CARD FILE

■ Louisville has won 20 games for the 14th straight season. The Cardinals are one of four schools to have won 20 or more games each of the past 14 seasons.

■ Chinanu Onuaku was honored on the CoSIDA Academic All-District team, one of four ACC players with the recognition. He has nine double-doubles in ACC play, including 10 points, 11 rebounds and four blocked shots vs. Duke. He grabbed his 400th career rebound at Pitt.

■ Louisville's academic performance in the 2015 fall semester was impressive, with 13 of 15 men's basketball student-athletes achieving a 3.0 or better grade point average. The Cardinals posted a collective 3.36 GPA for the 2015 fall semester, just short of the team record of 3.47 achieved in 2013.

■ Louisville's 145 victories over the last five years are the second-most wins in the nation in that stretch.

■ UofL leads the nation in scoring margin (+16.3), is seventh in scoring defense (60.8), eighth in field goal percentage defense (.384), 17th in rebound margin (+7.9) and 19th in offensive rebounds (13.6).

■ With three games remaining, Damion Lee needs 13 points to reach 2,000 for his career, including his three seasons at Drexel. Trey Lewis needs nine points for 1,500 career points, including his time at Penn State and Cleveland State. Lee has scored in double figures in 25 of his 27 games this season while Lewis has 18 double-digit scoring efforts.

■ About Miami — With three games remaining in its season, Louisville will play its second straight on the road on Saturday at the Miami (Fla.) Hurricanes. Miami (22-5, 11-4 ACC), ranked 12th by AP and 11th in the USA Today coaches poll, had won five straight and eight of its last nine before falling 96-71 at North Carolina on Feb. 20. The Hurricanes returned home to beat Virginia 64-61 in their last game on Feb. 22 as Davon Reed scored 21 points, connecting on 5-of-6 three-pointers.

Senior guard Sheldon McClellan leads Miami in scoring (15.7 ppg, 13th in the ACC, 24 double figure scoring games this season) and three-pointers (43-of-105, .410). Senior guard Angel Rodriguez averages 11.3 points and a team-high 4.3 assists (fifth in the ACC). Miami ranks 26th in the nation in free throw percentage (.746), 25th in fewest turnovers per game (10.7) and 35th in field goal percentage (.473). Miami is seventh in the ratings percentage index (RPI) and 13th in the Sagarin Ratings through Feb. 24.

Louisville has an 9-2 advantage in its series with Miami, winning the last five matchups. The Cardinals won both meetings last season.

UofL Coach Rick Pitino has an 5-0 record against Miami - four victories came at Louisville and one as Pitino's 1986-87 Providence team which reached the Final Four beat Miami 92-88 (1/20/87).

Damion Lee scored his 1,000th career point against Miami on Nov. 20, 2014 in his final season at Drexel. He had nine points and two blocked shots in the game, but Miami prevailed 66-46 in the opening round of the 2014 Charleston Classic.

■ Closing Runs Help at Pitt — Louisville closed both halves at Pitt with significant runs. With three players on the court who had played a combined 71 minutes (Stockman, Levitch, Henderson) in the Cardinals previous 14 ACC games because of foul trouble and injuries, UofL closed the first half with a 9-2 run over the last 5:31. After trailing 48-40 with 9:11 to play, Louisville closed the game with a 27-12 run while connecting on all nine of its field goals.

■ Significant Individual Efforts at Pitt — In his last three starts vs. Boston College, Duke and Pitt, Deng Adel has averaged 12.3 points, 6.3 rebounds and shot 68.2 percent from the field (15-of-22). He totaled 12 points, a team-high seven rebounds and a thunderous dunk at Pitt ... David Levitch's eight points scored at Pitt equalled his total scoring in his previous ACC games this season. It was one below his career high ... Quentin Snider led the Cards with 14 points, seven assists and two steals at Pitt. It was his most points in 11 games, his most assists in seven games and it marked the seventh time he handed out six or more assists in a game this season. He passed 100 assists on the season against Pitt ... Jay Henderson played the last three minutes of the first half at Pitt. He had played two minutes in ACC play prior to that.

■ Card File — Louisville has a 52-15 record (.776) in February over the last nine years (since 2007-08), winning 18 of its last 23 in the month (4-2 this year, 5-3 in 2014-15) ... Louisville has won at least 22 games through its first 28 games for the fourth straight season. The Cardinals were 22-6 at this stage last season as well ... Louisville has an all-time 10-5 record against teams ranked No. 12 in the AP poll as Miami currently stands, including a 3-3 mark under Rick Pitino. UofL last faced a No. 12 AP ranked team when it fell 71-59 to Notre Dame on March 4, 2015 ... Four of Louisville's six losses have come to teams currently ranked in the top 15 of the RPI ... UofL has a 52-17 record in conference games over the past four seasons ... With three games remaining, Damion Lee needs 13 points to reach 2,000 for his career, a figure that includes his scoring at Drexel. Trey Lewis needs nine points to reach 1,500 for his career ... UofL's bench scored 26 points at Pitt, the 17th time this year that the bench has contributed 24 or more points ... The Cardinals shot just two free throws against Syracuse (making one), marking just the third time in at least the last 35 years that UofL has shot only two free throws in a game (also vs. Connecticut on Feb. 2, 2009; and vs. Marquette on March 2, 2010). Syracuse committed just nine fouls, matching a season-low for a Louisville opponent (also 9 by Kennesaw State on Dec. 16) ... Louisville is 155-0 since Jan. 13, 1945 when holding its opponent below 50 points, as it did against Boston College on Feb. 6 ... UofL limited Pittsburgh to 24.0 percent shooting from the field in the first half in its game at Louisville, the 11th time the Cardinals have held a team below 30 percent accuracy for a half this season ... Louisville has won 126 consecutive games when scoring at least 85 points in regulation and is 106-0 in those games under Pitino ... Louisville has started 12 different combinations this season in its 28 games. Ten different players have started games this season ... Quentin Snider and Ray Spalding are the first Jefferson County high school products to start multiple games together for UofL in 21 years, since DeJuan Wheat & Jason Osborne in 1994-95.

■ Onuaku Earns Academic All-District Honors -- Chinanu Onuaku was named to the 2016 College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-District 2 Men's Basketball first team, which recognizes the nation's top student-athletes for their combined performances athletically and in the classroom. The Academic All-District™ teams include the student-athletes divided into eight geographic districts across the United States and Canada. Onuaku will advance to the CoSIDA Academic All-America® Team ballot, where first-, second- and third-team All-America honorees will be selected later in February. A sophomore communication major from Lanham, Md., Onuaku has a 3.42 cumulative grade point average at UofL. He is among four ACC players to achieve the honor, which was also bestowed upon Duke's Grayson Allen, Pittsburgh's Rafael Maia, and North Carolina's Marcus Paige. Onuaku is one of only seven sophomores nationally to achieve the honor. Last season, Louisville's Wayne Blackshear earned Academic All-America second team honors and UofL's Peyton Siva was a 2013 Academic All-America first-team selection.

■ Computers — Louisville is No. 16 nationally in the ratings percentage index (RPI) and is fifth in the Sagarin Ratings through Feb. 24. UofL has the nation's No. 1 defense in Ken Pomeroy's adjusted defensive ratings and are seventh overall.

