LONG TIME, NO SEE

- This afternoon's matchup with Miami is just the second meeting between the two teams. In the one meeting on December 10, 2005, Wofford fell 71-40 at Miami.
- In just seven games this season, two of those games were first time matchups. Wofford opened the season against LSU, the first meeting between the two teams, and played Vermont for the first time on Nov. 21, 2016.

DOUBLE-DOUBLES

· In the Terriers' last outing, Eric Garcia and Ryan Sawvell both recorded double-doubles. It was the first career double-double for both of them. Garcia finished with 12 points and 10 assists against Mars Hill. The 12 points were a season-high for Garcia and the 10 assists was a season high as well, just one shy of his career record. Sawvell's double-double came thanks to a career night as the redshirt-senior finished with 24 points and 11 rebounds. Both the 24 points and 11 rebounds were career highs for the forward.

No Upsets Here

• Since joining the NCAA Div. I ranks for the 1995-96 season, Wofford is a perfect 54-0 when facing a non-NCAA Div. I affiliated school ... The Terriers kept their perfect streak alive with a win this season defeating Allen 117-77 (Nov. 15) and Mars Hill (Nov. 29), both at Benjamin Johnson Arena ... Allen is an NAIA Division II affiliate and Mars Hill is Division 2... The majority of Wofford's non-Division I wins have come against Div. II or Div. III NCAA schools, where Wofford holds a 36-0 record.

CATCHING Up...

• Wofford head coach Mike Young currently has 234 career wins at Wofford. With just two more wins, Young will pass Wofford Athletic Director and former head coach Richard Young for second place in wins in program history. Gene Alexander has the most all-time with 283 wins. Young also currently sits in fourth place in wins by a coach in the Southern Conference with 234 wins. He is nine wins from tying Mack McCarthy (Chattanooga) and Burton Shipley (Maryland) who are tied for the second most wins.

LAST TIME OUT

Wofford 79, Mars Hill 76

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – The Wofford men's basketball team prevailed against Mars Hill on Tuesday night in the Benjamin Johnson Arena, winning 79-76. Senior Ryan Sawvell recorded a career high in both points and rebounds to lead all players in both categories with 24 and 11, respectively. The double-double performance was the first of Sawvell's Wofford career. With the win, Wofford improves to 2-5 on the season and Mars Hill falls to 2-5 with the loss.

Eric Garcia joined Sawvell in double figures as the senior point guard scored 12 points. Garcia set a season high with 10 assists, one shy of his career record, but good enough for a double-double, the first of his career. Fletcher Magee finished in double figures for the seventh consecutive game as the sophomore tallied 11 points in 30 minutes of action. Cameron Jackson finished with eight points, five rebounds, two assists and two steals.

The Terriers jumped out to a quick 8-0 lead as Eric Garcia and Fletcher Magee each knocked down a three-pointer and Ryan Sawvell added a layup. The Terriers maintained the lead or the teams were tied until Mars Hill took a 28-26 lead off a fast break dunk with 7 minutes to go in the first half. The Terriers tied it up again twice in the remaining minutes of the half but Mars Hill held on to the lead. Wofford trailed at half for the third consecutive game as the Lions took a 41-38 lead into the locker room.

Out of the half, Mars Hill added on to its lead with a jumper from Vernon Jackson. The Lions kept the lead until Cameron Jackson tied it up at 49-49 with 15:29 to play. Wofford led by seven with 3:39 to go in the game, but the Lions wouldn't go away. Mars Hill clawed back and cut the lead to one with 1:01 to go in the game. With 16 seconds to go, Mars Hill had a chance to take the lead but Sawvell took a crucial charge to give the ball back to Wofford. The Lions fouled Jackson on the inbounds pass but the sophomore made two critical free throws to extend the lead to three. The Lions had two shot attempts until 10 seconds but neither fell and Wofford prevailed.

Mars Hill shot 58.5% from the field and Wofford shot 51.9% from the field. The game was tied 10 times, but for just the second time all season Wofford outscored the opponent in the second half to hold on. The teams were almost identical statistically as both teams had 32 points in the pain and both had 10 points off turnovers. Wofford had a slight 7-4 advantage on the fast break and a small 25-23 edge on points off the bench but one major difference was on second chance points where Wofford led 16-6.

Next up, Wofford takes on the University of Miami on Saturday, Dec. 3 in the HoopHall Miami Invitational. The game, scheduled for tipoff at 5:30 p.m., will be held at the AmericanAirlines Arena.

MIKE YOUNG

HEAD COACH • 15TH SEASON 28TH SEASON OVERALL EMORY AND HENRY '86

Mike Young enters his 15th season as head coach and 28th season on the Wofford men's basketball staff in 2016-17. He has built the Wofford College men's basketball program into a Southern Conference powerhouse and NCAA Tournament fixture.

With Southern Conference Tournament Championships in 2010, 2011, 2014 and 2015. Wofford is one of 43 programs nationally to have reached the NCAA Tournament at least four times in the six-year span from 2010-15. The Terriers are also one of just four programs to win their conference tournament in four of those six seasons. Young's teams have totaled five postseason appearances and four 20-win

In his 14-year head coaching career at Wofford, Young boasts a record of 232-209 (.526), including 136-109 (.555) in Southern Conference play. Young's 232 wins rank fourth in Southern Conference history, as well as third in school history. Young, current Director of Athletics Richard Johnson (236) and the late Gene Alexander (283) are the only coaches in Wofford history to record over 200 wins.

