BLAKE JAMES
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
 MINNESOTA STATE -
 MANKATO, 1992

Since taking over as the University of Miami's Director of Athletics in 2013, Blake James has transformed The U, spearheading significant advances in all aspects of the department, including postseason appearances, student-athlete support, facility upgrades, ticket sales, broadcast capabilities and academic achievement.

Miami's recent success continues to garner both James and UM national recognition. This past summer, James concluded a two-year term as Chair of the NCAA Division I Council, the group responsible for the day-to-day decision-making for all of Division I Athletics. This year he was one of five nominees for the 2019 SportsBusiness Journal Athletic Director of the Year. In 2017, James was selected as one of four Division I recipients of the 2016-17 Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year award from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

In the most recent academic year, Miami continued to achieve excellence both on and off the field. Hurricane student-athletes earned four Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year honors, 68 All-ACC selections, 11 individual ACC titles and 35 All-America accolades. Two Hurricanes captured individual NCAA championships – Michelle Athlerley in the women's indoor pentathlon and Estela Perez-Somarriba in women's tennis. Two UM divers – David Dinsmore and Briadam Herrera – placed second at the NCAA Championships. Miami has now captured five NCAA individual championships, six ACC team titles and 62 individual ACC titles since James became Director of Athletics.

James has always placed a strong emphasis on academics and community outreach during his six-plus years as Miami's Director of Athletics. A record 200 UM student-athletes made the 2017-18 ACC Honor Roll. In the most recent Graduation Success Rate figures released by the NCAA, Miami student-athletes posted a GSR mark of 90 percent. Nine programs were recognized for perfect single-year scores of 1,000 in the 2017-18 Academic Progress Report (APR). In addition, six of those programs – men's and women's cross country, golf, men's and women's tennis and volleyball – earned perfect multi-year scores of 1,000 for the four-year period from 2014-15 to 2017-18.

In 2018, Hurricane student-athletes ranked first among all Division I schools in the NCAA Team Works Helper Helper Community Service Competition and posted another Top 10 finish in 2019 – logging more than 3,600 hours of service.

On the development front, the Hurricane Club continues to support UM's student-athletes and coaches in record numbers. The Hurricane Club raised more than $16 million in 2018-19 and now boasts a record 12,500 members, an increase of 140 percent since 2010. Philanthropic annual fund gifts increased to $5.9 million in 2018-19 and the Hurricane Club secured 10 seven-figure leadership gifts.

In August 2018, the new, state-of-the-art Carol Soffer Indoor Practice Facility opened for use. The $40-plus million facility encompasses not just indoor practice fields for football, but also new football coaches offices, new football reception and recruiting areas, weight room renovations and new coaches offices for golf, rowing, soccer and volleyball.

During James' tenure, Miami has completed several other facility enhancements, including the opening of the Schwartz Center for Athletic Excellence; the completion of the student-athlete training table, fueling station and dining hall; new artificial and natural playing surfaces and lights on the Greentree Practice Fields; a center-hung scoreboard inside the Watsons Center; renovations to the men's and women's basketball offices at Watsons Center; renovations to the Hecht Athletic Center; and a new videoboard for the Neil Schiff Tennis Center.

In 2018, UM set a record for season tickets sold at Hard Rock Stadium (46,738) and also posted the school's highest average attendance at Hard Rock Stadium (61,469). Since James took over as athletic director, football season ticket sales have increased 101 percent. From 2015-18, men's basketball tickets sold out for three consecutive seasons for the first time in school history.

In addition, Miami has built its broadcast, communications and marketing departments into one of the nation's leaders in digital media and video production. Miami has continually ranked at the top of the conference in number of live ACC Network Extra broadcasts each year as it gears up for the launch of the new ACC Network, which debuts in August. James was also instrumental in helping Miami strike one of the largest apparel deals in the country with adidas.

