BLAKE JAMES

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

MINNESOTA STATE-MANKATO, 1992

Since taking over as the University of Miami's Director of Athletics in 2013, Blake James has transformed Miami Athletics, spearheading improvement in all aspects of the department, including postseason appearances, student-athlete support, facility upgrades, ticket sales and academic achievement.

Miami's recent success has garnered James and UM national recognition. In March 2017, James was selected as one of four Division I recipients of the 2016-17 Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year award, an honor given by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA). In June 2017, James began a two-year term as Chair of the NCAA Division I Council, the group responsible for the day-to-day decision-making for all of Division I.

James has placed a strong emphasis on academics during his four-plus years at Miami. In the most recent Graduation Success Rate figures released by the NCAA, Miami student-athletes posted a GSR mark of 90%. Ten Hurricane teams posted perfect 2015-16 scores on the latest Academic Progress Report (APR). In addition, Miami's football program received the 2016 AFCA Academic Achievement Award. In 2016, Hurricane student-athletes also ranked among the nation's best in time committed towards community service.

In the department's continuing efforts to better support student-athletes and coaches, the Hurricane Club -- the fundraising arm of Miami Athletics -- completed a record-setting year in 2016-17. The Hurricane Club raised $49 million, an all-time record and an increase of more than 80 percent from the previous record of $26.5 million, set in 2010-11. The Hurricane Club's membership of more than 11,000 members represents an over 100-percent jump from its membership of 5,140 in 2010.

Prior to the 2016 football season, James led the university's football coaching search which resulted in the hiring of Hurricane alum Mark Richt as the football program's new head coach. Richt paid immediate dividends in 2016 as the Hurricanes posted a 9-4 record, won their first bowl game in 10 years and finished ranked #20 in the final Associated Press poll, their first season-ending ranking since 2009.

During the 2015-16 academic year, Miami was the only school in NCAA Division I to have its football team play in a bowl game, its men's and women's basketball teams advance to the NCAA Tournament and its baseball team advance to the College World Series. Overall, Miami had 10 sports programs advance to postseason competition to secure its highest finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup standings in 13 years, an indication of broad-based athletic department success.

During James' tenure, Miami has completed several facility enhancements, including the opening of the Schwartz Center for Athletic Excellence; the completion of the student-athlete training table, fueling station and dining hall; new artificial and natural playing surfaces and lights on the Greentree Practice Fields' and a center-hung scoreboard inside the Watson Center.

James has also led multiple, multi-million dollar capital renovation projects, including renovations of the Hecht Center and the men's and women's basketball offices. Over the past year, Miami Athletics has secured six leadership gifts of seven figures-or-more, including the largest donation in department history -- a $14 million gift from the Soffer Family, which will serve as the lead gift for the Hurricanes' $34 million Carol Soffer Football Indoor Practice Facility, which broke ground this year.

Ticket sales are also at an all-time high. In 2016, Miami sold a school-record 42,000 football season tickets and ranked first among Power 5 programs in attendance percentage increase (23 percent) over 2015 attendance. The Hurricanes have also sold out their men's basketball season tickets in back-to-back seasons for the first time ever.

In 2016, Miami has transformed its broadcast, communications and marketing departments into one of the nation's leaders in digital media and video production. In 2016, Miami aired more live events on ESPN3 than any other ACC institution. James was also instrumental in helping Miami strike one of the largest apparel deals in the country with adidas.

Prior to being named AD, James served Miami Athletics in the roles of Interim AD and Senior Associate AD for Development and Ticket Operations, where he oversaw the day-to-day operations of development, ticket sales and ticket operations. He also was a member of the Hurricanes' senior staff and provided sport supervision.

James came to UM after spending seven years at the University of Maine, where he first served as Senior Associate Athletic Director before serving as Director of Athletics from 2005 to 2010. During his tenure at Maine, athletics experienced tremendous success, including three trips to the Frozen Four for the men's ice hockey program and NCAA playoff berths for football, baseball (two), women's basketball and softball. James implemented a comprehensive $17 million facility improvement plan at Maine, which included an indoor practice facility and numerous other facility upgrades and renovations. Academically, the program flourished, earning the conference academic cup twice and student-athletes maintaining a 3.0 GPA or above.

Prior to his stint at Maine, James worked in athletic development at Providence College, where he established the "Friars Forever" campaign and the Friar Athletic Fund.

