Miami Headed to NCAA-Record 39th Consecutive Regional…
    The No. 18 University of Miami baseball team will travel to the Gainesville [Fla.] Regional for the NCAA Baseball Tournament, beginning Friday, June 3, at Noon. For UMiami, this is an NCAA-record 39 consecutive years reaching the Field of 64 for baseball.
    For the third time in as many years, the road to Omaha leads through Gainesville for the Hurricanes (36-21).
    Miami collected the No. 2 seed in the Gainesville [Fla.] Regional; joining top-seed and No. 2 overall seed host University of Florida Gators (45-16), as well as Manhattan (24-17) and first-day opponent Jacksonville (36-22). The Hurricanes will play JU on Friday at Noon at McKethan Stadium on the UF campus in a televised Regional on ESPNU.
    UM leads the all-time series against the JU Dolphins, 79-19, including two wins over Jacksonville in the 2009 Gainesville [Fla.] Regional. Against Manhattan, Miami is 5-1 all-time, with a series victory over the Jaspers last year in Coral Gables. As for the host Gators, UM leads the series 123-102-1, but Florida has won the previous six contests – including a series sweep in Gainesville earlier this season when the Canes were without the presence of head coach Jim Morris who was hospitalized with surgery.
    Last year, Miami traveled to the Gainesville [Fla.] Super Regional, falling in back-to-back games, while also being eliminated from the Gainesville Regional in 2009. The Gainesville Regional is matched up against the Atlanta [Ga.] Regional with the winners playing each other in a Super Regional.
    Seven Atlantic Coast Conference teams – including three of the top five national seeds – will be among the 64-team field when the 2011 NCAA Division I Baseball Championship gets under way with Regional play on Friday.
    The seven ACC teams selected to this year's NCAA field matches the SEC for the most from any conference. The Big 12 and Pac-10 each placed six teams in the field.
    The ACC placed a league-record eight teams in the 2010 NCAA Championship and also saw seven teams make the field in the 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2009. This marks the 10th straight year that at least five ACC teams have been selected for NCAA postseason play.
    Total NCAA postseason appearances (counting this season) for this year's ACC participating teams are as follows: Florida State 49, Miami 40, Clemson 36, Georgia Tech 27, North Carolina 26, NC State 24 and Virginia 10.

Miami in the NCAA Tournament…
• This will be Miami's 39th consecutive postseason appearance when taking the field against Jacksonville.
• The Hurricanes own an all-time Regional record of 114-37 (.755) in the tournament.
• On the road in the postseason, Miami enters the Gainesville [Fla.] Regional with an all-time record of 84-68 (.553) away from Alex Rodriguez Park at Mark Light Field.
• UMiami has an all-time postseason record of 175-85 (.673).

UM Against the Field in the Gainesville [Fla.] Regional…
• The Hurricanes hold a combined winning record of 207-122-1 against the three participating teams (Florida, Jacksonville and Manhattan) all-time.
• While a meeting with Manhattan would be the first ever against the Jaspers in the postseason, UM holds a 13-7 edge combined in the NCAA Tournament against Jacksonville and Florida, respectively.

Noting the Florida Gators…
• This season marks the 10th time that McKethan Stadium has hosted NCAA Regional action and the third-straight year for the first time in school history. The Gators have gone on to the College World Series from Gainesville on five previous occasions: 1991, 1996, 1998, 2005 and 2010.
• Florida is 30-9 (.769) on its own turf during NCAA play and swept the Regional and Super Regional rounds held in Gainesville last season. Head coach Kevin O'Sullivan is 8-2 (.800) in NCAA play at home, 6-0 (1.000) in Regionals and 2-2 (.500) in Super Regionals.
• The Gators are not only led by an all-star pitching staff, but also led offensively/defensively by Mike Zinuno (SEC Player of the Year), Brian Johnson (First Team All-SEC), Preston Tucker (First Team All-SEC) and Daniel Pigott (SEC Tournament MVP).
• The Gators are 29-6 (.829) at McKethan Stadium this season and Kevin O'Sullivan is 119-25 (.826) at home during his four-year tenure.

