LARRANAGA BY THE NUMBERS

1 Coach Jim Larranaga is the only ACC coach not at UNC or Duke with a Final Four appearance to his credit.

4 In 2006, Coach Jim Larranaga became the first coach at a mid-major school to take his team to the NCAA Final Four in 27 years.

7 Larranaga is no stranger to the ACC. In his seven seasons as an assistant coach at Virginia, the Cavaliers participated in the NCAA Final Four in 1981 and 1984, won three ACC Championships and finished in the Top 5 of the AP rankings.

8 In all there are eight ACC coaches with three or fewer years' experience in the league, including Larranaga.

12 Larranaga has made 12 postseason appearances in the past 22 years, including five NCAA Tournaments.

28 Larranaga is in his 28th year as a head coach and has successfully transitioned two institutions into successful programs: Bowling Green and George Mason.

MIAMI QUICK HITS

The Canes are 13-24 against the Eagles overall. Miami averages 7.4 three point field goals made per game and 70.9 points per game while Boston College averages 7.3 3FG and just 60.6 ppg.

The Canes have four players scoring more than 9.8 points per game while Boston College has no scorers in double-digit points per game.

UM and BC are both 2-3 in their last five games. Miami was picked to finish fifth in the ACC preseason poll and Boston College was predicted to finish 12th in the league.

UM is 8-2 at home and 3-5 away from the BankUnited Center this season. In ACC play, Miami is 1-1 in Coral Gables and 1-2 on the road.

The Canes have defeated nine of 11 ACC teams on the road since joining the league for the 2004-05 season. Miami has yet to beat Duke or NC State in their home arenas.

Miami has downed 10 of 11 teams in Coral Gables, still playing for a win against North Carolina at the BankUnited Center.

10 THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT CANES HOOPS

3 The Hurricanes have made a threepoint basket in 329-straight games and have made at least one trey in 786 of 789 games since the NCAA adopted the three-point shot in 1986.

4 A Hurricane has led the ACC in three-point field goal percentage in four of the last five seasons — Malcolm Grant in 2011 (.428), Adrian Thomas in 2010 (.421) and Jack McClinton in 2009 (.453, with an ACC-high 3.2 threes per game) and 2007 (.440, with an ACC-high 2.9 threes per game).

5 The Hurricanes have advanced to the postseason five times in seven seasons, with four NIT appearances and one NCAA appearance.

6 When Coach L took the job in April, he had 10 returners from the 12-man roster that went 21-15 last season, but as of November, only six scholarship returners were available to play.

8 UM is in its eighth season in the ACC.

10 Miami trails only Duke with 10 All-ACC Academic Men's Basketball Team selections over the last six years.

12 UM has played in the postseason 12 of the past 17 years, five of which were in the NCAA Tournament.

14 In 14 years at Mason, Larranaga led the Patriots to five NCAA Tournament appearances (2011, 2008, 2006, 2001, 1999), including the 2006 Final Four.

27 The Hurricanes won 27 consecutive non-conference games at the BankUnited Center from to Dec. 31, 2009 to Dec. 6, 2011. The Canes have defeated 42 of its last 45 non-conference opponents at home.

643 Miami has held 643 of its last 644 opponents to less than 100 points. UNC was the last team to score 100+, defeating UM 105-64 on Jan. 31, 2007.

COMMUNICATIONS POLICIES

All interview requests for assistant coaches or athletics department staff members must also be approved and cleared by the UM Communications office and/or basketball contact Amy Woodruff.

Credential requests are taken via e-mail to Amy Woodruff (A. Woodruff@miami.edu). Any misuse of credentials will result in removal from the BankUnited Center and the permanent voiding of the credential.

The UM locker room is closed at all times. For home games, Coach Larranaga and a handful of Hurricane players will report to the media room for interviews following the opposing team's postgame press conference.

Grant has drained 39 so far this season, added to 94 from his junior campaign and 61 in his first year with the Canes. For his career, the senior has made his shots from beyond the arc at a 40.4 percent clip.

CANES & LARRANAGA MAKE LONG TERM COMMITMENT

The University of Miami and Coach Jim Larranaga have agreed to terms on a three-year contract extension that will run through April 30, 2019. Larranaga, who took over the UM program in April of 2011, has led the Canes to an 11-7 record during his debut season. COACHES VS. CANCER SUITS & SNEAKERS WEEKEND

At the game against Boston College, Coach Larranaga & Co. will swap their loafers for sneakers during the ninth annual Coaches vs. Cancer Suits & Sneakers weekend, an effort to bring awareness to the American Cancer Society's vision of a world with less cancer and more birthdays. Coaches vs. Cancer is a collaborative initiative of the American Cancer Society and the National Association of Basketball Coaches, empowering coaches, their teams and local communities to make a difference in the fight against cancer.

LARKIN, A TRUE FRESHMAN, SECOND IN ACC

True freshman Shane Larkin is second in the ACC in steals and is 46th in the NCAA in thefts. In his rookie year, the son of baseball Hall of Famer Barry Larkin has at least three steals in six games and twice has six thefts, at then-No. 3 UNC and at Ole Miss.

RECAPPING MIAMI VS. GEORGIA TECH

Starters for the game were Shane Larkin, Durand Scott, Malcolm Grant, Kenny Kadji and Reggie Johnson. This was the first time the lineup has been used this year and just the second lineup in ACC play this year ... Freshman guard Shane Larkin made his first ACC start of his career. Larkin went 2-of-3 with five assists ... The Canes were 9-of-17 from beyond the arc against Georgia Tech after hitting just 2-of-20 in the Jan. 22 game against NC State ... UM didn't attempt a free throw in the first 29 minutes of the game against Georgia Tech ... Malcolm Grant was 4-of-6 from distance on his way to 11 points in the first half and finished the night with four threes and 16 points. Grant was 0-of-7 in the last outing ... Kenny Kadji scored 14 of Miami's 29 points of the second half. Kadji ended the night with 21 points and eight rebounds.

THE BIG REGG EFFECT

Center Reggie Johnson adds a 6-10, 284-lb presence in the paint, but also has given the Canes an offensive boost in just nine games. With defenses focusing on Big Regg inside, the perimeter has opened up for UM.

In the first nine games, Miami shot 39.9 from the field and 35.5 from long range. Since Johnson's return, the team his hit 49.3 percent of its shots, knocking down 38.8 percent from distance.

In nine games with the big man, junior Kenny Kadji has improved from 7.3 points and 4.7 rebounds to 17.4 points and 6.6 rebounds per game. Durand Scott has improved from 30.2 percent shooting to 51.1 percent and Rion Brown improved from 3.3 points at 20.0 percent to 7.7 ppg to 51.2 percent. For a complete comparison of the Reggie Johnson Effect, see page 12 of the notes.

FIVE PLAYERS SHOOTING BETTER THAN .500

Five Canes are shooting better than 50 percent from the field in the past eight games. DeQuan Jones leads the way at 60.5 percent, followed by Kenny Kadji (58.6), Rion Brown (51.2), Durand Scott (51.1) and Reggie Johnson (50.0).

GRANT TIES RECORD IN CONSECUTIVE THREES; 11TH IN ACC

Malcolm Grant made a three-pointer in 35-straight games from the Dec. 30, 2009 outing against Pepperdine until the Jan. 7, 2012 game at Virginia. His 35 tied the Miami school record with former Cane Jack McClinton. The 35 makes are the 11th-best in ACC history, tying Grant with J.J. Redick (Duke) and McClinton.

SCOTT JOINS GRANT IN 1,000 POINT CLUB

With 17 points against UNCG, junior Durand Scott joined teammate Malcolm Grant in the 1,000 Point Club, the 33rd player in Canes history to top the mark. Scott entered the game needing 15 points to reach the milestone. Malcolm Grant scored nine points against FAU to become the Canes' 32nd player to top the mark.

NINE PLAYERS WITH STARTS; SEVEN LINEUPS

Nine Miami players have earned at least one start this season, with Durand Scott as the only Cane to be on the court at tip off in all 16 games.

Coach Jim Larranaga has used seven starting lineups in 18 games so far this season. See all of the lineups at the bottom of page four of the notes.

CANES FIRE UP THE NETS

In Miami's past nine games, the Canes have averaged a 49.3 percent clip from the field. In those nine games, UM averaged 74.7 ppg, up from the 67.2 average in their first nine outings.

Against FAU, Miami hit 31-of-50 (62%) from the field and 14-of-20 (70%) from beyond the arc. At Charlotte, the Canes shot 54.0 percent (27-50) from the field and 42.1 percent (8-19) from distance. Versus Appalachian State, Miami was 54.9 percent (28-51) from the field and 43.8 percent (7-16) from the three-point line. Against UNCG, hit 31-of-59 (52.5%) from the field and 7-of-20 (35.0) from long range.

ADDING RETURNERS TO THE LINEUP

When Coach L took over the team in April, he planned on having nine returning scholarship players that accounted for 85.9 percent of the team's scoring and 88.1 of the squad's rebounds in 2010-11.

When the season began in November, only six returners were available as Reggie Johnson, DeQuan Jones and Julian Gamble were sidelined. Coach L started the new year with eight scholarship returners.

See the chart below for the percentage of statistics the 2010-11 returning scholarship players bring to the 2011-12 Canes.

	April '11	Nov. '11	Jan. '12
Scholarship returners	9	6	8
Scoring	85.9	58.6	80.3
Field goals made	86.5	54.5	79.5
Three pointers made	67.1	66.4	67.1
Free throws made	93.7	67.8	89.9
Assists	93.0	76.9	88.7
Steals	91.6	67.0	84.7
Rebounds	88.1	36.8	78.7
Blocks	92.7	22.6	68.5

NEW LINEUP SPARKS REBOUNDING NUMBERS

With the addition of big men Reggie Johnson and DeQuan Jones, the Canes have outrebounded six of their past eight opponents after coming up short in the rebounding battle in eight of the first 10 games. Miami outrebounded Charlotte 38-30, the first time the Canes outrebounded an opponent since the game at Purdue. The +9 against UNCG was the second-highest differential of the season, behind UM's +16 (42-26) against Tennessee Tech in the season opener.

LARKIN SCORES 12 IN 1:27

Freshman Shane Larkin scored 12 consecutive points during a 1:27 span that helped the Hurricanes rally from a seven-point deficit early in the second half against UNCG. Larkin hit three 3-pointers and converted three free throws after being fouled on an attempted 3-pointer with 13:54 remaining. Larkin's free throws put Miami ahead for good at 68-67.

LEARNING THE SYSTEM

Along with understanding the expectations of the new coaching staff, the Canes are learning an entirely new system under Coach Larranaga. Miami is playing man-to-man a majority of this season's possessions after playing 2-3 zone primarily in the 2009-10 season. Larranaga has also added his Scramble defense to the Canes' playbook, which has been used multiple times this season. With injuries to the big men, the team also worked without a true back-to-the-basket center, and has played many possessions with a smaller, fourguard lineup.

CANES INCOMPLETE ROSTER

Miami has had a complete roster of uninjured players for only five practices this season. The Canes were without center Reggie Johnson for the first nine games this season, then DeQuan Jones joined the team for the 11th game of the year, but Malcolm Grant missed two games due to a death in the family. Since Dec. 17, Garrius Adams missed five games due to a lower extremity injury, had surgery on Jan. 19 and will be out 4-6 weeks. Julian Gamble is out for the season with a knee injury and Bishop Daniels will redshirt this season.

Games Mi	ssed	Reason
DeQuan Jones	10	Ineligible

GRANT OUT FOR A PAIR OF GAMES

Senior guard Malcolm Grant did not play against Charlotte or Appalachian State following a death in his family on Dec. 22. Grant was with the team on Dec. 30, but did not dress for the game.

REGGIE JOHNSON RETURNS TO THE COURT

Junior center Reggie Johnson stepped on the court for the first time this season just six minutes into the game against FAU. Johnson ended the night with 15 points, nine rebounds, five assists, five blocks and a steal. He was 4-of-6 from the field. Against the Owls, Johnson missed his first shot, but on the next possession, ran the court after a UM turnover and blocked the FAU shot attempt off the glass. The next play Johnson grabbed the defensive rebound for the Canes.

Johnson was cleared by doctors prior to the game against Florida Atlantic University. Johnson successfully underwent surgery on June 30 to repair a torn meniscus in his right knee. He injured the knee during a pick-up game with teammates on June 27 and underwent a MRI on June 28. University of Miami team physician Dr. Bryson Lesniak, M.D., performed the surgery on June 30, which revealed the extent of the injury.

JONES ELIGIBLE FOR 2011-12

On December 20, the University of Miami, after consultation with the NCAA, announced that senior basketball player DeQuan Jones could return to competition immediately. Jones traveled to Charlotte on Dec. 21 and notched seven points, six rebounds and a block in 18 minutes against the 49ers the next day.

In October, Miami announced that Jones would not participate in competition during the 2011-12 men's basketball season as the NCAA and University continued their joint investigation.

KADJI NAMED GAME MVP AT ORANGE BOWL

Junior Kenny Kadji was named the MetroPCS Orange Bowl Basketball Classic MVP of the game. He was 7-of-11 from the field, including his second-straight game hitting 3-of-3 from the arc, on his way to a career-high 21 points. Kadji also was 4-of-5 from the FT line and had three rebounds, a trio of blocks and a pair of steals.

CANE HOOPER NAMED TO PRO BOWL

Former Cane hooper Jimmy Graham (2005-09) was one of five New Orleans Saints to be named to the 2012 NFL Pro Bowl.

Graham, a tight end, had 12 receptions for 158 yards and three touchdowns in the postseason for the Saints. In two years with New Orleans, Graham has 142 receptions for 1,824 yards and 19 touchdowns.

With 1,310 regular season receiving yards, Graham broke Kellen Winslow's 31-year-old NFL record of 1,290 receiving yards in a season by a tight end. But New England Patriots tight end Rob Gronkowski, notched 1,327 yards this season to put his name atop the record listing.

At Miami, Graham played basketball from 2005-2009, graduated with a double major in marketing and management, then joined the 2009 football team while taking graduate classes. That season he totaled 17 receptions for 213 yards and five touchdowns. Graham averaged 4.2 ppg, shooting 49.5 percent from the field, and 4.2 rpg in 120 games in his four years with the Miami men's basketball team.

CANES WEARING LEBRON COLORWAYS

The University of Miami was one of three university basketball teams to hit the court on October 14 in their own colorways of the new Nike LEBRON 9. The Hurricanes are playing in white/white/gorge green/total orange this season. Miami's colorway shoe became available on retail on Nov. 29. Light yet powerful, like its namesake, LeBron James -- and designed in conjunction with his insight -- the LEBRON 9 is the first shoe to integrate Flywire technology and Hyperfuse construction in the upper for superior support. The shoe also combines Max Air 180 and a Nike Zoom unit for comfort and responsiveness.

MIAMI IS A TOP ACADEMIC INSTITUTION

Already the top academic institution in the state of Florida and a world-renowned research institution, the University of Miami and its Department of Athletics are building upon its reputation for developing worldclass students. In the 2012 edition of the U.S. News & World Report's annual issue, the University of Miami rose to number 38 - up from 47 last year, a nine-point rise. UM remains the highest ranked school in the state of Florida.

GRANT JOINS 1,000-POINT CLUB

Senior guard Malcolm Grant scored nine points against FAU to become the Canes' 32nd player to score 1,000 points. Grant entered the game with 992 points in three seasons with the Hurricanes. In his first season, Grant notched 318 points in 33 games (8 starts), then drained 532 points last season in 36 games.