■ Cards Sixth All-Time in the Polls — Louisville has been ranked in the Associated Press poll on 601 occasions, sixth most all-time (completed the 2014-15 season with a streak of 60 consecutive weeks). UofL has been ranked among the nation's top 10 in the preseason poll four of the last five years (unranked this year, eighth in 2014-15, third in 2013-14, second in 2012-13, ninth in 2011-12). Until the first three polls of this year, the last time UofL was not in the poll was in the March 5, 2012 poll -- a year in which UofL advanced to the Final Four.

Louisville was No. 18 in the USA Today coaches poll when it beat then top-ranked North Carolina on Feb. 1, but UofL can no longer be ranked in that poll because teams banned from the postseason are not eligible to be included.

■ Onuaku on the Rise — Louisville center/forward Chinanu Onuaku has continued to improve and has risen as the Cardinals are into ACC play. Onuaku is sixth in the ACC in rebounding (8.6 rpg), third in blocked shots (2.0 bpg) and sixth in offensive rebounds (3.0) while shooting 62.2 percent from the field.

He has 10 double-doubles on the season and 12 for his career, including six consecutive in his first six ACC games this season. His nine double-doubles in ACC games is tied for the league lead with North Carolina's Brice Johnson. He is the first Cardinal with six straight double-doubles in 22 years, since Clifford Rozier had nine straight during the 1993-94 season. He leads the team with 30 dunks this season. He has made 16-of-24 free throws in his last 10 games (.667). His season free throw percentage is up over 10 points from last season's figure.

■ Wear Red for the Seniors — The annual "Wear Red for the Seniors" game is set for March 1 when the Cardinals face Georgia Tech in the final home game of the season. Cardinal fans are encouraged to wear red attire for that Senior Day event and the team will wear special red adidas uniforms that will be worn for that game only. Louisville has won 16 of its last 17 Senior Day games (13 of 14 under UofL Coach Rick Pitino), including last year's 59-57 victory over No. 2 Virginia as Mangok Mathiang's jump shot with 2.7 seconds remaining provided the winning margin. The Cardinal Authentic store, with locations near Gate 2 at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium and at the front of the KFC Yum! Center, has replica uniform attire for sale as well as shirts for the final game of the season.

■ Griffith an ACC Legend — Former Louisville All-America guard Darrell Griffith is among 14 former standout players and a three-time Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year that headline this year's class of ACC Basketball Legends presented by New York Life. The Legends will be recognized during the 2016 New York Life ACC Tournament, which will be held March 8-12 at Verizon Center in Washington, D.C. Griffith is UofL's career scoring leader (2,333 points) and was the 1980 John Wooden Award winner as national player of the year.

■ UofL Self-Imposes Postseason Ban — The University of Louisville announced on Feb. 5 that the decision was made to withhold the men's basketball program from all conference and NCAA postseason competition following the 2015-16 men's basketball season. The decision was based upon available information gathered by the NCAA Enforcement Staff and UofL, as it was reasonable to conclude violations had occurred in the men's basketball program in the past. The University is continuing to cooperate with the NCAA on the resolution of the matter and will evaluate the information as the inquiry continues. Given the ongoing inquiry, and in accordance with NCAA bylaws, UofL cannot comment further at this time.

The ban will halt a string of nine consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances for the Cardinals. UofL will also not participate in the 2016 ACC Tournament in Washington, D.C. Louisville advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight in three of the last four years and the Cardinals and Michigan State are the only two schools to reach the last four consecutive NCAA Sweet Sixteens. Louisville lost in overtime to Michigan State in the East Region championship last season.

■ More — Louisville is 22-1 this season shooting better from the field than its opponent, 20-2 when leading at halftime and 18-3 when outrebounding its opponent ... Louisville has been ranked in 73 of the last 76 Associated Press polls ... UofL Coach Rick Pitino coached his 1,000 collegiate game at Duke on Feb. 8. His games have come at five different schools, but over half have been at Louisville (522) ... Chinanu Onuaku's scoring average rise of +6.7 points over last year is the fifth most improved scoring average in the ACC. His 11 rebounds two game ago against Duke was his 13th double-digit rebounding performance of the season ... In its second year in the league, Notre Dame is the only team Louisville has not beaten in ACC action ... Louisville's victory over North Carolina on Feb. 1 broke the Tar Heels' 12-game win streak ... After scoring two points in the first seven minutes against Syracuse and falling behind 18-6 over the first 10 minutes of the game, Louisville outscored the Orange 66-40 from that point on ... With its victory over North Carolina, Louisville improved to 12-13 all-time against teams ranked No 2 in the nation, including an 11-11 record in regular season games (4-3 under coach Rick Pitino) ... Louisville signee V.J. King (Paul VI Catholic High School, Fairfax, Va.) was named to the McDonald's All-American on Jan. 17, becoming the 23rd UofL signee to earn the honor since it began in 1977 and the Cardinals' first since 2011. He will play in the national all-star game on March 30 at Chicago's United Center ... Louisville has won its last 155 games when holding its opponent below 50 points, last falling 44-41 to Western Kentucky on Jan. 10, 1945 ... Donovan Mitchell's dunk vs. Syracuse was SportsCenter's top play from Feb. 17. Mitchell has scored in double figures in 12 games this season.

■ Special adidas Uniforms This Month — Inspired by Cardinals' uniforms of the 1980s, adidas and the University of Louisville unveil the Black History Month collection to commemorate one of the program's first three African-American basketball players Wade Houston. The Tennessee native embraced the opportunity to break the color line on court from 1963-66 and returned to Louisville as an assistant coach in 1976.

Louisville wore all-black and all-cream versions of the tribute uniforms for the Cardinals home and away games against Duke, the opponent when Louisville prevailed 72-69 in the 1986 NCAA Championship game in Dallas, Texas. That 1986 title team was honored at halftime of the Feb. 20 game.

To complement the uniforms and for other games, the Cardinals have laced-up adidas' Black History Month basketball sneaker collection inspired by Jesse Owens. At the 1936 Berlin summer games, Owens became a groundbreaking athlete and symbol for social justice and equality after a historic performance where he became the first American track and field athlete to win four gold medals in a single games. Each shoe in the collection features cream tones, dark brown contrasts, gold accents and signature details including Owen's 733 bib number treated with gold foil on the tongue and a 1936 graphic-print in the sock liner.

Fans can grab their own team gear at adidas.com, Cardinal Authentic, and other campus area locations this February.

■ Five-League Champs -- UofL Coach Rick Pitino is the only coach to win both regular season and tournament championships in five different conferences, including three while at Louisville (ECAC North Atlantic, Southeastern, Conference USA, Big East, American).

■ Impressive Long-Range Shooting — Louisville's 66.7 percent three-point field goal percentage at Virginia Tech (12-of-18) was its best since the Cardinals made 73.9 percent of its threes (17-23) against Morgan State on Dec. 27, 2010. The 12 threes made were its most since making 13 threes at SMU on March 5, 2014. Damion Lee (6-of-7 threes) and Trey Lewis (4-of-7 threes) both made season-high three-pointers. The team made 7-of-10 threes in the second half.