James is no stranger to South Florida, beginning his athletic career with the University of Miami, working in ticket sales, corporate sales and athletic development. In 1995, he was hired as Miami's Director of Ticket Sales, serving in that capacity until 1997, when he was named an athletic development officer at the University of Nebraska. He returned to Miami in 1998 as the Director of Major Gifts and Corporate Sales and was promoted to the Director of Athletic Development at Miami in 2000 before moving on to Providence in 2002.

James graduated from Minnesota State University - Mankato with a Bachelor's degree in Marketing in 1992 and later received his Master's degree in Sports Administration from St. Thomas University in 1994. He and his wife, Kelly, have two children: daughter, Haley, and son, Ryan.

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER
SAINT LEO, 1999

In his current position, Layton is responsible for managing the department's business office, marketing, digital strategies, communications, ticket sales, ticket operations, client experience, video production and broadcast departments.

Additionally, Layton has oversight of all departmental licensing matters, Hurricane Sports Properties, serves as the department ACC Network liaison and is the sport administrator for men's basketball.

Since his arrival, Miami has seen exceptional growth in ticket sales and video production services in both content and broadcast with ESPN and the newly formed ACC Network.

Under his watch, Miami has seen an increased level of season ticket sales in football and men's basketball. Under Layton's guidance, Miami saw an unprecedented growth in football attendance during the 2016 season, as the Hurricanes totaled 42,000 season ticket holders and averaged 58,572 fans per game – the 27th-highest total in the nation and leader among all Power Five schools in percentage increase on a year-to-year basis (23 percent).

In addition, Miami sold out its entire 2015-16 and 2016-17 men's basketball season ticket allotment, marking the first time in Hurricane Athletics history that a team has sold out its entire season ticket allotment in back-to-back seasons.

Layton also serves as the primary contact for ESPN with the recent launch of the ACC Network, first in digital format in August 2016 and building to the linear network in fall of 2019. Since 2015, Miami has produced over 200 live events on ESPN3/ACC Network Extra – a figure that ranks near the top of all ACC schools.

Layton, a Florida native, arrived in Miami after spending the 2013 and 2014 seasons at Colorado State University where he served as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Sales and Marketing. During his time in Fort Collins, Colo., Layton's ticket sales plans drove double-digit increases in football, volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball revenue and tickets sold.

Before his arrival at Colorado State, Layton spent 13 years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In his 13 years with the club, he handled a variety of responsibilities from sales, marketing, ticketing and luxury suite operations to advertising, accounting, finance and purchasing. ## 2017 NOTEBOOK

DEFENSIVE LINE PLAYING IT "KOOL" UNDER ONE OF NATION'S BEST

- Assistant head coach and defensive line coach Craig Kuligowski, widely regarded as one of the best line coaches in America, has made an immediate impact in his first two seasons coaching the defensive line at Miami.
- The Hurricanes rank first in in the FBS in team sacks (3.58) and second nationwide in tackles for loss per game (8.8).
- With just the Capital One Orange Bowl remaining, Miami's 105 tackles for loss are already its eighth-most since 2000.
- In a win over Virginia on Nov. 18, the Hurricanes tied a season high with 11 tackles for loss and had its second-most sacks (five) of the year. Senior DL Trent Harris had 2.5 TFLs and two sacks while junior DL RJ McIntosh added 3.0 TFLs.
- Facing what many considered the best offensive lines in the nation, Miami totaled nine tackles for loss (29 yards) and five sacks against Notre Dame on Nov. 11. Harris had two sacks in that game, as well; he leads the Hurricanes with 8.5 sacks this year.
- The Hurricanes posted season-high marks of six sacks & 11 tackles for loss vs. Duke on Sept. 29
- Miami finished the 2016 season fifth in the nation in tackles for loss per game (8.3) and ranked 22nd in sacks per game (2.85). The Hurricanes finished 2016 with 108 tackles for loss and 38 sacks..
- Following the 2016 season, Kuligowski was promoted to Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line.

"BADG-O-MATIC" THE TOP KICKER IN MIAMI FOOTBALL HISTORY

- With two field goals against Notre Dame on Nov. 11, K Michael Badgley made history by becoming Miami's all-time leader in field goals made with 74. He hit his 75th field goal against Virginia and added his 76th field goal in the ACC Championship Game.
- Badgley, who was named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award, moved past Hurricane great Carlos Huerta (1988-1991), who had 73 in his career. Badgley hit a Miami-record 25 field goals in 2015.
- Badgley 397 career points are tied with Huerta for the most points in Miami Hurricanes history.
- The New Jersey native, who was named to the All-ACC First Team for the first time in his career, has enjoyed a strong final season at Miami, going 16-for-20 on field goals and 42-for-43 on extra-point attempts.
- Badgley's 80.0 field goal percentage ranks 39th nationally and is the fifth-best mark in the ACC.
- Badgley connected on a game-winning field goal with four seconds remaining against Georgia Tech (Oct. 14), his fourth of the game.

