29 PREVIEW

Coach Haith and the Hurricanes return four starters, 83 percent of their scoring and 72 percent of their rebounding from their 2007-08 NCAA Tournament team. But unlike last season when the team was picked to finish last in the ACC, Miami enters this season with high expectations.

33 COACHING STAFF

Fifth-year head coach Frank Haith and his tireless staff return to the hardwood in 2008-09 determined to develop outstanding young men, both on and off the court. In addition to a burgeoning program, the Hurricanes lead all ACC teams with six All-ACC Academic Men's Basketball Team selections over the last three years.

45 THE 'CANES

Four seniors – Brian Asbury, Jimmy Graham, Lance Hurdle and Jack McClinton – highlight the more experienced 2008-09 edition of the Hurricanes. In addition, Miami welcomes three newcomers into the family, with the arrival of transfer Malcolm Grant and freshmen DeQuan Jones and Reggie Johnson.

77 THE U

Get to know more about both the University of Miami and the staff that works behind the scenes with the goal of providing the best experience possible for all Hurricane student-athletes.

95 THE OPPONENTS

This season's 29-game slate includes 14 postseason teams and at least 10 nationally-televised games. Miami will have 16 home games at the BankUnited Center and 16 ACC contests – including home and away series with North Carolina, Maryland, Florida State, Boston College and NC State.

103 2007-08 REVIEW

Despite doubt from outsiders, the Hurricanes put together one of the strongest seasons in program history. A 10-game turnaround – among the best in the nation – culminated in the second round of the NCAA Tournament, as the Hurricanes returned to the national rankings and saw the emergence of their very first All-ACC First Team pick.

131 HISTORY

The Hurricanes made history in 2007-08, as the program continues its growth under the watchful eyes of head coach Frank Haith and his upstart Hurricanes. All-time great 'Canes include Rick Barry, Tim James, Don Cumutt, Dick Hickox, Johnny Hemsley, as well as current NBA players James Jones and John Salmons.

LET'S DANCE

It was Hurricane season for sure in 2007-08. The University of Miami men's basketball team showed resolve and determination as they worked steadily towards a postseason berth. A strong 12-0 start to the season, followed by the program's highest-ever finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference and Miami's first-ever First Team All-ACC selection in Jack McClinton resulted in the program's third postseason appearance in four seasons under head coach Frank Haith, as the Hurricanes earned their invitation to the Big Dance.

But these Hurricanes didn't sneak quietly into the dance. They blew into Alltel Arena in North Little Rock, Ark. with a roar. McClinton's 38-point first-round performance made everyone take notice of these Hurricanes. Trailing 32-27 at halftime, McClinton took the game into his own hands and in the second half the score was McClinton 32, St. Mary's 0.

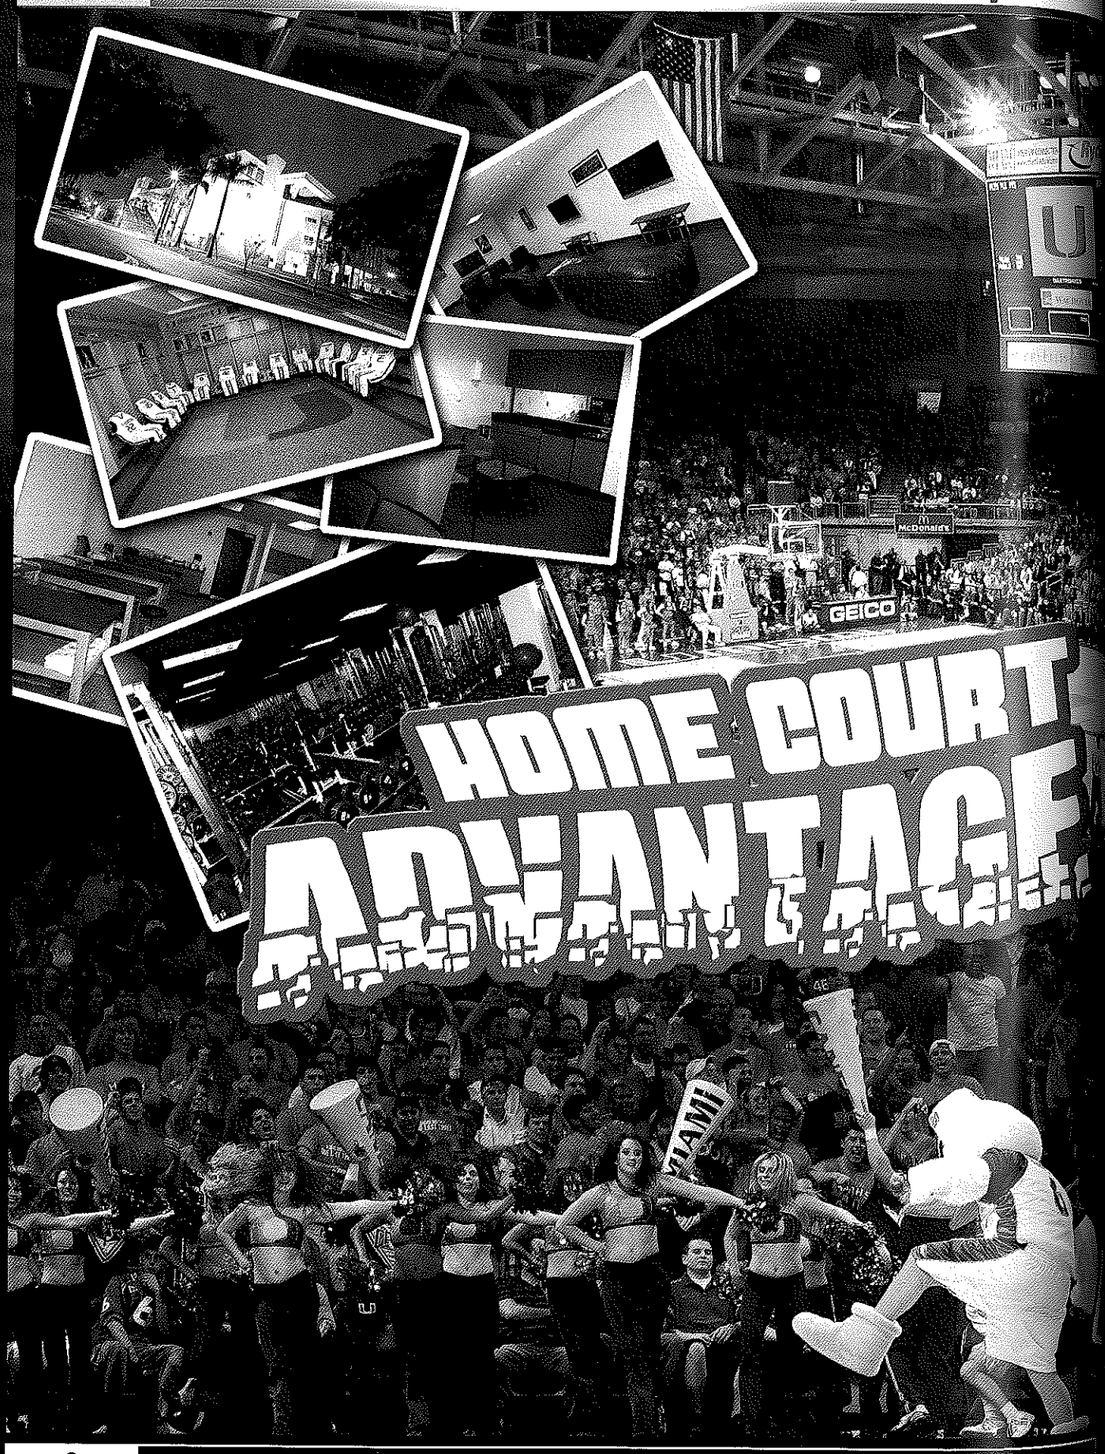

McClinton's effort was not only the best postseason performance in Miami history, but also the second-highest scoring output by an individual in the entire 2007-08 tournament.

And that performance pushed these seventh-seeded Hurricanes to a 78-64 win over 10th-seeded St. Mary's and into the NCAA's second round for the third time in Miami history.

In second-round action versus second-seeded Texas, Miami put together a furious second-half rally, nearly knocking off the Longhorns. But despite a dozen second-half McClinton points and a pair of thrilling three-pointers by Raymond Hicks in the final 11 seconds, the Hurricanes saw their exciting postseason run come to a close with a 75-72 loss.

"I want to thank these guys for taking me to a place I have always wanted to go...," noted assistant coach Jake Morton at the team's year-end banquet. "And to be able to do that at my alma mater – I just can't explain how great that feels."

FEEL THE MADNESS!

THE BANKUNITED CENTER

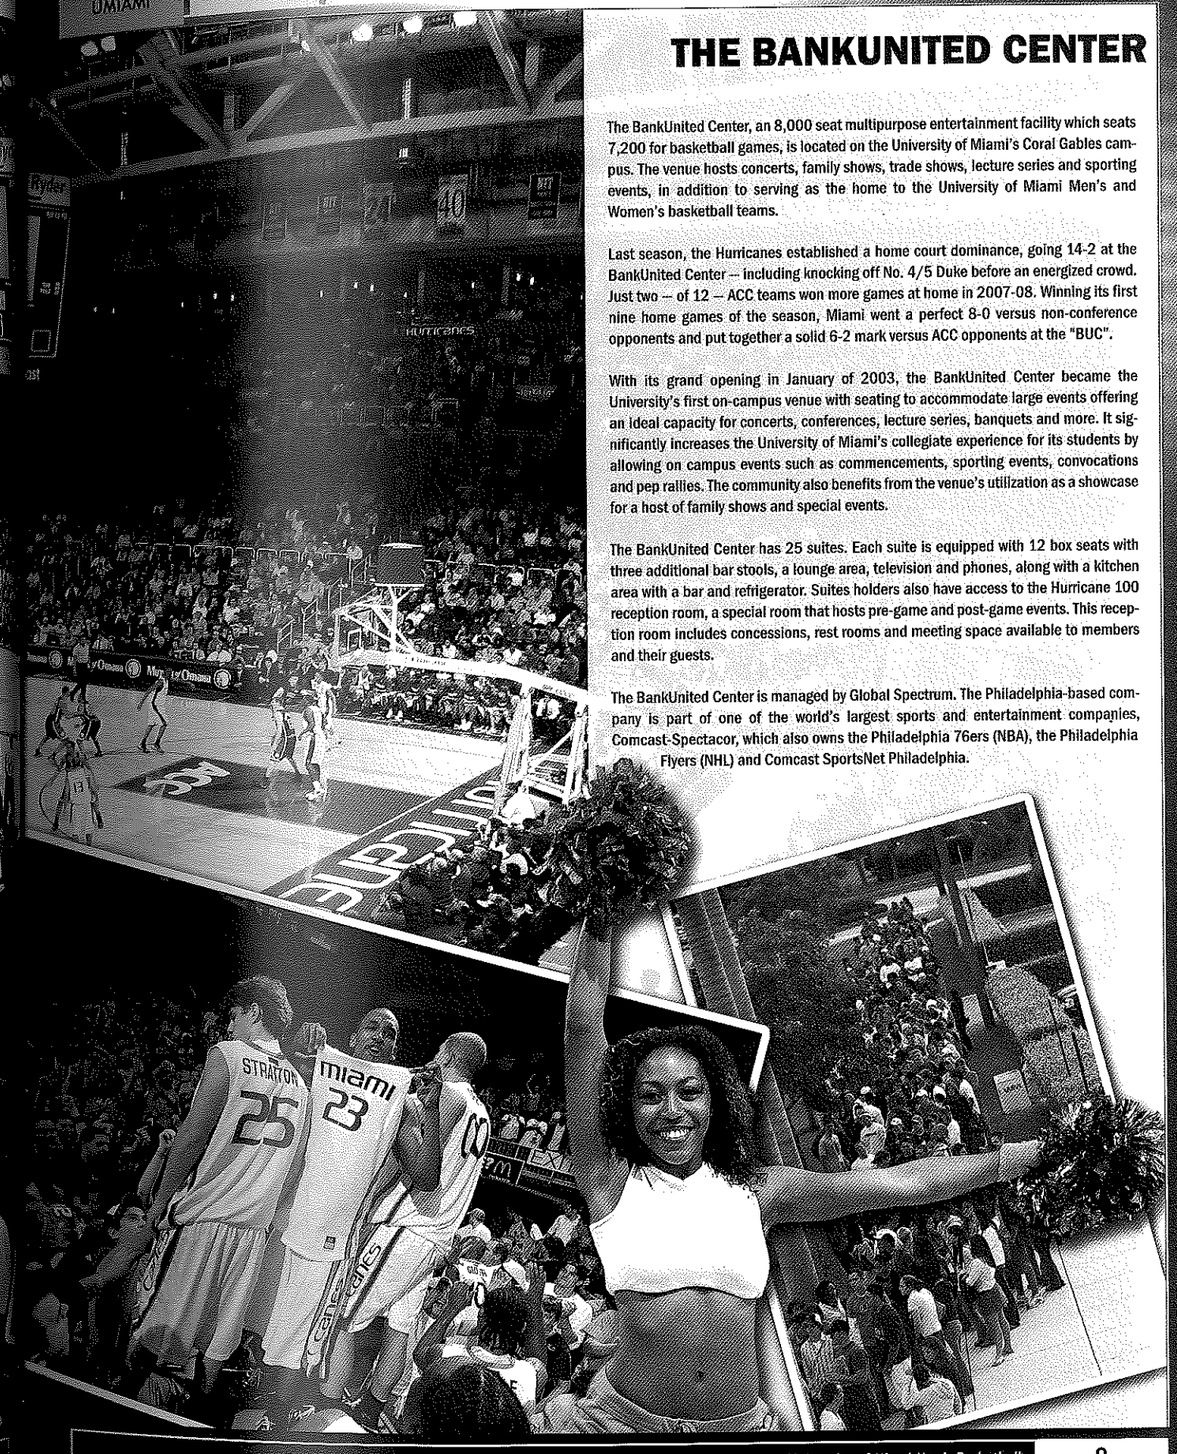

The BankUnited Center, an 8,000 seat multipurpose entertainment facility which seats 7,200 for basketball games, is located on the University of Miami's Coral Gables campus. The venue hosts concerts, family shows, trade shows, lecture series and sporting events, in addition to serving as the home to the University of Miami Men's and Women's basketball teams.

Last season, the Hurricanes established a home court dominance, going 14-2 at the BankUnited Center -- including knocking off No. 4/5 Duke before an energized crowd. Just two -- of 12 -- ACC teams won more games at home in 2007-08. Winning its first nine home games of the season, Miami went a perfect 8-0 versus non-conference opponents and put together a solid 6-2 mark versus ACC opponents at the "BUC".

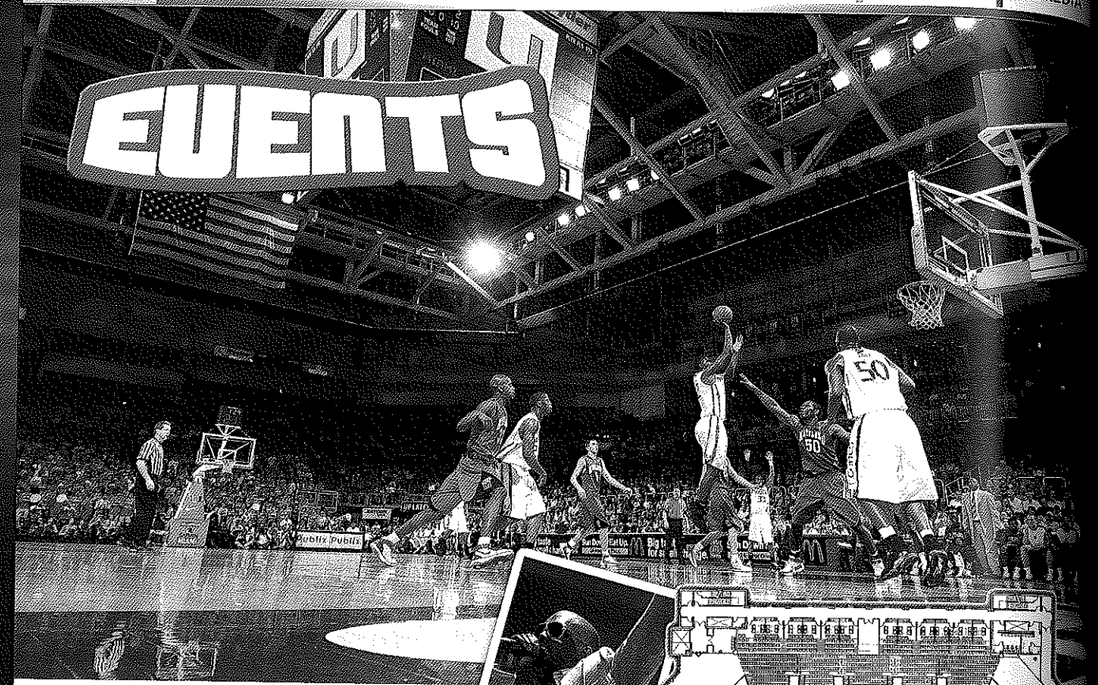

With its grand opening in January of 2003, the BankUnited Center became the University's first on-campus venue with seating to accommodate large events offering an ideal capacity for concerts, conferences, lecture series, banquets and more. It significantly increases the University of Miami's collegiate experience for its students by allowing on campus events such as commencements, sporting events, convocations and pep rallies. The community also benefits from the venue's utilization as a showcase for a host of family shows and special events.

The BankUnited Center has 25 suites. Each suite is equipped with 12 box seats with three additional bar stools, a lounge area, television and phones, along with a kitchen area with a bar and refrigerator. Suites holders also have access to the Hurricane 100 reception room, a special room that hosts pre-game and post-game events. This reception room includes concessions, rest rooms and meeting space available to members and their guests.

The BankUnited Center is managed by Global Spectrum. The Philadelphia-based company is part of one of the world's largest sports and entertainment companies, Comcast-Spectacor, which also owns the Philadelphia 76ers (NBA), the Philadelphia Flyers (NHL) and Comcast SportsNet Philadelphia.

EVENTS

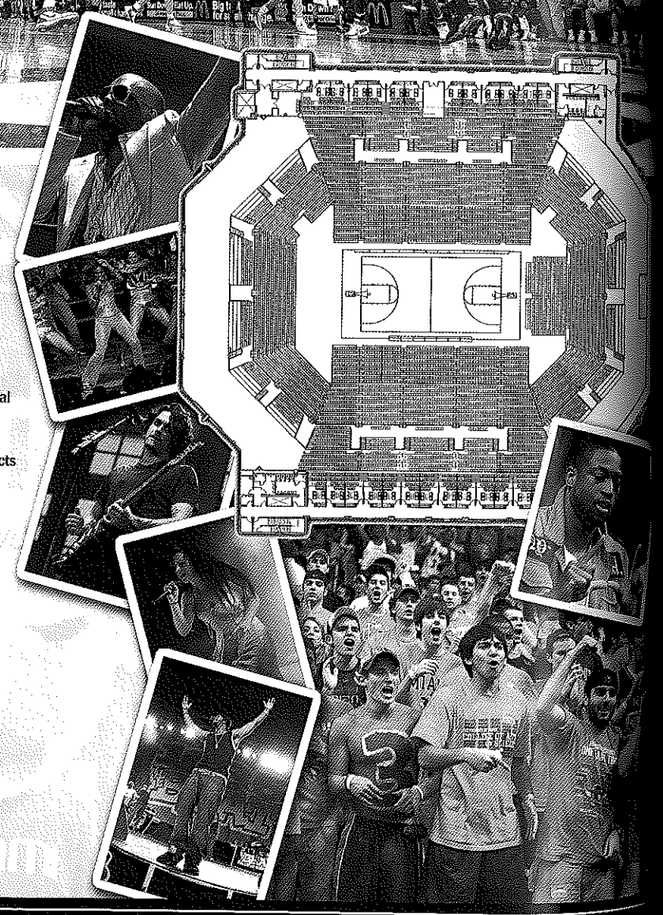

Since the BankUnited Center opened its doors in January 2003, it has played host to many of the top names in music and entertainment, as well as some of the biggest cultural events in South Florida.

The BankUnited Center has hosted a number of memorable events including North American tour launches for artists such as Coldplay, Green Day and Kanye West; a lecture series by his holiness the Dalai Lama, the historic first Presidential debate of the 2004 election between President George W. Bush and Senator John Kerry, the first all-Spanish Republican and Democratic Political Forums 2007 and Univision's Premios Juventud awards.

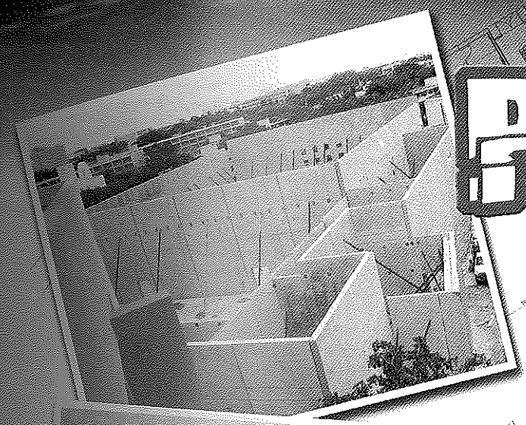

The BankUnited Center has also hosted such well known musical acts as Kanye West, Good Charlotte, Audioslave, Green Day, Ludacris, Coldplay, John Mayer, The Fray and Evanescence.

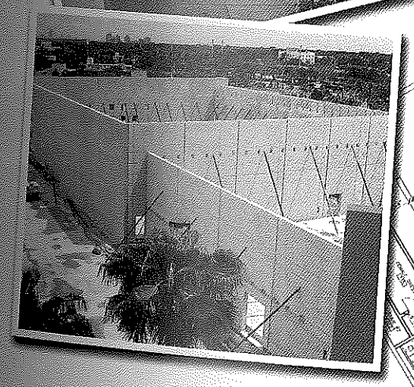

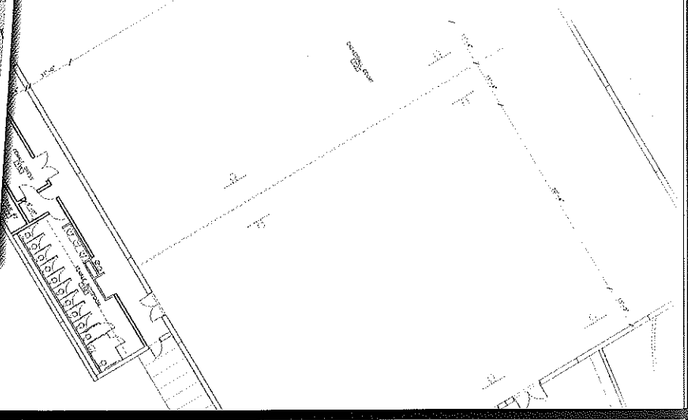

TIME FOR PRACTICE

BUILDING A NEW FOUNDATION

Work is well underway on the new Miami basketball practice facility, which is located adjacent to the BankUnited Center alongside the Hurricanes 100 Room east of the arena. The new facility — which will measure approximately 29,000 square feet — will house several full-size practice courts, as well as a multi-purpose room to host a variety of events. Construction is scheduled for completion this winter.

THE NAME: THE HURRICANES

It began in controversy. Some reports say players on the 1927 football team held a team meeting to select Hurricanes, hoping they would sweep away opponents just as the devastating storm did on Sept. 16, 1926. Another version holds that Jack Bell, a columnist for the old Miami News, asked end Porter Norris of the 1926 team what the team should be. Told that local dignitaries and University officials wanted to name the team for local flora or fauna, Norris said the players wouldn't stand for it and suggested "Hurricanes" since the opening game had been postponed by such a storm. From time to time, opposition has arisen to the name that would "reinforce Miami's negative reputation as a weather-beaten community living constantly under the threat of destruction." But as one UM official rationalized in the 1960s, "Does anyone think Chicago is overrun by bears just because the town has a football team by that name?"

THE COLORS: ORANGE, GREEN & WHITE

UM's colors were selected in 1926 and are representative of the Florida orange tree—with orange symbolizing the fruit of the tree, green the leaves and white the blossoms.

THE U

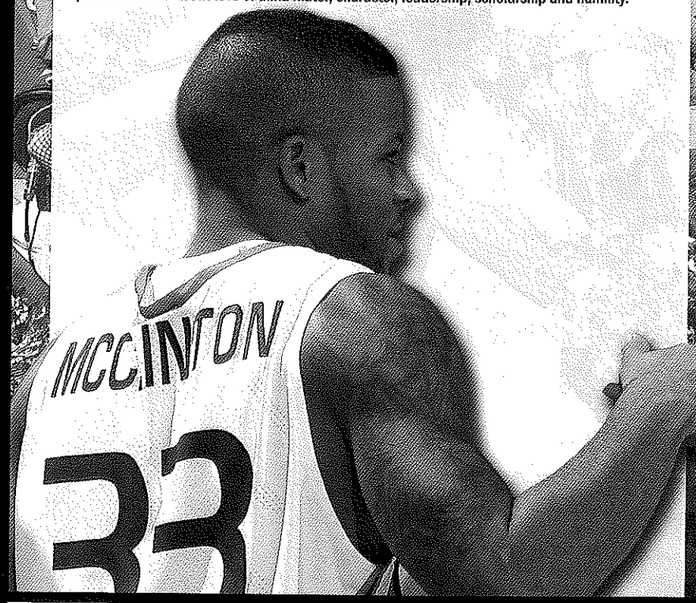

In 1973, UM's Athletic Federation, the fundraising arm of the athletic department at the time, commissioned a local public relations expert to develop a distinctive logo. The University had gone several years with a variety of helmet and uniform changes, and the Federation noted that a number of major colleges have the initials UM. Miami designer Bill Bodenhamer suggested the "U" idea, which lent itself to distinctive logos for each sport as well as slogans like "U gotta believe" and "U is great". In recent years, the well-known U logo—and such outspoken proponents as former Miami standout and NFL Hall of Famer Michael Irvin, has inspired fans to begin referring to the University of Miami as "the U" and showing their support by making a U symbol with their hands.