Prior to being named AD, James served Miami Athletics in the roles of Interim AD and Senior Associate AD for Development and Ticket Operations, where he oversaw the day-to-day operations of development, ticket sales and ticket operations. He also was a member of the Hurricanes' senior staff and provided sport supervision.

James returned to UM after spending seven years at the University of Maine, where he first served as Senior Associate Athletic Director before serving as Director of Athletics from 2005 to 2010. During his tenure at Maine, athletics experienced tremendous success, including three trips to the Frozen Four for the men's ice hockey program and NCAA playoff berths for football, baseball (two), women's basketball and softball. James implemented a comprehensive $17 million facility improvement plan at Maine, which included an indoor practice facility and numerous other facility upgrades and renovations. Academically, the program flourished, earning the conference academic cup twice and student-athletes maintaining a 3.0 GPA or above.

Prior to his stint at Maine, James worked in athletic development at Providence College, where he established the "Friars Forever" campaign and the Friar Athletic Fund.

James is no stranger to South Florida, beginning his athletic career with UM, working in ticket sales, corporate sales and athletic development. In 1995, he was hired as Miami's Director of Ticket Sales, serving in that capacity until 1997, when he was named an athletic development officer at the University of Nebraska. He returned to Miami in 1998 as the Director of Major Gifts and Corporate Sales and was promoted to the Director of Athletic Development at Miami in 2000 before moving on to Providence in 2002.

James graduated from Minnesota State University - Mankato with a Bachelor's degree in Marketing in 1992, and later received his Master's degree in Sports Administration from St. Thomas University in 1994. He and his wife, Kelly, have two children -- daughter, Haley, and son, Ryan.

MANNY DIAZ

HEAD COACH | FIRST SEASON AT MIAMI (1ST OVERALL) | 6-6 (.500)

Manny Diaz, who has deep roots in the Miami community and catapulted the Hurricane's defense to elite status during his three years as the team's defensive coordinator from 2016-2018, was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program on Sun., Dec. 30.

"Manny is one of the nation's elite coaches and the Canes Family has already embraced him and his incredible work ethic over the past three years," said UM Director of Athletics Blake James upon his hiring. "He is absolutely the passionate and innovative leader that our program needs, and we will work together to build an incredible staff to move our program back into championship contention."

The Hurricanes finished 6-6 in Diaz's first year at the helm in Coral Gables, accepting a bid to the 2019 Walk-On's Independence Bowl. The Hurricanes, who finished 4-4 in ACC play, saw three players selected to the All-ACC First Team in tight end Brevin Jordan, linebacker Shaquille Quarterman and defensive end Gregory Rousseau - who was also named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and a second-team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

In addition to his all-conference selection, Rousseau was named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year after a 14-sack season as a redshirt freshman.

Diaz, who has an impressive resume during nearly two decades as a defensive specialist coaching several collegiate programs, accepted his dream job of leading a Hurricanes team he believes is destined to return to the top echelon of collegiate football in the years to come.

"Miami is home. The University of Miami is home. The U has truly been 'the job' for me since I first got into coaching," said Diaz. "Having worked here over the past three years, I came to understand what it means to be part of 'The U' and came to appreciate the passion and commitment to excellence of all who proudly call themselves Canes. We will restore the football program to its place among the nation's elite and we will do it with hard work, dedicated coaches, and outstanding student-athletes. I'm excited about working with Blake and his team to make that happen."

During his 19-year coaching career, Diaz, the son of a former Miami mayor, also named Manny Diaz, has coached in 18 bowl games, amassing a 13-5 record in bowls, and has coached numerous all-conference and NFL players at six collegiate institutions.

Miami delivered another stellar season on defense in 2018. The Hurricanes ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense and ranked No. 1 in several categories, including tackles for loss, third down conversion percentage and passing yards allowed. Defensive tackle Gerald Willis earned All-American honors from several outlets while linebacker Shaq Quarterman was named to the All-ACC First Team - one of eight all-conference picks.

