Orange Road Swing Continues At Miami

Syracuse (10-4, 0-1) faces a second consecutive ranked ACC opponent on the road when the Orange play at #13/15 Miami (11-1) on Jan. 2. SU lost at rv/25 Pittsburgh on Dec. 30, 72-61, in the ACC opener for both clubs.

The defeat at Pitt snapped a modest threegame winning streak for the Orange. Miami, which opens its league schedule by hosting Syracuse, brings a five-game successful stretch into the contest.

Syracuse has a 16-6 lead in the all-time series with the Hurricanes. Miami won the most recent encounter, 68-65, a season ago.

Jim Larranaga is in his fifth season as head coach at Miami. His team's have put together a 102-52 record during his tenure.

The Hurricanes have been scoring 85.2 points per game, good for a 16th-place tie among Division I programs. Miami ranks ninth in field-goal percentage (.510) and 16th in 3-point percentage (.412). Miami is also 11th in scoring margin (+18.8).

Miami has a balanced attack with four players averaging double-digit scoring: redshirt senior guard Sheldon McClellan (16.3 ppg.), redshirt senior guard Angel Rodriguez (12.4), sophomore guard Ja'Quan Newton (11.7) and junior guard Davon Reed (10.4). Senior center Tonye Jekiri (9.4 ppg., 10.3 rpg.) is the top rebounder.

'Cuse Brings "Stay In To Win" Message To Ed Smith School

The Syracuse men's basketball team visited local Ed Smith School and presented a "Stay In To Win" program to students on Nov. 12.

The presentation was developed in conjunction with the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). It connects college coaches and players with middle and high school students in an attempt to motivate and encourage the students.

Coach Boeheim and his squad participated in the event. After the entire team introduced itself, five players spoke to the students:

- Graduate student Trevor Cooney spoke regarding the importance of earning degree;
- Freshman Tyler Lydon talked about working hard to achieve goals;
- Senior DaJuan Coleman referenced being part of a successful team;
- Graduate student Michael Gbinije spoke about making good decisions;
- Freshman Malachi Richardson informed the audience about being a good student and athlete.

The event wrapped up with a question-and-answer period.

NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee Decision Statement from Kevin Quinn, Senior Vice President for Public Affairs November 25, 2015

"Today, the NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee issued its decision in response to Syracuse University's appeal of the sanctions imposed on the University on March 6, 2015. The University submitted its appeal on March 20, 2015.

The appeal decision resulted in the reduction of a significant penalty. The Infractions Appeals Committee ruled that the University will gain back one men's basketball scholarship per year over the next four years. This will result in a total reduction of 8 scholarships over 4 years (2 per year from 2015-16 through 2018-19), rather than 12.

In addition, even before the NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee issued its decision, the University won a significant victory by achieving a $1.23 million reduction in the financial penalty previously imposed. In formulating its appeal, the University discovered the NCAA Committee on Infractions had incorrectly penalized it by requiring the forfeiture of monies received from the 2013 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament. The Committee on Infractions acknowledged the error and corrected its earlier decision by reducing the financial penalty.

The University is pleased with these two positive outcomes resulting from our appeal. We strongly believed the original scholarship reduction penalty was too severe when compared to other infraction cases. Also, the scholarship reduction penalty directly impacts current and future student-athletes and their academic and athletic opportunities. We remain disappointed in the decision to vacate a significant amount of men's basketball wins, a decision that was upheld

Although the appellate panel did not grant every one of our requests, it recognized there was merit in our appeal. We simply sought to be judged according to the same standards as other institutions, and we did our best to achieve that goal. Regardless of today's outcome, our top priority is to give our student-athletes the best possible education and teach them how to achieve their highest potential in the classroom and on the playing fields. We look forward to a bright future for all of our student-athletes and teams."

More information about the University's response to the March 2015 NCAA report can be found at www.news. syr.edu. Further information about the NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee Decision may be found at NCAA.org.

NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee Decision Statement from Kevin Quinn, Senior Vice President for Public Affairs December 3, 2015

"Today, the NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee issued its decision in response to Head Men's Basketball Coach Jim Boeheim's appeal of the sanction imposed on him on March 6, 2015. Coach Boeheim submitted his appeal on March 20, 2015.

