LOCAL FLAVOR...

► With deep roots in the local D.C., Maryland and Virginia basketball scene, GW head coach Mike Lonergan has built a distinct DMV presence with seven players with local ties on the Colonials' 2013-14 roster:

Nick Griffin - native of Rockville, Md. and Washington Post All-Met selection at Col. Zadok Magruder

Paris Maragkos - attended Blue Ridge School in Saint George, Va.

Maurice Creek - native of Oxon Hill, Md., Washington Post All-Met honorable mention as sophomore at Oxon Hill in 2007

Isaiah Armwood - native of Baltimore, Md., and Washington Post All-Met Third Team at Montrose Christian School in Rockville, Md.

Joe McDonald - native of Lorton, Va., and two-time Washington Post All-Met First Team at the Landon School in Bethesda, Md.

Kevin Larsen - attended Montrose Christian School in Rockville, Md.

Kethan Savage - native of Fairfax, Va., and two-time Washington Post All-Met selection Episcopal Academy in Alexandria, Va.

...INTERNATIONAL APPEAL

► A recipe for success for the GW program during five NCAA Tournament appearances in the 1990's with stars like Yinka Dare, Alexander Kouli and Yegor Mescheriakov, and in the mid-2000's with Pops Mensah-Bonsu, the Colonials boast a roster with five international student-athletes for the second consecutive season:

Patricio Garino - Mar del Plata, Argentina

Nemanja Mikic - Novi Sad, Serbia

Kevin Larsen - Copenhagen, Denmark

Paris Maragkos - Amarusi, Greece

Miguel Cartagena - Aibonito, Puerto Rico

HEAD COACH
MIKE LONERGAN

@MikeLonergan

3rd year at GW
21st year overall
404-194 (.676)
Catholic '88

Mike Lonergan is in his third season as head coach for men's basketball at the George Washington University.

Coach Lonergan entered the 2013-14 season as one of the winningest coaches in all of NCAA Division I, ranking 28th among active coaches with a .673 winning percentage (400-194) and 44th on the active victories list. He has averaged 20 wins per season during his 20 years as a collegiate head coach, highlighted by his 400th career victory with a thrilling 81-80 overtime win over Dayton in the 2012-13 regular-season finale.

Coach Lonergan has reestablished a recruiting pipeline in the fertile DC metro area, as well as on the international scene, both of which are expected to pay big dividends for the Colonials during his tenure.

Born and raised in the DC metro area, Coach Lonergan returned to the nation's capital in May 2011 after a successful six seasons as head coach at the University of Vermont.

"The opportunity to return to my roots in the Washington, DC, area and build a program at an exceptional school like George Washington was too good to pass up. The combination of GW's strong academics, commitment to excellence and athletics tradition make it an ideal position. I am committed to supporting and developing our student-athletes and building a program that will make GW proud," said Coach Lonergan.

Among Coach Lonergan's 20 years experience as a college head coach are 15 winning seasons, 13 NCAA Tournament victories including a NCAA Division III National Championship, 13 postseason appearances, 12 regular season conference titles, 12 years of 20 or more victories, 10 NCAA Tournament qualifications and six conference tournament championships. He was named the 2001 Division III National Coach of the Year and America East Coach of the Year in 2007 and 2011. Deeply committed to academic success for student-athletes, Coach Lonergan has achieved a 100 percent graduation rate as head coach.

Coach Lonergan came to GW after six seasons as the head coach at Vermont, where he led one of the most successful mid-major programs in the nation. Under his leadership, Vermont achieved a 126-68 overall record and 69-27 conference record, both the best in the America East Conference. Vermont captured three America East regular season championships, in 2007, 2009 and 2011, and appeared in three America East Championship games, in 2006, 2007 and 2010, winning the title in 2010. He guided the Catamounts to the 2010 NCAA Tournament and twice to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT), in 2007 and 2011. At Vermont, Coach Lonergan also served as Director of the Vermont Basketball Camp, holding two sold out sessions each summer.

