

The 1937 Football Season

by WILBERT BACH

854-5854

Four victories, four defeats, one tie.

Not a record to be shouted to the skies perhaps but one of which the University of Miami need not be at all ashamed for that is the record compiled by their 1937 football team.

The team failed to win any championships—unless winning its lone S.I.A.A. game and remaining undefeated in that conference for the second successive year can be called a championship. What the team did however was to fight courageously at all times against odds which at the start of the season seemed insurmountable.

After all, a few seasons back, a Hurricane eleven which could tie Bucknell, defeat Stetson and slaughter Catholic U would have been called miraculous, and that is precisely what the University of Miami football team did.

The University of Miami, playing three of its games after Thanksgiving as it does, faces a tremendous handicap in those games. In the first place, each of those games is usually the closing contest for the other eleven and they go out on the field ready and able to shoot the works. Again, they are usually strong elevens from strong conferences. They go into this game with Miami pretty well mentally relaxed, without the tension that their conference games usually bring—and a good football team, mentally relaxed is difficult to beat. For the last two years, five of the six teams Miami has met in the last three weeks of the season have been at their peaks for the Miami game. But that is what makes good football and as the Hurricanes develop, it will be more to their credit when they begin to win from these teams, no matter how good they play. A victory over a team going at top speed means more than a win over an overconfident eleven.

A change in a coaching system is always a handicap and Miami had that, too at the start of the season. Irl Tubbs and Pat Boland had gone on to Iowa, which in itself was a compliment to the University of Miami. In their places came Jack Harding and Hart Morris, two fine coaches but teaching a different style of offense, a different method of defense. Jack Harding's contract with St. Thomas college made it impossible for him to more than get to know the names of his new squad in spring football practice.

And, so in September when the practice roll was called, Miami's new coaches found for experienced material they had, on the line, two lettermen, Capt. Bob Masterson at end, the greatest of all Miami players and Johnny Bolash, reserve at the other end. In the backfield they had the fine all around player, Eddie Dunn; Andy Csaky a smashing blocker and fine tackler and Tony Vaccarelli, midget fullback for letter men. From the 1936 squad, they had Tom Condon, Brad Boyle and Dave James, reserve tackles, Gus Hanley, and Gene Duncan, reserve guards, Zomps Zelesnick, reserve center and George Dolan, reserve back.

The rest of the lads were sophomores, promising sophomores to be sure but Jock Sutherland, great Pitt coach has been quoted as saying that for every sophomore he has to use as a regular, he figures a touchdown for some team along the way, said touchdown coming from the mistake of some sophomores. That judgement is of course severe but it has been proven time and time again that only through the experience of collegiate play can the finest players get that polishing which leads to true stardom. You can count the sophomore All-Americans in modern football on the fingers of your hands.

Yet that was the situation which confronted Jack Harding and Hart Morris last fall and they went to work with a will. In many of their games they had ten sophomores on the field—they started games with nine first year men and when the season ended, every opponent had praise for that Miami team, a band of lads who fought to the finish and who, making inevitable sophomore mistakes but who kept going well enough to win glory even in the final game of the season when they suffered their only bad beating of the year as far as the scores went.

A great crowd of nearly 8,000 fans turned out last Oct. 1 when Miami opened its season in the fine new Burdine Orange Bowl stadium against South Georgia college of Statesboro. Eddie Dunn, for the second successive year, scored a touchdown the first time he got his hands on the ball but the Hurricanes were unimpressive as they led, 13-0 at the half. In the third period, however, their nervousness wore off and they scored three times, the reserves adding another in the fourth quarter to win the game 40-0 as every man on the squad got a chance.

The following week, another crowd of nearly 8,000 was on hand and saw the Hurricanes defeat Spring Hill 26-0, gathering momentum gradually after a slow start and showing conclusively that the new coaching system was beginning to take hold.

Oct. 15 found the team in far away Lewisburg, Pa. playing a confident Bucknell eleven. Capt. Bob Masterson and six sophomores on the line with Dunn, Csaky and two sophomores in the backfield, outplayed the Bisons in the first half and left the field expecting to come back and win. A tremendous Bucknell passing attack greeted the Hurricanes after the intermission and three times the Bisons, threatened, scoring once before Miami could get its bearing well in the third quarter.

