

► HARRIS' FOUR... Freshman quarterback Jacory Harris threw a career-high four touchdown passes against Duke, which was the first time a Miami QB has thrown four touchdown passes in a game since Kyle Wright threw four at Wake Forest on Nov. 12, 2005.

► ON THE ROAD... Graig Cooper's 19-yard rushing touchdown with 12:56 in the first quarter was the first time Miami scored on its opening possession on the road since a Jon Peattie 38-yard field goal at Georgia Tech on Oct. 28, 2006. UM actually scored first in the game on Glenn Cook's 19-yard fumble return with 14:34 on the clock.

► MORE POINTS... Today's victory marks the 78th straight win for Miami when the Hurricanes score 40 or more points. UM's last loss when scoring 40 or more points came on a 45-47 loss to Boston College in 1984. Here are some other notes on UM's 49-point performance today:

- The 24 first-half points by the Hurricanes were the most since UM put up 30 points at Wake Forest on Nov. 6, 2005.

- The last time Miami scored at least 40 points was in a 47-17 win at Wake Forest on Nov. 6, 2005.

- Miami's 49 points was its highest point total against an Atlantic Coast Conference opponent since a 52-7 home win against Duke on Oct. 8, 2005.

► CHRONICLES OF REDDICK... Senior safety Anthony Reddick tied a career-high with 12 total tackles (7 solo, 5 assists) today. It was the most tackles Reddick has recorded since reaching the 12-tackle mark on two occasions in 2004 (vs. Louisville 10/14 and vs. Virginia Tech 11/17).

GAME 7 - MIAMI 49, DUKE 31

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18, 2008 - WALLACE WADE STADIUM, DURHAM, N.C.

ATTENDANCE: 32,011

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) - Jacory Harris threw four touchdown passes and ran for another, accounting for three third-quarter touchdowns to lead Miami past Duke 49-31 on Saturday.

The freshman took over for starter Robert Marve in the second quarter and became the first Miami quarterback to both throw for four scores and account for five TDs since 2005, when Kyle Wright did it against Wake Forest.

Harris finished 18-for-28 for 185 yards with two interceptions to help the Hurricanes rally from a 10-point deficit, outscore the Blue Devils 35-14 in the second half and outduel childhood friend Thaddeus Lewis.

The Duke quarterback - a Miami native who once taught Harris how to play the position - was 12 of 28 for 130 yards with two touchdown passes and also ran for a score, but fell to 0-3 as a starter against his hometown team.

Miami (4-3, 1-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) rolled up 420 yards in claiming its 78th straight win when scoring at least 42 points - a string that dates back to the "Hail Flutie" loss to Boston College in 1984 - but for much of the way, this one was anything but a rout.

Duke (3-3, 1-2) took a 24-14 lead early in the third quarter before Harris took over, capping a three-play, 69-yard drive with a 15-yard keeper that pulled them within three.

Then, he put them up for good with less than 3 minutes left in the quarter, finding Aldarius Johnson from 6 yards in the corner of the end zone over safety Glenn Williams to make it 28-24.

Harris threw a 25-yard touchdown to Travis Benjamin on Miami's next possession, then added a 10-yard TD toss to Laron Byrd in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach.

Earlier, he had a 9-yard touchdown toss to Chris Zellner with 11 seconds left in the first half.

One of his few mistakes helped Duke match its largest lead - two plays after Adrian Aye-Darko's second interception of the game, Lewis threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Raphael Chestnut to push the Blue Devils' lead to 10 - but it was all Harris and the Hurricanes after that.

Lewis, whose previous two losses to Miami came by an average of 7 1/2 points, also threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to Clifford Harris and ran 1 yard on a bootleg for a TD for the Blue Devils. Backup Zack Asack ran 2 yards for a touchdown with 12 seconds left for Duke.

Marve, who made his sixth straight start, was 4-for-7 for 64 yards with a 17-yard touchdown pass to Davon Johnson in just over one quarter of work. He was pulled early in the second after Aye-Darko intercepted his poorly thrown deep ball.

The Blue Devils hoped to draw inspiration from their pregame walk to the stadium that took them through Cameron Indoor Stadium, where the basketball team held its annual Blue-White scrimmage and where Hall of Fame coach Mike Krzyzewski shook each players' hand.