Continuing the impressive trends from Diaz's first year running the defense, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss and ninth nationally in opponent yards per play. Five Hurricanes on the defensive side of the ball earned 2017 All-ACC honors while another three picked up Honorable Mention recognition.

Thanks in large part to his dominating unit, Miami also ranked No. 5 nationally in turnover margin, No. 8 nationally in fumbles recovered and No. 15 nationally in passes intercepted.

Miami's defense enjoyed vast improvements under Diaz' watch and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in his first season in 2016.

At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers, and the Hurricanes' trio of Zach McCloud, Michael Pinckney and Shaquille Quarterman helped anchor the unit. Three defensive players earned ACSMA All-ACC honors - senior defensive backs Corn Elder (second team) and Rayshawn Jenkins (honorable mention) and Quarterman at linebacker (honorable mention).

In 2015, Diaz's defensive unit helped Mississippi State to a 9-4 record and a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. His defensive unit held opponents to just 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense and tackles for loss.

Diaz spent one season, 2014, at Louisiana Tech and his impact was felt in a big way. The Bulldogs led the nation in turnovers gained (42) with 16 fumble recoveries and 26 interceptions. Before his stop at Louisiana Tech, Diaz coached three seasons at Texas (2011-13). His 2011 defensive unit ranked ninth in total yards per play.

In 2010, during his first stint at Mississippi State, Diaz guided a defense that ranked No. 22 in the nation in scoring defense (19.9 ppg), No. 17 in rushing defense (214.9 ypg) and No. 17 in tackles for loss (7.0 pg). MSU also finished ranked No. 13 in red-zone defense (.730) and No. 22 in turnovers forced (28) nationally in 2010.

Before his first stop at Mississippi State, Diaz spent four seasons as defensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee State. Diaz coached linebackers for two years after mentoring the safeties during his first two years.

COACHES & STAFF

In four years under Diaz, MTSU's defense led its conference in sacks and tackles for loss twice, and finished no lower than third in the league in either category during his tenure. In 2009, the Blue Raiders finished second nationally in tackles for loss. Diaz's defense also ranked sixth nationally in sacks that season, posting nearly three per game. Before joining Middle Tennessee, Diaz played a significant role for one of the country's top-ranked defenses by coaching safeties in 2004-05 and handling the line-backers in 2002-03 for NC State.

Diaz spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons at NCSU as a graduate assistant working primarily with the linebackers. During that time, the Wolfpack went to two bowl games and became the first ACC team to beat Florida State in Tallahassee.

Diaz began his coaching career at Florida State in 1998. In his two years as a graduate assistant, he was on the same coaching staff as former Miami head coach Mark Richt and was part of the Seminoles' national title-winning coaching staff in 1999.

Diaz and his wife Stephanie have three sons: Colin, Gavin and Manny.

Dan Enos joined the University of Miami football program in January 2019, accepting the position of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Enos, a 28-year college coaching veteran, spent the 2018 season as associate head coach/quarterbacks at Alabama, which won 14 games and the Southeastern Conference title while advancing to the College Football Playoff national championship game.

Enos boasts more than a decade of play-calling experience and more than two decades of experience coaching skill position players. Prior to his one-year stint in Tuscaloosa, Enos spent three seasons (2015-17) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas, where his offenses set school records, and five years (2010-14) as the head coach at Central Michigan, where he led the Chippewas to two bowl games and helped Eric Fisher become the first MAC player to ever be selected with the No. 1 overall pick of the NFL Draft.

Last season under Enos' tutelage, Crimson Tide quarterback Tua Tagovailoa posted one of the best seasons by a quarterback in college football history. Tagovailoa completed 69 percent of his passes, throwing for 3,966 yards with 43 touchdowns and just six interceptions -- setting an all-time FBS single-season passer rating mark (199.44). The Crimson Tide also ranked sixth in the country in total offense, sixth in passing offense and third in scoring offense.