Prior to his service at Vermont, Coach Lonergan served from 2004-05 as assistant coach at the University of Maryland under head men's basketball coach Gary Williams. At Maryland, he was involved in every aspect of a top Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) program including recruiting, scouting, practice and game preparation, off season workouts and community service events. He helped lead the team to a season sweep of top ranked Duke and a semifinal appearance in the 2005 NIT.

From 1992-2004, Coach Lonergan served as head coach for The Catholic University of America's men's basketball program and associate athletic director. At Catholic, Lonergan was the winningest coach in the program's 100-year history, with an overall record of 251-88. He led the team to nine of the 13 NCAA Tournament appearances in the history of the program, including the first since 1964. Under his leadership, Catholic won the Division III national title in 2001 and Coach Lonergan was named the 2001 Division III consensus National Coach of the Year.

A native of Bowie, MD, Coach Lonergan is a 1984 graduate of Archbishop Carroll High School in Washington, DC, where he was class salutatorian. He is a 1988 graduate of Catholic University, where he was a starting point guard and captain of the men's basketball team. He also holds a Master of Science degree from American International College. Coach Lonergan and his wife Maggie have five children: Jack, Margaret, Michael Jr., Robert (Moe) and Regina.

GW Hoops to Honor Wizard of Westwood in Wooden Legacy

► GW men's basketball will participate in the all-new Wooden Legacy during the 2013 Thanksgiving holiday in Orange County, California. GW will be one of eight teams to take part in the newly-named event that combines the former John R. Wooden Classic and the Anaheim Classic - the eight-team, three-day, 12-game bracketed event that has been staged the past six years in Anaheim.

During a Nov. 13 pre-tournament media teleconference, Coach Mike Lonergan elaborated on his opportunity to meet Coach Wooden in 1997:

"Yeah, I'm good friends with Morgan Wootten, who's a hall-of-fame coach at DeMatha [Catholic] High School, and when I was a coach at Catholic University, my alma mater, we took our team out to California and played in the Whittier Classic, a Division III tournament, and we were allowed to practice at Pauley Pavilion, and thanks to Steve Lavin and Coach Morgan Wootten [they] hooked it up where John Wooden came and spoke to our team. My dad made that trip and got to meet John Wooden and I have a picture in my office. I keep his Pyramid of Success in my wallet, and it was like meeting the Pope. It's one of the highlights of my coaching career to be honest with you. To participate in the tournament, the Wooden Legacy named after him, it's really special for me."

► With approximately 5,000 combined alumni in Los Angeles and Orange County, 2,000 in nearby San Diego and another 4,000 up the coast in the Bay Area, Orange County will be covered in Buff and Blue as the Colonials compete against arguably one of the toughest multi-team event fields in college basketball next season.

► Arizona State, Cal State Fullerton, College of Charleston, Creighton, Marquette, Miami (Fla.) and San Diego State will comprise the new Wooden Legacy. Six of those teams reached the postseason and won at least 22 games in 2012-13, with Creighton, Marquette, Miami and San Diego State all advancing to the third round of the 2013 NCAA Tournament.

► The event's first two rounds will be held at Fullerton's Titan Gym on Thursday, Nov. 28 and Friday, Nov. 29, while the final round will be held at Anaheim's Honda Center on Sunday, Dec. 1. All of the event's 12 contests will be televised on the ESPN networks.

GW Starts Fast Through Four Games

► GW has been running on all cylinders through the 4-0 start to its 100th season. Below are GW's conference and national team statistical rankings that stand out (as of 11/25):

OFFENSE

- 89.5 ppg - 1st in A-10, 20th in NCAA Division I
- +24.8 scoring margin - 1st in A-10, 10th in NCAA Division I
- 53.3% FG - 1st in A-10, 9th in NCAA Division I
- 46.4% 3FG - 1st in A-10, 9th in NCAA Division I
- 18.0 apg - 1st in A-10, 17th in NCAA Division I

DEFENSE

- 38.0% FG - 2nd in A-10, 41st in NCAA Division I
- 6.3 bpg - 1st in A-10, 34th in NCAA Division I
- +13 rebound margin - 1st in A-10, 12th in NCAA Division I

Fast Start Rewarded With AP Vote >>

► Off to a 4-0 start for the first time in four years, GW men's basketball remained steady with a vote in the Nov. 25 Associated Press Top 25 poll, the second consecutive week with a poll vote.

