[11] WICHITA STATE (26-8, 16-2 MVC) vs. [3] MIAMI (26-7, 13-5 ACC)

Saturday, March 19, 2016 • 12:10 p.m. ET / 11:10 a.m. CT • Providence, R.I. • Dunkin' Donuts Center NCAA South Regional • Round of 32 • Winner to Regional Semifinals in Louisville, Ky. (Thursday, March 24)

OPENING TIPS

- Scene Setter // A pair of double-digit wins has 11th-seeded Wichita State into the Round of 32 for a fourth-consecutive year. The Shockers (26-8) will meet third-seeded Miami (26-7 and ranked 10th in the latest AP Poll) on Saturday afternoon in an 11:10 a.m. CT (12:10 p.m. ET) tip on CBS. The winner advances to next Thursday's South Regional Semifinal in Louisville.
- ▶ Back for More // Wichita State is making its fifth-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance and its 13th overall. Head coach Gregg Marshall is dancing for the 12th time (5 at WSU, 7 at Winthrop) and is one of just 11 coaches in history to lead two different schools to 5+ NCAA bids. The Shockers have won at least one game in four-consecutive trips and are 9-3 over that span.
- Thursday // In Thursday's First Round victory over [6] Arizona, WSU held a Wildcat team averaging 81 points per game to just 55 and held a +13advantage in turnovers (the ninth time this season that they've finished with a double-digit margin). Fred VanVleet scored 16 points and forced five steals, and Ron Baker tallied 13 points and six assists.
- First Fortune // In Tuesday's 70-50 play-in win, WSU outscored fellow 11seed Vanderbilt 20-2 over the final 8:38 to turn a tight game into a rout. A shared triple-double from All-American guards Ron Baker (14 pts, 9 reb, 3 assists) and Fred VanVleet (14 pts, 3 reb, 7 assists w/ 1 turnover) lifted the Shockers, who also received a big bench performance from Anton Grady (11 pts, 7 reb).
- ▶ On Points // The 2015 Sweet 16 team was the first WSU squad in 65 years to allow less than 60.0 points-per-game (57.4, 8th nationally). Officiating rule changes have increased scoring nationwide this year, but the Shockers are on track to finish under 60 once again. In fact, their 58.9 points allowed leads the nation.
- ► Stealing the Record // Already the Shockers' all-time assists leader, Fred VanVleet needs one more steal to tie Jason Perez's career record (222).
- ► Winningest Shocker // VanVleet tied former teammate Tekele Cotton's school and MVC record with his 120th career victory on Thursday. A win over Miami would give him the record outright.
- ► Tripling Up on Trophies // WSU won its third-consecutive Missouri Valley Conference regular season championship and fourth in the last five years, finishing 4.0 games ahead of second-place Illinois State and Evansville.
- About the Shockers // Led by All-American guards Ron Baker (14.2 points) and Fred VanVleet (12.1 points, 5.7 assists), the Shockers returned three starters and nine lettermen from last year's 30-5 team that earned a No. 7 seed in the NCAA Tournament and defeated Indiana and Kansas to reach the Sweet 16. Helped by three-straight 30-win seasons, WSU earned its first preseason top-10 ranking since the 1981-82 season and was an overwhelming favorite in the MVC preseason poll... A rash of November injuries slowed their momentum, with four of the top six players missing a combined 24 games in the first two months, including VanVleet, who battled a hamstring strain through much of the non-conference.... After starting 5-5, the Shockers reeled off 12-straight wins on their way to the Valley title.
- Drive for 25 // The Shockers' win in Dayton set a new Missouri Valley Conference record. WSU has now reached 25-wins in seven-consecutive seasons, besting Cincinnati's half-century record of six-straight 25-win seasons from 1957-63.
- Miami // This is the second meeting all-time against Miami. The Hurricane defeated the Shockers 81-59 in a holiday tournament in West Palm Beach during the 1988-89 campaign... Miami coach Jim Larranaga went 2-1 against WSU as head coach at George Mason. The biggest of the three games was GMU's 63-55 2016 Sweet 16 victory on its way to the Final 4.

2015-16 WICHITA STATE SHOCKERS

- WSU is in the midst of its school-record fifth-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. Prior to 2012, the Shockers had managed back-to-back appearances on just two other occasions (1964 & 65, 1987 & 88).
- ► This is the 13th overall NCAA Tournament trip for the Shockers, who are 17-13 all-time with six Regional Semifinal appearances (1964, 1965, 1981, 2006, 2013, 2015), four Regional Finals (1964, 1965, 1981, 2013) and two Final Fours (1965, 2013).
- Prior to its current run, the Shockers had only even appeared in back-to-back NCAA tourneys on two other occasions (1964/65 and 1987/88).
- ► This is the 26th overall postseason bid for WSU (13 NCAAs, 12 NITs, 1 CBI), which won the 2011 NIT to kick off its current run of postseason success.
- ► WSU is prepping for its 31st NCAA Tournament contest, with 14 of those having come in the past five years.
- ► Thursday's victory over Arizona was WSU's ninth NCAA Tournament win in four years.

ALL THE COOL KIDS ARE DOING IT

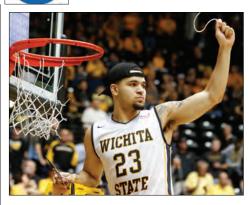

Being sent to the First Four is hardly a death sentence. WSU's became the latest First Four to team to win a Round of 64 game. The at-large teams that advance from Dayton are now 6-5 (pending Michigan's Friday result) against their next foe, since the format took hold in 2011.

WICHITA STATE

- WSU is a No. 11 seed for the third time in its history. The previous two go-arounds didn't go so well. Despite boasting the NCAA's leading scorer and rebounder in Xavier McDaniel, the 1985 Shockers lost to No. 6 Georgia in Atlanta, 67-59. Two years later they fell to No. 6 St. John's in Chicago.
- WSU is a double-digit seed for the first time under Gregg Marshall after previously being a 1, 5, 7 and 9 seed. Being an 11-seed was cause for celebration in 2007 when Marshall led Winthrop to that line. It remains the highest-ever seed for a Big South school, and Winthrop took full advantage with a Round of 64 win over 6th-seeded Notre Dame.

FANCY MEETING YOU HERE:

- WSU is 1-2 against Jim Larranaga, with all three previous meetings taking place in the same calendar year under former coach Mark Turgeon while Larranaga was head coach at George Mason... WSU's 2006 team - which would go on to win the MVC regular season title in year that included a record four NCAA bids for the league - lost a home Bracket Busters matchup to the Patriots in late February. The win helped GMU squeak into the NCAA Tournament field as an 11 seed. Seventh-seeded WSU dispatched Seton Hall and Tenessee to reach the Sweet 16, where it encountered Larranaga for a second time. The Shockers struggled from the field in a 63-55 loss... WSU gained revenge the following November in a Bracket Buster return game. On the day GMU hung its Final Four banner, WSU picked up a big road win at the Patriot Center, 72-66.
- Miami point guard, Angel Rodriguez is a familiar face to basketball fans in the Sunflower State. Rodriguez was an All-Big 12 performer at Kansas State from 2011-13 before transferring to Miami.

THE BEST AROUND:

- Saturday's session in Providence features a double-header with two of the NCAA's most successful programs of late: At .827, Wichita State has the nation's highest winning percentage over the last six seasons (177-37). Duke (.809) ranks 4th.
- ► HIGHEST WINNING PERCENTAGES (Since 2010-11)

MARSHALL IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT:

- ► Marshall's five-straight trips are a personal best. He guided Winthrop to four-in-a-row to kick off his head coaching career (1998-02) and finished out his time there with another run of three (2005-07).
- ➤ This is Marshall's 12th NCAA bid overall. He's 10-11 after Thursday's win with one Final Four in 2013 and two Sweet 16s (2013, 15).
- Marshall has now appeared in postseason play in 15 of his 18 seasons as a head coach (16-13 postseason record after the win over Arizona), with a pair of NIT bids (2010, 11) and one CBI invite (2009) early in his WSU tenure. Over that three-year stretch, the Shockers went 6-2 and won the 2011 NIT Championship.

MARSHALL GAME-BY-GAME IN NCAA'S

► (As an Assistant) Marshall reached the NCAA Tournament once in 1994 as an assistant at College of Charleston under John Kresse. That Cougar team became the first-ever NAIA-to-NCAA Division I transitional to earn an NCAA Tournament at-large bid in its first year of postseason eligibility.

▶ (At Winthrop, 1998-2007) Marshall guided Winthrop to its first-ever NCAA appearance in 1999 and its first-ever win in 2007. The latter team earned the highest seed in Big South Conference history (11). In seven trips, Marshall's teams went 1-7.