Enos served a short stint as an offensive assistant coach at Michigan in January 2018. Prior to that, he directed some of the most prolific offenses in Arkansas history over three seasons in Fayetteville. His 2015 offense set single-season school records for first downs and completion percentage, while posting the second-best total yardage and yards per play in school history. In 2015 and 2016, the Razorbacks were one of two FBS teams with a 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rushe. Enos helped Brandon Allen (2015) and Austin Allen (2016) throw for 3,000 yards, as the brothers became just the third and fourth players in program history to reach that number in a season. Brandon threw for 3,440 yards and 30 touchdowns as a senior in 2015, while leading the nation in quarterback efficiency. Austin then led the SEC in 2016 with 3,430 yards and was second in touchdowns with 25.

Enos served as head coach at Central Michigan from 2010-14. He posted a 26-36 record at CMU, leading the Chippewas to six wins or more in each of his final three seasons. CMU's win in the 2012 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl was just the third bowl win in program history. In his five seasons in Mount Pleasant, Enos' offenses passed for more than 3,000 yards four times.

Before being hired at Central Michigan, Enos spent four seasons at Michigan State as an assistant coach. He coached quarterbacks in 2006 and running backs from 2007-09. Enos also spent two years as quarterbacks coach at Cincinnati (2004-05).

Prior to his time at Cincinnati, Enos worked at North Dakota State (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks, 2003), Western Michigan (quarterbacks, 2000-02), Missouri State (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks, 1999), Southern Illinois (quarterbacks/wide receivers, 1997-98), Northern Michigan (offensive coordinator/offensive backs, 1996) and Lakeland College (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks/wide receivers, 1994-95). He served as a graduate assistant on Michigan State's staff from 1991 to 1993.

A standout quarterback for the Spartans from 1987-90, Enos started two seasons and posted a 16-7-1 record as a starter, leading MSU to victories in the 1989 Aloha Bowl and 1990 Sun Bowl. He still ranks among the best in school history with 3,837 career passing yards and 297 completions. His .621 career completion percentage ranks fourth in Spartan history.

Enos graduated from Michigan State with a degree in business administration in 1991 and earned his master's in sports administration in 2006. The Dearborn, Mich., native and his wife Jane, have two children, Lia and Alex.

In 2018, Louisiana Tech was fourth nationally in team sacks (3.46 per game), 12th nationally in team tackles for loss (7.8) and 33rd nationally in turnovers gained (22). Louisiana Tech ranked 25th nationally in opponent yards per play (4.9) this past season, as the Bulldogs' stout defensive unit was led by All-America defensive end Jaylon Ferguson, who ranked second in the nation in tackles for loss (26.5) and led the country in sacks (17.5). Ferguson was selected in the third round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens.

Baker, 36, replaced Diaz as defensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech when Diaz accepted the same position at Mississippi State for the 2015 season. Baker worked under Diaz as safeties coach at Louisiana Tech in 2014, and also was a two-year graduate assistant (2011-2012) under him during Diaz's time as defensive coordinator at Texas.

In his first season with the Bulldogs, Baker helped lead LA Tech to a 35-18 victory over Illinois in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl and a Conference USA West Division title with a 9-5 overall record in 2014. The Bulldog defense led the nation in 2014 with 26 interceptions and 42 turnovers gained under Baker's guidance.

Baker went to Arkansas State after spending 2010 through 2012 as a defensive graduate assistant coach at Texas. He worked closely with both the Longhorns' linebackers and defensive backs, two position groups that included eight All-Big 12 selections over the last two years. He also helped coach All-America linebacker and Lott Trophy finalist Emmanuel Acho and cornerback Quandre Diggs, the 2011 Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year.