MIAMI SHOOTS 70 PERCENT FROM LONG RANGE

The Canes hit 70 percent (14-20) from long range against FAU, topping their previous season high of 47.1 percent (8-17) against UMass on Dec. 3, 2011. Since the 2005-06 season, Miami's top three-point percentage was 63.2 (12-19) against Maryland on Jan. 7, 2006.

Miami drained 14 three pointers in the game, the most since the 2009-10 season when the Canes hit 14 against Nova Southeastern (11/16/09), then 15 against South Carolina State (12/12/09).

CANES HIT 62 PERCENT FROM THE FIELD

The Canes shot 62.0 percent (31-50) from the field against FAU, the best shooting since Miami hit 24-of-38 (63.2%) against Virginia Tech on Jan. 31, 2010. The Hurricanes scored 93 points against the Owls, the most points scored since Miami notched 94 against Pepperdine on Dec. 30, 2010.

ONLY SIX CANES WITH GAMETIME EXPERIENCE

When Coach Larranaga took the head coaching job at Miami in April, he had 10 returners from the 12-man roster that went 21-15 last season. But as of the first game in November, only six scholarship returners were available to play and only four played more than 15 minutes per game a season ago. Coach L also looked forward to four newcomers, but only three of those players are available this season.

Injuries sidelined junior center Reggie Johnson until Dec. 17 as well as senior forward Julian Gamble and freshman guard Bishop Daniels, while senior forward DeQuan Jones was to sit out the season due to an NCAA/University joint investigation, but joined the team on Dec. 22.

Those first six players combined for 54.5 percent of last year's field goals, 66.4 percent of three-pointers, 67.8 percent of free throws, 76.9 percent of assists and 67.0 percent of steals, but only 36.8 percent of rebounds, 22.6 percent of blocks and 58.6 percent of scoring.

After last season's NIT run, Miami had lost just one player in sixth-year forward Adrian Thomas and looked to return 85.9 percent of its scoring – including 93.7 percent of free throws and 67.1 percent of three-pointers – 93.0 percent of assists, 92.7 percent of blocked shots, 91.6 percent of steals and 88.1 percent of rebounding.

LARKIN EARNS ACC ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

True freshman Shane Larkin earned ACC Rookie of the Week honors on Dec. 5 after averaging 15.0 points, 2.0 assists and 2.0 rebounds in two games the previous week. Larkin, who played high school ball at Dr. Phillips in Orlando, was 6-of-7 from long range (85.7%), hitting 9-of-18 overall from the field, and a perfect 6-of-6 at the line overall.

Against Purdue, he was 4-of-4 from long range and hit both of his free throws for 16 points. He also added two assists in 21 minutes on the court. In that game, Larkin scored 13 of Miami's 15 points from 14:27 to 10:45 in the second half. During that span, Larkin hit a trio of threes, a jumper and two free throws.

Larkin earned his first-career start against UMass on Dec. 3, notching 14 points - including a pair of threes and four free throws - to go along with four rebounds, two assists, a steal and a block in Miami's victory.

CANES WIN 100TH AT BANKUNITED CENTER

The Hurricanes are 7-1 in the BankUnited Center this season after going 13-4 at home in 2010-11. UM is 102-45 overall at the arena since it opened in the 2002-03 season. Miami has compiled an 89-31 record at home since joining the ACC for the 2004-05 season. The Hurricanes have notched double-digit home wins at the BankUnited in four-straight seasons.

SCOTT LEADS IN SCORING DESPITE NO FG

Junior guard Durand Scott led the Canes in scoring against UMass by hitting 16-of-18 free throws. Scott was 0-of-6 from the field, but filled the stat sheet with six assists, six rebounds and a steal in 36 minutes on the court. It's the most points scored by a Division I player without a field goal since Binghamton's Sebastian Hermenier's 17 against Vermont in 2006. Scott's total is the most by a major conference player without a field goal since Indiana's Michael Lewis also scored 16 against Minnesota in 1998.

LARKIN NETS 13 POINTS IN FOUR MINUTES

Freshman guard Shane Larkin scored 13 of Miami's 15 points from 14:27 to 10:45 in the second half at Purdue. In that span, Larkin hit a trio of threes, a jumper and two free throws. Trey McKinney Jones broke up Larkin's streak with a jumper at 12:55.

LARKIN BEGAN WITH THREE IN A TRIO OF GAMES

Shane Larkin scored three points in his first possession each of his first three games with the Canes. In his debut, Larkin drained a three moments after he stepped on the court for the first time in a collegiate game. Against UNF, Larkin made a nice driving layup, then hit the and-one free throw for his first three points of the game. Against FGCU, Larkin again drained a long ball for his first points of the game.

NCAA GRANTS LARKIN A WAIVER

On Nov. 15, freshman Shane Larkin received an NCAA waiver that allowed him to compete immediately for the men's basketball team. Larkin originally committed to DePaul in 2010, but was granted a release from the school in August 2011. Larkin averaged 18.8 points, 6.4 rebounds, 6.3 assists and 3.5 steals per game as a senior at Dr. Phillips High in Orlando. A twotime all state player, he was also runner up for the 6A Player of the Year as a junior and senior. His high school resume landed him among the top 20 point guards in the country by Scout.com and earned him a No. 72 national ranking.

GAMBLE OUT FOR SEASON

In August senior Julian Gamble tore the Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) in his left leg and will miss the entire 2011-12 men's basketball season. A team leader, Gamble started 13 games in 2010-11 and averaged 3.8 points, 4.0 rebounds and 0.8 blocks per game. The Canes now have two post players injured in Gamble and junior center Reggie Johnson.

CANES POST SECOND-BEST TEAM GPA

In the spring of 2011, the men's basketball team posted its second-best spring team GPA in the history of the program. Senior Julian Gamble earned a 4.0 GPA for the fall 2010 semester while Eric Swoope, Adrian Thomas, Justin Heller and Ryan Quigtar registered a 3.0 or better to be named to the 55th Annual ACC Honor Roll. Swoope and Thomas were also listed on the 2011 All-ACC Academic Men's Basketball Team.

CANES IMPROVE STRENGTH AND SPEED

Miami adapted to many changes in the past few months with the addition of coaches and new philosophies. Now the team is learning how basketball is not just about playing defense and shooting a basketball, it's also about the weight room. Since Strength and Conditioning Coach Jim Krumpos joined the staff in the spring, the men's basketball team has increased its strength and speed exponentially. The players were first tested in various strength and agility tests in late May, then were checked again the first week of October. Within those five months, the Canes tremendously improved their team averages on the one-step vertical jump (two inches), the bench press average maximum (26 pounds), the 185 test (3.7 reps) and the mile run (90 seconds). Individually, Malcolm Grant and DeQuan Jones each added four inches to their one-step vertical jump, closely followed by a 3.5-inch increase by Garrius Adams. Four players - Raphael Akpejiori, Rion Brown, DeQuan Jones and Trey McKinney Jones - increased their leg press weight by 180 pounds and three players - Akpejiori, Reggie Johnson and Jones - added 50 pounds to their bench press maximums. In the 185 test, bench pressing 185 pounds as many times as possible, Johnson upped his mark by eight reps and Adams added seven more up-and-downs. Adams and Jones also had major improvements in the chin up (body weight plus weight attached to a belt), notching 69 more pounds per pull up than their previous mark. In the mile run, Justin Heller and Durand Scott each knocked off at least three minutes from their original time, while Jones took two fewer minutes on his second testing. Akpejiori ran a team-best mile with a time of 5:22, closely followed by Rion Brown at 5:23.

TWO HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS SIGN NLI WITH CANES

High school seniors Melvin Johnson and Tonye Jekiri have each signed a National Letter of Intent with the University of Miami men's basketball program, head coach Jim Larranaga announced. Jekiri, a 6-11, 220-pound center from Nigeria, is a local product from Hialeah's Champagnat Catholic School. Johnson is a 6-3, 188-pound guard from the Bronx, N.Y., who plays high school ball at St. Benedict's Prep (N.J.).

Jekiri is rated the 17th-best center in the country by ESPN.com and No. 13 by Scout.com. The big man can play with his back to the basket or step out for a 10-12-foot shot, and he can run the floor like a guard. A native of Nigeria, Jekiri moved to South Florida in September 2010 to begin his basketball career. He averaged 14 points and 10 rebounds per game last season with Champagnat, his first year of organized hoops. On the AAU circuit, he played with Team Breakdown over the summer, where he dominated at the Source Hoops Elite Camp and led Team Breakdown to championships in the Breakdown Hoops Festival and the Big Shots Myrtle Beach I. Jekiri chose Miami over considerations from Virginia Tech, Clemson, Florida State, Auburn, Vanderbilt and Alabama.

Also complementing Miami for the 2012-13 season will be Melvin Johnson, a senior guard at St. Benedict's Prep in Newark, N.J. Johnson is rated by ESPN.com as the 44th-best shooting guard in the country in 2012 and ESPNU ranks him No. 51 nationally, and ninth in New York, at the point guard position. He is a deadly spot-up shooter who can stretch opposing defenses and will contribute to Miami's uptempo offensive attack as a combo guard. Johnson traveled the AAU circuit with the Long Island Lightning, earning the MVP of the Hoop Group Elite Camp Session I. Johnson began his prep career with current Cane Durand Scott at Rice High in Harlem, but when the school closed last year, Johnson moved to St. Benedict's. Johnson chose Miami over Virginia Tech, Georgetown, South Florida, Dayton and College of Charleston.

BANKUNITED CENTER

Opened in 2003, the BankUnited Center, which seats 7,200 fans for basketball games, is located on the University of Miami's beautiful Coral Gables campus. The venue also hosts concerts, trade shows, lecture series and sporting events, in addition to serving as the home to the Hurricanes' men's and women's basketball teams.

Over the last three seasons, the Hurricanes have established home court dominance, winning 51 games at the "BUC" — including a school-record 14-2 mark in 2007-08 and memorable victories over No. 4/5 Duke, No. 6/7 Wake Forest and No. 20/20 Georgia Tech.

With its grand opening in January of 2003 — a 64-61 overtime win over North Carolina, the BankUnited Center became the University's first on-campus venue with seating to accommodate large events offering an ideal capacity for concerts, conferences, lecture series, banquets and more. It significantly increases the University of Miami's collegiate experience for its students by allowing on-campus events such as commencements, sports, convocations and pep rallies. The community also benefits from the venue's utilization as a showcase for a host of family shows and other special activities.

The BankUnited Center has 25 suites. Each suite is equipped with 12 box seats with three additional bar stools, a lounge area, television and phones, along with a kitchen area with a bar and refrigerator.

The BankUnited Center is managed by Global Spectrum. The Philadelphia-based company is part of one of the world's largest sports and entertainment companies, Comcast-Spectacor, which also owns the Philadelphia 76ers (NBA) and the Philadelphia Flyers (NHL).

THE FIELDHOUSE

The newest addition to Miami athletics opened in March of 2009, with the debut of the Hurricanes' on-campus practice facility. The 29,000-square foot facility is conveniently located immediately adjacent to the BankUnited Center, alongside the Hurricanes 100 Room north of the arena. The new facility houses several full-size practice courts, as well as a multi-purpose room to host a variety of events — including the Miami Heat's 2010 Media Day.

Miami basketball players have access to the secure facility 24 hours a day, allowing the Hurricanes court time at any time all-year round. UM players use the facility for both conditioning and practice sessions, as well as for individual workouts and pick-up games.

The Fieldhouse was also honored for its sustainability components, earning the LEED® Gold designation established by the U.S. Green Building Council and verified by the Green Building Certification Institute (GBCI). The facility achieved the certification specifically for its energy use, lighting, water and material use as well as incorporating a variety of other sustainable strategies. By using less energy and water, LEED certified buildings save money for businesses and taxpayers; reduce greenhouse gas emissions; and contribute to a healthier environment for residents, workers and the larger community.

CANES VISIT LORRAINE MOTEL WHERE MLK WAS ASSASSINATED

On Nov. 26, the University of Miami men's basketball team visited the Lorraine Motel in Memphis, Tenn., where Martin Luther King, Jr. was assassinated on April 4, 1968. The building is now attached to the National Civil Rights Museum.

"I was there when I was in middle school, so it was interesting to go back again," said Erik Swoope, who has been studying the incident in his African American studies class at Miami. "It's shocking to see how easy it all happened. When I went through the museum, it showed how everything developed. It's mind-blowing that something like that happened to him when he was focused on doing everything in a peaceful way. It was a very sad time."

Miami stayed in Memphis after Friday's game at Ole Miss. The players and staff made an early pit stop to visit the motel on their way to the airport, receiving a quick history lesson on its way to West Lafayette, Ind., for a Tuesday matchup with Purdue.

"It meant a lot to me and to the team to be there because of the history," said Garrius Adams. "It was great to see in person for the first time. I especially liked the quotes from Martin Luther King on the plaques around the hotel and just seeing where history happened."

GRANT CANDIDATE FOR SENIOR CLASS AWARD

Senior guard Malcolm Grant joins 60 NCAA® men's and women's basketball student-athletes who excel both on and off the court as candidates for the 2011-12 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award.

To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence – community, classroom, character and competition. The complete list of candidates follows this release.

Grant, from Brooklyn, N.Y., is a Preseason All-ACC Player who led the ACC in threepoint percentage, three-pointers made and free throw percentage, earning third team All-ACC honors.

An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School[®], the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

LARRANAGA INDUCTED INTO NYC HALL OF FAME

Coach Jim Larranaga was inducted into the New York City Basketball Hall of Fame on Sept. 22, 2011, in a ceremony held at the New York Athletic Club on Central Park South at 59th Street.

Born in the Bronx, N.Y., Larranaga built the George Mason Patriots' program into a perennial contender in the highly-regarded Colonial Athletic Association, winning more games than any other coach in program and conference history (273) en route to three conference titles (2008, 2001, 1999).

Larranaga was joined at the 2011 induction ceremony by Donnie Walsh, former New York Knicks President; longtime Knicks trainer Mike Saunders; former Knick John Warren; a member of the Knicks 1969-70 NBA championship team, the late Lloyd "Sonny" Dove; Debbie Mason, the former All-America from Queens College known as "Lady Pearl"; Tom Henderson, an all-city performer from DeWitt Clinton H.S. in the Bronx; and former Fordham All-America Kenny Charles.

The New York City Basketball Hall of Fame, founded in 1990, includes a number of basketball legends. The Hall of Fame's 1990 charter class included Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Red Auerbach, Bob Cousy, Clair Bee, Billy Cunningham, Pop Gates, Connie Hawkins, Dick McGuire and Adolph Schayes.

GRAHAM RECIPIENT OF THE 2011 ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The New Orleans Saints announced today that second-year tight end Jimmy Graham has been voted by his teammates as the 2011 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award.

Graham, a 6-6, 260 pound native of Goldsboro, N.C., graduated from the University of Miami with degrees in both marketing and management in 2009. He was selected by the Saints in the third round of the 2010 NFL Draft after playing just one year of college football. Prior to that, Graham was a four-year letterman for the Hurricanes in basketball. Graham spent portions of his childhood living in a group home before being taken in by a legal guardian, Rebecca Vinson. Despite putting herself through nursing school and overcoming financial struggles of her own, Vinson helped mentor and stress the importance of education to Graham while providing him with a caring home.

The Ed Block Courage Award Foundation is dedicated to improving the lives of neglected children and ending the cycle of abuse. The purpose is to raise Awareness and Prevention of child abuse. That objective is coupled with the Foundation's commitment to celebrating players of inspiration in the NFL.

Since its inception the Foundation through its charter with the Courage House National Support Network for Kids, and an affiliation with the National Football League and Professional Football Athletics Trainers Society has helped to provide hope to countless children and raised millions of dollars.

