RATHAN-MAYES NAMED ACC CO-ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Freshman Xavier Rathan-Mayes, who averaged 26.0 points, 5.0 rebounds, 6.5 assists and 3.0 steals while shooting .512 from the field and .400 from the three point line in two games for the Seminoles last week, was named the ACC Co-Rookie of the Week on January 26 for the first time in his career. He shared the award with Tyus Jones of Duke. It was Rathan-Mayes' 35-point, five rebound, four assists and two steals performance against the Tar Heels that was one for the record books. His 35 points established the Florida State record for points in a game by a freshman, is tied for the fifth highest point total in a game by a freshman in ACC history, is tied for the fourth highest point total by a freshman in a game involving two ACC teams, and he became only the fourth player to score 35 or more against North Carolina in the Smith Center. Rathan-Mayes' 35 points were the most points by an opponent in the Smith Center since J.J. Redick had 35 for Duke on Feb. 7, 2006 and only two other opponents have scored 35 or more points in the Smith Center against UNC: Lionel Simmons of La Salle had 37 on Jan. 9, 1988 and Len Bias of Maryland had 35 on Feb. 20, 1986. Rathan-Mayes is the 14th different Seminole player to earn ACC Rookie of the Week honors and first to earn the honor since the 2012-13 season.

FLORIDA STATE VS. MIAMI - THE LAST GAME

Donnavan Kirk scored 16 points as Miami earned an ACC win with a 77-73 victory against rival Florida State on February 10, 2014 at the Donald L. Tucker Center in Tallahassee. The win was just the second on the road for the Hurricanes against the Seminoles in eight attempts. Rion Brown finished with 14 points for Miami while Tonye Jekiri chipped in 15. Ian Miller scored 13 for Florida State in his first game back from an ankle injury. Devon Bookert scored 17 and Aaron Thomas had 16 in the loss. Miami's five first-half 3-pointers helped extend its lead to 12 points before Miller caught fire. Miller buried a pair of back-to-back 3-pointers and added a pull-up jumper with 37 seconds left to keep the Seminoles within single digits at halftime. The Hurricanes extended its lead to a game-high 13 after a 5-0 start to the second half. Florida State needed stops down the stretch, but the two teams traded baskets for too long before the Seminoles were forced to foul each possession in an attempt to cut the lead. The Hurricanes shot 47.9 percent from the field after entering the game shooting 38.8 percent in ACC play.

Exhibition 1 -- Florida State 95, Embry-Riddle 73

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - With the return of sixth-year senior center Kiel Turpin and the debuts of Xavier Rathan-Mayes, Phil Cofer and Dayshawn Watkins providing a glimpse of the future, coach Leonard Hamilton's 13th Florida State men's basketball team made its exhibition debut Monday night at the refurbished Donald L. Tucker Center. Officially, the Seminoles cruised to a 95-73 over perennial NAIA power Embry-Riddle, though the outcome was not nearly as important as Hamilton getting a first in-game glimpse of the newcomers and how they meshed with a core of veterans. Turpin's return, after missing last season following knee surgery, provided the Seminoles with a quick lift offensively in the post. The 7-footer scored 10 points and grabbed five rebounds in the first half in his first action since the 2012-13 season. Aaron Thomas, the Seminoles top returning scorer, led the way with 18 points and chipped in six rebounds as FSU out-rebounded their under-sized opponents 45-24.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - The Florida State men's basketball team coasted in its preseason finale, riding 16 points from junior guard Aaron Thomas to a 99-45 win over Belmont Abbey College at the Donald L. Tucker Center. Thomas led FSU's scoring effort for the second straight exhibition game. He connected on seven of his eight attempts from the field and added two rebounds and a steal in just 15 minutes. Senior center Kiel Turpin, in his second game back from a knee injury that cost him all of last season, had another strong effort with 14 points, four rebounds and a hard dunk that closed the game. Turpin didn't miss a single shot, finishing 4 of 4 from the floor and 6 of 6 from the free-throw line. Montay Brandon (6 points, 4 rebounds), Devon Bookert (5 points, 5 assists) and Jarquez Smith (7 points, six rebounds) rounded out the starting lineup for FSU, which emptied the bench and got points from all 13 players who entered the game.