Miami 40, Georgia State Teachers 0

OCT. 1— The debut of Jack Harding as a Hurricane coach was successful as the Orange, Green, and White romped to a 40 to 0 victory over the Georgia State Teachers College, Friday night, in the Burdine Memorial Orange Bowl. A colorful crowd of 8,000 fans thronged to the new stadium and saw a powerful Miami eleven run rough-shod over the Blue Tides.

The Hurricanes thrilled the large audience with long runs and were led by Eddie Dunn who scored three times—twice on runs of 66 and 70 yards respectively. The spectators had not settled in their seats when the Hurricanes struck. On the second play of the game Dunn slid off tackle and raced through the entire Georgia State secondary to score standing up. A few minutes later Miami added its second touchdown. Black fell on a Tide fumble on the nine-yard line, and big Lou Chesna crashed across the Georgia goal line in two tries. The halftime score was 13-0.

Miami added four more touchdowns to its total in the second half with Johnny Douglas, Eddie Dunn, and Doss Tabb accounting for the scores. The final result was Miami 40, Georgia Teachers 0.

Miami 26, Spring Hill 0

OCT. 8 — An improved Hurricane team whipped a clever Spring Hill eleven 26-0 before a crowd of 7,500 rabid fans to win their second game of the season.

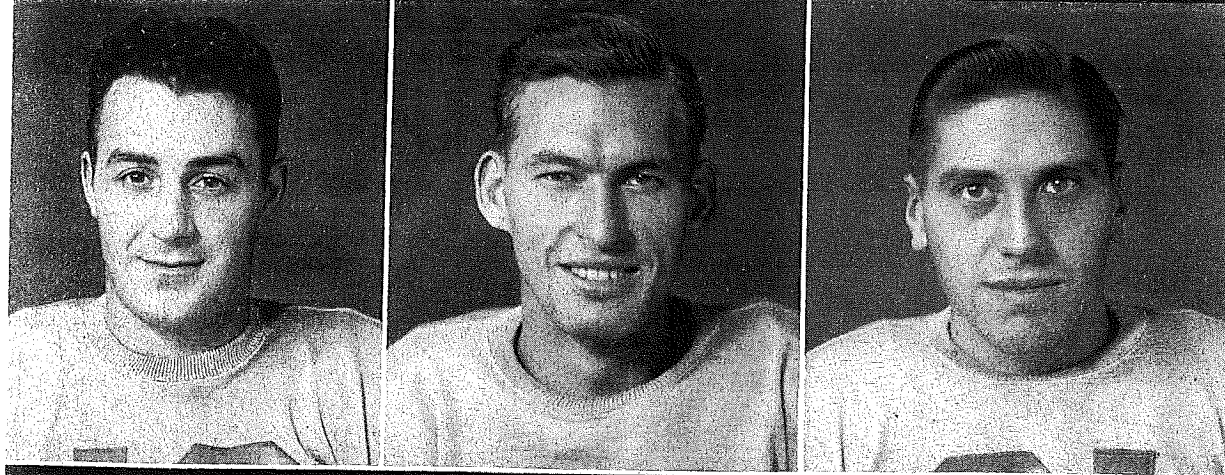

The first quarter was a thriller with the Badger eleven throwing a scare into the Hurricanes with a dazzling display of fireworks, but Miami hit its stride in the second period when Johnny Douglas swept around left end on a reverse to score standing up. Captain Masterson converted.

The third quarter saw the Hurricanes strike again. Eddie Dunn set them in scoring position by a beautiful punt return to the Badger 34 where he and Chesna made it a first down on the five. On the next play, big Lulu went through the line for the second score.

The play of Eddie Dunn and little Tony Vaccarelli dominated the last period when the Hurricanes added two more touchdowns and an extra point to ice the game. Vaccarelli accounted for the first score, and Dunn, lanky halfback, intercepted a Spring Hill pass at midfield, then to send a long aerial to Bolash on the Badger 23 for a first down on the next play. Douglas faded back and passed to Arries who caught it in the

AFTER a week's rest, Drake came back to beat Coe 31-2 in the final home game of the season. Although played on a frozen field in sub-freezing weather, the Blue and White offensive rolled up yard after yard on the visitors.

Drake scored three times in the opening quarter and then merely held its lead throughout the game. Suter counted first after taking a pass from Pug Manders and then the latter made a beautiful 87-yd. run from scrimmage. Not to be outdone, Suter grabbed a Kohawk punt and raced 82 yards over the frozen turf for his second touchdown.

