DORSETT PUTS ON SHOW VS. A-STATE

- Senior wide receiver Phillip Dorsett was recognized with ACC Receiver of the Week honors after a four-catch, 201-yard, two-touchdown performance against the Red Wolves in a 41-20 win.
- The performance marked just the third time in program history a Miami receiver has surpassed 200 yards, and the first time in 14 years. Eddie Brown (220 yards) accomplished the feat in 1984 and Wesley Carroll (203) did it in 1990.
- Dorsett became the first receiver in the nation this season with three catches of at least 50 yards in the same game, and became the first ACC player with two touchdown catches at least 60 yards in the same game since 2011.
- The Fort Lauderdale native and St. Thomas Aquinas HS alum moved past the 1,500-yard mark with his performance against the Red Wolves. He needs just 178 more receiving yards to crack the program's top 10 all-time list in the category.
- The senior speedster matched the single-game receptions mark (12) against USF in 2012, and recorded the ninth-most prolific season among any receiver ever with 842 yards as a sophomore. His 58 receptions that year were the seventh-most ever.
- With nine regular-season games remaining, Dorsett has already matched a career high with four receiving touchdowns. He also recorded scores two against Florida A&M.

- Armbrister, who has four sacks in the first three games, had only two career sacks entering 2014. The Hollywood Hills native is on pace for 68 tackles this season, which would set a career high.

THE PRESIDENT NEAR TOP OF TWO NFL.COM LISTS

- Senior LB Denzel Perryman, who is a candidate for every major defensive award, ranks No. 2 on two of NFL.com College Football 24/7's 14 for '14 series list.
- Perryman was listed as the nation's second-biggest hitter in college football, ranking behind West Virginia FS Karl Joseph. Here's the buzz on "The President":
"Older folks probably has reference to defenders who deliver 'slobberknockers' -- hard tackles that cause the offensive player to plan and simple, slobber. Frankly, Perryman delivers 'slobberknockers,' as in hits that plain knock the snot out of people. He is a physical, aggressive player who makes up for his lack of height with tremendous instincts..."
- DP was listed as the nation's No. 2 most physical player in college football (WVU's Joseph was No. 4). The buzz:
"A huge hitter with a willingness to fill holes and take on offensive linemen, Perryman is everything a linebacker should be. He received the team's Hard Hitter Award after the season. If he didn't get teammate Gus Edwards' vote, he certainly earned it in the spring."
- He also came in at No. 7 on @NFL_CFB's toughest players in college football.

JOHNSON, PERRYMAN NAMED PRESEASON ALL-ACC

- Duke Johnson, a second-team All-ACC performer in 2013, rushed for 920 yards and six TDs in eight games before suffering a season-ending ankle injury. The Miami native enters his junior season with 1,867 career rushing yards in 20 games.
- A 2013 All-ACC first-team selection, Denzel Perryman started all 13 games at outside linebacker for the Hurricanes in 2013, registering a team-leading 108 total tackles including 69 solo stops. In addition to earning All-America Honorable Mention honors from SI.com, Perryman was the recipient of the Hurricanes' 2013 Hard Hitter Award and Defensive MVP award.

CANES UNVEIL NEW UNIFORMS FOR 2014

- Miami has utilized two different uniform combinations in its first two games of the 2014 season. The uniforms were unveiled to the public at the 2014 UNite Spring Game.
- The new Hurricane uniform design reflects the vibrant, bold style of the city – from the beach to the architecture to the people. Steeped in tradition, the new aesthetic is anchored by the familiar orange and green colors, as well as the iconic split-U logo. Modern accents have been added in order to harness the team's early cutting-edge style both on and off the field in the 80's and 90's.
- Miami will now feature four interchangeable uniform colors: the tonal colors of the Ibis logo (green, orange, and white) inform three of the four new looks. At home, the Hurricanes will dress in orange. The orange jersey is accented by green directional graphics at the shoulder. A clean white and silver helmet, featuring an anodized finish and grey facemask, completes the look. The white jersey and pant is accented with green at the shoulder, and serves as the foundation of the away look. The white uniform is capped with a white helmet. The team will also showcase two alternate uniform colors – the first alternate showcasing a green jersey and pant with a white helmet. The team will also introduce a new alternate anthracite "Smoke" jersey and pant serving as a reminder of the early pioneering pre-game smoke that opened every home game.
- Miami will also keep its traditional and iconic white helmet with the split "U" in the rotation, giving the Hurricanes three different helmet options.