"The Ed Block Courage Award is one of the most prestigious awards an NFL player receives because it is voted on by his peers," said Saints' Head Athletic Trainer Scottie B. Patton. "The award is a testament to overcoming adversity, whether it is through setbacks on the field or through challenges they have overcome in their lives. Jimmy has touched the lives of so many people he has come into contact with in his short time here and we all recognize and pay tribute to the amazing contributions he has made to our organization."

Graham currently leads the Saints' in receptions (67), receiving yards (967) and touchdowns (eight). Graham is the second-leading receiver in the NFL, trailing only New England Patriots WR Wes Welker (82) in receptions.

Graham will be honored, along with recipients of the other 31 NFL teams, at the Ed Block Courage Awards in Baltimore, Maryland 2012.

UM ALUM WILL ALLEN RECEIVES NCAA'S HIGHEST HONOR

Former University of Miami basketball player Will Allen has been recognized as a Theodore Roosevelt Award winner by the NCAA.

Allen graduated from the University of Miami with a B.A. in physical education and went on to be drafted No. 60 overall in the fourth round of the 1971 NBA Draft by the Baltimore Bullets. After a short career in the ABA and playing professionally in Belgium, Allen started a career in marketing with Proctor and Gamble. In 1993, he left Proctor and Gamble and purchased Growing Power, a plant nursery on the north side of Milwaukee, Wis. The Rockville, Md., native has since been recognized as a leader in the industry of urban farming and sustainable food production.

The "Teddy" award is the highest honor the NCAA bestows upon individuals. Named after President Theodore Roosevelt, whose concern for the conduct of intercollegiate athletics led to the formation of the NCAA in 1906, this annual award is given to an individual "for whom competitive athletics in college and attention to physical well-being thereafter have been important factors in a distinguished career of national significance and achievement."

Jim Larranaga was named the 12th head coach of the University of Miami men's basketball program on April 22, 2011. Larranaga comes to Miami after serving as the head coach at George Mason for 14 seasons. He guided the program to five NCAA Tournament appearances (2011, 2008, 2006, 2001, 1999) – including an unprecedented run to the 2006 Final Four that captured the nation's attention, defeating Michigan State, North Carolina, Wichita State and Connecticut along the way. Following that run, he was selected the 2006 Clair Bee Coach of the Year.

Larranaga built the Patriots' program into a perennial contender in the highlyregarded Colonial Athletic Association, winning more games than any other coach in program and conference history (273) en route to three conference titles (2008, 2001, 1999).

A two-time CAA Coach of the Year honoree, Larranaga earned the accolade in 2011, leading the Patriots to a 27-7 overall record and 16-2 conference mark en route to the CAA regular-season title and their fifth NCAA Tournament appearance under his leadership. Seeded a program-best eighth in the NCAA Tournament, George Mason rallied from a double-digit deficit to defeat ninth-seeded Villanova, 61-57, before falling to overall No. 1 seed Ohio State in the third round.

Larranaga's teams are known for their offensive efficiency and a frenetic defense dubbed the "Scramble." Last season, his Patriots — who were ranked 24th in the final RPI — finished the season 11th in the nation in three-point field goal percentage (39.5), 18th in scoring margin (10.3), 22nd in turnovers (11.1), 26th in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.28) and 37th in scoring defense (62.5). During its 16-game win streak — which catapulted Mason to No. 25 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll on Feb. 28 — all but four victories came by a double-digit margin. That streak included the 71-51 win at VCU on Feb. 15, with Mason holding the Rams to a season-low offensive output.

He became Mason's all-time leader in men's basketball victories with his 131st win on January 22, 2005, with a 77-58 decision at James Madison. He became the CAA's all-time leader in wins on February 4, 2006, when the Patriots defeated UNC Wilmington. His Mason teams went 182-89 in CAA play.

In 2006, Larranaga became the first coach at a mid-major school to take his team to the Final Four in 27 years and earned an at-large berth for a CAA team for the first time in 20 years. Along the way, he led Mason to a school record in wins, the program's first-ever national ranking, George Mason's first-ever appearance in the Top 10 and the school's first wins over Top 10 teams.

The Patriots finished the year with a 27-8 record and a No. 8 ranking in the final USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll. Earlier that season, Mason cracked the polls at No. 25, but NCAA tournament wins over Michigan State, No. 10 North Carolina, Wichita State and No. 2 Connecticut vaulted Mason up the poll, and into the national conscience, making Larranaga a household name.

The remarkable run at George Mason began just two years into Larranaga's tenure. After going 9-18 in his first year with the Patriots in 1997-98, Larranaga guided the 1999 Patriots' squad to a 19-11 overall record and a 13-3 CAA mark. That season, he earned his first Coach of the Year accolades in the CAA and NABC District 4 after making a 10-game improvement and leading the program to its first-ever conference regular season championship, its second CAA Tournament title and first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1989.

The Patriots followed that with another 19-11 overall mark in 1999-2000, tying for first place in the CAA at 12-4 and earning the top seed in the conference tournament. In 2000-01, the Patriots finished 18-12 overall and 11-5 in the CAA, good for a tie for second place, and they won the CAA Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three years. The Patriots produced another solid campaign with a 19-10 overall record (13-5 in the CAA) and a NIT berth in 2001-02. Mason's 2002-03 roster was hampered by injuries, but managed to pull together a 16-12 record (11-7 in the CAA), and a fourth-place CAA finish.

In 2003-04, Larranaga led the Patriots to a 7-2 non-conference record and to a school-record 23-win season, as Mason finished 23-10 on the year, its first 20-or-more win campaign in 14 years. Gaining an NIT berth (the Patriots fourth postseason appearance in six years), Larranaga led Mason to two consecutive postseason victories for the first time in school history, and in the process, earned his first postseason.

Under Larranaga, the Patriots won three CAA titles, including the 2008 championship when Mason went 23-11. The Patriots have appeared in the postseason each of the past four seasons for the first time in Mason history, advancing to the NCAA Tournament in 2008, the NIT in 2009, the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament in 2010 and back to the NCAA Tournament in 2011.

With 28 years of head coaching experience, the native of Bronx, N.Y., previously served as the head coach at Bowling Green for 11 seasons (1986-1997) and at Division II American International for two seasons (1977-79).

At Bowling Green, he made an immediate impact in his first season. In 1986-87, the Falcons were the nation's most improved team under a first-year head coach that took over a program with a losing record, posting a 15-14 record for an eight-game improvement over the previous season. Larranaga went on to record a 170-144 mark in 11 years at Bowling Green, earning the 1997 Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year honors after leading Bowling Green to a 22-10 record, a conference regular season co-championship and a berth in the National Invitation Tournament. The 22 victories were the most by a Bowling Green team in 47 years and the 13 conference wins were the second-highest total in Falcon history.

Larranaga's 170 victories at Bowling Green ranked second all-time on the Falcons' coaching list and he was only the second coach in the program to record consecutive postseason appearances. Larranaga led his squad to NIT berths in 1990 (18-11) and again in 1991 (17-13), the first time the Falcons enjoyed back-to-back postseason appearances since the early'60s. Bowling Green won better than 61 percent of its games in Larranaga's last four years, recording a 70-44 mark during that stretch. The Falcons finished fourth or better in the MAC in five of Larranaga's 11 seasons and he is among the winningest coaches in MAC history.

Larranaga received his first head coaching position in 1977 when he was named to the post at American International, a Division II program in Springfield, Mass. Taking over a team that had suffered through five consecutive losing seasons prior to his arrival, Larranaga turned AIC into a winning program in his first year and compiled a 28-25 mark in two seasons.

A 1971 graduate of Providence College with a degree in economics, Larranaga was a four-year letterman for the Friars. As the team captain in his senior season, he led Providence to a 20-8 record and an NIT appearance. He graduated as the school's fifth all-time leading scorer with 1,258 points and was selected in the sixth round of the draft by the Detroit Pistons of the National Basketball Association. He was the team's top scorer as a sophomore and junior and was named New England's Division I Sophomore of the Year in 1969. He was inducted into the Providence College Hall of Fame in 1991.

His first coaching opportunity came at Davidson College, where he served as an assistant coach to Terry Holland. Davidson captured three Southern Conference regular-season championships and an NIT berth in his five years there, and he compiled a 47-12 record doubling as the freshman team coach. In 1976, he left Davidson and spent one season as player-coach for the Geronemo Basketball Club in Belgium.

After his two-year stint at American International, Larranaga was reunited with Holland at the University of Virginia in April 1979. An assistant coach under Holland for seven seasons from 1979-86, he helped the Cavaliers reach the NCAA Final Four on two occasions (1981, 1984), finish in the top five of the AP and UPI polls and average more than 24 victories per season. The Cavaliers were 169-62, won three regular-season Atlantic Coast Conference championships and made four NCAA Tournament appearances. Virginia also made a pair of NIT appearances, winning the NIT Championship in 1980. Larranaga was on the staff during the careers of three-time National Player of the Year Ralph Sampson and NBA first-round draft choice Olden Polynice.

Larranaga, 62, and his wife, Liz, have two sons – Jay, who played for his father at Bowling Green and is the head coach of the NBDL's Erie Bayhawks, and Jon, who was a member of his father's George Mason teams from 1999-2003 – and four grandchildren.

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI

Entering the 2011-12 campaign, assistant coaches Michael Huger, Eric Konkol and Chris Caputo have aided Coach Larranaga for a combined 23 seasons.

Michael Huger

Michael Huger enters his first season at the University of Miami and his fifth season as an assistant coach for head coach Jim Larranaga assisting in all aspects of the program. He brings six seasons of collegiate coaching experience and nearly a dozen years of professional basketball experience to Coral Gables.

In four seasons at George Mason, Huger helped lead the Patriots to the postseason every year, including NCAA berths in 2008 and 2011. In 2011, the team defeated Villanova to advance to the third round of the NCAA Tournament, earned a regular-season CAA title and posted a school-record tying 27 wins. In 2009, he helped Mason to an NIT bid and its secondstraight 20-win season. In 2008, Huger helped the Patriots to their second-highest win total in school history as they beat nationally-ranked Kansas State and won the CAA title for the first time since 2001.

Huger began his coaching career at Longwood University (Va.) under Mike Gillian, a former Mason assistant coach under Larranaga, where he spent two seasons.

Before joining the coaching ranks, Huger played professional basketball in Europe, spending two years in Holland (1994-96) and nine in Belgium (1996-2005). He was selected Dutch League MVP in 1996 after averaging 25.3 points and 5.8 assists, and went on to earn First Team All-Belgium honors in 2000 and 2004 after leading his clubs to Belgium Cup championships in both seasons.

A native of New York City, Huger is a 1994 graduate of Bowling Green State University with a bachelor's degree in education. There he played for Larranaga from 1989-93, helping the Falcons to a pair of NIT appearances. He earned Mid-American Conference honors in his final two seasons, and was a Naismith Award nominee and the runner-up for conference player of the year as a senior. As a prep player, he helped lead Stevenson High School (Bronx) to back-to-back PSAL City Championships in 1988 and 1989.

Huger and his wife, Tonya, have a son, Michael Anthony II.

Eric Konkol

Eric Konkol enters his first season at the University of Miami and eighth as a member of head coach Jim Larranaga's staff. He assists in all aspects of the program including recruiting, practices, individual player workouts and game preparation.

Konkol previously worked with Larranaga at George Mason from 2002-03 through 2004-05 and 2007-08 through last season, helping to develop 12 All-CAA selections, five CAA All-Rookie honorees and 16 professional players. In the interim, he spent two years coaching at national power Hopkins High School in Minnesota under Ken Novak, Jr. - who was named 2011 ESPN RISE National Boy's Basketball Coach of the Year - and had a short stint on the coaching staff at North Dakota State.

He served as Mason's scouting director from 2002-05 and helped recruit the top non-BCS recruiting class in 2009 according to ESPN.com. Additionally, he monitored the academic progress of the men's basketball student-athletes, graduating 20-of-22 student-athletes who completed their eligibility - with two more students graduating in May 2011. In both 2009 and 2010, the program was recognized by the NCAA with an Academic Progress Rate in the nation's top 10 percent.

Konkol previously worked on Buzz Peterson's staff as a student assistant for NIT champion Tulsa in 2000-01 and as a graduate administrative assistant at Tennessee in 2001-02, earning a master's degree in sport management.

A native of Amherst, Wis., Konkol is a 2000 graduate of the University of Wisconsin at Eau Claire with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology, with an emphasis in exercise management. He played three seasons of basketball for the Division III program - advancing to the national championship game in 2000. He received the team's inspiration award after his junior and senior seasons with the Blugolds, and was an honorary captain as a senior.

He spent his first two years, including one redshirt season, at the University of Wisconsin at Platteville playing for current Wisconsin head coach Bo Ryan. A 1995 graduate of Amherst High School, he was a three-sport athlete (basketball, baseball and cross country) and closed his prep career as the school's all-time leading scorer with 1,871 points.

Konkol and his wife Meagan, have two sons, Ethan and Ryan.

Chris Caputo

Chris Caputo enters his first season with the Hurricanes and his 10th season on head coach Jim Larranaga's staff. Entering his seventh season as an assistant coach, his primary responsibilities include recruiting and scouting the opposition.

Caputo played a major role in George Mason's run to the Final Four in 2006, putting together scouting reports to prepare the Patriots as they played nationally-ranked teams and future NBA players in nearly every round.

He has also helped lead the Patriots to the postseason for a Mason-record four-straight seasons, including NCAA berths in 2008 and 2011. In 2011, the team defeated Villanova to advance to the third round of the NCAA Tournament, earned a regular-season CAA title and posted a school-record tying 27 wins. In 2009, he helped Mason to an NIT bid and its second-straight 20win season. In 2008, Caputo helped the Patriots to their second-highest win total in school history as they beat nationally-ranked Kansas State and won the CAA title for the first time since 2001.

As an assistant at Mason, Hoopscoop.com named him one of the Top 25 non-BCS assistant coaches in the nation. In 2010, Caputo attended the Villa 7 Consortium, an educational symposium and networking opportunity for some of the nation's top assistants. In 2011 alone, 19 alumni of Villa 7 have been hired as head coaches.

Prior to becoming an assistant coach, Caputo worked on Larranaga's staff as the video coordinator, coordinated the staff recruiting database and mailing system, as well as serving in other administrative capacities.

A native of Elmhurst, N.Y., Caputo is a 2002 graduate of Westfield (Mass.) State College with a degree in finance and economics. He was a four-year letterwinner as a point guard for the Division III Owls, and served as captain and earned the team's Outstanding Contributor Award as a senior. A 1998 graduate of Archbishop Molloy High School - Larranaga's alma mater, he too played for legendary head coach Jack Curran.

Caputo and his wife Julie married in May.

Exhibition Florida Southern vs. Miami 11-03-11 at BankUnited Center

The Miami Hurricanes men's basketball team began their 2011-12 campaign with an 88-78 exhibition win over Florida Southern Thursday night at the BankUnited Center. The game marked Jim Larranaga's debut as head coach for the Miami Hurricanes. Suffering from a heavy case of preseason injuries, the Hurricanes entered the game with only nine members of the team dressed and ready for action. Despite their short roster, the team came sprinting out of the gates for a 6-2 lead less than two minutes into the game. The Canes would begin to slow down as the half continued, however, as the Moccasins of Florida Southern took their first lead of the game with 13:05 to go. After falling behind by nine points midway through the half, the Canes reeled off a 13-2 run, including seven points from sophomore Rion Brown, to take a 30-28 lead with 5:13 left in the frame. The Hurricanes, paced by Brown, Durand Scott and Malcolm Grant, entered the half trailing the Moccasins by a 38-33 margin. After a slow end to their first half, the Hurricanes came out of the locker room firing on all cylinders. With two buckets from Grant (26 points) and another from Scott (23 points, seven rebounds), the team went on a 7-0 run to build a 40-38 lead less than a minute into the period. The Canes would trail for the majority of the second half, however, until junior forward Garrius Adams (nine points, seven rebounds) caught fire for the Hurricanes. After a Brown three-point play closed the gap to three points, Adams connected on the first of his three three-pointers in the second half, tying the game with less than six minutes to go. The Hurricanes, who had been down by as many as eight points in the second half, took their first lead since 18:56 of the second half on a Brown jumper with just over five minutes to go in the game. The Hurricanes finished the game on an 18-8 run, including the team's last five points from Grant, to put away the pesky Moccasins 88-78. The Moccasins were paced by 15 points from Dominic Lane, 15 points from Seth Evans and 14 points from Garrett Putman.

