QUICK FACTS

- Clemson and Miami face off Saturday for the second time this season and 20th time in the history of the series on Saturday at BankUnited Center. The Hurricanes won a slugfest on Feb.
  17 at Littlejohn Coliseum, 45-43. Miami overcame a late four-point deficit within the final two minutes to claim the victory over the Tigers.
- Clemson holds an 11-8 advantage all-time in the series, but the Hurricanes lead 4-3 in games played in Miami. Clemson last won at Miami in 2010-11, Brad Brownell's first season with the Tiger program.
- The Tigers have won twice at BankUnited Center since Miami first joined the ACC for the 2004-05 season. In the 2008-09 matchup, K.C. Rivers posted 28 points and Trevor Booker collected 16 rebounds to lead the Tigers to victory. In the 2010-11 win, guard Andre Young scored 18 to lead the way.
- Clemson owns 11 wins over top-25 ACC teams on the road in its history. The last victory for the Tiger program came against 21st-ranked Virginia Tech in 2007. Clemson's last win over a top-10 ACC team on the road was in 1995 against Duke in Rick Barnes' first road game as head coach.

- The Tigers are seeking their first win over a ranked team in 2012-13. Clemson has a current streak of six consecutive seasons with at least one win over a ranked team.
- Clemson dropped its most recent game on Tuesday to Boston College. It was Senior Night at Littlejohn, and Clemson's Devin Booker and Milton Jennings played well in their final home game as Tigers. Booker led the way with 19 points, while Jennings added 18. The two combined for 15 rebounds and made 16-of-28 shots from the field.
- K.J. McDaniels, who has missed the previous three games with an ankle injury, was a limited participant in practice Thursday and is listed as questionable for Saturday.
- Damarcus Harrison is coming off his first double-figure scoring performance since January. The sophomore posted 11 points and added a career-high tying eight rebounds in 29 minutes against Boston College.
- Freshman guard Jordan Roper was named to the All-ACC Academic Team on Thursday, the 11th straight year Clemson has had at least one representative. Roper is tied for the team lead with 31 steals and second with 36 three-pointers.

Clemson vs. Miami Series History

- Clemson leads the series with Miami, 11-8. Clemson won the first five games of the series, then lost the next five. Clemson finally broke the streak with a 74-70 overtime victory in 2006-07 at Clemson. The two teams split the games in 2007-08 with both teams winning on their home courts.
- Clemson won five in a row in the series for the second time before Miami won last season, 76-73. The five-game run included a season sweep in 2010-11, Brad Brownell's first year. Miami has taken the last two contests.
- Miami holds a slight edge in the series, 7-6, since the Hurricanes joined the ACC in 2004-05. Eleven of those matchups were against Frank Haith, who is now at Missouri.
- Clemson won the first five games in the series, which began with a 98-96 victory on January 5, 1956 at the Senior Bowl Tournament in Mobile Al
- The Hurricanes swept Clemson in 2004-05 and won two games in 2005-06, a regular season win at Clemson and the ACC Tournament contest.
- Clemson has won twice at Miami in recent years, 2008-09 and 2010-11. In the 2008-09 win, K.C. Rivers produced 28 points and Trevor Booker grabbed 16 rebounds, while in 2010-11, Andre Young scored 18 to lead the Tigers to victory.
- Six of Miami's wins over the Tigers have been by six points or less. The only large margin in Miami's favor took place in 2005-06 in Coral Gables, a 62-38 Hurricanes win. That was the fewest points scored by the Tigers in the Oliver Purnell era.
- Based on the previous meetings, we could have a close game on Saturday. Thirteen of the 19 previous meetings have been decided by six points or less, or in overtime. That includes earlier this season, when the Hurricanes escaped Littlejohn Coliseum with a perfect ACC record after a 45-43 win.
- Five meetings between the two teams have taken place on neutral sites in regular season tournaments. In addition to the first meeting in Mobile, Clemson won the second meeting in 1959 at the Steel City Tournament in Pittsburgh, PA and the third meeting, in 1966-67, at the Volunteer Classic in Knoxville. The two teams played a home-and-home non-conference series in 1994-95 and 1995-96, Rick Barnes' first two years as Clemson head coach. Clemson won both of those games.
- Clemson won the first meeting with Miami on January 5, 1956 in the consolation round of the Senior Bowl Tournament, 98-96. Clemson had five players in double figures and two more with eight. Miami had five players with at least 16 points, yet lost the game.
- Clemson won the second meeting between the two schools in Pittsburgh on December 13, 1958 by a 66-61 score in the first round of the Steel City Tournament. Bill Warren, a native of Pennsylvania, had a fine homecoming with 19 points to lead the Tigers, who also got 18 points from Doug Hoffman.
- $\bullet$  Clemson won the third meeting with Miami on December 16,

- 1966, a 73-64 overtime victory. Clemson outscored Miami 9-0 in the overtime. Jim Sutherland led the Tigers with 20 points, while Randy Mahaffey added 19 points and 10 rebounds. Richie Mahaffey also scored 19 points.
- Clemson has 11 wins in its history over Miami and three are in overtime. What is unusual is the margin of victory in those three games. Clemson won in overtime over the Hurricanes by a 73-64 score in Knoxville in 1966-67, then won by a 14-point score in overtime (66-52) on December 23, 1995. That was Rick Barnes' second year as Clemson coach. In 15 minutes of overtime vs. Miami, Clemson has outscored the Hurricanes 38-11. Clemson won the first two overtime games against Miami by a 23-0 overtime score.
- Clemson won the first meeting between the Tigers and the Hurricanes at Clemson on Dec. 20, 1994. Rayfield Ragland played the game of his life in that Tiger victory as he had 26 points in just 22 minutes. He made 11-of-15 shots from the field and 4-of-6 three-point shots off the bench. Greg Buckner added 15 points off 7-of-7 shooting from the field. That performance was part of his record 16 consecutive made field goals during that season.

Brownell and Larranaga Have Been Coaching Rivals Before

Clemson Head Coach Brad Brownell and Miami Head Coach Jim Larranaga faced off many times in the Colonial Athletic Association when Brownell was at UNC Wilmington and Larranaga was at George Mason.