"The Appeals Committee determined that the NCAA Committee on Infractions 'abused its discretion' by directing the suspension be served during conference play, because Coach Boeheim was not directly involved in the underlying violations of the case. The Appeals Committee determined the nine-game suspension may apply to non-conference games and be served immediately.

"The University is pleased the Appeals Committee recognized that the initial sanction imposed on Coach Boeheim was too harsh. Nevertheless, we supported Coach Boeheim's argument made during his hearing that any nine game suspension would be too severe based on previous cases, and his lack of involvement in the underlying conduct, which the Appeals Committee recognized.

"As Chancellor Syverud said in March, Coach Boeheim has been a mainstay at Syracuse University for more than one-third of our 144-year history. As we now move forward as a University, we join Coach Boeheim in his continued focus on ensuring our student-athletes receive the best possible education and achieve their highest potential in the classroom and on the court."

Further information about the NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee Decision may be found at NCAA.org.

NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee Decision Statement from Coach James A. Boeheim December 3, 2015

"Today, the NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee rightfully determined that the NCAA Committee on Infractions abused its discretion in imposing a nine conference-game suspension based upon my alleged violation of the Head Coach Responsibility Bylaw.

"The NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee agreed that the NCAA Committee on Infractions ignored the fact that I had no involvement in any of the underlying violations in this case, and that I did not acquiesce in any of those underlying violations, in imposing its unprecedented suspension. The NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee also agreed that this case was in sharp contrast to cases where head coaches were directly involved in a number of underlying violations, including unethical conduct violations, recruiting violations, and violations of the NCAA legislation regarding extra benefits. At the same time, however, the NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee decided to immediately impose a nine-game suspension, which is longer than any of the suspensions imposed in those cases.

"Needless to say, I am extremely disappointed with the NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee's decision, and in particular, the NCAA Infractions Appeals Committee giving us only two days to make this transition, when the appeal was argued weeks ago. However, I have full faith in the ability of Coach Hopkins, my staff, and our seniors to lead the Men's Basketball Program through this difficult time, and I look forward to returning to the bench on January 9 against the University of North Carolina.

"I am considering my options moving forward and will have no further comment regarding this matter at this time"

GAME I

Syracuse 57 47 Lehigh

Nov. 13 | Carrier Dome | Syracuse, N.Y.

Syracuse passed its first official test of the 2015-16 season, defeating Lehigh 57-47 on Friday night.

The game marked the opening of Jim Boeheim's 40th season as head coach at his alma mater. The victory improved his record in season beginners to 36-4.

The Syracuse defense held Lehigh to just 12 points in the first half, as the Mountain Hawks were limited to 2-of-23 from the field (.087). The last time SU held a foe to 12 points in a half was last December against Cornell.

"I thought our defense was good. We are going to struggle if (Gbinje and Cooney) shoot 9-of-26 (field goals) and 5-of-18 (3-pointers). Those are going to be tough nights. I think it is a learning experience."

Senior Michael Gbinije and freshman Malachi Richardson led the Orange offense with 16 and 14 points, respectively.

Freshman Tyler Lydon dominated the boards, pulling down a team-high II rebounds in the victory. The forward also contributed three steals and two blocks on the night.

Back-to-back 3-pointers from Richardson got things started for the Orange, as the 'Cuse jumped out to an 8-2 lead. The Mountain Hawks answered with a seven-point run, creating Lehigh's first and only lead of the game, 10-9.

The Orange stole the lead back with two straight buckets off of Lehigh turnovers, and continued to build momentum from theret A pair of 3-pointers extended Syracuse's lead to 11 with 6:05 left in the first half, forcing a Lehigh timeout.

Two more free throws by Gbinije capped a 14-point Orange run to ensure a comfortable lead, 22-9. A late 3-pointer from Kaleb Joseph gave Syracuse a 32-12 halftime lead.

The Mountain Hawks rallied in the second half, using a 12-0 run to cut the Orange's to six at the 12:35 mark, 36-30.

Syracuse answered with consecutive 3-pointers that gave the Orange a 42-30 lead with 11:31 remaining. Lehigh was unable to get closer than eight the rest of the way..

GAME 2

79 Syracuse St. Bonaventure 66

RSN

Nov. 17 | Carrier Dome | Syracuse, N.Y.

