 Three members of the Tiger team will begin play in their final seasons with an undergraduate Clemson degree already in hand, Shelton Mitchell, Marcquise Reed and David Skara.

LYLES DAVIS EARNS SCHOLARSHIP

- During the Tigers' previous road trip to Syracuse, Lyles Davis was awarded a scholarship by head coach Brad Brownell.
- Davis, a fourth-year walk-on in the Tigers program is known as a relentless worker and one of the most respected players on the roster.
- The pre-business major hails from Charleston, S.C. and attended James Island Charter High School where he was a three-time captain and helped lead them to a Region 7-AAAA title in 2014-15.
- Coach Brownell began his meeting speaking to the team about what it's like to be a coach and to see player development first hand. Not just on the court, but in all aspects of life.
- Brownell concluded his speech with, "Something cool is about to happen..." That something cool was announcing that Davis would be on scholarship for his last semester in school.
- Last Spring, Davis was awarded the "Academic Excellence" Award, presented each year at the Tigers' basketball banquet by academic advisor Leslie Moreland-Bishop.
- Davis is also a two-time winner of the "Man of the Month" Award, presented montly by director of basketball strength and conditioning Mike Bewley.
- The award is graded out over the course of a month and on a weekly basis. Each student-athlete is graded after each practice session by their position coach, after each strength session by coach Bewley and twice per week academically.

THE CITADEL 80

CLEMSON 100

NOV. 6, 2018

LITTLEJOHN COLISEUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — It was a historic night in Littlejohn Coliseum for Clemson University men's basketball's 100-80 season-opening victory over The Citadel on Tuesday night. The win marked the 34th-straight season that Clemson has won the opener dating back to 1985-86

With the victory, head coach Brad Brownell earned his 150th career victory as the leader of the Tigers. He is currently ranked third all-time in Clemson history.

The Tigers (1-0) also scored 100 points for the first time since Nov. 23, 2009 when Clemson topped Winthrop 102-66. It also marked the first time since 2009 that the Tigers registered six double-digit scorers.

Marcquise Reed led the way for Clemson with 20 points, 13 rebounds, four assists and four steals. The performance marked the 28th "Triple Leadership" in Clemson history (leading team in points, rebounds and assists in a single game). It also served as a "Quad Leadership" since Reed led the team with his four steals. It also marked his fourth career double-double and third double-double with double-digit rebounds.

The Tigers entire starting lineup boasted double-figures in the scoring column: Shelton Mitchell (16), Aamir Simms (16), Elijah Thomas (15) and David Skara (11). Off the bench for the Tigers, Clyde Trapp turned in a career-best game with a career-high 13 points on 4-for-8 shooting.

The Bulldogs (0-1) run a unique style of play in which they "Embrace the Pace" and that was evident on Tuesday night. The Tigers scored 49 first-half points (more than any first half in a game last season) and took a nine-point advantage into the locker room.

Reed nearly posted a double-double in the first half with 10 points and nine rebounds, while Simms was a perfect 5-for-5 from the floor with a game-high 11 points at the break.

Clemson doubled its halftime lead in just over two minutes into the second half, 58-40, with 17:56 on the clock. The Bulldogs would claw back to within nine points on two occasions, but the Tigers were able to keep them at bay and seal a 20-point victory on opening night.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Clemson University men's basketball made its first eight shots of the game and set the tone for the remainder of the contest, breezing past NC Central to move to 2-0 on the year with a 71-51 victory on Friday night.

The Tigers (2-0) allowed just 20 points in the opening half, the second-fewest allowed by a Clemson team in its last 61 games. The lowest was 19 points allowed to Auburn in the second round of the 2018 NCAA Tournament.

David Skara paced the Tigers with a game-high 16 points on 5-for-7 shooting, including 3-for-4 from outside. Aamir Simms finished right behind with 14 points on 5-for-8 shooting and hit 3-of-4 from long range as well. The three 3-pointers from Simms was a careerhigh for a single game.

Clemson started 8-for-8 from the field and opened a 20-9 lead nearly seven minutes into the contest. The Tigers pushed its lead to 20 right before the half on a Marcquise Reed 3-pointer.

The Tiger defense remained stout for a full 40 minutes, limiting the Eagles (0-1) to just 32.7 percent shooting from the field, including a dismal 22.2 percent from long range (4-for-18). The Eagles also turned the ball over 20 times in the contest, leading to 25 Clemson points.

Javan White played 12 minutes off the bench and provided an efficient outing for Brad Brownell's squad. White finished with seven points, six rebounds and two blocks while finishing a perfect 3-for-3 from the field.

13 of the Tigers' 18 bench points came from White and Hunter Tyson. In 14 minutes, Tyson connected on his first two 3-pointers of the season and pulled down three rebounds in the process.