Miami Against Florida…
• UMiami holds a record of 123-102-1 all-time against the Florida Gators,

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI HEAD COACH JIM MORRIS - 18TH SEASON
2001, 1999, & 1994 National Coach of the Year • 2008 ACC COACH OF THE YEAR

In his 18th season at Miami, no other program, nor head coach, has qualified for the College World Series as much as Morris and his Hurricanes. Miami, which has qualified for the NCAA Tournament a NCAA-record 39 consecutive years, has made it to Omaha in 11 of Morris' 17 seasons in Coral Gables. Morris set an NCAA record for guiding a program to the CWS in each of his first six years at UM. In addition, Morris won a record 13 consecutive NCAA Regionals from 1994-2006. His teams have qualified for NCAA Regionals for the last 28 years, 18 at Miami and nine at Georgia Tech.

Morris has directed the Hurricanes to a 812-319-3 (.715) mark since arriving in 1994. Including his 12 seasons at Georgia Tech (1982-93), Morris has forged a 1,316-563-4 (.699) Division I record in 29 years as a head coach. Overall, Morris has been the head coach at the collegiate level for 32 seasons, spending the first four at DeKalb (Ga.) C.C. (now Georgia Perimeter College) from 1976-79, and has recorded a 1,447-604-4 (.704) mark.

In addition to carrying on Miami's great baseball reputation in the last 18 years, Morris has personally led the charge in the construction of Alex Rodriguez Park, and has logged hundreds of hours raising funds for the new stadium project.

MORRIS IS A REGIONAL REGULAR

Jim Morris is earning his 27th consecutive NCAA regional bid in 2011 guiding the 'Canes to the NCAA Gainesville Regional. He has led Miami to a regional in each of his 18 seasons (1994-2011), winning 15 of his last 17 appearances. The 13 consecutive regional championships (94-06) was an NCAA record. He also went to nine straight regionals from 1985-93 with Georgia Tech. Additionally, Miami has advanced to nine Super Regionals under Morris.

Affectionately known as "3" by those surrounding the UM program, Morris has led the 2011 Hurricanes to their 39th-straight NCAA Tournament. Five players from the 2010 team were selected in last year's Major League Baseball Draft. In 2008, the 'Canes reached the College World Series after winning the Atlantic Coast Conference, widely considered one of the toughest - if not the toughest - collegiate baseball conference in the country.

MORRIS IN HIS 33RD SEASON AS A COLLEGE COACH

Morris currently has a 1,316-563-4 (.699) record at the Division I level. As a head coach overall, he has compiled a 1,447-604-4 (.704) record over 30-plus years.

Jim Morris notched his milestone 1,000th win against his former school, Georgia Tech, with a 16-13 win on April 4, 2004. Thirteen days later he notched win No. 500 at Miami with a 7-3 win against Florida State on April 17. Morris' 1,000th win as a head coach, including four years at DeKalb Junior College, came in a 5-3 win over Northeastern on March 23, 2001.

Prior to his 17 seasons in Coral Gables, Morris went 504-244-1 at Georgia Tech from 1982-1993. In his first stint as a head coach, he guided DeKalb Junior College to a 131-41 mark from 1976-79.

JIM MORRIS MAKING HISTORY

• Guided the Miami Hurricanes to College World Series National Championship in 1999 and 2001.
• The only coach in NCAA history to take a school to the College World Series in each of his first six years at a program. Morris has gone to Omaha with Miami in 11 of 17 seasons and led Miami to 13 straight NCAA Regional Championships, an NCAA record.
• Named National Coach of the Year five times while at Miami, by Baseball America in 1994 and by the ABCA and Collegiate Baseball in 1999 and 2001.

