LAST TIME OUT

Richmond treated its home fans to yet another thrilling victory in the Robins Center, defeating Arizona State, 76-70, in OT in the NIT Second Round. Senior Kendall Anthony came up big with a game-high 21 points, including three treys and sixth FTs. Anthony hit a three and was fouled, converting a four-point play to put the Spiders up four in overtime. Terry Allen came on in the second half and overtime, scoring all of his 17 points and going 5-of-9 from the field in those periods. He converted his sixth double-double of the season with 17 points and 10 rebounds. Jones scored 12 points while Anthony came up big late, scoring six points in the final two minutes to finish with 12. T.J. Cline tallied 19 points with four assists and ShawnDre' Jones scored 15 points off the bench on 6-of-7 shooting from the field.

In 2014-15, head coach Chris Mooney begins his 10th season at the helm of the Richmond Spider men's basketball program.

Mooney ranks third all-time in the Spider record books with a career record of 187-145 for a winning percentage of .561. He is also the fifth longest-tenured coach in the Atlantic 10.

He has led the Spiders to five postseason appearances, including NCAA Tournament trips in 2009-10 and 2010-11. In the spring of 2011, Mooney's Spiders made national headlines en route to a Sweet Sixteen trip, knocking off five-seed Vanderbilt and Morehead State in the process.

Richmond has averaged 20.7 wins over the last seven seasons, with three 20-win campaigns. Playing an always-tough schedule in and out of conference, the Spiders have finished in the top 100 of the RPI in four of the last five campaigns. UR has also tallied 10 wins over ranked opponents since 2008, including five victories in the last six games against ranked teams at the Robins Center.

Mooney's teams have protected their home court, going 64-14 for a winning percentage of .820 over the last five seasons at a Robins Center that has averaged nearly 6,000 fans a game, ranking fifth in the Atlantic 10 in attendance last season.

In terms of personal accolades, Mooney was tabbed the Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year in 2010, while also being selected as a finalist for the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award that year as well. He has been featured in many national publications, including the New York Times, USA Today and Sports Illustrated, while also doing segments on ESPN.

In 2010, he won the Voice of the University Award, given to a faculty or staff member for being a voice that represents the University of Richmond in a positive manner to the wider community. That same, Richmond Style Weekly tabbed him for the 40 Under 40 list, spotlighting UR's community involvement with the homeless, Special Olympics, Arthritis Foundation, Friends of Jaclyn Foundation and the ASK Foundation for Childhood Cancer Research.

Mooney has coached eight Atlantic 10 All-Conference players and seen one player, Justin Harper, drafted to the NBA. Numerous players have gone on to play professionally overseas.

Over the last three seasons, the Spiders have had to restock after the graduations of valuable pieces to UR's NCAA runs. In 2013-14, Richmond looked to a youthful core to finish the season at 19-14 after senior leader Cedric Lindsay went down with a season-ending injury in the middle of the conference slate. Junior Kendall Anthony stepped up to average more than 15 points a game and earn a spot on the All-Atlantic 10 Second Team.

In 2012-13, the Spiders reached the postseason after going 8-8 in A-10 play to tie for eighth place in the conference. Richmond earned a bid to the CBI and advanced to the quarterfinals after defeating Bryant in the first round. In the year prior, Richmond went 16-16 while tying for ninth in the conference.

in Mooney's coaching career and in recent Spider basketball history. Richmond finished third in the A-10 regular season standings in both seasons, and reached the conference tournament title game twice, winning it in 2010-11.

In the spring of 2010, Richmond earned its first NCAA at-large bid since 2004, garnering a seven seed before being upset in the first round of the tournament. Mooney was named the 2010 Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year, and was a finalist for the 2010 Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award.

That season, the Spiders finished the season ranked no. 24 in the final top-25 rankings, tallying a 26-9 overall record. The Spiders defeated three ranked teams and piled up non-conference wins over Mississippi State, Missouri and No. 13 Florida.

In 2010-11, Richmond brought the pieces back and finished what they started, defeating Dayton in the A-10 championship game to earn Mooney's first conference championship, the first and only league title since Richmond joined the Atlantic 10 in 2001.