► GW first checked in at No. 25 on one voter's ballot on Nov. 18, marking the first time the program received votes in the national rankings since concluding the 2006-07 season with three votes in the final AP poll. The Colonials closed the 2006-07 season by capturing their second Atlantic 10 Championship title in three years to earn a third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament.

► That was also the last time both the GW men's and women's programs appeared together in the same poll, with the Colonials' women's team finishing the 2006-07 season at No. 14 after reaching the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16. GW women's basketball received 16 votes in the Nov. 18 AP Top 25 after knocking off then-No. 10/11 California, 75-72, on Nov. 15.

Welcome to the 'Zeek & Creek Show'

► Derived from his fondness of the Bernie & Ernie Show of Tennessee's 1970s duo of Bernard King and Ernie Grunfeld, GW Head Coach Mike Lonergan has dubbed his two local DMV upperclassmen Isaiah Armwood (whose nickname is 'Zeek') and Maurice Creek as the 'Zeek & Creek Show.'

► Creek leads the Atlantic 10's top scoring offense (89.5 ppg) at 17.3 points per game, including an A-10 best 15 three pointers at a league second-best 62.5 percent (15-24), just behind freshman teammate Nick Griffin's 66.7 percent (4-6). Armwood adds 15.5 points per game, ranks tied for sixth in the A-10 at 8.5 rebounds per game and leads the league with 2.8 blocks per game.

► Indiana graduate and transfer Maurice Creek, who is in his final season of eligibility, was among the highest scoring freshmen in the country during his debut season at IU in 2009-10, averaging 16.4 points through 12 games, including 31 against No. 4 Kentucky in December 2009, before being limited to 42 games over the next three seasons due to injury.

► Sophomores Kethan Savage and Kevin Larsen are off to surging starts to their second seasons of college hoops. The pair comprise half of GW's quartet of double-digit scorers with Savage averaging 12.0 points on an A-10 best 78 percent (21-27) shooting and Larsen providing 12.8 points, tied for fourth in the A-10 at 61.3 percent shooting (19-31) and 6.3 rebounds over the opening four games.

► Savage was named the GWsports.com Colonial of the Week on Nov. 11 following his impressive 18-point, 6-rebound, 5-assist, 5-steal effort in the season-opening victory over Radford. He followed that performance by narrowly missing his first collegiate double-double with 18 points and career-high nine rebounds and three blocks against Maine.

► Larsen has scored in double figures in all four games and recorded his first collegiate double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds at Manhattan.

#MonumentalHomeCourtAdvantage - GW Basketball to Play on One of College Basketball's Unique New Courts in 2013-14

► GW is set to play its home games at the Charles E. Smith Center this season on one of the nation's most unique new courts which features images of The White House flanked by the United States Capitol and the Washington Monument. GW is located four blocks west of the White House, seven blocks from the National Mall, home of the Washington Monument, and sends countless students and graduates to the work in the halls of the U.S. Capitol.

GW Men's Basketball Set for Tough, TV-Heavy Slate in 2013-14 >>

► GW will play at least 14 games against teams that competed in the postseason in 2012-13, as well as MAAC finalist Manhattan and power conference foes Rutgers and Georgia.

NCAA Tournament participants: Miami (Fla.), Kansas State, VCU (twice), La Salle (twice) and Saint Louis. Potential opponents Marquette, Creighton, San Diego State.

NIT participants: Maryland, Massachusetts, Saint Joseph's. Potential opponent: Arizona State.

College Basketball Invitational participants: George Mason (twice), Richmond. Potential opponent: College of Charleston.

CollegInsider.com Tournament participant: Boston University.

► Along with half of its Atlantic 10 games set for national television on NBCSN or CBSSN thanks to the league's new multimedia rights agreement, as well as the 2013 Wooden Legacy on the ESPN Networks, GW men's basketball now has a record 22 broadcasts slated for the 2013-14 campaign.

Eight games are set to air on Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic (CSN), with additional games carried on MASN, NESN, Fox Sports Midwest, CSS, CSN Philadelphia and SNY.