He was a part of the Texas coaching staff in 2011 that led the Longhorns to a No. 11 national ranking in total defense, yielding just 306.8 yards per game. The 2011 Longhorns' defense also ranked among the top 20 teams in the nation in rush defense (96.2 yards per game), pass efficiency defense (111.0) and tackles for loss (7.4 per game).

Texas won 17 games in Baker's two years on the coaching staff, including a 21-10 victory over California in the 2011 Bridgepoint Education Holiday Bowl and a 31-27 win against Oregon State in the 2012 Valero Alamo Bowl.

Prior to joining the Texas staff, Baker spent the 2009 season as a wide receivers coach at Clear Springs High School in Houston, Texas, before taking over duties as linebackers coach the following spring.

The Houston native was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Tulane from 2000-04, helping lead the Green Wave to a win in the 2002 Hawaii Bowl. He earned his bachelor's degree from Tulane in 2008.

Baker is married to the former Roslyn Jones of Mandeville, La., and the couple has a daughter, Anderson, and a son, Byron.

EPHRAIM BANDA

Co-Defensive Coordinator / Safeties | Fourth Season at Miami (12th Overall)

Ephraim Banda is entering his fourth season as the Hurricanes' safeties coach and first as co-defensive coordinator. He is in his second season as the program's director of youth development.

After Miami's defense delivered another standout season in 2018, Banda was elevated to the position of co-defensive coordinator on Dec. 14, 2018. The Hurricanes ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense and ranked No. 1 in several categories, including tackles for loss, third down conversion percentage and passing yards allowed.

Safeties Jaquan Johnson (second team) and Sheldrick Redwine (honorable mention) both earned all-conference honors under his direction.

Continuing the impressive trends from Banda's first year on the defensive staff, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss, third nationally in turnovers gained, ninth nationally in opponent yards per play and 15th nationally in passes intercepted.

Three members of the Hurricanes secondary earned All-ACC recognition in 2017: Michael Jackson (second team), Johnson (second team) and Malek Young (honorable mention). Under Banda's watch, Johnson was one of just four defensive players nationwide to be named a Walter Camp Player of the Year semifinalist. Johnson was named to the All-America Second Team by both Sports Illustrated and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA).

Miami's defensive backfield enjoyed vast improvements under Banda's watch in 2016, with senior Rayshawn Jenkins earning ACSMA All-ACC honorable mention recognition.

At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous year), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Banda spent the 2015 season at Mississippi State, where he served as a defensive assistant under current Hurricanes defensive coordinator Manny Diaz. In 2015, Mississippi State posted a 9-4 record, including a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. The Bulldogs' defensive unit held opponents to just 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense.

In addition, MSU led the nation in fewest pass plays of 20+ yards allowed in 2015, surrendering only 24. Despite several key injuries to seniors, the secondary ranked fourth in the Southeastern Conference in passes defended with 63.

Before arriving in Starkville, Banda spent three seasons as a defensive graduate assistant at Texas from 2012-15. He filled a variety of roles, from scripting practices and organizing scouting reports to assisting with the defensive backs. He also worked with both head coach Charlie Strong and former head coach Mack Brown.

Banda was an instrumental part of the Longhorns defense staff during his time at Texas. In 2014, Banda's assistance to the defensive staff guided the Longhorns to the nation's 24th-best ranking in total defense. The 2014 Texas squad also ranked No. 1 in scoring defense, No. 2 in total defense, No. 1 pass defense and No. 1 pass defense efficiency.

In 2012, Banda assisted with the game plan that allowed Texas to set an Alamo Bowl record with 10 sacks in the win over No. 13 Oregon State. In addition to his work on defense, Banda also assisted with the Longhorn special teams. During his tenure at Texas, Banda coached first-round NFL Draft pick Kenny Vaccaro.

Banda is a graduate of Incarnate Word in San Antonio. He got his coaching start there after his playing days in 2011.

Banda and his wife Crystal have a son, Darian, and a daughter, Aamani.