HEAD COACH AL GOLDEN

AL GOLDEN

Head Coach, Fourth Season
Penn State, 1991

Al Golden, the University of Miami's 22nd head football coach, is in his fourth season at the helm of the Hurricanes' program. Under his leadership, the 44-year old Golden laid a foundation and process to return the storied program to prominence. Golden led the Hurricanes to a 9-4 record in 2013 and a berth in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando - Miami's first bowl appearance since 2010.

The 2013 season began with a 7-0 start, including a win over No. 12 Florida as the Hurricanes jumped as high as No. 7 in the BCS rankings. Miami was led by nine All-ACC selections, including first-team LB Denzel Perryman and P Pat O'Donnell, who set the school single-season record for punting average. Miami is 11-4 in its last 15 games under Golden after the Hurricanes started 11-11 through the first 22 games.

Prior to Miami's bowl game in Orlando, Golden was the recipient of the 2013 Lombardi Award for Excellence in Coaching at the 44th Rotary Lombardi Award Ceremony.

In his second season at the helm, Golden led the Hurricanes, which were picked to finish fifth in the ACC Coastal Division, to a 7-5 record and a 5-3 league mark, earning a share of the 2012 ACC Coastal Division title. The 2012 season was highlighted by the rise of junior QB Stephen Morris, who threw for a career-best 3,345 passing yards and racked up a school-record 3,415 yards of total offense. Freshman Duke Johnson became Miami's first All-American since 2005 when he earned second-team All-America honors as a kick returner by the Walter Camp Football Foundation and FWAA Freshman All-America honors. Johnson rushed for a UM freshman-record 947 yards and amassed 2,060 all-purpose yards in his rookie season.

The Golden Era. Golden's brand of football--tough, smart and disciplined--was accepted and strides were made in that direction. From 2010 to 2011, the Canes improved 19-plus spots among the nation's FBS schools in turnover margin (+19), fewest penalties per game (+63) and fewest yards penalized per game (+85).

Golden oversaw an offense that was one of the most efficient in the country and produced lauded 2011 seasons for quarterback Jacory Harris, wide receiver Tommy Streeter and running back Lamar Miller. His persuasion on the defense was evident, as the Canes held several top-rated offenses to 20-plus points below their season averages. The Miami defense finished the season ranked No. 21 in the nation in scoring defense and tied for ninth in red zone defense.

With a commitment to community service, Golden instituted the Be the Match-Bone Marrow drive at Miami. Members of the football staff and team took an active part in registering members of the UM and South Florida communities for the national organization.

Golden arrived in Coral Gables after spending five seasons (2006-2010) as the head coach at Temple University. Over five seasons at Temple, Golden took the Owls to unprecedented heights. Before his arrival, TU had just two winning seasons over its previous 26 years and had only won 22 percent of its games over the previous 30 years.

In 2010, Golden led the Owls to an 8-4 overall record, 5-3 in Mid-American Conference (MAC) games and saw eight players named to the All-MAC first team. The 2009 season saw the Owls reach unparalleled success. Golden guided the Owls to new heights, finishing the season at 9-4 overall and tying for first place in the MAC East Division with a 7-1 mark. Temple recorded its first winning season since 1990 and made its first bowl appearance in 30 years. The Owls' bowl game was just the third in 111 years of Temple football. The MAC East championship was the Owls' best conference finish since joining the league in 2003. TU won a single-season record nine consecutive games.