■ Event Champions — Louisville claimed the Brooklyn Hoops Holiday Invitational title by sweeping its four games in the five-team, round-robin event in November. It was the 28th regular season tournament championship for UofL.

■ Quality Performance At Both Ends — Louisville has played well at both ends of the floor this season. Defensively through games of Feb. 24, the Cardinals are eighth in the nation in field goal percentage defense (.384), seventh in scoring defense (60.8 points), 17th in rebound margin (+7.9), 29th in blocked shots (5.1) and 25th in turnover margin (+2.8). UofL is third in the ACC in steals (7.3) and second in rebounding margin while leading the league in scoring margin and field goal percentage defense. Louisville has a differential of 9.5 percent between its shooting percentage and its opponents. Twelve of UofL's 22 victories have been by 20 or more points and 15 have been by double figure margins. UofL is the top team in the nation in Ken Pomeroy's adjusted defensive statistics through Feb. 24.

Offensively, the Cardinals are 26th in the nation in field goal percentage (.479) and lead the nation in scoring margin (+16.3 points). UofL has surpassed the 50 percent mark in 14 games. The Cardinals have shot above 60 percent from the field for a half in eight of the last 20 games, including a high of 69.6 percent vs. Saint Louis. Louisville scored 80 or more points in its first four games for the second straight season. This year is the first that the Cards have shot above 50 percent from the field in its first five games of the season since at least 1971-72 (when complete records are available).

■ Cards Continue Productive Defense — Louisville teams under Rick Pitino have been known for their defensive intensity and the 2015-16 unit has followed in that tradition. UofL has limited its opponents to 58 or less points in 12 games this season, allowing an average of 60.8 points, seventh in the nation in scoring defense. Louisville has committed fewer turnovers than its opponent in 20 games and is 25th in the nation in turnover margin (+2.8), committing single-digit turnovers in five games this season.

Louisville has ranked among the nation's top 40 in field goal percentage defense in 12 of the past 14 years, including this season's .384 percentage, which is eighth in the nation. UofL has held 15 of its opponents under 40 percent shooting from the field, nine under 36 percent and five under 30 percent.

■ Rebounding Strength — Louisville is 17th in the nation in rebounding margin with an +7.9 advantage and is 19th in offensive rebounds per game (13.6). The Cards have had a double-digit rebounding margin in nine of its games. Louisville has more than doubled its opponent's rebound total in five games (vs. North Florida, St. Francis, Saint Louis, Grand Canyon and Kennesaw St.) after having done that only five times in the previous 1,000 games. The Cards have registered a +30 or better rebounding advantage in a single game in each of the past two years after finishing with a 53-22 margin vs. North Florida and 55-20 vs. Grand Canyon. Last season, UofL outrebounded Jacksonville State 60-26 on Nov. 17, 2014. Eight different UofL players average three or more rebounds. UofL has been outrebounded by its opponent just six times this season, including a 34-28 deficit on the boards at Pitt on Feb. 24, a team ranked 11th in the nation in rebound margin.

■ Success vs. Top 25 Foes -- Louisville has won 30 of its last 55 against AP ranked opponents, beating to No. 20 Duke on Feb. 20 in its last Top 25 matchup. Louisville has a 49-38 record against Top 25 teams over the last nine years (3-3 this year, 4-7 last year, 5-5 in 2013-14, 9-3 in 2012-13). UofL has been victorious eight of the last 17 times it has faced an AP top-five opponent. UofL has won 18 of its last 36 games when facing Top 10 teams, spanning the last nine years. The next opponent the Cardinals will face that is currently ranked is No. 12/11 Miami, which UofL will play on Feb. 27.

■ Injury Update — Ray Spalding missed the Cards' Feb. 24 game at Pitt with a groin injury. His condition is listed as day-to-day. Anas Mahmoud is out for the remainder of the season after suffering a right ankle sprain in practice on Feb. 15. With an estimated 3-6 weeks recovery time, he will miss the Cardinals' three remaining games. He did not travel to Pitt and is not with the team at Miami. Mangok Mathiang broke his left foot on Dec. 19 against Western Kentucky, had surgery to insert a screw, and is not expected to return by the end of the season.

■ Lee a Finalist for Erving Award — UofL graduate guard/forward Damion Lee is among 10 watch list finalists for the 2016 Julius Erving Small Forward of the Year Award presented by the University of Massachusetts and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Lee was sixth among the nation's top small forwards in a preseason ranking of the position by The Sporting News. He was also cited on CBSsports.com's list of the Top 100 players entering the 2015-16 season. Lee is playing his final collegiate season at UofL after transferring from Drexel, where he was the nation's No. 4 scorer last year (21.4 ppg). He leads the Cardinals in scoring and is ninth in the ACC, averaging 16.6 points and 1.5 steals while connecting on 45 percent of his shots from the field. He needs 13 points to reach 2,000 for his career.

Lee is on the 2016 Wooden Award late season Top 20 list announced on Feb. 10, with voting beginning at the end of the season. He is also on the 2016 Naismith Trophy Men's College Player of the Year mid season watch list, one of eight ACC players included. Ten finalists will be named March 2 for the Naismith, and the winner will be announced on April 3.

■ Card Clips — Chinanu Onuaku grabbed his 400th career rebound in his last game at Pitt. He totaled 10 points, five rebounds, two blocked shots and a career high six assists at Pitt ... UofL has dominated inside this season, scoring 49 percent of its points in the paint (1050 points in 28 games, 37.5 per game). The Cardinals scored 30 points in the paint at Pitt in its last game ... Matz Stockman played the last eight minutes of the first half at Notre Dame and contributed six points, three rebounds, a blocked shot and a dunk to close the half. He followed with six points and two rebounds in 10 minutes against Syracuse ... Quentin Snider's 104 assists with 37 turnovers this season ranks him sixth in the ACC and 40th in the nation in assists-to-turnover ratio (2.81). He has committed a turnover an average of one every 21.6 minutes ... The 41 points scored by Pitt in Louisville was the lowest total ever allowed by UofL against an AP ranked opponent. The previous low was 43 points by No. 8 Saint Louis in a 68-43 Louisville victory on Dec. 28, 1956 ... Forward Herbert Crook (1984-88), a starter on the Cards' 1986 NCAA Championship team, was among six 2015 inductees to the UofL Athletic Hall of Fame.

■ 28 Former Pitino Assistants/Players Became Head Coaches -- UofL Coach Rick Pitino has had 28 of his former assistants or players rise to a collegiate head coaching position. Pitino's son, Richard Pitino, added his name in April 2012 when he was named head coach at FIU and is now at Minnesota. There are 10 additional former assistants as current head coaches to bring the total to 11 active, including Mick Cronin at Cincinnati; Scott Davenport at Bellarmine; Kevin Keatts at UNC Wilmington, Steve Masiello at Manhattan; Marvin Menzies at New Mexico State; Kareem Richardson at Missouri-Kansas City; Reggie Theus at Cal State Northridge; Kevin Willard at Seton Hall; and Tubby Smith at Texas Tech. Pitino's nine Division I former assistants as current head coaches is the most in the nation. Three active coaches reached the 2015 NCAA Tournament (Cronin, Masiello and Menzies).