Coe checked all Drake advances until the last two quarters when Setrakian and Woltz set out on another scoring spree.

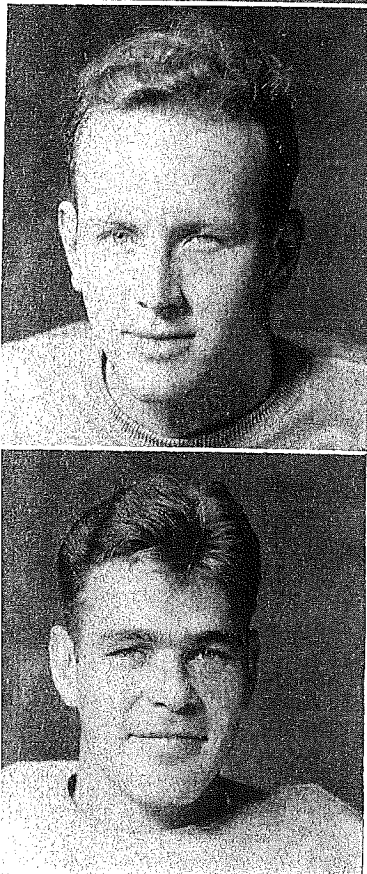

Although they scored only one touchdown, the Bulldogs completely outplayed Miami in their intersectional battle at Coral Gables, Fla. Time and time again they had the oval deep in Miami territory but were unable to put it across.

The winning score came in the fourth quarter when Suter went the final 10 yards for a touchdown. Drake got to the 4-yd. line in the initial quarter and again at the close of the first half were down in pay dirt.

In the third quarter Luftman caught a pass over the goalline but was out of bounds. All 23 players who made the trip gave creditable performances.

The Coaching Staff

JACK HARDING, in his debut as head coach, led the Hurricanes through a successful season in 1937. The popular University of Pittsburgh graduate, who for ten years turned out some great teams at St. Thomas College, has established himself in the hearts of Miami fans as a well-liked and colorful figure. Under his capable direction, the success of football at the University of Miami is assured.

HART MORRIS, former All-American guard at Pittsburgh, is Line Coach — and one of the best in the game. A hard worker, Hart has won many friends by his loyalty and friendship to the team.

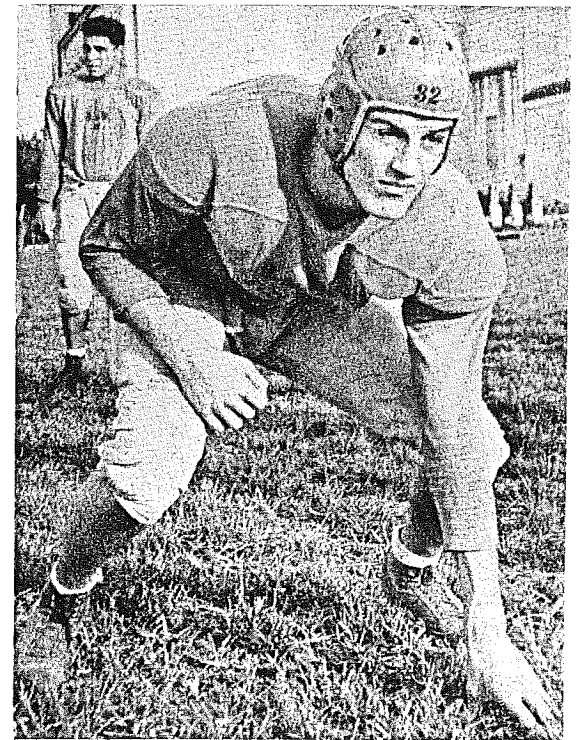

Freshman Coaches JOE GREEN and FRANK BRADY proved their value by turning in a fine coaching job on the Baby Hurricanes in '37. Both were former Captains and stars under Jack Harding at St. Thomas. They developed the Frosh into one of the most powerful first year teams in the history of Miami.

JOHN B. OTT, one of Miami's football immortals, was trainer for the '37 squad and rounds out the coaching staff. Johnny — who is just about the best quarterback in Hurricane history — was valuable to the whole team for the fine work he did assisting with the coaching duties.