Game 1 -- Florida State 81, Manhattan 66

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Aaron Thomas led Florida State with a team-high 14 points while Jarquez Smith chipped in 13 points and Montay Brandon added 12 as Florida State defeated Manhattan, 81-66, in the season opener for both teams. Smith and freshman Phil Cofer grabbed six rebounds apiece. Florida State had some trouble with the Jaspers' energy early and and treailed 23-13 thanks to hot shooting from the outside by Manhattan. Fouls, however, fueled the FSU comeback. The Seminoles knocked down 15 of 20 free-throw attempts in the first half, including 11 during a 24-8 run to close the opening 20 minutes and take a 37-31 lead into the break. Manhattan went cold after the hot start and shot just 25.9 percent in the first half and 28.6 percent for the game. Ashton Pankey scored 14 points and snatched seven rebounds, but no other Jasper reached double-digit points. Florida State shot 50 percent from the field and made 32 of 44 free throws. There were 65 fouls combined between the two teams.

Game 9 -- Notre Dame 83, Florida State 63

NOTRE DAME, Ind. - Montay Brandon scored 14 points and Devon Bookert added 11 in his first game back from a foot injury, but it wasn't enough in Florida State's 83-63 loss at No. 25 Notre Dame. Zach Auguste scored a career-high 26 points and Notre Dame made more than half its shots, beating Florida State in the Atlantic Coast Conference opener for both teams. Jerian Grant and Demetrius Jackson each finished with 18 points for the Irish. Notre Dame took control with an 18-2 run midway through the first half, put together another big burst in the second half and wound up hitting 31 of 60 shots overall. Grant and Jackson both scored seven points as the Irish went on a 20-4 run midway through the second half. Jackson's dunk on a fast break made it 60-38. Auguste shot 11 of 15 and had seven rebounds. Bookert, who missed five straight games, did most of his damage from the 3-point line, where he finished 3 for 7. Auguste finished the first half with a slam dunk to give the Irish an eight-point lead, then opened the second half with a layup. The Seminoles cut the lead to 40-34 on a pair of free throws by Jarquez Smith before Grant and Jackson took over. Smith scored eight points for the Seminoles and redshirt freshman Xavier Rathan-Mayes had nine. It looked early on as if Florida State might dominate inside. The Seminoles had twice as many rebounds as Notre Dame in the opening minutes and took a 19-15 lead on a layup by Boris Bojanovsky. Auguste got the Irish going with a dunk

Game 13 -- Florida State 65, Florida 63

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Florida State's Devon Bookert missed a 3-point attempt in a tie game as the clock wound down, but somehow the ball found its way through the net. The ball took an odd bounce off the rim because it was short and Florida forward Jacob Kurtz accidentally tipped in the miss with 0.4 seconds left to give Florida State a 65-63 win. The victory snapped a Gators' five-game win streak in the series dating back to 2008. The fluke play saved the Seminoles after they gave up an alley-oop from Kasey Hill to Dorian Finney-Smith with eight seconds remaining tied the game at 63. A pair of free throws by Montay Brandon gave the Seminoles a five-point lead with 49 seconds left in the game. The two possessions seemed to be enough, but Hill knocked down a transition layup, was fouled and made the free throw. Then the alley-oop was set up off an offensive rebound. Brandon and Hill tied for a game-high 17 points while Semihole freshman Xavier Rathan-Mayes added 13. Dorian Finney-Smith finished with 14 points and seven rebounds while Michael Frazier added 11. Florida State used a 14-2 run midway through the second half to take a 49-42 lead with 7:23 remaining. The margin was the largest Florida State lead of the game.

SYRACUSE, N.Y. -- Syracuse's junior guard Trevor Cooney scored a season-high 28 points on a season-best seven 3-pointers to lead the Orange to a 70-57 win over Florida State in the Carrier Dome. The win was SU's sixth straight. Cooney entered the game hitting 36 percent from the 3, but he was hot from the start, hitting a jumper to tie the game at 2 and his first 3-pointer at 16:50. Another 3 extended the Orange lead to 15-8 and his third 3 of the first half ballooned the Orange lead to 23-12 with 8:44 to go. Cooney's final 3 of the half gave the Orange its biggest lead at that point, 33-16, with under four minutes to go. In all, he was 4 of 7 from the 3-point line in the first half to help lead Syracuse to a 35-22 lead at the break. He followed that with a 3-for-4 performance from beyond the arc in the second half and keyed a 19-10 Orange run after the Seminoles had cut the lead to 51-42 with 10:55 to go in the game. Cooney had nine points during the spurt. Rakeem Christmas registered his fifth double-double of the season with 14 points and 11 rebounds and Michael Gbinije added 11 points and nine rebounds. Christmas also had five blocked shots. Xavier Rathan-Mayes led Florida State with 14 points and Boris Bojanovsky had 10 points and four blocks.

