CATAMOUNTS VERSUS MIAMI

- Friday night's game will be the first meeting between Western Carolina and Miami in men's basketball.
- Miami is one of two first time opponents for the Catamounts this month. WCU has also never faced Jackson State.

WCU AND THE ACC

- The Catamounts have faced nine of the current 16 members of the Atlantic Coast Conference with an overall record of 3-30.
- WCU has wins over current ACC members Louisville, Florida State and Georgia Tech.
- The Catamounts most recent win over a current ACC member was Dec. 12, 2009 when the Catamounts defeated Louisville, who was playing in the BIG EAST at the time, 91-83. Mike Williams scored a career-high 24 points and Jake Robinson added 23 in the victory.
- The Catamounts last win over an ACC team came in 2001 as Kevin Martin scored eight of his game-high 19 points in the final 4:19 to lead a 26-9 finish that carried Western Carolina to a 79-69 upset win at Florida State.
- WCU's only other win against a current ACC member was an 88-77 victory over Georgia Tech in 1980.
- Last season, the Catamounts came close to defeating ACC member Pittsburgh just two days before Christmas. WCU led for nearly 13 minutes of the game and held a lead with under three minutes left in regulation.

LAST WEEK IN THE SOCON

SEASON OPENERS

- The Catamounts are 37-31 all-time in season openers but just 9-25 when opening the season on the road.
- WCU's last win when opening the season on the road came back in 2006 at UNC Asheville.
- Western Carolina is 1-14 in its last 15 season openers that occurred on the road.
- Head coach Larry Hunter has led the Catamounts to a 5-6 record in season openers but all five wins were either at home or at a neutral site tournament.

LARRANAGA/HUNTER HEAD TO HEAD

- WCU head coach Larry Hunter and Miami head coach Jim Larranaga both spent time in the MAC as head coaches early in their respective careers.
- The pair faced off against one another 17 times while at Ohio and Bowling Green.
- Coach Hunter has the slight 9-8 lead in the series history between the two with the last meeting taking place in 1997.

AMONG THE BEST

- Head coach Larry Hunter is ninth among active Division I coaches in career wins with 680.
- He trails Mike Krzyzewski (1,043, Duke), Jim Boeheim (884, Syracuse), Cliff Ellis (Coastal Carolina, 791), Bob Huggins (791, West Virginia), Roy Williams (783, North Carolina), Rick Pitino (745, Louisville), Rick Byrd (731, Belmont) and Jerry Sloucum (710, Youngstown State).

550 Plus Club

- Head coach Larry Hunter will face two coaches this season who like himself have 550 or more career wins.
- The first meeting will take place during the season opener when Hunter, who brings 680 career wins to the contest, faces Miami head coach Jim Larranaga who has 588 career victories.
- The second 550 plus win club meeting will take place Dec. 7 when Hunter faces one of just eight active head coaches who has more career wins at the Division I level, Bob Huggins of West Virginia (791).

HOT START

- Last season, guard Elijah Pughsley became the first freshman since Trey Sumler to score double-figures in the season opener of their freshman year.
- Pughsley scored 18 points off the bench in his first collegiate game against Cincinnati on Nov. 13, 2015.
- Sumler, as a redshirt freshman, scored 16 points against Clemson on Nov. 12, 2010. Sumler would go on to score 1,996 career points and ranks third on the career scoring chart at WCU.
- The last true freshman to score double-figures in their

THE LAST TIME OUT VS. AN ACC OPPONENT

PITT PANTHERS ESCAPE CATAMOUNTS UPSET BID, 79-73

PITTSBURGH, Pa. - The Western Carolina men's basketball team went toe-to-toe with ACC member Pittsburgh Wednesday night inside the Petersen Events Center but a 10-0 run late by the Panthers proved to be the difference as Pitt hung on for a 79-73 victory in the Gotham Classic finale for both teams. The Catamounts led for nearly 13 minutes in the game and were paced by senior Rhett Harrelson who scored 21 points for the Purple and Gold.

Harrelson, who was coming off a 0-8 shooting performance against Morehead State, nailed six 3-pointers and finished 7-of-12 from the field with a pair of rebounds and two steals. Seniors Justin Browning and Mike Brown along with freshman Elijah Pughesley joined Harrelson in double-figures. Pughesley came up huge in the second half as he spelled Harrelson for several minutes and scored 11 second half points including a pair of 3-pointers and one old-fashioned three point play.