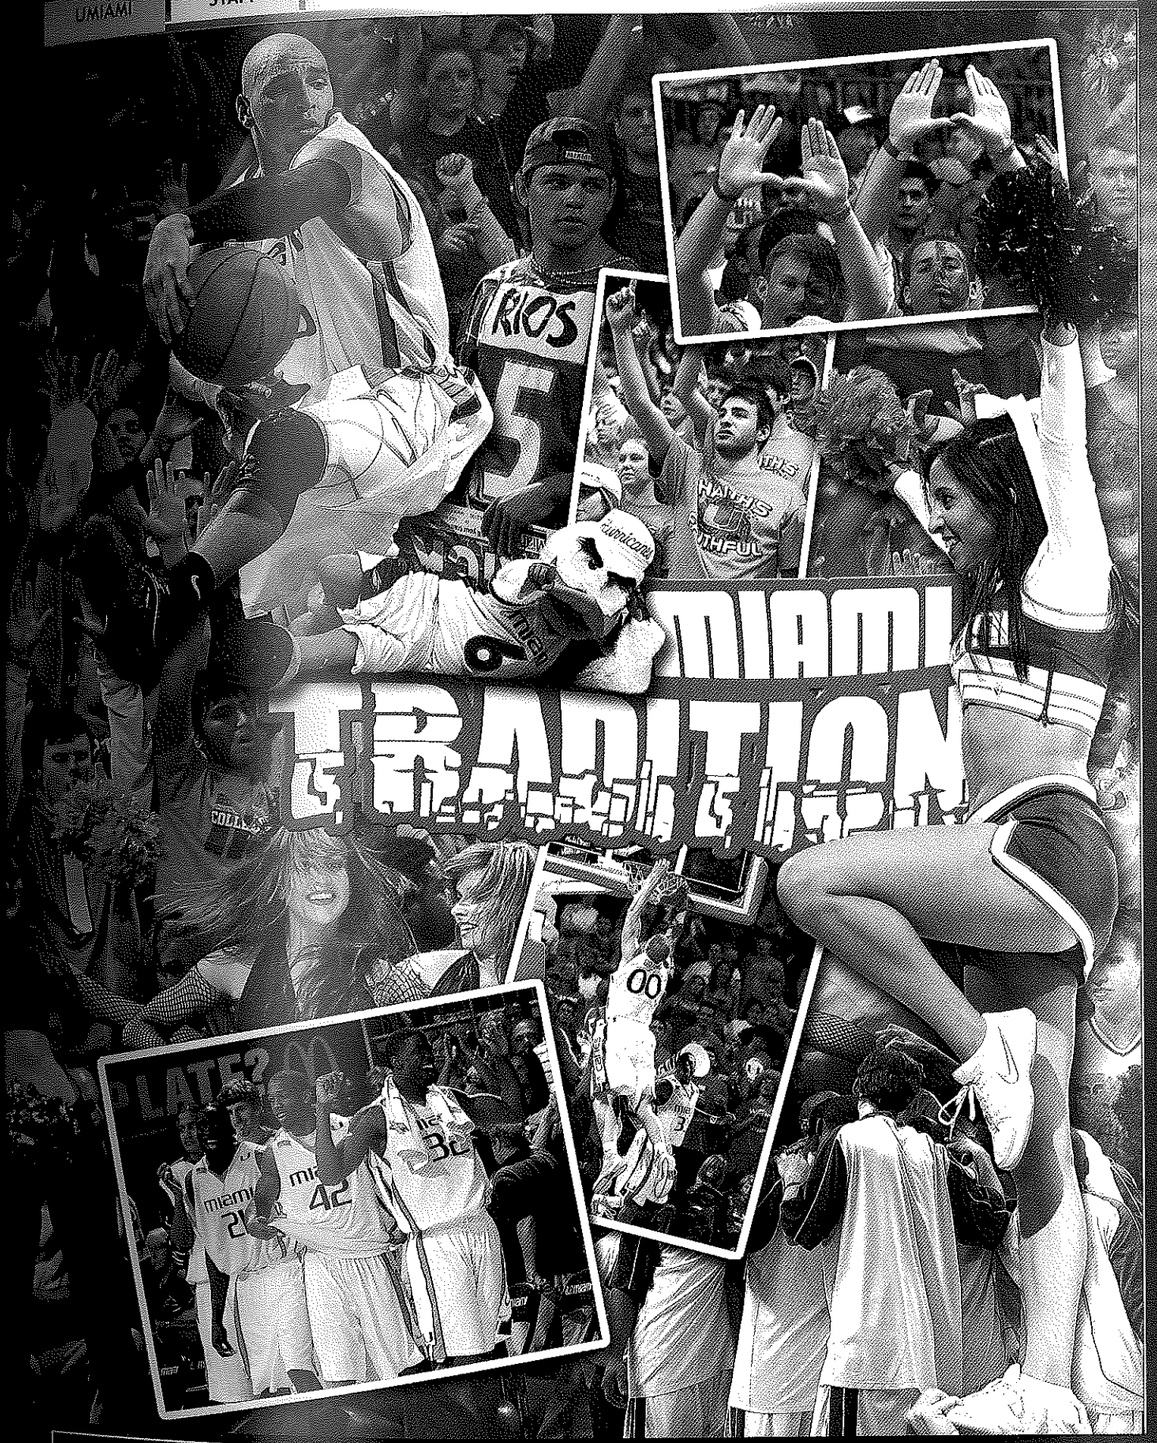

THE MASCOT: SEBASTIAN THE IBIS

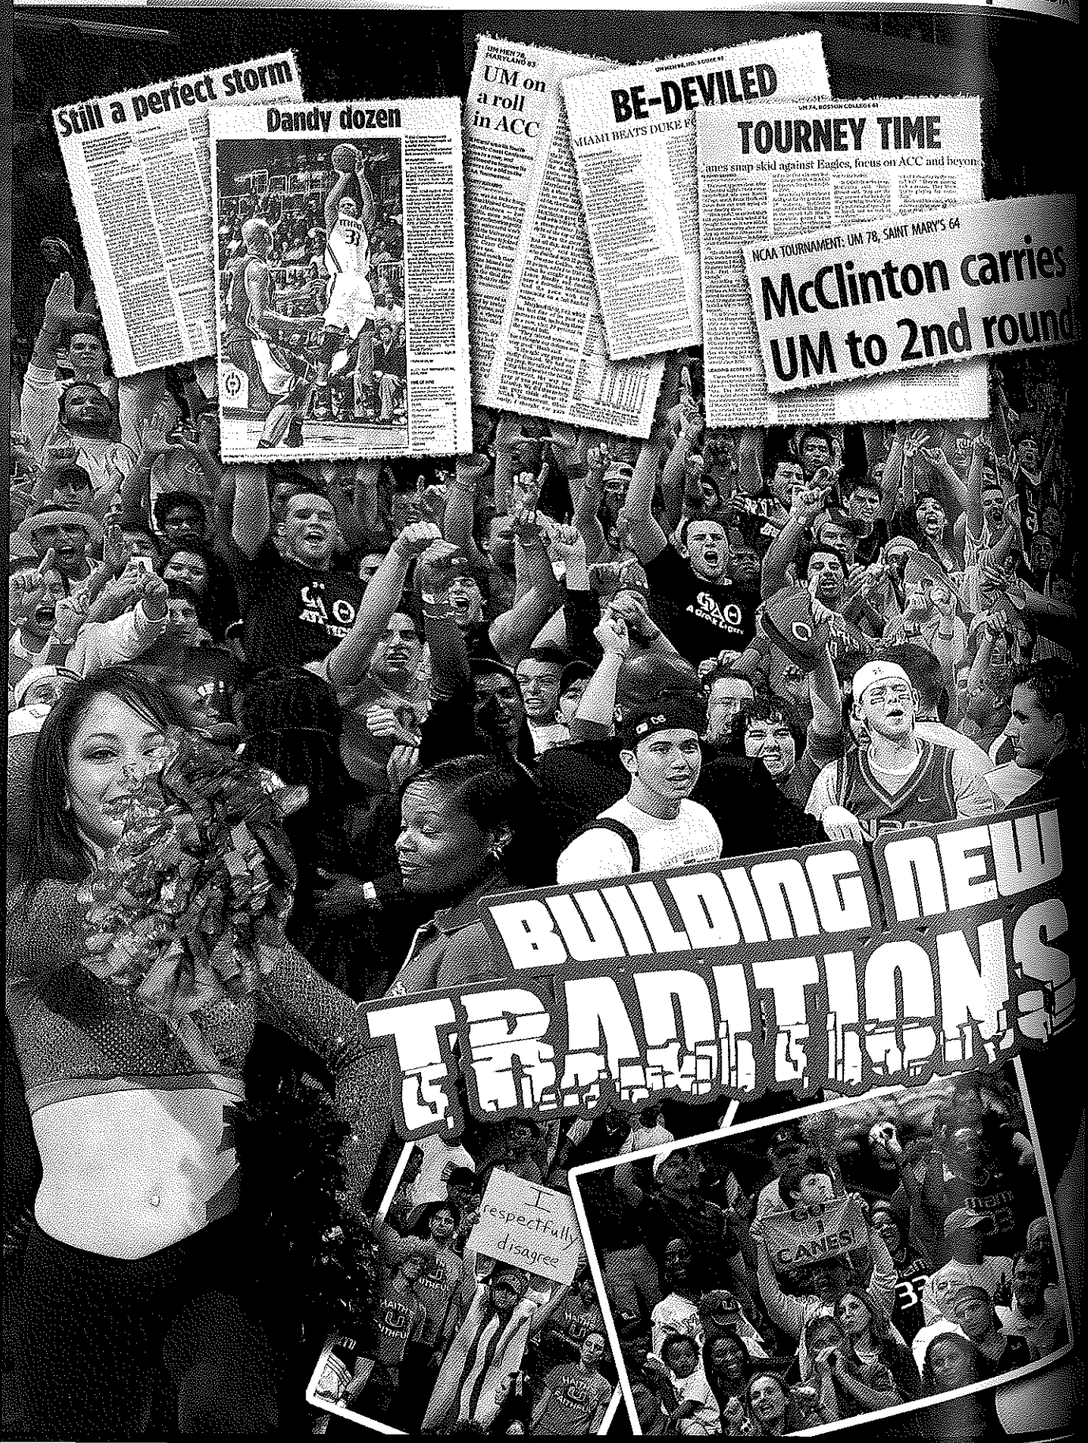

Folklore maintains that the ibis, a symbol of knowledge found in the Everglades and Egypt, is the last sign of wildlife to take shelter before a hurricane and the first to reappear after the storm. The local marsh bird was considered UM's first unofficial mascot when the school yearbook adopted the name "Ibis" in 1926. Its popularity grew among the students during the 1950s, and through the years, the Ibis has become one of the most recognizable college mascots in the United States.

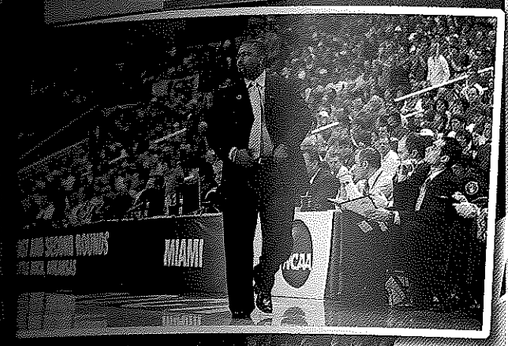

IRON ARROW

Members of the prestigious Iron Arrow Honor Society can be seen around campus wearing their brightly colored Seminole Indian jackets. Admission to the elite Tribe, a mystery to the uninitiated, is the highest honor attained at the University of Miami. Founded by Bowman Foster Ashe in 1926 only a month after the University opened, the society honors individuals who best exemplify the five qualities of Iron Arrow: love of alma mater, character, leadership, scholarship and humility.

GETTING NOTICED

Head Coach Frank Haith is the first coach in Miami history to earn National Association of Basketball Coaches District 6 Coach of the Year honors in 2005, after leading the Hurricanes to the second-most wins (16) by a first-year coach in program history. That year, Haith was also a Naismith National Coach of the Year Award Finalist.

After leading the Hurricanes to a 10-game turnaround in 2007-08 – among the best single-season turnarounds in the nation, Haith finished runner-up in ACC Coach of the Year voting. Miami won 23 games last season – posting its 10th 20-win season in program history.

POSTSEASON PROWESS

In four years at the helm, Coach Haith has guided the Hurricanes to three postseason appearances – and is the first Miami coach to accomplish the feat.

In 2007-08, Haith led Miami to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2002. With their 78-64 first round win over St. Mary's, the Hurricanes advanced to the NCAA's second round for the third time in program history and for the first time since 2000.

Haith is just the second head coach in UM history to take his team to the postseason in his first two years, guiding Miami to back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time since 2001-02.

In 2006, Haith guided Miami to both its first National Invitation Tournament win since 1963 and to its first NIT road win in school history.

Under Haith, the Hurricanes earned their first ACC Tournament win in 2006, and have advanced to the ACC Tournament quarterfinals in three-straight years (2006-08).

BEATING THE BEST

Haith has coached Miami to 11 wins over ranked opponents in four seasons – including a school-record tying four wins over ranked opponents in 2006-07.

On Feb. 20, 2008, the Hurricanes knocked off No. 4/5 Duke, 96-95. It marked the highest ranked opponent Miami has defeated since Feb. 20, 1999, when UM beat No. 2/2 UConn, 73-71, on the road. Under Coach Haith, the Hurricanes have picked up several impressive road wins – including knocking off No. 18/19 Florida, 72-65, on Dec. 4, 2004, in Gainesville for the first time in 41 years and defeating No. 20/20 North Carolina, 81-70, in Chapel Hill for the first time in program history on Jan. 14, 2006.

The Hurricanes have 32 wins over ranked teams since 1995, and have defeated at least one ranked opponent at home in 13 of the last 14 seasons.

EXCELLENCE – ON AND OFF THE COURT

Jack McClinton became the first Hurricane in program history to earn All-ACC First Team honors in 2008, as well as earning All-ACC Academic Men's Basketball Team accolades. He was the only first team pick last season to also earn the academic distinction.

Under Coach Haith, the Hurricanes lead all ACC teams with six All-ACC Academic Men's Basketball Team selections over the last three years. In addition, UM has had a first-, second- or third-team All-ACC player in each of its first four seasons in the league.

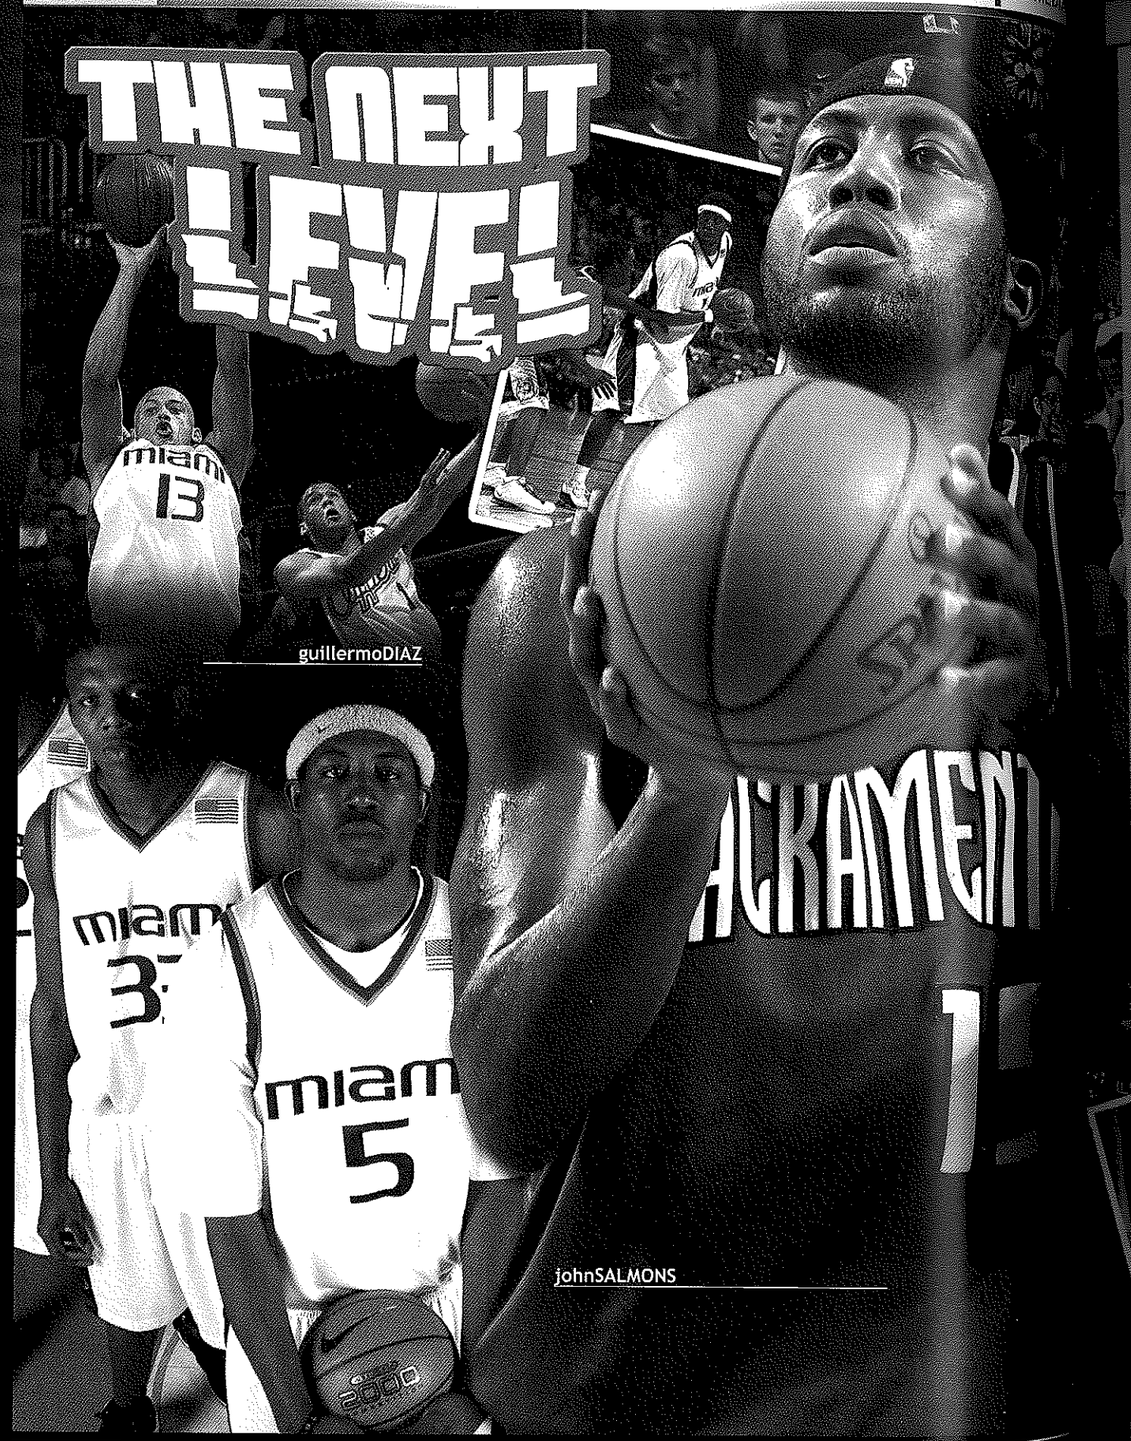

ROAD WARRIORS

Haith led Miami to its first win over North Carolina in Chapel Hill in 2006, and also guided the Hurricanes to a win over Florida in Gainesville in 2004. In 2008, UM won nine games away from home – including going 3-0 to claim the inaugural Puerto Rico Tip-Off title – and earned road ACC wins at Virginia Tech and Georgia Tech.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

Last season, the Hurricanes established a home court dominance, going 14-2 at the BankUnited Center – including knocking off No. 4/5 Duke before an energized crowd. Just two – of 12 – ACC teams won more games at home in 2007-08. Winning its first nine home games of the season, Miami went a perfect 8-0 versus non-conference opponents and put together a solid 6-2 mark versus ACC opponents at the BankUnited Center.

THE NEXT LEVEL

PREPARING FOR THE NEXT LEVEL

Throughout the years, the University of Miami has proven to be a building ground for players looking to excel beyond the college ranks and into the world of professional basketball. The Hurricanes have had 16 players selected in the NBA Draft, including first-round selections Tim James (1999) and John Salmons (2002), and second-round picks James Jones (2003) and Guillermo Diaz (2006).

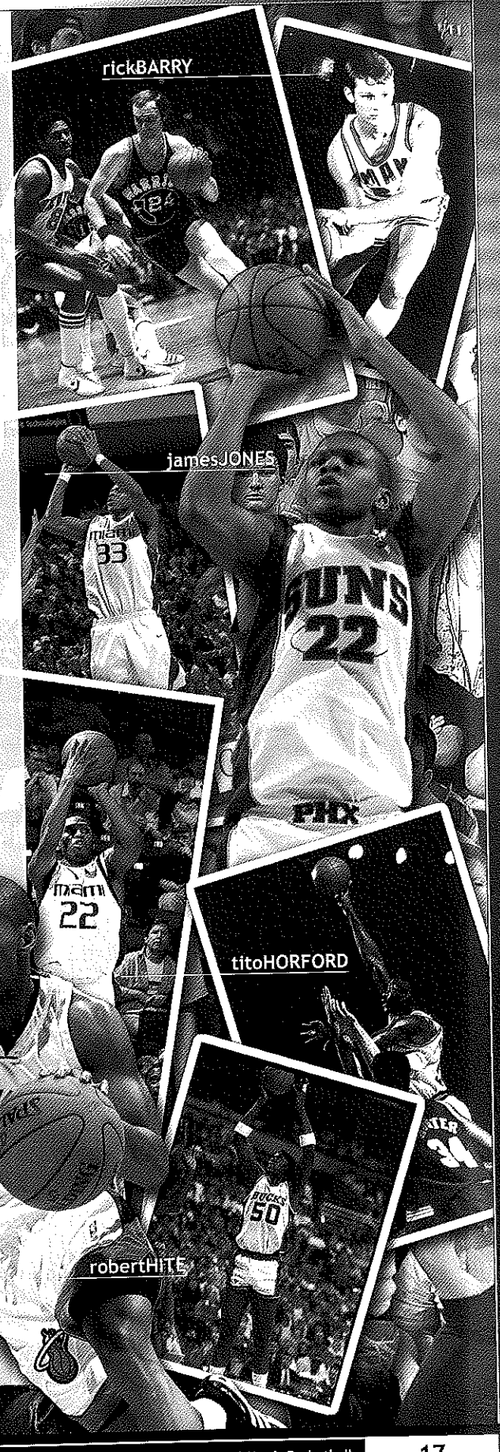

Notable Hurricane alumni who have gone on to star in the NBA include the legendary Rick Barry, who was named one of the 50 Greatest Players in NBA history in 1996. Miami's all-time leading scorer and a Basketball Hall of Fame inductee, he is also the only player to lead the NCAA, ABA and NBA in scoring.

Heading into the 2008-09 preseason, a pair of former Hurricanes in James Jones (Miami Heat) and John Salmons (Sacramento Kings) don NBA uniforms.

Over Miami head coach Frank Haith's career, he has had a dozen or more players go on to play or be drafted in the NBA, including T.J. Ford (Milwaukee Bucks, 2003), Josh Howard (Dallas Mavericks, 2003), LaMarcus Aldridge (Portland Trail Blazers, 2006), Daniel Gibson (Cleveland Cavaliers, 2006), Royal Ivey (Atlanta Hawks, 2004), Calvin Booth (Washington Wizards, 1999), Darius Songaila (Boston Celtics, 2002) and former Hurricanes Guillermo Diaz (Los Angeles Clippers, 2006) and Robert Hite (Miami Heat).

"I have watched Frank Haith help develop college players into NBA players... Frank knows what it takes to prepare players for the NBA, and because Frank's players are so fundamentally sound, I will always give his players strong consideration when preparing for the draft."

Lance Blanks
Assistant General Manager, Cleveland Cavaliers

"Welcome to Miami... bienvenidos a Miami." With 84 miles of Atlantic coastline, yearlong sunshine and a boasted average daily temperature of 75 degrees, it is no wonder in his hit single, Will Smith dubbed Miami "the city where the heat is on."

THE HEAT ON THE COURT

Thanks to South Florida's year-round, sports-friendly climate, Miami has a lot to offer in outdoor recreational activities. From some of the PGA's finest golf courses to almost 700 parks, there is something for everyone. With countless opportunities for kayaking, scuba-diving, fishing, beach volleyball and rollerblading, there is no excuse for going without a tan.

South Florida truly has the perfect weather for sports and is one of only eight metropolitan areas in the United States that can boast of a professional franchise in each of the four major sports. The Major League's Florida Marlins had everybody "doing the fish" when they won the World Series in 1997 and 2003. The NFL's Miami Dolphins have thrilled fans for decades at Dolphin Stadium, which hosted the Super Bowl in 1995, 1999 and 2007. Despite the warm weather, South Florida's own hockey team, the Florida Panthers, keep up on the ice. And for basketball fans, the 2006 NBA Champion Miami Heat keep things hot at the American Airlines Arena.

MIAMI IS CALIENTE

Truly a melting pot, Miami is home to a variety of cultures, creating a totally unique, vibrant cultural mosaic. With representatives of every Hispanic nation in the world, Spanish serves as a second language to most of Miami's residents. Little Havana is the heart of Miami's Cuban community, where churro vendors line the streets, the aroma of high-octane cafe Cubano fills the air and the spirit of friendly competition fills Domino Park.

The spirit of the Caribbean is alive in Little Haiti, where many Haitian artists, musicians and entrepreneurs get their start in Miami. The proud focal point of this neighborhood is the Caribbean Market, an open-air replica of Port-au-Prince's Iron Market, where Creole is the dominant language.

SIZZLING THE SILVER SCREEN

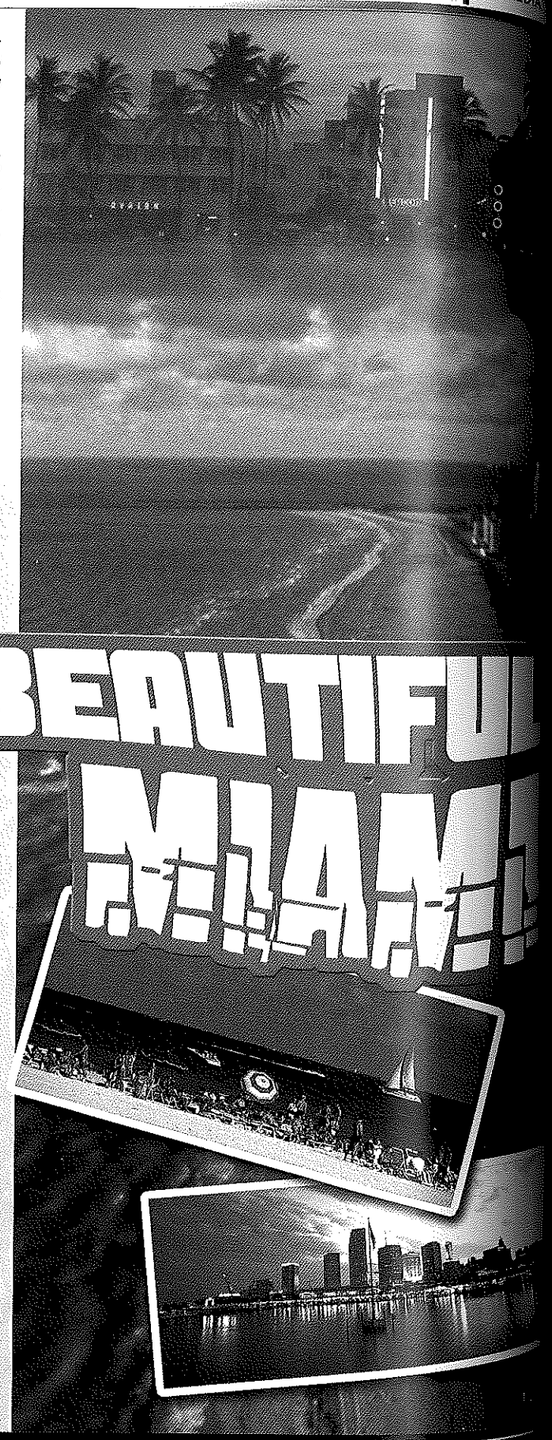

With tropical weather, a high-quality labor pool, low production costs and direct links to Latin America, Miami has become one of the most important entertainment centers in the world. Dubbed as the Latin-American Hollywood by the New York Times, such blockbusters as Big Trouble—written by Miami Herald columnist Dave Barry, Any Given Sunday, There's Something About Mary, The Birdcage and Wild Things were all filmed in Miami.

A Hollywood favorite off-screen as well, Miami is home to dozens of celebrities and even more consider it a favorite weekend getaway. Glorida and Emilio Estefan's Star Island estate and Gianni Versace's Ocean Drive mansion-turned-museum are just a couple examples of Miami's celebrity appeal. It is not uncommon to spot Sean "Diddy" Combs or Jamie Foxx dancing at a South Beach club or former president Bill Clinton playing golf at the Biltmore Hotel.

MIAMI HOT SPOTS

For shopping, dancing or just plain people watching, Miami offers several places to see and be seen.

With over 800 buildings designed in the '30s and '40s, South Beach serves as the largest collection of Art Deco architecture in the world. Celebrity-owned restaurants, like Cameron Diaz's Bambu, night clubs such as Level—based on the format of New York's Studio 54, and a medley of huge anchor stores and unique boutiques create the flavor of miami's most famous hot spot.

Coconut Grove, just a 10-minute drive from the University of Miami, is another student favorite. Built mainly by West Indian craftsmen brought in from the Bahamas, it still holds onto the Caribbean appeal its name suggests. Attracting writers, artists and non-conformists, this hub of the bohemian arts contributed to Miami's cultural renaissance. Fast-forward a century and the Grove is still one of Miami's hottest nightspots, with more than 75 cafes, restaurants and clubs that line the streets.

THE WARMTH OF CORAL GABLES, THE "CITY BEAUTIFUL"

The University of Miami campus is located in Coral Gables, dubbed the "City Beautiful". Founded by George Merrick almost a century ago, the Gables is one of Miami's most beautiful areas. The palm-lined streets are all named after European villages, each one bordered by Old Spanish style homes.

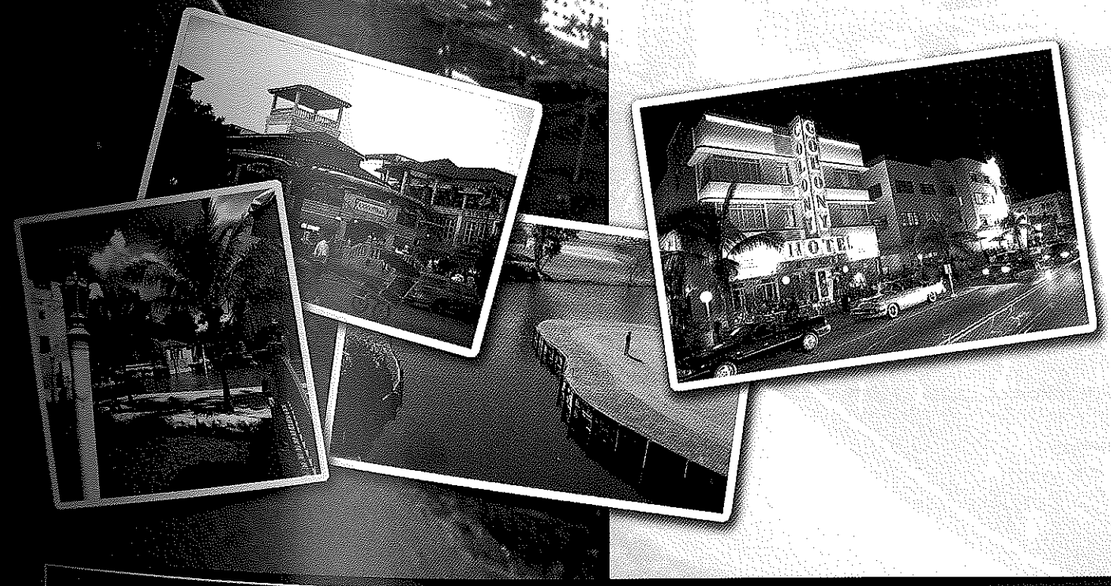

Downtown Coral Gables is bustling with the many offices of multi-national corporations, while the city's central boulevard—Miracle Mile—is home to a wide array of designer boutiques and art galleries. One Gables favorite is the Venetian Pool, a beautiful swimming lagoon carved out of coral, which features cascading waterfalls and underwater caves.

THE ACC IN THE RPI

With a 30-19 record (including a 14-9 mark in road games) against the other five top-rated conferences, the ACC was the nation's top-rated league in the final 2007-08 regular season RPI.

The ACC has been the RPI's highest-rated conference in four of the past five years and 14 times overall since 1985.

In addition, the ACC has compiled the nation's best non-conference winning percentage, winning 78 percent (653-188) of its non-conference games.

In 2007-08, the ACC with a 30-19 mark, played more games (49) and had the best winning percentage (.619) in intra-conference regular season play among the top six conferences in the RPI (ACC, Big 12, Pac-10, Big East, Big Ten and SEC).

THE ACC IN THE POSTSEASON

Since the NCAA started assigning seeds in 1979, the ACC has produced more No. 1 seeds (27) than any other conference, has the best winning percentage as a No. 1 seed (.816) and is the only conference to have a winning record (23-21) in games versus No. 1 seeds.

Since 1981, the ACC has won more NCAA titles (8) than any other conference.

The ACC is the winningest conference in NCAA Tournament history and has had four different conference teams win 10 national titles. The ACC has not had a losing record in NCAA Tournament play in more than 20 years, and has had at least one team in the Final Four in 17 of the last 22 years.