GW Men's Basketball's 100th Season in 2013-14

The 2013-14 campaign will mark the 100th season in GW men's hoops history.

► The program celebrated its 100th Anniversary during the 2006-07 season, 100 years after the program began in 1906-07. However, the program experienced stoppages for various reasons from 1909-12, 1918-20 and 1943-45, making the 2013-14 campaign the 100th season in its history.

► GW Athletics recognized one player who impacted the program per day in the 100 days lead-up to the season (GWsports.com/MBB100), and will recognize each of its 16 championship or postseason teams at its 16 home games throughout the banner 100th season:

- 1943 Southern Conference Tournament Champions
- 1954 NCAA Tournament, Southern Conference Regular Season & Tournament Champions
- 1956 Southern Conference Co-Regular Season Champions
- 1961 NCAA Tournament & Southern Conference Tournament Champions
- 1991 Postseason NIT
- 1993 NCAA Tournament 'Sweet 16'
- 1994 NCAA Tournament
- 1995 Postseason NIT
- 1996 NCAA Tournament & Atlantic 10 West Division Co-Champions
- 1997 Postseason NIT
- 1998 NCAA Tournament & Atlantic 10 West Division Co-Champions
- 1999 NCAA Tournament & Atlantic 10 West Division Champions
- 2004 Postseason NIT
- 2005 NCAA Tournament, Atlantic 10 West Division & Tournament Champions
- 2006 NCAA Tournament & Atlantic 10 Regular Season Champions
- 2007 NCAA Tournament & Atlantic 10 Tournament Champions

GW Men's Basketball Enjoys 'A Good Year' in 2012-13

The 2012-13 campaign - the 99th season in program history - was a good one for George Washington men's basketball, including a summer trip to Italy, a memorable Colonials Invasion at its former home at Fort Myer, and a near upset of 6th-seeded UMass in front of 700 alumni at Brooklyn's Barclays Center. While a 13-17 record won't qualify as great, there's plenty of good that can be extracted from the 3.5-game improvement from 2011-12:

► Four of the Colonials' top five scorers were in their first season with the program, including three in their first season of collegiate basketball.

► GW faced 15 teams (a total of 17 times) that would reach postseason play, including playing within a possession of three NCAA Tournament teams (Kansas State, Temple, Butler).

► The Colonials played 16 contests decided by single-digits last season, going 6-10 with close wins against postseason participants James Madison and Massachusetts and narrow losses to the likes of Kansas State, Rutgers, Temple, La Salle, Butler, Saint Louis and the Minutemen.

► GW started four freshmen for more than half the season and was one of only two teams in the nation, along with Army, to start at least four rookies.

#THUNDERJAMS RAIN DOWN IN #DUNKCAPITAL

Borrowed from ninth-year Voice of the Colonials Byron Kerr's dunk calls, #THUNDERJAMS should come down in bunches for this year's Colonials as the team returns 51 of its 56 dunks from 2012-13. GW had a season-best nine #THUNDERJAMS in the Nov. 19 rout of Delaware State.

Here are this year's #THUNDERJAM totals, with 2012-13 totals in parentheses:

- ▶ Isaiah Armwood - 5 (27; Game-winning tip dunk in overtime against Dayton was #5 on ESPN SportsCenter's Top 10 plays)
 - ▶ Kevin Larsen - 5 (7)
 - ▶ Patricio Garino - 3 (13)
 - ▶ Kethan Savage - 1 (2)
 - ▶ John Kopriva - 0 (1)
 - ▶ Nemanja Mikic - 0 (1)

2013-14 #THUNDERJAM TOTAL TO DATE = 14

POSTERIZED: The return of George Washington's Kethan Savage

Raphielle Johnson | Nov 3, 2013, 6:07 PM EST

Leave a comment

The college basketball season has yet to officially get underway, with regular season play beginning on Friday, and yet George Washington guard Kethan Savage already has two #POSTERIZED appearances to his credit. In mid-October the victim was a teammate, with the 6-foot-3 Savage lifting off during a drill.

In the above video, Savage dunked on a Bowie State player in the Colonials' '85-'88 exhibition victory on Saturday. Savage, who accounted for nine points, seven assists and three steals, took advantage of a clear lane to the basket and a weak-side defender who was a little late in his rotation. The end result: a three-point play for Savage.

