THE STORYLINES

COLUMBIA'S STATUS

The Lions return to action after a 17-day layoff due to final exams and the holidays. Columbia snapped a three-game slide with a convincing 84-42 triumph over Manhattanville on Dec. 11.

ABOUT MIAMI

- The Hurricanes come into Wednesday's matchup winners of five straight after a 72-64 win over George Washington on Dec. 22.
- Miami is led by Ja'Quan Newton, who is posting 14.7 points per game. Kamari Murphy is pulling down 8.0 rebounds per contest.
- This will be the second Ivy League foe for Miami after topping Penn, 74-62, on Nov. 19.

SERIES HISTORY

Columbia and Miami will face off for just the fourth time Wednesday. The Lions won the first meeting, 64-59, in the 1952-53 season and did not meet again until a 69-62 Hurricane victory in December 1995. Miami also claimed a 65-41 win in the last meeting in Coral Gables in November 2000.

COLUMBIA VS. THE ACC

The Lions are 10-27 against teams currently in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Columbia's last victory against an ACC foe came on Dec. 27, 1969 against Wake Forest, 101-78, in Philadelphia during the Quaker City Tournament. The Lions' most common foe is Syracuse, who they are 3-10 against. Columbia has not faced an ACC team since December 2008 when they took on Virginia Tech at the Madison Square Garden Holiday Festival.

ON THE OFFENSIVE

Through the first quarter of the season, Columbia leads the Ivy League in field goal percentage (.472) and ranks second in points per game (77.9) and 3-point percentage (.379).

SLICK HICK

Junior Nate Hickman has emerged as the Ivy League's fourth leading scorer, averaging 15.7 points while shooting 46.1 percent from the floor and 41.5 percent from downtown. After averaging just 3.8 points as a sophomore, he has scored 20 or more points in three games, including a career-best 30-point effort against Army West Point (Nov. 23), and drilled the game-winning 3-pointer with 1.1 seconds left in overtime against Colgate (Nov. 26). Hickman, the Ivy League Player of the Week (Nov. 28), became the first Lion other than Maodo Lo or Alex Rosenberg to record 30 points since 2011 when Noruwa Agho netted 31 against Brown.

IF I COULD BE LIKE MIKE

First-year point guard Mike Smith netted a career-high 23 points, going 8-of-13 from the floor at Seton Hall on Dec. 1. Smith has started every game for the Lions and played a key role in Columbia's opening night win. He netted 14 points on 5-of-10 shooting and drilled a key 3-pointer with the shot clock winding down and drew a charge on the ensuing possession to help seal the Lions' victory.

LUKE SKYWALKER

Senior forward Luke Petrsek is off to a fine start as well, averaging 14.3 points and 7.0 rebounds, which puts him second in the Ivy League. Petrsek netted a career-high 27 points against Hofstra on Nov. 29 and is the team's leading returning scorer after posting 10.2 points on 44.2-percent shooting from downtown in 2015-16.

BREAKING TRENDS

Columbia's first two victories this season held a little extra meaning. The Lions topped Quinnipiac for the first time in four tries on Nov. 21 and became the first non-conference opponent to beat Stony Brook at Island Federal Credit Union Arena in three seasons.

COBY SYSTEM

Senior Jeff Coby made a strong return to the lineup at Quinnipiac after missing the first two games due to injury. Coby netted 12 points, five rebounds and tied a career-high with three blocked shots against the Bobcats.

A NIGHT OF FIRSTS

In addition to Smith making his collegiate debut against the Seawolves, fellow rookie guard Jake Killingsworth and junior Nate Hickman made their first career starts. Additionally, sophomore Rodney Hunter saw his first action for Columbia and netted six points on 3-of-3 shooting.

LET'S GET IT STARTED

Columbia improved to 78-38 all-time in season openers after posting a 73-66 victory at Stony Brook on Nov. 11.

ENGLES ERA

Head coach Jim Engles became the first Lions coach to win his Columbia debut since Armond Hill in 1995. No stranger to Morningside Heights, Engles enters his first year on the Columbia sidelines after a successful eight-year stint with NJIT. Engles spent five years as an assistant coach under Joe Jones from 2003-08.

THE IVY LEAGUE TOURNAMENT

#IVYMADNESS

The Ivy League will add men's and women's basketball tournaments to its slate of conference championships beginning in March 2017. The League's Council of Presidents approved four-team tournaments in men's and women's basketball, with a one-game reduction for each team in the regular season. The tournaments will determine the conference's automatic bids to the NCAA Division I Basketball Championships. The regular season champion will receive an automatic bid to the postseason NIT. The 2017 Ivy League Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments will both be held over the same two competition days, March 11 and 12, at The Palestra in Philadelphia. All six games will be broadcast live on ESPN's networks.