Richmond advanced to the second Sweet 16 in program history by downing Vanderbilt and Morehead State in the NCAA Denver Subregional. The Spiders' run came to an end at the hands of top-seeded Kansas in San Antonio. Richmond set a school record with a 29-8 record, finishing no. 21 in the coaches poll.

During those years, the Spiders were led by Kevin Anderson, a 2010 Associated Press All-America Honorable Mention and 2010 Atlantic 10 Player of the Year. He was a two-time All-Conference First Teamer and was named the 2011 A-10 Tournament MVP. He also earned a spot on the 2009 All-Conference Second Team and was named the 2008 Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year.

Anderson had plenty of help to lead Richmond to national prominence. Justin Harper (2007-11) was a Lute Olson All-American and NABC First Team All-District selection in 2011, while also earning All-Atlantic 10 First Team honors. Harper finished with 1,457 career points and 113 career blocks, ranking 11th and eighth, respectively. He was drafted by the Cleveland Cavaliers in the second round of the 2011 NBA Draft, and saw action for the Orlando Magic before making a career in Europe.

David Gonvalvez (2006-10) was another prolific scorer for the Spiders, tallying 1,727 points which currently ranks fifth all-time. He was tabbed to the All-Atlantic 10 Second Team in 2010 and was an honorable mention in 2009, while also making the All-Defensive Team in 2010.

Mooney was hired at the University of Richmond at the end of the 2005 season. He had previously coached at Air Force for five seasons, three as an assistant, one as an associate head coach and his final season as head coach. It was his first head coaching job, and in 2004-05, Mooney led the Falcons to an 18-12 record and votes in the national polls.

Mooney's first college coaching experience came at Division III Beaver College, now known as Arcadia University. He spent three seasons there from 1997-2000. He began coaching at the high school level, taking a job at Lansdale High School in Lansdale, Pa., in 1994. A

AS A PLAYER

A 1994 graduate with a B.A. in English, Mooney led Princeton to the NCAA Tournament twice following a pair of conference titles. The four-year letterwinner amassed 1,071 points, which ranks 20th on Princeton's all-time scoring list, and started all 107 games in his career. He currently ranks seventh on Princeton's career list with 142 career three-pointers and is one of five Princeton student-athletes to score 1,000 points, grab 350 rebounds and dish 200 assists.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT MOONEY

"Coach Mooney is one of the best young minds in the game." - Andy Katz, ESPN.com

"Chris Mooney has a keen basketball acumen" - Dick Vitale in USA TODAY

"If you ask every coach in American the team they don't want to face in an elimination game, it's Richmond." - Rick Pitino, Louisville native of Philadelphia, Mooney played collegiately at Princeton (1990-94) under Hall of Fame coach Pete Carril. Mooney twice earned the B.F. Bunn Trophy, given annually to the varsity basketball student-athlete who, through sportsmanship, play and influence, contributed most to the sport at the school.

Scouting Miami

The Hurricanes enter Tuesday's game as the two seed in Richmond's NIT bracket. Miami defeated Alabama and N.C. Central to advance to the quarterfinals.

In the regular season, Miami pulled off victories over Duke, N.C. State and Florida, but also lost to Wake Forest, Green Bay and Eastern Kentucky.

The Canes average 68.7 points per game with a 43.5 shooting percentage from the field. They have been nearly even with opponents in rebounds and force 11.3 turnovers per game.

Sheldon McClellan averages 14.3 points per game with 4.5 rebounds, while Tonye Jekiri leads the team with 10.1 rebounds per game. Angel Rodriguez averages 3.9 assists per game.

Richmond's NIT History

Richmond is making its eighth trip to the NIT and first since 2003. The Spiders are now 8-7 overall in the tournament, advancing as far as the quarterfinals in 2002 before losing a home game to Syracuse.

Sporting a home record of 7-4, the Spiders have gone 6-3 in the first round and 2-3 in the second round of the NIT. In UR's last appearance in 2003, Richmond lost the opener to Providence at home, 67-49. UR's first NIT trip came in 1982 under Dick Tarrant.

Robins Center Record

Richmond's 76-70 win over Arizona State in the NIT Second Round was certainly impressive due to the Spiders' resiliency in the second half and overtime, answering every ASU bucket.