BALLHAWKING IN THE SECONDARY

- The Hurricanes rank first in the ACC and are second nationally with an average turnover margin of +1.25 per game (+15 for the season), and a big reason is standout play in the Miami secondary.
- Miami's 30 gained turnovers are the second-most nationally and its 17 interceptions are ninth-most nationally.
- UM, who ranks first in the ACC in turnover margin & turnovers gained, forced just 19 turnovers in 2016.
- DB Trajan Bandy's pick-six vs. Notre Dame on Nov. 11 was Miami's first defensive score of the season and the first interception returned for a TD by a Hurricane since Tyrriq McCord vs. Cincinnati in 2014.
- DB Jaquan Johnson followed up Bandy's pick-six with his own against Virginia (Nov. 18).
- A week after matching Syracuse QB Eric Dungey's entire season interception total in a single game (four), Miami had three more interceptions on Oct. 28 in a 24-19 win over North Carolina.

CONSISTENT CANES

- Of the 22 field positions, 10 Hurricanes have been starters in every game this season: QB Malik Rosier, WR Braxton Berrios, LT Kc McDermott, LG Trevor Darling, C Tyler Gauthier, RT Tyree St. Louis, DL Chad Thomas, DL RJ McIntosh, LB Shaquille Quarterman and DB Jaquan Johnson. DL Kendrick Norton has started 11 of 12 games on the defensive line.
- McDermott's 33-game consecutive start streak is the longest on the team.
- Sophomore LB Shaquille Quarterman has started every game of his Hurricanes career (25).
- Returnees OL Kc McDermott, OL Mark Walton, RJ McIntosh, Kendrick Norton, Shaquille Quarterman and Michael Pinckney were the only Miami players to start in every game in 2016.

FIVE MIAMI LEGENDS INDUCTED INTO MIAMI'S RING OF HONOR

- Michael Irvin, Ray Lewis, Ed Reed, Warren Sapp and Sean Taylor were inducted into the Ring of Honor and recognized for their brilliant careers during the Hurricanes' game against Georgia Tech at Hard Rock Stadium on Oct. 12. Irvin, Lewis, Sapp and members of Taylor's family were on-hand.
- All five inductees are members of the University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame, while both Irvin and Sapp are also members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. A luncheon in their honor was held Oct. 11.
- The group of five Hurricanes brought the total of Ring of Honor inductees to 23, as they join Class of 1997 inductees Jim Dooley, Ted Hendricks, Georgia Mira and Vinny Testaverde, Class of 1999 inductees Ottis Anderson, Don Bosseler, Bernie Kosar and Burgess Owens, Class of 2008 inductees Edgerrin James, Jim Kelly, Cortez Kennedy, Jim Otto and Gino Torretta, Class of 2009 inductees Bennie Blades, Eddie Dunn and Steve Walsh, and Class of 2014 inductees Jerome Brown and Russell Maryland.

CAROL SOFFER FOOTBALL INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY COMING SOON

- Construction of the Carol Soffer Football Indoor Practice Facility is underway on the University of Miami's Coral Gables campus.
- In September 2016, Miami announced the largest donation in the history of the athletics department as the lead gift for a state-of-the-art football indoor practice facility; in honor of their mother Carol, Jeffrey Soffer and Carol's other children made a $14 million commitment towards the Carol Soffer Football Indoor Practice Facility.
- Head coach Mark Richt pledged $1 million towards the facility and football alumnus and linebacker great Jon Beason was among those alumni to give to the project. Beason's gift was $250,000.
- Miami had its groundbreaking ceremony for the $34 million facility in May 2017.
- The 81,800-square-foot facility will feature two field-turf fields - one 80 yards long and an additional 40-yard field directly connecting to the Squillante Strength and Conditioning Center.

MARK RICHT

HEAD COACH | SECOND SEASON AT MIAMI (17TH OVERALL) | 164-57 (.742)

In just two seasons as head coach, Mark Richt has made an indelible impact on his alma mater's football program -- both on and off the field.

Richt has posted a 19-6 record over those two seasons, the third best start in Miami history, and a stretch that included a 15-game winning streak -- UM's longest since 2002. The Hurricanes won 10 games in 2017, climbing as high as second in the College Football Playoff rankings. Miami captured the Atlantic Coast Conference's Coastal Division for the first time in its history and earned an invitation to the Capital One Orange Bowl for the first time in 13 years. Richt won 2017 ACC Coach of the Year honors and was also named the 2017 Walter Camp Coach of the Year.