Pitino has a collective 40-10 record in games against his former assistants (3-0 vs. Ralph Willard; 7-5 Tubby Smith; 7-0 Billy Donovan, 7-5 Mick Cronin, 1-0 Scott Davenport, 1-0 Marvin Menzies, 6-0 Kevin Willard, 2-0 Steve Masiello, 2-0 Richard Pitino, 2-0 Kareem Richardson, 1-0 Kevin Keatts, 1-0 Reggie Theus). Davenport's team won the 2011 NCAA Division II Championship. Indiana Pacers head coach Frank Vogel was a student manager for Pitino at Kentucky and his video coordinator with the Celtics. Pitino coached former Golden State Warriors coach Mark Jackson at the New York Knicks. Donovan moved from Florida to the NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder. Eastern Kentucky coach Dan McHale was a program assistant at Louisville for two seasons. Seven former Pitino players also became collegiate head coaches, five of which are currently active including Travis Ford of Oklahoma St.; Mark Pope of Utah Valley; Sean Woods of Morehead St.; Donovan and Masiello. Including games against both his former assistants and former players who went on to become collegiate head coaches, Pitino is 47-11 (record vs. former players as head coaches: 3-1 vs. Travis Ford, 2-0 vs. John Pelphrey, 1-0 Scott Padgett, Mark Pope 1-0 and Donovan).

■ Cards Sign Impressive Duo — Louisville signed a pair of outstanding high school products in November including V.J. King, a 6-7, 180-pound guard/forward from Paul VI Catholic High School in Fairfax, Va.; and Frankie Hughes, a 6-3, 170-pound guard from Garfield Heights (Ohio) High School.

A McDonald's All-American, King averaged 18.5 points, 12.3 rebounds and 4.2 assists as a junior last season in helping Paul VI to a 20-15 record. A first-team all-state, all-area and all-conference selection as a junior, King is ranked No. 21 nationally by Scout.com, 24th by Rivals.com, 25th by 247Sports.com and No. 27 in the ESPN 100.

Originally from North Carolina, King moved to Akron, Ohio, where he played at St. Vincent-St. Mary -- the alma mater of LeBron James -- through his sophomore season before transferring. He averaged 16.2 points as a sophomore in helping SVSM to a 19-10 record and 2013 Ohio Division II State Tournament semifinals.

King has won two gold medals as a member of two USA Basketball team in the 2013 FIBA Americas U16 Championship in Maldonado, Uruguay, averaging 8.2 points and 5.2 rebounds; and the 2014 FIBA U17 World Championship in Dubai, United Arab Emirates where he averaged 6.7 points and 2.9 rebounds. He participated in the 2015 USA Basketball Junior National Team minicamp in October.

Hughes averaged 17 points, 5.8 rebounds and 5.1 assists as a junior last season in leading Garfield Heights to a 24-4 record and the Ohio Division I semifinals, only the third time the school had advanced to that level in the state tournament. He signed with the Cardinals on Nov. 11 on his 18th birthday.

Hughes had 14 points and 11 rebounds in the state semifinal game. Current Louisville guard Trey Lewis also played at Garfield Heights, leading his team to the state semifinals during his senior year in 2011. Terry Rozier, who played two seasons with the Cardinals before joining the Boston Celtics this season, also hailed from the Cleveland area at Shaker Heights High School.

Hughes is ranked among the nation's top 200 players by 247Sports.com, Hughes scored a season-high 28 points against Mentor. He averaged 10.7 points per game as a sophomore. He averaged 7.9 points, 3.5 rebounds and three assists during the 2015 summer AAU competition.

■ Lewis A Good Works Team Nominee -- UofL guard Trey Lewis is among a group of 154 nominees for the 2016 Allstate National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Good Works Team®. The distinguished award shines a spotlight on a select group of student-athletes who have shown dedication to service in their communities. Former UofL guard Peyton Siva received recognition on the Allstate NABC Good Works team as a senior in 2013. A graduate transfer from Cleveland, Lewis has a passion for community service and doing his best to make an impact off the court. Whether it is talking to local schools, church groups, summer camps, participating in health education, or visiting those who have suffered traumatic accidents, Lewis invests significant personal time to connect with each individual.

■ Cardinal Spurts — Louisville has produced 49 runs of 8-0 or better, including a run of 8-0 in the second half at Pitt in its last game. UofL had a season-best 21-0 run vs. Hartford on Nov. 17. Louisville has forced its opponents into 70 scoring droughts of three minutes or more, including a second half scoring drought of 3:39 against Duke two games ago. UofL had a season-best 9:24 period of scoreless defense vs. Hartford.

■ Bench Production -- Louisville's depth has been evident through the Cardinals' 28 games this season, with UofL averaging 25.3 points off the bench. Last season, Louisville averaged just 9.9 points off the bench and had four games in which the bench was scoreless. Louisville has scored more bench points than it had all of last season. Louisville leads the ACC with an 11.1 points per game scoring margin over the reserves from opposing teams and the Cardinals' bench has shot a league-best 51.6 percent from the field (278-of-539). UofL's bench scored 26 points at Pitt.

Louisville won ...

... 27 games for the 13th time in school history in 2014-15, including reaching that total or higher six times in the last eight years.

... 48 of its last 64 post-season tournament games over the last 11 years (including conference, NCAA and NIT since 2005). Louisville is 25-4 in the postseason over the last four years.

... 26 of its last 34 games in the NCAA Tournament (since 2005), advancing to the final eight teams five times in the last eight years (2008, 2009, 2012, 2013, 2015).

... 29 of 36 games during the month of March over the last four years.

... 145 games over the last five years, tied for the second-most wins in the nation in that stretch (Kentucky leads with 147 through Feb. 24). Louisville and Wichita State are the only two schools in the nation to win 30 games three of the last four seasons, including a school-record 35 victories by the Cards' 2012-13 NCAA Championship team.

... 20 games for the 14th straight season, a feat accomplished by only four schools.

... 12 ACC regular season games in 2014-15. Louisville has won at least 10 league games for eight straight seasons. UofL has finished in the top three in its conference six of the last nine years.

... 10 of its last 11 conference tournament games. Louisville is 15-3 with three championships over its last seven conference tournaments, reaching the title game five times. Louisville has won three of its last four conference titles.

■ Cardinals Reached 14th Elite Eight -- Louisville advanced to its 14th NCAA Elite Eight in 2015 and third in the last four years. Louisville's 14 Elite Eight appearances rank sixth nationally. The NCAA recognizes Elite 8 records since 1951, the first year that all teams in the tournament would be required to win at least one game to advance to the Elite Eight. The Cardinals have a 10-4 record in regional championship games, winning two of their last three. UofL has reached the Elite Eight five of the last eight years and the Cardinals have participated in two of the last four Final Fours (UofL years in Elite Eight: 1959, 1972, 1975, 1980, 1982, 1983, 1986, 1997, 2005, 2008, 2009, 2012, 2013, 2015).