(At Wichita State, 2007-Pr.) Marshall is 8-4 in five tournaments, with four of those wins coming during the Shockers' 2013 run to the Final Four. Marshall is one of only three coaches in school history with multiple NCAA trips, joining Gene Smithson (1981, 85) and Eddie Fogler (1987, 88)... The Shockers' first three NCAA losses under Marshall came by a combined nine points. In two of them, WSU had a chance at the buzzer to either win or force overtime.

FIRST FOUR POSTGAME OUOTES

FRED VANVLEET: It just speaks volumes to our depth. We worked so hard on the young guys. And for them to step up in those moments is huge for our team. This time of year, that's what you need. I mean, teams are too good to just have one or two guys carry the show all night. So it's going to take a total team effort, and those two guys made a couple of big shots. Conner made two. Markis made one and Zach Brown made one also after struggling in the first half. So huge, huge shots and that gave us some momentum and we were able to get stops and get some rhythm going.

RON BAKER: Happy for those guys. They put a lot of time into their craft. And they were able to knock down some shots, and Fred did a good job creating for his teammates like he always does. And ultimately we want to feed off those shots that went in tonight and continue to shoot the ball a little bit better. We've been struggling as of late and I think it's a good confidence builder to move on to this next game.

RON BAKER: Rauno has been putting a lot of work in practice. He's been giving us good practice minutes. We really like his aggressiveness at the rim. He does a good job at rim protecting. And he had some really big plays at the rim tonight, especially when their point guard drove in their late and he was straight up and down made a good contest on the ball. Those are plays that our five men are starting to have to make.

FRED VANVLEET: Tough team. Tough team. Arizona is one of the top programs in the country for a long time now. They're a really good team. We were able to catch some of their games this year. They're always late with the West Coast times, but got a huge front line and a couple of young and really talented guards. So we're already shifting our minds towards that with a quick turnaround, catch the first flight out of here tonight and head to Rhode Island, get some rest and try to game plan for Arizona tomorrow.

RON BAKER: I think the first thing that comes to mind is just the excitement. We're trying to have fun with each and every game in this tournament. And Arizona happens to be the next opponent. Fred and I had the opportunity to meet Tarczewski this summer in Colorado, while the guy he's a good kid, high character guy. Coach Miller does a good job with his program each and every year, and we're just excited to match up with them and I know Coach is going to have us ready with film and the process tomorrow, just preparing. And so we're excited.

GREGG MARSHALL: Our guys just scratch and claw and fight and really battle. I learned from one of my mentors, John Kresse at the College of Charleston that you always have to have three guys that can defend the post, and tonight we went with a fourth guy in the first half. Anton Grady substituted in quickly for Shaq Morris, did a great job, especially on the offensive end, and then Rauno Nurger played very well in the first half and he got a couple of fouls and we were able to put Bush Wamukota, our fourth defensive post player in. Damian Jones is a very talented player, seen him -- first round draft pick, by some publications as a projection. But our guys just hung in there, and they fought every possession. And ultimately I think just the wave of fresh players and 6'8", 6'9" guys going at them was very effective.

FIRST ROUND LOOK BACK

March 17, 2016 | Prividence, R.I. | [11] Wichita State 65, [6] Arizona 55

HEADLINERS:

- Wichita State overpowered sixth-seeded Arizona (ranked 17th in the AP Poll) for a 65-55 win in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.
- The win marked another milestone achievement for Fred VanVleet, who moved into a tie with former Shocker Tekele Cotton for the most wins (120) in school and Missouri Valley Conference history. He finished with a game-high 16 points to go with five steals and four rebounds. He is one steal shy of tying the school record for career steals.
- ► Ron Baker added 13 points, six assists and five rebounds on 6-of-13 shooting.
- ► Key contributions off the bench once again came from Markis McDuffie and Conner Frankamp who each added 10 points. McDuffie also added four boards and two steals, while Frankamp claimed two blocked shots.
- Kadeem Allen led the Wildcats with 11 points, while Gabe York and Alonzo Trier chipped in 10 apiece. Ryan Anderson and Kaleb Tarczewski grabbed 11 and 10 rebounds, respectively.

KEY STRETCHES:

- The Shocker defense asserted itself early on, as WSU got out to a 12-7 lead near the halfway mark of the first half. During a 6-0 run, Arizona went 0-of-8 from the field and scoreless for almost six minutes.
- A Frankamp three-pointer and an offensive rebound and putback from Shaguille Morris gave Wichita State a 17-9 lead with less than eight minutes left in the half. Arizona could not get anything going offensively for the first 20 minutes. The Wildcats converted on just 3-of-15 attempts to start the game and turned the ball over five times.
- WSU led by 12 at the half and held Arizona to a season-low 19 first half points on just six made field goals to go with 10 turnovers. Arizona's previous low for points in a first half was 25 in a win vs. Cal.

- The Wildcats rallied to within nine points in the closing minutes but could get no closer.

FIRST ROUND POSTGAME OUOTES

GREGG MARSHALL: Our defense carried the way. And to beat a team like Arizona the way we did is just a testament to these young men and their toughness, their resolve, their determination, and their ability to get in a defensive stance each and every possession, and make the right reads and make the right slides and the right rotations and hold a team like that to 55.

FRED VANVLEET: It was big time. Big time effort, big time game plan. You're talking about coaches that are skipping sleep and really just locking in this time of year and putting everything that we've got into one common goal. I think disrupting their timing was big. I thought our bigs did a great job of pushing some of those guys out. They're huge, so when they datch it, you want them as far away from the basket as possible.

Obviously I was able to have some success early in terms of just being around the ball, being able to make a play and helping guys out a little bit, trying to disrupt their timing and just trying to make it tough on them.

RON BAKER (on holding Arizona without a field goal for a stretch of 10 minutes in the first): As a player, the game goes so quick, you don't even think about that. You try your best to put your feet on the court and get stops. A lot of times, as you saw, we don't shoot the ball as well from three as we want to. So a lot of our offense comes from our defense, and today our guys at the rim were altering shots, and we were keeping them off the glass early on in that 10-minute span. And we were getting good looks on the offensive end because of our defense.

GREGG MARSHALL: Well, we don't normally get the five-star or even fourstar recruits. We're starting to get a few.... But the stars really don't matter to us. We try to get guys that want to be part of something bigger than themselves, are willing to put the time in in skill development, body development, by getting in the weight room with our Strength and Conditioning Coach, Kerry Rosenboom, who does a tremendous job, and buying into the -- falling in love with, if you will, the process of becoming great.

These guys are very coachable. They're everyday guys, and they work extremely hard. And then they also listen and execute a game plan very well because they understand that we're going to be a little undersized more than likely, give up a few pounds, a few inches. But it's hard to measure what's inside of a young man in terms of his heart. Very rarely do we get pushed around in that category.

RON BAKER: Coming in, I was always a guy that tried to push myself to get better, and that definitely helps. But then when you get with a group of guys that like to push you as a teammate, that helps. And then you get coaches that push you in different drills and different skill developments in the off-season, and it really gets your confidence as a player up to a new level. And that's when you start becoming a true player, and that's what I've gotten since I've been at Wichita State.

GREGG MARSHALL: [Baker] has got broad shoulders and he's got big hands. He's country strong is what I say, and he's developed his body, and he puts on a defensive clinic. Mr. Robie from the NCAA Selection Committee from Northeastern is obviously a basketball guy, and he paid Ron a beautiful compliment as I was walking off the court. He goes, 'Ron Baker is never in the wrong position. Ron Baker is one of the hardest-working defenders I've ever seen.' And then you add Fred VanVleet to that, five steals tonight. You've got a pretty good defensive backcourt, and that's -- obviously we're not the most beautiful team offensively, but they more than hold their own defensively.

FRED VANVLEET: Obviously you would like to have it a lot earlier in the season, but we went through what we went through, all the adversity throughout the year. It's been a hard-fought year, and when our names popped up Selection Sunday, like I said, it was just a breath of fresh air, and we could put all that behind us. And these guys have been huge both games, Conner, Markis, you talk about Shaq, Rauno Nurger, Zach Brown, all young guys that have been playing a huge role. Rashard Kelly as well, I think he took two or three charges tonight. It's going to take more than me and Ron to be able to get these wins, and the last two games we've been able to do that, so give these guys a ton of credit.