Syracuse defeated St. Bonaventure, 79-66, thanks to an impressive second half effort by the Orange at the Dome.

A late burst by the Orange in the concluding minutes of the second half proved to be the key factor, as SU outscored St. Bonaventure 32-14 in the last 10 minutes. The surge was led by Trevor Cooney and Michael Gbinije, who each tallied 13 points in the second half.

Gbinije paced the Orange offense in the win, finishing with a game-high 23 points and team-best six assists, while Cooney ended up with 18 points and six steals. Tyler Roberson grabbed a game-high 12 rebounds.

"I think overall it was a really good second half. First half was a complete struggle on offense and I give St. Bonaventure their credit. We do have to rebound better, but I thought this was a very, very good comeback."

- Jim Boeheim

For the second game in a row, freshman Malachi Richardson started off the contest with a 3-point basket before the two teams began to trade points. The Bonnies used an 8-0 run to take an 11-5 lead six minutes into the game. Another St. Bonaventure scoring streak extended its lead to 19-8 at the 11:51 mark, forcing a Syracuse timeout.

With the Bonnies holding its largest lead of the game, 32-21, the Orange scored eight points in the final three minutes of the half to cut the deficit to six, 35-29, heading into halftime.

After the squads exchanged points the opening minutes of the second half, three's by Cooney and Gbinije triggered an offensive outburst seven minutes in, narrowing the Bonnies lead to 48-45 and forcing a St. Bonaventure timeout.

Another 3-pointer by Gbinije and a subsequent layup brought Syracuse within one, 52-51, with 10:30 remaining, A 3-pointer by Tyler Lydon tied it up at 54 at the 9:03 mark.

A Cooney three-point play gave the Orange its first lead since the opening basket with 8:34 left, 57-54. Threepointers by Richardson and Lydon gave SU a 69-59 edge.

A dunk by DaJuan Coleman with 13 seconds left to play sealed the victory.

Syracuse 66 Elon 55

Nov. 21 | Carrier Dome | Syracuse, N.Y.

Junior forward Tyler Roberson had a career-high 20 points and 16 rebounds to lead Syracuse (3-0) past Elon (2-2), 66-55. The contest was part of the Battle 4 Atlantis Tournament.

Grad student Michael Gbinije went 3-of-3 from the 3-point arc and ended the night with 16 points, six rebounds, and four steals. Freshman Malachi Richardson racked up 13 points, going 10-of-12 from the free throw line.

A three by Gbinije started things off for the Orange, marking the third straight game Syracuse's opening basket has come from long distance. The Orange jumped out to a 12-2 lead with an old-fashioned three-point play by Roberson, capping a nine-point run, six minutes into the game.

"We can't turn it over 15 times against this team when there's no pressure. Those are just mistakes. We can't make those kinds of mistakes. We're a perimeter team. we're shooting three's, we're driving, and we have to minimize our mistakes to be effective." - Jim Boeheim

The Phoenix played its way back into the game and a basket off of a Syracuse turnover brought Elon within four with 9:02 left in the first half, 17-13. Elon continued its run with another 3-point basket to cut the Syracuse lead down to one, 19-18, at the 7:46 mark.

Two free-throws gave the Phoenix its first lead of the game with 4:37 left to play in the opening half, 20-19, as Elon held Syracuse scoreless for nearly four minutes. The Orange bounced back, however, taking off on a 9-3 run in the final minutes of the first half to take a 29-23 halftime lead.

Elon evened the score at 34-34 four minutes into the second half. The Orange took charge with a 10-point run, which gave Syracuse a 47-39 lead with 11 minutes remaining. The momentum continued in Syracuse's favor, as a jumper by Roberson and a subsequent three by Gbinije off of an Elon turnover seconds after extended the Orange lead 54-45.

Elon outscored Syracuse, 8-0, over a span of nearly five minutes, but two free-throws by Richardson gave the Orange a 63-55 lead. Three free throws in the final 1:20 sealed a 66-55 victory for the Orange.

GAME 5

Syracuse 83 70 Charlotte

Nov. 25 | Atlantis | Paradise Island, Bahamas

Syracuse improved to 4-0 on the season, defeating Charlotte 83-70 on Wednesday afternoon in game two of the Battle 4 Atlantis...