• Sent 150 players to the Pro's, including Yonder Alonso (Reds), Pat Burrell (Giants), Ryan Braun (Brewers), Kevin Brown (Yankees), Alex Cora (Nationals), Danny Graves (Astros), Aubrey Huff (Giants), Nomar Garciaparra (Red Sox), Jon Jay (Cardinals), Jason Michaels (Astros), Chris Perez (Indians), Gabby Sanchez (Marlins), Blake Tekotte (San Diego), Danny Valencia (Twins) and Jason Varitek (Red Sox).
• Has served three stints with the U.S. National Team: Assistant Coach for 1987 Pan American Games (Silver), Head Coach for 1989 Presidential Cup (Silver) and Head Coach for 1990 Goodwill Games (Bronze).

SHORTSTOPS AND JIM MORRIS

Morris, who played shortstop during college at Elon and then in the Boston Red Sox organization, has had great success developing the position while a head coach. Over the last decade Morris has taught prominent shortstops such as Nomar Garciaparra at Georgia Tech and Bobby Hill and Alex Cora at Miami.

Morris worked with Javy Rodriguez, who entered 2002 as a preseason All-American. Rodriguez led UM in just about every category as a junior in 2001, including a national-high 66 stolen bases. He currently works with sophomore Stephen Perez, a slick-fielding switch-hitter expected to bat near the upper-half of the order this year for the 'Canes.

Morris coached Hill, who played for the San Diego Padres, from 1997-99. Before Hill, it was Cora and Mike Metcalfe. Both players went on to play at the Major League level with the Los Angeles Dodgers. Cora is currently with the Nationals. Garciaparra played under Morris during the coaches' final two seasons in Atlanta and went on to become an All-Star with the Red Sox and played for the Oakland A's in 2009.

but since the arrival of Gators head coach Kevin O'Sullivan in 2009, the series has been all Gators.
• UM has dropped the last six consecutive in the series, while the Gators, in fact, have won nine of the last 10 against their in-state rivals from Coral Gables.
• Miami enters having lost its last four games in postseason play against the Gators, with the last win coming in a two-game sweep of UF in the 2004 Coral Gables Super Regional (June 12-13).
• The Gators swept the season series against the Canes earlier this year in Gainesville, with all of those games played without the presence of veteran UM head coach Jim Morris – who was in Coral Gables recovering from surgery in early March.

Noting the Jacksonville Dolphins…
• Jacksonville enters the tournament sporting a record of 35-22, with quality wins coming against No. 18 Stetson and No. 4 Florida.
• JU is making its 14th appearance in the NCAA Tournament and its 10th under head coach Terry Alexander, who is in his 21st season at the helm of the Dolphin program.
• JU is making its fourth NCAA postseason appearance in the last six years (2006, 2007, 2009) and received an at-large invitation to the tournament for the second time during that span (2006).
• Sophomore first baseman Adam Brett Walker was named Atlantic Sun Player of the Year and is a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award. Walker's impressive numbers include a .416 batting average, 96 hits, 65 runs scored, 13 home runs, 22 doubles, 72 RBIs, and a perfect 14-for-14 on the base paths.
• Dan Gulbransen, who was also named First Team All-Atlantic Sun, has contributed 80 hits, 61 runs, 18 doubles, six homers, 49 RBIs and a .360 batting average, while freshman second baseman Taylor Ratliff leads the Dolphins with 24 stolen bases.
• Jacksonville is hitting .313 as a team, and seven Dolphin starters have batting averages over .300.

Miami Against Jacksonville…
• The Hurricanes hold a commanding 79-19 advantage in the all-time series against the Dolphins, including winning the last eight meetings consecutively.
• The last time these two teams met was in the 2009 Gainesville [Fla.] Regional, with the Canes taking the opening round contest, 9-4, and then eliminating JU with a 4-0 shutout a day later.
• UMiami head coach Jim Morris holds a record of 29-8 lifetime against the Dolphins of JU at the helm in Coral Gables.