Round of 64 - Omaha, Neb. --- (7) Wichita St. 81, (10) Indiana 76 Round of 32 - Omaha, Neb. --- (7) Wichita St. 78, (2) Kansas 65

Fred VanVleet (22.0 pts, 5.0 assists, 4.0 rebounds, 3.0 steals) did just about everything in wins over Indiana (81-76) and Kansas (78-65). VanVleet scored a career-high 27 points against the Hoosiers and added 17 against the Jayhawks two days later... WSU piled up 19 steals in the two wins, while only committing 19 turnovers... The Shockers got the foul line often and took advantage of nearly every one of those opportunities, shooting over 80 percent from the stripe in both games (47-of-58, .810)... Contributions from some of the Shocker supporting cast made a big difference. Evan Wessel took just three shots in 36 scoreless minutes against Indiana but was one of the heroes against the Hawks, draining a career-high four threes on his way to 12 points. while also collecting nine rebounds... Zach Brown set career-highs across the board against Indiana with 11 points and 8 rebounds, and Bush Wamukota played a season-high 13 minutes against KU, providing some valuable interior defense...lce cold from three against Indiana (2-of-13), WSU found its stroke against KU, going 10-for-20 from deep.

Sweet 16 - Cleveland --- (3) Notre Dame 81, (7) Wichita St. 70

VanVleet led all scorers with 25 points on 9-of-20 shooting from the floor, to go with six rebounds, three assists, two steals and zero turnovers. It marked his sixth 20-plus point game of the season... Darius Carter, playing near his hometown of Akron, Ohio, registered 22 points on 9-of-15 shooting and eight rebounds in his final game as a Shocker... Wichita State's other senior Tekele Cotton finished with six points, two rebounds, two assists and two steals.

Four Irish players finished in double-figures led by Demetrius Jackson's 20 points. Jackson also added four rebounds and three assists. Pat Connaughton collected a double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds, while Zach Auguste and Steve Vasturia scored 15 points each. Jerian Grant dished 11 of the team's 18 assists to go with nine

Notre Dame started the second half much like the first by knocking down shots from everywhere. The Irish made 17 of their first 21 attempts (81 percent) to open play after halftime. For the game Notre Dame shot 55.6 percent (30-for-54) from the field and 47.4 percent (9-for-19) from behind the 3-point line.

WSU finished 26-of-65 (40 percent) from the field, but connected on just 3-of-18 (16.7 percent) 3-point attempts. The Shockers won the battle of the boards, 36-32.

The Shockers took their first lead at the 16:40 mark of the second half on a hook shot from Carter, forcing a Notre Dame timeout. Carter and VanVleet combined to score the first eight points of the second half after the Irish led by five.

WSU's lead would be short-lived, as the Irish would answer with a trio of 3-pointers to take a 48-42 lead with 14:26 to go. ND then extended its lead back to double-digits with 12:30 remaining and would lead the remainder of the game.

Rashard Kelly provided two big baskets inside to bring WSU within six, before Notre Dame went right back up by 11 with less than seven minutes in the game. The lead would grow to 17 at the 5:17 mark after Vasturia's second 3-pointer of the game, and as many as 19 in the game.

Round of 64 - St. Louis -- (1) Wichita State 64, (16) Cal Poly 37

WSU became the first team in NCAA history to start 35-0 and posted its largest margin of victory in an NCAA Tournament game (27 points)... Cleanthony Early led all scorers with 23 points on 9-of-15 shooting. Ron Baker pulled down a career high nine rebounds and Fred VanVleet dished out eight assists.... The WSU defense blanked Cal Poly over a stretch of 11 minutes, forcing 13 consecutive misses. The Shockers built a 21-5 lead and cruised the rest of the way.

Round of 32 - St. Louis -- (8) Kentucky 78, (1) Wichita State 76

In a game that Sports Illustrated would later bill as its "Game of the Year" for 2014, eventual National Runner-Up Kentucky spoiled WSU's undefeated season... Down two points with the ball and only 3.2 seconds remaining, VanVleet's buzzer-beating three-point attempt bounced off the rim.

The NBA-bound Early led the Shockers with 31 points, and Ron Baker added 20.

Round of 64 - Salt Lake City -- (9) WSU 73, (8) Pittsburgh 55

Malcom Armstead (22 points) and Early (21) shouldered the offensive load, and sophomore Tekele Cotton drew rave reviews for a lockdown defensive performance on Pitt star Tray Woodall, who finished 1-of-12 with five turnovers.

Round of 32 - Salt Lake City -- (9) WSU 76, (1) Gonzaga 70

The Shockers played six minutes of nearly perfect basketball to take out No. 1 overall seed Gonzaga. After making just 2-of-20 threes against Pitt, WSU connected on a season-high 14 treys against the Bulldogs, including five-in-a-row to finish out the game. That late flurry helped the Shockers overcome a seven-point Bulldog lead with six minutes remaining to win 76-70. Baker and Early scored 16 points each to lead the charge.

Sweet 16 - Los Angeles -- (9) Wichita State 72, (13) LaSalle 58

The Shockers rolled to a 14-2 lead out of the gate and were never threatened. LaSalle's four-quard lineup was a matchup nightmare for Kansas State and Ole Miss in the two previous rounds, but the taller Shockers used it to their advantage, outrebounding LaSalle 47-29 with help from 17 offensive boards. Carl Hall had three of the Shockers' eight blocks. Armstead (18), Hall (16) and Baker (13) led the scoring.

Elite 8 - Los Angeles -- (9) Wichita State 70, (2) Ohio State 66

In the West Regional Final, WSU continued to play the role of the aggressor, piling on for a 53-33 lead with just over 12 minutes to play in the second half. Ohio State trimmed the deficit all the way down to 62-59 with 2:49 to go, but Cotton drilled a clutch three, then snagged a crucial offensive rebound on the Shockers' next possession. VanVleet - only a freshman reserve at the time - knocked down a jumper moments later to help put the game on ice... Armstead earned NCAA All-West Region Most Outstanding Player honors and averaged 12.8 points, 5.0 rebounds and 4.4 assists during WSU's five-game NCAA run. He joined Hall on the all-regional team.

Final 4 - Atlanta -- (1) Louisville 72, (9) Wichita State 68

The Shockers first trip to the Final Four since 1965 ignited the fan base and made WSU a national darling. Yet, come game time, WSU played like it was more than just happy to be in Atlanta, building a 12-point lead with 13:35 to play in the game against a heavily-favored Louisville team... Despite 24 points and 10 rebounds from Early, WSU couldn't hold off a late charge from the Cardinals, who escaped with a 72-68 win and went on to claim the national title.

Round of 64 - Portland -- (12) VCU 62, (5) Wichita State 59

The MVC Champion Shockers - 27-5 coming into the tournament and ranked 18th nationally - had the firepower to make a deep NCAA run but instead joined a long list of No. 5 seeds victimized by No. 12 in the opening round... WSU trailed a VCU team that 12 months earlier had played in the Final Four by as many as 13 points in the second half. The Shockers cut the margin to two at the 2:30 mark on a three-pointer from Toure' Murry (now with the NBA's Washington Wizards), but VCU answered with five-straight. Senior center Garrett Stutz

MEN'S BASKETBALL POSTSEASON

DYNASTY MODE

- Wichita State won the Missouri Valley regular season championship by 4.0 games and became just the 2nd MVC team in the last 46 years to win back-to-back-back titles, joining Southern Illinois (2002, 03, 04, 05)
- The Shockers are one of 4 teams in Valley history to claim the title outright in 3-or-more consecutive years.

KEN POM-POMS

- The gold standard in advanced analytics, Ken Pomeroy's rankings pit WSU 9th overall heading into the Round of 64 (a 20-point win over Ken Pom No. 29, Vanderbilt was good for a three-spot overnight jump).
- KenPom's tempo-free efficiency measurements also place WSU atop the heap in defensive efficiency at 88.6 points per 100 possessions.

THE NATION'S TOP STATISTICAL DEFENSE

- The Shockers lead the nation in scoring defense (59.3 ppg), rank 2nd in turnover margin (+5.5) and are 6th in field goal percentage defense (.385).
- They have been consistently tough to score on, holding opponents to less than 40% from the field in 18 of their last 22 games (since Dec. 22). Iowa is the only team that has shot better than 50% against WSU this year (.538 on Nov. 29).

20-APLENTY

WSU set a new school-record with 16 wins by 20-or-more points (the most recent coming in the First Four). The 1981 Elite Eight Shockers, featuring NBA standouts Antoine Carr and Cliff Levingston, did it a dozen times.

ROAD WARRIORS

- WSU has 9 true road wins this year all by double-figures - and leads the nation in road scoring margin (+14.8). The only other Division I team in the last 11 years to finish over 14.0 for a season was 2008 Memphis.
- 5 of the Shockers' road victories came by 20+ points. During MVC regular season play, WSU held all 9 home teams to less than 40% from the field (combined 32.5%).
- WSU is 31-5 (.838) overall in true road games since the start of the 2013-14 season and 57-13 (.814) going back to 2010-11. Both marks lead the nation.

