

1999-00 SEASON REVIEW

The University of Miami entered the 1999-00 season with high expectations. The Hurricanes were returning nine lettermen, including four starters, from a team that recorded one of the greatest seasons in school history posting a 23-7 record and ending the year ranked 10th in the nation.

Miami soon learned that things would not come easy and after a 5-5 start many wondered if the Hurricanes would even qualify for post-season play. The Hurricanes would rebound from that slow start, however, and eventually surpass the accomplishments of the 1998-99 team.

UM finished the season with a 23-11 record, earned a share of the BIG EAST regular season championship with a 13-3 conference record, received its third consecutive NCAA tournament appearance, and after wins over Arkansas and Ohio State, reached the Sweet Sixteen for the first time in school history.

Miami opened the 1999-00 season ranked in the Associated Press top-25 poll for the first time in school history debuting at No. 25. The Hurricanes lived up to the hype early winning its opening three game over Central Florida, Monmouth and Bethune-Cookman by an average margin of 25 points.

The month of December saw things go terribly wrong as the Hurricanes dropped three of its next four games. Opponents seemed to have career nights against UM. Memphis started the Miami slide as guard Keiron Shine came off the bench to score 39 points, connecting of 6-of-7 three-pointers, as the Tigers defeated Miami, 82-72, in Memphis.

Next up was North Carolina Charlotte and this time it was forward Jobey Thomas. Thomas hit 7-of-12 three-pointers, including four straight in the second half, en route to a career-high 28 points as the 49ers won, 75-65, at Miami Arena.

Following a 97-61 win over Hartford, Miami took on No. 7 North Carolina in the HIP Health Plan Orange Bowl

Classic. Miami shot just 28-of-81 (.346) from the field in dropping a 78-68 decision to the Tar Heels.

Miami then traveled to the Puerto Rico for the San Juan Shootout. The change of location did not help the Hurricanes who lost two of three games and stood at 5-5 with the BIG EAST season just around the corner.

Miami returned from San Juan dejected but not defeated. The Hurricanes won two straight non-conference games over Florida Atlantic and Quinnipiac and entered the BIG EAST conference schedule with some confidence.

UM split its first four conference games defeating West Virginia and Seton Hall while falling to Syracuse and Georgetown. The loss to the Hoyas was extremely difficult for Miami who gave up a school-record 32 offensive rebounds in the 65-61 defeat.

Reeling after the loss to Georgetown, Miami (9-7, 2-2 BIG EAST) entered its road game at Villanova feeling it needed a win to keep its post-season hopes alive.

Trailing by 10 points late in the second half it looked as if UM was headed to another devastating defeat. But the Hurricanes battled back with an 8-2 run to pull within four, 64-60, with 2:28 left. After both teams exchanged free throws, Mario Bland sank a six footer to cut the deficit to two with 1:10 remaining.

Things looked bleak as Miami trailed 66-64 and Villanova's Brook Sales stood at the foul line shooting two free throws with just 16.7 seconds remaining. Sales missed both free throws and UM came down with the rebound.

Vernon Jennings drove baseline and tried to get a pass to Bland in the paint. The pass was tipped and miraculously rolled to Johnny Hemsley on the left wing. Hemsley picked up the loose ball and hit a three-point basket at the buzzer to give Miami the improbable 67-66 win.

The win over Villanova was just the spark Miami needed. The Hurricanes reeled off six straight conference wins before a 47-45 loss to Providence at Miami Arena left UM at 15-9 overall, 8-3 in the BIG EAST, and clearly on the NCAA bubble.

Miami then traveled to Storrs, CT to face 18th-ranked Connecticut at Gampel Pavilion. Once again in a must win situation the Hurricanes pulled off the upset knocking off the defending national champions, 63-57. With the win Miami became the first team in BIG EAST history to win consecutive games at Gampel.

UM won its next three games defeating West Virginia, Notre Dame and Pittsburgh setting the stage for its regular-season finale against 18th-ranked St. John's. Connecticut's win over Syracuse the night before meant that the winner of the UM-St. John's game would share the BIG EAST regular season title.