Noting the Manhattan Jaspers…
• Manhattan College earned the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Baseball Championships.
• The Jaspers last trip to the NCAA Tournament was in 2006 when Manhattan was sent to the Lincoln Regional. Manhattan defeated tournament host #6 Nebraska and San Francisco to advance to the Regional Final, before it dropped the elimination contest to Miami.
• During the 2011 regular-season, Manhattan held the longest active win streak in NCAA Division I winning 10 straight games from March 26 to April 10.
• The Jaspers enter the NCAA Tournament one win shy of tying the single-season school record.
• Manhattan sixth year head coach Kevin Leighton won his milestone 200th career game in the Jaspers 5-1 MAAC Championship victory over Siena on May 28.
• Manhattan is led by what they call "The Big Four" group of players Mike McCann, Mark Onorati, Austin Sheffield and Chad Salem. The "Big Four" have combined for 994 hits over their careers at Manhattan and Onorati became the Jaspers' all-time hits leader (285) earlier this season.

Miami Against Manhattan…
• The Hurricanes of Miami hold a 5-1 lead in the series with the Manhattan Jaspers.

• In the postseason, the Canes defeated the Jaspers in two games in consecutive days during the 2006 Lincoln [Neb.] Regional. Miami took the games on counts of 8-2 and 10-4, respectively.

Feels a Little Like "Home"…
• For the third consecutive season, the University of Miami will make a postseason appearance inside McKethan Stadium on the campus of the University of Florida.
• Other than Alex Rodriguez Park at Mark Light Field, the Hurricanes' will be playing their 16th postseason game at McKethan Stadium when taking on Jacksonville University on Friday, June 3.
• Other than Rosenblatt Stadium, UMiami has never played more postseason games away from Alex Rodriguez Park at Mark Light Field than they have taken part in at McKethan Stadium.

Zeke DeVoss Selected to All-ACC Tournament Team…
• University of Miami sophomore Zeke DeVoss has been selected to the All-Atlantic Coast Conference Baseball Tournament Team, announced Sunday afternoon from Durham Bulls Athletic Ballpark. DeVoss was selected as an All-ACC Tournament performer at second base, reaching base safely in 12-of-14 plate appearances.
• After leading the conference for most of the season in stolen bases and walks, the Mims, Florida native [DeVoss] drew three walks in three games, and led off all three games for the Hurricanes reaching base as the leadoff hitter. He collected two hits and a hit by pitch in the three games against North Carolina, Virginia and Wake Forest.
• He would finish as the tournament's leading hitter with eight, and tying for fourth in total bases with nine. DeVoss also led the tournament field with three stolen bases in four attempts. His .800 batting average was also tops amongst the field.
• DeVoss carried a .900 slugging percentage on the weekend, with an on-base percentage of .857 – adding three RBI and scoring twice.

Miami is History in the NCAA Tournament…
• The University of Miami's four national titles in the NCAA Tournament is the most of any Division I team in the state of Florida.
• Making their 39th consecutive NCAA Regional, the Hurricanes are extending their NCAA record for consecutive postseason appearances.

Among the Elite…
• Three ACC schools rank among the nation's top six in total NCAA Division I Baseball postseason appearances: Florida State (second with 49), Miami (third with 40) and Clemson (sixth with 36).

Nathan Melendres Named to All-ACC Second Team…
• University of Miami junior outfielder Nathan Melendres has been named to the All-Atlantic Coast Conference Baseball Second Team, announced Monday by Commissioner John Swofford. For Melendres, the honor is his first recognition to the all-conference team.
• Melendres, a junior center fielder from Miami, finished the regular season leading the Hurricanes in batting average (.321) with 53 hits, 12 doubles and 23 RBI. He ended with a slugging percentage of .455, and second on the squad with 22 stolen bases in 25 attempts.
• Against league opponents, Melendres ended the regular season with a .330 average – leading the team in hits (35), doubles (10) and third in RBI (16). He played and started all 29 games for the Hurricanes, swiping 15-of-16 stolen base attempts on the base paths.