Since 1985, the ACC has the most tournament wins (231), the best NCAA Tournament winning percentage (.668), the most Sweet 16 appearances (63), the most Regional Final appearances (34) and the most Final Four appearances (22).

In 2004, the ACC became the first, and only, conference in NCAA history to have five teams seeded four or higher in the NCAA Tournament.

In 2007-08, four ACC teams – Miami, North Carolina, Duke and Clemson – earned NCAA berths. With a 6-4 mark, the ACC extended its non-losing streak in NCAA Tournament play to 21 years in a row – the longest current streak among Division I conferences.

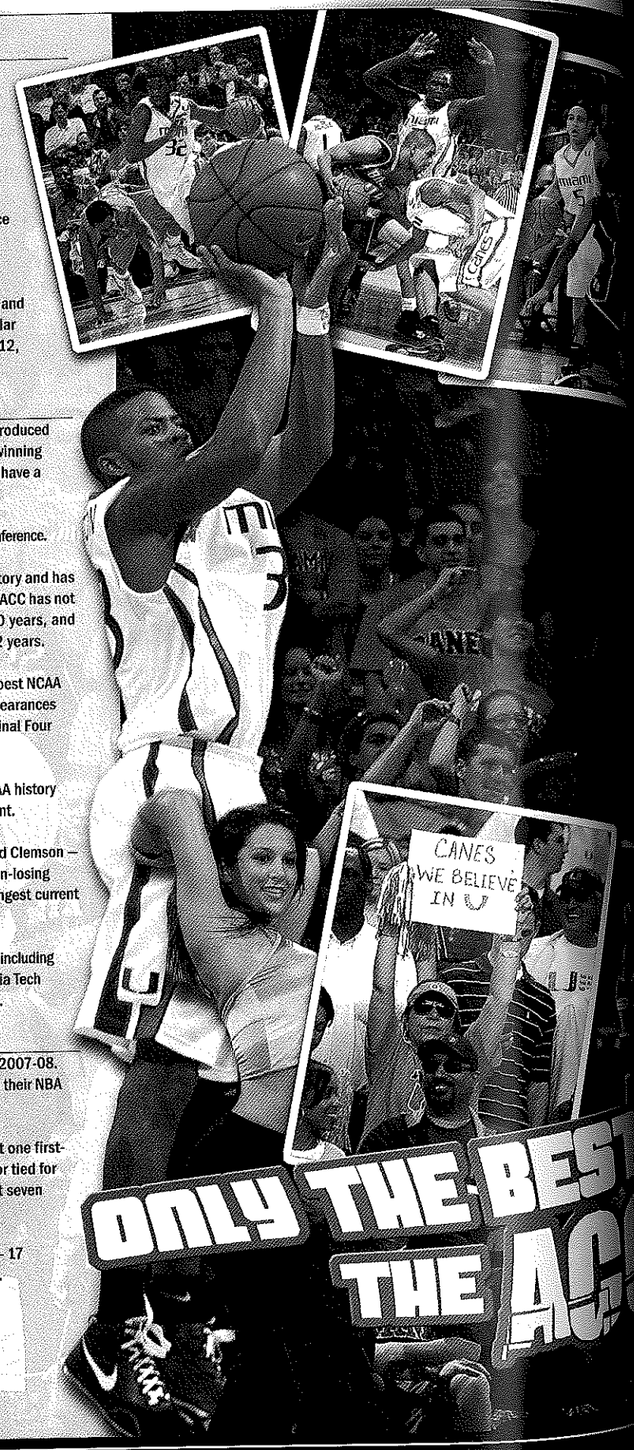

Overall the ACC sent eight teams into the postseason in 2007-08, including four in the NCAA Tournament. Florida State, Maryland and Virginia Tech earned NIT berths, while Virginia took part in the inaugural CBI.

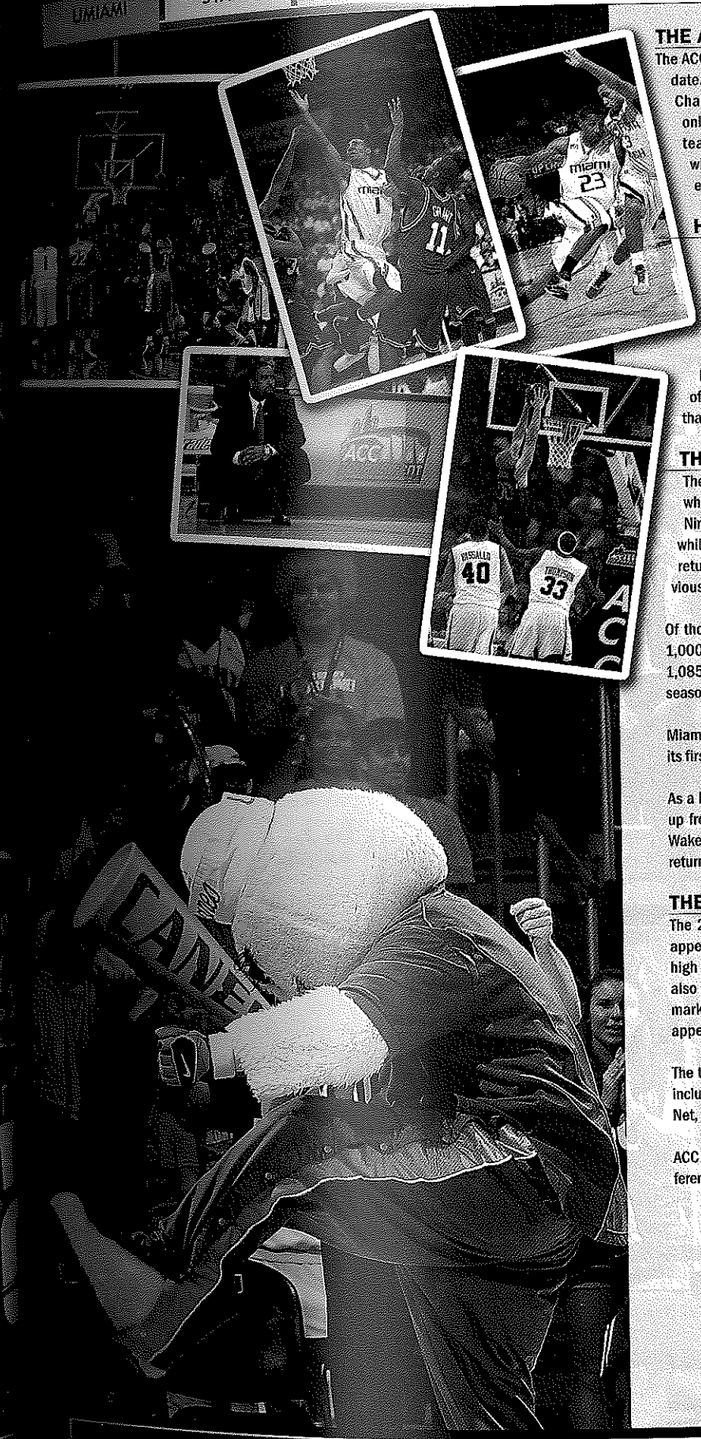

THE ACC IN THE NBA

The ACC led all conferences with 53 players on NBA rosters in 2007-08. Over the past three years, a total of 33 ACC players have made their NBA debuts, including 15 in 2006, eight in 2007 and 10 in 2008.

Including the 2008 NBA Draft, the ACC has produced at least one first-round pick in 20 straight drafts. The ACC has had the most, or tied for the most, first-round picks in the NBA Draft in four of the last seven years and in10 of the last 16.

Since 1986, the ACC has produced 89 first-round selections – 17 more than the Big East and 29 more than the Pac-10 and SEC.

THE ACC/BIG TEN CHALLENGE

The ACC has won all nine previous ACC/Big Ten Challenges played to date. ACC teams have won 56 of the 86 games played (65%) in the Challenge, with both Duke and Boston College remaining as the only two undefeated teams in Challenge play. Nine of the ACC's 12 teams have .500-or-better records in Challenge competition, while 48 of the 86 Challenge games played to date have inlcuded at least one ranked team.

HONORING THE ACC

Since 1981, the ACC has accounted for 25 percent of the nation's consensus All-Americans. The ACC has had at least one consensus All-American in 17 of the past 18 years. Since 1981, the ACC has produced 37 consensus All-Americans – 17 more than any other conference.

In addition, the ACC has produced 16 consensus National Players of the Year since 1975 – 13 more than any other conference over that span. The ACC has also had nine unanimous selections.

THE ACC IN 2008-09

The ACC returns 11 players – including Miami's Jack McClinton – who earned first, second or third-team All-ACC honors last season. Nine different ACC teams have at least one all-conference player back, while North Carolina and Duke return two each. A year ago, the ACC returned only five players who earned all-conference honors the previous season.

Of those 11 returning All-ACC players, seven have already eclipsed the 1,000 point mark in their careers, including McClinton who has scored 1,085 points in two seasons with the Hurricanes and has 1,493 in three seasons of collegiate basketball.

Miami has produced a first, second or third-team All-ACC player each of its first four seasons in the league.

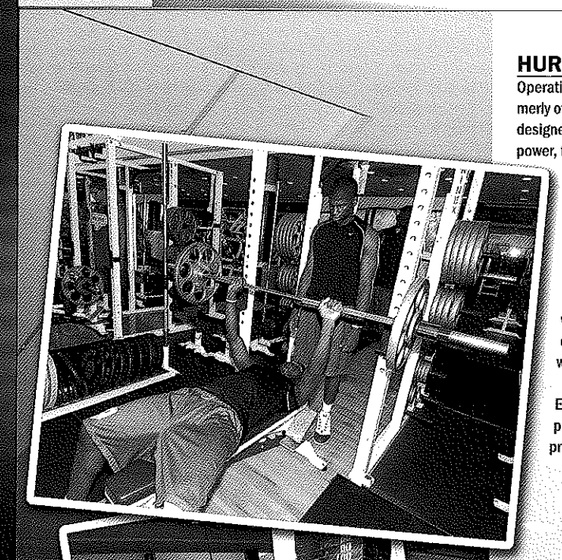

As a league, the ACC returns 43 starters (72%) for the 2008-09 season, up from 39 returning starters the previous season. North Carolina and Wake Forest each return five starters, while Miami, Duke and Virginia Tech return four.

THE ACC ON TELEVISION

The 2008-09 ACC schedule is highlighted by a record 298 television appearances by the league's 12 member schools, including an all-time high 173 appearances on national television networks. The schedule also includes a record 193 televised games involving ACC teams and marks the fifth-straight year the ACC has had more than 250 television appearances.

The teams' ACC-record 173 appearances on national television networks include 120 appearances on ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPNU, 35 on Fox Sports Net, 10 on ABC, seven on CBS and one on CBS College Sports.

ACC teams are scheduled to play a total of 25 games against 21 non-conference opponents that earned NCAA Tournament berths last season.

HURRICANE STRENGTH & CONDITIONING PROGRAM

Operating under the direction of Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach Mac Calloway, formerly of the NBA's Orlando Magic, the UM men's basketball strength and conditioning program is designed to minimize injury risk and enhance all physical parameters, including strength, power, flexibility and cardiovascular endurance.

To help achieve this goal, the University added a $4.9 million weight room at the Athletic Center. The 12,000-square foot state-of-the-art facility houses 20 designed weight lifting stations, 17 cardiovascular machines, a stretching dumbbell and rehab station and over 44,000 pounds of weights.

The men's basketball program also benefits from a recently-completed, state-of-the weight room at the BankUnited Center. The BankUnited facility features four designed weight-lifting stations, cardiovascular machines and nearly 12,000 pounds weights.

Each year when freshmen athletes report, baseline data is collected and a weight-training program is designed. Under the guidance of the strength staff, each student-athlete's progress is closely monitored and documented.

"Mac Calloway has a tremendous amount of knowledge about the athlete's body, and his strength and conditioning programs help each individual reach their full physical potential."

Frank Haith
Head Coach, University of Miami

CHAMPIONS ARE MADE HERE

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT

The backbone of the University of Miami basketball program is the coaching staff's commitment to player development. Individual workouts include drills to improve shooting, ball-handling, post moves, footwork, agility and stamina. Each individual program is developed by head coach Frank Haith and is tailored to fit the needs of each student-athlete.

PRESEASON

Preseason individual workouts begin on the first day of class in the fall. Coach Haith and the coaching staff instruct Miami players three times a week for 40 minutes, focusing on skill development and comprehension of the game. In addition, strength and conditioning coach Mac Calloway will devise a plan to improve each player's strength, agility, speed, jumping and flexibility. In the preseason, Miami players lift three times a week and speed train twice a week.

THE SEASON

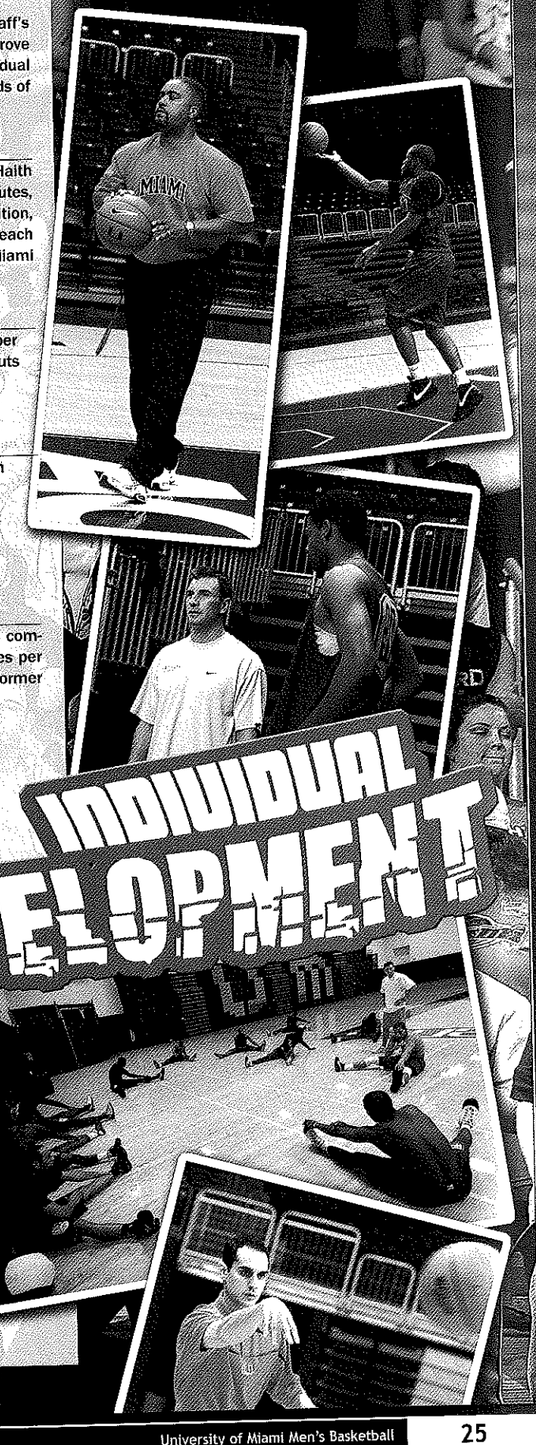

During the basketball season, weightlifting is cut back to two to three times per week to ensure sufficient rest and no loss of training gains. Individual workouts concentrate on shooting, while team practices afford the Miami players the opportunity to learn and work with the entire squad and coaching staff.

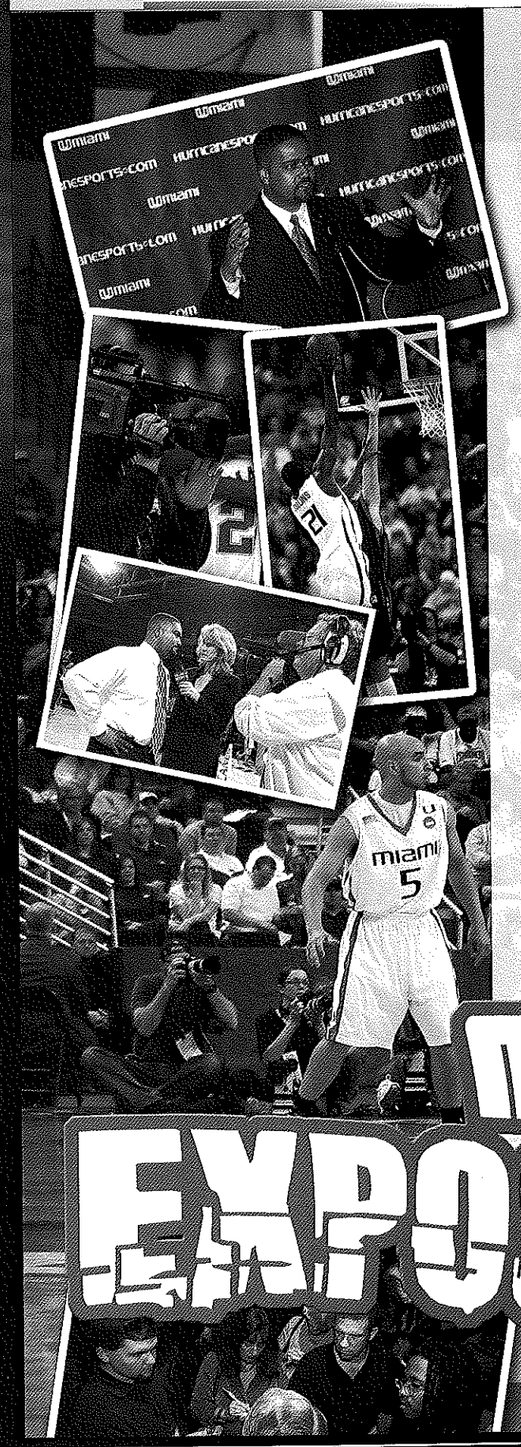

POSTSEASON

Postseason workouts begin two weeks following the conclusion of the season and continue until the end of the spring semester. Coaches evaluate areas in need of team and individual improvement and compose a plan to address those needs. Miami players also lift four times a week with Calloway. Over the course of these workouts, vertical jumps increase an average of two to five inches.

SUMMER

Once the spring academic semester is finished, the Miami coaching staff's commitment to its players carries on. Student-athletes continue to lift four times per week while also improving speed and conditioning. Pick-up games involving former and current Miami and NBA players are the norm all summer long.

PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

"[Jack] McClinton is arguably the conference's best shooter and its most clutch player."

— Athlon

"Jack McClinton headlines a great trio of returning guards, and Dwayne Collins is a beast... Seven of the top nine players return from a 23-win team. Wow."

— Lindy's

"Keep an eye on: Junior forward Dwayne Collins, a physical man-child who is equally adept at altering a game with his high-flying play in the post at both ends."

— Lindy's

"Any discussion of the Hurricanes begins with senior guard Jack McClinton, one of the nation's most explosive scorers... [Jimmy] Graham, meanwhile, provides the 'Canes with a lunch-pail mentality, setting screens, scrapping for loose balls and getting on the boards."

PRESEASON PROGNOSTICATIONS

- Miami is ranked in various early preseason polls, including ESPN's Andy Katz, No. 14 by both Sporting News and Blue Ribbon College Basketball Yearbook, No. 15 by Fox Sports and Athlon, No. 16 by the ACC Basketball Handbook, No. 17 by CBS Sports, No. 18 by Lindy's and No. 21 in Dickie V's Preseason Top 40.
- The Hurricanes were picked to finish third in the ACC by Blue Ribbon and Lindy's College Basketball publications.

COMING BACK FOR THE 'CANES

- All-America candidate Jack McClinton, a 2007-08 All-ACC Team and All-ACC Academic Team selection, is among four returning for the Hurricanes from a 2007-08 team that finished 23-11 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.
- Miami returns eight letter-winners, 83 percent of its scoring (including its top-five scorers) and 72 percent of its rebounding.
- In 2007-08, McClinton ranked second in the ACC in career free throw percentage (.908) and third in career three-point field goal percentage (.4332).
- McClinton led the ACC and finished third in the nation in free throw percentage, while Lance Hurdle was 24th... McClinton's .919 free throw percentage ranked as the third-highest percentage in ACC history.
- McClinton made 38 straight free throws to close the season, while James Dews has not missed a free throw since Jan. 23, making 26 straight heading into 2008-09.
- Dews started 33 of Miami's 34 games in 2007-08 and finished the season as the team's second-leading scorer with 10.3 points per game... His 7.2 points per game improvement between his freshman and sophomore seasons tied for second-best among ACC players, while his 14.4 minute per game improvement ranked fourth.
- Jimmy Graham and Brian Asbury join McClinton and Hurdle as the four seniors on the team.
- Graham posted 1.2 blocks per game in 2007-08, while Dwayne Collins swatted just under one per outing... Graham's 68 career blocks ties for fifth best among returning ACC players.
- Collins pulled down 6.5 rebounds per game in 2007-08 — best among Miami's returning corps... He also shot a team-high 65 percent last season and had a season-high 26-point (12-14 FGs) performance in Miami's win over Duke... Adrian Thomas converted 58.3 percent of his field goals in four appearances, while Graham hit 52.6 percent from the field.
- McClinton's 185 career three-pointers in two seasons at Miami ranks third most among returning players in the ACC.

PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

"So how good will the Hurricanes be?

The Hurricanes are returning nearly all of their key parts from one of the most successful teams in school history... if [Dwayne] Collins emerges as a force in the post, [DeQuan] Jones develops into one of the ACC's top freshmen, and [Jack] McClinton continues sniping successfully from long range, the Canes could spend the season elbowing North Carolina and Duke for position atop the conference standings."

— Athlon

WELCOME TO MIAMI

- The Hurricanes welcome a trio of newcomers to their 2008-09 squad in addition to a pair of players — freshman center Julian Gamble and junior forward Cyrus McGowan — who return to the court after redshirt seasons.
- Highly-touted true freshman DeQuan Jones — ranked as the nation's 11th-best small forward and 28th-best overall player by ESPN.com — averaged 15.2 points, 6.7 rebounds and 4 blocks per game en route to Class 5A Player of the Year honors by the Atlanta Journal Constitution... Also named to EA Sports' All-America Second Team and to the Parade All-America Fourth Team... The five-star recruit helped his Wheeler High School team to a No. 18 national ranking by USA Today and an appearance in the state finals.
- Freshman center Reggie Johnson helped lead Winston-Salem Prep to the North Carolina 1A state championship, finishing with 25 points and a state championship record 23 rebounds en route to MVP honors... The two-time All-Northwest selection led the league with 24.1 points, 16.1 rebounds and 7.1 blocks per game as a senior.
- Sophomore Malcolm Grant will sit out 2008-09 as a redshirt after transferring to Miami after one season with Villanova... The 6-1 point guard played in 29 games, averaging 4.5 points and 1.4 assists in 12.7 minutes per game... Posted seven double-figure scoring efforts, including a season-high 23 points versus Rutgers and 22 points in an upset of No. 13 Pitt.

DID U KNOW...

- Miami's 10-game turnaround last season (from 12-20 in 2006-07 to 23-11 in 2007-08) ties as the sixth-best single-season turnaround in the nation.
- With 22 points in the regular-season finale at Florida State, McClinton became the 29th Hurricane to score 1,000 points and just the fourth to do it in his first two seasons... He enters his senior season ranked 24th among Miami's leading scorers with 1,085 points in just two seasons for the Hurricanes... He is among seven ACC returners with more than 1,000 career points... Including his 408 points scored as a freshman at Siena, McClinton has scored 1,493 career points.
- The Hurricanes won eight of their final 12 games in 2007-08.

THE 2008-09 SCHEDULE...

- The Hurricanes will appear in at leat 10 nationally-televised games in 2008-09, with seven games broadcast on the ESPN family of channels and three on Fox Sports Net... ESPN will televise three Miami games: the ACC/Big Ten Challenge match between the Hurricanes and Ohio State at the BankUnited Center on Dec. 2, followed by Miami at Kentucky on Dec. 6 and UM's game at North Carolina on Jan. 17... The Miami-Wake Forest contest in Coral Gables on Feb. 4 will be broadcast on ESPN2... FSN will televise Miami's ACC home opener versus Clemson on Dec. 21, as well as home games versus Virginia Tech (Jan. 25) and North Carolina (Feb. 15).
- This season's 29-game slate features 14 teams that competed in the postseason last year... It includes 16 home games at the BankUnited Center and a full slate of 16 ACC contests — including home and away series with North Carolina, Maryland, Florida State, Boston College and NC State.
- The Hurricanes return to the Virgin Islands to vie for their second title in the Paradise Jam, running from Nov. 21-24... Miami previously won the tournament title in 2001... The Hurricanes open play versus Southern Miss on Fri., Nov. 21, with the opportunity to face former Big East rival Connecticut in the second round... The talent-laden tournament field also includes 2008 NCAA Tournament teams Wisconsin and San Diego, as well as Valparaiso, La Salle and Iona.
- The Hurricanes have gone 12-3 in in-season tournament play outside of the continental United States, including a 3-0 mark en route to the inaugural Puerto Rico Tip Off title last November.
- Miami plays host to Ohio State in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge on Dec. 2... It marks the third time that Miami will be participating in the Challenge, after appearances in 2005 and 2006, while it will be the seventh-straight appearance by Ohio State... The Hurricanes lead the all-time series versus the Buckeyes, 2-1, and have won two straight — including a 75-62 victory in the second round of the 2000 NCAA Tournament.

THE ACC

The Atlantic Coast Conference, now in its 56th year of competition, has long enjoyed its reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 109 national championships. NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 145 times in men's competition and 92 times in women's action.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With North Carolina's victory over Illinois in the 2005 NCAA title game, ACC teams have captured 10 NCAA basketball championships, including six over the last 18 years.

No conference has posted a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the NCAA's inaugural tournament in 1939. With an impressive 85-43 mark over the past 10 years, ACC teams have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 329-164 for a sterling .667 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

In the 24 years of the current 64-team field, the ACC has produced 22 Final Four teams, an average of almost one per year and five more than any other conference.

Since the 1985 NCAA Tournament when the field was expanded to 64 teams, ACC teams have been even more impressive compiling a 233-115 (.670) NCAA record, including 63 "Sweet 16" appearances and 22 Final Four berths -- all NCAA Tournament bests. Since 1985, 63 of the 120 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

Following their title run in 2005, the Tar Heels lead all ACC schools with four NCAA basketball championships to their credit. Duke has claimed three national titles, NC State two and Maryland one. The Tar Heels have captured NCAA titles in 1957, 1982, 1993 and 2005 while the Blue Devils won their third title in 2001, following back-to-back championships in 1991 and 1992. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983, while the Terps claimed the 2002 national title.

The ACC has 10 or more NCAA Tournament wins in four of the last eight years and 13 times overall and the league has not posted a losing record in NCAA Tournament play since 1987. The conference's 19-year non-losing streak in NCAA Tournament play is tops among all conferences.

Since 1981, the ACC has produced 37 consensus All-Americans -- 17 more than any other conference and has accounted for 25 percent of the nation's consensus All-Americans (37 of 146).

Seven of the last 12 and nine of the last 16 consensus National Players of the Year have come from the ACC. Since 1975, the ACC has had 16 consensus national players of the year -- 13 more than any other conference. Nine of the ACC's 16 National Players of the Year were unanimous selections.

A year ago the ACC led all conferences with 53 players on NBA rosters. In addition, over the past three years 33 ACC players have made their NBA debuts, including 15 in 2006, eight in 2007 and 10 last year.

This past June the ACC had four players selected in the annual NBA Draft. The ACC has had the most, or tied for the most, first round draft picks in four of the past seven years and in 10 of the last 16. Since 1986, the ACC has had 89 first round selections (17 more than any other conference) and has had at least one first round selection in 20 consecutive NBA Drafts.

In 2007, the ACC became the first conference in NCAA history to have 10 teams finish the season with 20-or-more wins. In addition, 10 ACC teams took part in postseason play, including an ACC record seven NCAA Tournament teams.

The ACC's 12 member schools are Miami, Boston College, Clemson, Duke, Florida State, Georgia Tech, Maryland, North Carolina, NC State, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest.

HEAD COACH FRANK H

FIFTH S

THREE POSTSEASON APPEA

Frank Haith enters his fifth year at the helm of the University of Miami men's basketball program in 2008-09.

Since taking over the program on April 12, 2004 — in what then-Athletic Director Paul Dee referred to as "an important event in the evolution and history of Hurricane basketball" — Haith has met the challenge and surpassed expectations in bringing the Miami program back into the national spotlight.

Despite predictions that the Hurricanes would finish in the basement of the nation's top-ranked Atlantic Coast Conference in 2007-08 after an injury-laden 2006-07 season, Haith led the Miami men's basketball program to one of its most successful campaigns in school history, culminating in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

With that NCAA Tournament apperance in 2008, Haith became the first coach in Miami history to take UM to the postseason in three of his first four seasons at the helm.

The team ran off 12-straight victories to open the season, including winning the inaugural Puerto Rico Tip-Off Classic and knocked off Mississippi State on the road. The Hurricanes went on to win eight of their last 12 games, highlighted by an upset of No. 4 Duke at a packed BankUnited Center and a victory over St. Mary's (Calif.) in the NCAA Tournament, en route to Miami's 10th 20-win season. The Hurricanes' 23 wins tied for second-most in school history and were the most by a Miami squad since a school-record 24 wins in 2002, while their 14 home wins was a program best.