Brown added 13 points, four rebounds and a team-high tying four assists. Browning scored in double-figures for the fourth-straight game with 10 points and tied for the team lead in rebounding with six boards. Freshman Marc Gosselin played 26 valuable minutes as he tied for the team lead in rebounds (6) and assists (4) while limiting one of Pitt's top players, Michael Young, to 12 points.

Senior Torrion Brummitt battled foul trouble for the second-straight game but once again made the most of his limited minutes as he scored eight points and grabbed four rebounds in 22 minutes of action.

The group of Pughesley and sophomores Devin Peterson, Haboubacar Mutombo, and Charlenz Brooks came off the bench in the second half and helped regain the lead for the Catamounts as they scored 17-straight points to take a 61-54 lead over the Panthers. Up until that point in the game all 44 of WCU's points had come from the five starters.

The Panthers took advantage of the free throw line as they scored 29 of their 79 points at the charity stripe connecting on 29-of-33 attempts. WCU was not as fortunate as the Catamounts received just 12 trips to the line and nailed eight attempts.

WCU's largest advantage came from beyond the 3-point arc as WCU hit nine triples compared to Pittsburgh's two 3-point field goals. The Catamounts also won the turnover battle 14-10 and had three more offensive boards than the Panthers despite losing the rebounding battle 39-29.

Pittsburgh placed four players in double-figures led by Jamel Artis who scored 29 points while grabbing eight rebounds.

first game came during the 2006-07 season when Nick Aldridge scored 17 points at UNC Asheville on Nov. 14, 2006.

- Dating back to the 2000-01 season, Pughsley has scored the most points by a freshman in a season opener.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

- The 2016-17 Western Carolina men's basketball roster features nine underclassmen including five incoming freshmen.
- The Catamounts lost four very experienced seniors off of the 2015-16 squad and return just two seniors who have played in a combined 13 games for the Catamounts.
- WCU will rely heavily on its junior class which features Devin Peterson, Haboubacar Mutombo, Ashley Williams and Charlendez Brooks. All four have been with the program for two years and will play large roles this season.

WHEE LOVE CULLOWHEE

- All three Western Carolina assistant coaches call WCU their alma mater.
- Anquell McCollum played at Western Carolina from 1993-96. He was a member of WCU's 12-man, All-20th Century Team, was a two-time, first team All-SoCon selection and finished his career as the WCU and SoCon all-time leader in both 3-pointers made (245) and attempted (670).
- Brigham Waginger played at Western Carolina from 2007-10. Known for his tough, hard-nosed play on the court during his four-year career at WCU, Waginger finished with 810 points including 27 double-digit scoring outings. He shattered the school's career benchmark for steals by 64, finishing with 285 career thefts, well above the previous record of 221 steals held by WCU Hall of Famer, Henry Logan. His 285 career steals rank third in SoCon history.
- Willie Freeman played for the Catamounts for two seasons from 2000-02 where he averaged 10.9 points and 6.9 rebounds per game. He played alongside former Catamount great and current NBA star, Kevin Martin, for one season as a senior. He was a starter for the Catamounts from day one and later served as team captain after transferring from Spartanburg Methodist College.

QUICK HANDS

- For the last eight seasons the Catamounts have either led or finished second in the Southern Conference in steals per game.
- The Catamounts averaged 8.1 steals per game which ranked them second in the SoCon and 19th in the nation.

2016-17 WESTERN CAROLINA MEN'S BASKETBALL

GAME 1 • AT MIAMI • NOV. 11, 2016 • 7 P.M. • WATSCO CENTER • CORAL GABLES, FLA.

WESTERN CAROLINA HEAD COACH LARRY HUNTER

Larry Hunter, one of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) leaders in coaching victories, was named Western Carolina University's 17th head men's basketball coach all time on April 29, 2005. His impact was felt immediately.

Hunter was inducted into the Ohio Basketball Hall of Fame on May 21, 2016. In 45 seasons as a collegiate basketball coach – 30 of which were spent in the state of Ohio – Hunter put together a resume worthy of induction. He has been a part of 845 wins as a coach including 680 as the leading man on the sideline.

Known for his offensive prowess, Hunter brought an up-tempo offense to Cullowhee and the Catamounts responded by making a school-record 221 3-pointers, while tying or setting the single-game school record for 3-pointers made in a game on six occasions. The record now stands at 274 made 3-pointers which occurred during the 2009-10 season. The top-eight slots in the school record books for 3-point field goals made in a season belong to Larry Hunter coached teams.