The Colts Neck, N.J., native was named the Owls' 24th head football coach on December 6, 2005, after spending the prior five seasons as defensive coordinator at the University of Virginia.

Named the 2009 MAC Coach of the Year and the Maxwell Club's Tri-State Coach of the Year, Golden also saw an unprecedented 15 Owls earn

All-MAC honors, including a school record eight first-team All-MAC honorees. All-American Bernard Pierce was named the MAC Freshman of the Year, while sophomore Adrian Robinson garnered MAC Defensive Player of the Year accolades.

The Owls also received recognition for their community service efforts. In 2009, the Temple team was awarded the Robert P. Levy Community Service Award, presented by the Philadelphia Sports Congress, and the Athletic Department's inaugural T.E.A.M. [Temple's Exceptional Acts for Mankind] Award for community service.

Off the field, Golden has mentored the Owls through the greatest academic turnaround in the NCAA APR Reform Era. In his third season, Golden guided the Owls to a 5-7 mark, the team's most wins most since 1990, and a second-place finish in the MAC East. Facing five opponents that went on to postseason play, the Owls persevered to new heights, despite losing three games on the very last play of the game.

In 2008, Golden saw five Owls earn All-MAC honors, including senior DT Terrance Knighton, Temple's then-only first-team selection. Temple showed significant improvement on special teams, leading the nation in kickoff returns. The Owls out-scored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. During his second season in 2007, Golden once again played the nation's most true freshmen (20) and started the nation's most true freshmen (12). He led the Owls to a 4-8 overall record and a 4-4 mark during their inaugural season in the Mid-American Conference.

Along the way, TU won three consecutive games. The fourth win tied Temple's mark for the most conference wins since 1967. Led by All-MAC players DT Andre Neblett and DB Dominique Harris, the Cherry & White defense led the MAC in total defense, red zone defense, and pass defense. The Owls' red zone defense ranked first nationally.

In his first campaign in Owl Country, Golden played 22 true freshmen, the most in the nation, against the third most difficult schedule in the country. Only national champion Florida (10) and Stanford (9) played more bowl participants during the regular season than the Owls, who competed against eight teams that earned postseason berths. Thirty-eight players saw their first major college football action under Golden in 2006, including 27 freshmen.

Golden captured his first victory at the helm when the Owls defeated Bowling Green, 28-14, at Lincoln Financial Field on Oct. 28, 2006. The win was the largest accomplishment for the Owls on the field, but a multitude of goals were achieved off the field during Golden's initial campaign. Temple unveiled the most comprehensive academic support team in the Mid-American Conference and teamed with Adidas as the team's official outfitter. The program was also successful in assembling a regional, nonconference schedule for years to come.

Recruiting has also been a tremendous success under Golden's leadership. His initial signing class in 2006 was rated best in the MAC by CollegeFootballNews.com, while the 2007 and 2008 classes earned top honors in the league from Scout.com.

With a commitment to community service and academics at the core of Golden's program, a multitude of individual honors were bestowed upon the Owls in 2006. Seven student-athletes were named to the 2006 Philadelphia Inquirer Academic All-Area Football team, providing Temple the most honorees of the 10 Delaware Valley institutions that sponsor football. Three players were named to the 2006 Eastern College Athletic Conference Division I-A Football All-Star Team, marking the most for the Owls on the ECAC squad since a trio also earned recognition in 1997.

In addition, three football student-athletes were named honorable mention freshman All-Americans by The Sporting News. It signaled the largest number of rookies to receive national recognition in program history.

Golden was named the youngest defensive coordinator in Division I-A by Virginia head coach Al Groh in January 2001, after spending the previous season at his alma mater, serving as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator under Joe Paterno. From 2001 to 2004, the Cavaliers' defense improved under his tutelage, ranking 108th in total defense in his first year to ranking 18th in total defense in 2004. In the same time period, Virginia's scoring defense went from 74th in the nation (27.6 ppg) to 17th (17.7 ppg) utilizing Golden's 3-4 scheme.