A three-time SoCon Coach of the Year (2010, 2014, 2015), Young has also received national recognition as the Hugh Durham Mid-Major Coach of the Year by Collegeln-sider.com. During his distinguished tenure, Young has seen many Terriers go on to play professionally. He has coached Olympian Mike Lenzly, All-American Noah Dahlman, and Academic All-American Brad Loesing. Through Young's head-coaching tenure, Wofford has accumulated 13 All-Southern Conference selections by the coaches and another 25 from the media

Under Young's leadership, the Terriers' resume includes impressive non-conference wins over the likes of Auburn, Cincinnati, Clemson, Georgia, North Carolina State, Purdue, South Carolina, Virginia Tech, Xavier and Wake Forest. Young believes in playing the best competition. A recent Wofford non-conference schedule was ranked as the most difficult in the nation by the RPI and Sagarin Ratings.

The success Young has achieved on the court has complemented his emphasis on academics. Young's program has a 100-percent graduation rate for student-athletes who have completed their eligibility at Wofford

One of the defining characteristics of Young's program is the family atmosphere, evidenced by current assistant coaches Tim Johnson and Kevin Giltner both of whom wore the Terrier uniform. Director of Basketball Operations, Drew Gibson, is also a former Wofford student-athlete. Young has seen a total of six players remain in the program, after their playing days, as members of his staff.

The last seven seasons have seen Wofford emerge as a dominant program in the Southern Conference. This 2014-15 campaign was the best yet. The Terriers went 28-7 overall, 16-2 SoCon, en route to an outright Southern Conference Regular Season Championship, fourth SoCon Tournament Championship and fourth NCAA Tournament appearance. New program records for wins and conference wins were set, with a schedule that ranked 26th in the country in non-conference strength. The non-conference slate saw the Terriers make trips to Stanford, as well as three 2015 NCAA Sweet 16 teams in West Virginia, Duke and NC State. Wofford took a 55-54 win over the Wolfpack on December 14, 2014, which was NC State's first loss in their historic home of Reynolds Coliseum since the 1999 NIT. The Terriers won eight straight games en route to the SoCon Tournament title, including victories in 14 of their last 15 games. Young was named SoCon Coach of the Year for a third time and saw senior Karl Cochran named SoCon Player of the Year. Senior Lee Skinner was also an all-conference selection and named SoCon Tournament Most Outstanding Player. Wofford earned its highest seed in school history in the 2015 NCAA Tournament, going to Jacksonville, Florida as the No. 12 seed in the West Region to take on No. 5 seed Arkansas. The Terriers led 28-27 at the half, outrebounded Arkansas 37-35 and led for over half the game before the Razorbacks edged out the Terriers, 56-53. In the season's final RPI posted by the NCAA, the Terriers checked in at No. 49

Young's first postseason team, in 2009-10, tied a school record with a 13-gam winning streak. It was part of a stretch that saw the Terriers win 22 of 24 games en route to what was then a school-record 26 victories, including a 15-3 mark in league play. The Terriers won the SoCon South Division title and the tournamen championship for the first time. Wofford came back the next season with a share of

Prior to assuming the head coaching reins at Wofford, Young was an assistant coach to current athletics director Richard Johnson. His impact as a head coach was seen immediately. In his first season in charge, Young led the Terriers to their best recor in eight seasons at the Division I level and a third-place finish in the SoCon South Division after Wofford was predicted to finish sixth.

It's all about the student-athlete experience for Young. Every player means the world to him, and it's not just those 16 All-SoCon selections (Mike Lenzly, Noah Dahlman, Tim Johnson, Brad Loesing, Kevin Giltner, Tyler Berg, Jan Chadwick, Lee Nixon, Howard Wilkerson, Drew Gibson, Junior Salters, Cameron Rundles, Jamar Diggs, Karl Cochran, Lee Skinner and Spencer Collins). Chadwick (2000-01) Dahlman (2010-11), and Cochran (2014–15) have been SoCon Players of the Year, while Dahlman was the SoCor Tournament's Most Outstanding Performer in back-to-back seasons (2010, 2011).

Young's influence on incoming players has been seen with eight Terriers appearing or the All-SoCon Freshman Team (lan Chadwick, Tyler Berg, Brad Loesing, Karl Cochran, Justin Stephens, Spencer Collins, Eric Garcia and Fletcher Magee). Chadwick (1997-98) Cochran (2011–12) and Magee (2015–16) were named SoCon Freshmen of the Year Magee led the nation in free throw percentage (92.5 pct.) as a freshman, setting the program's new single-season record and becoming just the sixth freshman to shoot 90-percent or better in NCAA men's Div. I history (min 2.5 makes per game) Magee's freshman season also saw him rank third nationally in 3-point field go percentage (47.9 pct.).

In 2012, each of our the program's five graduates (Drew Crowell, Kevin Giltner Brad Loesing, Joseph Tecklenberg and Matt Steelman) were named to the Souther onference All-Academic Team

A native of Radford, Va., Young came to Wofford after serving as a graduate assistant for one year under Oliver Purnell at Radford University. A 1986 graduate of Emor & Henry College, he was a four-year letterman in basketball for coach Bob Johnsoi and the team captain his junior and senior seasons. He credits Johnson for having major influence on his playing and coaching careers.

Upon his graduation. Young became a full-time assistant coach for two years at Emory & Henry before moving on to Radford. Another mentor in his coaching philosophie is Fletcher Arritt, longtime coach of Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy. Young playe one season for him before attending Emory and Henry.

Young and his wife, Margaret, were married on Aug. 13, 1994 in her hometown of Camden, S.C. She is a 1992 Wofford graduate and a partner with PricewaterhouseC oopers LLP. The couple has a daughter, Cooper, and a son, Davis # the SoCon South Division title and another conference tournament championship.

Young's time at Wofford has spanned four decades and covered the Terriers moving from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent in 1995-96 and to the Southern Conference in 1997-98. He was promoted to associate head coach in August 1998.
Young has been on the Wofford bench for 798 contests over the past 27 seasons.