Larranaga had the upper hand, 6-4, in the 10 meetings. The home team won seven of the eight and the two schools split a pair of neutral site games in the conference tournament. All 10 meetings were during the 2002-03 through 2005-06 era when Brownell was at UNC Wilmington. He went to Wright State for the 2006-07 season.

Brownell's UNCW team and Larranaga's George Mason team both had 15-3 records in the Colonial during the 2005-06 season and tied for the conference regular season title. George Mason lost in the second round of the conference tournament that year to Hofstra and Brownell's team won the league tournament to get the automatic NCAA bid.

During the regular season that year, UNCW won the first meeting in Wilmington, 69-63, then George Mason won the game in Virginia by a nearly identical 69-62 score. Of course, George Mason went on to make a great run in the NCAA tournament reaching the Final Four. They finished with a 27-8

Scouting the Hurricanes

Miami enters Saturday's contest with a chance to clinch the ACC regular season title. The Hurricanes need a win outright over the Tigers to win it for the first time since joining the conference for the 2004-05 season. Miami is 23-6 overall, 14-3 in the ACC, and ranked as high as sixth in the latest AP poll.

The Hurricanes were upset at home on Wednesday by Georgia Tech. Miami had a 13-point lead early in the second half, but saw Tech erase it twice in the last four minutes of the game, including at the buzzer as the Jackets tipped in their own miss to win 71-69.

Miami has three double figure scorers, led by point guard Shane Larkin. He averages 13.8 points per game and was held to eight in the first meeting against Clemson. Kenny Kadji, who hit the late go-ahead three-pointer in that Feb. 17 game, averages 13.3 points per game. Durand Scott is third at 13.2 per game. Kadji and Scott will be among five seniors honored prior to Saturday's game at the BankUnited Center.

Clemson Upset Bid Falls Short, No. 3 Miami Prevails 45-43

Clemson's bid for an upset fell short on Feb. 17 as the No.3 ranked Miami Hurricanes escaped Littlejohn Coliseum with a 45-43 victory and a perfect 12-0 record in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Tigers held a 42-38 lead after Jordan Roper's coast-to-coast layup with just under two minutes left, but were outscored 7-1 to end the game.

Kenny Kadii made the go-ahead three-point shot with 34.7 seconds left, and Miami tacked on a free throw with 8.6 ticks to go. Rod Hall had a chance to tie in the waning seconds, but his shot missed and two Tigers converged on a tip-in that would not fall at the buzzer.

Clemson held Miami to just 45 points, its lowest total this season and 25 below its season average entering the game. Its previous low was 50 against Indiana State in the Diamond Head Classic. The Tigers held the Hurricanes to a 34.6 percent field goal mark, but shot just 30.4 percent on their own accord. Clemson struggled to a 5-for-13 clip at the free throw line, just 38.5 percent. Miami won the rebound battle, 43-37.

Roper was terrific for a second straight home game for Clemson, leading all players with 19 points. The freshman made 8-of-11 overall, 3-of-4 from three-point distance. Devin Booker added a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds. Kadji led the Hurricanes with 12 while Julian Gamble added eight

Miami began the contest with an 8-2 lead and watched Clemson make just one of its first 17 attempts from the field. But the Tigers rebounded by scoring five straight, capped by a Roper steal and slam. Clemson took its first lead at 11-10 on a runner from Milton Jennings. The largest lead for the Tigers in the first half was 15-12 on a monster flush by Booker off a fast break. The two teams were tied at 16 late, but Miami took a two-point edge into the break off a Rion Brown jumper.

The Tigers came out strong after intermission, scoring the first seven points of the second frame to take a 23-18 lead. Roper hit his second three-pointer during the run. He added another on an inbounds play at the 14:44 mark to give Clemson another lead at 26-24. The two teams exchanged the lead five more times from that point, the last of which came on Kadji's three in the final minute.

Clemson had a chance to re-take the lead following Kadji's three, but Hall was whistled for a charge over Trey McKinney Jones with 13.3 seconds remaining. Hall played tremendous on the ball defense versus the 'Canes star point guard Shane Larkin, who was held to just seven points on 2-of-8 shooting with three turnovers in 40 minutes.

distance, coupled with a 3-for-4 effort at the charity stripe. He scored 18 of his points in the opening half. He was supported by 11 points from freshman K.J. McDaniels, who scored double figures for the first time since the UTEP game in the opening round of the Diamond Head Classic. He added five rebounds, a block and a steal in 17 minutes. Catalin "Bobo" Baciu added 10 off the bench, matching his career-high.

The Tigers shot the ball well, connecting on 27-of-57 shots overall, but missed all eight three-point attempts in the second half. Miami shot 51.9 percent, making 27-of-52 attempts. The Hurricanes made 9-of-20 from three and 13-of-14 at the line, 92.9 percent. Miami had five players reach double figures, led by 16 from Malcolm Grant and 14 from Kenny Kadji.

After Clemson built an early 8-6 lead, the Hurricanes rattled off 13 consecutive points before the first official timeout. Miami buried a pair of trifectas during the run, one apiece for Grant and Durand Scott. Smith stopped the bleeding with back-to-back three-pointers to bring the deficit to five. Miami responded with a bucket inside by Kenny Kadji to make it 21-14 in favor of the Hurricanes with 11:44 left in the half.

Miami extended the lead to eight at 23-15, before the Tigers put together a miniature 9-6 scoring run. Smith buried another pair of threes during the spurt, including one from the corner at the 7:14 mark that pulled Clemson to within five at 29-24. Minutes later, Clemson tied the game at 29 on Bryan Narcisse's third three-pointer of the season.

The Tigers took a 33-31 lead on an old fashioned three-point play by Smith with 4:20 remaining. But, Kadji answered the call for the Hurricanes with a string of eight straight points as Miami reclaimed a 37-35 lead. The lead was extended to five at 42-37 before a pair of McDaniels free throws made it a 42-39 halftime score. Both were first-half highs in a Clemson game this season.