Game 17 -- Pittsburgh 73 Florida State 64

PITTSBURGH, Pa. -- Michael Young scored 16 points to go with 12 rebounds and Pittsburgh received a big lift off the bench from forward Aron Phillips-Nwankwo in the second half to pull away from Florida State 73-64. Phillips-Nwankwo scored a career-high seven points and sparked a decisive 16-3 run as the Panthers shut down the Seminoles in the second half. Chris Jones added 15 points for Pitt, which outrebounded Florida State 39-31 and held the Seminoles to just 32 percent shooting (10 of 31) in the second half. Freshman Phil Cofer scored a career-high 21 points for Florida State but the Seminoles went nearly nine minutes without a field goal in the second half as Pitt took control. The Panthers clamped down on the defensive end, holding the Seminoles in check while Pitt slowly pulled away. Jamel Artis hit a baseline jumper and then a reverse lay-up to push the Panthers in front 57-44. Florida State's Kiel Turpin finally tipped in a miss that ended an 8:50 field-goal drought but the Seminoles never drew closer than seven points the rest of the way. Florida State led by as much as eight during a sometimes frantic first half. The Panthers steadied themselves behind Young, who struggled in a loss to Clemson over the weekend.

Game 15 -- NC State 72, Florida State 63

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Trevor Lacey scored 17 points, including five in the final 1:22, and Ralston Turner finished with 15 as NC State held off a Florida State second-half rally to escape with a 72-63 victory. Lacey sank two free throws with 1:22 left to give his team a 67-63 lead and his jumper with 31 seconds left boosted the Wolfpack to a 69-63 lead. The Wolfpack led by as many as 19 on the way to a 42-30 halftime lead, but Florida State caught up at 60 on Brandon Allen's tip-in with four minutes left. Allen, a little-used former minor league baseball player whose dad starred at Florida State in the 1980s, followed Phil Cofer's miss, but NC State's Turner hit a trey from the corner to get the Wolfpack back into the lead at 63-60 and NC State had the lead for good. Taking advantage of their inside game, the Wolfpack built a 34-15 lead en route to their 12-point advantage at the half, shooting 56.3 percent while Florida State shot a 39.1 percent before the break. Lacey, the Wolpack's leading scorer on the season, hit 3 of 4 3-point tries and led the way with 11 first-half points for NC State. Bookert was perfect on three long range attempts in the opening half to lead the Seminoles with nine points. But NC held him to a single basket in the second half when Bookert missed four attempts from 3-point distance.

Game 19 -- Florida State 59, Clemson 66

CLEMSON, S.C. -- The Seminoles got 17 points from Xavier Rathan-Mayes and 14 from Devon Bookert to end a three-game losing streak with a 59-55 victory over Clemson. Florida State saw its 12-point, second-half lead slip to 56-55 on Rod Hall's foul shot with 23.3 seconds left. But the Seminoles held on for their third straight win at Littlejohn Coliseum and sixth victory in their past seven meetings with the Tigers. After Hall drew Clemson with a point, Bookert made one of two foul shots and Rathan-Mayes had a breakaway layup for the final margin. Clemson had two chances to tie or pull ahead, first when Hall went to the foul line and missed his first attempt. Then trailing 57-55, Damarcus Harrison missed a 3-pointer with 16 seconds left in the Tigers final opportunity. The Seminoles started quick. Rathan-Mayes and Kiel Turpin, the son of former Kentucky All-American Mel Turpin -- fueled a 13-3 run over an eight-minute stretch of the opening half. The 7-foot Turpin had two inside buckets, Rathan-Mayes a basket and when Devon Bookert hit a 3-pointer, Florida State led 26-14. Clemson picked up a late spark from 6-10 reserve Sidy Djitte, who scored his team's final eight points of the period as the Tigers cut things to 28-22 at the half.

Game 20 -- North Carolina 78, Florida State 74

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. -- Brice Johnson had 18 points and 14 rebounds to help the 15th-ranked Tar Heels survive a 35-point performance from Florida State freshman Xavier Rathan-Mayes and beat the Seminoles 78-74 at the Dean E. Smith Center. Johnson earned his fourth double-double despite playing just 23 minutes due to first-half foul trouble. Marcus Paige scored 19 points to help the Tar Heels win their fifth straight league game. They led nearly all day, though Rathan-Mayes hit three 3-pointers in the final 36 seconds to keep FSU in it to the horn. Rathan-Mayes' 35 points were a school freshman record and were the most by a UNC opponent in the Smith Center in nearly nine years. His last 3 cut the deficit to 75-72 with about 17 seconds left, but FSU got no closer. Rathan-Mayes scored 22 second-half points and finished 14-for-26 from the field. The rest of the Seminoles shot 13-for-35. "I think it all came together for him," Florida State coach Leonard Hamilton said. "And we really needed every one of his points to stay close.'