COACHING STAFF IVY LEAGUE "EDUCATED"

Assistant coaches Jesse Agel and Jean Bain are also familiar with the Ivy League. Agel served as the head coach at Brown from 2008-12, while Bain is coming off a four-year stint as the associate head coach at Dartmouth.

COLUMBIA BASKETBALL ON "THE CUSP" PODCAST

The Columbia University Sports Management program will produce a series of podcasts involving the men's and women's basketball programs this season. The podcasts will be part of the program's podcast series, The CUSP Show. The show is produced by staff and students of the Columbia University Sports Management program, and hosted by faculty members and sports business grandees Joe Favorito and Tom Richardson. The podcasts can also be found in the App Store and by going to BlogTalkRadio.com/TheCUSPshow.

POLL POSITION

Columbia was picked fifth in the preseason Ivy League polls. Princeton was tabbed as the early favorite, followed by Harvard, Yale and Penn, respectively.

CIT CHAMPIONS

Last year, Columbia became just the second Ivy League team to win a postseason tournament and the first since Princeton won the NIT in 1975. The Lions established program records for wins (25), non-conference wins (15) and home victories (18). Columbia's ten Ivy League victories were the most for the Lions since 1993.

MR. INTERNATIONAL(S)

The Lions have four players with international playing experience on their roster.

- Peter Barba participated in a goodwill tour where his team played four games in Croatia through Global Sports Academy in August 2016.
- Chris McComber was one of three Canadians selected to play at the Basketball Without Borders Camp, sponsored by the NBA, in Buenos Aires in 2013.
- Lukas Meisner has been a part of the Junior German National Team system since 2010.
- Conor Voss spent the summer of 2015 playing with East Coast USA against a team of French pro league All-Stars and the Chinese National Team.

THREE FORMER LIONS IN PROFESSIONAL RANKS

Asenso Ampim '11CC joined Siauliai of the Lithuanian League in 2016-17 and is in his fifth season playing professionally overseas. Through 17 games, he is averaging 11.0 points and 4.5 rebounds. Maodo Lo '16CC signed with Brose Bamberg, defending champions of the the German League. Lo has played in 14 games, averaging 18 minutes, 7.0 points and 2.4 assists per contest. Alex Rosenberg '16CC signed with Maccabi Kiryat Gat of the Israeli Premier League, has played in eight games and is averaging 12.8 minutes per contest.

MIAMI ROLLS TO 65-41 VICTORY OVER COLUMBIA - NOVEMBER 21, 2000

CORAL GABLES, Fla. – Miami’s Joe Gordon scored six points in a 17-0 second-half run as Miami pulled away from Columbia en route to a 65-41 win.

The run, which spanned the first 10 minutes of the season half, enabled Miami to build a 46-22 lead and virtually finished off the Lions. Columbia cut the deficit to 49-36 with less than five minutes remaining, but could not get any closer.

Joe Case’s 3-point field goal with 9:32 remaining broke Columbia’s drought.

Miami’s Marcus Barnes scored eight of his team-high 12 points in the final two minutes. John Salmons added 11.

The Hurricanes’ defense led to eight first-half steals and several fast-break opportunities.

Darius Rice and James Jones each scored seven first-half points to lead the Hurricanes, but Victor Munoz kept Columbia within single digits by scoring 12 points, including 3-of-3 from 3-point range.

#ONLYHERE

In November, Columbia Athletics announced the launch of a new branding campaign #OnlyHere which focuses on the assortment of advantages to the student-athlete with emphasis on its extraordinary location in world-class New York City, unparalleled academic and career opportunities, an elite-level athletic performance program and “built to win” foundation in facilities and personnel. As part of this initiative, Columbia Athletics has launched a newly designed website www.gocolumbialions.com, new signage in its athletics facilities, refreshed athletics wordmark and the introduction of its new social media hashtag #OnlyHere.

REMEMBERING JIM McMILLAN

Columbia’s second all-time leading scorer, Jim McMillan ’70, passed away in May 2016 at the age of 68. McMillan starred for the 1968 Ivy League Championship squad and won the Haggerty Award, given to the top Division I player in the New York City Metropolitan area, three times. He went on to play nine years professionally in the NBA, winning the 1972 Championship with the Los Angeles Lakers.