In addition to his responsibilities as defensive coordinator, Golden directed the inside linebackers from 2001-04 before shifting to the secondary in 2005. In 2004, he oversaw a defense that featured the nation's best group of linebackers, according to Athlon, The Sporting News, and ESPN The Magazine. Under his guidance, Ahmad Brooks blossomed into a finalist for the Butkus Award. In 2003, Brooks and Kai Parham earned Freshman All-America honors. Golden was responsible for recruiting Brooks, the USA Today National Defensive Player of the Year--the highest ranked recruit to ever attend U.Va. Golden signed the Virginia High School Player of the Year in both 2002 (Brooks) and 2004 (Olu Hall).

During his first two seasons at Virginia, Golden helped develop two-time All-ACC linebacker Angelo Crowell, who currently plays with the Buffalo Bills, and 2003 Hula Bowl participant Merrill Robertson. Following the 2001 season, Golden was an assistant coach for the Gray team in the 64th Annual Blue-Gray All-Star Football Classic.

Golden began his coaching career in 1993 as offensive coordinator at Red Bank (N.J.) Catholic High School. He then served as a graduate assistant under George Welsh at Virginia from 1994 to 1996, where he worked primarily with the linebackers and the kickoff and punting teams. He helped develop All-ACC linebackers James Farrior and Jamie Sharper, both of whom were chosen in the 1997 NFL draft. Farrior was a first-round pick (#8) by the New York Jets, while Sharper was a second-round selection (#34) by the Baltimore Ravens. Golden then coached the linebackers at Boston College from 1997 to 1999 under Tom O'Brien. While at BC, Golden coached All-Big East and NFL linebackers Frank Chamberlin (Tennessee Titans) and Erik Storz (Jacksonville Jaguars). The Eagles finished the 1999 regular season with an 8-3 record and a top-25 national ranking, while making their first postseason bowl appearance since 1994.

Golden was a three-year (1989-91) letterwinner and two-year starter at tight end for Penn State, where he received the 1991 Ridge Riley Award, given annually to a player who displays excellence in scholarship, sportsmanship, friendship and leadership. As a junior in 1990, Golden played a key role in Penn State's nationally televised 24-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Notre Dame at South Bend.

His touchdown reception late in the fourth quarter tied the score at 21 as Penn State rallied from a 21-7 deficit. Golden captained the Nittany Lions his senior year and helped lead them to a 42-17 win over Tennessee in the 1992 Fiesta Bowl. Following that victory, Penn State finished with an 11-2 record and ranked third in the nation in the final 1991 AP poll.

After his tenure as a player in State College, Golden spent one season in the NFL with the New England Patriots.

Golden earned his undergraduate degree in pre-law from Penn State in 1991 before receiving his master's in sports psychology from Virginia in December, 1996.

A 2004 inductee of the Jersey Shore Sports Hall of Fame, he is married to the former Kelly Hanna of Lock Haven, Pa. The couple has three children--son A.J. (7), and daughters Addison (6) and Grace (3).

In 2013, he guided a defense that has tallied 29 sacks, more than doubling the Canes' 2012 production (14 sacks) and forced 27 turnovers, including 18 interceptions. Also in 2013, LB Denzel Perryman earned first-team All-ACC status and was a Dick Butkus Award semifinalist.

The defense, under D'Onofrio's guidance, finished strong and proved stingy, giving up an average of only 13.5 points in the last five games of the season.

Prior to the 2011 season, D'Onofrio saw two of his Temple standouts drafted, now are active on NFL rosters. Defensive end Muhammad Wilkerson was taken in the first round by the New York Jets and free safety Jaiquwan Jarrett went in the second round to the Philadelphia Eagles. In all, three Owls were drafted during D'Onofrio's tenure and five former players are active in the NFL.