The Hurricanes led the nation in turnover margin in 2017, forcing 30 takeaways, and ranked first in team sacks per game (3.55). Junior quarterback Malik Rosier accounted for 30 total touchdowns, tying Vinny Testaverde's single-season school record, and helping Miami rank 12th in the nation in red zone offense (92.7 percent). Junior defensive back Jaquan Johnson had a breakout season, leading the team with 85 tackles, picking off four passes and earning ACC Defensive Back of the Week honors three times. Overall, 10 Hurricanes earned All-ACC honors, including kicker Michael Badgley, who was named first-team All-ACC.

Off the field, Richt has energized the program, from supporting the fundraising efforts for the Carol Sofer Football Indoor Practice Facility to launching The U Network, which assists former Hurricanes in networking and career placement after their playing careers have concluded. Miami was one of three schools, along with Stanford and Northwestern, to earn the 2016 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Academic Achievement Award. In addition, the Hurricanes ranked first among all FBS programs in 2016 in the NCAA Team Works Helper Community Service Competition.

Richt was named the University of Miami's 24th head football coach on Dec. 4, 2015. His hiring provided immediate dividends as the Hurricanes posted a 9-4 record in his first season in Coral Gables. Miami then defeated West Virginia, 31-14, in the Russell Athletic Bowl for the program's first bowl victory in 10 years. The Hurricanes were ranked No. 20 in the final Associated Press poll and No. 23 in the final Amway Coaches Poll -- the program's first season-ending rankings since 2009.

Miami had 10 players earned ACSMA All-ACC honors in 2016, while quarterback Brad Kaaya became Miami's all-time passing yards leader. Freshman wide receiver Ahmmon Richards broke the 31-year-old freshman receiving record at Miami originally set by Michael Irvin, while sophomore running back Mark Walton became the 11th 1,000-yard rusher in program history.

Richt, born in Omaha, Neb., and raised in Boca Raton, Fla., returned to his alma mater after leading the University of Georgia football program for the previous 15 years. He compiled a 145-51 overall record and an 85-40 mark in Southeastern Conference play. Georgia won two SEC championships, six SEC East titles and nine bowl games under Richt, and finished the season in the Associated Press Top-10 rankings seven times.

Richt's 164 career wins rank fourth among active FBS head coaches and his .744 winning percentage ranks as the seventh best among current FBS coaches with at least five years of experience. Richt is one of only seven head coaches in SEC history to record four straight 10-win seasons (2002-05).

During his tenure in Athens, 85 of Richt's players were selected in the NFL Draft, including eight chosen in the 2002 and 2013 NFL Drafts -- the most Georgia players ever selected in a single year. Richt also placed a strong emphasis on academics as 292 Georgia players earned their degrees during his tenure.

In 2016, Richt was named the first-ever honorary head coach of the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team for his commitment to giving back to others. In 2013, Richt received the Stallings Award given for commitment to humanitarian and community service efforts, and in 2010, he was named to the AFCA Board of Trustees.

Richt is married to the former Katharyn Francis of Tallahassee. The couple has four children -- Jonathan, David, Zach, and Anya. Jon, the Miami quarterbacks coach, was married to the former Anna Cearley, in May 2010. They have one daughter, Jadyan.

Manny Diaz is in his second season as the Hurricanes' defensive coordinator. In addition to his duties as Miami's defensive coordinator, Diaz coaches the linebackers.

Continuing the impressive trends from Diaz's first year running the defense, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in turnover margin, first nationally in team sacks, second nationally in tackles for loss, ninth nationally in opponent yards per play and 11th nationally in team passing efficiency defense. Five Hurricanes on the defensive side of the ball earned 2017 All-ACC honors while another three picked up Honorable Mention recognition.

Miami's defense enjoyed vast improvements under Diaz' watch and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in his first season in 2016.

At the conclusion of the regular season, Miami was ranked No. 26 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 a season ago), No. 13 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 14 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 6 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and No. 17 in defensive touchdowns (not ranked in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers, and three defensive players earned AC-SMA All-ACC honors - senior defensive backs Corn Elder (second team) and Rayshawn Jenkins (honorable mention) and Quarterman at linebacker (honorable mention).

Diaz, the son of the former mayor of Miami, Manny Diaz, returned home to South Florida after 18 years of defensive experience. During his 20-year coaching career, Diaz has coached in 16 bowl games and has coached numerous all-conference and NFL players at six collegiate institutions.