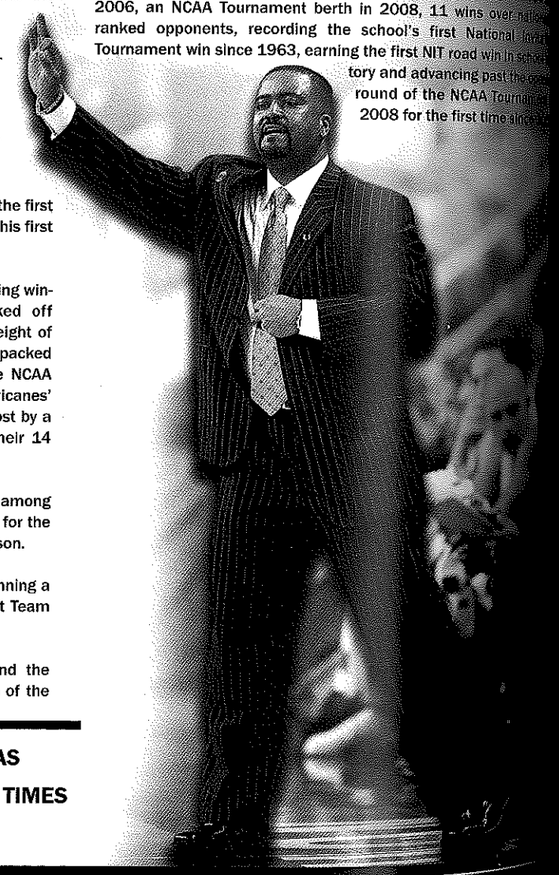

Haith and his Hurricanes orchestrated a 10-game turnaround — among the best in the nation, as Miami moved into the nation's Top 25 for the first time since 2002, reaching as high at No. 19 during the season.

The Hurricanes finished a program-best fifth in the ACC after winning a school-record eight ACC games, and produced Miami's first First Team All-ACC selection in sharpshooter Jack McClinton.

During 2008, Haith was recognized by collegeinsider.com and the Prosser family as a finalist for the inaugural Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award, which will be presented annually to the Div... coach who best represents the high standards of the coachi... sion and wins with integrity.

IN FOUR SEASONS AT MIAMI, FRANK HAITH HAS GUIDED MIAMI INTO THE POSTSEASON THREE TIMES AND TO 11 WINS OVER RANKED OPPONENTS

FRANK HAITH'S HURRICANES HAVE PRODUCED A FIRST-, SECOND- OR THIRD-TEAM ALL-ACC PLAYER IN EACH OF THEIR FIRST FOUR SEASONS IN THE LEAGUE

Quickly establishing himself as one of the league's top coaches, Haith is also one of only four current ACC coaches to record 69 or more victories in their first four seasons at their respective ACC school.

Haith faced the daunting task of leading Miami into the ACC during his inaugural 2004-05 season, after taking over a UM program coming off back-to-back losing seasons, including the 2003-04 campaign in which the Hurricanes failed to qualify for the BIG EAST Tournament.

Picked to finish last in the conference in the preseason ACC media poll, Haith shocked critics while leading the Hurricanes to a 16-13 overall record, seven league victories, three wins over ranked opponents and a berth in the National Invitation Tournament. Among those three wins over ranked opponents was a thrilling 72-65 win over Florida on its homecourt — the first win for the Hurricanes in Gainesville in 41 years.

That ysar, he was honored as the National Association of Basketball Coaches District Coach of the Year, the first coach in UM history to win the award, and was a finalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year Award.

In 2005-06, Haith built on the success of his first season as Miami posted an overall record of 18-16, marking the most victories for a UM team since the 2001-02 season, while also winning seven ACC games.

Miami also saw several program firsts under Haith during the 2005-06 campaign. In one of the more thrilling games of the year, Haith and the Hurricanes, coming off an upset over 12th-ranked Maryland, knocked off 20th-ranked North Carolina in Chapel Hill at the historic Dean Smith Center for the first time in school history.

Miami would later earn the program's first ACC Tournament victory with a win over Clemson before advancing to the postseason for the second-consecutive year with a berth into the 2006 NIT.

In the NIT, Haith guided Miami to wins over Oklahoma State and Creighton, marking just the second time in school history that a Hurricane team recorded consecutive postseason wins.

With the Hurricanes NIT appearance in 2006, Haith became just the second coach in Miami history to take UM to the postseason in his first two seasons.

In 2006-07, Haith and the Hurricanes defeated four ranked teams, marking just the second time in school history a UM team has downed four ranked opponents. It was even more impressive given that the Hurricanes fought through an injury-laden season in which eight players missed a total of 72 games.

Despite all of the success Haith's teams have seen on the court at Miami, what could be considered his greatest asset to the program is his emphasis for achievement off the court and in the classroom. In his first three years, every player — 10 total — who exhausted eligibility earned a degree from UM.

OVER THE PAST THREE SEASONS, MIAMI HAS PLACED MORE PLAYERS (6) ON THE ACC ALL-ACADEMIC TEAM THAN ANY OTHER SCHOOL IN THE LEAG

SUCCESS BREEDS SUCCESS

Success, however, is something that has followed Haith everywhere he has coached. In his 15 seasons as an assistant at the collegiate level, he was a part of programs that won one NIT Championship, advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen three times, reached one Elite Eight and one Final Four.

Haith has recruited six McDonald's All-Americans including Rodney Rodgers (1990) to Wake Forest, Jerald Brown (1995) to Texas A&M and Brad Buckman (2002), LaMarcus Aldridge (2004), Daniel Gibson (2004) and Michael Williams (2004) to Texas.

Intent on preparing players for the next level, Haith has had more than a dozen former players go on to play or be drafted in the NBA, including Aldridge (Portland Trail Blazers), Gibson (Cleveland Cavaliers), Josh Howard (Dallas Mavericks), T.J. Ford (Indiana Pacers) and former Hurricanes Robert Hite (Miami Heat) and Guillermo Diaz (Los Angeles Clippers).

Prior to taking over at Miami, Haith spent three seasons at the University of Texas under head coach Rick Barnes, where he was promoted to Associate Head Coach in April 2003. In his three seasons in Austin, Haith helped guide Texas to its winningest three-year period in school history.

During his tenure with the Longhorns, they recorded a 73-27 (.730) record while advancing to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen in 2002 and 2004 and the Final Four in 2003. The 2002-03 season marked UT's first appearance in the Final Four since 1947.

Texas was one of only five schools to reach the Sweet Sixteen from 2002-04, joining Connecticut, Duke, Kansas and Pittsburgh. Prior to Haith joining the Texas staff, the Longhorns had never made consecutive Sweet Sixteen appearances.

Haith, who was named Rivals.com Recruiter of the Year in 2004, was responsible for putting together the No. 1 recruiting class in the country in 2004, including commitments from McDonald's All-Americans Aldridge, Gibson and Williams.

While at Wake Forest, Haith was instrumental in helping lead the Demon Deacons to four consecutive postseason tournament appearances, including an NCAA Tournament berth in 2000-01. He also helped Wake Forest secure one of the nation's top recruiting classes during the 1999-2000 campaign.

The Deacons registered a 74-53 (.583) mark during Haith's four seasons in Winston-Salem. Wake advanced to the postseason NIT's second round in both 1997-98 and 1998-99, before its squad in 1999-2000 posted a 22-14 mark and to capturing the postseason NIT championship.

Prior to joining the staff at Wake Forest, Haith served one year as the associate head coach at Texas A&M (1996-97). He spent one season (1995-96) as an assistant coach at Penn State, helping the Nittany Lions to a 21-7 record. Penn State ranked as high as No. 9 in the national polls, placing second in the Big Ten Conference regular-season standings and earning the school's first NCAA Tournament bid in 31 years.

Haith worked three years (1992-93 to 1994-95) as an assistant coach at Texas A&M, and helped the Aggies secure back-to-back recruiting classes that were ranked in the Top 30 in the country. In his final two seasons in College Station, in 1994-95, Texas A&M posted a 19-11 mark, finished second in the Southwest Conference regular-season standings and reached postseason play (NIT first round) for the first time in seven years.

Miami-native Jorge Fernandez enters his second season as Associate Head Coach and fifth season overall with the Hurricanes basketball program. An assistant coach at UM for three seasons prior to being appointed Associate Head Coach following the 2006-07 campaign, Fernandez is in his 16th season in the collegiate coaching ranks.

Over the past four seasons, Fernandez has helped lead UM to 11 wins over ranked opponents, an NCAA Tournament berth in 2008, back-to-back postseason appearances in 2005 and 2006, the school's first National Invitation Tournament win since 1963 and the first NIT road win in school history.

Last season, with the help of Fernandez, the Hurricanes made one of the biggest single-season turnarounds in the country – posting the second-most wins in program history (23), including a Miami-record 14 wins at home. Additionally, UM advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and turned in the highest ACC finish in school history.

In 2006-07, Fernandez helped guide the Hurricanes to a school-record four wins over ranked opponents. In 2005-06, Miami knocked off a pair of ranked opponents – including UM's first win over North Carolina in Chapel Hill – en route to an 18-16 record. In addtion, the Hurricanes earned the school's first ACC Tournament win and a second consecutive postseason appearance.

Miami won two games in the 2006 NIT, defeating Oklahoma State at the BankUnited Center, the first NIT game hosted by the University of Miami, and earned a road win against Creighton – marking the Hurricanes' first NIT road win.

In his first season at Miami, Fernandez helped the Hurricanes record one of the nation's most surprising turnarounds. Miami, which was picked to finish last in the ACC, posted a 16-13 overall record, including seven league wins, three wins over ranked opponents and a berth in the National Invitation Tournament.

After his inaugural season as assistant coach at his alma mater, Morton took a moment to thank the current Hurricanes for their hard work at the team's postseason banquet.

"A month ago I got to do something that I have always wanted to," noted Morton. "I want to thank these guys for taking me to a place I have always wanted to go... And to be able to do that at my alma mater – I just can't explain how great that feels."

A four-year letterwinner at Miami from 1988-93, Morton returned to his alma mater in 2007-08, following a three-year stint at James Madsion where he served as an assistant coach under Dean Keener.

Prior to joining the JMU staff in 2004, Morton served as an assistant coach at St. Francis (Pa.) from 2000-04, following a one-year stay at Bowie State during the 1999-2000 campaign.

As a player with the Hurricanes, Morton tallied 909 points, 245 rebounds and 194 assists during his UM career.

With his name scattered throughout the Hurricane record books, Morton ranks eighth all-time in UM history in three-pointers made (136), ninth in three-pointers attempted (390) and 12th in career three-point percentage (.349).

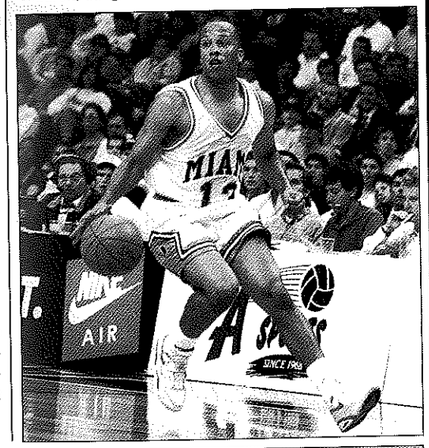

During the 1989-90 season, he recorded a team-high 45 steals while averaging 11.0 points per game as a sophomore. That same season, he garnered the team's "Hustle Award" – an honor he would earn again following the 1991-92 season – and was named the team's defensive player of the year three separate times.

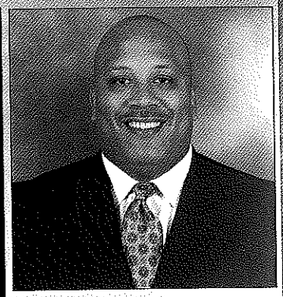

Following his UM career, Morton went on to play professionally in Israel for six years.

Morton's coaching career began in New York where he served as a counselor and coach at the Five-Star Basketball Camp, which included future collegiate and NBA stars such as Richard Hamilton, Vince Carter and Stephon Marbury.

Morton graduated from UM in 1993 with a degree in general studies.

He is married to the former Robin DeVeaux and has two children, daughther Catherine (10) and son Jalen (7).

Toby Lane is in his second season as Associate Director of Basketball Operations with the University of Miami men's basketball program.

With over 10 years of collegiate experience — ranging from coaching to strength and conditioning to video production — Lane brings a wealth of knowledge to the Hurricane program.

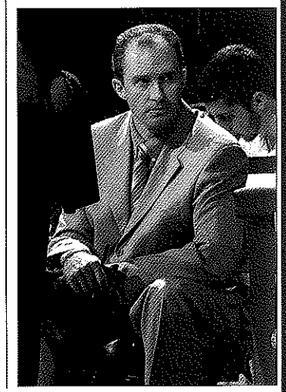

Lane, whose duties at UM include coordinating video operations, supervising recruiting mail outs and serving as a liaison with the team's managerial staff, previously served as an assistant coach at Southeast Missouri State for three seasons.

Prior to his three-year stay at Southeast Missouri State, he served as the video coordinator at the University of Oklahoma from 2002-04. Lane was part of the staff that guided the Sooners to their third-straight Big 12 Tournament championship and an appearance in the 2003 NCAA Elite Eight.

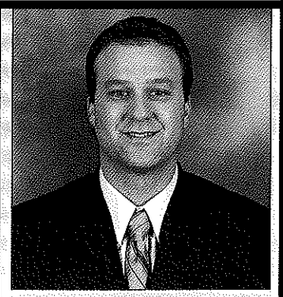

A 1993 graduate of Wichita State, Lane's background also includes stops at Long Beach State, where he served as the strength and conditioning coach and administrative assistant from 2001-02, and the University of Central Oklahoma, where he served as an assistant coach from 1999-2001 and as a graduate assistant from 1997-99.

While at Central Oklahoma, Lane coached former NBA player Eddie Robinson, who played for the Charlotte Hornets and Chicago Bulls from 1999-2004.

Lane also served as the head coach at Goessel High School in Goessel, Kan., for three years (1993-96).

MIKE BALADO
GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Mike Balado enters his first season as a graduate assistant with the University of Miami men's basketball program.

The South Florida native spent the last three seasons at Florida Atlantic University, including the past two as an assistant coach on Rex Walters' staff.

With a strong knowledge of junior college and South Florida prep basketball, Balado was a key recruiter for FAU, with eight members of its 2006-07 recruiting class having Florida ties. In addition, his ability to speak fluent Spanish made him an invaluable resource with international recruiting.

From 2003 to 2005, Balado coached at Miami Dade College, where he helped lead the Sharks to back-to-back winning seasons, including a program-best 27-5 mark in 2004-05 en route to the Southern Conference Championship. His responsibilities included coordinating recruiting, scouting, travel and academics, while also assisting with scheduling and budgeting.

Balado was instrumental in recruiting four of MDC's 2004-05 all-conference selections, including the conference player of the year.

Prior to MDC, Balado was an assistant coach at Nova Southeastern University for the 2002-03 season.

From 2000 to 2002, Balado was an assistant coach and health instructor at Miami Southridge High School. The 2000-01 team advanced to its first regional final and competed in the state tournament. In 2001-02, Southridge won the district regular season championship.

Balado's collegiate coaching experience began at Augusta (Ga.) State University, where he served as a graduate assistant from 1998 to 2000.

BROWN
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Brown is in his second season as assistant athletic trainer for the University of Miami men's basketball team. Along with handling the daily medical needs of the team's basketball program, he also serves as the primary athletic trainer for the Hurricane women's soccer team.

Brown joined the UM Athletic Training Staff following a five-year stay at UNC Wilmington where he served as the Director of Sports Medicine for three years. While at UNCW, he served as the athletic trainer for the men's basketball program, as well as the Seahawk men's track & field team.

He is a certified Performance Enhancement Specialist and a Corrective Exercise Specialist. NBA athletic trainers and strength and conditioning specialists hold these specializations due to the effectiveness of these programs in preventing and treating athlete injuries. Since his implementation of these techniques, UM basketball athletes have only missed time due to acute injuries or illness.

A native of Jacksonville, N.C., Brown earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training from UNCW in 2000, before earning his masters in athletic training from Old Dominion in 2002.

MAC CALLOWAY
ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

The men's basketball strength and conditioning program operates under the guidance of fourth-year assistant strength and conditioning coach Mac Calloway, who also oversees the women's volleyball and men's tennis strength programs for the University of Miami.

Calloway, who is one of the few collegiate strength and conditioning coaches used to conduct testing at the NBA Combine, is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association and is certified as a USA Weightlifting Club Coach. Last summer, he was certified as a Performance Enhancement Specialist through the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

He came to Miami in 2005 after serving a year as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Clemson.

Prior to working at Clemson, Calloway worked a one-year stint at the University of Dayton where he served as the head basketball strength and conditioning coach, helping the Flyers to the Altantic-10 Championship and an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

From 2000-02, Calloway gained experience in the professional ranks serving as the head strength and conditioning coach for the WNBA's Orlando Miracle and as an assistant strength coach with the NBA's Orlando Magic.

Calloway, a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, has conducted testing at the NBA Combine for Rookies every year since 2004.

A member of the National Academy of Sports Medicine, Calloway earned a degree in Health Science Education from the University of Florida's College of Health and Human Performance in 2000.

Calloway and the former Carrie Cohn were married in June.

THE UNIVERSITY

THE UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI is one of the largest, most comprehensive private research universities in the southeastern United States, with a well-earned reputation for academic excellence. More than 15,000 undergraduate and graduate students from every state and 114 nations around the world call UM home during the academic semesters. The University has grown from its main location in the city of Coral Gables to the Leonard M. Miller School of Medicine campus located in Downtown Miami, the Rosenstiel School of Marine and Atmospheric Science on Virginia Key, the John J. Koubek Center in Little Havana, the James L. Knight Center in downtown Miami, and the South and Richmond campuses in southwest Miami-Dade County. With more than 14,000 full- and part-time faculty and staff, UM is one of the largest private employers in Miami-Dade County.

Enrollment: Total enrollment for the 2007-2008 academic year was 15,449 students. Of that number, 9,997 were undergraduate students, 2,991 were graduate students, and 2,079 were professional students. During the 2006-2007 academic year, the University awarded 2,460 bachelor's, 1,101 master's, 386 J.D.'s, 134 M.D.'s, 135 Ph.D.'s and 52 other doctorates.

New Freshmen Standings: Over 40% of new freshmen graduated in the top five percent of their high school class. Almost two-thirds graduated in the top 10 percent of their high school class. Mean SAT was 1275.

International Students: The University continues to attract students from South Florida, as well as from other parts of the nation and around the world. It was one of the country's first universities to have an organized international recruitment program. The University of Miami sends representatives worldwide to seek qualified students. Students come from 114 foreign countries, the 50 states, three territories and the District of Columbia.

Honors Program/Honor Societies: Approximately 920 students participate in the Honors Program. UM has 50 academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa.

Research: Research and sponsored program expend... totaled $274 million (FY 07). According to the National S... Foundation, UM ranked 66th of all universities in expend... of federal funds for research and development (FY 06).

EXCELLENCE

DEPARTMENT MISSION STATEMENT

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics of the University of Miami exists that, within the programs student-athletes have the opportunity to achieve their full potential academically and athletically, and that the University and its constituents benefit from their being represented by students engaged in intercollegiate athletics.

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is committed:

1. To meet the obligations of the mission of the University of Miami.

2. To provide the opportunity for student-athletes to seek and achieve their potential through growth and development academically and athletically.

3. To provide through leadership, thoughtful guidance and quality programs, a positive environment for athletic excellence and achievement, while developing leaders in their fields in the classroom and for our community.

4. To support through its resources the academic objectives of its student-athletes, and ensure their progress toward the goal of the academic degree which each seeks.

5. To provide and support athletic programs at the highest level of competition.

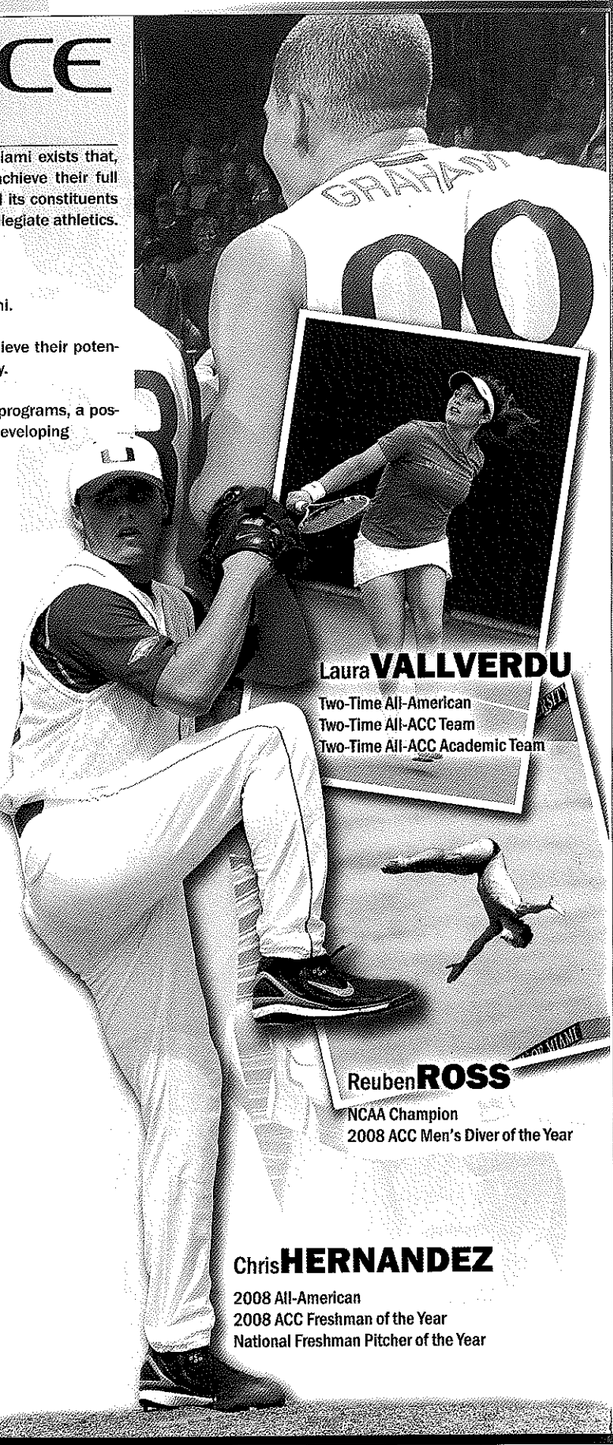

6. To recruit student-athletes of academic quality, good character and high athletic ability.

7. To comply with the rules and policies of all governing bodies and the University of Miami.

8. To provide equitable opportunities regardless of gender, race or creed.

9. To represent the University, its Board of Trustees, administration, faculty, students, staff, alumni and friends appropriately.

10. To develop the values of leadership, teamwork, discipline, sportsmanship and integrity among its student-athletes and staff.

U FACILITIES

BANKUNITED CENTER

Home to Hurricanes basketball, Miami opened competition at the "BUC" with an overtime win by the men's team over nationally-ranked North Carolina on Jan. 4, 2003. The University's first large-capacity venue for athletic, educational, cultural and community events, the $48 million facility was totally funded through private donations.

COBB STADIUM

Through a major gift from Ambassador and Mrs. Charles E. Cobb and the Cobb family, Cobb Stadium for Soccer and Track & Field opened in the spring of 1999. The project included the reconstruction and expansion of the University track and the construction of a new soccer field to accommodate the newly-formed soccer program. The facility includes seating for 500.

DOLPHIN STADIUM

Beginning in 2008, Dolphin Stadium serves as the home field for Miami's football program. Also home to the Miami Dolphins and the Florida Marlins, this world-class sports and entertainment facility hosts a variety of other events, including the FedEx Orange Bowl, the Bowl Championship Series game in 2009 and the 2010 Super Bowl. The largest hi-definition video boards in pro sports and the longest LED ribbon boards in the world add to the stadium experience.

GREENTREE PRACTICE FIELDS

The practice home of the five-time national champion Miami football program, Greentree includes three full-length prescription athletic turf fields and lights to allow evening practices.

HECHT ATHLETIC CENTER

The Hecht Athletic Center is home base for UM's Athletic Department, housing all of the administrative offices and many of the coaching offices for the Hurricanes.

KNIGHT SPORTS COMPLEX

Home to the UM women's volleyball team, the Knight Sports Complex houses practice courts, locker rooms and coaching offices.

MARK LIGHT FIELD AT ALEX RODRIGUEZ PARK

"The Light" has been the home of four-time NCAA College World Series Champions Hurricanes baseball. Currently undergoing renovations, the facility has a seating capacity of 5,000 and features an assortment of concessions for the enjoyment of fans.

NEIL SCHIFF TENNIS CENTER

The home of Miami tennis is one of the top-five facilities in the country. With 16 courts and seating for 1,000 spectators, the facility hosts many of the nation's top amateur events, including the International Junior Orange Bowl Tournament, ITCA Women's Rolex Qualifier and rounds of the NCAA Tournament.

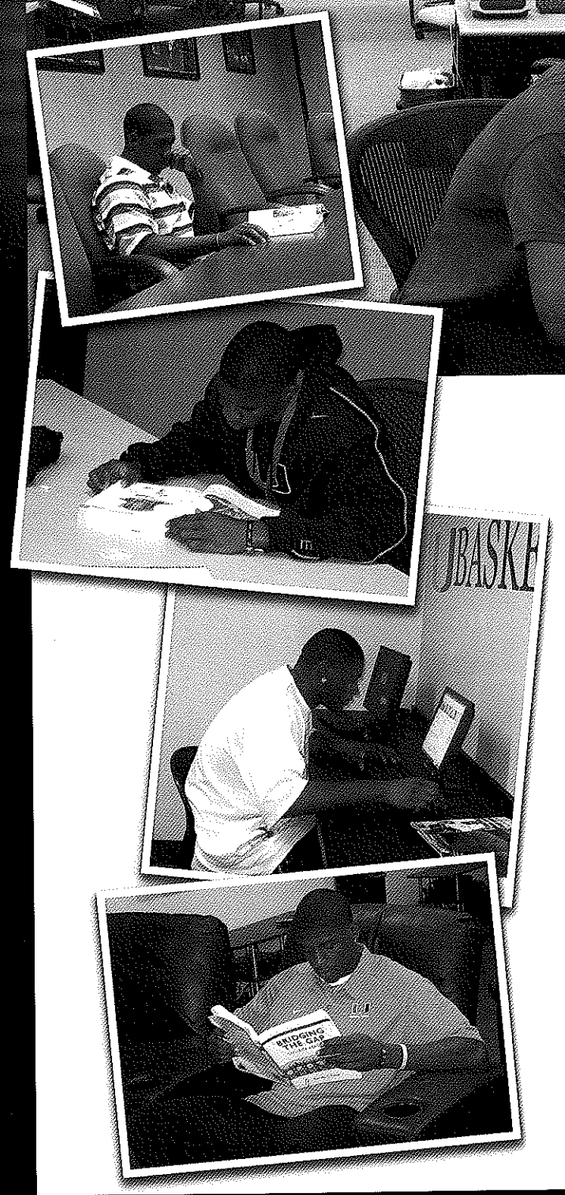

NORMAN WHITTEN STUDENT UNION POOL

Located in the heart of UM's campus, the Whitten Student Union Pool has been home to 35 national title winners and 28 Olympians, including three-time National Champion and five-time World Champion diver Greg Louganis.

WELLNESS CENTER

UM's state-of-the-art recreation and fitness facility located next to the Hecht and Stanford Residential Colleges, the Wellness Center provides students a variety of activities and services, including a fitness room with nautilus and free weights; aerobics, yoga and spinning classes; an elevated indoor track; gymnasium with basketball, volleyball and badminton courts; racquetball and squash courts; as well as an indoor pool, spa and sauna.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

The University of Miami, one of the nation's finest institutions of er education, shows an unparalleled dedication to academics.

MIAMI'S ATHLETIC ACADEMIC SERVICES

The Athletic Academic Services Staff of the University of Athletic Department is committed to providing the academic services necessary to facilitate the graduation of student-and the nurturing of skills to promote the development of ble, well-rounded individuals. This mission is fulfilled through

PRESIDENT DONNA E. SHALALA

Donna E. Shalala became the fifth President of the University of Miami on June 1, 2001. President Shalala is an accomplished scholar, teacher and administrator whose career has been marked by a variety of leadership positions reflecting her interest in young people.

She also is an avid sports fan. While attending college, she played tennis and still plays a competitive game of doubles. She also enjoys golf, skiing and other outdoor activities.

In 1987, President Shalala — a distinguished political scientist — became the first woman chancellor of a Big Ten university, the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She led what was then the nation's largest public research university. In 1992, Business Week magazine named her one of the top five managers in higher education and in 2005, she was named one of "America's Best Leaders" by U.S. News & World Report and the Center for Public Leadership at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government.

President Shalala's success at Wisconsin was reflected in athletics as well. She hired a new football coach, recruiting Barry Alvarez from Notre Dame. Four years later, Wisconsin won the Big Ten football championship and represented its conference in the Rose Bowl for the first time in 30 years. President Shalala served on the first Knight Commission, a committee to review college athletics, and has served on the board of the National Collegiate Athletic Association Foundation. In May 2008 she was selected as an Independent Director of the U.S. Soccer Federation.

In 1993, she was named U.S. Secretary for Health and Human Services (HHS) and served for eight years, becoming the nation's longest-serving HHS Secretary. In 2000, she led the official U.S. delegation to the Olympics in Sydney, Australia. At the end of her tenure as HHS Secretary, The Washington Post described her as "one of the most successful government managers of modern times."

In 2007, U.S. President George W. Bush called upon her healthcare expertise to co-chair the Commission on Care for Returning Wounded Warriors, to evaluate how wounded service members transition from active duty to civilian society. In June 2008, President Bush presented her with the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian award, at a ceremony in the White House. The medal recognizes exceptional meritorious service to individuals who have contributed to national security, world peace or cultural endeavors.

As president of the University of Miami, President Shalala presides over one of the most successful college athletic programs in the country. The Hurricanes football program has consistently ranked in the top of the polls. In 2001, the baseball team won its fourth College World Series and the football team won its fifth national championship. In 2003, the men and women's basketball teams began playing in a new, on-campus facility, the BankUnited Center. Other Hurricanes sports, from tennis to track, have also earned national recognition. Major renovations are well underway at Mark Light Stadium at Alex Rodriguez Park, and a new [illegible] training and practice complex is scheduled for completion this [illegible]

The Black Coaches Association honored her with its image of [illegible] Award for 2007.