Miami went on to defeat the Red Storm, 74-70, in overtime to claim the first BIG EAST title in school history.

Three days later, Johnny Hemsley (second team) and Mario Bland (third team) were named All-BIG EAST.

On March 12 Miami received its third consecutive NCAA Tournament bid and was seeded 6th in the South Region.

UM faced SEC tournament champion Arkansas in the opening round and defeated the Razorbacks 75-71 behind 20 points from Johnny Hemsley. UM reached new heights two days later defeating second-seed and Big Ten champion Ohio State, 75-62. With the win Miami advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the first time in school history.

The next week UM fell to Tulsa, 80-71, ending the Hurricanes' season. Miami ended the season ranked 23rd by the Associated Press and 20th in the USA Today/ESPN poll.

Game 7 - No. 7 NORTH CAROLINA 78, MIAMI 68 HIP Health Plan Orange Bowl Basketball Classic

December 18, 1999

National Car Rental Center, Sunrise, FL

Jason Capel scored 20 points and pulled down 11 rebounds to lead seventh-ranked North Carolina to a 78-68 win over Miami at the HIP Health Plan Orange Bowl Basketball Classic at the National Car Rental Center in Sunrise, FL.

Johnny Hemsley, a preseason Naismith Award candidate, poured in a game-high 21 points to lead Miami.

Miami outrebounded the Tar Heels 42-41, including a 20-7 advantage on the offensive glass, but could not overcome a cold shooting night. The Hurricanes shot just 34.6 percent (28-81) from the floor while the Tar Heels connected on 26-of-54 (.481) from the field, including a scorching 6-11 (.545) from three-point range.

Trailing 59-43 with 9:58 to play in the second-half, Salmons caught fire scoring eight points in a 13-3 run as the Hurricanes cut the lead to six (62-56) with 6:13 left. UNC freshman Joseph Forte stopped the bleeding with a three-pointer from the top of the key to push the lead back up to nine.

Miami would continue to battle back and eventually cut the lead to 71-66 following two free throws from Hemsley with 1:14 to play. But North Carolina hit 5-of-6 free throws down the stretch to keep the game out of reach.

Game 11 - MIAMI 89, FLORIDA ATLANTIC 52

December 27, 1999

Miami Arena, Miami, FL

John Salmons scored 17 points, leading a balanced attack as Miami defeated Florida Atlantic 89-52 at Miami Arena.

Six Hurricanes scored in double-digits, helping overcome the absence of leading scorer Johnny Hemsley, who missed his second straight game because of a suspension.

Leroy Hurd had 15 points for Miami and Mario Bland scored 14. Vernon Jennings added 11, and Elton Tyler and Dwayne Wimbley each had 10.

The Hurricanes jumped to a 46-22 halftime lead behind Salmons' 12 points. Miami went on a 12-0 spurt in a two-minute span to build a 28-11 lead with 6:57 left.

Salmons scored eight of his points during that run, including a 4-point play in which sank a free throw after making a 3-pointer from the corner. He then stole the inbounds pass and converted it into a layup.

Marques Williams led Florida Atlantic with 12 points, followed by Ryan Hercek with 10.

Game 12 - MIAMI 80, QUINNIPIAC 66

December 29, 1999

Miami Arena, Miami, FL

Johnny Hemsley, returning from a two-game suspension, scored 24 points to help Miami stave off Quinnipiac 80-66.

Hemsley scored seven points as the Hurricanes ended the game with a 15-0 run.

Miami center Mario Bland added 19 points, including 11-of-12 free throws, but it was Elton Tyler's interior defense and rebounding down the stretch that sparked the Hurricanes' game-deciding run. Tyler finished with nine points, six assists, and three blocks.

Tyler hit two free throws to ignite the burst. He then fed Bland for a layup. Following a Tyler blocked shot, Hemsley nailed a 3-pointer.