In 2015, Diaz's defensive unit helped Mississippi State to a 9-4 record and a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. His defensive unit held opponents to just 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense and tackles for loss.

Diaz spent one season, 2014, at Louisiana Tech and his impact was felt in a big way. The Bulldogs led the nation in turnovers gained (42) with 16 fumble recoveries and 26 interceptions.

Before his stop at Louisiana Tech, Diaz coached three seasons at Texas (2011-13). His 2011 defensive unit ranked ninth in total yards per play.

In 2010, during his first stint at Mississippi State, Diaz guided a defense that ranked 22nd in the nation in scoring defense (19.9 ppg), 17th in rushing defense (214.9 ypg) and 17th in tackles for loss (7.0 pg).

Before his first stop at Mississippi State, Diaz spent four seasons as defensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee State. Diaz coached linebackers for two years after mentoring the safeties during his first two years. In four years under Diaz, the Middle Tennessee defense led its conference in sacks and tackles for loss twice, and finished no lower than third in the league in either category during his tenure.

Before joining Middle Tennessee, Diaz played a significant role for one of the country's top-ranked defenses by coaching safeties in 2004-05 and handling the linebackers in 2002-03 for NC State.

Diaz spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons at NCSU as a graduate assistant working primarily with the linebackers. During that time, the Wolfpack went to two bowl games and became the first ACC team to beat Florida State in Tallahassee. Diaz began his coaching career at Florida State in 1998.

Diaz and his wife Stephanie have three children, Colin, Gavin and Manny.

Offensive Coordinator/Running Backs | Second Season at Miami (Seventh Overall)

Thomas Brown is in his second season as the Hurricanes' offensive coordinator. In addition to his duties as Miami's offensive coordinator, Brown also coaches the running backs.

prolific rushing performances in the country in 2014 with a school-record 644 rushing yards vs. Bowling Green and 581 vs. Nebraska, and their average of 6.91 yards per rushing attempt ranked as the fourth-best mark in FBS history.

Miami's offense enjoyed a strong 2017 under his guidance, with Travis Homer earning second-team All-ACC recognition despite taking over as starting running back five games into the season due to a season-ending injury to All-ACC junior Mark Walton. In total, four Hurricanes on the offensive side of the ball were named All-ACC with another three earning Honorable Mention recognition.

Before joining the Wisconsin staff, Brown served as the running backs coach at Marshall in 2013 and at UT Chattanooga in 2012. He spent the 2011 season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Georgia.

At Marshall, Brown helped direct Conference USA's second-ranked rushing offense which averaged 205.9 rushing yards per game (ranked 24th nationally). The Herd won the C-USA East Division title with a 7-1 record and defeated Maryland, 31-20, in the Military Bowl.

Under his watch in 2016, Walton became just the 11th running back in Miami history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season

Brown spent the 2015 campaign on Mark Richt's staff at Georgia where he coached the Bulldog running backs. During Brown's time with the Bulldogs, Georgia rushed for 2,513 yards (194.3 yards per game).

A native of Atlanta, Ga., Brown starred at Tucker High School before enrolling at Georgia and helping the Bulldogs to the 2005 Southeastern Conference championship. He finished his career as the fifth-leading rushing in Georgia history with 2,646 career yards and led the Bulldogs in rushing in 2005 and 2006. For his career, Brown averaged 5.0 yards per carry and scored 25 touchdowns. He was elected by his teammates as the permanent offensive team captain in 2007.

In 2015, he oversaw running back Sony Michel as he rushed for 1,076 yards. Michel became the 13th Bulldog in school history to rush for at least 1,000 yards in a season.

He was selected in the sixth round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons and spent the 2009 season with the Cleveland Browns before retiring to pursue coaching opportunities.

Before arriving at Georgia, Brown coached Heisman Trophy runner-up Melvin Gordon at Wisconsin in 2014. Gordon posted the second-best season ever by a running back with 2,587 rushing yards and 32 total touchdowns. He and sophomore Corey Clement combined to run for 3,536 yards to break the single-season Football Bowl Subdivision record for rushing yards by teammates that had been set the year before by Gordon and James White (3,053 yards).

Brown earned his bachelor's degree in speech communications from UGA. He and his wife, Jessica, have two children, Orlando and Tyson.

Craig Kuligowski is in his second season as the Hurricanes' defensive line coach and first as assistant head coach.

Continuing the impressive trends from Kuligowski's first year on the defensive staff, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, first nationally in turnover margin, second nationally in tackles for loss, ninth nationally in opponent yards per play and 11th nationally in team passing efficiency defense.