As to her commitment to UM athletics, Shalala said, "College sport[s] a vital part of our students' experience while at the University. They help build community and instill a great sense of pride in our [illegible] and their accomplishments. The young men and women who Hurricanes sports are devoted to their game both on a personal team level, and it shows in their inspired performances time after Now it's up to the fans to show their support and cheer them on to more victories."

For a sports fan like President Shalala, there is no better place to home than the University of Miami.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS KIRBY HOCUTT

Kirby Hocutt is in his first year as the Director of Athletics at the University of Miami. Introduced as UM's new Director of Athletics on Feb. 8, 2008, Hocutt began his tenure as the university's 11th Director of Athletics on June 1, 2008.

Hocutt, 36, came to Miami after serving as the athletic director at Ohio University since 2005. Prior to that, he spent six years at the University of Oklahoma and served most recently as associate athletic director for external operations and sports administration.

A former star linebacker at Kansas State, Hocutt has a total of 17 years experience in intercollegiate athletics, including five as a student-athlete. He replaces Paul Dee, who retired after serving as the Director of Athletics at UM for the past 16 years.

"My family and I are extremely excited to be at the University of Miami and a part of the South Florida community," said Hocutt. "To be associated with a world-class university known for comprehensive excellence is truly an amazing opportunity. I look forward to working for and with President Shalala, our student-athletes, coaches and staff as we focus on permanently establishing the Miami Hurricanes as the premier athletics program in the nation."

In September, Hocutt was named to the Board of Directors of the Miami-Dade Sports Commission, an organization dedicated to promoting sports in Miami-Dade County and securing sporting events that will economically benefit the community.

At Ohio, Hocutt significantly reorganized the athletic department's annual giving program. His leadership led to an increase in fundraising by more than 75 percent, including the securing of the second-largest major gift in school athletics history. He also increased season ticket sales in football by 112 percent and in men's basketball by 50 percent. He developed a comprehensive plan to improve the facilities for the football stadium and its press box, as well as the Convocation Center, which houses all administrative and coaches' offices.

In his three years at Ohio, the school won 11 team championships and four head coaches were recognized as conference Coaches of the Year. In 2006, the football team played in its first bowl game in 38 years.

At Oklahoma, Hocutt was the primary administrator for football and the sport supervisor for baseball, men's and women's golf, as well as men's and women's tennis. His duties included supervision of the athletics development office, athletics ticket office, special events, stadium suite program, athletics endowment program, letter winners association and the department's facility use and rental program.

Hocutt led Oklahoma's athletics fundraising to an all-time high in annual giving and capital campaigns. From 1998 to 2005, Oklahoma's annual giving increased from $3.4 million to more than $17 million. That 400 percent increase in annual giving was one of the highest percentage increases in intercollegiate athletics history.

Beginning in 1999, Hocutt served in a leadership position in the strategic planning for a $100 million capital campaign. The $120 million campaign was unique in that it focused on facility construction or improvements for each of Oklahoma's 20 sports.

Prior to joining the Oklahoma staff, Hocutt served as the assistant director of licensing at the NCAA. In that position, he worked with corporate partners and licensees to create new revenue producing initiatives to support and promote all 81 NCAA championships.

He began his career in sports administration as the assistant director of marketing and promotions at Kansas State University. While at Kansas State, he implemented revenue-producing activities for the athletics department, including corporate partner sponsorships and ticket sales.

A former student-athlete at Kansas State, Hocutt was a four-year letterman as a linebacker while leading the Big 8 Conference in tackles and being named to the All-Big 8 Conference team during his junior season. In 1993, The Sporting News selected him as one of the top 20 underrated players in the nation. Hocutt also served as a team captain his senior season. Two of Hocutt's coaches at Kansas State were Bob Stoops, head football coach at Oklahoma and Jim Leavitt, the head football coach at USF.

Hocutt earned his bachelor's degree from Kansas State in 1995 and his master's of education degree from the University of Oklahoma in 2001. He and his wife Diane have two sons, 6-year-old Drew and 4-year-old Brooks.

THOUGHTS ON KIRBY HOCUTT

"Kirby Hocutt is a proven leader with the enthusiasm, thoughtfulness and commitment necessary to lead our quest to be the top program in the country,"
— University of Miami President Donna E. Shalala

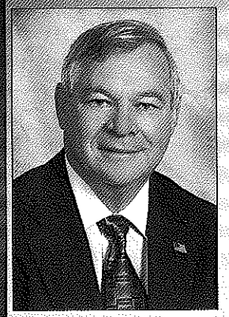

"Our search, which included ADs and senior associates at some of the top programs in the country, led us to Kirby Hocutt, a rising star in intercollegiate athletics."
— Joe Natoli, Senior VP/Business and Finance, CFO and search committee chairman, University of Miami

"Kirby has done much to take our department of athletics to a higher level, and we are very appreciative for all of the accomplishments we have seen in our department during his tenure. It's very unfortunate that we cannot have his leadership in our department for a longer period of time. We understand, however, that is the risk we run when hiring good people."
— Roderick J. McDavis, President, Ohio University

"All of Kirby's friends at the University of Oklahoma send him warm congratulations. He did an outstanding job as associate director of athletics and we wish him well at the University of Miami every day that he is on the job, except when his teams play OU."
— David L. Boren, President, University of Oklahoma

"Reflecting on my background as a native of South Florida, a former intern for the Hurricanes athletic department and a person who worked with the new athletics director, I can say unequivocally that Kirby Hocutt is a phenomenal hire for the University of Miami. His impeccable character, high energy and passion for excellence combined with his leadership skills create the perfect blend to advocate for student-athletes, coaches and the university in today's world of intercollegiate athletics. I congratulate President Shalala, the search committee and all those involved in this selection. Kirby has wonderful respect amongst his peers and he will make the Hurricane Nation proud of the program he leads."
— Joe Castiglione, Director of Athletics,

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

CLYDE B. MCCOY
Faculty Athletic Representative

Clyde B. McCoy, Ph.D. has served the University of Miami in various capacities for more than three decades. In his role as Faculty Athletic Representative, Dr. McCoy is responsible for ensuring academic integrity, facilitating institutional control of intercollegiate athletics and enhancing the student-athlete experience, as well as representing the University to the NCAA, the ACC and other organizations involving student athletics. Within the ACC, he is the voting delegate representing Miami and therefore part of the governing body of the league. He will take over as the President of the ACC in 2009.

Dr. McCoy has established drug education, testing and treatment programs that serve as a model for colleges and universities throughout the United States.

During his tenure at the University, Dr. McCoy has established a successful career and international reputation in research, teaching and administration. He has been honored as a Distinguished Alumni at the University of Cincinnati and as the Most Outstanding Faculty Athletic Representative by the American Football Foundation.

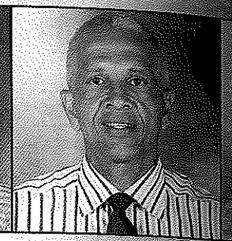

He is a proud member of the University of Miami's Iron Arrow and Phi Beta Delta Honor Society for international scholars.

THE HURRICANE CLUB

The mission of the Hurricane Club is to strengthen the University of Miami's commitment to student-athlete excellence both academically and athletically. Through the Hurricane Club, local and national volunteers, alumni and former student-athletes collectively seek to increase scholarship support, improve facilities and provide the operation and maintenance funding vital for all 17 varsity sports.

FOUNDATIONS FOR THE FUTURE

Annual gifts to the Hurricane Club are an important source of funds for our athletic program. The scholarships provided through these contributions allow the University of Miami to recruit and retain the best student-athletes by allowing them to attend one of the finest universities in the country, while participating in athletic competition.

The Membership Societies, which are part of the Hurricane Club, fund almost half of the current scholarships available to student-athletes. In an effort to help bolster the Hurricane Club and increase annual giving, we are reaching out to current season ticket holders, reconnecting with former Hurricane Club members and creating an association of former student-athletes who will contribute annually to our athletic program. Additionally, there are many benefits associated with giving to the Hurricane Club Annual Fund, including priority tickets, preferred seating and invitations to member-only events.

THE U CLUB

Not everyone knows what it takes to actually step on the field, court or track and proudly wear the Orange and Green. Many dream the dream, but few actually achieve it.

University of Miami letterwinners belong to a small and select group of gifted student-athletes who participated at an elite level of competition.

Whether it represented the culmination of an athletic career or a step to the next level, these former student-athletes will always be 'Canes.

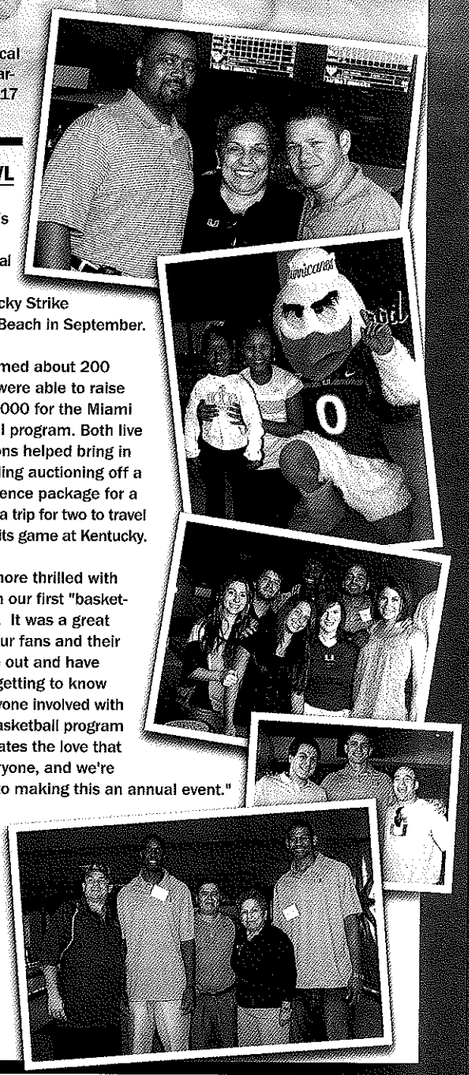

Reconnecting and sharing memories with others, while promoting the University of Miami and its rich athletic heritage, is what the U Club is all about. We most honor the past and secure the future to ensure Hurricane tradition is passed on from one generation to the next.

BASKETBOWL

The Miami men's basketball team held its first annual "BasketBowl" fundraiser at Lucky Strike Lanes in Miami Beach in September.

The team welcomed about 200 supporters and were able to raise upwards of $80,000 for the Miami men's basketball program. Both live and silent auctions helped bring in the funds, including auctioning off a VIP game experience package for a home game and a trip for two to travel with the team to its game at Kentucky.

"I could not be more thrilled with today's turnout in our first "basketbowl" fundraiser. It was a great opportunity for our fans and their families to come out and have some fun while getting to know the players. Everyone involved with Miami's men's basketball program certainly appreciates the love that we felt from everyone, and we're looking forward to making this an annual event."

COMPLIANCE

DAVID REED
Assistant Athletic Director/Compliance

David Reed is entering his second year as Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance, overseeing the Compliance office and acting as the lead on all NCAA Compliance initiatives. An 11-year veteran to NCAA compliance, Reed has held compliance positions at Marshall and Pittsburgh, as well as serving as a compliance intern at both Cincinnati and Xavier. Before his intercollegiate athletics career, Reed was an assistant football coach at Woodrow Wilson High School (Beckley, W.V.).

Reed earned a bachelor's degree in environmental studies from Mountain State University in 1998 and a master's degree in athletic administration from Marshall in 1999. Reed graduated from the Sports Management Institute in 2006 and attended the 1A Athletic Director's Institute in 2005. He is a member of the National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators (NAAC).

Reed is married to the former Angela Bowman and the couple has a daughter, Raegan Elizabeth.

STEPHEN CLACHERTY
Assistant Compliance Director

Clacherty is responsible for monitoring financial aid, housing and meal plans, as well as coordinating the UM drug testing program and overseeing student-athlete employment. Prior to joining the staff at UM, he worked in the Compliance Office at both Seton Hall and Syracuse. He earned a bachelor's degree from SUNY Cortland.

JAMIE ISRAEL
Associate Compliance Director

Israel is responsible for all aspects of compliance related to recruiting, eligibility and playing and practice seasons. He also provides rules education and coordinates the UM agent program. Before coming to UM, Israel was a professor of Sports and Business Law at Florida Atlantic University and served as legal counsel in the area of sports marketing. He is a graduate of the University of Miami and earned a Juris Doctor from Emory.

DEBBIE FOLEY
Administrative Assistant

Foley assists Senior Associate Athletic Director Tony Hernandez and Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance David Reed with all administrative tasks and duties. In addition, she acts as a liaison to the Business Office and coordinates technology support. She is a student at UM and is the married mother of three children.

OFFICE OF ATHLETIC COMPLIANCE

David Reed, Stephen Clacherty, Jamie Israel and Debbie Foley form one of the nation's most comprehensive compliance departments and work closely with the Hurricanes athletic department to ensure full compliance with institutional, Atlantic Coast Conference and NCAA rules and regulations.

U miami

Dear Prospective Student-Athlete:

As a prospective student-athlete, you may have the athletic potential to play college basketball at the Division I level. If so, you probably will be exposed to an enormous amount of recruitment activities from universities across the country.

Throughout the recruitment process, coaches will reference various NCAA rules and regulations. The rules are designed for various reasons. The most important of which are to ease the pressures on prospective student-athletes and to level the playing field so that all universities operate within the same guidelines.

During the recruiting process you may have the following questions:

- When and how often can I visit an institution's campus?
- When, where and how often can a coach telephone me?
- How many times can a coach observe me in practice and/or competition?
- What academic criteria must I meet to be eligible to play Division I basketball?

The answers to these questions and more can be obtained from the University of Miami Compliance Office or the NCAA by requesting the NCAA Guide for the College-Bound Student-Athlete. The guide may be provided to a prospective student-athlete at any time. The guide addresses issues related to Divisions I, II and III academic eligibility, financial aid, recruitment and more.

To receive a copy of the guide call the NCAA Hotline at 1-800-638-3731 or request it from the University of Miami coach who is recruiting you.

Please remember that since violations of NCAA rules during your recruitment could jeopardize your athletic eligibility, it is important for you and your parents to be informed and to ask questions throughout the recruiting process.

Best of luck and GO HURRICANES!

Sincerely,

David Reed
Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Who is a Prospective Student-Athlete (Prospect)?
You are a prospect if you have started classes for the ninth grade. Before the ninth grade, you may become a prospect if a university provides you (or your family or friends) any financial aid or other benefit that is not usually provided to prospective student-athletes.

You are no longer a prospect if you have done any of the following:
(1) Officially register and enroll in a minimum full-time program of studies and have attended classes in any four-year collegiate institution's regular academic year (excluding summer); or (2) Participated in a regular squad practice or competition at a four-year collegiate institution that occurs before the beginning of any term; or (3) Officially register and enrolled and attend classes during the summer prior to initial enrollment and receive institutional athletics aid.

How do I know if I'm being recruited?
A coach is recruiting you if they try to convince you directly, or through your family, to attend their school and participate in intercollegiate athletics. There are several ways to be recruited: (1) a coach may provide you with an official paid visit to view the campus, (2) a coach may arrange an in-person, off-campus meeting with you (or your family), or (3) a coach or staff member may call you (or your family) on more than one occasion for the purpose of recruitment.

Coaches and authorized institutional staff members are the only individuals who may recruit you. Representatives of athletic interests (boosters) may not call, write or make in-person contact with you anywhere for the purpose of recruiting you to a university and participating in athletics.

When can a coach contact me?
Off Campus Contact: In the sport of basketball, a coach can arrange a face-to-face meeting with you, off the University's campus, beginning the first day of classes of your senior year. In all other sports, a coach can arrange a face-to-face meeting with you, off the University's campus, beginning July 1 after your junior year.

Telephone Calls: In all sports other than football and basketball, a coach may call a prospect one time per week after July 1 following the completion of the prospect's junior year in high school.

In the sport of football, a coach may initiate one telephone call to a prospect between April 15th and May 31st of the prospect's junior year. Additional calls are not permitted prior to September 1st of the beginning of the prospect's senior year in high school.

In the sport of men's basketball, coaches may make one telephone call per month from June 15 of the prospect's sophomore year through July 31 of the junior year. Beginning August 1 of the senior year a coach may make two telephone calls per week. Only one call per week may be made to a two-year or four-year college prospect.

In the following circumstances unlimited calls to a prospect are permitted: (1) during the five days immediately preceding an official visit to the University of Miami, (2) on the initial date for signing the National Letter of Intent and the two days following the signing date, and (3) on the day of a coach's off-campus contact with a prospect

For all sports, coaches may receive telephone calls placed by a prospect at the prospect's expense at anytime, including before July 1 following the prospect's junior year in high school.

A Division I institution may provide a recruit with the following printed materials:

- General correspondence, including letters, U.S. Postal Service postcards and institutional note cards;
- Game programs, which may not include posters, and one Student-Athlete Handbook;
- NCAA educational information;
- Pre-enrollment information subsequent to signing a National Letter of Intent with the university;
- One athletic publication (e.g., media guide or recruiting brochure);
- Official academic, admissions and student services publications published or videos produced by the institution and available to all students;
- Schedule and business cards;
- Questionnaires which may be provided prior to your junior year; and Camp brochures which may be provided prior to your junior year.

Letters
In sports other than men's basketball, letters and recruiting information may be sent to you starting September 1 at the beginning of your junior year in high school. In men's basketball, recruiting materials may be provided starting June 15 at the conclusion of the prospect's sophomore year.

What is a Contact?
A contact is any face-to-face encounter between a prospect or the prospect's parent(s) or legal guardian and an institutional staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs in excess of an exchange of a greeting. NOTE: At the Division I level, athletic representatives (boosters) may not contact you for the purpose of recruiting.

What can a school offer me to attend their University?
You (or your family) may not receive any benefit, inducement or arrangements such as cash, clothing, cars, gifts or loans to encourage you to sign a National Letter of Intent or to attend a NCAA school.

A University may offer you a one-year scholarship that covers room and board, tuition and fees, and required course-related books, or any part of these. The institution can recommend that this aid is renewed each year, as is the general practice at the University of Miami, but this renewal is not guaranteed. In addition, they can offer you quality academic and medical support, as well as the opportunity to compete for one of the nation's top programs.

What can I do during this process?
Enjoy your high school years and work hard both in the classroom and in your sport. At the beginning of your junior year you should sign up for the NCAA Clearinghouse. Your high school guidance office can provide you with the information to register.

2009 POSTSEASON

2009 ACC TOURNAMENT

March 12-15 | Atlanta, Ga. | The Georgia Dome

The 2009 ACC Basketball Tournament will take place in Atlanta's George Dome for the second time in conference history. The dome was completed in 1992 at a cost of $214 million which came from the Georgia General Assembly, making it one of the largest state-funded construction projects in state history. It hosted Super Bowl XXVIII in 1994 and Super Bowl XXXIV in 2000, as well as the NCAA Final Four Men's Basketball National Championship in 2002 and 2007, along with regional semifinals and finals in 2001 and 2006, and the NCAA Women's Final Four in 2003.

OFFICIALLY CHAMPION

Contrary to popular belief, the ACC basketball champion has not always been "officially" declared in the Tournament. The ACC merely copied the old Southern Conference by-laws, and the term pertaining to basketball just read: "Beginning December 1 and ending with the conference basketball tournament." With 17 teams it didn't pay to be too detailed. In the early years of the Tournament, unofficially and by custom, everyone regarded the Tournament champion as the ACC champion. But it wasn't until July 1, 1961, that the words "and the winner shall be the conference champion" were added to the ACC by-laws.

2007-08 IN REVIEW

Led by All-ACC First Team selection Jack McClinton, the University of Miami men's basketball team put together one of the most successful seasons in program history in 2007-08, capped by an NCAA Tournament second-round appearance.

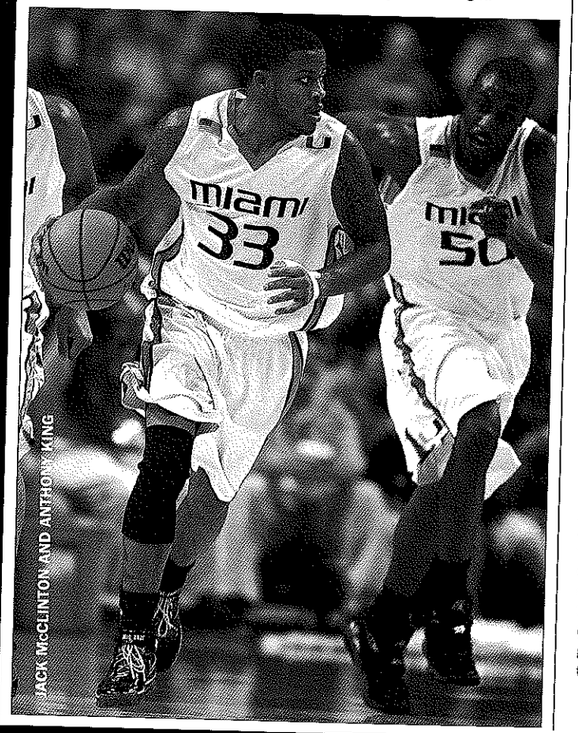

LET'S DANCE

All-ACC First Team selection Jack McClinton powered the seventh-seeded Hurricanes past 10th-seeded St. Mary's in Miami's 78-64 first-round win on Friday, March 21, at Alltel Arena in North Little Rock, Ark. The junior used 32 second-half points (matching St. Mary's team output in the second stanza), en route to a career-high 38-point effort, to catapult the Hurricanes into the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the third time in program history.

In second-round action, Miami put together a furious second-half rally, nearly knocking off second-seeded Texas. But despite a dozen second-half McClinton points and a pair of thrilling three-pointers by Raymond Hicks in the final 11 seconds, the Hurricanes saw their exciting postseason run come to a close with a 75-72 loss to the Longhorns.

REVERSAL OF FORTUNE

With a 10-game swing from 2006-07, Frank Haith's Hurricanes put together one of the largest turnarounds in NCAA Divison I basketball last season. After an injury-plagued squad struggled to a 12-20 record in 2006-07, the 2007-08 edition of the Hurricanes went 23-11, finished the regular season in fifth place in the ACC with program-best 8-8 mark and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for just the third time in program history. Just one year prior, the Hurricanes were the ACC's 12th-place team — and the media predicted the same outcome for 2007-08 in the preseason poll. However, Haith believed otherwise, and often opined throughout the season: "I like this team and I won't waiver off these comments, I think this team has a chance to be in the upper half of this league [ACC]." He was right.

JACK McCLINTON AND ANTHONY KING

A FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING

Jack McClinton made history as he became the first Hurricane ever to be named All-ACC First Team. An All-ACC Third Team pick in his first season on the squad for the Hurricanes in 2006-07, the junior guard earned first-team honors after his season after leading the league in three-point field goals per game at 3.7, free throw percentage, while ranking second in three-point field goal percentage and fourth in scoring. He was the only All-ACC First Team selection to earn All-ACC Academic Team recognition last season.

HURRICANE WARNING

Miami's top scorers — Jack McClinton (17.7 pppg, 18.8 ppg in ACC play) and James Dews (10.3 ppg) — proved lethal from anywhere on the court. The duo converted better than 90 percent from the line and led Miami from beyond the arc with a combined 152 three-pointers on the season.

THE FINAL STRETCH

The Hurricanes won eight of their last 12 games. Bouncing back from a disappointing 2-6 start in ACC play, the Hurricanes went 6-2 over the second half of the league schedule, reaching a program-record eight ACC wins.

HE SHOOTS... AND HE SCORES

Including a career-high 38 points in the NCAA Tournament win over St. Mary's, Jack McClinton finished his second season with the Hurricanes in 24th place among Miami's leading scorers with 1,085 points in just two seasons for the Hurricanes. He enters his senior year just 47 points out of 23rd place, 107 points out of the top 20 and 392 points out of the top 10. With 22 points at Florida State in the regular-season finale, he became the 28th Hurricane to score 1,000 career points, and just the fourth to do it in his first two seasons — and the first to accomplish that feat since Don Curnutt in 1969. McClinton scored in double figures 28 times in 2007-08 — including 11 games of 20-or-more points and three games of 30-plus points.

ACCEPTING CHARITY

Jack McClinton made 38-straight free throws to close the season, dating back to Miami's March 1 win over Virginia, and went 15-of-15 in the NCAA Tournament, including an 11-of-11 effort in the win over St. Mary's. James Dews has not missed a free throw since Jan. 23, making 26 straight — including an 8-of-8 effort in ACC Tournament play. McClinton and Lance Hurdle, who ranked among the ACC's top three and the nation's top 30 (McClinton was third in the NCAA) in free throw shooting, combined to convert 17-of-17 free throws versus Boston College (3/5) and 8-of-8 at Florida State (3/8). McClinton and Dews went 12-of-12 from the charity stripe in the ACC opening-round win over NC State. For the season, McClinton shot an ACC- and school-record .919, while Dews and Hurdle converted at a .907 and .865 clip, respectively.

KING'S COURT

With his appearance in the NCAA Tournament, fifth-year senior Anthony King broke the school record for most appearances by a Hurricane with 126, while making his 105th straight start versus Texas. King, the last Miami player to compete in both the Big East and ACC, finished his collegiate career ranked third in Miami history in career blocks (219) and seventh in career rebounds (824).

BATTLING THE BEST

At 23-11, the Miami squad finished the season ranked 35th in the RPI with the nation's 36th toughest schedule, while playing in the nation's top-ranked conference. The Hurricanes went 4-4 versus top-50 ranked teams in the RPI and 9-7 versus top-100 ranked teams in the RPI, with wins over Duke (7), Clemson (23), St. Mary's (46), Mississippi State (41), Virginia Tech (54), VCU (56), Georgia Tech (70 — twice) and Maryland (74). Of the 16 in-season ACC games Miami played, six of those opponents were ranked among the ACC's top-three teams entering the game.

...NEY TIME

...anes went 5-3 in tournament action in 2007-08. Miami went 3-0 ... Puerto Rico Tip-Off in November, went 0-1 at the Orange Bowl ... December and then put together a 1-1 mark in both the ACC and ...mments.

...TEAM OF THE WEEK

... Andy Katz dubbed the Hurricanes the "Team of the Week" on Mon., ... after they knocked off three opponents in four days to win the inau... Puerto Rico Tip-Off.

...URRICANE HIGHLIGHTS

» Miami's 23-11 record marked quite the turnaround from the 2006-07 ...y-plagued squad that finished 12-20. In 2007-08, the Hurricanes col...ed their 12th win by Christmas.

» With 23 wins, the Hurricanes earned the most victories by a Frank Haith-coached UM squad and reached the 20-win mark for just the 10th time in ...ool history and the fourth time since the rebirth of the program in 1985-86.

» Miami got off to the second-best start in program history, winning 12-straight before losing its final game of 2007 to NCAA--regulars Winthrop.

» The Hurricanes went 14-2 at home, setting a new BankUnited Center ...ord and surpassing last season's home win total by six games. Of the 12 ACC teams, only Duke and Wake Forest won more home games.

» Miami had 12 wins over opponents from three of the top-five ranked ...nferences last season (ACC, SEC, Big East).

» The Hurricanes were ranked four weeks of the season, including a high ...f No. 19, and received votes in at least one poll in 11 of the 15 weeks they ...were not ranked.

» Of Miami's six ACC road losses, two came in overtime and one was the ...result of a last-second shot.

THIS AND THAT

With 185 career three-pointers, Jack McClinton ranks fourth in Miami history in career treys in just two seasons as a Hurricane... He scored 20-or-more points in the last three games of the regular season and scored in double-figures in 25 of the last 26 games of the season... McClinton ranks second among the ACC's career leaders in free throw percentage (.908) and is third in three-point field goal percentage (.433).

OFFENSIVE IMPROVEMENT

Then-sophomore James Dews came on strong in 2007-08, improving his scoring by 7.2 more points per game than he posted as a freshman — tied for second-best in the ACC. His increase in productivity is similar to the growth that Brian Asbury exhibited from his freshman to sophomore seasons, when his scoring went up 10.7 points per game to rank fourth in the ACC in scoring average improvement. In addition, Dews was fourth among ACC players in increase in playing time from one season ago, averaging 14.4 minutes more per game in 2007-08.

RAISE UP

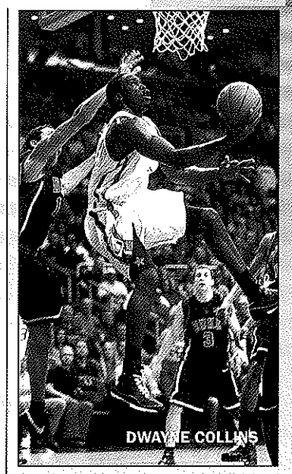

The Miami defense saw great improvement, as the Hurricanes finished second in the ACC in scoring defense and tied for second in field goal percentage defense. It's quite an improvement from the previous season, when Miami finished second-to-last in both of those statistics.

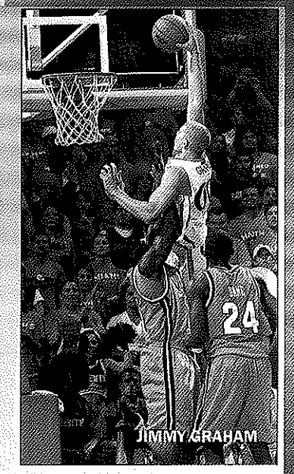

GOOD POINT

Junior-transfer Lance Hurdle worked his way into the starting lineup and started 18 straight at the point to close the season. He knocked down a career-high 20 points in UM's effort versus North Carolina and averaged 9.1 points and 2.5 assists as a starter for the Hurricanes.

THE BIG 2-0

With the 95-93 win over Virginia, the Hurricanes reached the 20-win mark for the 10th time in program history and just the fourth time since the rebirth of the program in 1985-86. The last 20-win season was in 2001-02, when the Hurricanes finished 24-8.

DWAYNE COLLINS

JIMMY GRAHAM

DUNKIN' DWAYNE

Dwayne Collins was named National Player of the Week by both ESPN.com and Rivals.com after helping the Hurricanes to wins over Duke and Maryland. Collins averaged 19 points and 6.5 rebounds over those two wins, shooting 72 percent from the field —including a career-high 26-point performance (12-14 FGs, 2-3 FTs, 7 rebs, 2 stl) in the W over Duke.