Tennessee Tech 58 vs. Miami 69 11-11-11 at BankUnited Center

The University of Miami men's basketball team increased their season-opener winning streak to 18 consecutive victories with a 69-58 win over Tennessee Tech on Friday night. Durand Scott (15 points, 6 rebounds, 5 assists) opened the scoring for the season with a three-pointer from the top of the key, continuing the Hurricanes streak of making at least one three-pointer in 312-straight games. Fellow guard Malcolm Grant (14 points, 4 rebounds, 2 assists) hit his first shot of the season on a threepointer with 16:35 left in the first half to build the Hurricanes' lead to 10-0 out of the gates. Miami started the game with a 10-0 run, holding the Golden Eagles scoreless until 13:56 remaining in the first half. Erik Swoope (11 points, 6 rebounds) made an impact dunk with 4:16 remaining to put the Canes ahead by five; it would be the last bucket scored by the Canes for the rest of the first half, unable to penetrate the Golden Eagles' zone defense. Tennessee Tech would tie the game up with 2:45 remaining in the first half off of a Javon McKay jumper and finish with a 10-0 run to end the first half up by five. The second half began with a Swoope dunk that would end up being the only bucket for the Canes in the first four minutes of the frame. Having trouble with their inside game, the Hurricanes struggled until Scott drew a foul and converted both free throws to bring the Canes back within four. Tennessee Tech would take their biggest lead of the game off a layup from Chase Dunn with 11:49 remaining that stretched the lead to nine. The Canes began to rally late in the second half with a layup and a foul shot from Raphael Akpejori which brought the team back within three. A three-pointer with 4:26 left from sophomore Rion Brown (7 points, 3 rebounds) gave Miami their first lead of the second half at 55-54. The Hurricanes would not surrender the lead for the remainder of the game. The Golden Eagles fought back to within two with 2:07 remaining until McKinney-Jones responded with a dunk off the Scott dish to extend the lead to four. McKinney-Jones followed that up by hitting an open three that ended up being the final nail in the coffin. TTU would never recover, reverting to fouling for the last minute of the game.

Rutgers 57 vs. Miami 72 Game 2 11-13-11 at BankUnited Center

Durand Scott and Malcolm Grant scored 19 points each to lead Miami past Rutgers 72-57 on Tuesday night. Scott's running jumper with 7:13 remaining ended a Miami field-goal drought of 8:40 and stopped a 15-2 Scarlett Knights' run that cut into a 19-point Hurricanes lead. Myles Mack's 3-pointer from the corner with 9:29 remaining capped the run and got the Knights to within six, 48-42. Miami secured the win as Scott scored five points and Grant converted four free throws in the final 3:01. Austin Carroll led the Knights (1-1) with 11 points and Eli Carter finished with 10 points. Florida transfer Kenny Kadji scored 13 points for the Hurricanes (2-0). The Hurricanes expanded a 35-25 halftime lead, outscoring the Knights 11-2 in the first 4:42 of the second half. Kadji keyed the run with five points, including a three-point play for a 45-27 lead with 15:53 left to play. Miami finished 10 of 23 from 3-point range and Rutgers shot 9 of 23 from behind the arc. But the Knights only took six free throw attempts and failed to convert a shot. The Knights rallied from a 16-point deficit with a 10-2 spurt late in the first half. Mike Poole's 3-pointer with 4:02 left capped the run and cut Miami's lead to 31-23. The Hurricanes ran off to a 14-4 lead in the first 4:53. Scott and Kenny Kadji scored two field goals each during the spurt. Consecutive 3-pointers from Scott and freshman Shane Larkin increased the Hurricanes' lead to 20-6 with 12:52 remaining. The 3-pointers were part of an 8:30 stretch when all six Miami field goals came from behind the arc. Larkin, son of former Cincinnati Reds shortstop Barry Larkin, played in his first collegiate game Tuesday. Grant's 3-pointer with 6:37 left ended the string of long-distance baskets and gave the Hurricanes their biggest lead of the half, 29-13.

Miami 61 at Ole Miss 64 (ot) Game 5 11-25-11 at Smith Coliseum

Dundrecous Nelson scored 17 points, while Murphy Holloway added 13 points and a game-high 17 rebounds Friday night as Mississippi defeated Miami 64-61 in overtime. The Rebels (5-1) took the lead for good, 60-58, on a dunk by Holloway with 3:06 left in overtime and survived potential game-winning and game-tying shots by Malcolm Grant at the end of regulation and in overtime. Jarvis Summers had 13 points and Terrance Henry added 12 for Ole Miss. The Rebels played without starting forward Reginald Buckner, who sat out due to a knee injury suffered in practice Thursday. He is expected to return in December. Ole Miss raced to a 17-0 lead in the opening 8 minutes and led 46-41 with 8 minutes left in regulation before Miami rallied to force overtime. Grant led the Hurricanes (4-1) with 22 points, including 6 of 12 from 3-point range. Grant's final 3-point shot pulled Miami within 62-61 with 21 seconds remaining in overtime. Ole Miss followed Grant's 3 with a pair of free throws from Summers with 20 seconds left to build the 64-61 cushion. Durand Scott added 13 points and Trey McKinney 12 for Miami. Scott had his final shot blocked by Nelson and Grant recovered the ball outside the 3-point line, but was forced to rush an unsuccessful 3 at the buzzer. Miami, which trailed 29-25 at halftime, finished 22 of 60 (36.7 percent) from the field. Ole Miss was 19 of 50 (38 percent) from the field. The Hurricanes were 8 of 13 (61.5 percent) from the free-throw line, while the Rebels finished 19 of 30 (63.3 percent) from the stripe. In overtime, Ole Miss converted 8 of 10 free-throw opportunities, including five from Summers. Miami managed only 2 of 4 in the extra frame, both from Scott. The win was the first at home for Ole Miss over an ACC opponent and marked its first win over an ACC team since a March 2008 guarterfinal win in the National Invitational Tournament at Virginia Tech.

Miami 65 at Purdue 76	Game 6
11-29-11	at Mackey Arena

Miami went to a small lineup, and Purdue made the Hurricanes pay. The Boilermakers shot 55 percent to defeat Miami 76-65 on Tuesday night in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge.Miami didn't have a starter taller than 6-foot-6. That prompted Purdue, which normally takes more than 40 percent of its shots from beyond the 3-point line, to focus on shooting from close range. The Boilermakers still took 16 3-pointers, but they made 22 of 31 shots inside the 3-point line. Hurricanes coach Jim Larranaga knew he was taking a risk. Robbie Hummel had 17 points and five rebounds, Lewis Jackson scored 15 points and Terone Johnson added 13 for the Boilermakers, who won their Challenge matchup for the third straight year and claimed their 22nd straight home victory. Jackson is only 5-foot-9, but he was one of the main beneficiaries of Purdue's aggressive approach. The point guard constantly weaved his way through Miami's defense.Purdue reserves Terone Johnson and Anthony Johnson combined to score 15 points in the second half. Malcolm Grant and Shane Larkin each scored 16 points for Miami (4-2). Larkin had averaged just 5.3 points this season before the outburst. But the Boilermakers held Miami to 39 percent shooting, in part because they stopped Miami's penetration. The Hurricanes have dropped their first two road games. They lost 64-61 at Mississippi on Friday night.Purdue led 37-25 lead at halftime. Hummel had nine points and Jackson eight at the break. Jackson opened the second-half scoring with an acrobatic layup. He was fouled on the shot and converted the three-point play.Purdue increased its lead to 49-36 before Larkin hit two 3-pointers during an 8-0 run to cut the deficit to 49-44. Purdue regained control with a layup by Anthony Johnson and a basket by Terone Johnson after a steal by Jacob Lawson. Kelsey Barlow then stole Miami's inbounds pass and found Anthony Johnson for a layup to push Purdue's lead back up to 61-50 with 8:40 to play. The Boilermakers remained in control from there. Hummel made 4 of 4 free throws in the final minute to seal the win.

Massachusetts rallied from its second 11-point deficit early in the second half with seven unanswered points. Carter's dunk with 11:59 remaining capped the run and got the Minutemen within 50-46. Grant and Trey McKinney Jones scored five points each and Scott converted 5-of-6 free throws as Miami outscored Massachusetts, 17-1, and took the lead for good during a 7:56 stretch late in the first half. Grant's corner 3-pointer with 1:45 remaining capped the run and gave the Hurricanes a 39-26 lead. The Minutemen's field goal scoring drought ended on Carter's dunk with 1:31 remaining. Massachusett's missed five field goal attempts and committed three turnovers during the Hurricanes' spurt. Jesse Morgan's jumper with 39 seconds remaining cut Miami's lead to 41-31 at halftime. The Hurricanes twice had seven-point leads in the opening four minutes of the first half but the Minutemen kept the deficit within two possessions. Williams' second of consecutive 3-pointers gave Massachusetts a 25-22 lead with 8:41 left.

Sophomore Will Barton had career highs of 27 points and 14 rebounds to help No. 21-ranked Memphis overcome a poor night of outside shooting and beat the Miami Hurricanes 71-54 Tuesday night. The Tigers, who sank 15 3-pointers in a rout three nights earlier, went 1 for 12 from beyond the arc. They repeatedly worked the ball inside in the second half to pull away. Memphis (5-2) won its third game in a row. The Hurricanes (5-3) lost in their first game against a ranked team, and the defeat snapped a streak of 27 consecutive non-conference home victories. Barton shot 12 for 20, including three alley-oop dunks, and he added four steals. Chris Crawford totaled nine points, five assists and four steals. Adonis Thomas had 10 rebounds for the Tigers, who had a 44-37 advantage on the boards. The Hurricanes raced to a 7-0 lead but cooled off after that and shot just 36 percent. Their point total was a season low. Miami's talented guard trio of Durand Scott, Malcolm Grant and Shane Larkin combined for only 22 points. Kenny Kadji had 12 points for the Hurricanes, and Scott and Trey McKinney Jones added 10 apiece. There were seven lead changes in the first half. The Tigers took a 27-26 lead into the second half and slowly pulled away. Joe Jackson was 0 for 6 from the field before he sank the Tigers' only 3-pointer to put them up 40-35. Crawford fed Barton for scores on consecutive possessions, then made a threepoint play that made it 53-46. Stan Simpson's layup gave the Tigers their first double-digit lead, 59-49, and the Tigers sank eight free throws in the final four minutes to increase their cushion. The Hurricanes sank consecutive 3-pointers en route to the 7-0 lead. Barton made a steal and dunk for the Tigers' first basket, then scored on their next two possessions as well. Barton dunked on an alley-oop pass from Crawford to give the Tigers their first lead, 14-13. The Hurricanes missed eight of their final nine shots in the opening half to fall behind for good.

West Virginia 77, Miami 66 12-10-11 WVU Coliseum

Darryl "Truck" Bryant scored a career-high 27 points and West Virginia's defense put the clamps on Miami for a 77-66 nonconference victory Saturday night. For the Mountaineers (6-2), it was their second straight victory in about 48 hours after upsetting Kansas State in double overtime Thursday night. Miami (5-4) lost for the fourth time in its last five contests. The Hurricanes started the season 4-0. Malcolm Grant scored 17 points to lead the Hurricanes and Kenny Kadji and Garrius Adams had 15 points apiece. The Hurricanes owned a 37-35 first half lead as both teams shot 50 percent from the field. The edge belonged to the visitors because they made 6 of 12 triples in the first 20 minutes. But after intermission, West Virginia stifled the Hurricanes, who continually came up with empty possessions as Bryant and the Mountaineers pushed the lead. In fact, Miami's first field goal came with 11:01 left in the game. By then, WVU had the tussle in hand. Trailing by a basket, West Virginia jumped out to an 8-0 lead for a 43-37 lead with 17:26 left. Bryant and Kilicli scored all 12 points as the Mountaineers assumed a 51-39 lead with 14:56 to go. In fact, Miami went seven consecutive possessions without scoring a field goal. The Hurricanes' three free throws at the time were not enough against a soaring West Virginia team, which had outscored Miami 25-3 by the 11:27 mark. Freshman Aaron Brown's 3-pointer at that juncture gave the Mountaineers their largest lead, 60-40. West Virginia shot 54 percent (27 of 50) from the floor, 40 percent from long range (8 of 20) and 83.3 percent from the foul line (15 of 18). After hitting half of their 30 first-half shots, the Hurricanes made just 36 percent from the field (9 of 25) and 27.3 (3 of 11) from 3 in the second half. Miami outrebounded West Virginia 15-14 in the first half, but like the defense, the board work picked up for the home team. It out-caromed the Hurricanes 33-26 for the game.

Game 9

Game 10 BankAtlantic Center

Center Reggie Johnson made his season debut to give the Miami Hurricanes a lift, and they overcame the heroics of freshman Omari Grier to beat Florida Atlantic in double overtime on Saturday 93-90. Johnson, back after undergoing right knee surgery in June, came off the bench and had 15 points, nine rebounds, five blocks and five assists. Grier, making his first start, scored a season-high 27 points. He sank a 3-pointer for the final points in regulation, and another 3 to force the second overtime. Miami (6-4) shot 62 percent, including 14 for 20 from 3-point range. Florida Atlantic (4-7) went 15 for 29 on 3-pointers. The Hurricanes' Kenny Kadji scored 21 points and was chosen as the game's most valuable player in the Orange Bowl Classic game. He went 4 of 5 from 3-point range. Durand Scott added 18 points, and reserve Rion Brown scored 15 in 27 minutes. Raymond Taylor had 20 points and nine assists for Florida Atlantic. Leading scorer Greg Gantt sat out because of a sprained left ankle. The narrow defeat was the second in a row for the Owls against an opponent from a major conference. They led at Mississippi State with less than 10 minutes left Tuesday before losing. Florida Atlantic fell to 1-21 against Miami. Malcolm Grant's 3-pointer with 3:20 left in the game put the Hurricanes ahead to stay, 87-84. Grant then fed Scott for a layup, and Kadji and Scott each made two free throws in the final 68 seconds. Even so, the Owls had a chance to send the game to a third OT, but Taylor missed a 25-footer with one second left. Florida Atlantic trailed 71-65 before sinking three baskets in the final 40 seconds of the second half to force overtime. Grier's 3-pointer with less than 2 seconds left made it 72-all. Grier sank another 3-pointer to tie the game again at 82 with 33 seconds left in the first overtime. He finished 7 of 12 from behind the arc. Scott made a pair of 3-pointers to help the Hurricanes take a 10-2 lead, and their biggest margin was 25-15. Grier hit consecutive 3-pointers and Taylor hit a driving layup during an 8-0 run that gave the Owls their largest lead at 48-43.