Three of his defensive linemen earned All-ACC recognition in 2017: RJ McIntosh (second team), Trent Harris (third team) and Kendrick Norton (honorable mention).

Miami's defensive line enjoyed vast improvements under his guidance and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in 2016.

At the conclusion of the regular season, Miami was ranked No. 26 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 a season ago), No. 13 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 14 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 6 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and No. 17 in defensive touchdowns (not ranked in 2015).

Kuligowski arrived in Coral Gables, Fla., after spending the previous 15 years as the defensive line coach at the University of Missouri.

During his 15-year tenure with the Tigers, for whom he was the longest-tenured position coach in the SEC, Kuligowski coached 24 players to all-conference honors. In addition, Kuligowski produced four first round NFL Draft picks since 2009.

In 2015, Kuligowski's defensive line helped the Tigers rank second in the nation in team tackles for loss. The Tigers also ranked ninth in the nation in total defense.

In 2014, Mizzou led the SEC in sacks (a school-record 44), and was the stingiest defense in the league, allowing a conference-low 300.8 yards per game in league games.

The 2013 season saw the emergence of Michael Sam. He led the SEC in both sacks (11.5) and tackles for loss (19.0) was named SEC Defensive Player of the Year, and became MU's first defensive First-Team All-American since former great Justin Smith in 2001. Sam was a finalist for the Nagurski, Lombardi and Hendricks awards.

Kuligowski's defensive line was arguably the most disruptive and deepest in the nation in 2013, as it was responsible for 39 of Mizzou's 41 season sacks (which led the SEC and ranked 12th nationally), while notching 73.5 of the team's 107 tackles for loss.

Coach "Kool" debuted a star pupil in 2009: redshirt freshman end Aldon Smith, who turned out to be one of the top freshmen in the entire nation. Smith was named the Big 12 Conference Defensive Freshman/Newcomer of the Year, in unanimous fashion, and he also earned third-team All-American honors, as well as first-team Freshman All-American honors for his outstanding play in 2009.

Smith broke the MU single-season quarterback sacks record in 2009, with 11.5 to surpass the old mark of 11 set in 2000 by former Missouri All-American Justin Smith. Aldon Smith also had 19 tackles for loss in his first year on the field for Mizzou, and he led all of the nation's freshmen in both sacks and tackles for loss a year ago.

In 2007, Kuligowski coached all four of his starters on the Tiger defensive line to at least honorable mention All-Big 12 honors.

Kuligowski was credited with building one of the top defensive lines in the MAC during his tenure at Toledo. In 2000, the Rockets were ranked fifth in the country in rushing defense, allowing just 81.5 yards per game and 2.46 yards per carry. They were ranked third in the country in scoring defense, third in total defense and No. 1 in turnover margin.

Kuligowski was a four-year standout at Toledo (1987-90) as an offensive tackle. He was named first team All-MAC two straight years and helped lead the Rockets to the MAC title his senior year.

Kuligowski earned a bachelor of business administration degree from Toledo in 1991. He and his wife Mary have two daughters: Peyton and Madeline, and a

Ron Dugans is in his second season as the Hurricanes' wide receivers coach. In addition to his duties as Miami's wide receivers coach, Dugans also serves as the passing game coordinator.

Miami's offense enjoyed a prolific 2017, including a breakout season from senior wide receiver Braxton Berrios, who earned All-ACC recognition. Berrios posted career-high totals in catches (52), yards (634) and touchdowns (nine), leading Miami in each category on his way to becoming a Campbell Trophy finalist and the Jim Tatum Award recipient from the ACC.

Dugans guided Ahmmon Richards to second-team ACSMA All-ACC honors in his first season in 2016, as Richards set the UM freshman all-time receiving mark with 866 receiving yards. Stacy Coley, who became just the eighth Hurricane to ever top 2,000 career yards - including a career-best 743 under Dugans' watch in 2016 - was named to the All-ACC Third Team.

Dugans, a former wide receiver with the Cincinnati Bengals, has 12 years of coaching experience, making previous stops at Florida State, Georgia Southern, Louisville and USF.

The Tallahassee native spent the 2014 and 2015 seasons at USF, where he helped the Bulls to an 8-5 record and an appearance in the 2015 Miami Beach Bowl. Under Dugans' direction in 2015, junior wide receiver Rodney Adams posted a career-high 822 yards and hauled in a school-record nine receiving touchdowns.

Before his two-year stint at USF, Dugans spent three years at Louisville where he served as an assistant on Charlie Strong's staff from 2010-13.