☆ Captain-Elect Eddie Dunn sailed into the limelight as a sophomore, and for two seasons he has starred for the Hurricanes — breaking loose for long, dazzling runs, pulling games out of the fire with brilliant touchdown jaunts, and playing an all-round defensive game. His sweeping end slants are a byword with followers of Miami football. A triple-threat back with a fighting heart—he steps into the hallowed shoes of Bob Masterson to lead our Hurricanes in battle. Welcome and best wishes for a successful season, Eddie!

☆ The departure of Captain Bob Masterson from Hurricane ranks brings to an end a great college career. The sensational leader, one of the greatest ends in the history of the University of Miami, was for four years a smashing tackler, a hard blocker, a player who never gave up — and a brilliant captain. His dependable and inspired play will be remembered in the years to come, for it was the brand of ball that only a born leader has. Goodbye and Good Luck, Bob!

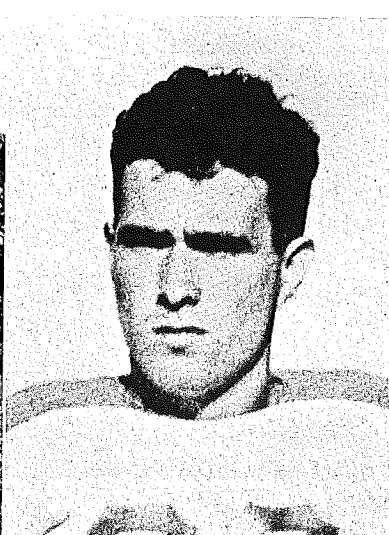

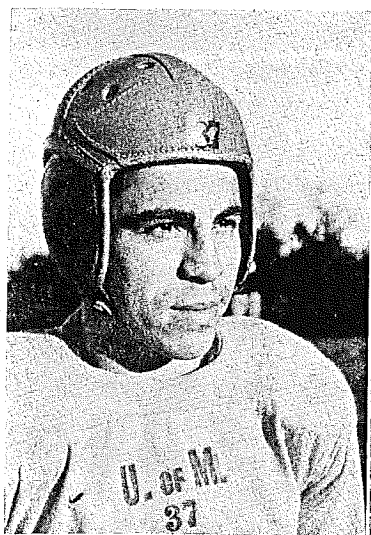

HAIL and FAREWELL

★ Tony Vaccarelli, tiny full-back, was one of the most colorful players on the Hurricane roster. He is 5'6" in height, weighed 153, and hails from Red Bank, New Jersey. Tony made his appearance in star circles as a junior, and immediately leaped into the limelight as one of the best ball carriers on the team. A fine tackler and blocker, he will be missed from the lineup next year. The mighty mite, a favorite with the fans, will long be remembered as a brilliant, colorful grid figure.

★ Tom Condon, husky 200-pound tackle from Roselle, New Jersey, was just about the best liked player on the squad. A hard blocker and fine defensive man, Tom ranks with the best of them for competitive spirit. His play in the South Carolina game was outstanding, as well as the rest of the season. In addition to his football chores and the usual school activities, Tom has managed to turn in a better than average performance as president of the student body for 1937-38.

★ Gus Hanley, reliable guard, was another midget on the Hurricane team. The Lawrence, Massachusetts star was always full of fight and ready to go when the play was the hardest. His ability and blocking in the line will be missed. A sparkplug and a powerhouse when the time came, he'll be hard to replace when September rolls around. Like Condon, Hanley has been active in other phases of school life. The swell job he did with sports on last year's Ibis is ample evidence of ability.

Miami 40, Georgia State Teachers 0

OCT. 1— The debut of Jack Harding as a Hurricane coach was successful as the Orange, Green, and White romped to a 40 to 0 victory over the Georgia State Teachers College, Friday night, in the Burdine Memorial Orange Bowl. A colorful crowd of 8,000 fans thronged to the new stadium and saw a powerful Miami eleven run rough-shod over the Blue Tides.

The Hurricanes thrilled the large audience with long runs and were led by Eddie Dunn who scored three times—twice on runs of 66 and 70 yards respectively. The spectators had not settled in their seats when the Hurricanes struck. On the second play of the game Dunn slid off tackle and raced through the entire Georgia State secondary to score standing up. A few minutes later Miami added its second touchdown. Black fell on a Tide fumble on the nine-yard line, and big Lou Chesna crashed across the Georgia goal line in two tries. The halftime score was 13-0.