Now You See Them, Now You Don't…
• Sophomore Zeke DeVoss and junior Nathan Melendres not only flash brilliance at the plate, but they are bringing it on the base paths as well. DeVoss leads the Hurricanes and the league in stolen bases (28), while teammate Melendres is second on the squad and seventh in the ACC with 20.

The ACC Places Seven in Postseason Play…
• With seven ACC teams among this year's 64-team field for the 2011 NCAA Championship, the ACC has placed at least seven teams in postseason play for the third straight year and the sixth time in seven years.

• Sophomore second baseman Zeke DeVoss will enter the NCAA Tournament as one of the nation's hottest players. DeVoss reached base 12 consecutive times during one stretch of the ACC Baseball Championship.
• In three tournament games, DeVoss hit .800 (8-of-10) and reached base in 12 of his 14 official plate appearances (.857). The Mims, Fla., native leads all ACC players with 32 stolen bases.

Bringing the Orlando Magic…
• Sophomore pitcher Steven Ewing may have come to South Florida from Orlando, but he brought the O-Town Magic with him. This season, the midweek starter for the Hurricanes has gotten increasingly better each time he takes the mound. This season, Ewing has a team second-lowest ERA (2.77), sits third in strikeouts (75), leads in strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.7:1) and ties for second on the team in wins (7). After a loss in his first outing at Florida Atlantic and a no-decision at USF, Ewing rolled off seven consecutive wins until a loss against FAU on Tuesday, May 17.

Villasuso Out 4-to-6 Weeks with Broken Hand…
• Junior catcher David Villasuso is out of the lineup 4-to-6 weeks according to Hurricanes head coach Jim Morris. The Miami native allowed his frustrations to get the better of him during Sunday's (May 1) series finale against in-state rival Florida State during the bottom of the sixth inning.

Injuries Play the Part Less Expected…
• A total of eight players have missed games this season due to injury, including starting outfielder Nathan Melendres, starting shortstop Stephen Perez and senior outfielder Chris Pelaez.
• Three Hurricanes have suffered season-ending injuries – Joey Porro (fractured foot), Julian Santos (ACL) and Scott Wiebel (ACL/MCL). Catcher Corey Janson continues to rehab from the fall where he was sidelined for the entire campaign due to injury.

Last Time Out... Canes Finish ACC Tournament with Win Over Wake Forest (May 28, 2011)
   The No. 5 seed University of Miami baseball team closed out its run at the 2011 Atlantic Coast Conference Championships with a 4-2 victory over No. 8 seed Wake Forest on Saturday evening at Durham Bulls Athletic Park.
   The Hurricanes (36-21) were able to jump on the Demon Deacons (36-21) early and ride another strong outing from the bullpen to the victory.
   Due to their loss last night against top-seeded Virginia, the Canes are mathematically out of contention to reach the ACC title game, and now head home to prepare for their expected NCAA record 39th consecutive regional appearance.
   For the second straight game, Miami got an early lead thanks to a two-run single by Chris Pelaez, scoring Zeke DeVoss and Nathan Melendres in the opening frame.
   Miami got to Wake Forest Starter Austin Sadler early and often, plating another run in the second when DeVoss singled to drive in Brad Fieger. The Canes increased the lead to 4-0 when Rony Rodriguez hit his second giant home run of the tournament with a shot that went over the famous Bull on top of the left field wall – aka The Blue Monster. The shot was reported as the longest homer of the tournament.
   The home run was Rodriguez 12th of the year – second-most in the ACC. DeVoss also finished with a big day, going 3-for-4 with a RBI and a run scored. For the tournament, DeVoss finished 8-for-10 with a batting average of .800, and an on-base percentage of .857.
   Stadler lasted just 3 2/3 innings for Wake Forest (25-31) as the Hurricanes were able to get on the board in each of the first three innings. The Demon Deacons' bullpen was able to fare a little better, not allowing a run in 4 1/3 innings of work.
   That allowed Wake to start to close the gap, plating one run in the sixth – enough to send Miami starter E.J. Encinosa to the bench – and another in the seventh inning. However, thanks to solid outings by UMiami relievers Sam Robinson and a perfect ninth from Daniel Miranda, the Deacons never threatened to make it any closer.
   Encinosa (5-5, 2.90 ERA) got the win, with Miranda picking up his team-leading 14th save for the Hurricanes who finish at 2-1 in Pool A, and now look towards NCAA Regionals next weekend.