During his final two seasons at U of L, the Cardinals posted a 23-3 record, including an 11-2 mark and a win in the 2013 Sugar Bowl. He guided wide receiver DeVante Parker to first-team All-American Athletic Conference honors in 2013, as the junior caught 55 passes for 885 yards and 12 touchdowns. Parker, who was also a 2012 first-team All-BIG EAST selection after posting 10 touchdown receptions, logged 28 touchdown catches in his first three seasons.

Prior to his time at Louisville, Dugans coached wide receivers at Georgia Southern (2007-09) for three seasons.

Dugans served as a coaching assistant with the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals during the 2007 season. Prior to that, he coached at his alma mater, Florida State. He spent the 2006 season as a graduate assistant coach on offense.

Dugans reunites with Richt after he played for the first year Hurricanes' coach during his time as offensive coordinator at Florida State.

As a player from 1995-99, Dugans played his first two seasons at FSU before taking a medical redshirt during the 1997 campaign. He returned as a starting wide receiver his final two years from 1998-99 and posted 105 receptions for 1,520 yards and seven touchdowns in his career. He caught six passes for 135 yards in the 1999 Fiesta Bowl BCS National Championship Game against Tennessee and tallied five receptions for 99 yards and two touchdowns in the 2000 Sugar Bowl BCS National Championship Game.

Dugans and his wife, Yasheka, have three children: Yasmin, Y'Allana and Yanni.

Stacy Searels is in his second season as the Hurricanes' offensive line coach.

Four of Searels' offensive linemen were recognized with All-ACC honors in 2017, including senior left tackle Kc McDermott, who was named to the All-ACC Third Team.

Donaldson, one of the top-rated players signed by Miami, was an instant starter at The U and earned Freshman All-America recognition from ESPN.

Under his watch, senior offensive lineman Danny Isidora earned third-team ACSMA All-ACC honors in 2016.

Miami's offensive line played a key role in running back Mark Walton becoming just the 11th 1,000-yard rusher in Miami history in 2016.

Searels, the former offensive line coach at Virginia Tech, Texas, Georgia and LSU, and an All-America offensive lineman as a player at Auburn, reunited with Richt for the second time his career. Searels spent the 2007-10 seasons on Georgia's staff.

The Georgia native arrives in Coral Gables after he spent the past two seasons at Virginia Tech, where his offensive line helped guide the Hokies to a pair of bowl victories.

In 2013, his final season at Texas, Searels' line enabled the Longhorns to finish 36th in the country in rushing offense and 17th in sacks allowed per game. Trey Hopkins was named first-team All-Big 12, while Donald Hawkins secured a spot on the second team.

In 2012, the offensive line, which was without a senior starter, allowed the opposition to post just 4.1 tackles for loss per game, which ranked tied for third in the country.

During his first season at Texas, Searels helped the Longhorns rank 21st nationally and third in the Big 12 with 210.4 rushing yards per game.

Searels joined the Longhorns after coaching the offensive line at Georgia for four seasons. He added the duties of running game coordinator in 2009. During his time in Athens, the Bulldogs ranked in the top 25 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed three times, including ranking sixth and leading the SEC in 2009 with just 12.

A three-year starter on the offensive line at Auburn, Searels earned first-team All-America honors from both The Associated Press and Football News as a senior in 1987.

Searels blocked for Heisman Trophy winner Bo Jackson in 1985 and All-American Brent Fullwood at Auburn in 1986 before becoming a fourth-round draft pick by the San Diego Chargers in 1988. He ended his professional career in 1991 with the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League of American Football.

Hartley guided senior tight end Christopher Herndon IV to a breakout year in 2017 that culminated in All-ACC second-team recognition, while senior kicker Michael Badgley was named to the All-ACC First Team. Badgley became Miami's all-time leader in career field goals made in his final year.

Under his watch, redshirt sophomore tight end David Njoku earned ACSMA All-ACC Honorable Mention recognition and was selected in the first round of the 2017 NFL Draft.

Punter Justin Vogel averaged a career-best 44.2 yards per punt, which ranked 18th nationally, while junior Braxton Berrios' average of 12.8 yards per punt return were the sixth-most nationwide.

Vogel earned ACSMA All-ACC second-team honors.

Hartley arrived in Miami after serving as Georgia's director of recruiting in 2015.

Before his return to Georgia, Hartley spent four years at Marshall serving as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator from 2013-14. He began his tenure at Marshall as the team's defensive assistant and safeties coach.