Shelton Mitchell finished as the third Tiger in double-figures with  $11$ points, while also dishing out four assists and corralling two steals.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Clemson University men's basketball used a 12-0 run that spanned 2:46 during the middle of the second half to pull away from Sam Houston State and polish off a 15-point victory on Wednesday night.

The Tigers (3-0) won their third-straight game to open the season – the fifth time under Brad Brownell in his tenure at Clemson. With the victory, Brownell has 152 at Clemson and is just five shy of passing Bill Foster for second all-time in program history.

Marcquise Reed led the Tigers and finished with a game-high 26 points – just two shy of tying his career high of 28 which he set last season at Virginia Tech (Feb. 21). It marked the fourth time in his career that he notched at least 25 points. He hit a team-best three 3-pointers and finished a perfect 5-for-5 at the charity stripe.

Two other Tigers finished in double-figure scoring with Shelton Mitchell collecting 13 points, while Aamir Simms scored 10 of his 12 points in the second half.

LITTLEJOHN COLISEUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Clemson University men's basketball finished off a wire-to-wire drubbing of Wake Forest, 64-37, for its second-straight Atlantic Coast Conference victory on Sunday afternoon. The 37 points allowed is tied for the fewest in an ACC game during the Brad Brownell era (37 at Georgia Tech, Feb. 21, 2012).

The Tigers (13-8, 3-5 ACC) were led by an ultraimpressive performance by Elijah Thomas. The senior posted his sixth double-double of the season with 23 points and 10 rebounds, while adding in a career-best seven blocked shots. He finished 10-for-11 from the field and 3-for-3 at the charity stripe.

While Thomas was the only Tiger to reach double-figure scoring, Clemson posted nine more in the scoring column

Clemson's defense was stout beginning with the early stages of the opening stanza. The Tigers raced out to a 26-9 advantage – not allowing the Demon Deacons (8-13, 1-8 ACC) past the 10-point mark until the 3:18 mark of the first half.

Wake Forest was never able to get into a rhythm with Clemson's defense locking down two of the Demon Deacons' starting guards, Brandon Childress and Sharone Wright Jr., and holding them to 0-for-19 from the floor in a combined 55 minutes.

The Tigers pushed the pace even further in the second half and led by a game-high 29 points before finishing off the convincing 27-point victory.

McCAMISH PAVILION • ATLANTA, GA.

ATLANTA — With a 65-42 victorious margin over Georgia Tech, it marked the fewest points allowed in back-to-back Atlantic Coast Conference games in Clemson University men's basketball history (79 points).

The Tigers (14-8, 4-5 ACC) dominated the Yellow Jackets (11-12, 3-7 ACC) from the opening tip in the dominating 23-point victory. It marked the Tigers' third-straight league victory and the first three-game win streak with each victory by double-digits since the 1974-75 season.

The 23-point win was the fifth-largest margin of victory in an ACC game in Clemson history.

Marcquise Reed led the way offensively with 19 points on 9-for-16 shooting from the floor. Elijah Thomas picked up where he left off on the defensive side of things with five more blocks – giving him 12 over the last two outings.

David Skara and Aamir Simms both posted 13-point performances in the Tiger victory.

Clemson led by nine at the break but broke out with a hot-shooting second-half by posting a 62.5 percent clip from the floor (15-for-24) in the second stanza.

The Yellow Jackets cut the Tiger lead to just eight at 41-33 with 12:10 remaining in the game. Immediately following a Clemson timeout, the Tigers imposed their will and executed a 17-5 run over the next nearly nine minutes to put the game out of reach.

The Tigers (15-8, 5-5 ACC) held the No. 1-ranked field goal percentage team in the ACC and No. 40 overall in the country to a dismal 28.3 percent shooting, including just 26.3 percent from long range. The 28.3 percent shooting was the lowest of the season for Virginia Tech.

Mitchell led with his 22 points - 18 of which came in the opening stanza. Marcquise Reed hit two big 3-pointers and finished 7-for-7 at the charity stripe.

Elijah Thomas tied his career-high with seven blocked shots – giving the big man 19 blocks in his last three games.

After taking a four-point lead into the break, the Tigers were able to fend off the Hokies at every turn. Virginia Tech closed to within three points on five occasions in the second half, including to just one at 41-40.

With that narrow one-point advantage following a Kerry Blackshear Jr. jumper, Clemson received huge shots – both 3-pointers – from Reed and freshman forward Hunter Tyson to push the lead back to seven.

The lead closed to three again at 47-44 and Reed yet again hit another big three. The next trip down the floor following a missed shot, David Skara hit a tough step-back three to tie Clemson for its largest lead of the game at nine and the Tigers were able to close out the eight-point victory.

Skara finished with three points, but it was his defense that mattered most on Saturday. Skara held the Hokies' leading scorer, Nickeil Alexander-Walker, to just 3-for-14 shooting from the floor.
