What Have They Said About The Colonels?

- "Give Eastern Kentucky credit because they kicked us for about 12 to 14 minutes there and we were on our heels offensively. We were turning the ball over and we could not stop them defensively."
-- Roy Williams, North Carolina Head Coach
March 15, 2007 after EKV went on a 32-9 run midway through the game in the first round of the 2007 NCAA Tournament
- "That's why we scheduled this game. That's the type of team you could see win a game or two in the NCAA Tournament, a la Florida Gulf Coast. Those are the type of teams you want to play, but you've got to win. They certainly made that difficult tonight."
-- Shaka Smart, Virginia Commonwealth Head Coach
Dec. 5, 2013 after EKV lost at VCU by three points in overtime
- "The game matched two teams capable of doing some damage in the NCAA tournament, and they didn't disappoint in a fun-to-watch, wide-open affair that left both teams drained and VCU pushed to the limit."
-- Tim Pearrell, Richmond Times-Dispatch
Dec. 6, 2013 after EKV lost at VCU by three points in overtime
- "I'm telling you, we've got this team on tape, on DVD, and they're a much better shooting team than this. So you've got to give our guys credit for what they did defensively."
-- Bo Ryan, Wisconsin Head Coach

Dec. 14, 2013 after EKV shot 21.1 percent from three-point range and lost at No. 4 Wisconsin 86-61

- "First off, I think this a good win for our team because that might potentially be an NCAA Tournament team. They are a really good team with terrific guards. They do a really good job of changing defenses to keep teams off balance."
-- Mark Gottfried, North Carolina State Head Coach
Nov. 30, 2013 after EKV had a 10-point first half lead, led by six at the break and trailed by only three with six minutes to go
- "Jeff (Neubauer) does a terrific job and I think they have more guys on the floor doing what their coach asks them to do than anybody that we play, conference or otherwise."
-- Rick Byrd, Belmont Head Coach
March 8, 2014 after EKV beat No. 1 seed Belmont to win the OVC Tournament title
- "We obviously feel fortunate because I thought Eastern Kentucky was well prepared. They played great. They played loose and certainly gave us everything we wanted. It was a hard-fought game and one in which we had to work our tail off for 40 minutes to come out with a win."
-- Bill Self, Kansas Head Coach
March 21, 2014 after EKV gave No. 2 seed Kansas all it could handle in the NCAA Tournament

2014 Australia Summer Trip

In August, the Colonels traveled to the Land Down Under for a four-game summer trip. ECU played in four cities – Sydney, Wollongong, Brisbane and Cairns. NCAA rules allow teams a maximum of 10 days of practice before leaving for a foreign trip.

Eleven players made the trip, including three newcomers. Senior Deverin Muff and junior college transfer Ja'Mill Powell did not play because of injuries.

The trip included a 16-hour flight from Dallas to Brisbane and another 16-hour flight from Sydney to Dallas on the way home.

The Colonels faced the Sydney Kings, the Wollongong Hawks, the Suncoast Clippers and the Cairns Taipans. The Kings, Hawks and Taipans are professional teams playing in Australia's National Basketball League (NBL). The Clippers play in the Queensland Basketball League (QBL).

In the four games combined, Eastern had 29 more steals, committed 37 fewer turnovers and out-scored its opponents by 29 points off turnovers.

GAME 1

In its first game, Eastern Kentucky lost 76-65 to Sydney. The Colonels overcame a 7-point halftime deficit to take a 43-42 lead in the third quarter. However, the Kings rolled off 11 unanswered and never trailed again.

Corey Walden tied for the game-high with 20 points. He also had nine rebounds, six assists and two steals. Jaylen Babb-Harrison scored 16 points while Eric Stutz contributed 11 points and seven rebounds.

Eastern Kentucky shot only 31 percent (22-of-70) from the field. The Colonels made just 2-of-16 from behind the three-point line in the first half (13 percent) and finished 7-for-37 (19 percent) from deep. As it has done for most of the past two seasons, ECU committed fewer turnovers (24-15), but the visitors were out-scored 40-20 in the paint.

ECU overcame an 11-point fourth quarter deficit, but fell to Wollongong, 106-99, in overtime in its second game of the tour.

Babb-Harrison's driving lay-up in the closing seconds tied the score and sent the game to overtime. Wollongong seized control in the extra period by scoring six of the first eight points.

The lead changed hands 26 times in the game and the score was tied 15 times.

Walden finished with 28 points, eight steals, three rebounds and two assists. He made 11-of-21 from the field (52 percent). Timmy Knipp finished with 19 points, four rebounds and three assists. Stutz contributed 11 points, seven assists, seven rebounds and two blocks.

ECU was out-rebounded by 24, but forced 34 turnovers off 19 steals. The Colonels attempted 27 more shots than the Hawks. Despite being out-rebounded, Eastern was only out-scored in the paint by six. The Colonels shot 42 percent from the field, 28 percent from three-point range (11-of-40) and 90 percent at the charity stripe (18-of-20).

A 12-0 run to end the second quarter propelled Eastern Kentucky to a 125-91 victory over Suncoast.

The Colonels never trailed and the game was tied just three times. All nine players that played scored in double figures, eight had at least one rebound and seven dished out at least one assist.

Babb-Harrison led all players with 21 points. Knipp finished with 17 points, six rebounds, four assists, two steals and two blocks. He hit 5-of-9 from the field, including 4-of-8 from behind the three-point line.

Isaac McGlone accounted for six of ECU's points during the big run with a pair of three-pointers. Babb-Harrison's two free throws sent the Colonels to the locker room leading 69-46.