ALEX RODRIGUEZ PARK INFORMATION
Renovations to Alex Rodriguez Park are thanks in large part to a $3.9 million contribution by New York Yankees third baseman and 11-time MLB All-Star Alex Rodriguez. The gift - the largest ever to the University of Miami baseball program - has assisted the program in continuing to develop first-class facilities. The official announcement of his gift was made on Oct. 10, 2002.

Alex Rodriguez Park has taken form in a three-phase process:

• Phase I called for seating modifications, new dugouts, new stadium lighting and utility infrastructure and new rest rooms.

• Phase II entailed renovating below the grand stand area in addition to adding new concession areas.

• The final phase included adding a new clubhouse, weight room, training room, meeting room, video room and academic area. In addition, a new press box – along with four VIP suites – have been built atop the grandstand. This past offseason, addition seating was added down both lines while a new scoreboard was constructed in left field.

MARK LIGHT FIELD
In 1971, former Miami Coach Ron Fraser had a dream of building a state-of-the-art college baseball field and Hurricane supporter George Light came forward with the funding. The field, dedicated in 1977, is named for Light's son, Mark, who died of muscular dystrophy.

infielder Richie Shaffer for the week of April 4. On the week, Miami defeated Florida Gulf Coast and Boston College, respectively.

• Rodriguez, who started all three games last week for the Hurricanes at first base, led Miami in batting average with a .750 clip, producing six hits in eight official at-bats – including two walks and scoring seven runs. His 80.0 percent on-base percentage is the best for any Hurricanes performer in a week at this point on the campaign.

• The Sunset High alum and former Miami Dade College product, now in his second year as a UMiami student-athlete, helped keep the Hurricanes perfect on the road in ACC play at 5-0 – using a doubleheader sweep of Boston College on Sunday in 19-4 and 7-6 (5 innings) wins in Chestnut Hill, Mass. His slugging percentage for the week was 1.125, and he was perfect defensively with 14 putouts and an assist, all coming at the first base position.

• Against Boston College, Rodriguez was 2-for-2 with three runs scored and two walks in the doubleheader opener, only to follow with a 2-for-3 performance in the nightcap – registering a solo home run in the fifth, which proved to be the game-winning RBI for the 7-6 decision in the curfew rule enforced five inning affair.

Rodriguez Is Burnt Orange and Money Green…
• After a blistering fall campaign, leading the Hurricanes in batting average and hits, junior infielder/outfielder Rony Rodriguez has burst out of the gates quickly as a team leader in the spring as well. Rodriguez was selected as the ACC Co-Player of the Week (April 4-10), and is second on the Hurricanes team in batting average (.316) while leading the Canes in home runs (6) and slugging percentage (.579).

Position Change…
• In the second game of the series against Virginia Tech, Miami head coach Jim Morris elected to move All-American third baseman Harold Martinez to first, in a straight switch with freshman Brad Fieger. Since the move, Martinez has a .955 fielding percentage and leads the team in batting average with a .379 clip over the course of the past 23 games.

One Whale of a Game…
• Sophomore pitcher Eric Whaley picked up his team-best third win of the year in Miami's series finale win (and series sweep) of Virginia Tech on Sunday, March 13, going a season-long tying seven innings — allowing just three hits and striking out three with zero walks issued to the Hokies. The Pompano Beach native has earned wins in all three home series finales on the campaign.