Miami 76, Charlotte 61 12-22-11

Game 11 Halton Arena

Kenny Kadji scored 18 points and grabbed 10 rebounds and Miami pulled away in the second half to beat Charlotte 76-61 on Thursday night. Durand Scott added 14 points and Reggie Johnson and Rion Brown added 11 each for the Hurricanes (7-4), who made up for the absence of leading scorer Malcolm Grant by shooting 54 percent (27 of 50) from the field and hitting 8 of 19 3-pointers. All-ACC guard Grant was out of the lineup due to a death in his family. Charlotte (7-3) managed to keep things close early, leading twice in the first five minutes - the last at 9-6 on two Braswell free throws with 14:53 to go in the first half. It then tied it at 18 on K.J. Sherrill's free throw with 8:02 left until halftime. The Hurricanes then took the lead on Trey McKinney Jones' 3-pointer from the corner. Miami then closed out the half on a 13-6 run to lead 31-24 at the break. The 49ers opened the second half with a 12-6 run, capped by Derrio Green's 3-pointer with 16:24 left in the second half, to cut the Hurricanes' lead to 37-36. However, Miami responded by hitting five straight 3s - two by Kadji - during a 21-10 run to push its lead to 60-43 with 8:06 remaining. Charlotte got no closer than nine points the rest of the way. Chris Braswell finished with 12 points for the 49ers, who shot just 32.2 percent (19 of 59) - including 8 of 23 on 3-pointers, in snapping their five-game winning streak.

Miami 84, Appalachian State 54 Game 12 12-30-11 BankUnited Center

Durand Scott scored 17 points to lead Miami to an 84-54 win over Appalachian State Friday night. The Hurricanes (8-4) overcame a coldshooting start, built a 39-24 lead at halftime and never allowed the Mountaineers to get within a single-digit margin in the second half. Rion Brown finished with 15 points for the Hurricanes. Shane Larkin, Reggie Johnson, Trey McKinney Jones and DeQuan Jones each scored 11 points for Miami. Jones was initially suspended by the school for the entire season. At issue was his alleged involvement in his recruitment to MIAMI for a $10,000 fee through former Hurricanes assistant Jake Morton and ex-Miami booster Nevin Shapiro. He missed the season's first 10 games before Miami reversed course and cleared him to play. An NCAA investigation is still ongoing. The Hurricanes missed eight of their first nine shots before Brown and Garrius Adams hit consecutive 3-pointers as part of a 13-3 Miami spurt midway through the first half. Scott's jumper with 8:47 left ended the surge and gave the Hurricanes a 17-10 lead. Scott shot 7 of 9 from the field and is 21 of 32 in his last three games. Brown and Larkin hit back-to-back 3-pointers and increased the Miami lead to 25-16 with 6:33 remaining in the opening half. Larkin scored nine points in the first half. Larkin's three-point play with 3:30 left started a 10-0 run. DeQuan Jones' breakaway slam dunk with 45 seconds left ended the surge and gave Miami its largest lead of the first half, 39-22. Andre Williamson scored 19 points to lead the Mountaineers (5-7). Appalachian State has lost five of its last six. The Hurricanes played their second game without leading scorer Malcolm Grant. The senior guard, who averages 15 points per game, left the team last week because of a death in the family but is expected to return to the lineup for Miami's final nonconference game of the season before ACC play, going against UNC Greensboro on Monday.

GAME 18 | at Boston College - Page 23

Mike Scott scored 23 points and No. 21 Virginia held off a rally to beat Miami 52-51 Saturday night for the Cavaliers' 12th consecutive win. The victory wasn't secured until the final second when Miami's Durand Scott missed on a driving layup and grabbed the rebound, but Sammy Zeglinski grabbed the ball before he could go back up with it, tying him up without fouling as the shot clock expired. Zeglinski added six points, making a 3-pointer with 3:42 to play just after Miami had taken is first lead since any in the game. The Cavaliers (14-1, 1-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) continued their best start since the 1981-82 team opened 27-1. Kenny Kadji led Miami (9-5, 0-1) with 14 points and Scott had 12, all in the second half, but the Hurricanes came up just short. Zeglinski's wide open 3-pointer with 3:42 to play was his first basket of the half, and gave the Cavaliers a 48-46 lead. After a Miami miss, Jontel Evans' floater doubled Virginia's lead to 50-46, but Durand Scott's two free throws for Miami made it 50-48 with 2:34 left. Mike Scott's driving basket made it 52-48, but Evans was caught holding Durand Scott's wrist on his driving basket, and Scott's bonus free throw again made it a 1-point advantage. Joe Harris had a chance to pad it for Virginia with 18.2 seconds to go, but he badly missed the front end of a one-and-one, Miami rebounded and called timeout with 13.1 seconds left. They set up the play for Durand Scott, who got a good look at the basket driv ing in from the left, but came up short and never got a chance to put it back up before the final buzzer. The second half was close throughout. Malcolm Brogdon gave Virginia 40-36 lead with a 3-pointer, but Kadji hit a pair of free throws and Durand Scott scored on another drive, this with the left hand, to tie it at 40-all. After Harris hit a 3 for Viroinia. his first field goal of the game, and Rion Brown answered with one for Miami, also his first field goal, Scott's baby hook gave Virginia a 45-53 lead. Kadji made a free throw for Miami with 4:42 left, and the Hurricanes retained possession when he missed the second and the ball went out of bounds off Assance Sene. Miami didn't score, but Kadji did moments later with a dunk over Harris, giving Miami its first lead since early. That set up the dramatic finish. Virginia led 26-17 at halftime, and got the lead to 33-23 on Jontel Evans foul-line jumper with 16:02 to play before the Hurricanes started to rally. Kadji started it with a to play before the nurricates stated to faily, haugi stated is with a 3-pointer from the top off the key, and Reggie Johnson scored on a put-back for the third time in the half. After Scott hit a pair of free throws, Malcolm Grant made a 3-pointer and Scott scored on an acrobatic drive, was fouled and made the shot, pulling Miami to within 35-34 with 12:11 left. Virginia fell behind 10-4 early after missing eight shots in a row, a streak Scott ended with a baby hook. After Rion Brown made a free throw for Miami, the Hurricanes missed seven shots in a row and the Cavaliers started a 20-6 run that lasted the rest of the half. Scott scored eight points in the run. Miami shot just 24 percent in the half

No. 3 UNC 73, Miami 56	Game 15
01-10-12	Dean E. Smith Center

Forward Kenny Kadji led Miami with 16 points while center Reggie Johnson added 12 points and nine rebounds in the Canes' 73-56 loss to No. 3 North Carolina on Tuesday night. Dexter Strickland added 14 for the Tar Heels (15-2, 2-0 Atlantic Coast Conference), who closed a nine-game home stand with a perfect record to rebuild some momentum after early losses to UNLV and Kentucky. The Tar Heels led almost the entire night against the Hurricanes and blew the game open with a 17-0 run spanning halftime, which staked UNC to a 23-point lead. That was the biggest deficit of the year for the Hurricanes (9-6, 0-2), who got no closer than 15 points from there. The lopsided loss followed a one-point loss at Virginia over the weekend in coach Jim Larranaga's first ACC game on the Miami sideline. Guard Durand Scott added 12 points, five rebounds and three assists for Miami. Frontcourt player Harrison Barnes struggled to a season-low six points on 2-for-12 shooting, but the Tar Heels' often-overlooked backcourt picked up some of the slack. Much of that started with point guard Kendall Marshall, who seemed more aggressive in looking for his shot and finished with 12 points. The pass-first sophomore has always been eager to set up shots for teammates and came in averaging fewer than five shots per game. But he finished 5-for-7 from the field to earn his first double-figure scoring game of the season to go with eight assists. The five made baskets were a career high for Marshall, who was averaging about five points and entered the week tied for the national lead with 10.1 assists per game. Strickland also looked active. He finished 7-for-9 from the field to reach his season-high scoring total, while he also had three rebounds, three assists and two steals. The Tar Heels had all kinds of trouble with Miami last year. They swept the two games, but they needed a last-second 3-pointer from Barnes to win at Miami then had to rally from 19 down in the second half to win in the ACC tournament guarterfinals. That game ended with Marshall penetrating and finding Zeller for a layup that just was just barely out of his hand when the buzzer sounded. There were no problems this time around. While North Carolina missed 14 of 16 3-pointers and didn't shoot particularly well, the Hurricanes had even bigger struggles. Kenny Kadji scored 16 points to lead Miami, which shot just 42 percent and went 3-for-16 from 3-point range. Guards Durand Scott and Malcolm Grant combined for 17 points on 6-for-20 shooting.

Miami 76, Clemson 73 01-18-12

Malcolm Grant scored 16 points and made the game-clinching interception with less than 5 seconds left Wednesday to help the Miami Hurricanes beat Clemson 76-73. Hurricanes freshman Shane Larkin sank both ends of a one-and-one - his only points - for the game's final points with 5.4 seconds to go. Grant then picked off a pass by Tanner Smith. Miami (10-6, 1-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) won for the first time in six games against Clemson since February 2008. The Tigers (9-9, 1-3) are on the verge of falling below .500 for the first time this season.Kenny Kadji had 14 points for the Hurricanes. Their point total was a season high against Clemson, ranked 19th in the nation in scoring defense at 58.6 points per game. The Tigers twice had the ball trailing by 3 in the final minute. Smith shot an air ball on a fallaway jumper before Milton Jennings scored on a follow to make it 74-73. After Larkin's free throws, Smith had the ball in transition above the top of the key but threw a pass directly to Grant.Smith scored 18 points in the first 17 minutes but hurt his right hand. He continued to play and finished with 23 points, but he also had five turnovers. The Hurricanes shot 52 percent and had runs of 13 and 12 consecutive points. Grant shot 4 for 7 from 3-point range and had four assists. Trey McKinney Jones added 12 points and six rebounds. The Hurricanes took a seven-point lead early in the second half, but Clemson gradually erased the gap and went up 60-59 on a follow by Catalin Baciu with 8:20 left. The Tigers built the lead to 64-60, but the Hurricanes responded with a 12-0 run. Kadji's two free throws put them ahead to stay, 65-64. That was the 11th and final lead change. Rion Brown scored on an alley-oop dunk for a 74-66 lead with 1:31 left, before Clemson made one final charge. The Hurricanes scored on six consecutive possessions during a 13-0 run that gave them a 19-8 lead after 6 1/2 minutes. Smith led the Tigers' comeback, and a 3-pointer by Bryan Narcisse pulled them even at 29-all.A pair of three-point plays by Kadji helped Miami take a 42-39 halftime lead.

Miami 64, Georgia Tech 49 01-24-12

Kenny Kadji scored 21 points, Malcolm Grant had 16 and Miami beat Georgia Tech 64-49 on Tuesday night to leave the Yellow Jackets in last place in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Miami (11-7, 2-3) has won two of three. The Hurricanes took only their second road win in seven tries. Mfon Udofia had 14 points for Georgia Tech (8-12, 1-5). The Yellow Jackets have lost four straight and eight of nine. Georgia Tech trailed 49-39 after a free throw by Glen Rice Jr. with 7:12 remaining. Back-to-back baskets by Kammeon Holsey cut Miami's lead to 54-45 with 4:26 remaining, but the Hurricanes answered with six straight points to push the lead to 15 points. Kadji, who had 14 points in the second half, led Miami with eight rebounds. Grant led Miami with his average of 14.8 points per game last season. He scored in double figures in eight of Miami's first nine games but he suffered a sharp decline in production after attending his older brother's funeral in New York and missing two games. He scored in double figures in only one of five games following his return, leading Miami with 16 points in the Hurricanes' first ACC win over Clemson last week. Grant had three 3-pointers in the first half. Freshman Shane Larkin's 3 gave Miami its big lead of the half at 31-17. Rice made only 1 of 6 shots in the first half, and his frustrations were obvious when he missed two free throws with 18.9 seconds left before halftime. Rice, who leads the Yellow Jackets with his average of 13.7 points, kept shooting. Rice scored on a follow shot and then had a 3-pointer as Georgia Tech cut Miami's lead to double figures in the opening minutes of the second half. Rice had 13 points and nine rebounds. Julian Royal had 11. Attendance at Philips Arena, Georgia Tech's temporary home while its new campus facility is being built, was 5,009.

Fast Breaks: Garrius Adams

They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them. These are the Miami Hurricanes...

I was raised in Raleigh, NC. I was born and raised there. I was the only child and I had a lot of family to support me. When I was growing up I played basketball and soccer. Soccer was actually my first love. I played soccer until I was 13 or 14. It got way too hot in North Carolina, it's like a dry heat, so I just stuck with an indoor sport.

I started playing basketball when I was five or six. Probably because that's when those Fisher Price goals started coming out and I was dunking and all of your friends were talking about how high you could dunk on your Fisher Price goal.

I secretly wish I was five inches taller. I wish I was 7 feet. I feel like everything in basketball would be so much better if I was 7 feet.

I'm a Miami Hurricane because of my teammates, because of how they treated me so well on my visit. Also because I have a grandmother here and she always wanted me to visit more and it was awkward because I did not know I would be going here. Since I was an only child and really close to my family I thought I would stay in the state of North Carolina. But after taking a visit, I met my grandmother and just seeing her again here, I knew I would have another time here outside of school. She comes to games and tries to be the loudest one in the stands.

When I played basketball as a kid, I pretended to be Kobe Bryant, that was my favorite player. He still is, hands down. There was nobody else I imitated. I always watched Michael Jordan but Kobe was more of my time and he was doing all of the dunks and he was athletic and I stuck with him.

Playing basketball has given me something to do to keep me occupied and it is what I've been doing since I was a little kid. It's one of the best things I know how to do. It's kept me out of a lot of trouble.

My family is mostly from the East Coast. I probably have a family member in every state on the East Coast which is good because I always have support. My family is really strong and really close so my family is really big to me.

Competition is hard work and fun. Being born and raised in North Carolina, the ACC is everything. Competition is the most fun I've had, just being in this conference every night in and out.

The U is very family orientated and a really nice community. It's pretty much a small community and city and I really like it. I've been here for three years now. I haven't had any problems.

When I was introduced to Coach L I was very nervous and excited. I was excited to see what he had to say. When we first met him it was right when he had his conference and his excitement to me was just incredible. It was something you just had to be there to see it and you could tell he took his job very seriously from the first day. Ever since then we've had a good time.

The hardest part about being away from home probably family, especially when I have five little nephews and to not see them grow up and they're growing up with all women. I don't really like that too much. I always wanted to be that male figure since I never had one. I had my father but I never had a brother. You miss a lot of events and stuff like that.

One thing everybody should know about Miami Basketball is it's a different team this year. Coach L is really doing a good job of setting down a great foundation of fundamentals. He's doing a really great job of just building character around the whole program and I think by the end of this year you'll definitely see the change and when you watch us play it's a big change.

I'm closest on the team with Durand and Reggie. Durand and I are in the same year. We're the only two left of our class. Because we're in the same year we're usually in the same housing. For example last year Durand and I were neighbors and we were the only two who were always together and had a lot of time together. Reggie and I are both from North Carolina. I knew him before I came here so we go home, we plan trips together to go home. I go stay with him and he stays with me so we're always together.

I'll never forget my visit to the University of Miami when I was in high school. I took a lot of visits before I committed here. The thing I won't forget is the family atmosphere. I felt coming down here, especially with my team, is kind of like I just fit in which is exactly what I was looking for. In basketball you're always getting better but sometimes with people it doesn't always work or it's just different from you. With this group here, we all fit together and I just felt at home.

They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them. These are the Miami Hurricanes...

Playing basketball has given me the chance to travel to a lot of countries and meet a lot of people. Just have fun in general and get an education. Be in Miami, make a lot of friends.