ECU shot 56 percent from the field, including 46 percent from deep. The Colonels made 21-of-46 attempts from behind the arc. More than half of the teams 80 field goal attempts came from three-point land. Eastern committed just 12 turnovers, compared to 24 for Suncoast.

Walden finished the night with 13 points, six assists, five rebounds and three steals. Stutz contributed 14 points, six rebounds, four assists, two steals and two blocks.

Robbie Stenzel (14), McGlone (13), Norl (13), Paul Jackson (10) and Matthews (10) also scored in double figures. Jackson, a freshman, hit 4-of-5 from the field, dished out five assists and grabbed four boards.

Eastern Kentucky lost 77-75 to Cairns in its final game. Knipp led all players with 21 points. Stutz finished with 17 points. Walden contributed 12 points, seven rebounds and five assists.

With the game tied 60-60 early in the fourth quarter, Cairns went on a 7-1 run to build a cushion. After a pair of free throws, the Taipans had a seven-point lead late in the quarter. However, Knipp scored five straight to get the Colonels back within two. Cairns hit two more free throws before Walden took it the length of the floor and laid it in with about four seconds remaining to keep the margin at two. ECU fouled and the Taipans missed both free throws, but a shot for the win at the buzzer missed.

In its first three games in Australia, Eastern had committed an average of 12 fewer turnovers per game than its opponents. In this game both teams finished with 18 turnovers.

Eastern Kentucky scored the first five points of the second quarter to take a 10 point lead, its largest of the game. The Colonels took a 44-38 lead into the locker room at the half.

ECU shot 43 percent from the field and 34 percent from three-point range. The Taipans hit on 45 percent of their shots but were just 3-of-19 from deep for 16 percent.

Not many college basketball players get the chance to play for a program that averages a postseason trip every two years, but that is what ECU players have experienced under head coach Jeff Neubauer.

The Colonels have made four trips to national postseason tournaments in Neubauer's nine seasons as head coach. This past March, Eastern nearly upset No. 2 seed Kansas in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

ECU led the Jayhawks by nine in the first half and still had the lead with 8:55 left in the game. The Colonels trailed by only three with 3:39 on the clock. Eastern held the lead for more than half the game.

In Eastern Kentucky's 93 seasons of basketball before Neubauer became the head coach, the team made only seven appearances in national postseason tournaments. The Colonels have now made four trips in the past nine seasons, including back-to-back appearances for the first time (2012-13 and 2013-14).

The past four seasons have been like none other. Eastern Kentucky's 80 victories the last four years are the most during any four-year period in school history. The Colonels also set records this past season for winningest 3-year and 2-year stretches. ECU won a school-record 25 games in 2012-13 and with 24 more wins in 2013-14 the team has 49 victories in the past two seasons.

Before giving Kansas all it could handle in the NCAA Tournament, Neubauer led the Colonels on a methodical march through the Ohio Valley Conference tourney. Eastern won three games in three days and trailed for only 41 seconds during the entire tournament.

ECU finished second in the nation in turnover margin, fifth in three-point field goals per game and sixth in steals. With a win over Chattanooga on Feb. 4, the Colonels set a program mark with their 22nd straight home court non-conference victory. ECU is 44-7 (.863) in home non-conference games under Neubauer.

In recognition of a spectacular season, Neubauer was one of 15 finalists for the 2014 Hugh Durham Award, which is given annually to the nation's top mid-major coach.

In addition to the team's accomplishments in 2013-14, a number of individuals posted outstanding seasons under Neubauer's guidance. Marcus Lewis won the Denny's Slam Dunk Championship at the 2014 Final Four. Corey Walden was the OVC Tournament MVP, the 2014 OVC Defensive Player of the Year and selected as a Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American. Glenn Cosey was chosen as a Lou Henson All-American and first team all-conference. Cosey broke the school record for three-pointers in a game and the mark for three's in a season. His 35-foot three-pointer to beat Southeast Missouri earned the No. 1 spot on SportsCenter's Top-10 Plays.

Neubauer's 2012-13 team finished 25-10 and earned a spot in the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT). Eastern finished with three more wins than the previous program-best of 22, including the program's first victory in a national postseason tournament game in 68 years. The 69-62 victory over Garner-Webb in the first round of the CIT was Eastern's first tournament win since 1945.

The Colonels were picked to finish fifth in the six-team Ohio Valley Conference East Division, but entered the final day of the regular season with a chance to claim a share of the conference championship. ECU finished with the second best record in the OVC at 12-4.

At the end of the season, Neubauer was chosen as the 2013 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 19 Coach of the Year.

Eastern Kentucky started the season with nine straight wins. It was the program's best start in 66 years. Neubauer's Colonels were the last remaining unbeaten mid-major team and one of the final nine undefeated teams in the nation. ECU's 9-game winning streak tied for the fifth longest in school history.

The Colonels went 15-1 at home in 2012-13, tying the school mark for most home wins in a season. Eastern Kentucky also played well on the road. Neubauer led the team to a program record nine road wins.

With 167 victories in nine seasons on the ECU bench, Neubauer now trails only Paul McBrayer on Eastern's all-time wins list. He will enter the 2014-15 season 47 wins away from tying McBrayer. Neubauer is the only coach in program history to lead his teams to four 20-win seasons. He has won 58 percent (167-122) of his games as head coach.

Over the last two seasons, Eastern has recorded its two best RPI rankings in the modern era (69th and 95th).

Before arriving at Eastern Kentucky, Neubauer served three seasons as the top assistant at West Virginia under head coach John Beilein where he helped fuel the Mountaineers' rapid rise to national prominence.

He is married to the former Karen Feret of Hackettstown, N.J.