THREE-FOR-ALL

"Since I've been here, this is the greatest week we've had. We start on Sunday and beat Georgia Tech at Georgia Tech, beat Duke at home and then beat Maryland... No question it's a great week for us." — Coach Haith

The Hurricanes wrapped up a three-game week in February with a 78-63 win over Maryland. They opened the busy week with a 64-63 win at Georgia Tech on Sunday, and then held on for the 96-95 win over No. 5/4 Duke on Wednesday at home.

GO FIGURE

Ten different Hurricanes scored 10-plus points in a game in 2007-08 — Jack McClinton (28 times), James Dews (18), Brian Asbury (15), Dwayne Collins (12), Lance Hurdle (12), Anthony King (9), Raymond Hicks (7), Jimmy Graham (6), Eddie Rios (4) and Adrian Thomas (1). Miami had five Hurricanes score in double figures in the same game seven times, while six Hurricanes scored 10-plus points twice.

BEATING THE BLUE DEVILS, 96-95

» Miami picked up its second win over Duke all-time and first since the series opener between the two schools in 1962.

» The win marked Miami's first against a Top 5 opponent since the 'Canes won at No. 2/2 UConn on Feb. 20, 1999.

» Miami shot 57.4% from the floor (35-of-61) — its best shooting performance against an ACC opponent and its second-highest mark of the season (58.1% vs. NCA&T). It was the most points and field goals (35) allowed by Duke in 2007-08, as well as the highest field goal percentage by a Duke opponent.

PART LION + PART TIGER = JIMMY GRAHAM

A key defensive player for the Hurricanes, Jimmy Graham was nicknamed the "liger" by his teammates (originally from the movie Napolean Dynamite) for his enthusiastic play on the hardwood. An energetic leader for the Hurricanes, Graham was pivotal in Miami's comeback over Georgia Tech at home, when the Hurricanes battled back from a 12-point deficit for the 10-point win. Trailing 19-12 midway through the opening half, Graham came in off the bench and posted a block (9:19), free throw (8:32), dunk (7:39), layup (6:56) and jumper (6:01) — for a total of seven points in a three-minute span to fuel Miami's 10-3 run to cut Georgia Tech's lead. He finished with a then-career-high tying 13 points (5-6 FGs, 3-4 FTs) in the win.

2007-08 GAME RECAPS

EXHIBITION — Nov. 6, 2007

MIAMI 82
BARRY 50

BankUnited Center--Coral Gables, Fla.

Jack McClinton sank six three-pointers, scoring a game-high 20 points and Dwayne Collins added a double-double as Miami rolled past Barry, 82-50, in exhibition play. McClinton converted his first five three-point attempts as the Hurricanes took the early 17-0 lead, holding the Buccaneers scoreless for the opening nine minutes of the game. Miami would lead by as many as 26 points in the first half, building the 40-16 halftime advantage. The Hurricanes continued their strong play in the second half, leading by as many as 40 points. Anthony King added six points, four boards and a block in his return to the court. Tuesday also marked the debut of guards Lance Hurdle and Eddie Rios, who both saw time at the point. Hurdle, a junior transfer out of San Diego, Calif., finished with seven points and a game-high six assists, while Rios -- a Miami native -- added four assists, a block and a trey. In all, 14 Hurricanes saw action in the contest.

GAME 1 — Nov. 9, 2007

MIAMI 104
FLORIDA SOUTHERN 61

BankUnited Center--Coral Gables, Fla.

Jack McClinton and James Dews each scored 15 points as Miami defeated Florida Southern, 104-61, in its season opener. Dwayne Collins and Adrian Thomas added 13 points apiece, as six Hurricanes (1-0) scored in double figures. The victory was Miami's most lopsided since defeating Savannah State, 105-64, on January 3, 2004, which was also the last game the Hurricanes surpassed 100 points. McClinton and Thomas each hit three-pointers during a 14-0 run early in the opening period. Anthony King's field goal with 10:53 remaining capped the spurt and increased Miami's lead to 27-10. Dews hit three three-pointers later in the first half and McClinton scored seven consecutive points in a 31-second span during the final 1:11 as Miami finished the half with a 56-25 lead. Miami finished 12 of 22 from three-point range.

MIAMI
MARIST

O'Reilly Auto Parts Puerto Rico Tip-Off
Coliseo de Puerto Rico--San Juan, Puerto Rico

Anthony King led three Hurricanes in double figures as Miami cruised past Marist, 85-61, in the first round of the O'Reilly Auto Parts Puerto Rico Tip-Off. King posted 13 points, five rebounds and a game-high seven blocks, while James Dews added 12 points -- including three three-pointers -- and five boards in his first career start. Jack McClinton extended his double-figure scoring streak to 14 -- the second-longest active streak in the ACC -- with 11 points and a pair of assists, while Eddie Rios dished out a career-high eight assists. The Hurricanes (2-0) jumped out to the early 10-1 lead, and kept the Red Foxes (1-1) without a field goal for the opening seven minutes. Dwayne Collins came off the bench and poured in eight points in two minutes to extend Miami's lead to 12 midway through the half. Treys by Dews and McClinton, as well as 9-of-10 shooting from the line, helped push Miami's advantage to as many as 20 points in the period, as UM took the 39-21 lead into intermission. All 11 Hurricanes who saw action in the game went on to score at least four points, and Miami led by as many as 34 en route to its second-straight win.

Parts Puerto Rico Tip-Off
Puerto Rico--San Juan, Puerto Rico

-Clinton scored 23 points and Miami held off a me rally to lead the Hurricanes to a 69-63 win over Commonwealth in the second round of the Auto Parts Puerto Rico Tip-Off. The Hurricanes (3-) led 36-21 at the half and by as many as 13 points with minutes to play. The Rams (2-1) went on a 12-4 run, ding eight points from Eric Maynor, to cut the lead to 68 with 26 seconds remaining. Raymond Hicks, son and Lance Hurdle combined to sink all six free attempts in the final seconds to shut down the rams. VCU was held to 25 percent shooting in the first and shot under 37 percent for the game. Miami shot 41.7 percent from the field in the first, but dropped to 25 percent shooting in the second half. However the Hurricanes converted 27 of 31 free throw attempts (87.1 percent), including going 10-of-10 in the final minute. Anthony King posted his first double-double of the season and the 11th of his career, finishing with 10 points, 15 rebounds and three blocks, while Brian Asbury added 10 points for the Hurricanes. McClinton nailed 5-of-7 three-pointers and went 6-of-6 from the charity stripe.

MIAMI 64
PROVIDENCE 58

O'Reilly Auto Parts Puerto Rico Tip-Off
Coliseo de Puerto Rico--San Juan, Puerto Rico
Championship Game

James Dews scored nine of his 17 points in the second half -- including five points during the last 90 seconds -- to lead Miami to a 64-58 win over Providence in the championship game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off. The Hurricanes (4-0) also got 16 points from Brian Asbury and 12 from Anthony King. The Friars jumped out to a 20-12 lead on a jumper by Weyinmi Efejuku with 2:53 to play in the first half, and would led 22-18 at the break. But an Asbury three-pointer jump started the Hurricanes with 16:08 to go. Providence rallied to take a 51-50 lead with a Efejuku 3-pointer and 4:11 on the clock, but the Hurricanes surged with strong play from Dews in the final minutes. Jack McClinton was named to the all-tournament team.

GAME 5 — Nov. 24, 2007

MIAMI 55
MORGAN STATE 51

BankUnited Center--Coral Gables, Fla.

Anthony King scored a team-high 11 points as Miami rallied for a 55-51 victory over Morgan State. The Hurricanes (5-0) outscored the Bears 9-0 in the final 4:28 to overcome a 51-46 deficit. Brian Asbury's steal and fast-break dunk with 2:30 remaining gave the Hurricanes their first lead, 52-51, since midway through the first half. Morgan State's Boucabar Coly missed the front end of a one-and-one with 1:15 remaining, and the Bears' Marquise Kately also missed the front end of a one-and-one with 40 seconds left. Asbury's free throw with 20 seconds on the clock increased the Miami lead to 53-51. The Bears (3-2) had one final possession to tie or take the lead, but the ball rolled off Coly's leg out of bounds on a drive to the basket. Lance Hurdle's two-free throws with five seconds remaining clinched the victory, as the Hurricanes improved to 5-0 -- their best start since winning 14 straight to open the 2001-02 season.

GAME 6

Nov. 28, 2007

MIAMI	83
ALABAMA STATE	74

BankUnited Center—Coral Gables, Fla.

Dwayne Collins scored 16 points to lead Miami to an 83-74 win over Alabama State, as the Hurricanes improved to 6-0 for just the fifth time in program history. It is the best start for Miami since winning 14 straight to start the 2001-02 season. Collins was one of five Hurricanes who finished in double figures. Miami's emphasis on low-post scoring resulted in Collins, Anthony King and Jimmy Graham combining for 42 points. King and Graham finished with 14 and 12 points, respectively. Brian Asbury added 15 points, including hitting a pair of three-pointers and 7-of-8 from the charity stripe, while Eddie Rios tied his season-high with 11 points in his second-straight start. After a close first half, the Hurricanes outscored the Hornets (2-2) 10-3 in the early minutes of the second half. Rios' three-pointer 2:39 into the second half put Miami ahead 41-33. Although Chief Kickingstallionsims' field goal with 15:52 remaining reduced Miami's lead to 43-37, the Hurricanes responded with a 14-5 spurt in the next 6:01. Collins' basket with 4:25 left closed a 6-0 run and increased Miami's lead to 67-49, as UM went on to convert a season-high 31 free throws.

GAME 7

Dec. 2, 2007

MIAMI	66
ST. JOHN'S	47

BankUnited Center—Coral Gables, Fla.

Anthony King and Lance Hurdle scored 13 points apiece to lead Miami over St. John's, 66-47, in a nationally-televised game. The Hurricanes remain undefeated, improving to 7-0 for the fourth time in school history, while the Red Storm (4-1) dropped its first game of the season. Miami enjoyed two 10-0 runs, the second increasing its lead to 52-38 with 7:39 remaining in the second half. D.J. Kennedy's 3-point play and Paris Horne's field goal reduced Miami's lead to 52-43 with 5:17 remaining. But James Dews converted four free throws for the Hurricanes, and Hurdle scored another pair of free throws in the next 1:12 as Miami secured the 19-point win. Dews finished with 11 points, while Jack McClinton returned to the court to finish with eight points, including a pair of three-pointers, and three rebounds. Dwayne Collins posted eight points and six boards in the victory, while King added eight rebounds and a season-high three steals in his sixth-straight double-figure scoring performance. The Hurricanes picked up 33 points — half of its offense — from the bench, as every Miami player that saw action in the game scored.

STETSON	53

BankUnited Center—Coral Gables, Fla.

Brian Asbury scored 18 points and No. 22 Miami, energized by its first Top 25 ranking in five years, beat Stetson 89-53. Raymond Hicks had 15 points and James Dews added 14 for the Hurricanes (10-0), who opened the game with a 19-4 run. Asbury had nine points in the 6 1/2-minute burst. Miami had five players score in double figures for the third time this season. Earning their 10th win of the season versus the Hatters (2-8), it is the second time in program history the Hurricanes have gone 10-0. Dews' field goal with 11:13 remaining in the first half put Miami ahead 23-6. The Hatters were held without a field goal for a 5:51 stretch until A.J. Smith's 3-pointer with 10:34 remaining cut Miami's lead to 23-9. Dwayne Collins' basket gave the Hurricanes a 36-15 lead with 4:46 remaining in the half, and Miami took the 42-25 advantage into the break. Dews' fourth and final 3-pointer of the game with 9:48 remaining increased Miami's lead to 69-42. The Hurricanes enjoyed their first 30-point lead at 74-42 on Asbury's 3-pointer with 8:39 left.

GAME 11

Dec. 20, 2007

NO. 22/22 MIAMI	85
NORTH FLORIDA	63

BankUnited Center—Coral Gables, Fla.

Jack McClinton and Dwayne Collins each scored 13 points to help 22nd-ranked Miami remain unbeaten with an 85-63 victory over North Florida. The Hurricanes were never threatened after scoring 11-straight points midway through the first half. Collins also finished with 11 rebounds. Late in the first half, Miami built its first 20-point advantage and the Ospreys (1-9) never got any closer. Miami has won its first 11 games, three shy of the Hurricanes' previous best to start the 2001-02 season. James Dews' 3-pointer with 5:48 remaining in the first half capped an 11-0 run, increasing Miami's lead to 32-15. Brian Asbury also hit a 3-pointer and McClinton converted a three-point play during the run. Despite missing their first five shots, the Hurricanes built a 16-5 advantage in the first 6:29. McClinton scored five points and Asbury hit a 3-pointer during the run.

GAME 12 — Dec. 23, 2007

NO. 22/22 MIAMI	95
NORTH CAROLINA A&T	64

BankUnited Center—Coral Gables, Fla.

Jack McClinton scored 17 points to lead five Hurricanes in double figures as No. 22 Miami defeated North Carolina A&T, 95-64, to stretch its season-opening win streak to 12 games. James Dews and Raymond Hicks each finished with 16 points for the Hurricanes, who are two games shy of the school record for victories to open a season set in 2001-02. The Hurricanes went on a 17-0 run in the first 5:07 and were never threatened. Down 45-25 at halftime, the Aggies (5-7) got no closer than 47-32 after James Porter's field goal 2:55 into the second half. The Hurricanes countered with an 18-4 run in the next 5:09. Dews scored eight points, including two 3-pointers, during the spurt. The Hurricanes, whose non-starters contributed 54 points in the win, led by as many as 35 points and shot a season-high 58.1 percent from the field. Hicks and Anthony King pulled down a game-high seven rebounds apiece, while Dwayne Collins added 12 points and a game-high three blocked shots.

GAME 13 — Dec. 29, 2007

WINTHROP	76
NO. 19/19 MIAMI	70

Orange Bowl Classic | BankAtlantic Center—Sunrise, Fla.

Senior Chris Gaynor scored a career-high 21 points and Winthrop made 10 of its final 13 shots, overcoming an 11-point deficit in the second half to hand No. 19 Miami its first loss, 76-70. Jack McClinton scored a season-high 30 points for Miami (12-1). Winthrop (7-5) missed only three shots in the final 10 minutes while making four three-pointers. Gaynor, chosen the game's most valuable player, went 7-for-8, including 5-for-6 from three-point range. Anthony King scored a season-high 16 points for the Hurricanes and added a game-high nine rebounds, while James Dews added 12 points, including three 3-pointers. Miami failed to score on nine consecutive possessions, committing five turnovers during the drought, and Winthrop scored 14 points in a row to go ahead. A basket by Taj McCullough put Winthrop ahead to stay, 47-45, and Gaynor sank 3-pointers on consecutive possessions to make it 60-51. Winthrop took an early 22-13 lead, but Dews sank a pair of 3-pointers to spark a 10-0 run that put the Hurricanes ahead 27-24. McClinton scored the first six points of the second half to give the Hurricanes their biggest lead, 38-27.

GAME 14 — Jan. 5, 2008

MIAMI	88
PENN	62

BankUnited Center—Coral Gables, Fla.

Brian Asbury scored a career-high 22 points as he rebounded from its first loss of the season to defeat Penn, 88-62, in the Hurricanes' non-conference finale. Jack Collins added his second double-double of the season and the eighth of his career with a season-high 18 points and 10 rebounds to help the Hurricanes (13-1) to their 13th win, surpassing their win total from last season. The Hurricanes wore down the Quakers (4-9) with an 11-0 run to start the second half. Collins, who added three steals and a half-dozen blocks in the game, scored the first seven of the spurt. Asbury's field goal with 18:29 remaining capped the run and increased Miami's lead to 49-31. Lance Hurdle's driving layup with 16:29 remaining gave the Hurricanes their first 20-point lead, 54-33. Jack McClinton's 3-pointer with 7:30 left capped an 8-0 spurt and increased the Hurricanes' advantage to 72-42. McClinton finished with 12 points for his sixth-straight double-figure scoring effort, while Eddie Rios came off the bench and sank a career-high three 3-pointers in the win. James Dews dished out a career- and game-high six assists, while Asbury tied his career-high with four steals. For the game, Miami recorded a season-high tying 15 steals.

[illegible] Center—Coral Gables, Fla. | ACC Opener

[illegible] Miami overcame a slow start to win its ACC open-[illegible] Saturday, 78-68, over Georgia Tech, improving to 4-0 in [illegible] home openers and 9-0 at the BankUnited Center this [illegible]son. James Dews scored a career-high 18 points and [illegible]my Graham matched a career high with 13 for the [illegible]ricanes (14-1, 1-0), who fell behind by 12 points early [illegible]d then went on a 31-11 run. The Hurricanes won despite [illegible]ssing their first 13 3-point tries. The ACC's leader in [illegible]ree-point percentage — and fourth in the NCAA, Miami [illegible]ed 42 percent from the field, but hit a season-low 2-for-[illegible]9 from 3-point range. However, the Hurricanes made up [illegible]or it by forcing 18 turnovers, which led to 24 points. The [illegible]ricanes missed 10 consecutive shots early and fell [illegible]behind 22-10 before Graham sparked their comeback. He [illegible]scored seven consecutive points and started an 11-0 run [illegible]that cut Georgia Tech's (7-8, 0-2) lead to 22-21. A basket [illegible]by Dews shortly before halftime put the Hurricanes ahead [illegible]to stay, 31-29. Miami took the 33-31 lead into the break [illegible]and outscored Georgia Tech 18-9 to start the second half. [illegible]The Yellow Jackets were never closer than seven points in [illegible]the final 14 minutes. Jack McClinton, Miami's leading [illegible]scorer this season at 15.5 points per game, was shut out [illegible]for the first 14 minutes but still finished with 14 points, [illegible]including an 8-of-8 performance from the line. Brian [illegible]Asbury added 11 points and Dwayne Collins had a career-[illegible]high tying five blocks and five rebounds.

BOSTON COLLEGE	66
NO. 21/24 MIAMI	76

Conte Forum—Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Tyrelle Blair finished with 11 points, 12 rebounds and five blocked shots, while Rakim Sanders added 20 points to lead Boston College (12-4, 3-0 ACC) to its 13th consecutive victory over Miami. Jack McClinton scored 20 points on 6-for-26 shooting for the Hurricanes (14-2, 1-1), which had won consecutive games since it lost to Winthrop on Dec. 29 to snap a season-opening 12-game win streak. James Dews scored 15 points for UM, who would have tied the best start in school history with a win. Boston College scored 14 of the first 16 points and led 50-27 with 11:26 to play before McClinton hit a 3-pointer to start a 23-10 run that pulled Miami back into the game. He had 13 points in a five-minute span, including three 3-pointers. The Hurricanes were still down 68-58 with 3:13 left, but despite their full-court pressure and fouling they couldn't get any closer than nine points. BC hit 14 of 18 free throws down the stretch. Miami, which leads the ACC in 3-point percentage, was just 8-of-26 from beyond the arc, making 3-of-13 in the first half. Miami missed its first 13 3-point attempts in Saturday's victory over Georgia Tech, and missed 14 of its first 15 shots overall against BC.

GAME 17 — Jan. 19, 2008

NC STATE	79
NO. 21/24 MIAMI	77

RBC Center—Raleigh, N.C. | OVERTIME

Gavin Grant stole an inbounds pass and scored with two seconds left to cap a last-second rally, helping N.C. State beat the 21st-ranked Hurricanes, 79-77. After Anthony King made one of two free throws to give Miami a 77-75 lead with 15.3 seconds remaining in the extra session, Grant drove the basket on the other end to try to tie it. His layup in traffic bounced off the rim, but J.J. Hickson was there for the tip-in. Just as the home crowd was celebrating the possibility of a second OT, Grant jumped in front of King's pass and immediately put the ball in the basket for the Wolfpack (12-5, 1-2 ACC). Jack McClinton scored 24 of his 26 points after halftime on his birthday to bring Miami (14-3, 1-2) back from a double-figure deficit. King and Raymond Hicks each added 13 points. Each team had a chance to go ahead during the final seconds of regulation after Grant tied it at 72 with a three-point play, but neither team managed to capitalize. Brandon Costner hit a 3-pointer to open the second half giving N.C. State a 12-point lead, and the margin still was 11 a few minutes later. That's when Miami finally got going. Most of the damage was done within a few feet of the basket, with Jimmy Graham sparking a 10-0 run with a couple of easy layins. When McClinton finished off a fast break with a high-arching one-hander, it was 46-45. Later, the Hurricanes took their first lead since early in the first half on McClinton's jumper from behind the line. That was the first of nine lead changes down the stretch.

GAME 18 — Jan. 23, 2008

NO. 5/4 NORTH CAROLINA	98

BankUnited Center—Coral Gables, Fla.

Ty Lawson's speed got North Carolina started, and Tyler Hansbrough's size eventually proved too much for Miami. Hansbrough scored 27 of his season-high 35 points after halftime, Lawson scored 15 of his 23 points in the opening 20 minutes, and the fifth-ranked Tar Heels got back to their winning ways by beating the Hurricanes 98-82. Hansbrough made 10 of 15 shots from the floor and 15 of 16 from the line. Wayne Ellington added 12 points for North Carolina (19-1, 4-1 ACC), which lost its No. 1 ranking after an 82-80 home loss to Maryland on Saturday. But losing rarely becomes a Tar Heel trend: Excluding season-ending defeats, North Carolina is now 24-4 after a loss in the Roy Williams era. Lance Hurdle scored a season-high 20 points for Miami (14-4, 1-3). The Hurricanes, who fell to 9-1 at home this season, also got 17 points from Raymond Hicks and 11 from Jack McClinton. Miami's home floor was raucous early, with no shortage of star power on hand. Dwyane Wade of the Miami Heat sat near the Hurricanes' bench, and Heat players Dorell Wright -- McClinton's former prep-school teammate -- and Jason Williams sat in the front row along a sideline. Hansbrough made consecutive jumpers early in the second half to push Carolina's lead to 59-48, then its largest. And whenever Miami seemed poised to make a run, Hansbrough usually had an answer. His three-point play with 7:44 left put the Tar Heels up 74-62 and, after McClinton hit a 3-pointer to breathe some life back into the Miami side, Hansbrough slammed home a missed Lawson layup to silence the building once again.

MIAMI	75
NO. —/25 CLEMSON	72

BankUnited Center—Coral Gables, Fla.

Jack McClinton scored 16 points, including three dramatic three-pointers, as Miami defeated Clemson, 75-72, to snap a three-game skid. McClinton hit three consecutive 3-pointers over a 1:23 span late as Miami (15-4, 2-3 ACC) rallied from a six-point deficit. McClinton's third trey with 1:07 left gave the Hurricanes the lead for good, 66-65. Demontez Stitt's field goal with 16.3 seconds remaining cut Miami's advantage to 72-69, but Brian Asbury secured the victory with two free throws with 14.6 left. Stitt led the Tigers (15-5, 3-3) with 15 points, while James Mays finished with 14. Dwayne Collins led Miami with season-high tying 18 points and 12 rebounds for his third double-double of the season. Clemson trailed during nearly the entire first half, but overcame a 12-point deficit with an 18-4 spurt late. Raymond Sykes' field goal with 3:19 remaining capped the run and gave the Tigers a 30-29 lead, their first since a 1-0 advantage on K.C. Rivers' free throw 24 seconds into the game. Rivers' third consecutive 3-pointer tied the game 35-35 with 47 seconds remaining in the half before Asbury converted on two free throws with 14 seconds left, giving Miami a 37-35 halftime lead. Clemson had a strong start in the opening minutes of the second half and Cliff Hammonds' field goal with 6:34 remaining in the second half gave the Tigers a 59-53 lead. But the Tiger's couldn't hold on to it. Jimmy Graham posted a career-high tying five blocks in the win for the Hurricanes.

WAKE FOREST
MIAMI

Joel Coliseum—Winston-Salem, N.C.

Ishmael Smith's jumper with three seconds left gave Wake Forest past Miami, 70-68. Jeff Teague scored a season-high 27 points for the Demon Deacons (13-5, 4-2 ACC), but it was his backcourt mate who kept Wake Forest's 16-game home winning streak alive. Dwight Collins could have given Miami the lead in the final minute, but he missed a layup, James Johnson collected the rebound and Wake Forest called timeout with 3.0 seconds left. Smith dribbled out most of the clock before driving right, pulling up near the elbow and knocking down a jumper. Jack McClinton had 16 points to lead Miami (15-5, 2-4), and his layup with 1:26 left tied the game at 68 all. It wasn't enough to keep the Hurricanes from their fourth loss in five games, and yet another close one at the Demon Deacons' hands. Miami's last three losses in the series have come by a combined seven points. Clay McFarland added 10 points for Wake Forest and Johnson the team's leading scorer at 15.1 points per game was held to nine — all in the second half. Brian Asbury scored 11 of his 13 points in the second half and Collins finished with 12 for Miami, which shot nearly 55 percent. But the Hurricanes couldn't get McClinton, their star sharpshooter, enough second-half shots. Wake Forest endured some streaky shooting early, falling behind 17-10 after one particularly rough stretch in which it missed nine of 10 shots. Almost immediately, the Demon Deacons got hot — overcoming that big deficit by knocking down six straight shots during a 16-5 run and going up 26-22 on McFarland's three-point play with 4:48 left.

GAME 21 — Feb. 2, 2008

NO. 3/3 DUKE	88
MIAMI	73

[illegible] Indoor Stadium—Durham, N.C.

[illegible]'s strong second half carried third-ranked Duke to an 88-73 victory against Miami, with DeMarcus Nelson scoring 19 of his 21 points after halftime. Greg Paulus also scored 16 points for the Blue Devils (19-1, 7-0 ACC), who have scored at least 50 points in the second halves of three-straight games. This time, they won their ninth straight by scoring on nine of their first 10 possessions of the second half. James Dews scored 15 for Miami (15-6, 3-5), which has lost two straight and five of six, but kept this game tight for most of the first half. After the break, Nelson took over, scoring 10 points during a dominating three-minute stretch early in the half. Nelson's follow-up of Paulus' missed 3-pointer with 17 1/2 minutes left started a 17-6 run that pushed Duke's lead into double figures to stay. Duke held a surprising 41-36 rebounding advantage and overcame a 1-of-10 shooting performance by Gerald Henderson, who averages nearly 14 points. Miami's Jimmy Graham scored 13 points, and Jack McClinton, Brian Asbury and Raymond Hicks each had 10 points for Miami. Nelson led the ACC's best perimeter defense in rebounding McClinton, the league's top three-point shooter. McClinton was 0-for-4 from beyond the arc — just the second time all season he was held without a trey. Overly reliant on the three-point shot against a physically imposing Miami front line, Duke failed to make a field goal from inside the arc until Kyle Singler hit a stickback with 3:45 left. In particular, Nelson had trouble converting, missing all three of his attempts from the field.

GAME 22 — Feb. 6, 2008

FLORIDA STATE	62

BankUnited Center—Coral Gables, Fla.

Toney Douglas scored 28 points to lead Florida State past Miami, 62-55. Jason Rich added 14 points and Uche Echefu scored 10 for the Seminoles (14-10, 3-6 ACC), who used an 11-0 second-half run to take the lead for good. Jack McClinton scored 16 points for Miami (15-7, 2-6), which has dropped seven of its last 10 games. The Hurricanes and Seminoles struggled with early shooting woes. The score was 2-2 during the first 5:35, and Miami didn't manage a field goal until Brian Asbury connected 6:25 after tip-off. But Douglas gave Florida State a spark, scoring 11 points in the final 4:51 of the first half, including his third 3-pointer with one second remaining to give Florida State a 30-25 edge heading into intermission. Douglas also keyed the second-half spurt by the Seminoles, who trailed 37-34 before the 11-0 run that was capped by his fifth 3-pointer with 9:44 remaining. Lance Hurdle's trey with 34.1 seconds left got Miami within 58-55, but the Hurricanes — who shot 31 percent — got no closer. The Seminoles played the second half without guard Isaiah Swann, who left the game with a leg injury.

GAME 23 — Feb. 9, 2008

MIAMI	74
VIRGINIA TECH	71

Cassell Coliseum—Blacksburg, Va.

Jack McClinton scored 15 of his 19 points in the second half and Miami ended a three-game skid with a 74-71 victory at Virginia Tech, the Hurricanes' first road win in the ACC in more than a year. The Hurricanes (16-7, 3-6 ACC) led throughout the second half by dominating the backboards, 35-20, and repelling every attempt by the Hokies to rally with six 3-pointers in the second half and clutch free-throw shooting. Virginia Tech (14-10, 5-5) closed to within 50-47 with 8:40 to play, but McClinton hit a 3-pointer to double the lead. He also sparked a 5-0 run with another trey after the Hokies pulled to 58-53 with 6:16 left, getting the stunned crowd hopeful. Trailing 65-55 with two minutes left, the Hokies scored six straight to whip the crowd up again, but McClinton hit both ends of a one-and-one to stretch it back to six. A.D. Vassallo and Hank Thorns hit threes in the final minute for the Hokies, Thorns' coming with 18 seconds left to make it 70-67, but James Dews was fouled hard with 15.1 seconds left, and Miami sent Eddie Rios in to shoot his two free throws. He made them both, and the Hurricanes held on. It was just the second home loss for the Hokies this season as Duke won there on Jan. 24. The Hurricanes led 28-26 at halftime after outscoring the Hokies 18-10 over the final 11:06. The Hokies had seven turnovers during the run and was dominated on the glass as Miami had a 20-12 rebounding edge in the half, 9-3 on the offensive end.

MIAMI	64
GEORGIA TECH	63

Alexander Memorial Coliseum—Atlanta, Ga.