Barry helped the Buccaneers average 415.5 yards per game in 2018, good for third in the NFL. In 2017, Tampa Bay amassed 352 first downs, which ranked second in the league, and tackle Donovan Smith started all 16 games for the third consecutive season, joining Paul Gruber as the only players in franchise history to start all 48 games in their first three seasons.

In 2016, Tampa Bay's offensive line helped the Buccaneers convert a franchise-record 43.9 percent of their third-down attempts. In 2015, his first season with the team, Barry assisted an offensive line that featured two rookie starters, but still managed to block for the NFL's second-leading rusher (Doug Martin - 1,402 yards) and tied for the fourth-fewest sacks allowed in the league.

In 2014, Barry's unit paved the way for a 1,000-yard season by running back Thomas Rawls. As tight ends coach, Barry headed a group that combined for 63 receptions for 644 yards and six touchdowns over 2012-13, while helping CMU record another 1,000-yard rusher in Zurlon Tipton, who finished with 1,492 yards and 19 touchdowns in 2012. Barry worked directly with All-Mid-American Conference Second Team selection David Blackburn in 2011. Blackburn set career highs for receptions (34), receiving yards (479) and touchdown receptions (5) during his senior season en route to becoming the first CMU tight end since 1996 to earn all-conference recognition.

Barry returned to CMU after spending the 2009 season as the offensive coordinator, recruiting coordinator and offensive line coach at North Greenville University. The Crusaders ranked sixth nationally in sacks allowed (nine sacks in 10 games) in 2009.

Barry spent the 2006-08 seasons at Michigan Tech, coaching the offensive line for three seasons and adding the responsibilities of offensive coordinator for his final two seasons. In three seasons, Barry worked directly with four All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference First Team selections and a total of 10 All-GLIAC honorees.

The Huskies rushed for at least 2,000 yards each of Barry's three seasons. In 2007, Michigan Tech averaged 30.1 points per game and 414.1 yards of offense per game.

Graduating in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in construction management, Barry was a five-year member of the football program, earning three varsity letters as an offensive lineman. He was named to the Academic All-Mid-American Conference team in 2000. He served as a graduate assistant at CMU for the 2002 and 2003 seasons before being named the offensive line coach at Southwest Minnesota State, where he spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons. Three members of the Hurricanes secondary earned All-ACC recognition in 2017: Michael Jackson (second team), Jaquan Johnson (second team) and Malek Young (honorable mention).

Miami's defensive backfield enjoyed vast improvements under Rumph's guidance in 2016. Senior defensive back Corn Elder earned ACSMA All-ACC second-team honors and served as one of Miami's top defensive playmakers.

At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

During his three seasons as a head coach, Rumph guided the Patriots to three straight Florida High School Athletic Association (FHSA) state playoff appearances and compiled an overall record of 39-6.

Rumph wasted little time making his mark on the local high school coaching scene, as his 2013 and 2014 squads claimed 5A FHSA State Championships, defeating its opponents by a combined score of 104-8 in the final game. American Heritage became just the second school in Broward County history to win back-to-back state football championships. In 2013 and 2014, Rumph was recognized for his work on the sidelines as he was selected as a coach for the U.S. Army All-American Bowl in San Antonio. Before taking over as the head coach at American Heritage, Rumph served as the team's defensive coordinator for two seasons.

Todd Stroud was named the University of Miami's Assistant Head Coach / Defensive Line on March 5, 2019.

Stroud most recently served as associate head coach and defensive coordinator at Akron, where he spent the past seven seasons.

Throughout his career, Stroud has tutored numerous NFL Draft picks and developed nationwide recruiting ties. During the 2006 NFL Draft, three of Stroud's North Carolina State defensive linemen were first-round selections, including top overall pick Mario Williams by the Houston Texans. He was the head coach at West Alabama from 1994-96.