After a Braves' turnover, one of 22, Hemsley went coast-to-coast for a layup to give Miami a secure 74-66 lead with 1:28 left.

Point guard Vernon Jennings supplied 14 points, eight assists and seven steals. Mario Bland added 12 points for the Hurricanes.

Elton Tyler sank two free throws as West Virginia continued to turn the ball over down the stretch. Jennings banked in a 15-footer, and following an offensive foul by the Mountaineers, Hemsley hit a short baseline jumper to give Miami a secure 58-49 lead with 2:37 remaining.

The 26 turnovers forced was a season-best for Miami and 13 steals tied a season high. Jennings seven steals established a career high and were just two off tying the school record.

Game 17 - MIAMI 67, VILLANOVA 66 January 17, 2000

The Pavilion, Villanova, PA

Johnny Hemsley's three-pointer at the buzzer gave Miami an improbable 67-66 win over Villanova University in front of a sold out crowd and an ESPN national television audience.

Hemsley scored 21 points and John Salmons, a native of nearby Plymouth Meeting, Pa., had a career-high 19 points and 10 rebounds for the Hurricanes, who won for the second time in three games.

Trailing by 10, Miami made an 8-2 run to pull to within four, 64-60, with 2:28 left in the second half. The two teams exchanged free throws to make the game 66-62 with 1:46 left but Mario Bland sank a six-footer to cut the deficit to two with 1:10 to go.

Neither team could get their offense going in the first half, especially behind the three-point arc. They combined to go 2-for-18 from beyond the arc, including Miami's 0-for-8. The Wildcats went on an 8-1 run to end the half with a 32-28 advantage.

Game 18 - MIAMI 62, BOSTON COLLEGE 54 January 22, 2000

American Airlines Arena, Miami, FL

Mario Bland scored a career-high 24 points and had nine rebounds to lead Miami to a 62-54 win over Boston College.

Leading by three at halftime, the Hurricanes started the second half on a 9-0 run, extending its lead to 39-27. The Eagles cut the deficit to 46-44 with 8:54 to play after Kenny Walls' slam dunk, but it wasn't enough.

That's when Bland, who became the 23rd player in school history to surpass 1,000 career points, took over. The senior scored four of the next six points for Miami, upping the lead to 52-47.

Boston College never got any closer to the Hurricanes. Johnny Hemsley scored 12 points and Vernon Jennings added 11 for Miami, which beat the Eagles for the fourth consecutive time.

Miami held the Eagles to just 33 percent in the first half and it only got worse. Boston College shot 7-for-26 (27 percent) in the second half and 30 percent for the game.

Troy Bell, the second-leading scorer in the Big East, led the Eagles with 20 points on just 4-for-15 shooting.

Because of a broken water line at Miami Arena, the game was moved to the nearby American Airlines Arena, home of the Miami Heat.

Game 19 - MIAMI 63, NOTRE DAME 49 January 25, 2000

Joyce Center, Notre Dame, IN

Johnny Hemsley scored 18 points and Miami held Notre Dame's Troy Murphy, the BIG EAST's leading scorer, to just 14 points as the Hurricanes beat the Irish 63-49 at the Joyce Center.

Notre Dame trailed 38-25 with just under 16 minutes left before a Murphy dunk capped a 6-0 run that cut the lead to 38-31. But Murphy was hit with a technical foul for hanging on the rim, and Hemsley converted both free throws to spark an 8-0 run that pushed the lead to 46-31 with 10:33 left.

Notre Dame never threatened again, and Miami led by as many as 21.

The Hurricanes bottled up the inside, forcing Notre Dame to go to its outside shooting game, which never caught fire. Three days after setting a school record with 14 3-pointers in an 81-66 win over Pittsburgh, the Irish were just 5-of-22 from behind the 3-point arc and shot 32 percent (16-of-50) for the game.

John Salmons scored 10 points for the Hurricanes, who shot 21-of-45 from the field and 17-of-18 from the foul line.