The ACC and the RPI – Best of the Best…
• The RPI formula is based on a team's winning percentage, its opponents winning percentage, and its opponent's opponents winning percentage, which are weighted to determine their RPI score. Baseball weights its RPI as .25 for winning percentage, .50 for opponents' winning percentage, and .25 for the opponents' opponents' winning percentage. The weighted values of these three categories are then added together to obtain a raw RPI score. The teams are then rank ordered based on this score, a ranking that is imperfect in its current form.
• The Atlantic Coast Conference not only has several teams rated amongst the top 15 in the latest RPI ranking, but as a conference, the ACC is second in 2011, behind only the SEC.

Miami Too Much for Demon Deacons on the Road (March 18-20)…

Encinosa came into Gainesville and pitched the game of his life...Facing the number one team in the country on the road, Encinosa went 7+ innings, allowing just five hits and one run to go along with three K's...Encinosa was the tough luck loser, as the Canes were unable to push a run across...Sam Abrams, a walk-on, saw his first action of the season when he came in the game in the bottom of the fourth after relieving freshman Bryan Radziewski...Abrams went 3 2/3 innings without giving up a run, giving a Miami a chance to claw their way back into the game...Dale Carey was the only man to reach base for the Hurricanes in game two of the series, as reached twice with a hit and hit by pitch...He also stole his first base of he season, but no 'Cane was able to drive him home...Despite the 'Canes struggles offensively, Shane Rowland quietly had himself a nice series against the Gators... In a 1-0 loss to the Gators, Encinosa allowed just the one run on five hits and struckout three in a pitchers' duel with UF's Hudson Randall. Though not giving up the game-winning hit, Encinosa walked the first batter he faced in the eighth frame before being relieved out of the bullpen.

• Once again, the Hurricanes achieved a 40-win season, finishing 43-20 and a spot in the NCAA Super Regional. All-time at UMiami, the 'Canes have achieved at least 40 wins 32 seasons – including 13 times under Jim Morris. In fact, UM has claimed 50-plus wins 19 times in school history, and 60-plus wins on three occasions. Canes Start the 2011 Campaign with Series Win Over Rutgers (Feb. 18-20)…
• The Canes trotted out Brad Fieger at first, Michael Broad at second, Stephen Perez at short, Harold Martinez at third and David Villasuso for the opening game...In the outfield, Nathan Melendres played center, while he was flanked by Zeke DeVoss in left and Chantz Mack in right...Bryan Radziewski started on the hill...Freshman infielder Brad Fieger started all three games at first base for the Canes in the season-opening series, the only freshman position player to start on Opening Day this season for Miami...Freshman hurler Bryan Radziewski became the first rookie starter in more than 18 years to pitch on Opening Night for the Miami Hurricanes...Zeke DeVoss started off the season hot, as he started in the leadoff slot for each of the opening series games against the Scarlet Knights...He posted a .533 on base percentage, a .727 slugging percentage, and scored two runs in the three game set...Bryan Radziewski became just the latest Hurricane starter to hurl a gem on opening night...With Radziewski's line of one run allowed in six innings while striking out eight, he became the fifth straight opening day starter to go at least five innings and give up just one run or less...Projected eighth and ninth inning men Sam Robinson and Daniel Miranda started the season off in style, as they both appeared in two games and gave up zero runs. Combined, they went 6 1/3 innings while striking out 9 and giving up just two hits and one walk...With the 'Canes 5-3 win on Sunday, Miami won their opening weekend series for the third consecutive season...They beat Rutgers two out of three last season, and swept Cincinnati in the 2008 campaign.

NCAA Tournament Recap…
• Miami made its 38th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance last season, hosting two rounds of postseason action at Alex Rodriguez Park, where the club registered a 28-9 (.757) mark. The Hurricanes went 3-1 in the NCAA Coral Gables Regional, downing Dartmouth (12-8) and Texas A&M (14-1), before falling to the Texas A&M Aggies a day later (11-7). The Canes then overpowered the Aggies (10-3) to advance to the NCAA Super Regional. The Hurricanes fell to the Gators in consecutive games (7-2) and (4-3 - 10 innings) to end the season with a record of 43-20.