In 2018, the Zips' defense ranked third in the Mid-American Conference in third-down defense, third in passing efficiency defense and forced 21 turnovers, including two pick-sixes in a 39-34 win at eventual Big Ten West champion Northwestern – Akron's first win over a Big Ten opponent since 1894. The Zips improved from 91st in yards per play to 36th nationally, and from 66th in yards per pass attempt to 21st in the country.

In 2017, as Akron's assistant head coach, defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator, Stroud helped the Zips advance to the MAC Championship Game for only the second time in school history. Akron finished seventh in the nation in interceptions (19), and ranked eighth in defensive touchdowns and 19th in turnover margin.

In 2015, Akron's rushing defense led the MAC and ranked third nationally, yielding just 92.9 yards per game. In 2014, the Zips ranked in the Top 40 nationally in eight defensive categories, while the defensive line racked up 194 tackles, 13 sacks and 34.5 tackles for loss. Akron's 2013 defensive line amassed 21 sacks and 37.5 tackles for loss.

Prior to his stint at Akron, Stroud coached two seasons at Colorado State. He coached tight ends and fullbacks in 2010 in addition to serving as recruiting coordinator. In 2011, Stroud shifted to defensive line coach. From 2007-09, Stroud was the head strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater, Florida State.

That followed an eight-year run at N.C. State, first as director of strength and conditioning from 1999-2004, and then as associate head coach/defensive line from 2004-06. In 2004, Stroud helped the Wolfpack allow just 221.4 yards per game and 102.4 rushing yards per game, both of which rank second in school history. In 2005, Williams set single-season school records in both sacks (14.5) and tackles for loss (27.5). Williams (Texans), Manny Lawson (San Francisco 49ers) and John McCargo (Buffalo Bills) were all selected in the first round of the 2006 NFL Draft.

Five of his NC State players were selected in NFL drafts; three of those linemen went in the first round of the 2006 NFL Draft.

Stroud was the head strength and conditioning coach at Memphis (1997-99) prior to his three-year head coaching stint at West Alabama. In 1993, as the head strength and conditioning coach at Auburn, Stroud helped the Tigers to an 11-0 regular season, which earned them a No. 4 ranking in the final Associated Press poll. Stroud was the defensive line and strength and conditioning coach at Samford from 1987-93. He got his start in coaching in 1986 as the defensive line coach at UCF and then a weight room assistant at Florida State.

Stroud played nose guard for the Seminoles from 1983-85 and was team captain his senior season. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida State and a master's degree in athletics administration from UAB.

Stroud and his wife, Marianne, have four children: daughters Jessica, Alexandra, and Chelsea, and son Stone.

Miami territory with 3:28 left and Anthony Miller scored the go-ahead touchdown on his first career catch moments later in California's 24-17 victory in the Emerald Bowl. Jahvid Best rushed for a bowl-record 186 yards and two touchdowns, yet the Golden Bears (9-4) still needed a big defensive play and an unlikely hero to hold off the Hurricanes (7-6) in front of a Bay Area crowd teeming with screaming Cal fans. Harris played well in the freshman's second career start, going 25-of-41 for 194 yards and two TDs. LaRon Byrd and Thearon Collier caught Harris' scoring passes for Miami, which tied it on Matt Boshers' 22-yard field goal with 9:13 to play.

Scott Tolzien threw for 260 yards and Montee Ball added 61 yards rushing for the Badgers. The Hurricanes recovered the onside kick, but Harris threw incomplete on fourth down to end any hope of a comeback. Harris, who threw for 188 yards, was slowed by an injured right thumb, a brace around his left leg and a Badgers team that smothered him with five sacks. Wisconsin's running game helped it hold the ball for nearly 40 minutes, leaving little time for Miami to work.

WASHINGTON STATE 20, MIAMI 14
DECEMBER 26, 2015 • EL PASO, TEXAS

Luke Falk threw two touchdown passes to lead Washington State to a 20-14 victory over Miami in the snowy Sun Bowl. Washington State led 20-7 at the half and looked in total control, limiting Miami to three first downs over the second and third quarters. The Hurricanes rallied in a blizzard in the fourth.