Jack McClinton sank the go-ahead 3-pointer, his sixth of the game, with 45 seconds left and Miami held on in the final seconds for a 64-63 win over Georgia Tech. McClinton led Miami with 23 points while making six 3-pointers. McClinton's last trey gave Miami a 63-60 lead. He made one of two free throws with 30 seconds left to push the lead to 64-60. Georgia Tech had four misses before Matt Causey, who scored 20 points, hit a three with 1.9 seconds left. Miami (17-7, 4-6 ACC) completed a sweep of the two regular-season games with Georgia Tech (11-13, 4-6). James Dews had 11 points for Miami. McClinton's fifth three-pointer tied the game at 57-57 with 2:16 left, but Anthony Morrow answered with a trey for Georgia Tech. Miami pulled even again at 60-60 on Anthony King's three-point play with 1:27 left. Causey scored eight straight points, including two threes, in the first five minutes to give Georgia Tech a 10-5 lead, but the Yellow Jackets were hurt by 15 turnovers in the half. Miami led 27-26 at the break on McClinton's first 3-pointer.

GAME 25

Feb. 20, 2008

MIAMI	96
NO. 5/4 DUKE	95

BankUnited Center—Coral Gables, Fla.

The Miami Hurricanes beat fifth-ranked Duke, scoring 15 consecutive points to build a big lead early in the second half and holding on to win 96-95. Ranked No. 2 just last week, the Blue Devils (22-3, 10-2 ACC) lost for the second time in four days. "I had a feeling," said Jack McClinton, who scored 22 points for the Hurricanes. "Something inside of me felt good about our team. I just felt something great was going to happen." Miami (18-7, 5-6) made six of eight free throws in the final 41 seconds to preserve the upset. Duke's DeMarcus Nelson sank a layup with two seconds left to make the score 94-92, but McClinton sank two clutch free throws before Nelson hit a meaningless 3-pointer at the buzzer. Dwayne Collins scored a career-high 26 points to help the Hurricanes win their third ACC game in a row and lead Miami over a top-five team for the first time since a victory at No. 2 Connecticut (2/20/99). The Blue Devils had a season-high 23 turnovers and allowed a season-high point total for the second-straight game. They struggled shooting from the perimeter against Miami's zone, and when Duke tried to force the ball inside, the Hurricanes often tipped it away and repeatedly showed more hustle chasing loose balls. Duke struggled from the start, as they committed eight turnovers in the first eight minutes, missed seven shots in a row and fell behind 17-11. Duke twice tied the score later in the half, but the Hurricanes scored on their last four possessions, and Collins' reverse layup in the final seconds put them up 41-36 at halftime.

MARYLAND

BankUnited Center—Coral Gables, Fla.

Anthony King scored 14 points and posted [illegible] Miami won its fourth straight with a 78-63 [illegible] Maryland. James Dews finished with 13 points while [illegible] McClinton, Dwayne Collins and Brian Asbury [illegible] 12 for the Hurricanes (19-7, 6-6). The 19 wins is the [illegible] by a Frank Haith-coached UM squad and the most [illegible] the Hurricanes since finishing 24-8 in 2003-[illegible] McClinton's 3-pointer with 3:03 remaining [illegible] Miami's lead to 66-58 and started a 15-3 run over the [illegible] 2:33. Miami has now defeated Maryland (17-11, 7-5) [illegible] five of their past six meetings, including three straight. After the Hurricanes started the second half 39-36 with five unanswered points in the first 1:57, the Terrapins responded with an 8-0 run and tied it at 44-44. But Jamal Gist, the Terrapins' second-leading scorer who averages 15.8 per game, committed his fourth foul with 13:47 remaining and was forced to sit the next 8:41. Dews hit a jumper and scored on a fast-break layup as Miami scored five unanswered points during a two-minute run that helped Miami retake the lead 53-48 with 11:27 remaining in the second half. King scored six points during a 10-2 Miami run early in the first half. McClinton's jumper with 14:16 remaining capped the spurt, increasing the Hurricanes lead, 15-6. King's short field goal with 6:52 remaining gave the Hurricanes their biggest lead of the half, 33-22.

[illegible]	79
[illegible]ON	69

[illegible] Coliseum—Clemson, S.C.

[illegible]s scored 19 points and Clemson rallied back to [illegible] 79-69, after squandering all of a 21-point [illegible]. The Tigers (20-7, 8-5 ACC) won 20 games for the sec[illegible] straight year and guaranteed themselves a non-losing [illegible]ason for the first time in 11 years. This milestone [illegible]didn't come easily. Clemson was ahead 33-12 in the [illegible] half and still led 43-28 with about 18 minutes left. [illegible] behind leading scorer Jack McClinton, the Hurricanes [illegible] (20-8, 6-7) used a 32-16 surge to get back in it. When [illegible]McClinton swished a 3-pointer with 6:47 remaining, Miami had its first and only lead of the game, 60-59. That's when [illegible]Clemson shook off its funk to regain control. Cliff [illegible]Clemmons' basket on the Tigers next possession put them in front for good. Rivers came back with two foul shots and a 3-pointer that put Clemson ahead 66-60. Miami, which came in with a four-game win streak, could get no closer than four points the last five minutes. McClinton finished with 18 points, all but two in the second half. Dwayne Collins had 11 points and 10 rebounds for Miami, who hoped to reach 20 wins and give itself another solid win on its NCAA resume.

GAME 28

Mar. 1, 2008

MIAMI	95
VIRGINIA	93

BankUnited Center—Coral Gables, Fla.

Jack McClinton scored a career-high 34 points to lead Miami to a 95-93 win over Virginia. The victory gave the Hurricanes (20-8, 7-7 ACC) their 20th win of the season for just the 10th time in school history and their seventh ACC win for the third time in four seasons as league members. McClinton hit a career-high seven 3-pointers in the Miami win — including five in the second half — to tie the UM mark for the third-most 3-pointers in a game. Trailing 91-81 with 1:46 remaining, the Cavaliers ran off nine unanswered points in the next 1:06. Laurynas Mikalauskas' three-point play with 40.6 left reduced Miami's lead 91-90. Lance Hurdle's 3-pointer with 9.2 seconds left put the Hurricanes ahead 94-90. After Sean Singletary's driving layup cut the deficit to 94-92, McClinton converted on one of two free throws with 3.3 left to give the Hurricanes a 95-92 lead. Singletary hit the first of two free throws with 0.9 left, but Miami's Anthony King tipped away his deliberately missed second attempt. Singletary finished with a career-high 44 points for the Cavaliers (13-13, 3-10). McClinton scored 14 straight points for Miami, including three treys, during a 2:27 stretch of the second half. The Hurricanes enjoyed their biggest lead, 72-57, on Jimmy Graham's two free throws with 10:03 left. Graham scored a career-high 19 points. Jamil Tucker scored all 10 of his first-half points in the final 4:04 and Virginia entered the break up 39-35.

GAME 29

Mar. 5, 2008

MIAMI	74
BOSTON COLLEGE	61

BankUnited Center—Coral Gables, Fla.

Miami snapped a 13-game skid to Boston College, overcoming an 11-point deficit in the second half to win 74-61 on Senior Night. Jack McClinton and Lance Hurdle led the rally by the Hurricanes (21-8, 8-7 ACC), who bolstered their chances of making the NCAA tournament. Miami won for the sixth time in seven games, improved to a program-best 14-2 at home this season and earned eight ACC victories for the first time since joining the league in 2004-05. McClinton, the ACC's leading three-point shooter, didn't score for the first 29 minutes, but then made four threes and finished with 21 points. Hurdle scored 19 points, just one point shy of his career high, and shut out Boston College's (13-15, 4-11) dangerous Tyrese Rice during a 20-minute stretch. In the second half, Hurdle sank a trey and converted a pair of three-point plays. Rice, coming off a 46-point game against North Carolina, had 14 of the Eagles' first 16 points, and finished with 22 points. McClinton's first basket — a 3-pointer — came with 10:40 remaining and cut the Eagles' lead to 41-40. He sank another trey to put UM ahead to stay, 48-45. Miami fell behind early, and trailed by their biggest deficit, 31-20, two minutes into the second half. James Dews hit a three and Hurdle's three-point play with nine minutes left gave Miami its first lead since the opening minutes at 45-43. McClinton's final trey put the Hurricanes up 60-53 with 3:47 to go. Hurdle went 4-for-4 from the free-throw line in the final 90 seconds — and 10-for-10 in the game — to clinch the win.

GAME 30

Mar. 8, 2008

FLORIDA STATE 75
MIAMI 72

Donald L. Tucker Center–Tallahassee, Fla. | OVERTIME

Ralph Mims scored 25 points, including the decisive basket of the game, to lead Florida State to a 75-72 win over Miami. Mims slashed down the lane for a layup with 1:49 left that gave the Seminoles a 75-70 lead and Miami's Lance Hurdle hit two free throws 11 seconds later as both teams went scoreless the final 1:38. The game went into overtime tied at 66 after Miami's James Dews watched his 3-point jumper rim out at the buzzer. Florida State's Ryan Reid had tied the game with two free throws with 33 seconds left. Florida State (18-13, 7-9 ACC) overcame an early 19-11 deficit to lead 32-30 at halftime in a contest that featured 17 ties and 13 lead changes. Miami (21-9, 8-8 ACC) was whistled for a season-high tying 31 fouls and Florida State 22 in a wild game that saw the Seminoles shoot 42 free throws and the Hurricanes 24. Jack McClinton led the Hurricanes with 22 points and Brian Asbury added 12. The start of the game was delayed 16 minutes due to a malfunctioning shot clock before officials decided to play without one and the public address announcer letting the players know when 10 seconds remained on the clock. The clock worked properly for much of the second half before failing a final time with about three minutes left in regulation.

MIAMI 63
NC STATE 50

ACC Tournament (First Round)
Charlotte Bobcats Arena–Charlotte, N.C.

James Dews scored 14 points to help Miami beat NC State, 63-50, in the first round of the ACC Tournament. Lance Hurdle added 13 points, six rebounds and five assists for the fifth-seeded Hurricanes (22-9), who advanced to the quarterfinals to face fourth-seeded Virginia Tech as they continue to chase an NCAA Tournament berth. J.J. Hickson had 27 points and 14 rebounds for the 12th-seeded Wolfpack (15-16), who turned in an offensive performance befitting its last-place ACC finish in a miserable season. Picked to finish third in the league, N.C. State shot just 34 percent, including 2-for-15 from 3-point range, and relied entirely on its star freshman to make every play. Miami didn't do all that much offensively, either. The Hurricanes shot 37 percent and 1-for-9 from 3-point range, while first-team all-conference performer Jack McClinton finished with eight points — nine below his season average. Still, the Hurricanes led almost the entire way and pushed the margin to as many as 17 points in the second half. Then, after the Wolfpack managed a meager run to threaten to cut the deficit to single digits, McClinton came up with his two field goals, keeping Miami comfortably in front. While Hickson hit 8-of-14 shots, the rest of the Wolfpack managed a combined 8-for-33 shooting — including a 5-for-22 effort in the first half as Miami took a 24-17 lead at the break. Courtney Fells was the team's second-leading scorer with just six points.

VIRGINIA TECH
MIAMI

ACC Tournament (Quarterfinals)
Charlotte Bobcats Arena–Charlotte, N.C.

A.D. Vassallo and Malcolm Delaney scored 17 apiece and Virginia Tech continued its late-season with a 63-49 win over Miami on Friday in the Tournament. Deron Washington shook off a slow start add 14 points and 12 rebounds for the Hokies (19-12), who earned a date with top-ranked Carolina in Saturday's semifinals. Virginia Tech away in the second half with a smothering against the fifth-seeded Hurricanes (22-10), who they've already locked up a spot in the NCAA field, which beat NC State in Thursday's first-round, more than 7 1/2 minutes without a field goal in Virginia decisive run. Jack McClinton scored 16 points, other player scored in double figures for the Delaney, who was 4 of 5 from 3-point range, buried a with 8:36 left that put Virginia Tech ahead in the sixth final lead change of the second half. He hit another two minutes later, part of an 18-2 spurt that gave Virginia Tech a 59-44 lead. The Hokies held Miami to 32 percent shooting and outrebounded the Hurricanes 51-23. Vassallo and Delaney combined for 17 of Virginia Tech's first 19 points and the Hokies built a 21-13 lead before the Hurricanes' man-to-man defense got them back in it. Virginia Tech took a 27-23 halftime lead despite 10 turnovers and took a 33-27 lead early in the second half. The Hurricanes' strong RPI and a strong finish that includes a win over No. 7 Duke gives them strong credentials to get an NCAA Tournament bid.

ament (First Round)
–North Little Rock, Ark.

kington is now a star in the state of Arkansas — and experience his last name sounds sort of familiar. Instead, dazzled the locals with his quick drives to the and long three-pointers, scoring a career-high 38 seventh-seeded Miami's 78-64 win over 10th-Saint Mary's. And here's a scary thought: McClinton not have been at full strength. "I had a fever a cou- days before the game," he said. "Our trainers got us the meds and I felt pretty good for the game today." looked like it. Miami trailed 32-27 at halftime. In the ond half, the score was McClinton 32, Saint Mary's 32. Avalon scored 10 straight for Miami (23-10) early in the ond half, part of a 25-5 run that gave the Hurricanes a 48 lead. When Saint Mary's (25-7) pulled within eight at 44, McClinton calmly sank an open three. Miami, who was predicted to be the ACC's worst team this season, now 20 record a season ago. The Hurricanes fell behind 9-2 early and both teams struggled with turnovers, but the Clerk pushed their lead back to seven near the end of the half and appeared comfortable. They shouldn't have been. McClinton scored Miami's last four points of the half and was beginning to assert himself. Patty Mills, one of four players on the Saint Mary's roster from Australia, made three shots from long distance in the first half and six for the game to finish with 24 points.

NO. 7/7 TEXAS 75
MIAMI 72

NCAA Tournament (Second Round)
Alltel Arena–North Little Rock, Ark.

After 35 minutes of smooth shooting, poised ball-handling and a quiet crowd of Longhorn-haters in Arkansas, Texas nearly let its entire season slip away. A.J. Abrams made two free throws with 9.5 seconds remaining, giving the second-seeded Longhorns just enough margin to hold off seventh-seeded Miami, 75-72, in the second round of the South Regional. Texas led by as many as 17 and was ahead 66-50 with 4:15 remaining before a dramatic rally by the Hurricanes. Texas (30-6) led 74-69 after Abrams' final free throws, but the Longhorns weren't quite safe yet. Miami's Raymond Hicks made consecutive three-pointers, and D.J. Augustin then shot an air ball on his first of two free throws with 1.8 seconds to play. Augustin made his second free throw at the end, and Miami's long pass was broken up. Abrams scored 26 points on six 3-pointers for the second consecutive game. The Longhorns went 13-of-26 from 3-point range, including 9-for-16 in the first half. They nearly made up for that by going 12-of-21 on free throws. Miami coach Frank Haith was an assistant at Texas for three years under Rick Barnes before taking over the Hurricanes in 2004. He and Barnes shared a hug and chatted briefly near the Miami bench about 15 minutes before the opening tip. Barnes has Texas in the round of 16 for the fifth time in seven years, and the Longhorns have tied the school record for wins set two seasons ago. But it didn't come easy. "Let's give Miami a lot of credit for a lot of heart, a lot of grit, a lot of determination, the way they fought," Barnes said. "I knew that would happen because you all know my relationship with Frank and I know what he's all about and his team." Abrams, who Haith recruited while at Texas, hit a second 3-pointer to give Texas an early 19-8 lead. Texas led by as many as 14 in the first half and was ahead 43-32 at intermission. Abrams scored his team's final eight points of the half. Jack McClinton scored 18 points for Miami, including a 3-pointer late in the second half to cut the lead to 10, then dove to knock a pass off a Texas player out of bounds with 2:22 to play. McClinton sank a couple free throws to make it 68-60, the first time all half Miami was within single digits. He then made two more from the line after drawing a foul driving to the basket. Down six, Miami (23-11) had the ball, but Lance Hurdle tossed up a wild shot and Texas' Connor Atchley ended up with the ball. Still, the Longhorns couldn't put the game away from the free throw line. A three by Texas-native Hicks with 11.9 seconds to play made it 72-69, but Texas was able to get the ball to Abrams, who made all six of his free throw attempts. Miami fell a win short of equaling its school record for a season. The Hurricanes went 12-20 in 2006-07 but bounced back this season, reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament for only the third time.

PROGRAM HISTORY

The 1928-29 MIAMI HURRICANES posted a 13-8 overall record.

It lay silent for 14 years. Collecting dust and going unnoticed, the Miami basketball program was the Rip van Winkle of college basketball from 1971 to 1985. But Hurricane Basketball returned, and in a big way.

Since 1985 the Miami program has undergone such dramatic and frequent changes, it seemed that the Hurricanes were continually entering "a new era." First came the "Era of Miami Basketball," itself. Then came the "Bill Foster Era," followed by the "Tito Horford Era," "The Leonard Hamilton Era," "The BIG EAST Era," and now the "Frank Haith/ACC Era."

With the entry into the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2004, the University of Miami entered the ranks of the most competitive and successful basketball conference in the nation.

The road to conference affiliation in the ACC was not an easy one for those who thirsted for basketball in this continually prospering part of the country. Moreover, the previous path traveled by Miami basketball players, coaches and fans was dotted by flashes of brilliance, color and sometimes disappointment.

Here is a capsule summary of the 79 years of Miami basketball that have intermittently played a part in the history of the athletic program at the University and its neighboring community.

The Hurricanes returned to intercollegiate competition in the 1938-39 season, posting a 4-6 record under head coach HART MORRIS

1920S: MIAMI'S FIRST TIME

The Hurricanes fielded a freshman team in 1926-27, finishing 7-1 ...d Coach Art Webb.

...927-28, the first official varsity basketball team at the University ...mposted an 8-4 mark, knocking off Rollins, 51-15, in the opener.

1930S: A MISSING LINK

...Miami records list no official results from 1932 through 1938. ...ring that period of time, representatives from the school played local ...and church-sponsored teams under Coach Tom McCann.

...The Hurricanes returned to intercollegiate competition in the 1938-...season, posting a 4-6 record under Head Coach Hart Morris.

THE 1940S:WORLD WAR II STOPS PLAY

...Like many other institutions across the nation, Miami dropped inter-...giate basketball during the war years of 1942-1945.

...Morris returned as head coach along with the program in 1946 and ...the UM mentor until 1952 when Dave Wike took over for a two-year ...as the UM coach.

THE 1950S: UM'S GLORY YEARS

...In 1954, the University named Bruce Hale as its head basketball ...ach. The retired Air Force captain and former professional basketball ...yer held the UM head coaching post for 13 seasons, leading the ...ricane program through its glory years of intercollegiate basketball. ...fore the end of Hale's tenure in 1967, the Hurricanes won 220 games ...vhile losing 112 for a .663 winning percentage. Hale's first Miami team ...ished in a 9-11 record, but there were no other losing campaigns in the ...next 12 years. The streak of non-losing seasons extended through the ...1968-69 season — marking 14 consecutive campaigns of .500 basketball ...or better for UM.

...Hale's 1959-60 club was the first UM men's basketball team to ...dvance to the NCAA Tournament and finish the season ranked in the ...Associated Press Top 10. That 1959-60 edition ran its record to 23-3 before ...owing to Western Kentucky, 107-84, in the first round of the tournament.

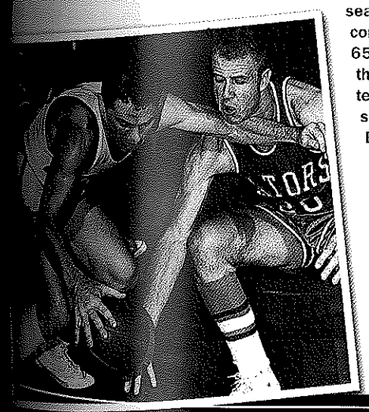

...During that historic '59-60 NCAA Tournament year, junior guard Dick ...Hickox became the first UM basketball player to earn All-America recog-...nition. Hickox averaged 22.1 points per game during that season en route ...to becoming a second-team AP and UPI All-American.

THE 1960S: RICK BARRY'S ALL-AMERICAN YEARS

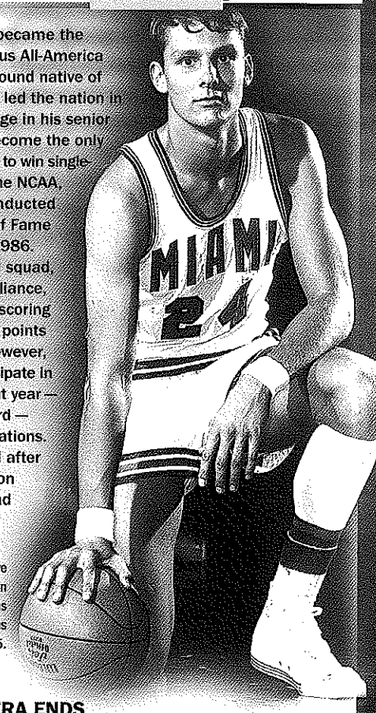

...The Dick Hickox-led Hurricanes of 1960-61 returned to postseason ...play—falling in the first round of the NIT to St. Louis, 58-56. The 1960-61 ...squad compiled a 20-7 record.

...In 1962-63, Miami advanced to the second round of the NIT before ...falling to Providence, 106-96. An opening round NIT victory over St. ...Francis (N.Y.), 71-70, marked the first Miami victory in postseason play.

...From 1962 through 1965, Miami recorded three consecutive 20-win seasons, rolling up a composite record of 65-16. The star of these Hurricane glory teams was a brilliant scorer named Rick Barry.

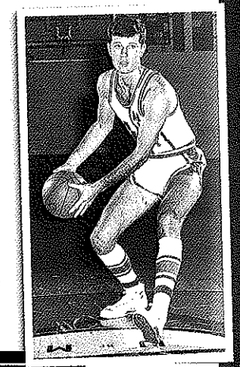

- In 1964-65, Barry became the Hurricanes' only consensus All-America selection. The 6-7, 200-pound native of Roselle Park, New Jersey led the nation in scoring with a 37.4 average in his senior season. He went on to become the only player in basketball history to win single-season scoring titles in the NCAA, ABA and NBA. He was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1986.
- The 1964-65 Miami squad, led by Barry's scoring brilliance, established a new NCAA scoring record by averaging 98.4 points per game. The 'Canes, however, were not allowed to participate in the NCAA Tournament that year — after posting a 22-4 record — because of recruiting violations.
- Bruce Hale resigned after 1966-67 and assistant Ron Godfrey assumed the head coaching responsibilities.

RICK BARRY'S impressive scoring feats still rank supreme in the Miami record book. He was UM's first Consensus All-American in 1965.

THE 1970S: FIRST ERA ENDS

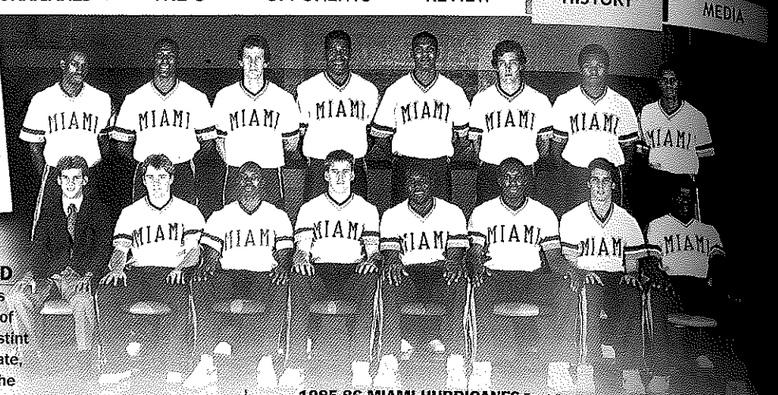

- Don Curnutt closed out his Miami basketball career in 1970 as the Hurricanes' third player to receive All-America recognition.
- February 27, 1971 — The last victory by a University of Miami men's basketball team for 14 years came in the second-to-last game of the season, a 100-94 triumph against Florida State at home in the Dinner Key Auditorium. The 'Canes shot a season-high 62.5 percent from the floor and all five Miami starters scored in double figures.
- March 1, 1971 — After posting a four-year record of 47-56 at Miami, Ron Godfrey resigned his post as head basketball coach, effective following Miami's final game of the season against nationally-ranked Jacksonville.
- March 2, 1971 — The last game played by a University of Miami men's team until 1985 took place at the Dinner Key Auditorium where one of the largest UM home crowds in years turned out to see the Hurricanes host nationally-ranked Jacksonville. The Dolphins handed Miami a 94-75 loss that remained as UM's last contest for the next 14 years.
- April 22, 1971 — The University of Miami Board of Trustees voted to drop the sport "temporarily until such time as a permanent field house can be constructed on the main campus." Sagging attendance figures and serious financial losses were also believed to contribute to the discontinuation of basketball at UM.

A second-team All-American, DON CURNUTT saw his collegiate career come to an end in 1970, while the first era of Miami basketball came to a close just one year later.

DICK HICKOX was UM's first All-American in 1960. He led the Hurricanes to a 23-3 record, their first NCAA Tournament and their first final regular-season Associated Press Top 10 ranking.

1983: UM COMMITS TO REBUILD

• July 15, 1983 — Sam Jankovich was named athletic director at the University of Miami. Coming to UM after a successful stint as the athletic director at Washington State, Jankovich immediately announced that the resurrection of men's basketball at Miami would be his primary priority in the early months of his tenure, enabling UM to have "one of the nation's most complete and visible overall programs in the country."

• October 12, 1983 — The University of Miami Board of Trustees unanimously voted to reinstate men's basketball at the University of Miami. The Board made the decision after reviewing a report submitted by newly hired Athletic Director Sam Jankovich, which stated that men's basketball can be a revenue-producing venture. Moreover, nearly $500,000 had already been raised in support of bringing basketball back to the University. It was also announced that the Hurricanes would be ready to compete on the Division I level in the 1985-86 season, and the downtown James L. Knight Center was home for the reborn program.

"This is an exciting day for the University and for the athletic program," UM President Edward T. Foote II said. "And we are keeping in mind the priorities of academics first and athletics second ... we are pleased that the changes in the economics of intercollegiate basketball allow the University to resurrect one of the country's most popular sports. We look forward to welcoming these Hurricanes home again."

1984: FOSTER HIRED AS COACH

• March 21, 1984 — Bill Foster, a 47-year-old native of Hemingway, S.C., was named the seventh men's basketball coach at the University of Miami. Foster came to Miami after 19 years as a head coach at Shorter College, Charlotte and Clemson. Foster also announced that Clint Bryant, a long-time assistant at Clemson, would also join the Miami staff.

• April 9, 1984 — Foster announced the hiring of a second assistant coach, Seth Greenberg, who was serving as an assistant coach to Terry Holland at Virginia.

• April 16, 1984 — Tim Harvey, a 6-10, 240-pound center, became the first basketball player to commit to the University of Miami in over 14 years. The Plainfield, N.J., native announced that he would transfer to Miami after spending two seasons in the Georgia Tech program.

• July 1, 1984 — A third assistant coach was hired to complete the basketball staff. Miami native Cesar Odio returned home after serving as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Florida Southern.

• October 11, 1984 — Nearly one full year after the announcement that basketball would return to the University, Athletic Director Sam Jankovich announced that a million dollar-plus practice facility would be constructed on the Coral Gables campus. The new all purpose structure — located between the Hecht Athletic Center and the Greentree Track would be funded through a gift from the James L. Knight Charitable Trust.

• The first phase of the 1985-86 basketball schedule was also announced on this day, and the line-up included such perennial powers as North Carolina, Georgia, Notre Dame, Marquette and Dayton.

• October 15, 1984 — The first men's basketball practice session more than 12 years was held on the patio in the center of campus. More than 200 members of the student body participated.

1985: WITH EVERYTHING IN PLACE, MIAMI TIPS OFF AGAIN

• April 25, 1985 — Foster announced that UM's 1985-86 basketball roster would include nine freshmen, one sophomore and one junior as the spring signing period ends for NCAA basketball.

• August 16, 1985 — Athletic Director Sam Jankovich announced that the 1985-86 basketball schedule had been completed and that network television coverage of the Hurricane program would include two games on CBS (Arizona) and ESPN (Notre Dame).

• Jankovich also announced the completion of a local television schedule (on WBFS-Channel 33) that would bring all nine UM road games back to Miami by way of live local broadcasts. Channel 33 would also carry select home games in the Knight Center.

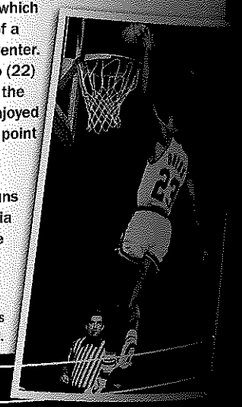

• WIOD Radio, the radio voice of UM football and baseball would also carry all Hurricane basketball games with veteran Hurricane announcer Sonny Hirsch at the microphone.

• October 15, 1985 — Basketball practice officially begins at the University of Miami in the Knight Sports Complex.

• November 12, 1985 — The Knight Sports Complex was dedicated at a gala banquet that was held on the basketball courts of the new structure. CBS basketball analyst Billy Packer served as the evening's guest speaker for an event which welcomed more than 500 guests to the on-campus home of Hurricane basketball. The facility served as the practice home to the men's and women's basketball programs, while also housing the men's basketball coaching staff offices. In addition, the Knight Sports Complex enabled the athletic program to more than double the size of the existing strength room, while also providing meeting rooms and lecture rooms for all of Miami's student-athletes.

• November 22, 1985 — The brand new era of Hurricane basketball was ushered in by a young UM squad which defeated The Citadel, 85-77, in front of a sellout crowd of 4,984 at the Knight Center. Dennis Burns (24 points), Kevin Presto (22) and Eric Brown (21) combined to lead the Miami offense, while Bryan Hughes enjoyed the distinction of scoring Miami's first point in 14 years (a free throw with 18:34 remaining in the first half).

• November 30, 1985 — Miami stuns 1985 NCAA Tourney participant Georgia with a thrilling 81-78 victory to capture the first AMI Classic Championship at the James L. Knight Center.

DENNIS BURNS thrilled fans on opening night with five dunks en route to 24 points in UM's 85-77 win over The Citadel.