In 2014, he coached punter Tyler Williams to first-team All-Conference USA honors and tight end Eric Frohnapfel to C-USA and honorable mention All-Conference USA honors, making it the fourth straight year he coached at least one all-league student athlete (2013-tight end Gator Hoskins, 2012-safety Dominick LeGrande and 2011-safety Omar Brown).

His punt unit tied for first in the league in average (43.23) and his kickoff return unit ranked second in the league with a 24.61-yard average. Kickoff return man Deandre Reaves totaled 931 return yards, breaking his school record of 924 from 2013. His extra-point/field goal unit set school records in extra points made (83) and kick points (133). He also coached tight end Ryan Yurachek to Conference USA All-Freshman honors. Prior to the season, his recruiting class was ranked as the best in Conference USA by various recruiting services by a wide margin and among the best within the Group of Five.

In 2013, Hartley mentored Hoskins, a two-time John Mackey Award Watch List honoree who secured a spot on the award's semifinalist list as a senior. A third-team CollegeSportsMadness.com All-American and first-team All-Conference USA selection, the Gainesville, Fla., native finished his career with 28 touchdowns on 99 receptions totaling 1,318 yards. The only player in Herd history to top Hoskins' 28.3 percent touchdown-catches ratio was Randy Moss (31.5 percent on 168 receptions, 53 touchdown catches). His 28 touchdown catches rank third in Herd history (Moss 53, Darius Watts 47).

Georgia had an 11-win season and tallied three bowl victories during Hartley's years working with the Bulldogs, including a 41-10 rout of No. 10 Hawai'i in the 2008 Sugar Bowl. He was instrumental in preparation of the Georgia defense for the 2009 Independence Bowl at a time only one full-time assistant was on staff.

Hartley graduated from Georgia with a degree in health and physical education in May, 2008.

During his three seasons as head coach, Rumph guided the Patriots to three straight Florida High School Athletic Association (FHSA) state playoff appearances and compiled an overall record of 39-6 in one of Florida's most competitive districts.

Rumph wasted little time making his mark on the local high school coaching scene, as his 2013 and 2014 squads claimed 5A FHSAA State Championships, defeating its opponents by a combined score of 104-8 in the final game. American Heritage became just the second school in Broward County history to win back-to-back state football championships.

In 2013 and 2014, Rumph was recognized for his work on the sidelines as he was selected as a coach for the U.S. Army All-American Bowl in San Antonio.

Before taking over as the head coach at American Heritage, Rumph served as the team's defensive coordinator for two seasons.

Miami's defensive backfield enjoyed vast improvements under Banda's watch in 2016.

Senior Rayshawn Jenkins earned ACSMA All-ACC honorable mention recognition under his watch.

At the conclusion of the regular season, Miami was ranked No. 26 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 a season ago), No. 13 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 14 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 6 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and No. 17 in defensive touchdowns (not ranked in 2015).

In 2015, Mississippi State posted a 9-4 record, including a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. The Bulldogs' defensive unit held opponents to just 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense.

was shooting for the national championship. The Volunteers, an underrated team who rolled into New Orleans with a hard-fought SEC title, were looking for the national respect they felt had eluded them. Tennessee used a solid offense and an opportunistic defense to down the second-ranked Canes. Despite constant pressure, Vinny Testaverde threw for 217 yards on 20 of 36 passing. JANUARY 1, 1988 • MIAMI, FLA.

For the second time in five years, the Hurricanes were champions of the college football world. Just as they had done in 1983, the '87 Canes knocked off the nation's No.1-ranked team in the Orange Bowl Classic. Sophomore QB Steve Walsh hit on 18-of-30 passing for 209 yards and two touchdowns. Senior fullback Melvin Bratton nearly broke a UM single-game receiving mark by hauling in nine catches for 102 yards before leaving the game with a knee injury. Bernard Clark stepped into the spotlight at middle linebacker and walked away with the game's MVP award after recording 12 unassisted tackles and 14 overall stops, while the defense limited OU to just 255 yards in total offense.

MIAMI 23, NEBRASKA 3

JANUARY 2, 1989 • MIAMI, FLA.

For the first time in four years, Miami was not playing for the national title in its New Year's bowl game. Moments before kickoff of the 55th annual Orange Bowl Classic vs. Nebraska, the Canes learned that the No. 1 ranked team, Notre Dame, had defeated West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl. As the nation tuned in to the Orange Bowl, many felt the University of Miami would come out flat, knowing that all possibility of a repeat national title had been lost. UM showed its true mettle, dominating the Big Eight Champions on offense, defense, and special teams from the opening kickoff. The statistics backed up the scoreboard as the Canes held a 212-29 advantage in total yards and an 11-2 edge in first downs.