JUST 3 LOSSES IN THE LAST 3 MONTHS

- Since Dec. 20, WSU has lost just three times (19-3). Two of those defeats came against a Northern lowa team that beat Iowa State and North Carolina earlier this year before going into a three-week funk. UNI is currently receiving votes in both polls and earned the Missouri Valley Conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.
- WSU's only "bad loss" came on the road in a rivalry game against an Illinois State team that has been on the edge of the top-100 for most of the year.

- ► The Shockers won their other 8 MVC road games by doubledigits. At 4 of those stops, they posted their most lopsided road win in series history.
- ▶ WSU jumped to an 11-0 start to conference play, sweeping home-and-homes from each of its two closest competitors in the standings to gain a four-game lead.
- MVC foes made adjustments the second time through, pinning their hopes on zone defenses and other high-risk, highreward strategies.
- In three losses to MVC teams (two regular season and one postseason), WSU shot a combined 18.3% (15-of-82) from three-point range. Yet, the Shockers were still in position to win all three games in the final minute.
- In the conference semifinal loss to UNI, WSU missed its first 19 three-point attempts and finished 2-for-24.

CLOSE CULLS

► The ball has rarely bounced the Shockers' way in close games, resulting in a 1-6 record in contests decided by 5 points or less (five of those six closes losses have come against RPI top-100 teams).

WSU IN GAMES DECIDED BY 5 POINTS OR LESS (1-6)

- Those "coin-flip" games tend to even out over a long period of time, but for whatever reason WSU hasn't gotten the breaks this year. That doesn't take away from the quality of the team itself, and metrics like KenPom take that into account.
- ► KenPom rates WSU among the 20 "unluckiest" teams in the nation and calculates that the Shockers should have at least another 2.5 wins, based on their efficiency numbers.

BENCH

WSU reserves are averaging 29.7 points per game heading into the tournament, good for 11th nationally. Since Jan. 1, the Shockers have been even better, getting an average of 31.4 points out of the non-starters (sixth in the nation).

ALL-A-BOARD

▶ WSU didn't rank a single player inside the conference's top-15 in rebounding. None averaged more than 5.0-per-game. Yet, the Shockers were once again the Missouri Valley Conference's best rebounding team. Eight players averaged between 3.0 and 5.0 boards per game, and WSU had outrebounded 16 of its last 20 foes... Having two of college basketball's best rebounding quards doesn't hurt. Ron Baker and Fred VanVleet have combined for 980 rebounds in their careers.

1,400-POINT TRIO

WSU boasts the nation's only 1,400-point trio. Fred VanVleet (1,427) and Anton Grady (1,411) are joined by Ron Baker (1,625).

VALLEY THREE-PEAT

▶ 2016.... 16-2 (1st) ► 2015.... 17-1 (1st) 2014.... 18-0 (1st)

- ▶ WSU put the finishing touches on its first Missouri Valley Conference three-peat. The Shockers had previously won back-to-back titles only once in their history (1964/65).
- ▶ WSU is just the second MVC team in the last 46 years to three-peat, joining Southern Illinois (four-in-a-row from 2001-02 to 2004-05). Incidentally, the Shockers ended SIU's run with their 2005-06 championship.
- ▶ Winning outright championships has been even more rare. WSU is just the fourth school in MVC history to finish alone atop the standings in three-or-more consecutive years, joining SIU (2003, '04, '05), Cincinnati (1958, '59, '60, '61) and Kansas (1923, '24, '25, '26, '27).

TITLE TOWN

- ▶ 10 MVC regular season titles won by WSU tops among active schools ahead of SIU (8) & Drake (7).
- ► 4...... MVC crowns won by Gregg Marshall more than any other coach in Shocker history.
- ▶ 8...... D-I schools, including WSU, that have won at least 4 outright conference titles in the last 5 years.

BEST BY A WIDE MARGIN

SETTING THE BAR HIGH

- The MVC's 18-game, double-round-robin format is a grind, even for strong teams. For outsiders, WSU's undefeated 2013-14 season and subsequent 17-1 run through the MVC in 2014-15 made a monumentally difficult task appear easy:
- WSU's 51 conference wins since 2013-14 (51-3, .944) is the most-ever by one Valley team in a three-year span.
- ► The 2013-14 Shockers (18-0) were just third Valley team since 1950 to finish unbeaten, joining Larry Bird's national runner-up Indiana State team (16-0 in 1978-79) and Hersey Hawkins' 1985-86 Bradley Braves (16-0).
- ▶ WSU has finished 16-2 or better in conference play in four of the last five years.
- ► Since 1991-92, when the Valley expanded its schedule to 18 games, the rest of the conference has combined for just four other 16+ win finishes. Illinois State (16-2 in 1998), Southern Illinois (16-2 in 2003 and 17-1 in 2004) and Northern Iowa (16-2 in 2015). All four went on to play in the NCAA Tournament, and ISU and UNI advanced to the Round of 32.

W--W--W--W--W--W--W--W--W

- WSU ran off 12-straight victories between Dec. 22 and Feb. 3, marking the second-longest winning streak in nine seasons under Gregg Marshall. It was also tied for the fourth-longest run in school history.
- ▶ 11 of the 12 wins came against conference foes, as WSU jumped out to an 11-0 start to MVC play for the second time in three years.

TRENDY

- ► The Shockers have several lengthy winning streaks in place against conference foes, including a school recordtying run of 13-in-a-row against Bradley and 12-straight vs. Missouri State that that rank among the longest-ever by one active Valley team over another. WSU has won seven or more consecutive games against seven of its nine MVC rivals.

TWO BIRDS IN HAND

- Wichita State's Fred VanVleet was named Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year for the second time, giving the program its sixth Larry Bird Trophy.
- Now a three-time All-Valley first team selection, VanVleet previously won Bird Trophy as a sophomore when he led WSU to college basketball's first-ever 35-0 start on his way to third team All-America honors.
- ► VanVleet is just the ninth player in MVC history to win multiple Larry Bird Trophies, joining an elite group of players that also includes Bird, himself. Xavier McDaniel is the only other Shocker to do it (1984 & '85).

LONG END, SHORT-LIST

WSU's senior trio of VanVleet, Wessel and Baker are on a list of just 10 MVC players in the last two decades to reach 100 career wins. VanVleet is tied with former teammate Tekele Cotton for the school and MVC records. If WSU can make it to the Sweet 16, he would have the record all to himself. A senior day victory on Feb. 27 was VanVleet's 63rd career MVC win, setting the Valley's modern record.

FRED-D-D

► In the 28 years since the MVC All-Defensive Team was established. VanVleet is just the second player to be named to both the All-Valley First Team and All-Defensive Team in three different years, joining former Southern Illinois standout Ashraf Amaya (1991, 92, 93).

CAREER DAY

Fred VanVleet won the MVC's Player of the Week Award for the third time this year and fifth time in his career on Feb. 1 after scoring a career-high 32 points at Evansville. It was just the fifth 30-point game of the Marshall Era (Joe Ragland and Cleanthony Early each did it twice). In that game, VanVleet tied a school accuracy record by going 15-of-15 at the foul line (matching Dave Stallworth's mark, set in 1963)... VanVleet's 24 second-half points was the most productive half by a Shocker in nine seasons under Gregg Marshall (Early had 23 in a half during the 2012-13 season).

PAN-AM GLAM

Over the summer, Ron Baker was part of a bronzemedal effort at the Pan American Games in Toronto. Baker started all five games for the United States and was one of most impressive collegiate players in a competition that featured a mix of college, NBA D-League and overseas pros. He saw the most court time of the seven American collegians and tallied a team-high eight steals while averaging just over 8.0 points per contest. Baker played the entire second half in the bronze medal game and helped the U.S. come back from 21 points down in the third quarter to defeat the Dominican Republic.

- ► Baker was the first WSU player to ever appear on a Pan Am Games men's basketball roster. He's also the first active Shocker in over three decades to represent the U.S. in international competition.
- ► The 12-man roster, led by Gonzaga head coach Mark Few, included seven collegians and five professionals - four from overseas and one who played last season in the NBA.
- Virginia's Malcom Brogdon, Michigan State's Denzel Valentine, Baylor's Taurean Prince, Arizona's Kaleb Tarczewski, Maryland's Melo Trimble also competed for the U.S.

"The auy is Rambo... He plays fearlessly. He went toe-to-toe with some physical, grown men who know how to play the game and he really helped Team USA. He, arguably, was the best collegian. Most of them got better as the week went on, but he showed the most growth."