Miami added four more touchdowns to its total in the second half with Johnny Douglas, Eddie Dunn, and Doss Tabb accounting for the scores. The final result was Miami 40, Georgia Teachers 0.

Miami 26, Spring Hill 0

OCT. 8 — An improved Hurricane team whipped a clever Spring Hill eleven 26-0 before a crowd of 7,500 rabid fans to win their second game of the season.

The first quarter was a thriller with the Badger eleven throwing a scare into the Hurricanes with a dazzling display of fireworks, but Miami hit its stride in the second period when Johnny Douglas swept around left end on a reverse to score standing up. Captain Masterson converted.

The third quarter saw the Hurricanes strike again. Eddie Dunn set them in scoring position by a beautiful punt return to the Badger 34 where he and Chesna made it a first down on the five. On the next play, big Lulu went through the line for the second score.

The play of Eddie Dunn and little Tony Vaccarelli dominated the last period when the Hurricanes added two more touchdowns and an extra point to ice the game. Vaccarelli accounted for the first score, and Dunn, lanky halfback, intercepted a Spring Hill pass at midfield, then to send a long aerial to Bolash on the Badger 23 for a first down on the next play. Douglas faded back and passed to Arries who caught it in the under the blazing lights of Phillips Stadium.

Lou Chesna performed brilliantly in the Hurricane backfield and was the outstanding man on the field, but the big fullback led a losing fight as the Spartans pushed over two tallies to win.

The game was hard-fought and marred by constant penalties. Tampa played heads-up football to take advantage of every break. Miami was penalized 122 yards for offsides and unnecessary roughness, and marched down into scoring territory time after time only to fumble or lose ground on a penalty.

After a scoreless first half, Tampa struck with sudden swiftness in the early moments of the third period. Aided by two penalties, the Spartans made a first down on the Miami 8 yard-line. Spoto stepped wide around left end on the next play to score standing up.

The Hurricanes threatened on the kickoff as Carl Jones brought the crowd to its feet by streaking 76 yards down the field before he was brought down from behind on the 15. Chesna crashed over the Spartan goal three plays later only to have it called back on a penalty. Tampa recovered a fumble to end the Hurricanes' biggest scoring threat.

Tampa added six more points in the opening moments of the fourth quarter, and then played tight defensive ball to stand off the fighting Hurricanes for the remainder of the game.

First and ten! Hurricanes carry the ball down to twenty-yard stripe.

Miami 6, Bucknell 6

OCT. 15 — A crowd of 10,000 shivering spectators jammed Bucknell Field at Lewisburg, Pa., Friday night to see an underdog Miami eleven fight a heavier Bison team to a 6 to 6 deadlock. The crowd, which included 1000 fans from Scranton, Pa., who came to pay tribute to Hurricane coach Jack Harding, saw a thrill-packed contest.

Miami marched 80 yards in eight plays to push over the tying touchdown in the fading moments of the final quarter after Bucknell had scored in the third period. With Chesna, Dunn, Douglas, and Captain Masterson leading the slashing attack, the Orange, Green, and White put on a burst of power and pulled the game out of the fire.

The fighting Hurricanes took the ball on their twenty and never lost possession of the oval until Eddie Dunn crossed the Bison goal line. Both conversions failed, and the battle ended 6-6.

Lou Chesna's booming punts, Eddie Dunn's dynamic running, and the inspired play of the whole Hurricane team was outstanding in Miami's greatest performance of the season.

Tampa 12, Miami 0

OCT. 29 — Miami suffered its first defeat of the season as the Spartans of Tampa won a bitterly fought battle 12-0 before 8,000 people

nn streaks down the sidelines on a touchdown jaunt end zone for the final touchdown. Dunn added the extra point and it was all Miami, 26 to 0.

Watch 'em go right through that line behind some brilliant blocking. But not for far.

Miami 25, Stetson 13

Nov. 5 — Over 9,400 fans crowded Burdine Stadium Friday night to see the fighting Hurricanes overcome the favored Stetson Hatters, 25-13 in a thrilling, see-saw battle. Miami, with Eddie Dunn leading the way by scoring three touchdowns, played brilliant and inspired ball against the heavier Hatters who were without the services of triple-threat Lynn Warren.