■ Cards Have 14 Straight 20-Win Seasons — Louisville is one of four Division I schools in the nation which has won 20 or more games in each of the past 14 seasons. Reaching 20 victories already this year and extending their streaks are Kansas (27), Duke (20), Gonzaga (18), and Louisville (14). UofL Coach Rick Pitino has won at least 20 games in a season on 24 occasions, ranking him fifth among active coaches in 20-win seasons and 11th overall. Pitino won 30 in a single season for the sixth time in 2013-14. UofL has won at least 19 games in 42 of the last 46 years.

■ Cardinals Reached 21st Sweet 16 -- Louisville advanced to its 21st NCAA Sweet 16 appearance and a school-record fourth straight in 2014-15. The Cardinals and Michigan State are the only two teams that have reached the last four Sweet 16s. Only three teams have been to more Sweet 16 appearances than Louisville's 21 since the NCAA began Sweet 16 records in 1975 (North Carolina 26, Kentucky 26, Duke 24). The Cards have won seven of their last eight regional semifinal games and Louisville has a 15-12 record in NCAA regional semifinal games (14-8 since 1975), including a 6-1 mark under Rick Pitino. Louisville has been to at least the Sweet 16 in seven of the last 11 years, has reached the Elite Eight five of the last eight years and has been to two of the last four Final Fours. Louisville's NCAA Sweet 16 teams: 1975, 1978, 1979, 1980, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1986, 1988, 1989, 1993, 1994, 1996, 1997, 2005, 2008, 2009, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015.

■ Impressive Victory vs. Grand Canyon — The 61 points in the opening 20 minutes were the most for Louisville in the first half of a game since scoring 61 against Towson State on Dec. 7, 1998; and the most in any half since a 61-point second half against Northwestern St. on Nov. 18, 2006 ... UofL improved to 107-1 all-time when reaching the century mark in scoring ... The Cards' +35 advantage on the glass vs. Grand Canyon (55-20) was the program's largest rebounding margin at least since 1970, when complete records are available ... UofL had a 26-5 advantage on the glass in the first half, the largest margin in any half since outrebounding Jacksonville St. 37-13 in the second half on Nov. 17, 2014.

■ Cards Are Light on Returning Experience --

Entering the year, Louisville has just two players on its roster -- junior center Mangok Mathiang (out with an injury) and junior guard David Levitch -- that played with the Cardinals more than a year. UofL returned just 17 percent of its scoring and a quarter of its assists from last season's 27-9 NCAA Elite Eight team. It is the lowest percentage of scoring returning for Louisville since 1972-73 when UofL was without a returning starter from its 1972 Final Four team and returned just 9.7 percent of its scoring (254 of 2,614). Quentin Snider's 146 points in 2014-15 ranks him as UofL's top returning scorer, which is the lowest figure for a UofL top returning scorer since 1972-73 (Bill Bunton, 121 points).

■ Scoring Leader -- Graduate transfer Damion Lee has scored in double figures in 24 games this season and has been the Cardinals' top scorer in 16 games. His 16.6 scoring average leads the Cards and is ninth in the ACC. The co-captain is shooting 44.9 percent from the field and leads the team with 43 steals and 59 three-pointers (in 160 attempts, .369). He scored a season-high 29 points at Virginia Tech, scored 27 points at Kentucky and has topped 20 points on eight occasions. Lee was the nation's No. 4 scorer last year, averaging 21.4 points per game as a junior at Drexel.

■ International Flavor — Louisville has an international flavor with four players on its roster hailing from foreign countries. Mangok Mathiang was born in Sudan, Africa and lived in Melbourne, Australia where he also played rugby and Australian Rules Football before coming to the United States. He played a season at Carbondale (Ill.) Brehm Prep School. Deng Adel followed a similar path as he was born in the Sudan, grew up in Australia and spent his senior year of high school in Florida. From Cairo, Egypt, Anas Mahmoud played a year at West Oaks Academy in Orlando, Florida before joining UofL. Matz Stockman, from Oslo, Norway, attended school in Spain's Canary Islands during the 2013-14 season before his trek to the U.S.

■ Cards Among Nation's Best in Pitino Era — Louisville is among 17 programs in the nation that have won at least 70 percent of its games over the last 15 years. Louisville has a .747 winning percentage since U of L Coach Rick Pitino took over the reins of the Cardinal program, seventh best in the nation.

■ Impressive Academic Performance -- While the University of Louisville men's basketball team has performed well on the court, the Cardinals have excelled in the classroom as well. The team produced a collective 3.26 grade point average for 2014-15, just below its record 3.40 GPA from the previous season. Louisville has received an NCAA Public Recognition Award in 2013 and 2014 for ranking among the top 10 percent in men's basketball in the Academic Progress Rate, which measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation for student-athletes. The Cardinals had a perfect 1000 APR in the most recent four-year period, all while winning a combined 121 games — the second-most in the nation in that stretch — and the Cardinals won the 2013 NCAA Championship and reached the 2012 Final Four.

UofL had a collective 3.36 GPA for the 2015 fall semester and 13 of 15 Cardinals earned a 3.0 or better, including seven with a 3.4 or above. The men's basketball team has been around a collective 3.0 GPA for 15 consecutive semesters. Louisville placed a league-high seven individuals on the 21-member 2015 ACC All-Academic Team. Prior to entering the ACC, UofL's men's basketball team earned four straight league Team Academic Excellence Awards, recognizing the highest collective grade-point averages in each of the conference sports (2014 American Athletic Conf., 2011-13 Big East).

■ Challenging Schedule — Three participants from the 2015 NCAA Final Four are among a challenging schedule that UofL will face this season. Louisville has played a schedule ranked among the top 16 toughest by the ratings percent index (RPI) in seven of the last eight seasons. Sixteen of the Cards' 31 games will be played against teams that participated in post-season competition last season, including 10 from the 2015 NCAA Tournament. Nineteen of the Cardinals' games will be played against teams that won at least 17 games last season.

Eleven of Louisville's 31 games this season will be against teams that were ranked among the nation's top 25 or were receiving votes in the preseason USA Today coaches poll, including six games among teams in the top six (1 North Carolina, 1 Kentucky, 4 Duke twice, 6 Virginia twice, 13 Michigan State, 18 Notre Dame; receiving votes: NC State, Florida State, Miami). Four of the top 20 teams in the preseason poll hail from the ACC, with four more among those receiving votes (including Louisville). The two teams that shared the preseason top ranking are among the Cardinals' foes.

■ Anniversary Year for Two Championship teams — The 2015-16 season marks notable anniversaries for two of Louisville's national championship teams. It is the 30th anniversary for UofL's 1986 NCAA Championship team (32-7 record), which was guided by future Hall of Fame Coach Denny Crum and featured four starters that currently rank among the top 11 scorers all-time at UofL: Pervis Ellison (2,143 career points), Milt Wagner (1,836), Herbert Crook (1,723) and Billy Thompson (1,685); starting guard Jeff Hall was also a career 1,000-point scorer (1,294). Louisville defeated Duke 72-69 in the 1986 title game and Ellison became the second freshman in NCAA history to be named the Most Outstanding Player after producing 25 points and 11 rebounds against the Blue Devils. This season also marks the 60th anniversary of the Cardinals' 1956 National Invitation Tournament title. The 1956 NIT Champions, which UofL Coach Peck Hickman had directed to a No. 6 national ranking entering the tournament, beat third-ranked Dayton 93-80 in the title game to cap a 26-3 season. Former U of L All-America Charlie Tyra was honored as the Most Valuable Player of the 1956 NIT, scoring 29 points against St. Joseph's in the national semifinal.

