The Owls play for the first time since a 79-77 overtime victory over Ohio State on Dec. 6. It was FAU's first ever win over a Big Ten program.

FAU took a foreign tour to the Bahamas over the summer. The trip lasted five days and the team played three games in that time. Video of the trip can be found on FAUsports.com.

Clemson transfer Adonis Filer tied his career high with 23 points and had the game sealing steal in the Owls' win over the Buckeyes.

After playing primarily on the inside as a freshman, Jeantal Cylla has seen more time on the wing this season and scored a season-high 15 against Ohio State.

Justin Massey appeared in 29 games with 11 starts as a freshman at FAU, averaging 7.4 points and 3.0 rebounds. He transferred to Brown after the season, but soon returned to FAU. He will be eligible to return to the court after the fall semester.

William Pfister won a NJCAA national championship at Northwest Florida State College.

Nick Rutherford was the Owls' starting point guard all last season and he provided leadership both on and off the court. Rutherford hit the game-winner against Ohio State.

Oklahoma transfer Frank Booker is eligible this season after sitting out last year. He adds depth and experience to a Owl backcourt that lost three players from last season. Booker is averaging 8.9 points per game.

Devorious Brown was a First Team All-Region selection and won two state titles and had a runner up finish at Morgan County High School playing alongside Jailyn Ingram.

Marcus Neely joins the Owls on the court after sitting out last season. He appeared in 49 games over the course of two seasons at UNC-Asheville.

Gerdarius Troutman averaged 13.5 points per game and was a second team All-Georgia State Collegiate Athletic Association selection at Gordon State. Troutman scored 20 points in the Owls' game against SIUE earlier this year and is averaging 9.3 points so far this season.

Jailyn Ingram was Georgia's 3A Player of the Year as a senior. He won two state titles and had a runner up finish at Morgan County High School playing alongside Devorious Brown and also was a highly sought after football recruit. Ingram was named C-USA Freshman of the Week after scoring 16 points in a win over USF earlier this season and is averaging a team-high 13.7 points since entering the starting lineup.

Jordan Phillips was an all-conference selection at Sand Creek High School in Colorado.

Jesse Hill had a career high 22 points vs. UCF last season and will provide size and perimeter shooting to the Owls' lineup.

Auburn transfer Ronald Delph has emerged as a reliable post presence for the Owls. The seven-footer from Winter Haven is averaging 10.9 points and 9.5 rebounds per game. Delph was named to the Outrigger Rainbow Classic all-tournament team.

Despite having eight new additions to the active roster, the Owls return nearly 60 percent of last year's scoring and 63 percent of last year's rebounding.

FAU Head Coach Michael Curry
Record at FAU: 20-50
Third Season

Michael Curry was named FAU head men’s basketball coach on April 7, 2014. Curry, who played for seven NBA teams during an 11-year career and also previously served as head coach of the Detroit Pistons, is the eighth coach in FAU program history.

“On behalf of the Florida Atlantic University community, I am thrilled to welcome Michael and his wife Katrina to the FAU family,” said FAU President John Kelly. “His background as a player and coach is impressive, as is his experience as a leader off the basketball court. I have no doubt that our basketball program is on the verge of tremendous success under Michael’s direction.”

Curry brings to FAU more than 20 years of basketball experience as a coach, player and front-office executive. Immediately prior to FAU, he served as associate head coach (2010-13) for the Philadelphia 76ers, where he was part of Doug Collins’ staff. Curry, who carved his NBA playing niche on a Collins-coached Pistons team (1993-94), focused his attention on the team’s defense which was critical in the 76ers’ 2011-12 playoff run to the Eastern Conference semifinals. In both 2010-11 and 2011-12 the team had a top-five ranked defense.

“I am excited to join the FAU family,” Curry said. “I look forward to the opportunities this presents to my family and I’m excited about the future of FAU men’s basketball.”

Prior to Philadelphia, Curry served as the Pistons’ head coach in 2008-09 following one season as a Detroit assistant. He joined the Pistons organization after a two-year stint at the NBA, where he served as vice president, player development for the NBA Development League and later as vice president of basketball operations. He is also a former president and vice president of the National Basketball Players Association’s Executive Board.

“Michael brings an extraordinary set of professional experiences to our university,” said Director of Athletics Pat Chun. “Most importantly, he has a profound understanding of the purpose of intercollegiate athletics. He cares about the development of student-athletes academically, athletically and socially. Michael will create a culture of leadership and excellence in our program as well as build the family atmosphere that our team, university and community desire. Michael’s passion for teaching, mentoring and coaching will carry our program to new heights.”

FAU is Curry’s his first collegiate head coaching stop. In his initial class, Curry was able to sign a class that included Clemson transfer Adonis Filer.

Curry’s first season was highlighted by wins over East Carolina, UCF and C-USA regular season champion UAB. His second year at the helm included a win over Louisiana Tech in which the Owls overcame a 24-point second half deficit and was capped off by the Owls’ first neutral site win in their conference tournament since the 2002 season.

A collegiate star at Georgia Southern University, Curry served as the team’s captain from 1988-90 and has continued to be heavily involved with Georgia Southern. He was inducted into the Georgia Southern Hall of Fame in 2001, earned the key to the City of Augusta, Ga. - where he played in high school - in 2002, was named among Georgia Southern Alumni of the Year in 2005, had his jersey retired in 2006 and has served on the Georgia Southern Foundation Board of Trustees since 2006. The gym at Curry’s High School, Glenn Hills, was named in his honor in 2014. In 2015, Curry was inducted into the Augusta City Classic Hall of Fame. Curry earned his Master of Science in recreation, parks and sports leadership from Virginia Commonwealth University and his bachelor’s degree in business administration/finance from Georgia Southern.

Curry played in the NBA for the Indiana Pacers (2004-05), Toronto Raptors (2003-04), Detroit Pistons (1996-97, 1999-2003), Milwaukee Bucks (1997-1999), Washington Bullets (1996-97), Philadelphia 76ers (1993) and the Sacramento Kings (1992).

Michael and Katrina are the proud parents of sons Deon, Michael Jr, and daughters Ashley and Crysten.