BILL CAMPBELL’S NO. 67 FEATURED ON JERSEYS

For all of its 31 varsity sports, Columbia will wear a No. 67 patch on its uniform in honor of former Lion football player, coach, confidante and friend Bill Campbell, who passed away in April, 2016 at age 75. Campbell captained the 1961 Ivy League Championship football team. He returned to Columbia to coach the Columbia Football team for six seasons between 1974 and 1979. Campbell went on to make his mark in the business world, working for Kodak, Apple - where he rose to the level of executive vice president, and founded, served as President and CEO of Claris and became chairman of Intuit, the maker of Quicken, QuickenBooks and Turbo Tax. In the fall of 2014, the athletics program retired uniform number 67 – the number Campbell wore as an offensive lineman and linebacker - for all 31 of Columbia’s varsity teams.

JIM ENGLES

FIRST SEASON
DICKINSON '90

THE ENGLES FILE

- CAREER COACHING RECORD: 115-144
- POSTSEASON COACHING RECORD: 6-2 (.750)
- LED NJIT TO 2012-13 GREAT WEST REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONSHIP
- 2014-15 PETER A. CARLESIMO DIVISION I CO-COACH OF THE YEAR (METROPOLITAN WRITERS ASSOCIATION)
- 2015 JOHN McLENDON NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR (COLLEGEINSIDER.COM)

2015 Metropolitan and Mid-Major Coach of the Year Jim Engles became the 23rd head coach in the 116-year history of men's basketball program in April 2016.

Engles returns to Columbia after spending the past eight years as head coach for the New Jersey Institute of Technology. Over the past six seasons at NJIT, Engles compiled a 100-88 record, including back-to-back 20-win seasons the past two years. Prior to leading the Highlanders, Engles served as an assistant coach at Columbia under former head coach Joe Jones from 2003 to 2008.

NJIT had competed at the Division I level for only two seasons when Engles arrived in 2008, and in three years he turned them into a 15-win program. In 2014-15, he directed the Highlanders to a 21-12 record, including an upset at No. 16 Michigan and a postseason berth, advancing to the semifinals of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT).

At the conclusion of the 2014-15 season, Engles was named John McLendon National Coach of the Year honors from CollegeInsider.com, received the Peter A. Carlesimo Division I co-Coach of the Year from the Metropolitan Writers Association and was a finalist for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year and Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year awards.

In 2015-16, Engles once again led the Highlanders to the semifinals of the CIT, where they faced the eventual champions, Columbia, at Levien Gym. His team also finished tied for second place in the America Sun Conference in its first year in the league.

In addition to the tremendous success over the past two years, Engles won a Great West regular season championship and was selected the Great West Conference Coach of the Year in 2012-13. In 2010-11, he picked up a vote for AP National Coach of the Year after NJIT posted a 15-15 record.

The success of Engles' Highlanders squads culminated with NJIT committing to build a new $100 million Wellness and Events Center and receiving an invitation to join the Atlantic Sun Conference after spending two years without any conference affiliation.

In his first stint with the Lions, Engles helped Joe Jones turn around the Columbia program from a last-place finish in The Ivy League, into a consistent competitor in non-conference and league play, including the first .500 finish in league play since 1992-93.

Prior to joining Columbia as an assistant in 2003, Engles spent the previous six seasons at Rider University, where he was the top assistant coach for the Broncs under Don Harnum, as well as their recruiting coordinator. Rider's basketball program enjoyed great success with Engles on staff, including winning the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference regular-season title during the 2001-02 season and making the school's first appearance in the postseason NIT in 1998.

Before joining Rider, Engles spent seven seasons as an assistant coach at Wagner College. He assisted Tim Capstraw in guiding the Seahawks to the best winning-percentage turnaround in Division I basketball, going from four wins in 1991-92 to 16 in 1992-93. Wagner also recorded the most Division I wins in school history during that time, and competed against Rider for the Northeast Conference Championship in 1993 on national television.

A Staten Island native, from St. Peter's High School, Engles played college basketball for Dickinson College, where he was a three-year letterwinner. He helped lead the Red Devils to the second-most single-season victories in school history at the time during the 1989-90 season. After graduating from Dickinson in 1990 with a B.A. in political science, he earned his M.B.A. from Wagner College in 1997.

His grandfather, Ken Engles, was a player and coach at Georgetown University, while his uncle, John Engles, was a high school All-American who went on to play at Penn under the direction of Hall of Fame coach Chuck Daly.