I was recruited when I was in high school in Kansas by a bunch of different schools. Miami was a good place, I liked the coaches and the school. I liked that it was a small school. It's generally a nice place and they play in the ACC so that's really what drew me closer. I get to play against a pro every night and a good team or a good Hall of Fame coach or Hall of Fame coach in the making.

When I was introduced to Coach L he was a different breed I would say. He's just like my dad, a very straightforward person, a guy who looks you in the eye and tells you how it is. He's not going to be rude to you, but he's going to tell you. He is more fun than his age tells. He's 61 and he sounds like he's really old but he's like a 30 year old.

When I played basketball as a kid I pretended to be Shaq because I was the biggest person on the court and at that time and Shaq was winning all the rings with the Lakers. So I pretended to be Shaq for a while, then I pretended to be Tim Duncan. After that, I pretended to be LeBron James.

Lagos is full of too many people and traffic. That's the first thing that comes to my mind. You wake up in the morning and say you want to go from here to a distance of like South Beach, it would take you like two hours to get there because of the traffic. First thing that comes to mind is the traffic and the second thing is there are a lot of crazy people out there and a lot of fun people. I was back for a while to visit before I came back here for high school. My family still lives in Nigeria, all of them.

I just wanted something new. I had a scholarship to go to high school and I was good at basketball so I figured I would go [to the United States] and experience another world. It wasn't really tough, it was more fun and more of an adventure until I dislocated my ankle. That was really tough. That was in 2008 when I first got here. I couldn't play basketball for a whole year. I was basically useless to a lot of people, but some people were still kind to me until I got back to playing.

I'll never forget what my father told me when I was going to school in Nigeria and he was dropping me off. He told me "never cheat anyone and never allow myself to be cheated by anyone," so that's something I will never forget.

I secretly wish I played football. I see Calvin Johnson and Jimmy Graham and sometimes I think I could do that. On Sundays, everyone is wearing your jersey and you see old people going crazy. I think I can put on a tight end's jersey or a wide receiver's jersey.

My personal goals are to graduate with a mechanical engineering degree, to play in the NBA for a long time, to raise a family, and maybe be a lawyer some day.

When I was growing up I had a lot of fun with my sister. She was like my first best friend. We were together for a long time. Now she's grown and she's about to get married and it's just weird.

In mechanical engineering you just think about everything that works. Every single thing from the design of your spoons that you eat with, your house, your cars, your bridges and everything. Just anything that works. There's a process that makes it work. There's someone who designs it. There's a calculation.

To be an engineer you have to be perfect. Every little thing is in detail. The end of the bottle cap of a bottle is in detail. So in basketball, every little screen set, every angle of the screen, every turn, the way you stand to get a rebound, everything is in detail. There's a place you have to be for that to work. The spin behind the ball, the arc, when you shoot the ball, the form. So that's how mechanical engineering transitions to the court on every play. Everything is in detail.

My dad got married twice. We have six kids in my family and growing up was very fun because there was never a dull moment and there was always something going on. There's always a fight, and after a fight there's always laughter so it was fun. We went to church like three times a day so we grew up being Christians and tried to live life the best way we could and be nice to other people, hoping that people would be nice to us.

At the U I've learned so much from my professors, especially Dr. Rahm. He's a pain in the rear but he's a good guy. He really knows what he's saying. He's someone who is really good at what he does. I also learned a lot from Coach Haith when he was here. He was a nice person and he always took interest in what you did, how your life was. Also from Coach Larranaga. He has a winner's mentality. He knows how to do things the right way from the smallest things to the hardest things. He tells you to try to have class and attitude and be a good person overall.

My favorite thing about being a part of the U family is that everyone knows everyone. I know all the football players, they all know who we are. I know all the swimmers, names and last names. All the rowers, all the athletes. It's like a little family. The U is like a little cult where you go outside and you represent and someone throws the U up and you go hyper.

I am a competitive person. I hate losing. I learned to suck it up when you lose. Sometimes you play really well and you still lose, but being a competitive person gives you an edge to keep going and you know that you can win more than you lose. Everything I do, I do it hard and I try to do it well to the best of my abilities. Competition at the U is good. We have teammates who don't like to lose either so it makes it more fierce while you're competing against each other.

They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them. These are the Miami Hurricanes...

The U means great tradition and pride, lots of pride.

My family means the world to me. Everything I do is for them.

Playing basketball has given me great opportunities and a chance to see places I never thought I'd ever see like Arkansas and Vegas, I had never been to Vegas. I went my senior year in high school to an AE tournament. So just basketball has allowed me to see amazing places that I never thought I would ever see in my life. It also allowed me to come to college to get a free education, travel the world. It's just a great experience.

I like to swim. That's the first thing that came to my head. My dad taught me how to swim when I was two years old. So I have always loved water. I love going to the pool and swimming, diving, actually, if I wasn't playing basketball that's probably what I'd be doing. I didn't swim in high school, we didn't have a team in high school, but In middle school I did. My best race was just a regular freestyle.

When I was introduced to Coach L we all met him in the conference room. He came in with a big smile, shook everybody's hand. The look in his eyes was just funny, I could just tell that he was like, 'Okay, this is going to be good'.

I started playing basketball when I was in sixth grade, it was rec basketball, my first time playing organized basketball. The most I remember was, I actually shot one in the wrong goal my very first game. I'll never forget that.

The hardest part of being away from home is not being able to see my son. I have a four-month-old son. So that's probably the hardest part about not being home. I'm always thinking about what he's doing, he might be doing something new today. So that's probably the hardest part.

I've learned from Coach L, that patience is a virtue on the court. Slowing everything down, that's the best thing that I've learned. I was always in a hurry, everything I did. Basically, if I have the ball in a pass or a shot situation, I see it, I look at everybody around me and think 'Okay, is this the right thing to do right now', instead of just rushing into it. It's like "is this the best shot or is this the best pass, is there somebody else open?" So just slowing everything down in my head and just knowing that I don't have to do everything right away. I can take my time and make the right play.

I was raised in Savannah, Ga., for about four or five years then I moved to Hinesville, Ga., and played high school basketball there, and then here at Miami. We had the southern hospitality down there so everything was real respectful with 'Yes ma'am, No ma'am'. You never talked back. Everything that they said that's what happened.

When I was growing up I would actually say that I had a great childhood. My parents were always there. I was their only child, and my parents were always there. My dad was basically like a brother to me, also. We did everything together; football, basketball, everything. We had a real great family and they were always there for me. They did everything for me. They are still there, every step of the way.

When I played basketball as a kid, I pretended to be Tracy McGrady. That was always my favorite player. I just liked his style, just everything about him. He always looked so sleepy, like he wasn't going to do anything and then he has the ball and he's going at you, so it kind of throws you off. And a lot of people say I played like him when I was younger because my face never changed. I had no emotion, so that's probably who I looked up to the most.

I'll never forget when I got chased by a dog and I had to jump on top of a car and my knee went through the windshield. My whole body ended up inside the car. My knee just broke and shattered the windshield. I had to get nine staples in my right knee. That's probably why the reason I have tendinitis in both my knees too. I'm sure that didn't help.

I am a Hurricane because I wanted to play in the ACC. I grew up watching my dad play at Georgia Tech and all the ACC teams. I just felt like this would be a great place to live. They had a great coaching staff before and they have a great coaching staff now, so it felt like this is where I belong.

Some of my personal goals include just being successful in life whether that be playing basketball or doing other things. I want to own my own restaurant, so just doing that and just being successful and able to take care of my family. I want to have an Italian restaurant. I just always had it in my mind because the way my name is spelled everybody would call me 'Rion' (Ree-on). And I just thought it sounded Italian. So I could have a restaurant called Rion. I just always had that in my head. But it might not work out like that. My favorite Italian meal is just regular pasta. I like chicken Alfredo and pasta with the meat marinara sauce, basically spaghetti. Those are my two favorites.

At the U, I've learned so much from Reggie Johnson. He was one of those people that when I first got here he was always in my head. I got tired of him, he got on my nerves, but when I really think about it, he was always trying to help me and guide me through the little things. Even off the court stuff that I was going through, like problems with school or personal stuff from home I was letting get to me. He would always talk to me, and tell me 'Hey, you've got to leave that outside for right now, you've got other work to do. If you do this, everything else will take care of itself." I learned a lot from him.

My favorite thing about the U family is that we are very close knit. We do everything together. We go out to eat, everybody goes. We go hang out and play video games, everybody is there. It is just a great family atmosphere. Everyone is laughing and joking, I love these dudes, it's just funny.

In high school I tried to score 40 on this one kid I didn't like. He was just one of those kids that ever since we were little, playing rec ball together, we just always grew up going at each other. So in high school we met one time, and I really wanted to score 40 on him, and I actually scored 42, it was my career high in high school.

I didn't think I would be playing college basketball at around ninth or 10th grade. It got a little frustrating for me. Things weren't working out. In my mind I wasn't the player that I needed to be to get to college. But, of course my dad stayed on me, we worked hard, I worked hard from the 10th to 11th grade - it basically felt like I was in college already. Waking up at six in the morning, I woke up shooting in the gym at the YMCA before I would even go to school, and after school I had to meet my dad over there. He stayed on me, so that's what I have to say about that.

We have great competition in the ACC. The games we play every day. Everything is in the margin of two to three points, so the plays you make at the end determine whether you lose by two or three or win by two or three. And with Pitt and Syracuse coming into it, it's about to be even better.

I secretly wish that I was about 7'2". I just always had it in my head that I was going to be seven feet tall since I was little. My dad is 6'6 and I'm 6'6, too, so it's just my imagination, but I thought was going to be seven feet.

Georgia is home. That's where my family is. That's my love. That's what I do it for, Georgia.

They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them. These are the Miami Hurricanes...

Playing basketball has given me the opportunity to do many things that my family has never done before. I'm the first in my family to actually go to college and do something better with my life, rather than being on the streets or something like that.

When I was introduced to Coach L, I was at my house. I didn't know too much about him. He came down to try and convince me to stay with my commitment to Miami. I didn't know too much about his background, but he explained a lot, about what he's been through, who he knows, all of that. It made me realize that he's a good man all-around and coaching-wise.

When I played basketball as a kid, I never really pretended to be anybody else. As I was growing up, mostly I was into Michael Jordan. Everybody will say he's the best, if you watched his games and saw what he was doing, so I tried to be like him but I want to be one of the greatest.

The hardest part of being away from home is the food. Being so far away, the food is just not the same down here. I'm not used to eating fast food or any of that. I'm used to home-cooked meals, which I don't have here.

The U is about legacy. The swagger about it, the toughness, the simple fact that it intimidates people when they step on the field or the court, that's what the U is about.

At the U, I've learned so much from everybody. I've learned the same amount from every individual I've encountered. I don't think I've been here long enough to say one person more than another.

Some of my personal goals are to graduate from college and make it past just college basketball. Maybe become a professional, either overseas or in the NBA.

Dunking is in my genes. When he was younger, my dad could do basically the same things I can do and probably even more. Athleticism is in my genes. The reason why it stands out is because it's entertainment. More people like to see a dunk than a jump-shot or lay-up. The more you dunk, the more entertaining it is, and that's just how the hype comes.

I don't think people realize how fast I am until they actually see me on the court or see me play themselves. When Coach L came to me he told me he was looking for a running team, and that's the type of system he liked. To get as many basket attempts as possible, I think it should help a lot, getting up and down the floor as fast as we can. My pull-up jumper and decision-making are two of the stronger assets of my game. If you've never seen me play and only seen highlights, you wouldn't know that.

Everybody on the team is equally close. We all hang out, go out together, whether it's to the movies or going out to eat, we're all equal. There are no cliques or anything, we're just one big group.

Word of God was a great experience. I was there for three years, and was there for John Wall's senior year. It was me and Dez Wells (Xavier) carrying on the legacy. There were ups and downs. We were tired from traveling and all that, but at the same time, we got to experience a lot of things kids don't experience. The things we got to do, and the people we played with, are remarkable. There's nothing better than to do something at your best, and that's what we did.

We went hard every day at Word of God, even with each other, just fouling hard and playing physical. We did whatever it took for us to get better. Going out there and doing it on the court, it was a great experience for all of us.

I have everything I want. I'm satisfied with what God gave me. He gave me what He gave me for a reason, so I can't say I wish I had something else. If anything, I wish that, even though I work hard, that I work even harder. There are no physical attributes I wish I could have or anything like that, it happened for a reason.

Family is first. Whatever I do, I always have in my mind that I'm doing it for my family. I haven't always had the best of anything, so I do it for my family back home, my friends, my circle. I don't have a big circle, but I do it for them. I'm just trying to make it like everyone else.

I was raised to never quit. That's one thing my mom and dad instilled in me growing up. Through tough times, when certain situations didn't go my way, they told me to never quit. No matter what it was either. It could be to the point where I'm in the worst situation possible, but they never wanted me to quit. I always take situations like that, put the blame on myself, and see what I can do to make it better.

Fast Breaks: Julian Gamble

They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them. These are the Miami Hurricanes...

I was raised in many different places. I moved around a lot as a child and met a lot of different people so that makes me very social, very easy to get along with and very outgoing. It helps me very easily adapt to different situations.

I started playing basketball when I was young. I grew up in North Carolina. It's a basketball state. I grew up around the ACC. I grew up watching North Carolina play. The Tar Heels were my favorite team, obviously not anymore since we play them, but where I grew up definitely influenced me to play basketball. I started young, probably around five.

My favorite holiday is Christmas, not necessarily because of getting gifts and giving gifts but because of the theme of the holiday and being with family and being able to give people gifts. Not necessarily things they can see, like material things, but things they'll remember for a long time and things that will change people's lives.

Nobody knows that I can cook. I've never even cooked for anybody but I can cook for myself. I have to eat, I eat a lot. I learned how to cook at a young age because my mom would travel a lot. I'm really good at making French toast. I lived one week straight off of just French toast.

To be a Miami Hurricane means a lot. I take a lot of pride in it. When I go home that's how people identify me as I'm the guy who went to Miami. Especially where I'm from, not a lot of people made it out. It's definitely a pride thing and I represent it everywhere I go with that in the back of my mind I know that I have to carry myself in the correct manner at all times.

Right now I'm listening to J. Cole. He's from North Carolina so it's like a sense of pride thing and when I listen to music I like lyricists and people who talk about different things in a song. Not something you can just listen to once and get it or just a catchy beat. I like a lot of music with content in it so it's definitely on repeat right now.

If I wasn't playing basketball I would be coaching somewhere or broadcasting or doing something with video. I'm very articulate and it's easy for me to talk to people. I don't get nervous in front of large crowds. I like teaching and I love basketball so all of that helps me to do some stuff now, especially since I started doing it at such a young age.

When I was younger I wanted to be a professional basketball player. I never thought I would make it to this level or have the opportunity to be able to play pro after college. Just to be here is a dream come true but I know I still have a long way to go.

My family is probably the most important thing in my life. My family is my motivation. I do everything for my family. I talk to my mom all the time. I have my mother, my sister and my grandmother's names all tattooed on my arm, I see it every day. Family is definitely a very important part of my life.

Legacy it is what you make it. I think some people put more of a premium on it than others, but I really feel like when it comes to legacy, most of your legacy is made off the court than on the court within your career here. Of course you can make great moments on the court and people will remember that, but I think people remember more so who you were than how you played.

My favorite UM athlete is Jacory just because of the type of person he is. I know him and he's very humble, he's very intelligent and with the type of scrutiny he's under every game, one mistake people turn on him and he's still the same person, he doesn't change. I definitely look up to him in a sense of adversity and I hope our team can do the same.

The U is a special place. I committed to come here before I even saw the campus. I just had a good feeling about the coaching staff and the people here. Once I met the team, it's a real family atmosphere and everyone is so close-knit you can walk around and all of the athletes know each other and speak to each other when we see each other and it's just a very unique place. It's definitely one of a kind.