The Orange's 14 3-pointers are the most three's made in a game since the 64-63 victory over Wisconsin in the 2012 NCAA Tournament. That total is tied for second on the single-game school record list.

Grad student Michael Gbinije hit a career-high six 3-pointers on his way to a team-high 26 points.

"I thought we were sharp and moved the ball well. Mike (Gbinije) and Trevor (Cooney) had good control of the game." - Jim Boeheim

Grad student Trevor Cooney reached the 1,000 point milestone in the win, finishing the day with 19 points, . The guard now has 1,016 career points, becoming the 59th member of the Syracuse basketball program to join the prestigious club.

The Orange jumped out to a 19-3 lead to kick off the opening half, complemented by 17 unanswered points in the first seven minutes of play. Cooney hit his 1,000 career point doing what he does best, sinking a 3-pointer at the 15:37 mark. A three from Gbinije gave Syracuse a commanding 30-14 lead with 8:45 left in the half, forcing a Charlotte timeout.

The Orange continued the 3-point surge, with Gbinije sinking yet another three from the same spot a minute after, extending the Syracuse lead to 33-18. With nine seconds left in the half, a kick out to Cooney from freshman Franklin Howard marked the ninth 3-pointer hit by the Orange in the half to seal a 50-27 lead heading into halftime.

Charlotte opened the second half with a 10-0 run to cut the deficit to 13, 50-37. The Orange, however, maintained a comfortable lead heading into the final 10 minutes of play.

Gbinije sunk his sixth 3-pointer of the game at the 4:56 mark, giving SU a 79-61 advantage. A 16-5 49ers run cut the lead to nine with just over a minute left to play, but the run didn't faze Syracuse, which recorded the 83-70 victory.

GAME 5

Syracuse 79 #18/21 Connecticut 76

Nov. 26 | Atlantis | Paradise Island, Bahamas

Syracuse used a 10-0 second half run to take control of a tight game, knocking off #18/21 UConn, 79-76, in the semifinals of the Battle 4 Atlantis.

All five of the Orange's starters racked up double-digit points, as grad students Michael Gbinije and Trevor Cooney paced the Orange with 17 points each. Freshman Tyler Lydon came up big on the boards, pulling down 12 rebounds while adding 16 points. Junior Tyler Roberson and freshman Malachi Richardson posted 14 and 13 points, respectively.

"Tyler Lydon sees things that seniors don't even see. Nothing bothers the kid. He's had two monstrous games down here." - Iim Boeheim

UConn jumped out to a 10 point lead in the opening minutes. The Orange responded, outscoring the Huskies 14-6 to cut the deficit to one, 25-24, thanks to a pair of free throws by Lydon. Another basket by Lydon knotted the game up at 27 all, resulting in a Huskies timeout.

The Orange defense limited the Huskies to 4-of-15 from the field the rest of the half, and a three by Gbinije gave SU its first lead of the game with 1:36 remaining. A subsequent Gbinije layup off of a UConn turnover extended the Syracuse lead to 34-31 with just over a minute left, but a late three by UConntied it at 34 heading into halftime.

The teams swapped points in the first few minutes of the second half, but hot shooting from the Orange off of three's by Lydon, Richardson, and Gbinije within a span of one minute brought Syracuse a 50-47 lead at the 12:52 mark.

Another three by Richardson marked a 10-0 run by the Orange, giving SU a 54-47 lead at the 11:30 mark. The Syracuse momentum continued to build, as a steal and a layup by Gbinije and a successive alley-oop from Gbinije to Roberson established a 10-point lead for the Orange with 7:47 left, 65-55, forcing another UConn timeout.

UConn fought back and Rodney Purvis' three 3-pointers cut the lead to two, 73-71 just under the four minute mark. A three by the Huskies brought them within three in the final 30 seconds, but that was as close as UConn would get.

Nov. 27 | Atlantis | Paradise Island, Bahamas

Syracuse is the Battle 4 Atlantis champion after defeating No. 25 Texas A&M, 74-67, in the tournament final. The Orange outscored the Aggies, 13-6, during the final 6:24 for the win..

Michael Gbinije led Syracuse with 20 points and was named the tournament MVP.Trevor Cooney had 15 points and was also named to the All-Tournament Team, Malachi Richardson and Tyler Lydon also reached double figures as Richardson finished with 16 and Lydon added 13.