Reggie Johnson opened the second half with a pair of layups on the inside to extend Miami's lead to 46-39. After a Brad Brownell timeout, the Tigers responded with a 13-8 run punctuated by McDaniels' emphatic one-handed dunk and the foul. He hit the free throw to pull Clemson within two at 54-52. The Tigers were within one at 59-58 after Smith scored a layup in transition.

Clemson took a three-point lead at 62-59 after back-to-back scores inside by Baciu and Andre Young. The bucket by Baciu put the 7-foot-2 senior in double digits for the second time in his career, and the first time since the game versus South Carolina on Dec. 4. A shot clock beating three by Trey McKinney Jones pulled the Hurricanes to within one at 64-63, and then Miami went ahead 65-64 on two freebies from Kadji. A crazy exchange followed, where Grant claimed a loose ball rebound in the corner to push the lead to 68-64.

The 12-0 run was capped on a layup by Scott with 3:25 remaining. McDaniels broke a four-minute scoring drought with a tip-in that pulled the Tigers to within six at 72-66. Another three-point play by Smith brought the Tigers within five at 74-69, and Milton Jennings followed with a pair from the charity stripe 30 seconds later to make it a one-possession game.

After a Miami turnover, Jennings made a follow shot underneath with 5.8 seconds left. Clemson fouled freshman Shane Larkin, who calmly sank two free throws to make it 76-73. The Tigers turned the ball over on their final possession, ending the game.

Tigers Fall to Boston College on Senior Night, 68-61

Clemson saw its eight-game winning streak on Senior Night snapped on Mar. 5 after Boston College utilized a 12-0 run midway through the second half in a 68-61 win at Littlejohn Coliseum.

On a night when Clemson honored seniors Devin Booker and Milton Jennings, the duo did not disappoint in terms of productivity. Booker posted 19 points to lead the Tigers, while Jennings had 18 on his own. The two were a combined 16-of-28 from the floor. Booker grabbed eight rebounds while Jennings collected seven. Damarcus Harrison was the only other Tiger in double figures with 11. Clemson struggled to shoot the ball from long range for a third consecutive game, converting just 3-of-16 from beyond the arc.

Boston College shot 60 percent in the second half and overcame a two-point deficit at the half to grab the win. The Eagles consistently drove the ball to the basket in the second half, creating fouls or layups against the Tiger defense. Olivier Hanlan, the highest scoring freshman in the ACC, had a game-high 24 points. Ryan Anderson had a double-double in support with 18 points and 11 rebounds.

Clemson started the game by scoring the first seven points, five by Jennings. The Eagles then scored the next seven to knot the game at the 16:07 mark. Clemson extended its lead to as much as seven at 23-16 on a free throw by Booker. But BC responded with an 11-6 run to close out the opening half, the last on a layup by Anderson with 40 seconds remaining.

The Eagles tied the game four separate times in the opening five minutes of the second half before ultimately taking the lead for good with 8:46 to go on another layup by Anderson. Down 46-43, BC scored 12 straight points to take control. Hanlan and fellow freshman Joe Rahon scored four apiece during the run. With 5:13 left, the Tigers were suddenly down nine points.

Clemson tried to rally late, whittling the lead down to three at 60-57 after its pressure defense paid dividends. Following Booker's free throws at that point, Hanlan made the shot of the game when he rose up and buried a 15-footer to all but put the game away.

Tigers in Search of Rare Road Victory over Top-25 ACC Team

The Miami Hurricanes enter Saturday's game with Clemson with a No. 6 ranking according to AP, seventh by USA Today. Clemson has 11 wins over top-25 teams on the road in its history, all against ACC opponents. That includes just five wins over top-10 opponents on the road.

Clemson's last win over a top-25 team on the road took place on March 4, 2007 when the Tigers defeated Virginia Tech, 75-74. The Hokies were 21st in both polls entering the game.

Clemson's last top-10 win on the road was at Duke on Jan. 4, 1995. In Rick Barnes' first ACC road game, he upset Mike Krzyzewski's team 75-70 thanks to 60 percent three-point shooting. Duke was ranked ninth by USA Today and 11th by the AP entering that game.

Bill Foster has five of the 11 Clemson wins over top-25 teams on the road. Both of the first two were top-five wins, and they were his first two ACC road games. On Jan. 17, 1976 he defeated fifth-ranked Wake Forest, 86-81. Then, the very next ACC road game just four days later, he coached the Tigers to an 82-77 win over second-ranked Maryland and Head Coach Lefty Driesell. Foster also defeated a fourth-ranked Wake Forest team the next year, 70-66 in Winston Salem. In his final ACC road game he beat 15th-ranked Duke, 77-76 in Durham.

While Clemson has just 11 total wins over ranked teams on the road, three of the 11 have come in a Clemson coach's first career ACC road game. Bill Foster, Cliff Ellis and Rick Barnes all turned the trick.

Clemson at Miami on Senior Night

The Clemson at Miami game in Coral Gables will be Senior Night for the Hurricanes. Clemson has actually ruined a senior night for an ACC team three of the last seven years. Clemson won at Virginia Tech on the Hokies' Senior Night in 2005-06 and 2006-07, and won at Maryland on the Terps' Senior Night in 2007-08. Clemson has already lost once this season on an opposing team's Senior Night when Virginia Tech downed the Tigers last weekend, 69-61.

Clemson has a 14-41 (.254) lifetime record in opposing Senior Night games since the ACC was founded for the 1953-54 season.

By comparison, Clemson has won 72 percent of its home senior night games, so you can see there is quite a home court advantage on Senior Night. That includes a 32-9 Clemson record in home senior night games since 1971-72, a .780 figure.

Clemson had just one Senior Night road win in the decade of the 1980s, at 15th-ranked Duke in 1984 in Bill Foster's final ACC Road game as Clemson head coach. That game was held on Feb. 29, 1984. The Tigers had three such wins in the 1990s, four in the first decade of this century.

Clemson won at NC State in 1999-00 to ruin the Senior Night game for Justin Gainey and the Wolfpack. Incredible as it may seems, Clemson has a 10 percent winning mark in the North Carolina Triangle over the years, but is 3-0 on NC State Senior Nights.