■ Non-Conference Success -- Louisville has a 190-44 record (.812) against non-conference opponents in Coach Rick Pitino's 15 seasons (includes post-season). The Cardinals are 131-10 at home in regular season non-conference games under Pitino, including a 56-3 mark over the last six seasons in the KFC Yum! Center.

■ Pitino Third in Wins Through 31 Seasons -- UofL Coach Rick Pitino is third in most career coaching victories through 31 seasons, passing Dean Smith on Feb. 6. Pitino is six behind Jim Boeheim for second on the list with 744 victories.

HEAD COACH RICK PITINO

In his 31st season as a collegiate head coach and 15th at Louisville, UofL Coach Rick Pitino has compiled a 744-260 overall record (390-132 at UofL). A member of the Naismith Memorial

Basketball Hall of Fame, he is the first coach to take three different schools to the NCAA Final Four -- including his 2005, 2012 and 2013 Cardinal teams -- and the first to win an NCAA Championship at two different schools after guiding Louisville to the 2013 NCAA title. Among active coaches, Pitino (Massachusetts '74) has the second-highest winning percentage in NCAA Tournament games (.746 winning percentage, 53-18 record in 20 NCAA tournament appearances) and his overall .741 winning percentage ranks him 14th among active coaches. He guided Kentucky to three NCAA Final Four appearances in eight seasons (1989-97), winning the 1996 NCAA Championship and reaching the national title game in 1997. He has also served as head coach at Providence College (1985-87, 1987 Final Four), Boston University (1978-83), Hawaii (last six games in 1975-76) as well as the NBA New York Knicks (1987-89) and Boston Celtics (1997-2001).

■ Three With 380 — Louisville is the only NCAA Division I men's basketball program to have three different coaches with at least 375 victories at the school. Current Cards' Coach Rick Pitino has won 390 games in his 15th season at UofL, his predecessor Denny Crum won 675 games in 30 years (1971-2001) and Bernard "Peck" Hickman won 443 in his 23 years guiding the Cardinals (1944-67). Kansas can join that list when Bill Self wins his 380th game at Kansas (376) as Phog Allen (590) and Roy Williams (418) have at least 375 wins there (through Feb. 20).

■ Two Cards in International Competition -- Two UofL players competed in international events during the summer. Sophomore forward/center Chinanu Onuaku won a gold medal as a member of the 2015 USA Basketball Men's U19 World Championship Team, while junior center Mangok Mathiang competed with Australia in the 2015 World University Games.

In seven games during the event played June 27-July 5 in Heraklion, Crete, Greece, Onuaku started six games and averaged 4.6 points, 5.0 rebounds, hit 13-of-20 field goals (.650) and added 10 steals and a team-high 12 blocked shots while averaging 16 minutes a game for the deep USA squad, coached by Arizona's Sean Miller. Onuaku's 1.7 blocked shots were the sixth-most in the 16-team event. His team was named the co-2015 USA Basketball Team of the Year.

Mathiang led the 23-team World University Games in rebounding and finished tied for eighth in scoring, producing five double-doubles. He started all eight games for Australia, averaging 13.5 points and 10.3 rebounds while shooting 56.1 percent from the field (46-of-82, fourth-best in the event) and adding seven blocked shots. His top scoring effort was 23 points against Chinese Taipei and his best rebounding game was 17 against the home nation Korea. The USA won the gold medal.

Australia (5-3) finished 10th in the event played in Gwangju, South Korea July 4-13. Mathiang was born in Sudan, Africa, but lived in Melbourne, Australia before moving to the United States in 2010 to attend prep school.

In addition to the players, UofL's Rick Pitino coached the Puerto Rico National Team in the summer of 2015 in three international competitions. He guided an injury depleted Puerto Rico team to a fifth-place finish in the 2015 FIBA Americas tournament, keeping hopes alive for Olympic qualification.

The participation by both players, as well as Pitino's coaching stint with the Puerto Rico national team, were also part of the ACC Worldwide initiative that seeks to further the conference's member institutions internationally through promotion, marketing and athletic competition.

■ Cardinals Visited Puerto Rico -- The Cardinals gained valuable experience with its 10 days of practice and series of seven games over five days against the Puerto Rico National Team and Junior Team during their Aug. 10-17 visit to Puerto Rico. The competition coincided with UofL Coach Rick Pitino's decision to serve as the head coach of the Puerto Rico basketball team in two international events this summer. The opportunity to face off against the Puerto Rican teams was among the top reasons that Pitino took the position. UofL attained a waiver to allow the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, a United States territory, to serve as the destination for the team's foreign trip as Pitino was serving as head coach of the Puerto Rico National Team.

Louisville recently visited Puerto Rico for the 2014 Armed Forces Classic, facing Minnesota in Aguadilla, Puerto Rico for the opening game last season in a hangar at the Coast Guard's US Air Station Borinquen.

■ Two NBA Draft Picks -- A pair of UofL underclassmen were selected in the 2015 NBA Draft as guard Terry Rozier was selected in the first round by the Boston Celtics as the 16th overall pick, while forward Montrezl Harrell was taken in the second round by the Houston Rockets as the 32nd selection. Rozier left UofL following his sophomore year while Harrell played three seasons with the Cardinals.

A total of 68 former Louisville players have been selected in the NBA Draft, including five in the last three years. Currently with the Memphis Grizzlies, Russ Smith was selected by the Philadelphia 76ers in the second round of the 2014 NBA Draft with the 47th overall pick, and was subsequently traded to the New Orleans Pelicans. Gorgui Dieng was a first-round selection and the 21st overall pick by the Utah Jazz in 2013, with his rights subsequently traded to the Minnesota Timberwolves, where he has played the last two seasons. Peyton Siva was a second round choice of the Detroit Pistons in 2013 with the 56th pick overall.

Louisville has produced 22 first-round NBA Draft choices, including 11 in the top ten and five among the top three picks (Pervis Ellison first in 1989; Wes Unseld second in 1968; Darrell Griffith second in 1980; Charlie Tyra second in 1957; Rodney McCray third in 1983).

10 Things About Louisville Basketball

■ 1. Louisville's 145 victories over the last five years are the second-most wins in the nation in that stretch (Kentucky leads with 147 through Feb. 24).

■ 2. Louisville and Wichita State are the only schools in the nation to win at least 30 games in three of the last four seasons seasons, including a school-record 35 victories by UofL's 2012-13 NCAA Championship team (30 in 2011-12, 31 in 2013-14).

■ 3. Louisville reached the NCAA Sweet 16 for a school-record fourth straight time in 2015 (tied for the most in the nation) and the 21st occasion in school history. Michigan State is the only other school that has reached each of the last four Sweet 16s. The Cardinals have been to the Elite Eight in five of the last eight years.