"We've been down this year a lot. I think that helped us down here. We know how to battle back from those situations. These guys just keep fighting away.' - Jim Boeheim Syracuse trailed by two at halftime, but quickly erased the deficit on a three-pointer by Richardson. Texas A&M answered with a three of its own to retake lead. Neither team could pull away as the second half featured six ties.

The score was tied, 61-61, with 6:24 remaining when Gbinije hit a three to spark the Orange on its scoring run that secured the win. Following a Texas A&M basket, Lydon nailed his third three-pointer of the game and Cooney added a pair of free throws to put Syracuse up 69-63 with 3:39 remaining.

Cooney's steal on Texas A&M's next possession and an oldthree-point play extended the scoring streak. The Aggies hit two free throws to cut the lead to seven, but a pair of free throws gave the Orange a nine-point advantage. DJ Hogg hit a layup at the buzzer for the 74-67 final.

Gbinije started the game with a three-pointer, but Texas A&M scored the next seven points to take a four-point lead. Cooney's three-pointer at the 16:32 mark sparked the Orange on a 10-0 scoring run to give SU a 13-7 lead.

Trailing, 23-19, the Aggies scored nine straight points and led 28-23 at the 3:54 mark. Cooney hit a layup for SU's first points in more than five minutes, but Texas A&M responded with five straight points to extend its advantage to 33-25.

The Aggies led 35-28 with 41 seconds left in the half, but Gbinije recorded five points in the final six seconds to cut the margin to 35-33 at intermission.

GAME 7

Wisconsin 66 OT Syracuse 58

Dec. 2 | Carrier Dome | Syracuse, N.Y.

No. 14/19 Syracuse suffered its first loss of the season on Wednesday night at the Carrier Dome, falling to Wisconsin 66-58 in overtime, in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge.

Grad students Michael Gbinije and Trevor Cooney powered the Orange, racking up 19 and 14 points, respectively, including four 3-pointers from the hands of Gbinije.

The Badgers used a 15-9 scoring run to take a 25-19 lead heading into the final minutes of the opening half. A jumper by Kaleb Joseph and a Gbinije layup off of a steal by Tyler

"Games like this help you down the stretch. We learned a lot from this game like we did the last few games. It's a shame we couldn't pull it out." - Trevor Cooney

Lydon with seconds left in the half cut the Wisconsin lead down to three heading into the locker rooms, 27-24.

Syracuse fought back after intermission and tied the game at 32-32. The Orange took control soon thereafter, going on a 3-point rampage off of buckets beyond the arc by Cooney, Gbinije, and Lydon to give SU at its largest lead of the game, 41-35, and forcing a Wisconsin timeout at the 11:01 mark.

A layup on Wisconsin's end evened the score at 45, but Gbinije answered right after with a bucket just shy of the 3-point line under six minutes left, 47-45. The hot shooting from Gbinije didn't stop, as the guard registered his third 3-pointer of the night at the 3:12 mark to put the Orange up 52-48.

The Badgers stole the momentum in overtime, going on a 7-0 run to put Wisconsin up 60-55 with 1:33 left. With 21 seconds left, Gbinije sunk his fourth three of the game, bringing the Orange within four, 62-58. It wasn't enough, however, as a Koenig went 4-of-4 from the charity stripe in the final moments of the game to seal a 66-58 victory over the Orange.

GAME 8

Georgetown 79 Syracuse 72

Dec. 5 | Verizon Center | Washington D.C.

No. 14/19 Syracuse (6-2) renewed its rivalry with Georgetown (4-3), coming up short, 79-72.

The Orange overcame a 20-point deficit in the second half, outscoring the Hoyas 41-28 over the final 13:38 and drawing as close as six points in the final minute.

Grad student Michael Gbinije led all scorers with 23 points, while junior Tyler Roberson added 15 points and a team-high seven rebounds. Senior center DaJuan Coleman contributed a season-high 10 points.

"In the second half, I was proud of (the team). They kept fighting. We figured out a lineup that we were comfortable with and was working and we stuck with it." - Mike Hopkins

The Hoyas used a 12-2 run to take a 20-10 lead with just over 11 minutes to play in the half. The Hoyas continued to strike, extending the run 18-4 and limiting the Orange to minimal opportunities on the other side of the court.