Clemson is 0-1 at Boston College, 2-7 at Duke, 0-1 at Florida State, 1-10 at Georgia Tech, 3-7 at Maryland, 0-6 at North Carolina, 3-0 at NC State, 3-4 at Virginia, 2-1 at Virginia Tech, 0-2 at Wake Forest and 0-2 at South Carolina on Senior Night. This will be Clemson's first Senior Night game at Miami.

Clemson defeated two different teams on Senior Night games in the 1961-62 season, the only time Clemson has had two road Senior Night wins in the same year. That was also one of just two years Clemson advanced to the finals of the ACC Tournament.

Getting Revenge with Win on the Road

A reason a win at Miami would be a landmark accomplishment is that it would come on the road after losing at home earlier in the year to the Hurricanes. Miami defeated Clemson in a close game, 45-43 back on Feb. 17 when Miami was ranked third in the nation.

CLEMSON VS. MIAM

Only six times in 60 years of the ACC has Clemson won a road game against an ACC team that defeated the Tigers earlier in the season at home. The last time it happened was an 86-81 win over Virginia Tech in 2005-06. The other times it happened was in 1958-59 vs. South Carolina, 1976-77 vs. Wake Forest, 1983-84 vs. Duke, 1995-96 vs. NC State and 1997-98 vs. NC State.

Clemson Looks for Third Win of 2012-13 Athletic Season over a Seventh-Ranked Team

Clemson will play a seventh-ranked (USA Today) Miami team on Saturday in Coral Gables. Clemson will be looking to get its third win over a seventh-ranked team in a third major sport within 70 days when the two teams meet.

Clemson defeated seventh-ranked LSU in the December 31, 2012 Chick-Fil-A Bowl by a 25-24 score. It was a thrilling victory, as it came on a 37-yard field goal by Chandler Catanzaro on the last play of the game. Then, last Saturday, Clemson's baseball team defeated seventh-ranked South Carolina 6-3 in a game played in Greenville at Fluor Field.

Now the Tigers face a seventh-ranked University of Miami basketball team on March 9. It would be very noteworthy considering none of the three wins would have been achieved on Clemson's campus.

Clemson Protecting the Basketball

One area the Tigers have been strong in all year has been protecting the basketball. The Tigers have 334 turnovers in 29 games for an average of just 11.52 per game. If the season ended today, that would be the fewest turnovers on a per game basis by a Clemson team in history. The record for fewest turnovers per game is 11.57 in 1994-95. Three of the top seven fewest turnovers per game have taken place under Brad Brownell's watch.

Turnovers have been a key indicator of success this season. Clemson has committed single digit turnovers in six ACC games this season, including each of the last two when the Tigers had just nine apiece against Virginia Tech and Boston College.

Scoring Defense a Strength for 2012-13 Tigers

Clemson has allowed opponents just 59.6 points per game this year, 28th in the nation as of the March 4 statistics. If the season ended today that would be the best by a Clemson team since the 1948-49 squad allowed just 54.2 points per game.

Each of the three best scoring defense seasons (including this year) since 1950 have taken place under Brad Brownell. Last year's team allowed just 60.6 points per game and his first team allowed just 61.4 points per game.

Best Clemson Scoring Defenses Since 1950

Year	Games	Points	PPG
2012-13	29	1729	59.6
2011-12	31	1880	60.6
2010-11	34	2086	61.4

Tigers Swat 11 Shots vs. Wake Forest, Hold Deacs to .246 Field Goal Percentage

A big reason for Clemson's strong field goal percentage defense was the fact that Clemson blocked 11 shots in the win over Wake Forest on Jan. 15. It was the second-most in a game this season, as Clemson had 12 in the loss to Arizona back in December. It was the most for the Tigers in an ACC game since the 2009-10 season when the Tigers had 11 in a loss at Virginia Tech. The record against an ACC opponent is 13, accomplished against Duke in 1977 and at Maryland in 2005.

K.J. McDaniels had seven blocks in the contest, most since Jerai Grant had the same amount in a game against The Citadel in the 2010-11 season.

Clemson showed some outstanding field goal percentage defense in that win over Wake Forest, allowing the Demon Deacons to shoot just .246 for the game on 15-of-61 shooting. That included 2-of-10 on three-point shots. Wake Forest was shooting 37 percent on three-pointers coming into the game.

The .246 shooting figure was the best field goal percentage defense for a Tiger team in an ACC game since Jan. 4, 1964 when Clemson held Wake Forest to 20 percent on 13-of-65 attempts. That game was held at Wake Forest, and the Tigers won 87-61. Overall, the .246 field goal percentage defense was the second-best in Clemson history in an ACC game and 10th best against any opponent.

Clemson Held Consecutive ACC Teams to 44 Points

Clemson held Virginia and Wake Forest to 44 points, the first time in school history the Tigers held consecutive ACC opponents under 45 points. The closest occurrence was in the 1958-59 season. Clemson defeated Maryland 55-46 on Jan. 10, then lost at Duke 45-41 on Jan. 13.

The last time Clemson held any consecutive opponents under 45 points took place during the 2009-10 season. In the first two games that year, Oliver Purnell's final season, Clemson defeated Presbyterian 84-41 and Liberty 79-39.

Clemson has had many outstanding defensive efforts in the three years Brad Brownell has been at Clemson. Last year in late February, Clemson held Georgia Tech to 37 points in a 56-37 victory. That was the fewest points allowed by the Tigers in an ACC regular season game.

Tigers Shot 77 Percent in Second Half at Home vs. Virginia

Clemson made 10-of-13 shots from the field, including 5-of-6 three-point shots in the win over Virginia on Jan. 12. That computes to a 76.9 field goal percentage and 83.3 from three-point range. Clemson also shot 71.4 percent from the line.

That was the best shooting performance in a half for the Tigers since Brad Brownell's first year. On Jan. 12, 2011 (yes the exact two-year anniversary), Clemson made 17-of-20 shots from the field in the second half of an 87-62 win over Georgia Tech. That is an 85 percent mark. Clemson made all nine of its three-point shots in that half, obviously the Clemson record for three-point shooting in a half.