■ 4. Louisville Coach Rick Pitino reached his 700th collegiate coaching win in 2014. He is one of six active collegiate coaches in the Basketball Hall of Fame, four of which are in the ACC.

■ 5. The Cards' 2014-15 senior class was the winningest in UofL history, winning a combined 123 games over the last four years (entering this season).

■ 6. Louisville, Syracuse and VCU are the only three teams to rank among the top 25 nationally in steals over the last five years. In 2014-15, UofL ranked among the national defensive leaders in blocked shots (5.4, 13th in the NCAA), steals (7.9, 23rd), three-point field goal percentage defense (30.3, 19th), scoring defense (59.8, 23rd), and field goal percentage defense (.392, 23rd).

■ 7. Louisville is one of just four schools which have won 20 or more games in each of the last 14 seasons. Louisville has won at least 19 games in 42 of the last 46 years.

■ 8. While also winning on the court, Louisville has earned its last four consecutive conference top team academic excellence awards. The Cardinals have a perfect Academic Progress Rate score for the most recent four-year period (2009-13). The team posted a record 3.40 grade point average collectively for the 2013-14 academic year and had a collective 3.26 mark in 2014-15.

■ 9. Louisville has won 10 of its last 11 conference tournament games, claiming three of its last four conference tournament championships. Six of the last 13 NCAA Championships have been won by current ACC schools, including the Cardinals' 2013 title.

■ 10. Louisville has a 64-37 record in road games over the last 10 years (.634) and has a 32-6 record in neutral site games over the past five seasons (.842).

■ Cards Have Been Tough on the Road — UofL has a 64-37 record over the last 10 years on its opponent's home court (.634). Louisville had the most road victories of any school in Big East Conference games over its last seven years in that league and was a league-best 8-1 in its road games in The American during the 2013-14 season. UofL posted a 6-3 road record in its first year in the ACC, fourth-best in the league. The Cardinals have a 56-31 record in conference games on the road over the last nine seasons (.644). In neutral site games, Louisville has a 32-6 record over the last five years (.842) and a 42-13 neutral site record over the last eight years (.763).

In conference games overall, Louisville had the most Big East Conference victories over its eight years in that league during the regular season (from 2005 to 2013). Louisville had a 95-45 Big East record in league victories during the regular season, just ahead of Syracuse and Pittsburgh (both at 92-48). Louisville finished fourth in its first year in the ACC with a 12-6 league record.

■ Cards Will Host 2016 NCAA Regional — The University of Louisville will serve as the host institution for the South Regional of the 2016 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship to be played March 24 and 26, 2016 at the KFC Yum! Center. It is the first time in which Louisville has served as the site for an NCAA Regional since 1987, when a Rick Pitino coached Providence squad beat Georgetown in the Southeast Regional Championship in Louisville's Freedom Hall to move on to the Final Four. UofL and the KFC Yum! Center also served as host for the Second and Third Rounds of the 2015 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship on March 19 and 21, 2015 at the KFC Yum! Center.

■ Redshirt Planned for McMahon -- A redshirt season is planned for freshman guard Ryan McMahon. The 2015 Florida Class 3A Player of the Year, McMahon averaged 26.4 points, 3.3 assists, 3.0 rebounds and 2.5 steals last season in leading Cardinal Mooney to a 26-4 record and the state final four for the first time in school history. He had been considered a candidate for a redshirt year to allow for physical development when he initially signed with Louisville.

■ Louisville Top College Basketball Market -- Louisville is consistently the highest-rated television market for college basketball on ESPN. Louisville has been the top market each of the last 13 years, averaging a 5.9 rating for the 2014-15 season. Louisville was nearly three points higher than second-place Greensboro, which averaged a 3.0 rating. The remaining top 10 was Raleigh-Durham (2.7), Kansas City (2.4), Columbus (2.1), Cincinnati (1.9), Dayton (1.9) Indianapolis (1.8), Charlotte (1.8) and Memphis (1.8). The Cardinals' NCAA Sweet 16 game against Kentucky in 2014 drew a 51.5 rating and 73 share, making it the second highest-rated event in Louisville television history. Louisville's 2013 NCAA Championship game against Michigan is the top-rated television event all-time in the Louisville market.

■ Sixth Season in KFC Yum! Center -- This is Louisville's sixth season in the spectacular KFC Yum! Center, located on the banks of the Ohio River in downtown Louisville. The Cardinals had previously played basketball for 54 years in Freedom Hall (1956-2010). The 22,000-seat multi-purpose arena was built at a cost of $238 million and includes 71 luxury suites, 62 four- or six-seat premium boxes, over 2,000 side-court club seats and four party suites with a seating capacity of 32 each.

UofL's men's and women's teams have permanent locker rooms. There are five additional team locker rooms, two officials locker rooms, five star dressing rooms, a full-function media work room and a full-sized basketball practice court on the event level. The seven levels of the arena (including the upper catwalk) include a collective 721,762 square feet, or roughly the area of 13 football fields.

After passing through the one and a half acre landscaped entry plaza that features a basketball-themed fountain, entering fans can visit the 2,500-square foot U of L adidas store, the 3,000-square foot U of L Hall of Honor, or head to their seats using one of the eight escalators or seven elevators within the building.

Lounge space is abundant within the arena. Four spacious donor rooms are available for Cardinal fans, including three that overlook the Ohio River. The 7,000-square foot main concourse restaurant overlooks the river and a main concourse sports bar has views directly into the arena bowl. Two 4,000-square foot club lounges on the event level, as well as the terrace club and premium box lounges, provide amenities for their respective patrons. The KFC Yum! Center served as the site for the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament second and third rounds in 2012 and 2015, will be the site for the South Regional in March 2016 and was the site for the 2012 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship on December 13 and 15.

■ Georgia Tech Awaits Next — With two games remaining in its season after playing at Miami, Louisville will play its final home game on Tuesday against the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets on Senior Day (March 1, 8:05 p.m., ACC Network/WAVE-TV in Louisville). Georgia Tech (16-12, 4-5 ACC) has won three straight and four of its last five, including a 75-73 victory over Clemson on Feb. 23 as Marcus Georges-Hunt led GT with 25 points and four assists after trailing by nine at halftime. The Yellow Jackets play at Boston College on Feb. 27 prior to facing the Cards.

Georges-Hunt, a senior forward, is Georgia Tech's top scorer and ranks eighth in the ACC (16.9 ppg, 3.2 rpg, 82 assists). Senior forward Charles Mitchell ranks fourth in the ACC in rebounding (10.0 rpg, 24th in NCAA). Georgia Tech is 21st nationally in fewest turnovers per game (10.5) and is 27th nationally in rebounding margin (+7.0).

Louisville has a 17-13 series advantage over Georgia Tech, winning the last four matchups. Earlier this season, UofL recovered from an eight-point, second-half deficit to win 75-71 in Atlanta (1-23-16) as Anas Mahmoud scored a career-high 15 points.