At The U, I've learned so much from Adrian Thomas. He just left and it's crazy because I'm in a similar situation. He was here for six years because he had two season-ending injuries and now that I have a season-ending injury. I kind of get to go down that same path and I just hope I can be half the person he was because he definitely dealt with adversity and still kept his head high and came out on top.

Before every game I try not to think about the game as much as I try to stay focused on the team and my teammates and go out and do anything possible to help them win. Not go out and score 20 points but if I need to get a block to win the game or a couple rebounds, I'm fine scoring no points and getting two rebounds and a block to win the game. I don't really care about stats.

My favorite movie is I'd have to say Friday After Next. I watch so many movies I don't have one favorite but that's just the one I'm watching the most on Netflix all the time.

Fast Breaks: Malcolm Grant

They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them. These are the Miami Hurricanes...

I started playing basketball at the age of four. When I was young and my parents wanted me to stop crying they would put on Michael Jordan "Come Fly with Me" and I would sit on the end of the couch and watch the whole tape.

My family is my whole life. I love them. They've been with me through thick and thin and I don't know where I would be without them.

The U is a family-oriented place. I'm so glad I came here and I'm always going to be a part of the U.

Playing basketball has given me so many experiences. It has shown me that I have truly been blessed and I'm just thankful every day that I'm able to play the game. I've been able to travel around the world. I've been to France because of basketball. I've played in the world's most famous arena in Madison Square Garden, so the game means everything to me. Basketball has given me so much joy. When I'm having problems off the court, those problems go away when I step on the court because it's something I love doing. It's my life. Hopefully, one day when I have kids, I can pass it on to them.

I like to play video games, watch movies, and sing in the house, stuff like that. I play NBA2k the latest one, Uncharted, things like that. When I get my vocals warmed up, I think I can compete at a high level.

When I was introduced to Coach L I started smiling. I was happy to see him. I remember playing against him when I was at Villanova. So I wanted to see if he would remember me and surely he did. He said "I hope you're going to hit as many threes for us as you did against us."

The hardest part of being away from home is missing my family every day, especially my niece and my nephews. I love them so much and I don't get a chance to see them a lot, so when I go home I try to make sure I'm around them and show them how much I miss them.

I can't lie I'm addicted to my phone. Everybody always gets on me. I'm always texting. Always on the phone. I'm just talking to family members and friends or sometimes I'm just on Google looking up stuff. My best Google search is looking at Beyonce's photos.

I've learned how to be a respectful young man, how to carry myself with class and treat others with respect. My family, my mother and my father taught me those things.

I was raised in Brooklyn, N.Y. I love Brooklyn. It's everything that I am because I was born there. It's just fun to be there and I miss all my friends and just the environment.

In my house growing up on Saturdays, early in the morning, like eight o'clock I was bouncing the ball, throwing the ball on the walls. My brothers and my mother would be yelling saying "Sit down, stop dribbling!" But my father would be like "Hey, this is your dream, keep doing it." So that was my house every day, especially on the weekends.

When I was growing up I thought I was a Power Ranger, especially the green one, Tommy. When the show came on and Tommy wasn't on there I was mad because that's who I wanted to see. I used to mimic him in class and at home sometimes.

When I played basketball as a kid, I pretended to be Michael Jordan. I was at the house with my Fisher Price rim dunking with my tongue out, trying all kinds to dunks, breaking plants in the house. I was doing all types of stuff. Then I also thought I was Kenny Anderson. I thought I was my brother Lavar Grant. Every other day I was somebody different. I had everything that Mike had, including the shoes.

I'll never forget the first time I met Michael Jordan. It was after his game, we all took a picture and I was just staring at him because I couldn't believe the man I looked up to for so long was right in front of me. I took a picture with him then I spoke with him and asked him how he used to make those unbelievable shots. He told me he used to practice them all the time, and that's one thing I remembered.

I'm a Hurricane because I wouldn't have it any other way in the world. I bleed the green, the white and the orange so that's where I want to be for life. Some of my personal goals especially this year, I want to be Player of the Year, I want to be first team AlI-ACC. Hopefully, God-willing, I'll be able to make it to the NBA and take care of my family and my neighborhood. I want to be able to come back and give tournaments and show my face and show that just because I made it, I haven't changed. I'm still the same person everyone knew when I was growing up and I appreciate what they all have done for me. The whole neighborhood knew me because they knew my father. Everyone knew my father. Every time I walk around they said "that's pops", they called my father pops. Just growing up, whatever park I went to, everyone knew me and made sure I stayed in line and didn't get in trouble. If I make it, I'll let those people know I remember that.

At the U I've learned so much from my teammates and my peers. Just interacting with them and they're always with me when I'm going through things. Lance Hurdle really took me under his wing. He's a former player on the basketball team. That's my brother and my right hand man. When I got here he definitely took me under his wing and to this day we're still close.

My favorite thing about the U family is how loving it is. When we're playing, you see other sports in the arena cheering us on and vice versa. When those guys are playing football or women's basketball, we're in the stands cheering for them. So I like that and appreciate that.

One thing people need to know about UM hoops is that we're going to be really good this year and we're going to get to the tournament. From this year on, we're going to be an elite basketball team.

I didn't think I would make it this far in basketball. You know I was just playing the game and you never know what happens in life. It just shows that if you work hard and believe in God and just let him take care of it, then anything is possible.

Competition is everything to me. If you ask Durand or Reggie, when I'm in the room playing a game and I'm losing, I've broken plenty of things, punch walls. I can't lose. I can't control it so sometimes I get beside myself and I have to control myself a little bit.

I like to compete against North Carolina and Duke. Everybody looks at them as the standard of success and they're the best team. So anytime I get a chance to compete against them I always want to come out on top.

I'm looking forward to playing against every player. Whoever steps in front of me, I want to make sure they remember that name.

I secretly wish I could fly. I don't know why but sometimes I find myself in the room and I just wish I could get up and fly to this place or that place. I guess it's because I watched Superman when I was younger.

New York is a place where dreams come true. (big smile) The Big Apple. If you can make it there, you can make it anywhere.

They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them. These are the Miami Hurricanes...

I was raised in Boca Raton by my mom and dad. I was always brought up to set goals that I wanted to achieve and to try my hardest in everything I do.

Oldest nickname I've ever had is J. Bird from Taurean Green, who was someone I looked up to as a kid and he went on to win two champion-ships at the University of Florida.

Right now I'm listening to J. Cole's first album The Sideline Story because in his music he talks a lot about overcoming obstacles and things that I can relate to.

After college I want to get a law degree to use in the business world.

One thing everyone should know about Miami Basketball is that inside the locker room there are some of the craziest guys you've ever met but outside you wouldn't know it.

At The U, I've learned so much from Malcolm who, as a junior last year when I was a freshman, really taught me a lot about life and always made sure I was okay.

Before every game I'm usually with Durand and we go to the mall or something.

Coach Larranaga is a really old school guy. He knows a lot about basketball and his main thing is he likes to do things the right way and he's a great guy for the program.

Fast Breaks: Reggie Johnson

They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them. These are the Miami Hurricanes...

I was raised in Winston-Salem, N.C.

I started playing basketball my sophomore year of high school.

My favorite holiday is Christmas because I think it's time to be with your family and give. I love giving.

Nobody knows that I can sing. Nobody besides my roommates. I sing in the shower.

To be a Miami Hurricane means is a great honor because of the legacy here so I am very proud to be a Hurricane.

The oddest nickname I've ever had is Big Johnson. That's what my teammates made up.

If I wasn't playing basketball I would be I would be in the Worldwide Federation of Wrestling. I would be wrestling right now. I'm like The Rock a little bit mixed with a little bit of Rock Legend.

When I was younger I wanted to be a firefighter. I had a thing for being a firefighter and saving lives.

My family is crazy! They're my biggest fans. They always support me no matter what. They're always going to help me out in my tough times, Winning a game is everything. That's why I play the game of basketball. It means a lot to me.

I secretly wish that Jay-Z didn't have Beyonce and I could marry her.

Legacy something that is important to you as far as what do you want to be known as when you leave. When I leave Miami I want to be known as a guy who worked hard, played hard and brought excitement to the fans.

My favorite current UM athlete is Mike James on the football team. I love the way he plays. He plays with a passion. Mike James is a good dude overall so I'm pulling for him.

Blocking is what I do! I block shots. I swat them. When you go in that lane, expect to go into the stands because I'm blocking that shot!

Becoming a man is something I had to do coming to college. I could have gone to Wake Forest which is a closer school to where I'm from, but I felt like I needed to go away and veer off a little bit. In high school my mother still washed my clothes and cooked for me so I had to learn how to do things in school and now I feel like I'm more prepared for life.

The U is one of the best colleges in America, if not the best. There's a lot of history in the program and it's a well-known institution.

I'm afraid of two things: snakes and spiders. You can put snakes and spiders around me and I'll tell you any type of secret.

After college I want to play in the NBA. Career-wise, I want to do something with kids. I want a Big Brother type of program with kids and get them going in the right direction and get them on the right path to do good things in life.

One thing everybody should know about Miami Basketball is this year the team will be on the rise. Everyone is returning and I really can't wait to get out there and start competing.

At The U I've learned so much from my former coach, Coach Haith, who obviously is not here now. He taught me a lot about on and off the court things. That's the guy I really learned a lot from coming down here and first being away from home.

The most influential person in my life is my mother and grandmother. They're the two I always turn to when I need advice for most things. They always work hard for everything, they were never given anything. My mother supported me and my little sister by herself and sometimes she didn't eat and that right there showed me what type of hunger you need just to survive in life.

In March I want to be dancing. I want to be out of class, dancing. I want to be in the tournament, just making the Hurricane family see excitement for the basketball tournament in March.

I never thought that I could be gone from my mother this long. I've been gone for four years and I'm always calling every day, but I'm adjusting.

Before every game I pray, always to the man above. I go through the same ritual doing the same thing over and over. I get the team going. My favorite quote is "he who works the hardest reaps the greatest rewards." That's from my high school coach. He always used to say that.

Fast Breaks: DeQuan Jones

They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them. These are the Miami Hurricanes...

I was raised on the east side of Atlanta, Stone Mountain to be particular. I grew up very involved in sports.

I started playing basketball when I was a kid, like six or seven years old. I always liked the sport but I didn't get serious about basketball until I was 15.

My favorite holiday is Halloween, because you get free candy.

Nobody knows that I can cook. I'm very skilled in the culinary arts. I can make a number of things, like baked chicken, spaghetti, just the usual. Then I can go into steak, depending on how you want it cooked. I just recently learned how to sauté and marinate steak. For Memorial Day, I marinated steak for like three days and baked it, then put it on the grill to give it that smokey taste.

To be a Miami Hurricane means it's always you against the world.

The oddest nickname I've ever had is G-Money. My uncle gave me that nickname.

Right now I'm listening to old Southern blues. I'm a big fan of Sam Cook, Otis Redding, Johnny Taylor. Old school stuff.

If I wasn't playing basketball I would be an entrepreneur. I would be in the beginning stages of starting my own business.

When I was younger I wanted to be either a Power Ranger or an NBA player, so it was pretty cut and dry for me.

My favorite UM athlete is Sean Spence. The kid is phenomenal. He's a beast.

The U is very family-oriented. It's a close-knit community. Everyone is in-tune and close with each other.

I'm afraid of the little lizards you see running around when you're walking to class.

After college I want to start my own business. I'm not really sure in what field or what my expertise would be, but I want to start my own business.

One thing everyone should know about Miami basketball is we work extremely hard and we're extremely dedicated to bringing positive results to the school.

In March I want to still be playing.

I never thought college would be this hard. When I was a kid, I always watched A Different World. I always thought college would be like two or three hours of class and the rest was casual or leisure time.

My favorite quote is "the harder you work during peace, the less you bleed during war." My high school coach used to always tell us that, but he was known for always taking other people's words, so I don't really know where it originated from.

Before every game I like to relax and unwind. Usually I'll go to a movie or do something relaxing to get my mind and my focus off of the game.

My favorite midnight snack is eating cereal. I feel like cereal is the perfect balance of food and hydration (laughs).

Coach Larranaga is probably one of the most upbeat and energetic coaches I've ever played for. He knows exactly how to get the best out of all of his players.

My favorite movie is Antwone Fisher, because it moves you on so many different levels. It really taught me how that you never really know what type of person you are dealing with or other people's experiences until you know what type of obstacles they've overcame to get to where they are now.

The actor I would want to play me in a movie is Soulja Boy (laughs). Just kidding. I would say Denzel Washington probably because he's the greatest actor of my lifetime.

Fast Breaks: Kenny Kadji They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them.

They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them. These are the Miami Hurricanes...

My family is my number one fan. They always come to the games. They always talk to me when I'm down or if I need advice or something like that. So yeah, number one fans. They live pretty much everywhere: Cameroon, France, Tampa and now West Palm Beach. My mom is here staying in West Palm, and my dad comes back and forth.

Playing basketball has given me an opportunity to travel everywhere. I've been to France, Russia, L.A, and all over America. I feel like I've been on vacation my whole life just traveling everywhere.

I came to the United States from Cameroon after stopping in France first. We came here for a vacation and we actually met Alonzo Mourning on the street in Coconut Grove. I was about 13 years old when I met Alonzo. I was so scared. He was so tall and big. It was funny. He was like "This kid has got to play basketball". So my parents started thinking about it and when we went back home, they put me in a camp in France and I guess the coach liked me. So they were like "All right you have to stay". I went to school there for a year. I went to Russia for a tournament and I did pretty good. There were high school and college scouts and they said I should come to America and play.

The U is a family too. A family away from home. The students, everyone. Everywhere you go you hear about the U. Everybody wants to be a part of this and I'm happy that I am.

I like to play video games and people don't know but I like to read books. I like science fiction, action, Sherlock Holmes books. Intriguing stuff. I like NBA2K12 right now. Still trying to figure it out.

When I was introduced to Coach L I was surprised. He has a lot of energy. I didn't know what to expect when he came here. The guy knows what he is talking about, and he really wants everyone to get better every single day.

The hardest part of being away from home is home food. Especially coming from overseas, the culture is different. I miss my mom's food even though I get it once a week. It's just different. We eat like frog legs. They don't have it here, or I haven't found it yet. I like pasta, chicken carbonara, stuff like that.

I was raised in Africa for half my life, France for another half, and then here. I was raised to be the best kid, the most polite. I have three brothers, all here in Miami. One goes to school here. My littlest brother is going to school in Broward, playing basketball. He's pretty good too.

When I played basketball growing up I pretended to be Magic Johnson. Even though I'm pretty tall, I always liked to handle the ball and give nice passes. I like Magic.

I'll never forget the first time I met Alonzo Mourning. That's really what pushed me to play basketball. He came to me, shook my hand, and said "This kid has to play basketball. He's going to be pretty good". After that, I never stopped watching him. He's just a great player. I'll never forget that. What did he see in me? I think it was my hands. I had the biggest hands for a 13-year-old. So it was like "he has to play basketball. He's going to be tall." And he was right. I don't even know if he remembers it. We were just walking around. It was here at the Grove. I got a picture and an autograph. I still have those in a little book in West Palm.

As soon as I came to Florida, I knew I was coming to Miami. Just knowing that the Heat were here, a city with basketball players. I knew I was coming here.

I'm a Hurricane because the family, the atmosphere, just the city of Miami. The students here take a lot of pride in the school and the basketball team. Even though sometimes we have bad seasons and good seasons, they're always here. So that's something I like about the students, they really take pride in the U.

Some of my personal goals are to play professional and just help this team and play well this year for the team.