A 3-pointer from grad student Trevor Cooney began a 12-5 run in the final minutes of the half to cut the Georgetown lead down to seven, 31-24. A three by Reggie Cameron with 16 seconds left finalized a 36-24 halftime lead for the Hoyas.

Georgetown began the second half with eight unanswered points to extend its lead to 44-24. The Orange came back and cut the Hoya advantage down to 58-46 with 9:17 left in the contest, forcing a Georgetown timeout.

Another three from Cooney gave Georgetown a single-digit lead at the 6:18 mark, 65-56, but the Hoyas didn't let up, maintaining a steady lead heading into the final two minutes.

With the Hoyas up by 10 at the 1:38 mark 72-62, layups by Gbinije and freshman Franklin Howard gave SU a two-possession deficit with 32 seconds left, 74-68. The Hoyas sunk 5-6 from the charity stripe in the final seconds, securing a 79-72 Georgetown victory.

The contest marked the first game of head coach Jim Boeheim's NCAA-imposed suspension. Assistant coach Mike Hopkins led the Orange from the sideline.

GAME 9

Syracuse 78 Colgate 51

Dec. 8 | Carrier Dome | Syracuse, N.Y.

Syracuse defeated Colgate 78-51 thanks to an impressive 3-point performance on the Orange's end, draining 14 on evening.

One 3-point basket shy of tying the program record, the Orange went 14-30 (46.7%) on the night thanks to Michael Gbinije, Trevor Cooney, Malachi Richardson, and Tyler Lydon. Gbinije, Cooney, and Richardson each sunk four from beyond the arc, while Lydon added two treys.

"We have to finish the non-conference (schedule) pretty strong. We have to use the non-conference to get ready for ACC play. That sense of urgency is definitely picking up." - Michael Gbinije Gbinije and Richardson led both squads on the night in scoring, dishing out 17 points respectively, while Gbinije added six assists and three steals.

Junior Tyler Roberson led the Orange effort on the boards, pulling down seven rebounds, including four offensive boards. Lydon added six rebounds and a game-high three blocks.

Four buckets from beyond the arc from the four Orange 3-point shooters kicked things off for Syracuse in the first five minutes of the game, as the Orange jumped out to a quick 15-8 lead. 'Cuse secured a 10-0 run heading into the latter minutes of the opening half, establishing a comfortable 27-11 lead at the 7:15 mark.

Two more three's from Richardson maintained the Syracuse lead 33-19 heading into the final minute of the first half, but a three on Colgate's end narrowed the Orange lead to 11 heading into the locker rooms, 33-22.

The 3-point showcase continued in the second half with threes from Gbinije and Cooney, extending the lead, 41-25.

A putback by senior DaJuan Coleman brought the Orange its largest lead of the game at the time with a 25 point advantage at the 4:53 mark, 71-46.A dunk and a pair of free throws from the center sealed a 78-51 victory for Syracuse.

GAME 10

at St. John's 84 Syracuse 72

Dec. 13 | Madison Square Garden | New York, N.Y.

Syracuse came up short against former BIG EAST rival St. John's despite a late comeback attempt, falling 84-72 at Madison Square Garden.

Grad student Michael Gbinije finished in double-digits for the 10th time this season, finishing with a game-high 21 points and adding seven rebounds. Freshman Tyler Lydon registered his second double-double of the season, pulling down a game-high 10 rebounds while racking up 11 points.

"The difference in the game today was shooting. We got some really good looks and couldn't knock them down. St. John's got some really good shots and made them." - Mike Hopkins Syracuse and St. John's took turns with the lead in the first 10 minutes, but the Red Storm used an 11-1 run to take a 22-15 advantage with 7:43 left to play. The Orange stepped it up beyond the arc, as a three by Gbinije knotted it up at 22 and another 3-point bucket by Lydon gave Syracuse the lead, 25-24, with just over five minutes left to play in the first half.

The Red Storm proceeded to claim the lead once again, going on a 13-2 run to secure the largest lead of the game at the time, 37-27, heading into the final minute of the first half and led 40-31 at intermission.