THRICE IS NICE

- Ron Baker and Fred became the first Shockers in over three decades - and the first WSU teammates - to make the Valley's top team three years in a row. Xavier McDaniel (1983, 84, 85) was the last.
- In Gregg Marshall's nine seasons in Wichita, WSU has claimed All-MVC honors 19 times. That includes 12 first-teamers since 2010, equaling the program's total from the previous 28 years.

- Baker earned All-Defensive status for the first time after leading the Shockers in total steals (49).
- ▶ WSU landed multiple players on the All-Defensive team for the third-straight year and have had a league-best eight selections over the last five years.

2 ALL-AMERICANS ARE BETTER THAN 1

GRADY LOADS UP

- Anton Grady earned All-Newcomerand All-Bench Team
- As the top vote-getter on the All-Bench ballot, he was named Team Captain. Grady is the fourth Shocker in the award's 22-year history to earn that distinction.

TOP MARKIS

- Markis McDuffie's selection as Freshman of the Year ends a long WSU drought. He's the first Shocker since Randy Burns (2002) and the fourth overall to win the award, joining Jason Perez (1997) and Joe Griffin (1987). The league began honoring its top freshman in 1986. That's good company. Perez (1,839 career points) and Burns (1,599) rank sixth and eighth respectively on WSU's all-time scoring list.
- ► The 6-8, McDuffie is by far the league's youngest freshman (just shy of 18 years, 6 months) but is already one of its most athletic players.
- When he's on the floor, Markis McDuffie has been the MVC's most productive freshman scorer at just over 16 points per 40 minutes.

- Statistics guru Ken Pomeroy ranks McDuffie as the MVC's fourth-most efficient offensive player (among those utilized on at least 20-percent of possessions), trailing only MVC first teamers VanVleet, Baker and Egidijus Mockevicius.

- ▶ While WSU's talented JUCO pipeline has given it plenty of representation over the years on the All-Newcomer teams, McDuffie is one of only two Shocker freshman in the last two decades to be included on the list (Toure' Murry did it in 2009).
- McDuffie is also just eighth Shocker to make the All-Freshman team (now in its 18th year). Shaquille Morris was a member of last year's team. Five of the six previous WSU players to make the All-Freshman squad went on to win all-conference honors during their careers and four of them were first-teamers (Jamar Howard, 2002; Paul Miller, 2003; J.T. Durley, 2008; and Murry, 2009).

QUIET CONTRIBUTOR

- Redshirt senior Evan Wessel's numbers don't jump off the page, but he's been a valuable contributor in other, more subtle ways. Wessel is frequently on stage (he's played 2,162 career minute over parts of five seasons) but rarely in the spotlight (360 career points). His knowledge of the system, constant hustle, and knack for making key plays at key moments have made him a fan favorite, while also endearing him to his head coach.
- Wessel's style in many ways parallels Gregg Marshall's own playing career. The 6-foot-3 Marshall played 102 games at Randolph Macon, and was known for both his toughness and intensity. While he scored just 433 career points (an average of just over 4.0 ppg) Marshall molded himself into a shutdown defender and helped lead his team to three 20-wins seasons in four years.
- Wessel is the nation's most successful senior (minimum 100) games played), entering the tournament with an .892 career winning percentage in games participated. He's 108-13 over parts of five seasons (after taking a medical hardship in 2012-13)...
- Wessel is the only player in Wichita State history to log playing time on four different conference championship squads... Baker (105-17, .861) and Fred Van Vleet (119-20, .856) also rank in the top-10 on the active list.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

- ► The Shockers lead the nation in scoring defense (59.0 points) and are fifth in field goal percentage defense (.382). They've taken it up a notch in the last two months. From Jan. 1 through Selection Sunday, they lead the nation in both categories (56.5 points allowed, .358 opponent shooting percentage).
- In 18 MVC games, WSU led the league in FG% Defense for the fifth-straight year by posting its fourth sub-.400 mark in that span. This year's .358 clip was the best in nine seasons under Gregg Marshall.

GOOD AT GREEDY

► WSU also entered March Madness with the nation's secondbest turnover margin(+5.5). The Shockers finished with a double-digit margin for the seventh time this year in their senior day win over Illinois State, forcing 17 Redbird giveaways while turning it over just six times themselves... They also did it in a Feb. 21 win at Indiana State (4 TO, 14 takeaways).

THAT 70s NO-SHOW

No Shocker opponent has topped 70 points in regulation since Nov. 29 when lowa scored 84... Northern lowa is the last MVC team to reach 70, hitting that number on the nose in its Jan. 31, 2015 win in Cedar Falls (70-54)... The last MVC team to go north of 70 was Loyola, which fell 88-74 to the Shockers at Gentile Arena on Feb. 19, 2014... The last road team to reach 70 at Charles Koch Arena was Davidson (Dec. 29, 2014, 81-70 WSU)... No MVC road teams has scored 70 in Wichita since Evansville dropped an 86-74 decision to the Shockers on Jan. 25, 2012.

HOOP THERE IT ISN'T

Wichita State enterted the NCAA Tournament leading the nation in fewest field goals allowed per game (18.8). Opponents have a hard time just getting shots up against an opportunistic Shocker defense that ranks 14th nationally in takeaways (15.4 per game). When they do, they're apt to miss. Foes are shooting just 38.5 percent from the field through 30 games - sixth nationally.

Not surprisingly, each of the top-5 schools on the list of fewest buckets allowed have already reached 20-wins.

11 X 10

- With an 11-point effort against Lovola on Jan. 27, Rashard Kelly became the 11th-different Shocker to score in doublefigures this year. That total could climb even higher by the end of the season, with Evan Wessel, Bush Wamukota and Rauno Nurger still chasing their first 10-point games. Wessel has reached nine points once and eight on three other occasions.
- Eight Shockers have reached double-digits on two-or-more occasions this year.

25-ALIVE

- The Shockers' First Four victory clinched a seventh-consecutive 25-win season. They're nowthe first team in Missouri Valley Conference history to do it. Cincinnati - a member of the MVC for 13 seasons - put together six-straight 25-win campaigns from 1957-58 to 1962-63. 30-FOR-30-FOR-30

- WSU bounced back from its worst conference stretch since 2013 (two losses in three games) with one of the most dominant weeks in program history, defeating New Mexico State (+30), Missouri State (+31) and Indiana State (+33) in a space of seven days. It marked just the third time in school history that a Shocker team has won three-straight by 30-or-more and the first time that they've won back-to-back MVC games by 30 +
- In its 71 Valley seasons, WSU has won 22 MVC games (plus one MVC Tournament contest) by 30 or more. Eight of those have come in the last five seasons. That includes three in 2015-16, an achievement matched by only the 1961-62 Shockers.

VALLEY ROAD WARRIORS

- The Shockers' 46-8 conference road mark (.852) over the last six seasons is better than any other MVC team's conference home record during that span. (UNI's 43-11, .796 home mark is the closest).
- WSU has taken it up a notch in 2015-16 with seven doubledigit road wins. Four of those set new program records for the Shockers largest margin of victory at a particular road site. Last Tuesday's 74-48 win at Drake was WSU's most lopsided in 71 visits to Des Moines, dating back to 1937. Likewise, the Shockers' 74-55 (+19) triumph at Northern Iowa was their biggest in Cedar Falls, and their 83-58 victory at Southern Illinois was their best effort in Carbondale.

7-YEAR HITCH

The Shockers dropped under the .500 mark on Nov. 27 for the first time since February of 2009 (a span of 2,473 days, or just over six years and nine months). A stretch of three-straight losses was their worst stretch since January of 2009 when they opened MVC play at 0-6... Immediately after, the 2008-09 Shockers rallied to win 9 of their next 12, finishing 8-10 in conference, 17-17 overall, and advancing to the CBI guarterfinals... That 0-6 MVC start was a decided turning point in the Gregg Marshall Era. They've won at nearly an .800-clip since that moment in time. WSU has bounced back in similar fashion this time around, going 23-4 on the heels of a 2-4 start.

HEAVY DUTY DUO

The Shockers' big-man platoon of Anton Grady and Shaquille Morris rarely share the court. Individually they've put up modest numbers, but their combined production has given WSU some all-conference caliber performances. In 18 MVC games, the duo combined to average 15.4 points, 7.8 rebounds and 1.8 blocks per game in 31.4 minutes.

Grady (18.2 points per 40 minutes) is WSU's most productive offensive regular on a per-minute basis, ahead of Ron Baker (18.0). Morris isn't far behind (17.9).

SHAQ ATTACK

Shaquille Morris' recent surge has helped make the Shockers a much more balanced team with a physical, inside presence to compliment a veteran backcourt. The redshirt sophomore has increased both his stamina and motor, leading to more minutes. He's scored in double-figures 11 times this season.