Stetson scored first on a long pass from Lowery to Schaeffer and kicked the extra point, but Dunn smashed over from the two-yard line a few minutes later to make it 7 to 6. The Hatters added another touchdown, and Miami again reduced their lead to one point as the half ended, 13-12.

The Hurricanes took the lead for the first time in the third quarter. Dunn placed the ball on the Stetson 23 with a brilliant punt return and then carried it five times in succession to score. A few minutes later with the ball at mid-field, the flying halfback slipped through the center of the Hatter line and dashed 58 yards down the field for the final touchdown. Captain Bob Masterson converted with a perfect placement.

Miami 21, Catholic University 0

Nov. 12 — Miami upset the dope again Friday night for the second consecutive week by sweeping aside Catholic University 21 to 0 in their best performance of the season. A crowd of 12,000 people witnessed the spectacular game.

After a scoreless first quarter, Lou Chesna intercepted a Cardinal pass and ran to the Irish 46 before he was spilled. Dunn slashed off tackle for nine yards. Then Chesna cut through the line, outran the secondary, stiff-armed the Cardinal safety man, and stepped 38 yards to cross the goal line. Bob Masterson converted to make the score 7-0 as the half ended.

Early in the final period Eddie Dunn took a Catholic punt on his own thirty and raced through the entire Irish team for 72 yards and a touchdown. The Hurricanes kicked off and the Cardinals were downed on their 27. On the next play Csaky intercepted a pass on the Irish 34. Dunn then faded back and threw a long aerial to Bolash. Munhall, Catholic safety man, deflected the ball into the hands of Masterson who stepped over the goal for the last Miami touchdown. The Hurricane captain kicked his third extra point of the night to climax the game.

Miami 0, Drake 7

Nov. 26—Miami fell before the mighty Drake Bulldogs 7 to 0 last Friday on Homecoming Day, in one of the best-played games of the season. The fighting Hurricanes held the invaders, who were one of the finest teams to ever play in Miami, for three periods before they finally pushed over the lone game-winning touchdown.

A punting duel between Lulu Chesna and Pug Manders, Drake powerhouse, featured the first half, but neither team threatened very seriously. In the opening moments of the third period the Bulldogs marched down to the Miami 8-yard line, but Bob Masterson intercepted a pass to halt the advance.

But in the final quarter, a reverse through right tackle and an eleven yard run by Suter of Drake carried the ball across the goal line for the only touchdown of the game. Manders added the extra point. Both teams turned in great defensive games, but the Hurricanes offense was bottled up by the powerful Bulldog line.

South Carolina 3, Miami 0

DEC. 3 — South Carolina, for the second consecutive year, eked out a three-point win over the Hurricanes Friday night by virtue of a 28-yard field goal that was the margin of victory. The educated toe of Tom Lonchar was responsible for the Gamecocks' triumph as he booted the ball across the bars with a perfect placement in the third quarter.

Miami displayed some of its best ball of the season and clearly outplayed the Gamecocks. They threatened to score on three different occasions, but failed to punch it over the goal line.

In the first quarter, the Orange, Green, and White marched to the Gamecock six yard line, where they were held for downs. A few minutes later, they were again deep in South Carolina territory, but a looping pass slipped through Paskewich's fingers on the goal line, and another threat ended. Clary punted out and for the third time, Miami went to the Gamecock five, where the Hurricanes again fell short of a first down.

In the final period the Gamecocks throttled the Hurricanes' great offensive by their long, booming punts. In the last minute of play Miami marched from their 20 to the Birds' 45 in four plays to threaten when the referee's whistle ended the ball game.

Miami 0, Georgia 26

DEC. 10 — 14,625 fans thronged to the Roddey Burdine Orange Bowl to see Jack Harding's Hurricanes dedicate the memorial stadium with the University of Georgia. Miami and the Bulldogs put on a fitting demonstration with the Georgians winning 26-0 in a great ball game.

Chesna breaks into the open and heads for the goal line.

The fast Georgia backs — Capt. Hartman, Cate, and Hunnicutt—and the spectacular ends —Spec Towns and Otis Maffett—proved too much for the fighting Hurricanes as the Bulldogs flashed the best aerial attack seen in Miami this season.

Georgia scored in the first quarter on a long pass to Maffet, towering end, and added two more touchdowns in the second period when Vassa Cate and Gillespie crossed the goal line. The halftime score was 19-0. The last Bulldog score came in the third quarter when Mims threw a long pass to Gillespie in the end zone after the same play had been called back. The conversion was good, making it 26 to 0.