#BlocknessMonster to Lead Colonials' Large Returning Cast >>

► Isaiah Armwood, dubbed the 'Blockness Monster' by GW's Colonial Army student fan group, was voted upon by the league's head coaches and select media as a 2013-14 Preseason Second Team All-Atlantic 10 and Preseason All-Defensive Team selection.

► Armwood led the team in scoring (11.9 ppg), rebounding (8.8 rpg) and blocks (2.3 bpg) in his debut season at GW in 2012-13. He finished the season among the Atlantic 10 leaders in scoring (26th), rebounding (2nd), field goal percentage (50.6%, 14th), blocked shots (2nd), offensive rebounds (2.5, 9th) and defensive rebounds (6.2, 2nd).

► Armwood, who enters his final season of eligibility in 2013-14, had one of the best individual seasons for a GW player since Yinka Dare in the mid-1990's, recording the highest blocks (68) and rebounds (263) totals since Dare's career from 1992-94, while adding a team-high 11.9 points per game on 50.6 percent shooting.

Garino Garner's Preseason Atlantic 10 Honor >>

► Patricio Garino joined teammate Isaiah Armwood in earning Preseason Atlantic 10 All-Defensive Team accolades from the league's head coaches and select media.

► Garino led the team and ranked fourth in the Atlantic 10 (second in A-10 only games at 2.4 spg) with a GW freshman record 68 steals (2.3 spg) in 2012-13. His 68 thefts bested the previous rookie mark set by Carl Elliott in 2003-04.

► The 6-foot-6 combo guard-forward did a little bit of everything for the Colonials as a freshman - he was GW's third-leading scorer at 8.8 points per game, and was second on the team in assists (62) and three-pointers (16), fourth in blocks (13) and fifth in rebounding (101).

 Love Patricio Garino's IQ, feel, + overall game. Could develop into an All-Atlantic 10 caliber player 4 GW if he develops a perimeter shot.

Coach Lonergan Seeks More From McDonald & Mo in Backcourt >>

► GW will look to get more offensive production from sophomore point guard Joe McDonald - the Colonials went 6-0 when he scored 11-or-more points last season. The 6-foot-1 guard averaged 7.5 points, 3.7 rebounds and 3.2 assists as a rookie in 2012-13.

► McDonald excelled in conference play in 2012-13, finishing 11th in the league in assists (3.6 apg) and 12th in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.3) over 16 league games, highlighted by a 16-point, 10-assist double-double while matching up against Chaz Williams in a 79-76 victory at UMass in January.

<< Building Champions in Classroom, Competition & Community

- ▶ Nemanja Mikic, who hails from Novi Sad, Serbia and enters his final season of eligibility with 149 three-pointers in 92 career games at GW, completed his undergraduate studies in just three years and graduated with a bachelor's degree in finance from GW in May 2013. He was named to the CoSIDA/Capital One Academic All-District 2 First Team in January, and became the third GW men's basketball player to earn multiple Atlantic 10 Academic All-Conference Team honors with his repeat selection this past March. He has been named to the A-10 Commissioner's Honor Roll with a grade-point average of at least 3.5 in five of his six semesters at GW, as well as all six semesters on the GW Athletics Academic Dean's List with a 3.0+ GPA.
- ▶ In July, Mikic was named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Honors Court, which recognizes collegiate basketball student-athletes who excelled in academics, for the second consecutive year. Mikic was among more than 700 recipients of the 2012-13 award across all three divisions of the NCAA, as well as the NAIA. He was one of 175 Division I student-athletes on the Honors Court, including one of five from the Atlantic 10 Conference.