Obviously, the ACC needs to schedule a game for Brad Brownell's team on Jan. 12 every year.

Statistical Streaks & Trends

- Devin Booker has posted double figures in 14 of Clemson's 17 ACC games, an individual season high for the Tiger senior. He had eight as a sophomore and junior.
- Booker has scored 16 or more points in four straight games, the first time he has accomplished a streak of that consistency over his career.
- Milton Jennings has had three 20 & 10 games (at least 20 points and 10 rebounds) in his career, and two of them came within the first half of Clemson's home ACC schedule.
- Jennings has reached double figures in the scoring column in five of Clemson's last six games.
- K.J. McDaniels has had at least one blocked shot in 16 straight appearances for the Tigers. The last Clemson player to do it in that 17 consecutive games was Sharone Wright, who actually went 47 straight over the span of three different seasons from 1992-94. McDaniels has not played in Clemson's three most recent games due to injury.
- $\bullet \ Jordan \ Roper \ has \ made \ 15 \ of \ his \ last \ 32 \ three-point \ attempts \ (.469) \ over \ the \ last \ seven \ games.$

Booker Era Concludes at Littlejohn Coliseum

Devin Booker played his final game at Littlejohn Coliseum on March 5 when the Tigers lost to Boston College, 68-61. It was not only Booker's final home game, it was the final home game for the Booker family.

A Booker has been in the Clemson starting lineup for 225 of the 228 games played over the seven years of play between the 2006-07 to 2012-13 era. Trevor Booker started 134 games in a row between 2006-07 to 2009-10, the all-time Clemson record for total starts and consecutive starts.

Devin started just one game in 2009-10, when he was a freshman and Trevor was a senior. But, Devin has started all but three games over the last three seasons when he was the only Booker on the roster.

Here are some facts about the Booker brothers era at Clemson:

- Only 12 players in Clemson history have scored at least 1,100 points and grabbed at least 700 rebounds. Trevor and Devin are two of those players. Trevor had 1,725 points and 1,060 rebounds, while Devin has 1,132 points and 723 rebounds.
- The Bookers are the fourth-highest scoring brother combination in ACC basketball history.

CLEMSON VS. MIAMI

They have a combined 2,857 points. They are one of just five brother combinations in ACC history to each score at least 1,000 points.

- Over the seven seasons a Booker has been in the Clemson lineup, the Tigers have 144 wins, an average of 20.6 wins per year.
- Clemson had an 83-25 record at home during the seven seasons, a .769 winning percentage.
- Clemson has 57 ACC wins during the seven seasons, 8.1 wins per year. That is the most ACC wins in a seven-year era in Clemson history.
- Clemson had a 40-17 home ACC record during the era, a .702 winning percentage.
- Clemson has been to four NCAA Tournaments and one NIT during the Booker era. It marked the first time Clemson had four straight NCAA Tournament appearances (2008-11).
- One of the Bookers has led Clemson in rebounding in 125 of the 228 games.
- The Bookers are two of the top 11 rebounders in Clemson history. Trevor is third with 1,060 and Devin is tied for 10th with 723. Devin needs just one rebound against Miami to pass Tom Wideman for sole possession of 10th place.
- The Bookers have combined for 283 dunks over the last seven seasons, 148 by Trevor and 135 by Devin.

Oh Brother, Where art Thou?

In Clemson's Feb. 2 game at Boston College, Devin Booker surpassed the 1,000 career point mark. He joined older brother Trevor as members of Clemson's 1,000 point club. They are the second brother combination in school history and fifth in ACC history to accomplish the feat. Randy and Richie Mahaffey both went over 1,000 points for the Tigers in the mid- to late 1960s.

The 2012-13 season will conclude the Booker era of Clemson basketball. Each of the last seven years a Booker has been in the Clemson lineup, including 2009-10 season when the Tigers had a pair of Bookers, current senior Devin and then senior Trevor.

The Booker brothers currently have 2,857 career points between them and that is the fourth highest brother scoring combination in ACC history. The top scoring brother combination belongs to the four Mahaffey Brothers who combined for 3,555 points between 1959-70.

Booker More Than Holding his own vs. ACC's Best Post Players

Clemson senior Devin Booker has been outstanding in conference play this season. In fact, he has largely outplayed many of his counterparts who are considered among the top post players within the ACC. On the top of the next column is a look at how Booker has fared against some of the league's top big men.

As you can see, he has held three players - including Duke's Mason Plumlee and Maryland's Alex Len - to single digits in the scoring column while combining for 28 points and 20 rebounds in those two games. In two games head to head against NC State's Richard Howell, Booker scored 37 points. In a recent matchup with North Carolina's James Michael McAdoo, Booker more than doubled McAdoo's point total with a game-high 25, to go along with a game-high 11 rebounds.

- 5th in rebounds per game (8.2)
- 8th in blocked shots per game (1.4)

• 9th in points per game (14.6)

Booker's Career Game at NC State

Clemson senior Devin Booker started his senior campaign off right with what was then a personal high of 19 points against an ACC team on Jan. 5 against Florida State. It took him 15 days to shatter that mark. Booker scored 27 points and made 13-of-18 field goals at NC State in a game the Tigers dropped by a final score of 66-62. Consider the following accomplishments by the Tigers' starting center against NC State:

- His 27 points eclipsed previous career-high of 22 vs. East Tennessee State
- Most points by a Tiger against a ranked opponent since K.C. Rivers had 28 in the 2008 ACC Championship Game against No. 1 North Carolina
- Most field goals by a Tiger since K.C. Rivers had 13 against Liberty in 2008-09
- Most field goals by a Tiger post player since Elden Campbell's 13 against Mercer in 1987-88

Booker's Scoring Highs vs. ACC Teams

Booker's Field Goal Percentage Near All-Time High

One of the strengths of senior Devin Booker's game has been finishing around the rim this season. The Tigers' starting center leads the team with a .547 field goal percentage, the second-best accuracy of his career. His previous best was a .561 figure in 2009-10 as a freshman, when he only attempted 107 field goals the entire season.