OF THE 1980S: MOVES FORWARD, UPSETS TOP 20 TEAMS

March 5, 1986 — An 84-62 loss to Marquette in Milwaukee closed Hurricanes' first season since 1970-71. Miami finished the year with a 14 record, giving Bill Foster his 19th non-losing record in 20 years as a ollegiate head coach.

The 1986-87 season — Though still considered "America's Youngest am," Miami compiled a 15-16 slate — recording upset victories against Marquette, Stanford and Florida State, while losing by only four points to future BIG EAST foe Providence — a team that advanced to the NCAA inal Four.

The 1987-88 season — Thrilling victories against Providence and Virginia Commonwealth propelled the 'Canes to continued improvement with a 17-14 record. Following the season, center Tito Horford announced his intention to enter the NBA Draft without completing his final two seasons of eligibility. Miami was left with anything but a depleted roster as 10 lettermen, including eight seniors, returned for UM's fourth season.

April 12, 1988 — Athletic Director Sam Jankovich announces plans to move Hurricane Basketball to the new $56 million Miami Arena. Also home to the NBA's Miami Heat, the state-of-the-art basketball facility signified a new era in the rise of basketball in South Florida.

December 10, 1988 — A crowd of 6,654 watch the Hurricanes run neck-and-neck for 40 minutes with ACC powerhouse Duke. Blue Devil Danny Ferry needs a superhuman performance to stop the 'Canes as he connects on 23 of 26 shots en route to 58 points. Ferry later calls Miami "a definite Top 40 team."

January 12, 1989 — Joel Warren's free throw, his only point of the evening, with two seconds remaining clinches Miami's first victory over a Top 20 team as the 'Canes upset defending national champion and No. 16-ranked Kansas, 87-86, at the Miami Arena.

March 6, 1989 — The Hurricanes post an 89-82 win against FIU in the first annual Carnival Miami Cup. The win leaves Miami with a 19-12 slate, good enough for the best record in 24 years and 10 seasons at Miami. Eric Brown ends his brilliant Miami career with 2,270 career points, just 28 behind of All-America Rick Barry's Hurricane record of 2,298.

December 6, 1989 — Miami hands an 87-82 loss to eventual NCAA tournament participant Dayton as a Hurricane squad that includes six freshmen and no seniors jumps out with three consecutive wins to start the season.

1990: HAMILTON HIRED, UM JOINS THE BIG EAST

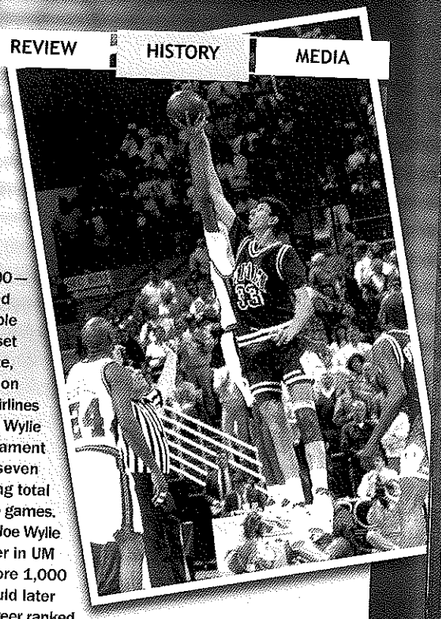

January 18, 1990 — Nearly 5,000 fans turn out to watch one of the most exciting Hurricane games ever as Miami edges Florida State in double overtime, 101-97.

February 19, 1990 — Miami storms back to post a 62-59 victory against Florida, ending the Gators 11-game win streak against the 'Canes that began during the 1964-65 season.

March 6, 1990 — The Hurricanes send Head Coach Bill Foster out on a winning note as one of the most successful and respected collegiate coaches in the nation leaves Miami following an 83-55 win against FIU. Foster's six-year rebuilding record at Miami stands at 78-71 (.523), while his overall career mark stood at 431-247 (.636) in 24 seasons.

April 2, 1990 — UM Athletic Director Sam Jankovich ends a national search for a new coach that spanned an entire season with the hiring of Leonard Hamilton from Oklahoma State. "After meeting with Leonard Hamilton for just five minutes," said Jankovich, "with that smile and that enthusiasm, there was no question who I wanted as coach of the University of Miami."

October 10, 1990 — On the combined recommendation of President Edward T. Foote and Athletic Director Sam Jankovich, the University's Board of Trustees unanimously votes to accept an invitation to become the 12th member of the BIG EAST Conference. The Hurricane Basketball program will begin BIG EAST play in the 1991-92 season.

CONSTANTIN POPA takes the opening tip as Miami officially enters the Big East with a game versus UConn at Gampel Pavillion on January 2, 1992.

• December 28, 1990 — The Hurricanes rebound from back-to-back double overtime defeats to upset No. 28 Mississippi State, 74-67, in the consolation contest of the Eastern Airlines Palm Beach Classic. Joe Wylie is voted to the all-tournament squad after breaking seven tourney records including total points with 60 in the two games.

• January 3, 1991 — Joe Wylie becomes the 17th player in UM basketball history to score 1,000 career points. Wylie would later go on to finish his UM career ranked No. 8 for both scoring and rebounding in the UM record books.

• March 6, 1991 — Leonard Hamilton's inaugural season ends with a 9-19 record. However, there were large doses of success throughout the year as the 'Canes were victorious in six of their final nine contests and finished ranked No. 128 in the USA Today computer rankings — Miami's highest finish since the rebirth of the program (including 1988-89 when the 'Canes produced a 19-12 record).

• April 10, 1991 — Leonard Hamilton's first recruiting class is completed with the signing of Ochiel Swaby of Miami, the nation's leading high school scorer with 47.1 points per game. Along with Hamilton's three signees in the Fall of 1990 — Michael Gardner of Fredericksburg, Va., Pat Lawrence of St. Petersburg and 7'3" Constantin Popa of Bucharest, Romania — the freshmen class for the 1991-92 season was ranked in the Top 25.

• January 2, 1992 — Miami tips off in its inaugural BIG EAST contest at UConn's Gampel Pavilion. It is a baptism by fire for the young Hurricanes as the game at UConn is the first of four consecutive conference games in 10 days for Miami.

• January 14, 1992 — In the first home conference game in UM history, the Hurricanes shock the nation with a stunning 45-42 upset of perennial BIG EAST power St. John's. The UM victory would ultimately cost the Redmen the outright conference championship as they completed the regular season in a tie with Georgetown and Seton Hall.

• March 12, 1992 — Miami turns the Big Apple upside down with a convincing 83-71 victory against Pittsburgh in the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden. The Panthers had beaten Miami in the two regular-season contests by a total of 52 points, but Jerome Scott (30 points) and Trevor Burton (25 points) led a spirited Miami squad past Pitt and into the second round of the conference showcase. Earning the respect of the league and nation, Miami led Georgetown, 34-33, at the half of their quarterfinal contest before dropping a 77-64 decision to the Hoyas. The 1-1 performance in New York ended the Hurricanes' 1991-92 campaign at 8-24. For his individual performance, Jerome Scott is honored as a member of the BIG EAST All-Tournament Team.

• April 28, 1992 — Head Coach Leonard Hamilton takes another giant step in the development of Miami basketball with the completion of his second recruiting class. Six prep standouts, including Steven Edwards of Miami Senior High School, make up the new Hurricane class which is ranked No. 4 in the nation.

• January 2, 1993 — For the second consecutive season, Miami opens its home BIG EAST schedule with a victory as the Hurricanes upset No. 10 Georgetown, 80-69. The resounding victory marks the highest-ranked team the 'Canes have defeated since the rebirth of the program.

• March 6, 1993 — Miami finishes the regular-season campaign with a thrilling 77-76 win over Villanova at Miami Arena. The victory gives Miami a 7-2 record in home BIG EAST games and an increase of six victories over the Hurricanes' first season in conference play (1-17 to 7-11) to mark the third-largest jump in the win column in BIG EAST history.

1995: UM ENJOYS A BANNER YEAR

• January 11, 1995 — Once again, St. John's is the victim as the Hurricanes enjoy a BIG EAST first. Miami stuns the Red Storm, 82-79, in a nationally televised game on ESPN to record its first BIG EAST road victory. Freshman Kevin Norris led the way with a 21-point, eight-rebound performance which earned him BIG EAST Rookie of the Week honors.

• February 4, 1995 — The Hurricanes prove they are one of the most improved teams in the nation with an impressive 67-61 win against 13th-ranked Georgetown in Miami Arena. The victory is Miami's first against a nationally-ranked opponent since an 82-77 win over 25th-ranked St. John's in February of 1993.

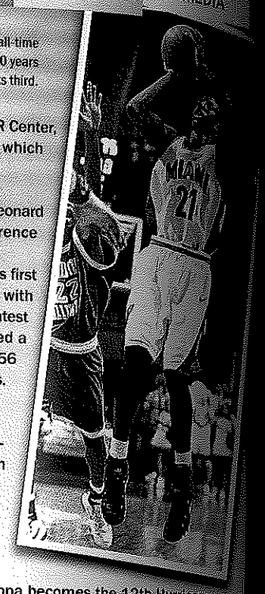

• February 11, 1995 — Steven Edwards buries a three-point field goal, the 171st trey of his career, just 39 seconds into the second half against Providence to become UM's all-time leader in three-point field goals made. UM defeats the Friars, 69-63, to earn its first BIG EAST Conference regular-season series sweep and in the process present Coach Leonard Hamilton his 100th career victory.

• February 25, 1995 — UM comes back from five points down in the final minute to force overtime before eventually defeating Boston College, 77-71, at Conte Forum. The victory is UM's first BIG EAST overtime win.

• February 28, 1995 — For the second consecutive game, the Hurricanes overcome a five-point deficit in the final minute of regulation and record an overtime victory. The 76-68 win over Pittsburgh is the Hurricanes' ninth league victory of the season and assures them of their first .500 league season and puts UM over the .500 mark (9-8) for the first time in BIG EAST play. The win also assures Miami of at least a .500 overall season for the first time since the 1988-89 campaign.

• March 4, 1995 — A record UM crowd of 11,263 pours into Miami Arena to watch the Hurricanes take on fourth-ranked Connecticut in the regular-season finale. In the contest, Steven Edwards becomes the 20th player in UM history to top the 1,000-point plateau. Miami, which lost a tough 75-67 decision, finished the season with a 9-9 record in BIG EAST play, establishing a new conference record for single-season improvement. Miami's nine-win conference increase tied Louisiana Tech for the best conference improvement in the nation. Miami made a habit out of winning close games in 1995. The Hurricanes went 9-1 in 1995 in BIG EAST games decided by six points or less or in overtime.

• March 6, 1995 — UM President Edward T. Foote II and Ryder System, Inc. Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer M. Anthony Burns announce that Ryder System, Inc. has committed approximately $9 million to the development of The RYDER Center, an on-campus multipurpose facility which will serve as the future home of UM basketball.

STEVEN EDWARDS was Miami's all-time leader in three-point field goals for 10 years and currently ranks third.

• March 9, 1995 — Head Coach Leonard Hamilton is named BIG EAST Conference Coach of the Year.

• March 15, 1995 — UM makes its first postseason appearance in 31 years with a National Invitation Tournament contest at Penn State. The Nittany Lions need a big second half rally to record a 62-56 victory and eliminate the Hurricanes.

• March 21, 1995 — Leonard Hamilton earns his second coach of the year honor as United Press International tabs Hamilton National Coach of the Year.

• March 27, 1995 — Leonard Hamilton is rewarded for rebuilding the Hurricane program and is given a new four-year contract.

• June 28, 1995 — Constantin Popa becomes the 12th Hurricane to be chosen in the NBA Draft as the Los Angeles Clippers select him in the second round with the 53rd overall pick.

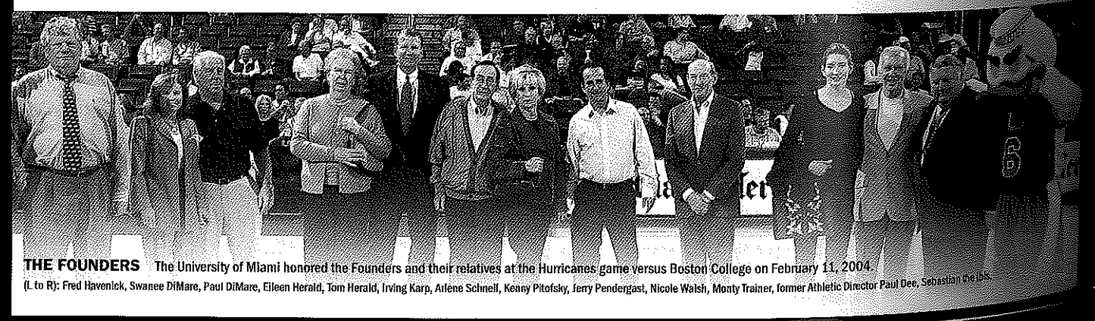

THE MID 90S: UM MOVES FORWARD

• January 3, 1996 — The Hurricanes opened the New Year in style cruising to a 75-66 victory in Miami Arena against 11th-ranked Syracuse, the eventual NCAA Tournament runner-up. The 'Canes set a school BIG EAST record by connecting on 71.4 percent (20-28) of their field goal attempts in the second half. UM also set a school BIG EAST record for points in a half with 50 second-half points.

THANK YOU, FOUNDERS!

With deep appreciation, the University honors UM's Basketball Founders whose donations of $50,000 or more over four years helped provide the resources necessary to reinstate Hurricane Basketball after a 14-year absence. On October 12, 1983, the Board of Trustees unanimously voted to renew the sport at the University of Miami. Hurricane Hoops returned to action on November 12, 1985.

RETIRED JERSEYS

NO. 24 RICK BARRY

The first basketball jersey to be retired at the University of Miami was number 24 in honor of Rick Barry, the Hurricanes' all-time leading scorer. Barry, UM's lone consensus First Team All-American, led the Hurricanes to a 65-16 record and a pair of postseason berths in his three years. Barry, who finished his UM career with 2,298 points and 1,274 rebounds, is the only Hurricane to top both the 2,000-point and the 1,000-rebound barrier. He still owns five UM career records and numerous single-season records. Barry was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. in 1986. He is the only player in basketball history to win single-season scoring titles in the NCAA, NBA and ABA.

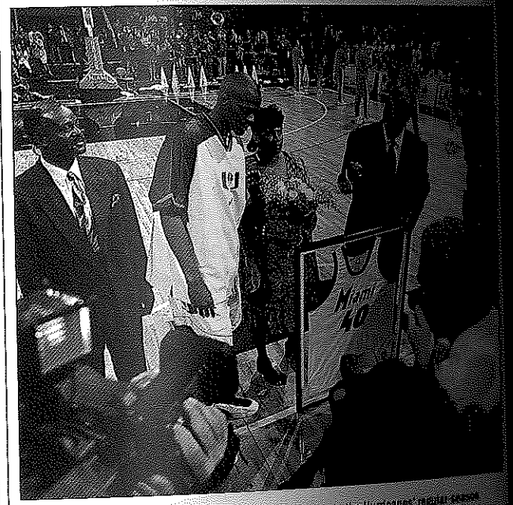

RICK BARRY was named one of the 50 Greatest Players in NBA History in 1996.

NO. 40 TIM JAMES

On February 27, 1999, Tim James became just the [illegible] have his number retired. During his four seasons at UM, [illegible] itive influence both on and off the court. A Miami native, Jame[illegible] active in the community, working with the "Join a Team, Not a G[illegible] gram and speaking to local youth groups on the importance of [illegible] school and saying no to drugs.

James, the only player to record over 1,500 career points, 500 [illegible] rebounds and 200 career blocked shots, helped lead the Hurricanes [illegible] the national spotlight. During his four seasons, Miami registered a [illegible] (.624) record, four consecutive winning seasons and three consecu[illegible] postseason appearances, including the school's first NCAA Tournament [illegible] since 1960. The 6-7 forward ended his UM career ranked fourth on [illegible] career scoring list (1,713 points), fifth on the career rebounding [illegible] rebounds) and second on the career blocked shots list (224 blocks).

James, a two-time First Team All-BIG EAST selection, was named [illegible] Team All-America by both the Associated Press and National Associa[illegible] of Basketball Coaches as a senior, as well as BIG EAST Co-Player of [illegible] Year in 1999.

TIM JAMES had his jersey retired in a ceremony prior to the Hurricanes' regular-season finale versus Rutgers on February 27, 1999.

MIAMI SPORTS MEDIA RELATIONS

The University of Miami Sports Media Relations Office coordinates all of the media relations activities of each of UM's 18 varsity sports.

MARGARET BELCH

Assistant Sports Information Director
mbelch@miami.edu | (305) 284-3241

Men's Basketball | Men's Tennis

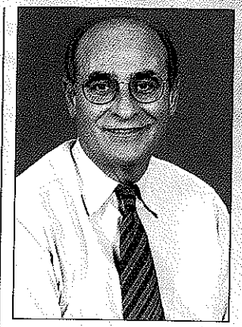

Margaret Belch enters her third year as an Assistant Sports Information Director for the University of Miami and coordinates all media relations activities for the men's basketball and men's tennis programs.

Prior to joining UM's staff, she spent three years as an athletic media relations coordinator at Florida International University, handling all public relations for the men's soccer, women's basketball and men's & women's track & field programs. Additionally, she oversaw the production of the department's media guides and supervised all athletic media relations student assistants.

After graduating with honors from the University of Miami in 1998 with a dual degree in public relations and psychology, Belch served as an assistant sports information director and director of publications for George Mason University in her hometown of Fairfax, Va. She has also worked as the official statistician for the NCAA Women's Volleyball Final Four and was the media coordinator for the inaugural NCAA East Regional Track & Field Championships in 2003.

Belch initially worked with Miami's sports media staff as a student intern during the 1997-98 academic year.

An active member of CoSIDA (College Sports Information Directors of America), Belch has been a member of the publications contest committee for four years and is in her second year serving as a vice chair.

MARK PRAY

Assistant Athletic Director
for Communications
mpray@miami.edu | (305) 284-3244

Mark Pray is in his eighth year as Assistant Athletic Director for Communications at the University of Miami. Pray oversees the athletic department's sports media relations efforts, as well as serving as the primary liaison with the department's broadcasting partners.

Pray came to Miami in 2001, after serving four years as the Director of Media Relations for the WNBA and most recently as Director of Communications Projects for the NBA. In 1988, Pray was named the first Director of Media Relations for the Miami Heat—a position he held until being promoted to Vice President for Communications in 1995. In his capacity as V.P. for Communications, Pray oversaw the Heat's media & community relations and broadcasting departments.

Pray earned an undergraduate degree in journalism from Kansas State and a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University.

HURRICANE SPORTS NETWORK

The University of Miami has teamed with Sports Talk Radio, WQAM (560 AM) to form the Hurricane Sports Network.

Miami's radio broadcast team is headed by the "Voice of the Hurricanes" Joe Zagacki. Zagacki, who returned in 1999 for his second stint as a member of the Hurricanes' broadcast team, enters his sixth season as the play-by-play voice. Prior to taking over the play-by-play duties, Zagacki served as analyst for Hurricane games from 1999-2002.

Zagacki brings a wealth of experience to the Hurricanes broadcasts, having been part of the South Florida market for 24 years and at WQAM for the past 13 years. Zagacki also handles play-by-play duties for Miami football and baseball games.

The second member of the Hurricanes' broadcast team is Josh Darrow who enters his seventh season as color analyst. Darrow has been with WQAM since 1995 and currently serves as the program director.

Rounding out the broadcast team is Brian London who serves as studio host for men's basketball. In addition, the 1998 University of Miami graduate also serves as sideline reporter at UM football games and does play-by-play for Miami baseball games.

SPANISH RADIO

Several University of Miami men's basketball games will be broadcast in Spanish during the season. Spanish listeners can hear games through the Hurricane Sports Network on WRHC (1550 AM). Roly Martin will handle play-by-play duties and Joe Martinez will provide color analysis.

STUDENT RADIO

WVUM (90.5 FM), the University of Miami student radio station which can be heard throughout Miami-Dade County, will also carry many of the home basketball games this season.

HURRICANE HOTLINE

WQAM will also serve as the home for Hurricane Hotline, a two-hour call-in radio show broadcast every week during the season featuring Coach Frank Haith and his guests. Joe Zagacki will serve as the host of the program.

HURRICANE GAMEDAY WITH FRANK HAITH

Comcast Sports South (CSS) will carry Hurricane Gameday with Frank Haith, a weekly half-hour show that airs from late December through March. Joe Zagacki will serve as host of the show, featuring Miami head coach Frank Haith, highlights of the previous week, a preview of the upcoming week and player interviews, as well as other stories regarding Miami basketball.

COVERING THE 'CANES

MEDIA POLICIES

University of Miami head men's basketball coach Frank Haith and players are available for interviews with accredited members of the media throughout the season. All interview requests should be made at least one day in advance and must be made through Miami's Sports Media Relations Office and Assistant Sports Information Director Margaret Belch (mbelch@miami.edu/(305) 284-3241). No player and/or coach interviews will be granted on gamedays until the conclusion of the event.

COVERING PRACTICE

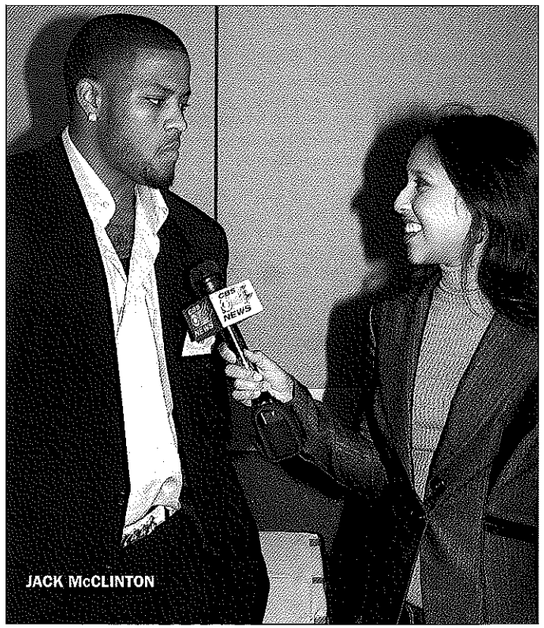

All practices are closed. Under certain circumstances, accredited media will be permitted to attend practice for a specified period of time, however this must be approved and scheduled through Miami's Sports Media Relations Office and Assistant Sports Information Director Margaret Belch (mbelch@miami.edu/(305) 284-3241).

HURRICANESPORTS.COM

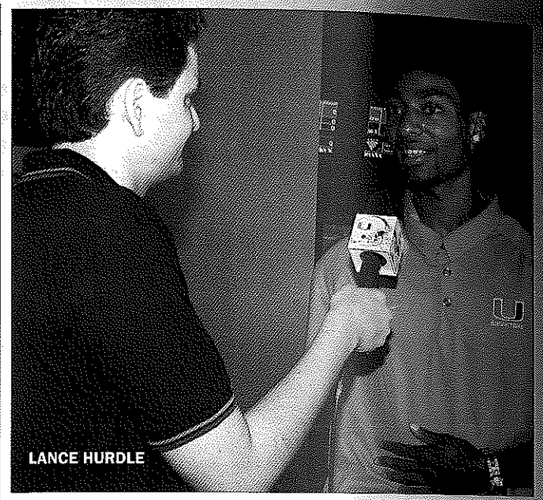

Hurricanesports.com is the official website for up-to-date information about all University of Miami athletic teams. A member of CBS College Sports, Hurricanesports.com includes All-Access audio and video clips, photo galleries and Game Tracker (live statistics), as well as updated schedules, profiles and statistics. Game notes will also be available online prior to each Miami men's basketball game.

PRESS RELEASES

The University of Miami Sports Media Relations Office regularly sends out updated press releases regarding the UM men's basketball program via e-mail. Accredited members of the media may be added to the distribution list by contacting Assistant Sports Information Director Margaret Belch (mbelch@miami.edu/(305) 284-3241).

JACK McCLINTON

LANCE HURDLE

GAMEDAY SERVICES

The University of Miami Sports Media Relations Office will provide game notes, current statistics and game programs prior to the start of each men's basketball game in the media workroom on the southwest side of the BankUnited Center. First-half statistics and play-by-play analysis will be disseminated during halftime, and final statistics and complete play-by-play analysis will be distributed following the conclusion of the game.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCE

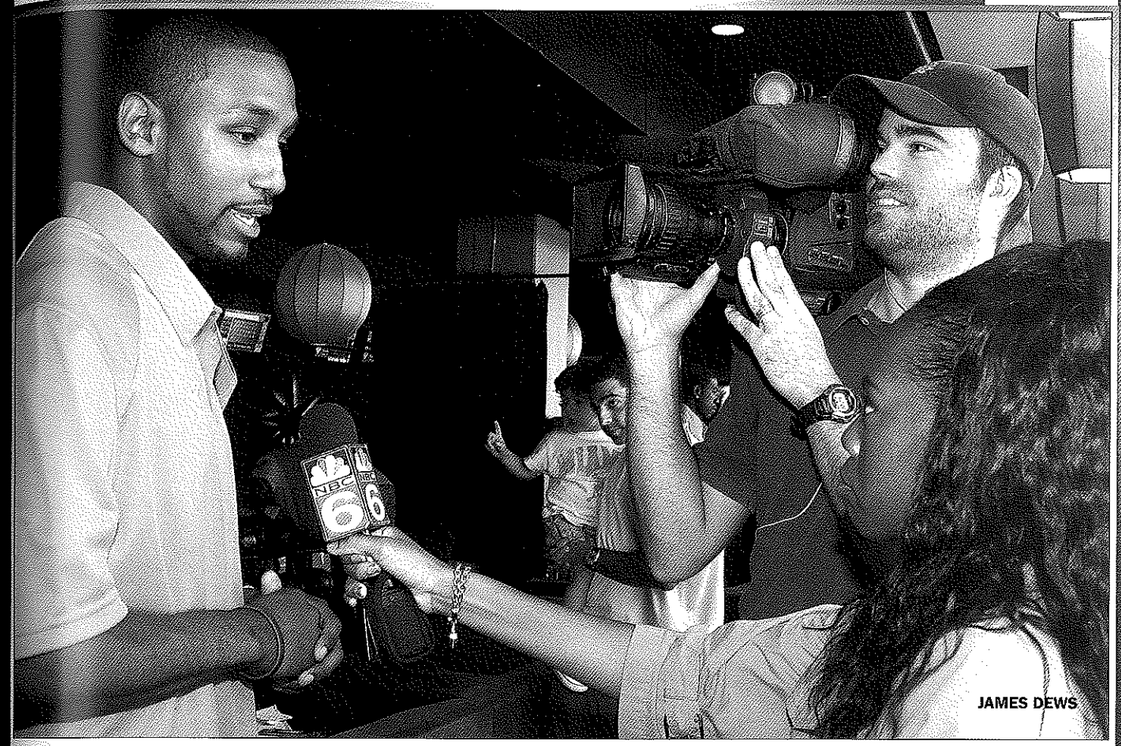

Head coach Frank Haith and select players will be available for post-game interviews near the media workroom following a brief "cooling off" period after the conclusion of each home game. Coaches and players from opposing teams will be available for post-game interviews as well. Please coordinate any post-game needs and interview requests with University of Miami Sports Media Relations personnel. Miami's locker room is closed to media at all times.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for all UM men's basketball games are approved for working media only. Requests should be made at least one week in advance and directed to Assistant Sports Information Director Margaret Belch (mbelch@miami.edu/(305) 284-3241). The University of Miami Sports Media Relations Office reserves the right to refuse any credential request due to space limitations or those deemed not to be in the best interest of the University.

PARKING

Media parking for all home games is available free of charge on the FIFTH FLOOR of the Ponce de Leon Parking Garage located on the corner of Dickinson Drive and Ponce de Leon Boulevard.

JAMES DEWS

MEDIA ACCOMMODATIONS

Media for all home games will be seated behind the basket in the southwest section of the BankUnited Center. Meals will be provided prior to tip-off. The media workroom will be open prior to the start of each game, at halftime and following the conclusion of the game. Six complimentary phone lines are available for media use in the workroom, however they are provided on a first-come, first-served basis. To order your own reserved phone line, contact Valeria Henderson with Global Spectrum at (305) 284-8244. Wireless access is also available throughout the BankUnited Center.

RADIO INFORMATION

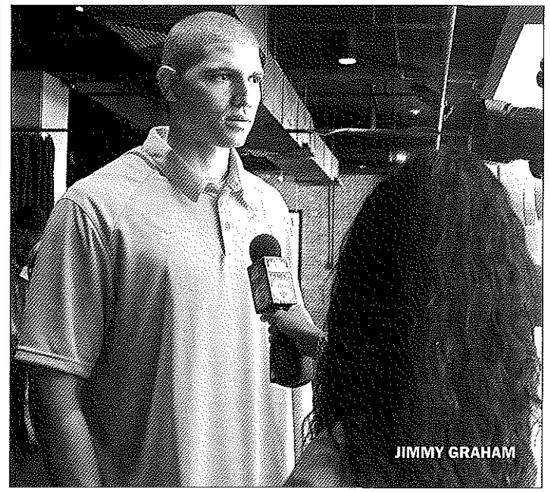

Seating for radio broadcasts is available alongside the court at the BankUnited Center. One complimentary phone line will be provided for all visiting radio networks, generally on press row next to the visiting team's bench. All additional phone lines must be ordered in advance through Valeria Henderson with Global Spectrum at (305) 284-8244.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

NCAA rules limit the shooting access areas to behind the baselines only and require that all photographers and camera operators remain seated. There is a dotted line on the court indicating where media must stay behind for the safety of the media, student-athletes and officials. No photographers/videographers will be permitted to shoot along the sideline or bench areas.

ACC SELECT

The ACC also offers webcasts of select games available online at www.ACCSelect.com. Produced by a division of Turner Sports, ACC Select is a broadband service that delivers live and on-demand webcasts of sporting events. Games are offered via a single-event pass or fans can purchase a monthly all-event pass or annual all-event pass for extended viewing.