Syracuse cut the St. John's lead down to eight, 50-42, at the 15:55 mark of the second half with another 3-pointer by Gbinije. The Red Storm, however, didn't let up, maintaining a steady lead heading into the last 10 minutes of the game.

A pair of free throws from Trevor Cooney brought the Orange within seven at the 8:55 mark, 63-56, but the Red Storm continued to answer from the arc, hitting back-to-back 3-pointers in less than 45 seconds to take a 71-58 lead. 'Cuse, however, cut the deficit to seven, 71-64, off of six unanswered points and a Lydon layup with 6:15 left to play.

The Orange defense stepped it up heading into the final minutes, reducing St. John's lead down to seven again, 79-72, from a pair of free throws by Malachi Richardson with 3:14 left to go. A pair of steals by Richardson and Cooney created opportunities for Syracuse to continue the comeback, but the Orange couldn't convert and St. John's recorded the 84-72 victory.

GAME II

Syracuse 67 Cornell 46

RSN

Dec. 19 | Carrier Dome | Syracuse, N.Y.

Syracuse (8-3) defeated Cornell (5-5), 67-46, on Saturday afternoon in the Carrier Dome. The Orange turned up the heat in the second half, outscoring the Big Red 37-20.

Freshman Malachi Richardson and junior Tyler Roberson led the Orange with 15 points apiece, with Roberson adding a game-high 12 rebounds. Richardson contributed a personalbest eight rebounds.

"I'm just proud of how we played defensively today.
That was good to see and we need to know that we're a good defensive team and when we play good defensive,
we get better shots and we're a better team."

- Trevor Cooney

The first 10 minutes of the game featured four lead changes before Syracuse grabbed an advantage with a 10-1 run, keyed by a dunk and 3-pointer from freshman Tyler Lydon.

Cornell started on a comeback to come within three in the closing minutes of the first half, 27-24, but another trey by Michael Gbinije gave the Orange a 30-26 lead at halftime.

The Orange outrebounded the Big Red, 23-15, in the first half, with the Orange creating 13 second-chance points.

Cornell opened the second half with consecutive 3-point plays. Syracuse answered with a 17-4 run that featured three three's by Trevor Cooney and one from Lydon, putting the Orange up 47-36.

Consecutive dunks by Roberson and a jumper and a layup by Richardson extended the Syracuse advantage to 19, 55-36, with just over seven minutes left. The Orange didn't let up and recorded a 67-46 victory.

Cooney improved his career 3-point total to 205, good for a fifth place tie with Demetris Nichols on the Syracuse all-time list

GAME 12

Syracuse 82 Montana St. 60

Dec. 22 | Carrier Dome | Syracuse, N.Y.

Syracuse used a balanced scoring approach to cruise past Montana State 82-60 on Tuesday evening at the Carrier Dome. Ten Orange put numbers in the scoring column in the win, with five players finishing in double-digits.

Grad student Michael Gbinije led both teams in scoring, ending the night with 17 points, including three 3-pointers, while adding five rebounds and five assists. Grad student Trevor Cooney also dished out five assists, finishing the win with 12 points and three buckets from beyond the arc.

"The guys stayed really disciplined to the game plan, very proud of them. I thought in the second half we shot the ball exceptionally well, but we allowed them to get going offensively and we're not out there to trade baskets, we're out there to hold teams." - Mike Hopkins

Senior DaJuan Coleman finished just one point shy of his career-high, finishing with 13 points. Junior Chinonso Obokoh recorded career highs in points (11) and rebounds (6). Freshman Tyler Lydon grabbed a team-high nine rebounds while adding four blocks and 10 points.

Syracuse jumped out to a 17-5 lead less than eight minutes into the contest, thanks to a 10-0 run fueled by three's from Cooney and Gbinije. The Orange defense stepped up, allowing the Bobcats just seven points in the last 10 minutes of the opening half while racking up a total of eight blocked shots. A pair of Tyler Roberson free throws brought Syracuse its largest lead of the half, as the Orange posted a 14-point lead heading into halftime, 31-17.

In the second half, the Orange scored eight unanswered points in less than a minute to extend the lead to 24 and forcing a Montana State timeout at the 12:22 mark, 58-34.