Booker Fourth Among Active ACC Players in Rebounds

Senior center Devin Booker is fourth among active players in the ACC with 723 career rebounds. Mason Plumlee is first with 1,033 boards, followed by Richard Howell (996) and Reggie Johnson (809). Booker averaged a team-high 7.0 per game in 2011-12 as a junior, and leads this year's squad with a 7.8 per game figure.

Booker's 15 Rebounds an Individual High Under Brownell

Devin Booker was a one-man rebounding machine for Clemson at Duke, collecting 15 of the Tigers' 32 rebounds in the game against the No. 1 ranked Blue Devils on Jan. 8.

Booker's 15 rebounds were not only a career-high, but they were also an individual best in 88 games by a Clemson player since Brad Brownell has been the Tigers' coach. Also, Booker's 15 rebounds were the most by any Clemson player since former teammate Jerai Grant totaled 15 at Virginia Tech in 2010.

As you can see in the chart below, Booker is one of seven Tigers to record at least 15 rebounds in a single game this century. His older brother, Trevor, and former Tiger forward Chris Hobbs share the highest rebound total by a player in the 21st century with 17.

Seniors Approaching Statistical Milestones

Clemson seniors Devin Booker and Milton Jennings both continue to approach statistical milestones on a career basis:

- Booker needs 1 rebound to pass Tom Wideman for 10th all-time in Clemson history
- Booker needs 23 points to pass Sharrod Ford for 28th all-time in Clemson history
- Jennings needs 12 rebounds to pass David Angel for 21st all-time in Clemson history

CLEMSON vs. MIAMI

Jennings Played Well Against North Carolina Once Again

Senior forward Milton Jennings has played well vs. North Carolina in his career. In six career games against the Tar Heels, Jennings has averaged 10 points per game, his best scoring average against an ACC team over his career. He has 60 points and 37 rebounds in the six games covering 154 minutes. Jennings has made 23-of-48 (.479) shots from the field, including a solid 9-of-24 (.375) from three-point range.

Jennings had his best career ACC Tournament game against North Carolina when he was a sophomore in 2010-11. He scored 16 points on 6-of-8 shooting, including 3-of-5 three-point shots. He added seven rebounds in that 92-87 double overtime loss to the sixth-ranked Tar Heels. He scored 15 points and had 12 rebounds earlier that year in a loss to 20th-ranked North Carolina at home.

In Clemson's most recent game with the Tar Heels on Feb. 28, Jennings was efficient with 12 points on 10 field goal attempts. The senior added 10 rebounds for his third double-double of the season. He also had a team-high five assists, which matched his single-game high.

Jennings Feeling Charitable

Milton Jennings had a career performance from the charity stripe in the Jan. 27 win over Virginia Tech. In fact, it was one of the greatest performances from the foul line by any Clemson player in the program's 101-year history.

Jennings, who had taken just 33 free throws coming into the game, was 16-for-18 from the line as part of his 28-point effort against the Hokies. The 16 free throws were the most made by any Tiger since the late Butch Zatezalo sank 16 in a game against Wake Forest in 1969. Zatezalo also holds the single-game school record with a 17-for-17 performance against Maryland in 1968.

The 18 attempts were the most by any Clemson player since Chris Hobbs shot 19 free throws in the triple overtime game against Wake Forest in 2002. The school record for a single game is shared by Hobbs and Dale Davis, who attempted 19 versus SC State in 1990.

Most Made Free Throws in a Single Game, Clemson History

Made	Att	Name	Site-Opponent	Date
17	17	Butch Zatezalo	H-Maryland	1-15-1968
16	18	Milton Jennings	H-Virginia Tech	1-27-2013
16	17	Butch Zatezalo	H-Wake Forest	2-27-1969
15	18	Bill Yarborough	A-Marvland	2-14-1956

Jennings With Multiple 20 & 10 Games

Senior Milton Jennings had 21 points and 11 rebounds in the Tigers' 59-44 win over Virginia on Jan. 12 at Littlejohn Coliseum. He was the first Clemson player to have at least 20 points and 10 rebounds in the same game since his performance against Furman in 2010-11.

But, you have to go back almost four years to find the last time a Tiger had 20 & 10 in an ACC game. The last Tiger to do that was Trevor Booker, who had 21 points and 13 rebounds against Virginia Tech in 2008-09. Booker had three 20 & 10 games in a five-game period that season.

Jennings only took four games to reach the 20 & 10 plateau for a second time. He posted a career-high 28 points in the Jan. 27 win over Virginia Tech, while adding a career-high tying 14 rebounds.

Classmate Devin Booker added the first 20 & 10 game of his career on Feb. 28 against North Carolina. He scored 25 and collected a game-high 11 rebounds.

Jennings Leads Tigers in Three-Point Goals

While Clemson has a 6-foot-6 player leading the team in blocked shots, the Tigers have a 6-foot-9 player leading in three-point goals made. Senior Milton Jennings has made 39-of-116 three-point shots this season for a .336 percentage. The 39 threes are four more than any other Tiger on the roster.

Jennings' 39 made three-point goals are a single-season personal high, the fourth-best single-season mark in school history for a player 6-foot-9 or taller. Andrius Jurkunas had three seasons with at least 40 made three-point goals during his career between 1995-2000.

Jennings is already second to Jurkunas in career three-point goals by players 6-foot-9 or taller. Jennings is 85-of-281 in his career, while Jurkunas made 146-of-414.

Most Three-Point Goals in Season, Players 6-foot-9 or Taller

Rk	Name	Hgt	Season	FG-FGA
1.	Andrius Jurkunas	6-9	1998-99	51-135
2.	Andrius Jurkunas	6-9	1995-96	51-121
3.	Andrius Jurkunas	6-9	1999-00	41-120
4.	Milton Jennings	6-9	2012-13	39-116

Jennings With Pair of 20+ Point Games vs. ACC Teams

Milton Jennings has established his ACC career-high in the scoring column twice this regular season. The 6-foot-9 Jennings scored 21 points and made 7-of-13 shots, including 5-of-8 from long range, in the 59-44 win over Virginia on Jan. 12. The 21 points were four more than he had scored against any previous ACC team, which was 17 last February in a win over NC State. It took him 15 days to break that standard, scoring 28 in a 77-70 victory over Virginia Tech.