- ▶ When not serving as a team captain on the GW men's basketball team, or earning the Outstanding Academic Achievement Award for being in the top two percent of GPA in his pre-med/chemistry curriculum, John Kopriva serves as a campus and community leader at the George Washington University.
- ▶ Kopriva's list of community service efforts include Team Logistics Coordinator managing other student volunteers for the Clinton Global Initiative University (CGI U) hosted at GW in 2012; the university's Freshman Day of Service and MLK Day of Service; volunteering at the St. Mary's Court Elderly Home near the GW campus; and basketball clinics for USA Basketball's Hoops for Troops, and U.S. military installations NSA Naples and Camp Darby as part of GW Basketball's Summer 2012 tour of Italy.
- ▶ His most notable service initiative came in spring 2013 with Lemonade Day DC, an experiential learning program that teaches youth how to start, own and operate their own business - a lemonade stand. John spearheaded more than 30 GW student-athletes' participation with Lemonade Day - first by coordinating multiple visits to Northwest D.C.'s Paul Charter School to teach sixth- and seventh-graders a 14-step entrepreneurial business plan. On Lemonade Day DC on April 14, those middle school students mentored by John and other student-athletes put the skills learned over a month of instruction into action by launching their own businesses at lemonade stands on the GW campus and throughout the district.

@GW_MBB Inks Bryant, Jorgensen, Swan to Early NLI's for 2014-15 on Nov. 15

DARIAN BRYANT (G, 6-3, 200 lbs.) - Washington, D.C./St. John's College H.S./Team Takeover

Bryant earned Second Team All-Washington Catholic Athletic Conference (WCAC) honors as a junior in 2012-13, averaging 11.2 points on 47 percent shooting as he helped the Cadets reach the WCAC Championship game. It was Bryant's half-court, buzzer-beating game winner that helped St. John's edge DeMatha Catholic, 57-55, in the WCAC quarterfinals en route to the title game.

PAUL JORGENSEN (G, 6-2, 180 lbs.) - Ramsey, N.J./Don Bosco Prep/New Heights NYC

Nicknamed the 'Prince Harry of Harlem' for his performance during the Tri-State Classic's High School Showcase this past summer, Jorgensen will bring style and substance to the Colonials' backcourt. The 6-foot-2 guard averaged 17.6 points, seven rebounds, four assists and three steals for Don Bosco Prep as a junior in 2012-13. He posted 10 games of 20-or-more points for the Ironmen in 2012-13, including a season high of 31, and has totaled 748 points in three years on Don Bosco's varsity. Jorgensen shined this summer, helping his New Heights NYC AAU team to a title at the adidas Super 64 championship in Las Vegas and earning MVP honors of the Books and Ball Classic in New York in October. He is currently rated the 12th-best prospect in New Jersey, 49th in the Class of 2014 Point Guard rankings, and 59th in the East by ESPN.

ANTHONY SWAN (G/F, 6-7, 186 lbs.) - Los Angeles, Calif./Virginia Episcopal School/Boo Williams

Swan comes to GW as a two-time Virginia Independent Schools Athletic Association (VISAA) All-State selection at Virginia Episcopal School (VES) in Lynchburg, Va.. The versatile 6-foot-7 wing averaged 17 points, six rebounds, three assists and two blocks to earn First Team All-State honors and help VES to a 21-4 overall record and an appearance in the VISAA Division II state title game as a junior in 2012-13 (#22 in highlights here and here). He was also a Second Team All-State pick as a sophomore as the Bishops' reached the VISAA D-II title game in 2011-12. Swan is currently rated the 45th-best prospect in the East and 47th in the Class of 2014 Small Forward rankings by ESPN.

▶ Mike Brey '82, a former student-athlete who competed in men's basketball, will be inducted for the success he achieved beyond GW. One of the most successful college basketball coaches in the country over the past two decades, Brey finished his collegiate playing career as a Colonial in 1982. He led GW with 116 assists in 24 games en route to team MVP honors during the 1981-82 campaign before earning his bachelor's degree in physical education. His coaching career over three decades included time spent under Hall of Fame mentors like Morgan Wootten and Mike Krzyzewski before he became a decorated head coach himself. The Big East Coach of the Year in 2007, 2008 and 2011, a year in which he led Notre Dame to 27 victories and was chosen National Coach of the Year by the AP, Sports Illustrated and CBSSports.com, Brey has 13 20-win seasons to his credit and 11 appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Brey will be honored in a special ceremony on January 14 at the Charles E. Smith Center when GW men's basketball hosts VCU.