How About a Switch…
• Head coach Jim Morris is known for making the best changes possible for the team to win. Mid-season, the veteran skipper made the switch with Brad Fieger and Harold Martinez to opposite corners along the infield; switched sophomore Zeke DeVoss to more time at second base in place of Michael Broad; and has switched the pitching rotation with Eric Whaley and E.J. Encinosa – with Whaley now pitching in the second game of a weekend series.

Miami in the ACC…
• The 2011 season marks the seventh season the Canes have played in the Atlantic Coast Conference, and last year's 20-10 regular season mark in league play was the program's second-best behind the 2008 ACC championship squad that won 23 regular season league games.

New Era Behind the Plate…
• Three catchers will be battling for playing time behind the plate this year, including junior David Villasuso. A season ago, Villasuso batted .245 with 20 RBI and five home runs while serving as a backup to MLB First Round Draft selection and 2010 ACC Player of the Year, Yasmani Grandal.
• Others battling for playing time this season will be freshmen Corey Janson and Shane Rowland. After the fall season, Villasuso will probably make the start to begin the season, but don't be surprised if and when Rowland takes the spot behind the dish with improved confidence and skill.

Fresh Faces In the Dugout…

• This season, head coach Jim Morris has one of his youngest teams in recent memory. UMiami has 13 newcomers on this year's roster (12 freshman and one sophomore transfer). The 'Canes lost 2010 ACC Player of the Year, Yasmani Grandal, to the MLB Draft—Grandal was selected 12th overall in the Draft.

Canes In the Classroom…
• During the fall semester of 2010, the University of Miami baseball team recorded its highest team GPA ever. Freshman catcher Corey Janson collected a 4.0 GPA last semester, giving him one of the highest GPAs in the entire UMiami Athletic Department.

Rookie Gets the Ball…
• In starting the season-opener against Rutgers, freshman pitcher Bryan Radziewski became the first Hurricanes rookie hurler to start an opening night game in the 18-year tenure under head coach Jim Morris. Radziewski, a Florida Christian School alum, was named the Florida Class 1-4A Player of the Year in 2010 as a senior in high school.

Pelaez Earns His Degree…
• Though battling injury for most of the fall and seeing limited playing time in the spring recovering, senior Chris Pelaez has not been injured in the classroom. The Miami native earned his degree on Thursday, May 12, walking down the aisle of the BankUnited Center on the UMiami campus.

Rudman Gets His Masters…
• Relief pitcher Michael Rudman is completing his work towards a Master's Degree from the University of Miami, having already earned his Bachelor's Degree in Accounting.

You've Gotta Start Somewhere…
• Sophomore Joey Porro made his first collegiate start (second base) on Feb. 26 against Appalachian State; followed by another start against Illinois State (shortstop) on March 9. Porro was a student-manager for UM in 2010, only to earn two starts and post a .286 average with two hits, three runs driven in and one score thus far in 2011.

Jerseys On the Wall…
• At UNC, they have jerseys in the rafters honoring the retired numbers/jerseys in basketball. For UMiami baseball, they have the numbers on the outfield wall. The names and numbers of retired jerseys are few, but they are known nationally around the collegiate baseball community and beyond.
• One of the numbers on the outfield wall is that of assistant head coach/pitching coach J.D. Arteaga – still the all-time wins leader in UM history.

Up Next…
• The winners of the Gainesville and Atlanta Regionals will meet in a best-of-three Super Regional between June 10-13 for the right to reach the College World Series. Georgia Tech (40-19) is the top seed and is hosting No. 2 Southern Miss (39-17), No. 3 Mississippi State (34-23) and No. 4 Austin Peay (33-22).
• Miami met Georgia Tech for a three-game series in South Florida earlier this year, as the Yellow Jackets took all three contests at Alex Rodriguez Park.