He's shooting 56.7 percent for the year. If it holds, it would be one of the highest single-season percentages ever by a Shocker underclassmen, in the company of first round draft picks and NBA standouts Xavier McDaniel and Antoine Carr.

MAKE NO MISTAKE

Sophomore reserve Conner Frankamp - a Kansas transfer who has seen time at the point guard and shooting guard spots since becoming eligible at semester - went nearly two months without committing a turnover (Dec. 31 to Feb. 24). He's committed just five in 470 minutes this year. While he hasn't banked enough assists to appear on any national lists, Frankamp sports an excellent 5.6 assist-to-turnover ratio. He was even better in MVC play (9.00-to-1), turning it over just two times in 18 contests.

■ TIMELINE

- Oct. 29 Senior point guard Fred VanVleet experiences hamstring soreness during a preseason practice on the same day that Sports Illustrated arrives to shoot photos for a feature spread on the WSU All-American.
- Oct. 31 VanVleet feels no lingering effects and opts to participate in WSU's closed door scrimmage against Oklahoma State. Shortly after tipoff, he aggravates the hamstring injury.
- Nov. 7 VanVleet sits out WSU's exhibition game against Hawaii Pacific.
- Nov. 13 VanVleet attempts to play in the season opener against Charleston Southern but lasts just three minutes before tweaking his ankle. WSU wins 88-63.

FRED VANVLEET • 4 GAMES • HAMSTRING

The All-American point guard missed four November games and was hobbled in two others by a strained hamstring. The injury came during a crucial stretch of four games against RPI top-100 teams. VanVleet returned to the Shocker lineup for good on Dec. 5 and gradually returned to form in the weeks that followed. He put up 14.8 pts, 6.0 assists and 2.1 steals in 9 January

Nov. 17 @ Tulsa (L, 66-77)

Limited: VanVleet plays at Tulsa (RPI 49) but reinjures the hamstring eight minutes into the game. He plays another 22 minutes, but at half speed. He hits three treys in the final 90 seconds of the first half to send WSU into the break with a one-point lead but is unable to do much more than jog and shoot jumpers down the stretch. Tulsa takes advantage on the opposite end with 77 points on its way to a 10-point victory... Freshman combo guard Shamet is limited to 10 minutes with foul trouble, forcing VanVleet into extended action... Ron Baker plays 39 of the 40 minutes and takes almost a third of the team's shots.

DNP: MVC Freshman of the Year, Markis McDuffie does not play. The forward has been slow to grasp the system in practice, and coaches do not feel that he is ready for to play in a close game in a hostile road environment... Guard transfer Frankamp is not eligible until the end of the semester.

- Nov. 18 Marshall makes the decision to shut down Van-Vleet indefinitely in order to give his starting point guard time to properly heal.
- Nov. 21 Shamet makes his first career start in place of VanVleet and finishes with nine points and three assists in a win against Emporia State, but he also experiences pain in his left foot. Hours later, he is diagnosed with a stress fracture.
- Nov. 25 Shamet undergoes surgery to repair a fifth metatarsal stress fracture, robbing WSU of another point guard option for what would turn out to be the remainder of the season.

LANDRY SHAMET • 29+ GAMES • STRESS FRACTURE

Marshall's highest-rated recruit in nine years at WSU, Shamet (a top-100 prospect) had drawn favorable comparisons to the freshman version of Ron Baker but took those comps a little too far, suffering the very same stress fracture injury that cost Baker 20 games during his own debut season. Shamet appeared in just three games and will likely pursue a medical redshirt

November 26 vs. USC at AdvoCare Inv. (L, 69-72)

Limited: Center Shaquille Morris plays just three minutes. Coaches are upset with his defensive effort and lack of stamina.

DNP: VanVleet (hamstring), Frankamp (transfer rules), Shamet (stress fracture)

Replacements: Players who would end the year as deep reserves account for over 20 percent of the team's shots and minutes... Ty Taylor (18 minutes) and walk-on John Robert Simon (5 minutes) combine for 23 minutes at point guard in place of VanVleet... Taylor is 1-for-10 from the field.. Bush Wamukota (17 minutes) and Eric Hamilton (3 minutes) combine for 20 minutes in the low post. The entire quartet would see a total of 15 seconds in two MVC Tournament games in early March but factor prominently in the AdvoCare Invitational.

Deep reserve minutes: 43 / 200 (21.5%) Deep reserve shots: 16 / 74 (21.6%)

November 27 vs. Alabama at AdvoCare Inv. (L, 60-64)

DNP: VanVleet (hamstring), Frankamp (transfer rules), Morris (coach's decision), Shamet (stress fracture)

Limited: Anton Grady is injured in the final minutes of the game after colliding with an opposing player. Though he is responsive and has feeling in his extremities, Grady has little or no use of his arms and legs and is transported to an Orlando trauma center for evalutation.

Replacements: Taylor and Simon play 32 of the 40 minutes at point guard... Taylor hits 4-of-15 from the field... Wamukota (23 minutes) and Hamilton (9 minutes) combine for 32 minutes in the low post...

Deep reserve minutes: 64 / 200 (32.0%) Deep reserve shots: 20 / 61 (32.8%)

ANTON GRADY • 3 WEEKS/4 GAMES • SPINAL CONCUSSION

Senior big man Anton Grady missed four games in three weeks with a spinal concussion, but it was more than just a physical setback; it also came at a time when the 6-foot-8 Cleveland State transfer was still trying to adjust to new teammates and a new system. A 1,000-point scorer and twotime all-Horizon selection at CSU, Grady appears to finally be hitting his stride heading into Replacements: With Grady hospitalized, sophomore Rauno Nurger removes his redshirt and contributes nine minutes. He combines with Wamukota (9 minutes) and Eric Hamilton (17) for 35 front court minutes. Simon (11) and Taylor (12) play 23 of the 40 point guard minutes...

CONNER FRANKAMP • 7 GAMES • NCAA TRANSFER RULES

Gregg Marshall calls sophomore Kansas transfer Conner Frankamp the best shooter he's ever coaches, but the sophomore wasn't eligible for game action until Dec. 9 due to the NCAA transfer rules. He's averaging 18 minutes off the bench in relief of Baker and VanVleet.

- Dec. 5 − VanVleet returns to the lineup at Saint Louis, still less than 100%. After picking up two quick fouls in the first half, he makes his presence felt with 11 points, five assists and two steals in the second-half of a 15-point win... Grady continues his progression and begins light shooting drills... Morris, who played three minutes in the Alabama and USC games, has practiced and played well in the days since, earning a promotion into the starting lineup.
- Dec. 9 Sharp shooting Kansas transfer Conner Frankamp is declared eligible to compete after sitting out the fall semester, per NCAA rules. His addition gives WSU another healthy guard option. Frankamp knocks down a pair of key free throws in the final minute to help WSU knocks off a red-hot UNLV team, fresh off wins over Indiana and Oregon.
- Dec. 12 WSU routes No. 25 Utah (RPI 8), 67-50.
- Dec. 14 Grady is cleared to practice.
- Dec. 19 Grady returns to the Shocker lineup late in the first half at Seton Hall and plays a handful of minutes. WSU leads by 13 in the first half and for 35 of the 45 minutes but falls in OT.
- Dec. 22 Grady rounds into form with nine points and seven rebounds, and VanVleet adds 13 points and six assists in a 29-point rout of Nevada that kicks off a 12-game winning streak. VanVleet benefits from a nine-day gap between games with a big January.

TWO FOR NO. 1 SPECIAL

Few coaches have the honor of being a school's alltime winningest coach. Even fewer have earned that distinction at multiple stops. Marshall is already Winthrop's career victories leader (194 from 1998-2007) and now has a similar claim at WSU. He's one of just seven coaches who are the Division I victories leader for two-or-more programs.

Other notable coaches who have done the same include Jim Calhoun (Northeastern (248), UConn (625)), Lou Henson (Illinois (423), New Mexico State (289)) and Johnny Orr (Michigan (209), Iowa State (218))

RALPH MILLER'S SHOCKER LEGACY

Ralph Miller coached over 1,000 games and retired as one of the winningest coaches in college basketball, with a 674-370 (.646) career mark at Wichita State (then Wichita University, 1951-64), Iowa (1964-70) and Oregon State (1970-89).

A two-time national coach of the year (1981 and 1982) and seven-time conference coach of the year (including twice in the Missouri Valley Conference in 1954 and 1964). He's a member of the Pizza Hut Shocker Sports Hall of Fame, Kansas Sports Hall of Fame, and the James Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, among many others.

A successful collegiate basketball player at Kansas and a state championship coach during a three-year run at Wichita's East High School, Miller was given his first opportunity at the collegiate level on April 21, 1951 when he was announced as head coach at Wichita University. The Shocker had joined the MVC six years prior but were struggling to make the leap from small college hoops to the "big time."

