FAMILY TIES

- Quinnipiac head coach Baker Dunleavy's father, Mike, enjoyed a long NBA coaching career, including stops with the Milwaukee Bucks and Los Angeles Lakers. Baker's older brother, Mike Jr., had a 16-year NBA career (most recently with the Atlanta Hawks) after winning a national title in college with Duke in 2001.
- Mike Jr. was recently hired as a pro scout for the Golden State Warriors, while Mike Sr. served as Head Coach at Tulane from 2016-19.

BUILDING A WINNING STAFF

 After being hired as the Quinnipiac head coach in March of 2017, Baker Dunleavy quickly assembled a very successful coaching staff.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH TOM PECORA

- Associate Head Coach Tom Pecora, an assistant to Jay Wright at Hofstra (before taking over the head coaching duties when Wright left for Villanova) served as the head coach at Hofstra for nine years (2001-2010) and at Fordham for five seasons (2010-15).
- · Pecora was a part of seven 20-win seasons with Hofstra (four as a head coach, three as an assistant). He had two 26-win teams (one as a head coach, one as an assistant) at Hofstra - the program's highest win total at the Division I level. As a head coach at Hofstra, Pecora compiled a 155-126 mark in nine seasons, leading the Pride to four postseason appearances (three NIT and one CBI) - the most for any New York City team over that nine-year span. Pecora also had tremendous success in developing guards while at Hofstra. As an assistant he recruited NBA guards Speedy Claxton and Norman Richardson, while as a head coach he recruited three guards who scored over 2,000 career points: Loren Stokes, Antoine Agudio and Charles Jenkins. Claxton, Richardson, Stokes and Jenkins all won their conference Player of the Year Awards, while Jenkins also played in the NBA for the Golden State Warriors and Philadelphia 76ers.
- Pecora took over as Head Coach at Fordham prior to the 2010-11 season, joining a program that was at the basement of the A10 (2-29, 0-16 A10) just a year prior. During his tenure at Rose Hill, Pecora recruited Jon Severe a Parade All-American and the 2013 New York City and New York State Player of the Year from Christ the King High School in Queens. He also brought in Eric Pascall (later transferred to Villanova) and Joseph Chartouny (later transferred to Marquette), laying the ground work for the program's first winning season in 2015-16.

THE REST OF THE STAFF

- · Shaun Morris, who was an associate head coach at Boston University for Joe Jones (another of Jay Wright's former assistants at Villanova), helped the Terriers to their winningest season ever (24) in 2013-14. During his time with the Terriers, Morris helped guide his teams to three postseason berths, the 2016 CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT), the 2014 National Invitation Tournament (NIT) and the 2013 CIT. In 2013-14, Morris helped the Terriers earn their first regular season league championship, capturing their first conference regular season title in 10 years, while finishing with 24 wins, the second-highest total in program history. Prior to joining the staff at Boston University, Morris spent the previous two years at Division III powerhouse Williams College in Williamstown, Mass., where he was an assistant for former Marist head coach Mike Maker. The Ephs reached the NCAA Division III Final Four both years, including a runner-up finish in 2010.
- Dwayne Lee officially joined the Bobcats' staff as an assistant coach in July of 2019. Most recently, Lee spent two seasons as an assistant on Mark Schmidt's staff at St. Bonaventure (2017-18, 2018-19). In his first season at SBU, he helped the Bonnies to a program-record 26 wins as well as an NCAA Tournament victory in the First Four over UCLA in 2017-18. Lee and the Bonnies then went 18-16 in 2018-19 (12-6 A10), advancing to the conference championship game at the Barclay's Center vs. Saint Louis. From Feb. 6 to March 16, the program won 10 of 12 games en route to claiming the No. 4 seed in the ACC Tournament.

Prior to joining the St. Bonaventure staff, Lee served as an assistant coach at Fairleigh Dickinson for four seasons. A graduate of famed St. Anthony's (N.J.) and Saint Joseph's University, Lee has roots in the Atlantic 10 Conference and throughout the northeast.

• Director of Operations Ryan Harkins is reunited with Head Coach Baker Dunleavy at Quinnipiac, after spending two years (2014-15, 2015-16) as a graduate assistant and video coordinator at Villanova while Dunleavy was the program's associate head coach. Harkins was on the staff for Villanova's 2016 national championship, when the Wildcats defeated North Carolina at the buzzer 77-74.

YOUNG SIGNS PROFESSIONAL DEAL IN ITALY

- Cameron Young ('19) was granted an extra year of eligibility by the NCAA in May of 2018, then became Quinnipiac's first AP All-American and the 2018-2019 MAAC Player of the Year last season.