The win was also monumental in giving the Spiders their 16th home win of the 2014-15 season, setting a new record for wins in a season in the Robins Center.

Historic Team Effort

The Spiders accomplished something for the first time in 21 years in last week's 84-74 win over St. Francis Brooklyn in the NIT First Round. UR put six players into double figures in scoring with Terry Allen (21), Alonzo Nelson-Ododa (14), Kendall Anthony (12), T.J. Cline (12), ShawnDre' Jones (12) and Josh Jones (11) all adding to the scoring column.

It marked the first time since a win over VMI in 1994 that the Spiders had six players score in double figures.

New Shot Clock? No Problem

Richmond has now played two games with the 30-second shot clock in the NIT and the results have been good. The Spiders have forced a number of shot clock violations with only one themselves.

During the regular season, Richmond averaged 62.4 possessions with 1.04 points per possession. In the NIT, UR has averaged 73.5 possessions with 1.08 points per possession.

NIT Snapshot

In two NIT games, six players have averaged over 6.5 points, led by Terry Allen's 19.0 ppg and 10.5 rpg. Richmond is averaging 80.0 points per game and shooting 50.5 percent from the field. UR's defense has held SFBK and ASU to 42.3 percent shooting with 13.5 turnovers.

The Spiders have averaged 4,066 fans for the two NIT home games.

Spiders Finish Regular Season With Six Straight

Richmond finished the regular season on a six-game winning streak, including wins in seven of the last eight games. Over that stretch, four players have averaged in double figures including Kendall Anthony (14.0), Terry Allen (13.2), ShawnDre' Jones (13.0) and T.J. Cline (13.0). Allen recorded three double-doubles and has 9.0 rebounds over the streak.

UR's defense held opponents to just 54.7 ppg and 37.9 FG shooting, including 18.7 percent from three. The Spiders averaged 9.2 steals in the six wins, posting a +5.5 turnover margin. Five of the six conference wins came over 2014 NCAA Tournament teams.

Spiders Defended Well In A-10 Play

After starting A-10 play with increased offensive firepower, the Spiders found ways to win games with suffocating defense.

In A-10-only stats, Richmond ranked fourth in scoring defense (61.6), third in scoring margin (+6.6), third in FG pct (.452), third in FT pct (.704), first in 3PT defense (.260), third in assists (14.4), second in steals (7.7), second in turnover margin (+4.33) and second in assist/turnover ratio (1.5).

Individually, Kendall Anthony was fifth with 16.8 ppg. Terry Allen was fifth in steals (1.8), and T.J. Cline is eighth in 3PT FG pct (.415).

Put Four On The Board

Richmond's strong push at the end of the season was in large part due to balanced scoring. Four players are averaging in double figures this season in Kendall Anthony, Terry Allen, T.J. Cline and ShawnDre' Jones.

Richmond has played 13 games with four players reaching double figures, including the St. Bonaventure road game where five players reached double figures, and the St. Francis NIT game where six players reached double figures for the first time since 1994. In the home win over Davidson, three UR players scored 20 or more points for the first time this century.

'O Kendall, My Kendall'

The heart and soul of Richmond's team is lone scholarship senior Kendall Anthony. An All-A-10 first team selection, Anthony leads the team with 16.6 points per game and a team-best 28 double-digit scoring performances, including 102 for his career. He earned A-10 Player of the Week honors after his 22-point game against VCU, and is tied for first on the team with 78 assists. Prior to Senior Night, Anthony was awarded the prestigious Kevin Eastman Award. He was also tabbed for the Richmond Times-Dispatch All-State team.

Anthony has had a number of gutsy performances this season. In the Gotham Classic finale, he overcame a stomach bug to hit five threes and score 19 to beat IUPUI. Against Wake Forest, Anthony played through a mild groin strain to score 21 points, including 13 in the second half. Despite just five points over the first 39 minutes against GW, Anthony scored five points in the final minute to force OT and then scored another 10 points in the two OT periods. He also scored 20 second-half points to lead a big comeback win at VCU.

The program's all-time leading three-point shooter, Anthony just moved into fourth all-time in scoring at Richmond. He also ranks sixth in career field goals, eighth in career free throws, sixth in career three-point percentage and sixth in career FT percentage. He has played 40 minutes on seven separate occasions this year and is second in the A-10 with 36.5 minutes per game.