Miller's star player at East High, Cleo Littleton, followed him to WU and became the school's first modern era All-American and the first player west of the Mississippi River to reach 2,000 career points. He remains the Shockers' all-time leading scorer.

Littleton and a talented cast of Miller recruits energized the city, with an exciting mix of fast-breaks and full court pressure, helping pave the way for funding and construction of the Roundhouse - now known as Charles Koch Arena - in the mid-1950s.

In 1953-54, Miller's team earned a bid to the National Invitational Tournament - the first postseason trip for the team since reaching major-college status. An upset win at Oklahoma A&M is still one of the biggest in school history.

Miller landed another program-changing recruit in the early 1960s named Dave Stallworth, who helped propel the Shockers to NIT bids in 1962 and 63. In 1964, Stallworth - a two time consensus All-American - and a talented supporting cast, booked a trip to the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Midwest Regional Final.

Miller left at the end of the year for lowa, but the nucleus that he recruited went on to reach the Final Four in 1965.

In his 13 years at WU, Miller won 220 games — the most of any Shocker coach – despite coaching in what was arguably the era's toughest college basketball conference (ruled by national powers such as Cincinnati, Saint Louis and Bradley, earning it the nickname "the Valley of Death").

Littleton and Stallworth's numbers are both retired (an an honor bestowed to just three other Shockers), and a banner saluting Miller's achievements hangs from the rafters. Most importantly, his tradition of basketball excellence endures.

TRADITIONS (NEW AND OLD)

•What is a "Shocker"?

WSU athletics nickname traces back to the early 1900s when the University's teams were unofficially referred to as the "Wheatshockers." At the time, many of the football players earned tuition and board by harvesting or "shocking" wheat. The name was later shortened to "Shockers." WSU's mascot, WuShock - a walking shock of wheat - was born in 1948.

War, What is it Good For?

During the 2012-13 season, the WSU student section helped popularizea now familiar victory song. When the Shockers are putting the finishing touches on home victories, the lyrics "You don't want to go to war... with the Shockers... Don't start no stuff...Won't be no stuff..." echo throughout the Roundhouse.

Play Angry

Head coach Gregg Marshall has developed a unique appreciation for WSU basketball history, even as he continues to write new chapters. Since his arrival, the eighth year Shocker coach has made it a point to reach out to WSU basketball alums, such as NBA stars Xavier McDaniel, Antoine Carr and Cliff Levingston, who helped form the backbone of some of WSU's greatest teams in the early 1980s. While addressing the team midway through the 2012-13 season, Carr challenged Marshall's Shockers to "Play Angry." That message sank in, and the slogan gained national attention during the team's run to the Final Four later in the year.

•Stand for Defense:

Shocker fans at Koch Arena have a long-standing tradition of... standing. Until their opponent scores its first field goal, the WSU faithful remain on their feet clapping in unison.

GREGG MARSHALL ON...

...Baker's background, and its effect on him and the team

"I think having both parents be coaches is a huge strength for him. He's very coachable, yet tough-minded. He's been told the truth before...his parents told him the truth, corrected him, pushed him...he's got a streak to him: he doesn't want to lose.

From day one, he was very [coachable]. Not too high, not too

Beyond the coaching, I've never been to [Scott City]. He's strong; I call him 'country strong.' He has big shoulders, big hips, big hands that aren't soft; they've got callouses. It doesn't surprise me that he's our leading rebounder at 6'4. He's tremendous defensively. I think he might be the best defensive player in the league."

...The difference between this senior class and others

"They're icons. They're bigger than south-central Kansas. They're college basketball icons. They've helped put this program on the map and remained relevant for quite a long while. We owe them a debt of gratitude not just because of what they've done, but how they've done it. They've done it in a tremendous, first-class way. They've been nothing but a joy to coach and be around. I think we have all benefitted from their decision to come to school here."

RON BAKER, FRED VANVLEET & EVAN WESSEL ON...

...Which athletes they looked up to when they were kids

Evan: "Growing up, old tapes of Larry Bird and Michael Jordan when I was little...I remember watching the Duke-North Carolina rivalry; the passion between the schools, the rivalry, showing stuff like that. The atmosphere here and growing up in a sports family also led to [me wanting to play sports]."

Fred: "Kobe Bryant. We didn't have any [broadcasts] locally where I was from. Basketball is all I ever watched, and one of my first memories of watching basketball were those 2000-2001 Lakers teams with him and Shaq and those guys. It's always been Kobe for me."

Ron: "My two favorite athletes growing up were Terrell Davis for the [Denver] Broncos and Kirk Heinrich from Kansas...I went to a couple barnstorming events that [Heinrich] was at, got his and Nick Collison's autograph...To me, it was like oncein-a-lifetime to meet two college basketball stars. And now I'm in the shoes of them, and that's why I try to treat young kids with respect when they're in awe and seeing me in person."

...Recalling special moments/memories from playing together

Fred: "A lot of wins obviously. For me, the coolest moment was watching these two last year against Kansas. Obviously I'm not from here, but from the outside looking in, the joy and the fun and the passion that went into that game. I tried to visualize it as if it were myself, playing against Illinois in the tournament. That was a lot of fun to go through that with them and share that moment with them.

Evan: "The Final Four year, watching these two break out in the tournament. For me as a teammate, you want to see a couple of your best friends do well. They definitely stepped up and shined. Also, any championships we've won, like the Cancun tournament or when we won the Valley tournament. Any NCAA [tournament] game you win feels like a championship of its own. Any time you're winning is a special moment."

Ron: "All the wins, all the special moments you had together, those are things I'll remember the most. Just being with these two in the locker room, people don't understand the relationships we have with one another. Tightly bonded, loyal to one another, trustworthy, those types of things go a long way when you see each other 10 hours a day for 500 days in a row."

...What they tell the younger players now that the pressure of the postseason has arrived

Fred: "I haven't told them anything yet to be honest...they know, nobody's young at this point in the year. That excuse is out the window. You get to say that in November or December, once you get to this point in time, there are no young guys and old guys. If they don't get the sense of urgency now, we're [in trouble] anyways.

Ron: "I guess what I would tell them is to have fun. The first time being in the MVC Tournament, the atmosphere is going to probably be a little overwhelming for them. It was for me at that age. If you slow down and enjoy the moment; enjoy all those 10 colors of the crowd and the environment. Play hard and have fun, and just enjoy the teammates you have and the opportunity you have."

... The one impression they want to leave at Wichita State

Ron: "For me, I feel like I want to be the start of a legacy. Hopefully us three leave something, like wisdom and confidence behind with these younger guys that they can carry on with the success and with all the good things that we brought coming up. Hopefully they can continue to do that."

Fred: "I just want to be remembered for playing as hard as I can, obviously winning, and the interactions and relationships with the fans and community. That has the most meaning in terms of things I'll remember, and I feel like the fans will too. I think we'll leave a pretty good mark.

I hope that next year, expectations are realistic for these younger guys. Not that the team will drop off, but individually, don't try to make them the next Evan, Ron, or Fred. Let them be their own their own players. The talent is still coming in, so they'll

Evan: "I just wanted to leave Wichita State better than I found it. Be hard working, give my best everyday, and obviously win. That's always been my ultimate goal, to win. We've been fortunate to leave a great legacy and bring light to the city of Wichita and Shocker nation...it's not going to stop here, we have a great team and it'll keep going."

...What "March" means

Ron: "This month, you can't even put words to it. It's really special, especially if you're lucky enough like us to be a part of it... the whole nation's focus is on college basketball this time of the year. As a player, that excites you and makes you want to work hard each and every day, and do your best so that you can be noticed and have fun with this month."

Fred: "Everybody that's a basketball fan knows that it's the best time of the year. Obviously, the regular season is very important, but there's no comparison to the stage of the Valley Tournament and especially the NCAA Tournament...I think the fact that if you lose then you're done plays into it a lot too. Staying on edge and understanding the stakes has a lot to do with it."

◆ HOME STREAK SNAPPED AT 43

- A 53-50 loss to Northern Iowa on Feb. 13 snapped a 43game home winning streak. For nine days, it was the nation's longest active run. Prior to the UNI setback, it had been nearly three years since WSU's last home loss (Feb. 27) 2013 to Evansville). The school-record streak nearly doubled the old mark (22), set by the 1981-82 and 1982-83 Shockers, and was the fourth-longest in MVC history.
- · WSU's 24-game conference home streak also tied for the sixth longest in Valley history and fell one win short of the school record (25, set between 1982-85).
- The Shockers lost at Charles Koch Arena for only the 34th time since its 2003 renovation. UNI's six wins are the most of any visiting opponent during that span (6-7, .462).