Hunter, whose teams posted winning records in 27 of his 36 seasons as a head coach, enters the 2016-17 season boasting an overall record of 680-411 -- the ninth winningest active coach in the country. On Nov. 15, 2011, Hunter claimed his 600th career victory.

During his time as a head coach, Hunter has made 11 overall NCAA tournament appearances, while making seven as an assistant coach. He has an impressive 65-37 record in postseason play including trips to the NCAA, NIT, CIT and CBI.

Throughout his 36-year head coaching career, Hunter has guided his teams to wins over nationally ranked teams including Louisville, Bradley, Virginia, George Washington, New Mexico State, Syracuse, Connecticut, Stanford, Ohio State, Arizona State, DePaul and West Virginia.

Hunter not only leads his teams on the court but he has also been a proven leader in the classroom. All but one player he has recruited who completed his eligibility has graduated. Under Coach Hunter's guidance, the Catamount men's basketball team garnered the APR Public Recognition Award for the fourth-straight year in 2016, the longest consecutive run by any Catamount program.

The award is given to athletic teams ranking in the top 10 percent of Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores within the NCAA Division I in their respective sports. Hunter led the Catamounts to a perfect 1000 APR from 2009-13 and then again from 2010-14. Jake Robinson, a 2010 graduate from WCU, was the recipient of SoCon Coleman-Lew Leadership Award and was an ESPN the Magazine Academic All-America selection.

Hunter has guided Western Carolina to just its second and third Southern Conference divisional titles, sharing both the 2008-09 and 2010-11 crowns with Chattanooga. He also led the Catamounts in setting a Ramsey Center record with 14 home wins in 2009-10.

Hunter recruited and coached both the 2008-09 SoCon Freshman of the Year in Harouna Mutombo - WCU's first rookie of the year since Jarvis Hayes in 2000 and only the fourth Catamount all-time to garner the award - and the 2010-11 SoCon Freshman of the Year Trey Sumler.

Hunter also recruited and coached WCU's all-time leader in steals, Brigham Waginger, who garnered SoCon Defensive co-Player of the Year plaudits in 2009-10. A year later, a Hunter recruit, Richie Gordon, again earned top defensive player honors.

While his first year at WCU was just his third losing season as a head coach, posting a 13-17 mark, Hunter's inaugural season with the Catamounts saw many positives. Western Carolina nearly doubled its win total from the previous season. Also, its 7-7 record and third place finish in the SoCon North was its best in the league since posting the same record for the 1996-97 season, while placing second that season. Key wins in his first season included: a win over Bowling Green in the season opener - WCU's first season-opening win over an NCAA Division I team since defeating Georgia Tech to start the 1980-81 season; a win over Chattanooga - snapping an eight-game losing streak to the Mocs; a win at Davidson - snapping Davidson's 19-game home winning streak which was the third longest in the NCAA at the time; and defeating SoCon North Champion Elon late in the season - setting up a battle for a first-round bye at the league tournament.

Western Carolina has rewritten the school record books under Hunter. The Catamounts have set school records for 3-pointers made (274 in 2009-10); attempted (753 in 2009-10) and threes per game (8.06 in 09-10) in a season, as well as making at least 14, 3-pointers in a game 10 times, including a school-record 20 treys against Charleston Southern on Dec. 18, 2013.

Hunter's teams have scored over 109 points in a game eight times throughout his tenure at Western Carolina including a school record 141 points in a game during 2011-12 season.

Hunter guided the Catamounts to two Southern Conference Tournament Championship games in three years from 2011-12 to 2013-14. He also guided the Catamounts to their best start in SoCon play (4-0) in both the 2012-13 and 2013-14 seasons.

During the 2015-16 season, Hunter saw senior Mike Brown become the 46th player in WCU history to reach 1,000 career points. During his 11 years at the helm of the Western Carolina men's basketball program, Hunter has guided ten players to the 1,000 career points mark including the program's third leading scorer all-time Trey Sumler who scored 1,996 points over four seasons under coach Hunter's guidance.

Following the 2015-16 season, Hunter guided the Catamounts to just their third postseason tournament in the Division I era at WCU. Two of those trips have come under Hunter's watch including a trip to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) following the 2009-10 season and the College Basketball Invitational (CBI) in 2015-16.