At the University I've learned so much from Coach L. Everything from being a basketball player to taking care of business off the court and how to approach stuff. Just growing up as a man.

Once thing everyone should know about UM hoops is we are going to be tough minded. We're going to play hard. It's going to be different on defense. We're going to run, it's going to be fun for people. They're going to see a lot of running, layups, dunks, it's going to be fun.

I never thought I would be here. Like I said, basketball took me a lot of places and I would have never thought I would be here

Competition is great. I love it. You have to be competitive in life. From video games to who finishes a meal first, I love competition with anybody.

If I could play against any team, it would be Kentucky because they have a great team and great hype. You always want to play the best. I would have said North Carolina but we're playing them.

I secretly wish that I could dance. I can't. I tried to many times. I got the video and I think I can dance, but I can't. Sometimes, I try to have Malcolm help me, but he moves too fast for me. I tried to Dougie, I tried moonwalking, it's too hard. I'm good with the two steps, but after that I don't really do anything.

Cameroon is a great country. It's my home country, I love it. When I was there, there were really no worries. You know everybody because the country and city is so small. I just love it. The whole city knew me. I was one of the tallest kids. We were always outside with our friends, too, so everyone knew. My parents are from Cameroon. My mom grew up in France. My dad was born in France but raised in Cameroon. I was born in France too, but we're all Cameroonian.

Fast Breaks: Shane Larkin

They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them. These are the Miami Hurricanes...

My family is supportive. They've always been behind me with everything that I have done. Even though my dad wasn't always there due to baseball, my mom was always there for me, taking me to all of my games. My dad would talk to me after every game to see how I did and provide information on how I can improve. I have two sisters. My little sister is a young diva. She likes to sing and she's trying to do well in that so I support her with everything she does. My older sister played lacrosse in high school. Now she's at a cosmetology school doing make-up. I have a little brother. He's not my blood brother but he lives with us because he wasn't in such a good situation at home. We became friends my junior year of high school and he just moved in, his senior year and my freshman year of college. We just became best friends. We talk about everything, he's just like my little brother.

I like to joke around and have fun. I like playing video games and listening to music. I like having fun, playing around and having fun with everyone. My favorite videogame is 2k12. Everyone on the team is playing it but I would say I'm the best. I haven't played anybody but they're scared to play me.

I was raised to be humble. My dad played Major League Baseball and always told me people were going to criticize me because of who he was and say "you're spoiled, you're a rich kid" and he told me not to listen to it. I was really good at playing football and one time I scored a touchdown and there was no one within 20 yards of me so I started show-boating and doing my best Deion Sanders impersonation. After the game he pulled me to the side and I thought he was going to be excited but he just yelled at me. He said "don't ever do that again. Be humble. Don't show-boat. Do your best and let that do the talking." In basketball, you'll see me get hyped with the team for a little bit but if I hit a three, you won't see me running down the court with my hand up. I try to stay humble. You can enjoy what you're doing without doing it in a boasting way.

I started playing basketball at five years old. I got a Fisher Price hoop as a kid and I was pretty athletic so I would dunk on it. I started playing basketball at the YMCA. I've never really been a big scorer, always a passer. I was a rebounder and passer, really athletic just like Shawn Marion.

The hardest part about being away from home is being away from my mom simply because my dad wasn't there because he was playing baseball. My mom was there for me. She's been down here to see me a couple of times. We're really close so it's a good thing I'm close to home.

I can't lie I watch Jersey Shore and X-Factor. Those are my two favorite shows. The girl from down here, Melanie Amoro, she can sing. On Jersey Shore, I could see myself hanging out with Pauly D and Vinny because they're crazy.

I've learned how to be more responsible and how to assess a situation before I need to jump into something. I'm living on my own, in my own apartment right now so I can't wake up and ask my mom to wash something for me before school. It's not like when I was at home and can ask her to do something for me. I'm down here on my own, living on my own so there are a lot of responsibilities on me. I have to go to practice, keep my house clean, get groceries when I need them, and not to mention school work.

When I was younger I pretended to be Allen Iverson as best as I could. He was my favorite player, number 3 all the way. I just tried to be A.I. with all of the tricks. I had everything A.I. I had the wrist bands, the headbands, even with the curly hair I tried to braid my hair.

I'll never forget at the Championship game in Lakeland we were down two with 6.7 seconds left and they had the ball. We called a timeout and the coach was looking around trying to figure out who he was going to put in the game. I was already in the game and he said "Shane you need to get a steal". I was young so there was a lot of pressure on me already being in a national championship game so I was nervous and said I would try. The team tried to throw it over the top and I caught it at half court. Coach calls timeout and we went back to the huddle. I'm not a shooter at all, I'm just a driver who gets to the basket and he says "Shane we need you shoot this three". Coach stressed it was win or go home right now. There were four seconds left, I did my little A.I. move, took a step back and shot a three from three steps behind the line. I hit it and the fans went crazy. My Uncle Joe ran on the court and picked me up. My mom and cousins came out too.

I'm a Miami Hurricane because I love the city of Miami and I think this team can do something special. Coach L is a great coach with a lot of experience but coming from a mid-major school he hasn't had a lot of talent like he can get at this level. I think with him coming here and with his coaching abilities, we'll do great things.

Playing basketball has made me take advantage of plenty of opportunities that have been presented to me. I've been able to travel to different states. It's made me into the person I am. Everyone wanted me to play baseball because of my dad but I never really found baseball exciting. The reason why basketball has been my sport is because it motivates me to succeed in this sport. My dad played baseball and made it in baseball so they say I should have done the same. With me playing basketball I have to work for everything I get and I'm not going to be given anything, so it is my motivation to do better as an athlete.

I've visited about 30 of the 50 states and Hawaii was my favorite. We went to a holiday tournament in Hawaii my senior year of high school. We lost to Oak Hill in the semi-finals but it was a great experience.

The U is very family oriented. All of the athletes know each other. No matter where you are on campus, everyone knows who you are. Everyone is very supportive of the teams and it's just a great environment and in the city of Miami so you can't go wrong.

When I was first introduced to Coach Larranaga this was while he was at George Mason and he told me he really liked my game. He had a lot of energy and passion for the game of basketball. He's very experienced and you could tell he knows his stuff. It's been great playing for him, because I've always wanted to. With the situation going on with my family, he was very supportive. He's been with the same staff for a while now so they're like a family so he told me if I came to Miami it would have been the same for me and they would welcome me and treat me like their son. It's been everything he has said it would be so far.

At The U I've learned so much from Coach L and the rest of the coaching staff. They all have kids and they're always there for me and I love being able to grow up around them. When I first got here I was very structured but once I got comfortable I showed my true colors. They showed me it's time to grow up and this is more than just a game. In practice the other day I got a steal up front and I thought the play was over, so I took the ball to the other end and tossed up a silly shot. Coach got on me about never stopping the play and finishing the shot. I've learned a lot.

One thing everyone should know about UM hoops is we're really athletic and we're going to be a very good defensive team this year. Everyone who plays us should know we're going to be high in defensive stats and we'll make you earn every bucket.

I secretly wish I could sing better. I sing in the car and around my teammates. I'm always dancing but Malcolm, Durand, Bishop, and Julian are the biggest dancers on the team.

Fast Breaks: Trey McKinney Jones They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them.

I was raised in Milwaukee, Wis.

I started playing basketball in the third grade.

My favorite holiday is Christmas because I get to see my family, all of my family.

Nobody knows that I can cut hair. I cut or line up a few guys on the team when they need it. I cut my own hair.

To be a Miami Hurricane means that you need to put it all on the table for The U.

Oddest nickname I've ever had is Virge, because of what my name was when I was born.

Right now I'm listening to the J. Cole album.

If I wasn't playing basketball I would be I would be playing football somewhere.

When I was younger I wanted to be a professional basketball player, just like my uncle.

I secretly wish I didn't have to take classes and could just be an athlete.

Legacy is the road to the top or the climax of your career.

My favorite current UM athlete is Julian Gamble because I'm probably the closest with him. He's my roommate and after my visit he was the main one who texted me and called me to make sure everything was all right.

Becoming a man is necessary in order to become a college basketball player.

The U is different than any other school.

I'm afraid of sharks. My family came to visit this summer and we rented a boat and we're out in the middle of the ocean and I jumped in. That was probably the scariest thing I've ever done.

After college I want to play professional basketball.

One thing everyone should know about Miami Basketball is that we're all brothers and we like to have fun.

At The U, I've learned so much from my teammates as a whole. I couldn't pick just one person because you learn different things from everyone.

In March I want to still be playing basketball in the tournament.

I never thought I would actually be going here. Growing up I always liked Miami because of the jerseys, I'm not going to lie, but I never thought I would actually be here right now when I was really young.

Before every game I need to pray.

My favorite song lyric is ... I honestly have a problem remembering song lyrics so I can't come up with one on the top of my head. I get that from my mom. She's the same way (laughs.)

My favorite midnight snack is Cheez-Itz

Coach Larranaga is a great coach who I believe is going to take us to that next level.

My favorite movie is The Dark Knight.

The actor I would want to play me in a movie is someone who semi-looks like me to play me. I would have to pick someone who's lightskinned so either Terrence Howard or Will Smith. Maybe Terrence Howard since he has light eyes.

Fast Breaks: Ryan Quigtar They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them.

I was raised in Seattle, Wash., particularly in Skyway, Wash. It's a smaller city right outside of the city.

I started playing basketball when I was five years old. I started out rec league and just playing in the backyard with my cousin Josh. We would always watch Michael Jordan in the playoffs and go right outside and try to imitate what he did in the games.

My favorite holiday is Christmas. It's right after my birthday and I just like the feeling of everybody giving presents and getting presents. It's good to see everyone smiling.

Nobody knows that I can barbeque. It's something that I've been working on. I'm learning from my dad, he's a great cook and I just love barbeque, too.

To be a Miami Hurricane means to walk around with pride knowing that The U has so much tradition; so many great players have come through this university, not only players but individuals in society as well.

The oddest nickname I've ever had is Ry Guy 3000. It was made up in seventh grade. I don't remember how it came to be but it stuck for the rest of the school year.

Right now I'm listening to Kendrick Lamar. He's a new up-andcoming artist out of LA and he's trying to bring West Coast music back and I'm from the West Coast so I'm excited about that.

If I wasn't playing basketball I would be still at the University of Miami. I was a walk-on but I would be trying to do more as far as with my degree since I had more time on my hands. Probably different internships.

When I was younger I wanted to be a congressman. My grandpa always used to ask me that and I always gave him the same answer. Now I'm nowhere near interested in being one.

My family is really close, from immediate family even to extended family my aunts and uncles on both sides have big families. I always talk to my aunts and uncles all the time and they really support me with everything I do.

My favorite current UM athlete is Jacory Harris because he's been under a lot of scrutiny but he still does what he's supposed to do on and off the field. He's very resilient and carries himself like a young man.

After college I want to hopefully get a good paying job but ultimately I want to open up a youth community center back home and help out all of the youth.

One thing everyone should know about Miami basketball is that we're here to stay. Coach L has created a strong foundation so far and I believe that it will carry on into the future and we'll be a great basketball program as well.

My favorite midnight snack is peanut butter and jelly, strawberry jelly to be exact. I don't just make a regular sandwich, I have to make it double decker because I always end up making two sandwiches in one at the same.

My favorite movie is Apocolyto. It's a great movie its about the Mayans back before pre-Columbus. It's just really captivating to me.

The actor I would want to play me in a movie is Al Pacino. I've grown to like Al Pacino and I've been watching a lot of his movies and I think he's one of the greatest actors ever so I think that would be great.

Fast Breaks: Durand Scott

They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them. These are the Miami Hurricanes...

I was raised in the borough of the Bronx with my mother and father and two brothers and two sisters until they got older and left me alone to be the baby.

I started playing basketball when I was nine years old. I was the worst basketball player ever and the only reason I got picked to be on the team was because I was pretty tall.

To be a Miami Hurricane means a lot because it stands for family unity and all of the right things that I've been preached since I was growing up so it was a perfect fit for me.

Nobody knows that I can dance. I dance a lot, all the time.

If I wasn't playing basketball I would be playing football because that was my first sport but then I hurt somebody so my mom believed the same thing could happen to me so I had to pick a new sport.

My favorite holiday is Christmas because you get presents from everybody other than family, family friends, whoever.

Right now I'm listening to a lot of Meek Mills

When I was younger I wanted to be like my father. He meant a lot to me and he paved the road for the man I am today.

My family is the most important thing to me in the world because they're always there for me and supporting me.

Winning a game is very important because I hate to lose. Even though I may not show it as much, I'm a great competitor and I've never lost a lot throughout my life.

My favorite current UM athlete is Sean Spence on the football team because he's always hyped on the football field and I know him personally.

Becoming a man was an easy step for me because of the help I got from my father.

The U is a great school which I don't regret attending and I enjoy my stay here. I believe it was a perfect fit for me.

After college I want to finish my education and hopefully continue my basketball. Hopefully the NBA, if not, wherever it takes me.

One thing everybody should know about Miami Basketball is we're a great group of guys to be around and we try our hardest every day to do what we have to do.

At The U, I've learned so much from my old coach, Coach Fernandez. He took me under his wing and he's the one who recruited me. He showed me a lot and taught me the focus I need to have during the game, practice and off the court.

In March I want to be playing, which I know I will be playing because I'm going to make sure we'll still be playing.

I never thought I would have a new coach but it's a great experience but he's a great guy and a great coach. I think he's going to do great things for us this year.

Before every game I listen to music and go shoot and buy a new pair of sneakers.

My favorite movie is 'Crybaby' with Johnny Depp, which is a musical, and 'Friday After Next' starring Ice Cube.

My favorite quote is it's not my favorite, but one that just popped into my mind is 'Go Hard or Go Home' because once I step on the court I know I have to leave everything on the court because if not, I'll be disappointed.

My favorite midnight snack is cereal, Cinnamon Toast Crunch and Crunch Berries.

My teammate that would win Dancing With the Stars is me (laughs). I danced when I was younger and still do now to the hip stuff that these little kids call the Dougie and stuff like that. I'm pretty good at that.

Fast Breaks: Erik Swoope

They are stories of perseverance. Stories about growing up, becoming men and being a part of a family. One-by-one, we hear from them. These are the Miami Hurricanes...

I started playing basketball when I was about two years old. I first started playing soccer and kind of mixed the two, but I found my love in about middle school.

My favorite holiday is Christmas, especially because nowadays I don't get to see my family a lot. It's nice because I know everyone that's when everyone takes vacation.

Nobody knows that I can play the guitar. I just started about two months ago, so that's my new hidden talent.

When I was younger I wanted to be a professor. I also wanted to play professional soccer.

I secretly wish I could have a school year abroad.

Legacy represents your family name. I've always had that philosophy, which I think is old school. Everywhere you go you're representing you're family, which is why hopefully this year we have our names on the back of our jerseys.

The U is internationally known. It's something that, no matter where you are, people will respect you or ask about you or how you're affiliated. Either they have an interest, have heard of us or want to be a part of The U.

I'm afraid of spiders (laughs).

After college I want to play professionally. My two other dreams would be to do marketing for Nike or be a doctor.

My favorite quote is from my favorite movie Idlewild, "God don't make no mistakes." I know it's a double negative, but I still like it.

My favorite midnight snack is probably oatmeal raisin cookies.

Coach Larranaga is really influential in my life so far. His new philosophy towards how to approach the game in general is just a new twist compared to last year. His whole general outlook and philosophy that the whole coaching staff follows, I'm buying into it faster and just can't wait for the season to start.

The actor I would want to play me in a movie is Dave Chappelle. Since he just recently got buff I think he could do it (laughs).