Double-Double Machine

Junior forward Terry Allen has been running hot with increased aggressiveness in 2015. A mismatch problem for most teams because of his height and speed, Allen averaged 13.9 points per game against A-10 teams, shooting 50.3 percent from the field in those 18 games, which include a 21-point performance against Davidson, a 20-point game against George Mason at home and three consecutive double-doubles against St. Bonaventure, George Washington and VCU. He was one rebound away from four straight double-doubles at SJU.

In the NIT, he has posted two double-doubles for 19.0 ppg and 10.5 rpg. He has recorded 25 double-digit scoring games, including 20 of the last 22 and 17 in a row.

Masters of Theft

In A-10 play, Richmond mastered the art of the steal. The Spiders had 11 steals to force 19 turnovers at St. Bonaventure, then repeated the effort with 11 steals vs. GW and a season-high 13 steals at SJU. UR ranks second in the league with 7.1 steals per game.

Remarkably, it was UR's frontcourt that led in pilfers. Terry Allen has 1.8 (5th) spg in A-10 play, followed by Deion Taylor with 1.5 steals per game in A-10 play.

Protecting The Rock

Richmond has been very protective of the ball this season with a stellar backcourt and skilled frontcourt that rarely turns it over. Richmond is second in the A-10 and ranks 12th in the country for fewest turnovers with 10.0 per game.

The Spiders only committed four turnovers against Northeastern, the best mark since 3/14/13 when Richmond had a three-turnover game against Charlotte. The Spiders have committed single digit turnovers in 11 games and only gave up 12 against VCU in the first contest.

When Richmond does turn the ball over, they often do it in dead ball situations. UR only allows 10.2 points per game off turnovers and just 4.3 fastbreak points.

Getting Caught In The Web

Richmond's defensive reputation extends beyond the region as teams and media around the country have come to respect UR's unique approach to a matchup zone.

This season, opponents are averaging just 61.1 points per game, ranking third in the A-10 and 45th in the country. The Spiders' second-ranked +3.55 turnover margin has led to an average of 15.9 points off turnovers, including 29 against Duquesne, 27 vs. William & Mary and 25 against URI. The Spiders have won the points off turnovers battle in 27 of the 33 games this season.

Richmond makes it a point to not allow transition baskets as opponents have averaged just 4.3 transition points per game.

Against St. Bonaventure in January, the Spiders nearly held an A-10 opponent under 40 points for the first time in five years, while limiting the Bonnies to an 0-for-10 performance from three. Against the A-10's best offense in Davidson, Richmond held the Wildcats to a season-low 63 points and only 27.3 percent 3PT shooting.

Spreading the Wealth

Richmond made a season-high 25 assists on 31 made baskets in the win over Davidson on 1/17, the most assists since UR's 26 in a win over UNCW on 11/13/12.

UR has only played two games with single-digit assists, and has won the assist battle in 28 of 34 games this year.

Richmond's assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.3 currently ranks second in the A-10 and 26th in the country. Against A-10 teams, UR averaged 14.4 apg, ranking third.

Strength At Home

The Spiders are 16-3 at home this year with some outstanding defense in those games. Richmond has held opponents to just 40.7 FG shooting and 58.9 points per game at the Robins Center.

Conversely, Richmond has shot 47.1 percent from the field at home, averaging 69.2 points and 6.8 threes per game. UR has a 14.3-9.2 advantage in assists per game and a +4.8 turnover margin.

Richmond is 80-17 at home over the last six seasons, winning six of the last seven home games vs. ranked teams, including a double OT win over No. 22 VCU on 2/25.

Richmond's 16 home wins in 2014-15 is tops for the most wins in any single season at the Robins Center.

Nail-Biting Finishes

The Spiders have had a number of close finishes this season with 19 of 33 games being determined by six or fewer points. Of those 19, 10 were decided by a made or missed shot in the waning seconds with four going to overtime.

Richmond is 8-11 in games decided by six or fewer points. While they were just 4-10 in the first 14 close games, they are 4-1 in the last five

The Spiders overcame an eight-point second-half deficit to come back and defeat Fordham with several late threes on 2/11. Richmond also forced a second OT despite a three-point deficit with four seconds left against VCU.