The Hurricanes threatened on several occasions and never stopped fighting. Once in the first period, the Orange, Green, and White marched down to the Georgia 14 where Captain Masterson's fake field goal was stopped. Again in the fading moments of the final quarter, Miami slashed all the way to the four-yard line only to fumble. The gallant Hurricanes, although outscored, closed the season by covering themselves with glory.

Captain Bob Masterson closed his college career with a real ball game. Eddie Dunn, Lu Chesna, John Douglas, and Andy Csaky all played some of their best ball of the '37 season, but the Bulldogs were just too good.

Tonight's Game

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI vs. DRAKE UNIVERSITY

BACK again for another whirl at intersectional football, the University of Miami Hurricanes take the field tonight against a brand new opponent: the high ranking Drake University Bulldogs of Des Moines, Iowa.

For years, Drake has been a power in the mid-west and its teams have long been feared beyond the confines of its own strong Missouri Valley conference. Last fall, these Bulldogs went through a punishing eleven game schedule, winning seven contests as they rolled up 238 points.

In all save one game, they led at half time but three games were lost in the final moments as combined opponents rolled up 126 points. Drake was short on experienced reserve material and when the rather familiar cry went up from the Drake campus—"Wait until next year," it merely swelled a chorus of similar cries from many another campus and attracted no attention at all.

But there was something in that prediction. Drake's opener in 1936 was Central college and the final score then was 44-14. This year, Drake made it 47-0 as twenty letter men and as many sophomores had a merry work out.

Last year, Washington U. of St. Louis bowed only after a desperate duel, 20-18. This fall, Drake buried Washington 32-2. Last year, Grinnell lost only 19-6 to Drake but this fall, the final figures read, Drake 47, Grinnell 7.

Washburn lost 18-0 in 1936 and 25-0 in 1937. Creighton took Drake's measure last 13-6 but Drake was on top, 9-0 this fall. Iowa State won the 1936 game 21-7 but lost 30-0. Drake has the reserves—and the first string as well.

Losing only to the University of Tulsa and Notre Dame—teams with national ranking—the Bulldogs in 9 games have scored 230 points against sterner foes than they played in 1936 when they netted only 238 in 11 games. And the defense has given up just 73 points of which Drake yielded 62 to Tulsa and Notre Dame. Coe, Central, Grinnell, Washington, Creighton, Washburn, and Iowa State all together have scored one touchdown, a goal after touchdown and two safeties.

Drake has a team which is literally studded with stars. Capt. Hedlund at tackle is one of the best players in the middle west. Bob Huston who will be in there for at least part of the game, is the best punter to come here this fall. He has one 75 yard through the air punt to his credit and frequently gets over 65.

It is in the backfield though that the Bulldogs shine especially brightly as might be expected from a team with so much scoring power.

The first string backfield—veterans all—includes Phil Manders, blocker and pass receiver and his brother Pug Manders, brothers of the great pro star. Pug is a 200 pound line plunger, punter and passer. He was one of the nation's leading scorers last year with ten tallies. He has eight thus far this year. Bob Underwood, speedy back also tallied ten times last year and has five this year. Bus Suter, fourth regular, has tallied four times.

Eldon Woltz, a reserve back, has the amazing total of seven touchdowns and eight other players have scored at least one touchdown for Drake this year in its sensational scoring attack which has netted at least one touchdown against every foe save Notre Dame this fall.

Yes, Drake is strong but the Orange, Green and White has shown time and again it has lots of raw power of its own. Though the local eleven has not played the schedule Drake has passed through so successfully, the young Hurricanes, woefully green at the start, have been sopping up more gridiron knowledge every week.

Coach Jack Harding has instilled into his eleven some of the fundamentals of football greatness—he has moulded a team which has been able to come back when scored upon with a smashing scoring attack. He has built a defense which digs in no matter how serious the situation and which improves as the game progresses. And he has built an offense which is dangerous from any spot on the field.

Tonight's game should be a brilliant offensive duel with a veteran Drake team, wise in football knowledge attempting to outsmart and outgain a Miami team which is still improving—a team which still hasn't shown how good it really is. Catholic U got an inkling but Miami fans believe that that was only the beginning folks, only the beginning.