Game 21 -- Florida State 82 Wake Forest 76 (2 OT)

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Xavier Rathan-Mayes scored 21 points, hitting a long jump shot and then two free throws in the final minute of double overtime, and Phil Cofer added 19 points and eight rebounds as Florida State defeated Wake Forest 82-76. Devon Bookert had 15 points for Florida State, making 3 of 4 3-pointers. The Seminoles shot 27 of 58 (46.6 percent) from the floor. Codi Miller-McIntyre scored 25 points and Cornelius Hudson added 18 for Wake Forest, which lost its fourth straight game. The Demon Deacons shot 24 of 70 (34.3 percent) from the floor, including just 8 of 27 from beyond the 3-point arc. Hudson was the exception for Wake Forest, coming off the bench to make a season-high five 3-pointers. Wake Forest pulled out to an early 19-4 lead halfway through the first half as Florida State went 6-plus minutes without a basket. But Florida State gradually chipped away at Wake Forest's lead, tying the game at 43 on a Rathan-Mayes layup with 14:09 left in regulation. Florida State led 65-61 with 1:21 left in regulation, but Miller-McIntyre made a jump shot and then tied the game at 65 with 11 seconds to go to force overtime. After both teams missed chances to win the game in the first overtime, Florida State outscored Wake Forest 10-4 in the final five minutes. Cofer put FSU ahead for good, 77-75, on a slam dunk off an assist by Bookert with 1:25 left. Cofer had nine of his 19 points in overtime and double overtime. The freshman made 9 of 13 shots from the floor.

Arctic blast: 9 Alaska men find their way to Division I college basketball Matt Tunseth Alaska Dispatch News January 17, 2015

Alaskans are filling the ranks -- and filling buckets -- at the Division I level of college basketball.

Nine men's basketball players are playing at the highest level of the college game, and several of them have blossomed into legit stars for their teams.

Florida State's Devon Bookert (West) is one of the top guards in the Atlantic Coast Conference, Colgate's Damon Sherman-Newsome (Bartlett) and Houston Baptist's Colter Lasher (Dimond) are their team's leading scorers, and five of the nine lead their teams in 3-point shooting percentage.

Alaskans have had D-I success in the past. Muff Butler was a star at New Orleans in the 1980s, East's Trajan Langdon and Juneau's Carlos Boozer were household names for Duke in the 1990s and Mario Chalmers won a national title at Kansas in 2008. But seldom before have so many from the 49th state been on the Division I scene at once, a phenomenon that can be attributed both to the quality of basketball in Alaska as well as increased awareness of what it takes to make the leap to Division I.

Getting exposure has always been a challenge. In the past, the only Alaskans who got D-I looks were prep superstars like Langdon, Boozer and Chalmers, all of whom were blue-chip prospects coming out of high school.

Getting recruiters to come to Alaska is still a challenge, but Alaskans have become more savvy about developing their games and drawing interest from coaches. Of the nine Alaskans playing D-I ball, only two -- Derrick Wilson of Marquette and Calvin Hoffman of Liberty -- went directly from high school to active Division I rosters, and Wilson didn't make the jump from an Alaska high school. He played one season at East and then spent the rest of his high school days at a Connecticut boarding school with a strong basketball program.

The rest went to junior college (Sherman-Newsome and Oregon's Jalil Abdul-Bassit), took a redshirt year (South Dakota State's Connor Devine) or went to the prestigious Impact Basketball Academy in Las Vegas (Bookert, Lasher, Hartford's Jack Hobbs and Iona's Ryden Hines).

Bookert said Alaskans who want to play high-level college basketball have to be patient.

"I think there's just not much exposure up in Alaska," he said in a phone interview Friday after practicing in advance of a Saturday game against North Carolina State.

Bookert said players from Alaska can also draw interest from college coaches by sending out game tapes or attending basketball camps outside.

It's hard to generalize about Alaska players, but based on this year's statistics it's safe to say coaches who sign Alaskans can count on one thing: shooting ability. Hines, Sherman-Newsome, Lasher, Abdul-Bassit and Bookert lead their teams in 3-point shooting percentage and Devine leads his squad in field goal percentage.

Bookert said he's not sure why Alaskans are typically skilled shooters. But he's got a couple of theories.

"It might be the cold or just something in the water," he said.

Bookert said one of the most important pieces of advice he'd give players hoping to succeed in Division I -- aside from shooting jumpers after practice -- is to spend time in the classroom. He said college coaches look for more than just basketball skill when they recruit players, which means athletes need to focus on their studies throughout high school.

"I would tell them to work hard, of course, and to have good grades," he said. "It means more than you think."