■ Statistical Trends — UofL is 169-9 over the last 15 seasons under Coach Rick Pitino when scoring 80 or more points (10-0 this season, 11-0 in 2014-15) ... Over the past 15 years under Pitino, Louisville is 130-6 when shooting 50 percent or better from the field (14-0 this season, 8-0 in 2014-15) ... UofL is 312-47 when holding its opponent below 70 points over the past 15 years under Pitino (18-1 this season, 24-4 in 2014-15, 27-1 in 2013-14, 32-1 in 2012-13).

■ Cards Chosen Seventh in ACC Preseason Poll — Louisville was chosen seventh in the Atlantic Coast Conference men's basketball race in 2015-16 in a preseason poll of media, behind No.1 North Carolina. North Carolina guard Marcus Paige and Virginia guard Malcolm Brodgon were the preseason Co-Players of the Year while Duke forward Brandon Ingram was named the preseason Freshman of the Year. Louisville finished fourth in its inaugural season in the ACC last year. The league championship will be staged March 8-12 at the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C.

Cardinals in the NCAA Tournament

■ Louisville made its 41st NCAA Tournament appearance in 2015. The Cardinals have reached the NCAA Tournament 32 of the last 39 years (nine straight, 12 of the last 13, 14 of the last 17 years, and 20 of last 24). The Cards have reached the Sweet 16 on 21 occasions (four straight) and have advanced to the Elite Eight five of the last eight seasons. Louisville is sixth in tournament victories (75) and is fifth in tournament appearances (41). UofL has a 75-42 overall NCAA Tournament record, reaching the Final Four 10 times.

■ Only four teams -- Kentucky (55), North Carolina (46), UCLA (45), and Kansas (44) -- have more NCAA Tournament appearances than Louisville's 41.

■ U of L Coach Rick Pitino has a 53-18 record in NCAA Tournament play (.746), ranking him second among active coaches in winning percentage and 10th all time. Only three coaches have coached more Final Four teams than Pitino's seven, a feat matched by one other. Pitino is the first coach to win an NCAA Championship at two different schools; the first to lead three different teams to the Final Four; is one of 11 coaches to lead four different schools to the NCAA Tournament; and one of 11 active collegiate coaches who have won an NCAA Championship.

■ Only three teams have been to more Sweet 16 appearances than Louisville's 21 since the NCAA began Sweet 16 records in 1975 (North Carolina 26, Kentucky 26, Duke 24).

■ U of L Coach Rick Pitino has guided 20 teams to NCAA tournament appearances, including 12 of his last 13 years at Louisville (nine straight). His last six straight Kentucky teams reached the NCAA Tournament. The Wildcats won the 1996 NCAA title and were national runner-up in 1997 under his guidance.

■ Bridgeman a Hall of Fame Nominee — Former UofL All-America Junior Bridgeman is among the list of nominees for the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Finalists will be announced on Feb. 12, with the entire class presented on April 4. An All-America selection as a senior in 1975, he led the Cardinals to a 28-3 record, falling 75-74 in overtime to eventual national champion UCLA in the 1975 national semifinals in San Diego. Twice named Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year (1974, 1975), Bridgeman helped the Cardinals to a combined 72-17 record in his three seasons, including two Missouri Valley Conference Championships. He scored 1,348 career points, ranking No. 29 on the all-time UofL scoring list. A psychology major, he was on the Dean's List all four years at Louisville and finished with a cumulative 3.2 grade point average (on a 4.0 scale). He was a first-round pick of the Los Angeles Lakers in the 1975 NBA draft (eighth selection overall). He played 12 NBA seasons with the Milwaukee Bucks (1975-84, '86-87) and Los Angeles Clippers (1984-86). His professional jersey (No. 2) was retired by the Milwaukee Bucks. He served four years as President of the NBA Player's Association and has served as a member of the UofL Board of Trustees and the UofL Athletic Association Board of Directors. Bridgeman is currently President of Bridgeman Foods LLC and owns and oversees the operation of multiple restaurants across the nation.

LOUISVILLE

G/F 6-7 200 Fr. - HS Melbourne, Australia (Victory Rock Prep)

■ Starter at small forward in the first two games before an injury sidelined him.

■ Started the last two games, averaging 12 points and 5.5 rebounds per game while providing a valuable defensive presence for the Cardinals.

■ Earned his second start since returning from injury against Duke on Feb. 20 and finished the game with 12 points, five rebounds and two assists while playing well on the defensive end of the floor.

■ Totaled season highs with 13 points, seven rebounds, four assists and 34 minutes against Boston College on Feb. 6, starting in place of injured Damion Lee.

■ Scored 12 points against Virginia while pulling down five rebounds and connecting on 2-of-4 from behind the arc, his first three-pointers of the season.

■ Missed eight games with a sprained left knee suffered in practice on Nov. 20. He returned to practice on Dec. 20 and has been available to play in all games since.

■ Scored eight points against Utah Valley in 15 minutes of action in his second game back from a knee injury.

■ Productive at both ends of the floor.

■ Totalled 35 points, nine rebounds and six assists in a preseason public intrasquad scrimmage.

■ Has a 7-0 wingspan.

■ Was born in Sudan, Africa and moved to Australia as a child, following a similar path as current UofL forward/center Mangok Mathiang.

■ An all-state selection and top 25 prospect nationally, he averaged 19.1 points, 8.2 rebounds and 4.0 assists last season for Victory Rock Prep in Bradenton, Fla. as his team posted a 27-9 record.

■ Born Feb. 1, 1997 ... Major is undecided.

LOUISVILLE

G 6-3 210 Fr. - HS Greenwich, Conn. (Brewster Academy)

■ A double-figure scorer in 12 games, including four of the last seven and six of the last 11.

■ Led the Cardinals with 17 points at Duke -- one below his career high -- while hitting 7-of-11 field goals (2-3 three-pointers).

■ Started his first collegiate game against Wake Forest, scoring a career-high 18 points and pulling down a career-best eight rebounds while contributing two steals. A starter in five games this season.

■ His 10 points and seven rebounds against Kennesaw State included a one-handed dunk that was the No. 8 play of the day on ESPN, also had the No. 3 play of the day with his dunk against Florida State. He had the top play of the day with one of his dunks against Syracuse.

■ Knocked down a season-high three 3-pointers against Utah Valley.

■ One of just 10 players in Louisville history to score as many as 14 points in a freshman career debut, tying for eighth on that list with 14 off the bench, hitting all four of his field goals, his lone three-pointer and 5-of-6 free throws. He added three steals, three rebounds, and an assist without a turnover -- all in just 17 minutes.

■ Talented, high-flying freshman has played at least 10 minutes in every game.

■ An All-New England selection and top 30 prospect nationally, he averaged 14.3 points, 5.7 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 1.8 steals in 2014-15, helping Brewster Academy to a 34-1 record and its second straight National Prep Championship in 2015.

■ MVP of two high school all-star games. He was the White Team MVP in the 2015 Kentucky Derby Festival Classic with 21 points, six steals, two rebounds and two assists while winning the dunk contest. He totaled 30 points, nine steals, three rebounds and three assists (12-of-19 FG) as the MVP of the 2015 Jordan Brand Classic Regional Game.

■ His father Donovan Sr. is the Manager of Player Operations and Community Outreach with the New York Mets. He played seven years in professional baseball.

■ Born Sept. 7, 1996 ... Major is communication.