Braxton Berrios' 60-yard end-around run set up Mark Walton's 5-yard scoring run that cut it to 20-14 with 13:10 left. The Cougars, the top passing team in the nation during the regular season, were shut out in the second half, leaving it to their defense to wrap up the victory. After a Cougars punt, the Hurricanes were at the Washington State 28, but an end-over-end halfback pass from Joe Yearby was intercepted by Shalom Lunai with 2:58 to play to seal it for Washington State. Brad Kaaya was 17-of-30 for 219 yards with one interception. He appeared to give the Hurricanes a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when he connected in the end zone with receiver Rashawn Scott, but the ball came out of Scott's hands and was intercepted by Peyton Pelluer.

MIAMI 31, WEST VIRGINIA 14
DECEMBER 28, 2016 • ORLANDO, FLA.

In dire need of some offense and with his team trailing West Virginia early in the Russell Athletic Bowl, University of Miami head coach Mark Richt called a simple hitch route to open the Hurricanes' seventh offensive series. Freshman wide receiver Ahmmnon Richards caught a pass and blew by four defenders for a 51-yard touchdown, jumpstarting a dominant stretch by Russell Athletic Bowl MVP Brad Kaaya that propelled Miami to its first bowl win since 2006, 31-14 over West Virginia. After Kaaya hit Richards, 48,625 fans watched the junior complete 18 of his next 20 passes, a streak that included a Miami bowl record-tying four touchdown passes. The Hurricanes (9-4) offense had strung together six straight three-and-outs before the Richards touchdown. Miami scored points on five straight possessions, including touchdown passes from Kaaya to Malcolm Lewis, Braxton Berrios and David Njoku. Kaaya's four touchdown passes matched Craig Erickson's performance in the 1991 Cotton Bowl.

2017 CAPITAL ONE ORANGE BOWL

WISCONSIN 34, MIAMI 24

DECEMBER 30, 2017 • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

In a battle of two teams with outstanding defenses, few could have predicted a game that would feature 58 combined points scored. But an unexpected back-and-forth shootout is exactly what happened at Hard Rock Stadium, as the No. 6 Wisconsin Badgers outscored the No. 10 Miami Hurricanes, 34-24, to win the 2017 Capital One Orange Bowl. Miami (10-3, 7-1 ACC) entered the game looking to run the ball effectively and limit the Wisconsin (13-1, 12-0 Big Ten) ground game and they accomplished both. The Hurricanes totaled 377 yards of offense, including 174 rushing yards. The Badgers had allowed 150 rushing yards or fewer in 12 of 14 games this season. The Canes also held Wisconsin to just 142 rushing yards after the Badgers averaged 229 rushing yards per game this season. But Miami could not find a solution for Wisconsin quarterback Alex Hornibrook, who threw for 258 yards and four touchdowns en route to game MVP honors.

DeeJay Dallas and Travis Homer each scored rushing touchdowns for the Hurricanes, while Lawrence Cager hauled in a 38-yard scoring strike. The loss dropped Miami's all-time Orange Bowl record to 6-4.

DECEMBER 28, 2018 • NEW YORK, N.Y.

The Hurricanes faced the Badgers in a bowl game for the second straight year and were hungry to avenge a loss to Wisconsin in the 2017 Capital One Orange Bowl. But All-American running back Jonathan Taylor posted a 205-yard rushing performance and Wisconsin's defense forced five turnovers to ensure a 32-point victory at Yankee Stadium. The Canes continued to shine defensively after a standout season on defense. With its second sack of the night, a four-yard loss by Michael Pinckney, Miami set the single-season record for tackles for loss in a season. The Canes finished with 10 tackles for loss on the night and closed out the season with a school record 136 TFLs. Miami's previous record of 130 was set in 1999.