As you can see in the chart below, his top three individual scoring performances against ACC teams have taken place his senior season. Last time out on Senior Night, he had 18 points on 8-of-15 field goals versus Boston College.

Jennings' Scoring Highs vs. ACC Teams

Date	Opponent	FG-FGA	FT-FTA	Points

Roper Trying for 40-Percent Mark from Long Distance as a Freshman

Jordan Roper has quietly been Clemson's most consistent threat from beyond the three-point arc. When you compare his shooting percentage as a freshman to that of other former Tiger shooting greats when they were also freshmen, his numbers are similar. The point of this note is not to suggest that Roper is as good as the following players just yet, but it is worth pointing out that the 5-foot-11 rookie has comparable numbers to some of Clemson's all-time greats.

Among the top 10 three-point shooters in Clemson history (by total made), Shawan Robinson had the best percentage as a freshman when he made an astounding .475 in 59 attempts in 2002-03. Two others shot over 40 percent as freshmen, Andrius Jurkunas in 1995-96 (.421) and Terrence Oglesby in 2007-08 (.403). K.C. Rivers, Clemson's all-time leader with 281 three-pointers, shot just .336 from long distance as a freshman in 2005-06.

Roper has made 36 out of 90 to this point in the season, a .400 figure that is better than what Rivers, Cliff Hammonds, Terrell McIntyre, Will Solomon, Tony Stockman and Andre Young all shot as freshmen.

As you can see in the corresponding chart, Roper would be only the fifth Tiger freshman in history to shoot at least 40 percent from three-point distance if the season ended today.

40% Freshman Three-Point Shooters in Clemson History (min. 25 attempts)

Name	Season	Made	Att	Pct
Shawan Robinson	2002-03	28	59	.475
Ryan Amestoy	1991-92	14	30	.467
Andrius Jurkunas	1995-96	51	121	.421
Terrence Oglesby	2007-08	85	211	.403
Jordan Roper	2012-13	36	90	.400

Roper Scores 19 Points vs. ACC Team

In Clemson's game against Miami on Feb. 17, freshman Jordan Roper poured in a game-high 19 points. It was his career-high, and the most by a Tiger freshman against an ACC team since Terrence Oglesby also had 19, in a home win over Florida State in 2008. Roper also had 17 a week prior to the Miami game in a one-point loss to NC State.

There have only been four games this century where a Clemson freshman has scored more points against an ACC school, three of them by Tony Stockman alone in the 2000-01 season. The individual best versus an ACC team by a first-year freshman this century came in 2001, when Chris Hobbs made 10 field goals and eight free throws for a 28-point total against Virginia.

Roper Makes Impact in Homecoming Trip

Clemson freshman Jordan Roper grew up in the shadows of the University of South Carolina. The two-time all-state selection at Irmo High School scored 1,698 points in his prep career second in Irmo history behind former Gamecock legend B.J. McKie. Roper led Irmo to a state championship in AAAA classification as a junior in 2011.

That is why Roper's return to Columbia for the Dec. 2 game against South Carolina was such a sweet one for the 5-foot-11 guard. He scored five points in 16 minutes, the last two of which came off an important steal and slam to help the Tigers break the game open early in the second half.

CLEMSON VS. MIAM

McDaniels Holds Career and Season Records for Blocks by Player 6-foot-6 or Shorter

K.J. McDaniels leads Clemson in blocked shots with 53 in 26 games. With seven blocks in the win over Wake Forest on Jan. 15, he established the Clemson record for blocks in a season by a player 6-foot-6 or shorter. The previous record was 31 by Derrick Forrest, a 6-foot-3 wing on Clemson's 1989-90 team.

In terms of career blocks, McDaniels has 73, which is 15 more than former Tiger Sam Perry, who had 58 in 128 games between 2004-08. McDaniels became Clemson's career leader in blocks among players 6-foot-6 or shorter...in 79 fewer games than Perry. He needs just six to surpass Perry's career total...in one season.

McDaniels did not play in two of Clemson's previous three games, against North Carolina and at Virginia Tech. Not coincidentally, the Tigers did not record a blocked shot in either contest.

McDaniels Leads Tigers in Blocks and Steals

Sophomore forward K.J. McDaniels leads the Tigers in both blocked shots (53) and steals (31). Only one player in Clemson history has led the Tigers in both categories in the same season, Greg Buckner in 1994-95. That was Buckner's freshman year, as he had 63 steals to pace the team and actually tied Andy Kelly for the blocked shots lead with 12.

Jordan Roper has caught McDaniels in the steals category, thanks to an ankle injury that has forced McDaniels to miss Clemson's last three games.

McDaniels Among ACC's Most Improved Scorers

Sophomore forward K.J. McDaniels has played at a much improved level this season. The Birmingham, AL native is averaging 10.7 points per game – second-best on the team. Last year, as a freshman, he averaged just 3.9 points per game in 30 appearances. His +6.8 per game scoring average improvement is among the best in the conference. Erick Green, the nation's leading scorer, holds the highest scoring average improvement with a +9.4 figure this season.

Highest Scoring Average Improvements Among ACC Players

Harrison's Career Night vs. Virginia Tech

Sophomore guard Damarcus Harrison has had his struggles shooting the basketball this season. On Jan. 27 in the win over Virginia Tech was not one of those times, however. The 6-foot-4 Harrison poured in a career-high 19 on 6-of-10 shooting (3-of-7 from three-point range).

Harrison's previous high was 15 points against SC State last December. In his first six ACC games (Harrison transferred into Clemson for the 2012-13 season), he scored a TOTAL of 13 points. Thus, he scored six more points in the Tigers' Jan. 27 game than he had in his previous six games combined.

Hall Records Single-Game Assist High Under Brad Brownell

Clemson point guard Rod Hall was extremely impressive in the Tigers' Dec. 15 outing for Clemson in terms of facilitating the offense. He produced a career-high 10 assists versus Florida A&M, also a single-game high by an individual in 93 games under Head Coach Brad Brownell.