▶ Kwame Evans '96 is one of the best players in GW men's basketball history. Evans helped the Colonials to 78 victories and four trips to the postseason during his career, including NCAA Tournament appearances in 1993, 1994 and 1996. Evans currently ranks fifth on GW's all-time scoring list.

- ▶ Recorded game-high six assists and added five rebounds and two steals in rout of Delaware State (11/19/13).
- ▶ Dished out game-high seven assists, against no turnovers, and added five points in rout of Maine (11/12/13).
- ▶ Cartagena signed an NLI after two seasons at Montverde Academy in Montverde, Fla., the same scholastic program that produced GW sophomore guard Patricio Garino.
- ▶ He helped the Eagles to a combined 48-6 record his final two seasons and appearances in the championship game of both the 2012 and 2013 ESPN National High School Invitational (NHSI).
- ▶ As a senior in 2012-13, Cartagena helped Montverde win the prestigious NHSI, City of Palms Classic and Montverde Academy Invitational Tournament (MAIT) titles and achieve a No. 1 final national ranking in all three major polls (ESPN, USA Today, Prep Nation) with a 25-2 record.
- ▶ Cartagena was named to the City of Palms Classic All-Tournament Team as a junior in 2011 and the MAIT All-Tourney Team as a senior in 2012 along with some of the nation's highest-rated recruits of the past two seasons.
- ▶ Rated No. 164 in the nation in ESPN's shooting guard rankings.
- ▶ Cartagena represented Puerto Rico in the 2011 FIBA Americas U-16 Championship, where he led the event in scoring at 22.4 points over five games.
- ▶ "Miguel is a very good shooter who will give us another ball handler next season," said Coach Lonergan. "His experience playing FIBA and for the top high school program in the nation will help him make the adjustment to the high level of play in the Atlantic 10."

- ▶ Made all four 3-point attempts en route to 14 points in 21 minutes off bench in rout of Delaware State (11/19/13).
- ▶ Griffin led Col. Zadok Magruder High School in Rockville, Md., to a 24-3 overall record and a third straight Maryland 4A state final four appearance as a senior in 2013.
- ▶ He averaged a team-best 17.8 points and made 85 three pointers, the fifth-highest total in the Metro D.C. area, to earn Third Team All-Met honors from The Washington Post and a McDonald's All-America nomination.
- ▶ Griffin, who signed an NLI with GW in November 2012, was also an honorable mention All-Met selection as a junior at Magruder in 2012. He averaged 17 points and made 91 triples at a rate of 46 percent to help the Colonels to a 26-1 mark and a Maryland 4A state championship. He made 10 of his 91 three-pointers en route to a 40-point performance in a victory over Wootton in February 2012.
- ▶ Rated the 76th-best shooting-guard prospect in the nation and third in the state of Maryland by ESPN upon completing his scholastic career in 2013.
- ▶ "We are excited about adding one of the best guards in the D.C. Metro area to our roster next year," said Coach Lonergan. "Nick's outside shooting prowess will allow him to make an immediate impact on our program next season. He comes from a very successful high school and AAU program and is a winner on and off the court."

- ▶ Scored first collegiate points via two free throws, added rebound, block and assist in seven minutes in victory over Delaware State (11/19/13).
- ▶ Comes to GW after two seasons at Northfield Mount Hermon School in Mount Hermon, Mass., a prep program that had more than two dozen players competing in NCAA Division I in 2012-13.
- ▶ In 2012-13, White helped the Hoggerters to a 29-5 overall record and the 2013 National Prep Championship while being nominated for McDonald's All-America honors.
- ▶ In his first season at NMH in 2011-12, the Hoggerters captured the 2012 New England Preparatory School Athletic Council (NEPSAC) Class AAA crown and went 29-6 overall.
- ▶ Also played at Eastside Catholic High School in Sammamish, Wash., and Bronxville High School in Bronxville, N.Y., during his scholastic career, and also suited up for England's U-18 National Team during its run to the 2010 Haris Memorial Tournament title. He was named a Seattle Times Honorable Mention All-Metro Conference performer at Eastside Catholic in 2011.
- ▶ "Skylar gives us another good three-point shooter and provides depth at the forward position," said Coach Lonergan.