Syracuse stretched its lead to 26 thanks to back-to-back dunks by Obokoh and sophomore Kaleb Joseph at the 6:37 mark to create a 68-42 lead. Montana State gave one final push with just under two minutes left to play taking off on a 10-0 run, but it wasn't enough as Syracuse came out on top with a 22-point lead as the clock expired, 82-60.

GAME 13

Syracuse 80 Texas Southern 67

Dec. 27 | Carrier Dome | Syracuse, N.Y.

Syracuse closed out the non-conference portion of its schedule with an 80-67 victory against Texas Southern in the Carrier Dome on Sunday, Dec. 27. The Orange will enter ACC play with a 10-3 record.

Michael Gbinije led the Orange with 15 points. Trevor Cooney and Dajuan Coleman both finished with 14 points. Coleman's 14 points equaled his career-best effort, as did his six made free throws. Tyler Lydon contributed 13 points, while Malachi Richardson added 10 points.

"The potential of being really good defensively is the thing that excites the coach. As a coach, you get better every day and we've had some great halves, but we have to put it all together and play full (game)."

- Mike Hopkins

Both teams started the game with a hot hand as Texas Southern hit five of its first eight shots, while Syracuse converted seven of its first 10 attempts. One of those baskets was a three-pointer by Cooney on a fast break. It was his 209th of his career, which gives him sole possession of fourth place on Syracuse's all-time three-point field goals made record list.

Gbinije's jumper at the 13:14 mark broke an 11-11 tie and started the Orange on a 6-0 scoring run that gave Syracuse a 17-11 advantage. The Tigers fought back and evened the score at 22-22 at the 4:53 mark.

Tyler Roberson put the Orange back on top with a layup, which sparked Syracuse on an 18-8 scoring run to end the half. Gbinije hit back-to-back three-pointers and had eight points during the stretch. Syracuse entered intermission with a 40-30 lead.

Richardson scored the first seven points of the second half to extend the Orange's advantage to 47-30. Syracuse maintained its double-digit lead and was up by 14, 70-56, with 5:50 remaining when Franklin Howard converted a pair of free throws to spark the Orange on a 7-0 scoring run. The offensive outburst gave Syracuse its largest lead of the game of 21, 77-56 at the 4:19 mark.

The Tigers, however, wouldn't go away and cut the lead back to 13, but that was as close as Texas Southern could get as Syracuse recorded the 80-67 victory.

GAME 14

at #-/25 Pitt 72 Syracuse 61

Dec. 30 | Petersen Center | Pittsburgh, Pa.

Syracuse put up a battle against Pittsburgh in its first ACC matchup of the season, but ultimately fell short 72-61 on Wednesday night at the Petersen Events Center.

Tied at the half, the Orange (10-4, 0-1) and Panthers (11-1, 1-0) fought back and forth throughout the second half, but a final 14-2 push by Pitt with just under three minutes left to play proved to be the deciding factor in the game.

"We played great basketball for 35 minutes. The last five minutes, Pitt made some nice, composed plays, hit a couple of big shots. We just couldn't make some plays." - Mike Hopkins

Trevor Cooney and Tyler Roberson scored 15 points each, with Roberson grabbing a team-high seven rebounds.

Michael Gbinije added 14 points and seven assists.

The Panthers jumped out to a 13-5 lead to start off the contest, but the Orange soon bounced back, cutting the Pitt lead down to two off of a three by Cooney at the 12:02 mark, 15-13. Syracuse found its way back into the game with 8:03 left in the opening half, as Tyler Lydon knotted it up off of a layup to even the score at 20.

Syracuse closed the first half with an 8-2 run, as a free throw from Gbinije tied the game up again at the 30-point mark heading into the locker rooms at the half.

Syracuse continued to surge kicking off the second half, with Cooney racking up his third 3-pointer of the night to push the Orange to a five-point lead, 37-32. The Orange found its largest lead of the game thanks to six unanswered points that built an eight-point advantage at the 14:28 mark, 43-35.

The Panthers fought back, going on a 15-5 run and stealing the lead, 50-48, with 8:50 left to play. It was a back and forth battle from there heading into the final minutes of the game. Pitt, however, took charge in the final three minutes, using a 9-0 run to take a 67-59 lead with just over a minute remaining.

A pair of free throws by Lydon cut the Pitt lead to eight, 69-61, but it proved to be the last chance the Orange would get, as the Panthers finished with a 72-61 advantage.