Miami led 31-22 at halftime after holding the Irish to 8-of-23 shooting. The Hurricanes shot 50 percent (13-of-26).

Game 27 - MIAMI 55, NOTRE DAME 52 February 26, 2000

Miami Arena, Miami, FL

Mario Bland scored a team-high 14 points and the Hurricanes limited Notre Dame's Troy Murphy, the nation's fifth leading scorer (23.4 ppg) to just 14 points, as the University of Miami knocked off the visiting Irish, 55-52.

David Graves led Notre Dame with 16 points. Miami's John Salmons added 12 points.

Miami played without leading scorer Johnny Hemsley who was suspended for disciplinary reasons. Starting in place of Hemsley was sophomore Paulo Coelho who scored a career-best eight points, including a 3-pointer with 3:06 left that keyed the victory.

Miami, which has won nine of its last 10 conference games, remains in contention for the regular season BIG EAST title.

After missing all six 3-point attempts in the first half, the Hurricanes hit three consecutive shots to help them draw even at 45-45 with 8:30 remaining.

Miami's fourth three-pointer however was the largest. After Murphy had given the Fighting Irish a 50-49 lead with 3:31 to play, Coelho, who played 22 minutes, then drained a 3-pointer at the 3:06 mark to give Miami a 52-50 lead which it wouldn't relinquish.

In the first half, Notre Dame had more turnovers (16 to 15) than shots, but still led 28-22 as the Hurricanes made just 9-of-28 from the field.

Season Recap and Boxscores

Game 29 - MIAMI 74, NO. 18 ST. JOHN'S 70 March 5, 2000

Miami Arena, Miami, FL

Elton Tyler scored a game-high 20 points and Mario Bland added 19 points as Miami recorded a dramatic, 74-70, overtime victory over 18th-ranked St. John's to claim a share of the BIG EAST regular-season championship.

The Miami win snapped the Red Storm's eight game winning streak. Lavor Postell led St. John's with 16 points and 11 rebounds, while Bootsyt Thornton and Reggie Jessie added 11 points each.

The title, which Miami shares with Syracuse, is Miami's first since joining the BIG EAST in 1991 and the school's first of any kind since 1965, when Miami finished 10-0 in winning its eighth consecutive Florida Intercollegiate Conference title.

Trailing 62-60 with 10 seconds remaining in regulation, Bland hit a jumper from the top of the key to send the game into overtime.

Tyler would score five points in the overtime but it was his block of an Erick Barkley jumper with 20 seconds remaining that helped preserve the win. Miami's Vernon Jennings grabbed the rebound and was fouled. The senior, playing in his final home game, hit both free throws to put the Hurricanes ahead 74-70 with nine seconds left.

Game 30 - NO. 23 MIAMI 61, NOTRE DAME 58 AT&T BIG EAST Championship - Quarterfinals March 9, 2000

Madison Square Garden, New York, NY

Johnny Hemsley scored a game-high 17 points and the University of Miami hit BIG EAST Player of the Year Troy Murphy to just 15 points as the 23rd-ranked Hurricanes defeated Notre Dame, 61-58, in the quarterfinals of the AT&T BIG EAST Championship.

Miami, which led 34-31 at the half, stretched its second-half lead 53-44 before Notre Dame charged back with a 9-0 run capped by a Jimmy Carroll steal and lay-up with 4:56 to play.

Miami then responded with six straight points on baskets by Tyler and John Salmons, and a pair of foul shots by Jennings to push the lead back to 59-53 lead with 2:19 remaining.

The Irish responded once again, drawing within one point with 20.6 seconds to play following a 3-pointer by Jere Macura.

Leading 59-58 with 18.8 seconds left, Jennings missed the front end of a one-and-one, the Irish came down with the rebound and went for the win. But Murphy's three-point attempt was off the mark. Jennings found Tyler alone downcourt who dunked for a 61-58 lead with less than a second left.

Notre Dame had one last chance, but Tyler blocked Swanagan's inbounds pass and time expired.