Hunter came to Western Carolina after four years as an assistant coach at North Carolina State, the final three serving as associate head coach. In his first season at N.C. State (2002), the Wolfpack reached the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) championship game and received their first NCAA Championship bid since 1991. N.C. State would go on to reach at least the ACC Tournament semifinals in each the last three years as well as receiving bids to the NCAA Championship. In 2004, Hunter coached Julius Hodge, who was tabbed ACC Player of the Year and consensus All-America. In 2005, the Wolfpack made an impressive run at season's end and defeated defending NCAA Champion Connecticut to reach the Sweet 16. N.C. State was just one of 21 teams in the nation to play in the NCAA Championship in each of the last four years.

Hunter spent 12 years (1989-2001) as head coach at Ohio University prior to his stint in Raleigh. Five years after taking over the Bobcat basketball program (1993-94), he led Ohio to a 25-8 record and was tabbed the Mid-American Conference (MAC) Coach of the Year, winning both the league's regular season and tournament titles. The following year, the Bobcats won the preseason National Invitation Tournament (NIT), went 24-10 and reached the second round of the postseason NIT. At Ohio, he coached 16 All-MAC performers and four first-team Academic All-MAC selections. Among those standout players were Player of the Year honorees Dave Jamerson (1990), Gary Trent (1993, '94 and '95) and Brandon Hunter (2003). Trent additionally earned MAC Freshman of the Year honors in 1993, duplicating the feat of Rush Floyd in 1991 during his freshman campaign with the Bobcats.

Jamerson set a MAC record with 874 points in 1990 while taking home first team Academic All-America honors that season. Later in 1990, Jamerson was an National Basketball Association (NBA) first round selection (15th pick overall) by Miami. Trent, a third team Associated Press All-America in 1995, would leave Ohio after his junior season to become a NBA first round selection (11th overall pick) of the Milwaukee Bucks. Brandon Hunter also moved on to play professionally, being an NBA second-round pick in 2003. Jamerson (third with 2,336), Trent (seventh with 2,108) and Brandon Hunter (11th with 2,012) all rank among the MAC's top 11 in scoring, while Brandon Hunter and Trent rank fifth (1,103) and ninth (1,050), respectively, on the MAC's career rebounding list.

Thirty of the 38 players he coached at Ohio who completed their eligibility there graduated, including 12 who went on to earn their Master's degrees, posting an overall graduation rate as a head coach of 85 percent. In his last season at Ohio, the Bobcats were 19-11, with a 12-6 mark in MAC competition, and his overall record with the Bobcats was 204-148.

After winning his 500th career game as a collegiate head coach (Jan. 23, 2001), Hunter said, "My approach has been simple: Arrive early, work late and chop wood all day long. I've been fortunate to be surrounded by some great people and I've worked at two great institutions, Wittenberg and Ohio. Add all those things together over 20 years and you start to have a small pile of wood."

From 1976-89, Hunter was the head coach at Wittenberg University, playing a key role in the school being the winningest NCAA Division III basketball program in terms of victories and percentage. Hunter made an immediate impact after taking over the helm, winning National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) National Coach of the Year honors in 1977 after becoming the first coach in NCAA history to win a national championship in his first season at a school. During his 13 years in that position, his team turned in a 305-76 record and made four NCAA Division III Final Four appearances (national title in 1977, national runner-up in 1983 and third place in 1980 and 1987).

He coached three national players of the year at Wittenberg, including Tyrone Curtis (1981), Tim Casey (1985) and Brad Baldridge (1991), as well as having 21 all-conference honors bestowed upon his players. Prior to the inception of the NCAA Division III national player of the year honor, Rick White was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1977 NCAA Tournament as he led Wittenberg to a national title.

In addition to coaching those national players of the year, four of Wittenberg's top five career scorers were coached by Hunter, including the school's all-time leader Steve Iannarino (1,973).

Hunter won a total of 12 Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC) titles, six regular-season championships and six tournament championships. For his success, Hunter was inducted into the Wittenberg University Hall of Honor in 1996 and received the school's Honorary Alumnus Award in 1997.

Hunter, who got his start in coaching as an assistant coach at Marietta College from 1971-73, graduated from Ohio in 1971 with a B.S. in Education, majoring Social Studies Comprehensive. He earned his Master of Science in Physical Education from Ohio in 1973, then spent three seasons (1973-76) as an assistant coach at Wittenberg. He got his first taste of postseason play while serving on the Wittenberg staff, reaching the NCAA Division III championship game in 1976.

In addition to his coaching resume, Hunter produced a basketball instructional video, "Drills, Skills and Moves: Post Play Moves & Drills." Hunter is married to the former Mary Kay Friedrich of London, Ohio.