A standout performer for a Sunrise program that has cranked out more than two-dozen Division I signees over the last two years... Named MVP of four-different tournaments as a senior, including the prestigious Marshall County Hoopfest and the Kentucky Blue Grass National Championship (which Sunrise won).

Gregg Marshall: "He's explosive, can play a multitude of positions on the perimeter and profiles as a lockdown defender. We had an opportunity to watch him quite a bit last year at Sunrise, and he had a chance to see how this program operates."

CHAD GIBNEY

Gregg Marshall has built Wichita State into a monster of the Midwest and, in the process, ascended as one of college basketball's elite coaches.

Now in his ninth season at WSU and his 18th overall, Marshall (424-167 career record) is the only coach in Division I who has posted 30 or more wins in each of the past three seasons, and his .827 winning percentage (177-37) over the last six years ranks as the nations best.

Under Marshall's quidance, WSU has been on a steady rise, topping 25 wins in each of the past seven seasons - a new conference record.

His Shockers followed up a 2011 NIT Championship with four-straight NCAA Tournament trips, including runs to the 2013 Final Four and the 2015 Sweet 16. The 2014 squad ran the table in the regular season, becoming the first team in 23 years to enter the Big Dance with an unbeaten record. That historic 35-0 start also earned him consensus National Coach of the Year honors.

Despite the presence of eight new scholarship players, Marshall led the 2014-15 Shockers to a 27-3 regular season record and a second-straight Missouri Valley Conference title. The 2015-16 team shook off an injury-plaqued November to claim another conference crown, giving WSU it's first-ever "three-peat."

In his 18 seasons as a head coach, Marshall's teams have captured 10 regular season conference titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament 12 times. He's won seven conference coach-of-the-year honors, including a run of three-in-a-row from 2012-

Marshall (230-84 in nine seasons at WSU) surpassed Hall of Famer Ralph Miller as the winningest coach in school history on Feb. 3, 2016 with his

Marshall has proven adept at spotting talented prospects and developing them into high-level college basketball players, with many moving on to play professionally. During the 2014-15 season, three former Shockers saw action - Gal Mekel (New Orleans Pelicans), Toure' Murry (Jazz/Wizards) and Cleanthony Early (Knicks).

In Marshall's nine seasons in Wichita, a total of 19 Shockers have earned postseason All-MVC honors, including 12 First-Teamers since 2010 (equaling WSU's total from the previous 28 years combined). WSU's depth and tenacious team defense has been a source of strength, throughout. Over the past six years, eight Shockers have landed on the MVC's All-Bench Team and nine more have earned MVC All-Defensive Team nods.

Under Marshall, the Shockers have become a top destination for some of the nation's premier junior college talent. Nine NJCAA All-Americans have worn the black and yellow since Marshall's arrival, including the NBA-bound Early - a two-time national player of the year prior to his arrival at WSU.

Marshall has also had big success developing coaching talent, with a rapidly expanding tree of seven former assistants who have gone on to accept Division I head coaching positions.

The latest is Steve Forbes, a Shocker assistant from 2013-15, who took the reigns at East Tennessee State in March of 2015. Other active head coaches include Earl Grant, College of Charleston; Dana Ford, Tennessee State; Barclay Radebaugh, Charleston Southern; and Zach Spiker, Army.

Prior to WSU, Marshall led Winthrop to a 204-76 record in nine seasons, piling up six Big South regular season titles, seven conference tournament titles and seven NCAA Tournament appearances.

Marshall spent the first 13 years of his coaching career as an assistant with stops at Randolph-Macon (1985-87), Belmont-Abbey (1987-88), College of Charleston (1988-96) and Marshall (1996-98), helping those programs to a combined 255-115 record, good for a .689 winning percentage.

PERSONAL:

Marshall received a B.A. degree in economics/business in 1985 from Randolph-Macon and earned the Master's degree in Sport Management from the University of Richmond in 1987.

He is married to the former Lynn Munday of Bellingham, Wash., who earned her master's degree from the College of Charleston. They are the parents of a son, Kellen, and a daughter, Maggie.

OVERVIEW

2015-16 (Sophomore)

Will look to build on an impressive March performance and compete for minutes at the small forward spot as a sophomore.

2014-15 (Freshman)

Earned the team's Most Improved Player Award at WSU's end of season banquet... Averaged 3.3 points and 1.4 rebounds in 10.5 minutes per contest while shooting 42.3 percent from three and 51.8 percent overall from the field... After playing sparingly through the non-conference schedule, worked his way into the rotation as a key reserve during MVC and postseason play... Played two of his best games during the NCAA Tournament, tallying season-highs for scoring (11), rebounding (8) and minutes (23) in an opening round win over Indiana. Followed with seven points in the Round of 32 victory against Kansas... Provided a memorable hustle play to spark the win over KU when he forced a steal, scrambled for the loose ball and out-sprinted everyone to the other end for a transition slam... Averaged 6.7 points in 16.0 minutes over the three NCAA games... Saw time in each of the last eight contests after missing four games with a concussion (Feb. 7 to Feb. 17)... Tallied just 31 minutes and saw time in just five of the first nine games of the regular season before bursting onto the scene during the Diamond Head Classic. After scoring just three points all season against D-I competition up to that point, he went for 10 vs. Loyola Marymount, nine in an overtime win over Hawaii and had seven more in the championship vs. GW. Went 5-of-6 from three and 7-of-9 at the foul line over the three games... The DHC performance kicked off a stretch that saw him play double-figure minutes in 8 of the next 11 games... Scored his first collegiate points against Newman on Nov. 23 with a nine-point, six-rebound day...

Prep School

Played the 2013-14 season for the post-graduate team at Sunrise Christian Academy in nearby Bel Aire, Kan... Saw extensive time at the point guard spot for the first time in his career... Averaged 16 points per game.

High School

Attended Klein Collins High School in Spring, Texas before transferring to South Kent School in South Kent, Conn... Averaged 13.0 points and 7.0 rebounds for the Cardinals during the 2012-13 season... Ranked as a three-star prospect by Rivals.com and a four-star by Future150... Played summer basketball for Texas Pro... Recruited by Texas, Washington and Providence, among others... Was the first member of the Class of 2014 to verbally commit to WSU, back in May of 2013

2015-16 1st Team Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete

Missouri Valley Conference Most Improived Team • 2nd Team Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete

2nd Team Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete

OVERVIEW

2015-16 (Senior)

A five-year veteran in Coach Gregg Marshall's system who can be called on to contribute in a variety of ways.

Wichita, Kan. • Heights HS

2014-15 (Junior)

A member of the MVC's Most Improved Team after a junior season that saw big increases in playing time and production... Also a Second Team MVC Scholar Athlete... Appeared in 32 games with 31 starts and averaged 23.6 minutes... Put up 4.2 points, 3.7 rebounds and turned the ball over just 14 times in 756 minutes... Switched positions in the off-season from small forward to power forward due to the team's lack of returning post depth and thrived, despite a significant size disadvantage... A crowd favorite with a penchant for being in the right place at the right time for rebounds and loose balls...

Regained his shooting touch after a rough 2013-14 season, hitting 36.0 percent from deep (31-of-86)... Got hot at some opportune times... After taking just three shots in 36 minutes in the Round of 64 against Indiana, was one of the offensive stars in the Round of 32 win over Kansas on March 22... Connected on a season-high four treys vs. the Jayhawks in a 12-point, nine rebound effort that earned him a postgame interview with the CBS crew... On Feb. 28, helped WSU fend off a hard-charging Northern Iowa in a winner-take-all battle for the MVC regular season title, draining three triples on his way to 11 points... Had Five total double-figure scoring performances, topped by a 15-point outburst against Saint Louis on Dec. 6... Was nearly the hero in overtime loss at nationally-ranked Utah, scratching out six points and nine rebounds... Missed three games at the Diamond Head Classic (Dec. 22, 23, 25) with an ankle injury, suffered late in the first half of the Alabama game on Dec. 16... Returned for a three-second cameo at Drake on Dec. 31, then rejoined the lineup for good on Jan. 4... Recorded steals in bunches with three-or-more thefts in five different games... Named to the Athletic Director's Honor Roll for both the Fall and Spring semesters.

MVC All-Sports Championships

Markis McDuffie

Winners of back-to-back-to-back All-Sports Championships, WSU has claimed the trophy nine times in the last 12 years. In 2014-15, Shocker teams finished first or second place in nine of the 15 varsity sports that WSU sponsors with six championships (men's and women's basketball, men's and women's golf, women's outdoor track & field, and women's tennis).

Since 1993, when the MVC and Gateway men's and women's conferences merged, WSU has won six or more titles in four different school years. No other MVC school has won more than five titles in a year during that span.