Anthony Becomes 3-PT King

Kendall Anthony tied a career high with seven threes in a statement win against Davidson. His biggest three came in the first half as the ball hit the front rim, bounced off the backboard and rolled in for his 242nd career trey, passing Jonathan Baker for first all-time. Anthony needed just 619 attempts while Baker's record had taken 634.

he had to sit out 2013-14 after transferring from Niagara.

He is averaging 11.6 points per game with a field goal percentage of 51.1 which ranks 11th in the conference.

A dangerous three-point marksman and excellent passer for a forward, Cline has hit 47 threes and has 55 assists. He is ninth in the league in 3PT percentage (.392) in A-10 play.

A native of Plano, Texas, Cline is the son of Hall of Fame women's basketball player Nancy Lieberman.

TD Embodies #OneRichmond

Junior Trey Davis is the only Richmond, Va., native on the team's roster and he embodies the toughness and passion of Richmond Basketball. Trey's father, John Davis, was a Hall of Fame forward for Dick Tarrant from 1982-86, helping the Spiders to two NCAA tournaments and an NIT appearance. Trey and John are the third father-and-son combo to play for the Spiders (Jeff-Ryan Butler, Tony-Pat DiServio). Cox Sports tabbed Davis as one of its Top 5 Underrated A-10 players for this season.

He has averaged 4.9 rebounds per game and 4.3 points per game this year. He is second on the Spiders with 43 steals and is third with 79 assists.

#URStuck

After defeating St. Bonaventure in snowy Olean, N.Y., the Spiders had a minor setback in their trip home. After the team's bus driver missed the turn to the Bradford, Pa., airport, his attempt at a three-point turn wound up getting the bus stuck in a snowbank.

Hilarity then ensued on social media under the hashtag, #URStuck. The Spiders were rescued after a two-hour wait for a tow truck and made it back to Richmond after 2 a.m. The news went viral, prompting the Washington Post, NBC Sports, Yahoo Sports and Campus Insiders to all do coverage of the hashtag.

Don't Call It An Upset

Although the Spiders earned a national reputation for the Cinderella slipper in the 80's & 90's, UR has had to reestablish itself as a mid-major powerhouse in the 21st century where parity rules in men's basketball.

Richmond earned an at-large NCAA bid in 2010 and then won the 2011 A-10 tournament as the first step on a trip to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen. The Spiders finished 2009-10 ranked 24th, and were 21st at the end of the 2010-11 season.

Since 2008, UR has won 12 of 24 games against ranked opponents, including six of the last seven at home. In Mooney's tenure as head coach, Richmond has captured 15 wins against Power 6 conference opponents.

Not Your Daddy's Princeton 'O'

As a former player at Princeton and disciple of Pete Carril, head coach Chris Mooney runs a version of the famed Princeton offense. However, like many current versions, Richmond does not play like a stereotypical Princeton team of yester-year.

The Spiders push transition after rebounds and turnovers and like to shoot early in possessions when they can. The principles of good ball movement and quality passing forwards on the perimeter still exist as most players touch the ball on a given possession.

A Live Spider?!?

Richmond holds the unique distinction of being the only Division I school in the country with the spider as its mascot. The men's basketball team took that concept to the next level this year by adopting a Venezuelan blue tarantula as a live spider mascot.

During games, the spider will sit in its cage at midcourt during warmups and behind the team bench during play. More than one opposing player has refused to grab balls for warmups due to the proximity to a live spider.

Prior to the Davidson game on Jan. 17, the Spider was named Tarrant after Hall of Famer coach Dick Tarrant, UR's winningest coach. The female spider will go by Tara for short.

Richmond Inks Julius Johnson

In the November signing period, Richmond announced the signing of Julius Johnson. A 6-3, 215-pound combo guard from Cocoa, Fla., Johnson will strengthen Richmond's backcourt next season.

Johnson is in the middle of senior year at Florida Air Academy in Melbourne, Fla. He averaged 28 points per game in his junior season, helping his school to a 26-2 record and a spot in the regional finals. He reached a career high with 49 points in a win over Miami Pace.

FloridaHoops.com ranked Johnson 29th among all Florida players for the 2015 class.
