SERIES RECORD: Barry is 0-2 in regular season contests vs. the Hurricanes ... The Bucs last played Miami in an exhibition in Nov. 2010.

EYES ON OPPONENTS: Miami went 27-8 last season, advancing to the NCAA Sweet 16 ... The Hurricanes return five players including two starters in G Davon Reed (11.1 ppg, 4.1 reb, 81.6% FT) and F Kamari Murphy (5.6 ppg, 6.0 reb, 51% FG) ... The Canes lost five players who combined for 45.3 ppg ... Coach Jim Larranaga brought in six newcomers, five of which are eligible, including 6-11 Miami product Dewan Huell.

LAST TIME: The last time the Bucs played the Hurricanes in a regular season game was Dec. 11, 1992 when Miami won 81-64 ... Barry lost to Miami, 80-67, the year before on Nov. 23, 1991.

STORYLINES: The Bucs are coming off their best season in school history when they went 26-7 with a trip to NCAA Division II Elite Eight ... Barry won the South Region championship and a regular season Sunshine State Conference co-championship ... Barry led the nation in assists last year (20.7) ... The Buccaneers return one starter, Jr. PG Elvar Fridriksson, who also led the nation in assists (8.1) ... Coach Butch Estes has taken all three of his Barry teams to the NCAA Tournament, becoming the only coach in school history to take three straight teams to the Dance ... Since Estes took over as head coach, the Bucs have played Louisville, Florida, South Florida and now Miami in exhibition games ... Barry lost 65.3 percent of its scoring from last year ... The Hurricanes lost 60.2 percent of their scoring.

SUPERIOR SUB: Sr. F Adrian Gonzalez is the only player in school history to average over 10 points a game as a reserve ... In his career, the Miami product has averaged 10.3 ppg in 89 games -- all off the bench ... This year, his role has expanded to a starter to begin the year.

DIVISION I INFLUENCE: Barry has four players on the roster who began their careers at the Division I level ... Since Estes took over, the Buccaneers have had nine Division I transfers, three of which are currently playing professionally overseas.

BROKEN RECORDS: Barry broke 11 school records last year ... The Bucs eclipsed the school scoring marks for total points (3,048) and points per game (92.4) ... They set the school record for 3-point field goals (364), rebounds (1,345), defensive rebounds (911), assists (684) and assists per game (20.7) ... Barry also played 33 games, the most in school history.

SIBLING SHOOTERS: Soph F Daniel Mortensen is the older brother of Miami Fr. G Sarah Mortensen ... The Denmark siblings are both talented shooters ... Daniel shot 40.9 percent from 3-point range as a freshman at Wright State ... Sarah shot 57 percent from the field at Long Island Lutheran High School as a senior.

SOUTH SIDE SHOOTER: Sr. G Arie Williams, a Chicago area product, ranks fifth in school history in 3-point field goals (155) ... Williams has a realistic shot to climb up to No. 2 on the all-time list this season ... He needs 52 triples this year to reach that mark.

Butch Estes

Head Coach

4th Season

Butch Estes was named head coach of Barry University men's basketball team in April 2013.

In 2015-16, the Bucs went 26-7 with a trip to the Elite Eight. It was Barry's best season in school history. The Bucs won a share of the Sunshine State Conference regular season title. Barry was 14-0 at home. Yunio Barrueta was named to four All-America teams and broke numerous school records. Tray Leonard recorded the first triple-double in school history. Elvar Fridriksson and the Bucs led the nation in assists. Estes won his 500th career game on Jan. 13, 2016.

In 2014-15, he guided the Buccaneers to a 25-6 record and NCAA Tournament second round appearance. His team climbed to No. 2 in the polls. Barry beat No. 1 Florida Southern, the eventual national champion, on the road. Barry was ranked for 16 straight weeks during the 2014-15 season, the seventh longest streak in the country.

In his first season with the Buccaneers, Estes guided Barry to a 19-9 record and trip to the NCAA Tournament. The Buccaneers finished fourth in the Sunshine State Conference, following a 9-7 league mark. Barry won the Lynn Holiday Classic, beating No. 13 Livingstone. The Bucs also knocked off No. 6 Florida Southern. Barry opened the season with nine straight wins to earn a No. 25 national ranking. His team ranked fourth in the nation in assists per game (18.9).

Prior to Barry, Estes coached for 30 years, most recently at Palm Beach State College. He led the Panthers to an 80-14 mark in three seasons, all of which were punctuated by conference championships. In 2012-13, Palm Beach State went 29-3 to set a school record for wins. His first Panther team went 25-6, while the 2011-12 squad was 26-5. Palm Beach State went from worst to first in Estes' first season after he inherited a team that finished in last place in the Southern Conference the year before he took over. That was the second time Estes accomplished that feat, having taken a Shoreline College team from 6-20 to 19-6 in one year's turnaround from 2008-09 to 2009-10.

Estes has received 10 Coach of the Year awards in his career, collecting at least one at every stop along his well-travelled coaching journey. Estes' first head coaching stop came at Presbyterian College from 1980-85. He then spent nine years at Furman University from 1985-94. Following a five-year layoff away from the court when Estes transitioned into a basketball analyst for Fox Sports Network, he coached from 1999-2003 at Guilford College.

At Presbyterian, Estes' teams were 92-63 in five seasons. He coached three teams to 20-plus wins seasons. In 1983-84, Presbyterian went 25-6. The following year the Blue Hose went 24-8. In 1982-83, Presbyterian put together a 21-12 record. While in Clinton, S.C., his teams beat Texas-San Antonio and Stetson.

In nine seasons at Furman from 1985-94, his teams went 135-122. In 1990-91, the Paladins went 20-9 overall, 11-3 in the Southern Conference to win the regular season league title. His 1987-88 team was 18-10 overall, 11-5 in the SoConn. A year earlier, he guided Furman to a 17-12, 10-6 mark. His Furman teams beat Wake Forest, 80-68, in Winston-Salem on Dec. 5, 1987 and Villanova, 77-73 in overtime, at home on Dec. 23, 1989. Estes held assistant coaching positions at The Citadel, East Carolina and Rice before accepting the head coaching position at Presbyterian.

Following his analyst role with Fox, he returned to the sidelines, landing the head coaching job at Guilford, an NCAA Division III school in Greensboro, N.C. His Quakers teams went 43-58 in four seasons. In 2001-02, his club went 15-11 overall, 10-8 in the Old Dominion Athletic Conference. From 2003-06, Estes coached Miami-Dade Community College to a 69-22 record. He was an assistant coach at the University of Miami in 2006-07, before moving to the Seattle area to support his wife's career. He accepted an assistant coaching position at Seattle University in 2007-08. The following year, Estes took over a struggling program at Shoreline College in Washington, compiling a 25-28 record in two seasons. His second Shoreline team went 19-7 overall, 13-3 in the league to win the conference championship and advance to the national tournament. Estes received his eighth career league Coach of the Year award in 2009-10.

Estes played freshman basketball at the University of North Carolina, where he was a student assistant under Tar Heels legendary coach Dean Smith.

Estes received his bachelor's degree in physical education from North Carolina in 1973. He was a graduate assistant coach at The Citadel, where he earned his master's degree in administrative education.

He is married to Tonya Estes, and has two sons, Brad and Drew.
