In his 20th season at Miami, no other program nor head coach, has qualified for the College World Series as much as Morris and his Hurricanes. Miami, which has qualified for the NCAA Tournament an NCAA-record 40 consecutive years, has made it to Omaha in 11 of Morris' 19 seasons in Coral Gables. Morris set an NCAA record for guiding a program to the CWS in each of his first six years at UM. In addition, Morris won a record 13 consecutive NCAA Regionals from 1994-2006.

• Morris has directed the Hurricanes to a 885-342-3 (.720) mark since arriving in 1994. Including his 12 seasons at Georgia Tech (1982-93), Morris has forged a 1,389-609-4 (.694) Division I record in 31+ years as a head coach. Overall, Morris has been the head coach at the collegiate level for 34 seasons, spending the first four at DeKalb (Ga.) C.C. (now Georgia Perimeter College) from 1976-79, and has recorded a 1,519-648-4 (.700) mark

• In addition to carrying on Miami's great baseball reputation in the last 19 years, Morris personally led the charge in the construction of Alex Rodriguez Park, and logged hundreds of hours raising funds for the stadium project.

MORRIS IS A REGIONAL REGULAR

• Jim Morris earned his 28th consecutive NCAA regional bid in 2012 when he guided the Canes to one of 16 host sites for the first round of the postseason. He has led Miami to a regional in each of his 19 seasons (1994-2012), winning 15 of his last 19 appearances. The 13 consecutive regional championships (94-06) was an NCAA record. He also went to nine straight regionals from 1985-93 with Georgia Tech. Additionally, Miami has advanced to nine Super Regionals under Morris.

• Affectionately known as "3" by those surrounding the UM program, Morris led the 2012 Hurricanes to their 40th-straight NCAA Tournament. Five players from the 2012 team were selected in last year's Major League Baseball Draft: E.J. Encinosa, Eric Erickson, Steven Ewing, Peter O'Brien and Stephen Perez.

MORRIS IN 35th SEASON AS A COLLEGE COACH

• Morris currently has a 1,389-609-4 (.694) record at the Division I level. As a head coach overall, he has compiled a 1,519-648-4 (.700) record over 30-plus years.

• Jim Morris notched his milestone 1,000th win against his former school, Georgia Tech, with a 16-13 win on April 4, 2004. Thirteen days later, he notched win No. 500 at Miami with a 7-3 win against Florida State on April 17. Morris' 1,000th win as a head coach, including four years at DeKalb Junior College, came in a 5-3 win over Northeastern on March 23, 2001.

• Morris entered 2013 as the fifth-winningest active coach in Division I baseball history with 1,354 wins. His impressive win total ranks him No. 12 all-time for any coach, regardless of division.

• Including his time at DeKalb C.C., Morris won his 1,500th game as a head coach in Miami's 4-1 upset of No. 1 North Carolina on March 15, 2013 in Chapel Hill, N.C.

JIM MORRIS MAKING HISTORY

• The only coach in NCAA history to take a school to the College World Series in each of his first six years at a program. Morris has gone to Omaha with Miami in 11 of 19 seasons and led the Canes to 13 straight NCAA Regional Championships, an NCAA record.

• Boosted by its newest recruiting class, Miami's infield defense has been one of the brightest spots in 2013. The Canes finished the regular season ranked sixth in the ACC at .970%.

• The Hurricanes' 2013 infield features four newcomers: freshmen David Thompson & Christopher Barr on the corners, junior second baseman Alex Hernandez and freshman shortstop Brandon Lopez. Junior Brad Fieger completes the cast of regulars.

• The impressive play of the Hurricanes infield was the catalyst for a majority of the team's 51 double plays - the second-most turned by any team in the conference.

• Miami has allowed just 31 stolen bases this season - the second-fewest of any team in the conference.

HEATING UP...

• No Hurricanes enters the postseason hotter than freshman slugger David Thompson, who is hitting .409 over his last six games. Over that span, the third baseman leads the team with nine hits, 10 runs, three doubles, three homers and 10 RBI. Thompson has reached base in 22 consecutive games.

• Senior outfielder Chantz Mack, who bursted onto the scene in Greensboro, N.C., to record 2012 All-ACC Championship honors, is hitting .345 over the past ten games with 10 hits, 11 runs scored, 11 walks and five steals.

• Senior righthander Eric Whaley, who was also recognized with All-ACC Championship Team honors in 2012, has not given up an earned run since a March 29 outing against UVa, a stretch spanning 10 straight appearances and 18.1 innings.

PENCHANT FOR THE POSTSEASON...

• Seniors Chantz Mack and Eric Whaley were both named to the All-ACC Championship Team at the conclusion of the 2012 tournament in Greensboro, N.C.

• Mack hit 6-for-15 (.400) in four starts at NewBridge Bank Park in 2012, including two doubles, one triple, one homerun and five RBI.

• Whaley was one of two pitchers to be recognized with the honor in Greensboro after delivering a 129-pitch gem against Wake Forest. He allowed one earned run in eight innings.

TAKE A BOW...

• During the team's 11-7 win in game two of its series with Georgia Tech, the recipients of the annual Miami Hurricanes baseball awards were announced and recognized in on-field celebration.

• Freshman David Thompson, who finished the season ranked first on the team with six homeruns and 42 RBI's, took home the 2013 Rookie of the Year Award as well as the Homerun Champion Award.

• Senior Chantz Mack also earned two trophies: the 2013 Bob Werner Award, honoring the teammate who best exemplifies the qualities of a winner, as well as the Arnold Novins Award, voted on by Miami baseball fans. Mack was named one of two team captains prior to the start of the 2013 season.

• Sophomore Chris Diaz captured the 2013 Ron Fraser Award, given annually to the team's top pitcher. The sophomore lefthander, who started every Friday night game for the Hurricanes in 2013, finished the season ranked second in the ACC in ERA.

Remembering "The Wizard of College Baseball"

The Hurricanes dedicated the 2013 season in memory of former head coach Ron Fraser, who passed away before the season after a battle with Alzheimer's Disease.

Miami has taken special steps to remember "The Wizard of College Baseball," who helped guide the Hurricanes to over 1,200 wins and two national championships in his storied 30-year tenure as head coach.

During a special tribute night against Milwaukee on Feb. 23, head coach Jim Morris called for the "Grand Illusion," a trick play for which Fraser became instantly famous after the 1982 College World Series. A new outfield banner portraying the legendary coach was also unveiled by Fraser's wife Karen, his three daughters and five grandchildren during the game.

The Hurricanes are wearing patches in remembrance of Fraser; #1 patches adorn the right breast of each and every jersey, while #1 decals have been placed on the back of each player's batting helmet.

A commemorative home plate painted on the field with the number 1, Fraser's retired jersey number, remained alll season. Fraser is one of 11 former Hurricanes players and coaches to have had their numbers immortalized.

HOME FIELD: ALEX RODRIGUEZ PARK at MARK LIGHT FIELD

Renovations to Alex Rodriguez Park were thanks in large part to a $3.9 million contribution by the New York Yankees' third baseman. The official announcement of his gift was made on Oct. 10, 2002.

Alex Rodriguez Park took form in a three-phase process:

• Phase I called for seating modifications, new dugouts, new stadium lighting and utility infrastructure and new restrooms.

• Phase II entailed renovating below the grandstand area and adding new concession areas.

• The final phase included adding a new clubhouse, weight room, training room, meeting room, video room and academic area. In addition, a new press box – along with four VIP suites – have been built atop the grandstand. This past offseason, addition seating was added down both lines while a new scoreboard was constructed in left field.