The non-conference slate includes 10 games in total, including four at the People's United Center in Hamden.
- The Bobcats will travel to Miami on Nov. 16, marking the program's first-ever game vs. an ACC opponent. The matchup is the second-ever meeting between the two programs, as Miami defeated Quinnipiac 80-66 on Dec. 29, 1999 at Miami Arena.

BAKER DUNLEAVY | HEAD COACH | 3RD SEASON | VILLANOVA '06

Baker Dunleavy, who was the associate head coach for a national-title winning team at Villanova in 2016, enters his third season as the head coach of the Quinnipiac men's basketball program in 2019-20. Dunleavy was named head coach for Quinnipiac University's men's basketball program on March 28, 2017, becoming its seventh head coach in Quinnipiac's 67-year basketball history, and the third in its 19 years at the Division I level.

He has led the Bobcats to the MAAC Semifinals in his first season in 2017-18, then guided Quinnipiac to a postseason appearance (CIT) for just the fifth time in program history in 2018-19. In his debut season, Dunleavy helped Quinnipiac to a seventh-place finish in the regular season and a strong run through the MAAC Tournament. The Bobcats had a big win over Siena in the opening round, and then knocked off the No. 2 seed and co-regular season champion Canisius in the quarterfinal round. His rookie campaign on the Quinnipiac sideline also saw him help develop Cameron Young, who did not score in six games played the year prior, into a second-team All-MAAC selection who broke the school's Division I record for points in a season (622).

Dunleavy then guided Quinnipiac to a 16-15 overall record during his second season at the helm – the program's first winning season since 2013-14. The Bobcats earned a postseason appearance for just the fifth time in program history, playing in the opening round of the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT) at NJIT on March 18, 2019. Dunleavy helped Quinnipiac finish tied for second in the MAAC in 2018-19, going 11-7 in league play. Under Dunleavy's instruction, the Bobcats finished the season ranked No. 5 nationally in three-point field goals per game (11.2).

Under Dunleavy's tutelage, graduate guard Cameron Young finished No. 12 nationally in points per game (23.5) and became the Bobcats first-ever MAAC Player of the Year. Young also became the first-ever Quinnipiac student-athlete to earn a spot on The Associated Press All-America list, garnering Honorable Mention status. With Dunleavy's supervision, Young was also named to the U.S. Basketball Writers Association All-District Team, the NABC Division I All-District Team and the All-ECAC First Team. Young became the first Bobcat to participate in the Portsmouth Invitational Tournament (PIT), which features 64 of the top collegiate seniors in the nation. Dunleavy also helped sophomore Rich Kelly (All-MAAC Second Team) and freshman Tyrese Williams (MAAC All-Rookie Team) earn MAAC awards.

Dunleavy joined the Bobcats after spending seven years on the men's basketball staff at Villanova University, where under Jay Wright, he helped the Wildcats capture the 2016 national championship with a 77-74 win over North Carolina. He began at Villanova as the director of basketball operations in 2010, before being elevated to assistant coach in 2012 and to the associate head coach position in 2013. Dunleavy assisted Wright in all facets of the program as the associate head coach, including on-court teaching, player development and recruiting. In his four seasons as associate head coach, the Wildcats posted an impressive 129-17 record, including 63-9 in the BIG EAST Conference, while winning four straight regular season league titles and two postseason titles. Villanova earned No. 1 seeds in the NCAA Tournament in 2015 and 2017 (including the No. 1 seed in the entire tournament in 2017), as well as No. 2 seeds in 2014 and 2016, placing the Wildcats in the top eight in the country in all four years.

A 2006 Villanova graduate, Dunleavy appeared in 28 games over his four seasons for the Wildcats. As a senior, he was part of the first Villanova team to earn a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament in 2006, a feat that he also accomplished twice as the program's associate head coach in the last three years. After earning his degree from Villanova, Dunleavy entered the corporate world and worked for Merrill Lynch in New York City for four years. He decided to return to college basketball in 2010 and was hired by Wright as Villanova's director of operations before quickly ascending the coaching ladder.

A member of a well-known basketball family, Dunleavy's older brother, Mike Dunleavy Jr., won a national championship as a player at Duke and recently completed his 15th NBA season with the Atlanta Hawks. Their father, Mike Dunleavy Sr., also played 10 years in the NBA and served as head coach for four NBA franchises (Milwaukee Bucks, Los Angeles Lakers, Portland Trail Blazers and Los Angeles Clippers).