The previous benchmark had been nine assists, achieved on two occasions by former Tiger guard Andre Young. He had nine in 2010-11 against Maryland, and nine in 2011-12 against College of Charleston. Hall's previous best was eight assists earlier this season in a win over UTEP.

Most Individual Assists by a Tiger Under Brownell

Filer First Tiger Freshman to Score 20+ Points Since 2007-08

Freshman guard Adonis Filer scored 21 points on 7-of-7 shooting from the field, including 4-of-4 from three-point range in Clemson's 92-51 win over The Citadel on Jan. 1. Filer became the first freshman to score at least 20 points for the Tigers in over five years. The last to do it was Terrence Oglesby against Ole Miss in a tournament in Puerto Rico on Dec. 22, 2007.

Filer became the seventh different Clemson freshman to score at least 20 points in a game this century. The others to do it are Trevor Booker, Chey Christie, Cliff Hammonds, Chris Hobbs, Oglesby and Tony Stockman. Hobbs has the highest scoring game by a Tiger freshman in the 20th century with 28 against Virginia at home during the 2000-01 season.

Since freshman eligibility was established in 1972-73, the Clemson record for scoring by a freshman is 38 by Skip Wise against Pennsylvania on Nov. 30, 1974. That was just the second game of Wise's career, and it came against a 14th-ranked Penn team. Wise went on to be first-team All-ACC that year, the first freshman in the history of the league to make first-team.

Blossomgame, Coleman to Receive Medical Red-Shirts

Clemson Head Coach Brad Brownell announced that freshman forward Jaron Blossomgame and sophomore guard Devin Coleman would both be awarded medical red-shirts after sitting out the 2012-13 season. Blossomgame, a native of Alpharetta, GA has almost fully recovered from a broken leg suffered during a workout in April at Chattahoochee High School.

Blossomgame is the most decorated of Clemson's five-man freshman class, earning four-star status from ESPNU, who rated him the nation's No. 94 prospect in the class of 2012. Blossomgame, a first-team AAAA all-state selection last season, averaged 25.8 points per game and was a standout on the 17 and under Georgia Stars AAU squad last summer.

Coleman, one of Clemson's best players at the end of the 2011-12 season, suffered a torn Achilles tendon during a conditioning drill last summer. He averaged 6.8 points per game over Clemson's final eight contests of his freshman season, which included a team-high 15-point performance in the ACC Tournament against Virginia Tech.

Both players have returned to practice and participate with the scout team as well.

Ajukwa, Rooks Sign National Letters-of-Intent with Clemson

Austin Ajukwa, a 6-foot-6 wing from Columbia, SC, and Patrick Rooks, a 6-foot-3 guard from Charlotte, NC, signed National Letters-of-Intent with Clemson on Nov. 14, the first day of the early signing period.

"We feel really good about the signing of Austin and Patrick," Brownell said. "We've tracked them the last couple of years, and both players can really score the basketball. Both are good students and come from great families, and we're excited to have them at Clemson."

Ajukwa, who plays for Cardinal Newman School, is a three-star prospect according to both

CLEMSON VS. MIAMI

ESPNU and Rivals.com. The athletic wing is rated the No. 2 senior prospect in the state of South Carolina by ESPNU, and the nation's No. 30 prospect at his position according to the same service. He has been an all-state selection the past two seasons by the High School Sports Report. Ajukwa was named the 2011-12 Statewide SCISA Player-of-the-Year by the same publication after averaging 21 points per game. He added 9.0 rebounds per game and 2.5 steals per game defensively. Ajukwa played with the South Carolina Elite on the AAU circuit.

"Austin is an athletic wing that can play a variety of positions," Brownell said. "He had a very good junior year, followed by an outstanding summer. He will be a very good player at Clemson because he can do a lot of different things on the court. He has an ability to create his own shot, and can use his athleticism to make difficult shots at times."

Rooks is listed as a three-star prospect by ESPNU, Rivals.com and Scout.com. He is rated the No. 7 prospect in the state of North Carolina by ESPNU, and No. 31 overall at his position. Rooks has led Charlotte Christian School to three consecutive conference crowns and a state runner-up finish in 2010-11 when he teamed with current Virginia Cavalier forward Anthony Gill. Rooks has been an all-conference selection each of the last two seasons. In 2011-12, he averaged 14 points per game and shot 37 percent from three-point range. Rooks was a member of Team Loaded, a Virginia-based AAU team that won the prestigious Las Vegas FAB 48 Tournament this past summer.

Rooks comes from an athletic family. His mother, Velda, was a track athlete at Appalachian State University and his father, Steven, played basketball at nearby Southern Wesleyan. His mother earned a master's degree from Clemson.

"Patrick is an outstanding shooter with a quick release and deep range," Brownell said. "He will help us stretch defenses, and will play with the scoring mentality that you need from a few guys on your team. He's a good pull-up jump shooter. He is a young man who has followed this program for several years and always wanted to wear orange. That is exciting to me."

McIntyre Named Clemson's 2013 ACC Tournament Legend

Former All-ACC point guard Terrell McIntyre was named to the 2013 class of ACC Tournament Legends on Thursday, Jan. 31. McIntyre starred for three NCAA Tournament teams at Clemson under Rick Barnes, playing from 1995-99. He was second-team All-ACC on two occasions and third-team as a sophomore. McIntyre is still No. 2 in Clemson history in career scoring with 1,839 points. He played 10 years overseas, primarily in Italy, where he was a two-time All-Euroleague selection and his jersey was retired by Montepaschi Siena.

The other ACC Legends for 2013 are Gene Corrigan (ACC commissioner), Gerry Ward (Boston College), Trajan Langdon (Duke), Tharon Mayes (Florida State), Mark Price (Georgia Tech), Gary Williams (Maryland), Mike Wittman (Miami), Mike O'Koren (North Carolina), Derrick Whittenburg (NC State), Travis Watson (Virginia), Ace Custis (Virginia Tech) and Carl Tacy (Wake Forest).
