Miami Hosts Bethune-Cookman In Midweek Affair...

The 20th-ranked University of Miami baseball team takes on Bethune-Cookman University in a non-conference match-up on Wednesday, April 20, inside Alex Rodriguez Park at 6 p.m. The game is the first of just three midweek single-game affairs remaining on the 2011 slate for the Hurricanes.

Miami (24-12) comes into the week after collecting an Atlantic Coast Conference series win over the weekend at the University of Maryland – participating in the second Sunday doubleheader of the year for the Hurricanes. The Hurricanes have won six consecutive non-conference match-ups, and are winners in 10 of the team's last 11 games overall.

In the second game of Sunday's two-game split with the Terrapins, UMIami head coach Jim Morris earned his 800th win as skipper for the Hurricanes, now enjoying his 18th year in Coral Gables.

Bethune-Cookman (22-17) enters Wednesday's game leading the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) in almost every statistical category, but more importantly, the wins column – sitting at a perfect 9-0 in league play. The Wildcats have a game in Jacksonville on Tuesday night against North Florida before making the four-hour trip to Coral Gables from Daytona Beach.

Miami is charged at the plate with four batters hitting above a .300 clip, including junior Rony Rodriguez and sophomore Zeke DeVoss each staking a .315 average. Last week, DeVoss led all Hurricanes performers with a .467 batting average, using seven hits on 15 official at-bats – including five runs scored, a double, a triple and a RBI. He was 5-of-6 on stolen bases, while drawing five walks. DeVoss leads the ACC in stolen bases with 24, and is third in walks (34).

Meanwhile, Rodriguez leads the team in home runs (5); ties for the lead in doubles (10); and sits second in RBI (22) and runs (24). His .559 slugging percentage tops the Canes in that department, and his .421 on-base percentage is second only to DeVoss – now using a team-leading .476 on-base average for the year.

Others performing well offensively for the Hurricanes include junior infielder Harold Martinez who moved from shortstop back to first base with the re-entry of sophomore Stephen Perez to the Hurricanes infield. Perez had missed the last 12 games in a starting role at short due to injury.

Martinez is now batting .305 on the year, raising his average more than 100 points since the beginning of March. He is second on the team in hits (39) and RBI (29). Just behind him is Nathan Melendres who bolstered his average to .303 overall with a team-high tying 10 doubles. Last week, the junior outfielder batted .462 with six hits in 13 trips – adding four runs, four doubles, four RBI and swiping four bases in five attempts.

Miami will send sophomore left-hander Steven Ewing to the mound in a starting effort Wednesday, while Bethune-Cookman counters with senior right-hander Julio Morales. Ewing enters working with a team-low ERA of 2.27, and holds a 5-1 record on the campaign. The Orlando native has claimed a win in his last five consecutive starts.

B-CU's Morales enters with a 1-0 record and an ERA of 13.50. The San Juan, Puerto Rico native and Wabash Valley Community College product (Puerto Rico Baseball Academy & High School) will be making just his second start of the season and his seventh appearance overall for the Wildcats.

Miami Against Bethune-Cookman...

Miami leads the all-time series against Bethune-Cookman by a count of 20-3, with all 23 games taking place in Coral Gables. UMIami took last year's only meeting by a 5-2 count, while the Wildcats won their first-ever series against the Hurricanes in 2009, taking two-of-three at Alex Rodriguez Park. The Canes hold an 8-2 record in the last 10 meetings, including a 7-4 decision in the 2008 NCAA Coral Gables Regional opening contest for both teams.

Scouting the Bethune-Cookman Wildcats...

Entering their contest on Tuesday at North Florida, the Bethune-Cookman Wildcats are 22-17 on the year. The Wildcats are paced by Brashad Johnson with a .333 average at the dish, collecting a team second-best 43 hits and adding 24 RBI. Behind him is 2011 Preseason All-American catcher Peter O'Brien, who has increased his average immensely since the start of MEAC play, now second on the team with a .313 clip at the plate. O'Brien leads the MEAC with 11 home runs on a team-high 45 hits, while producing nine doubles and a MEAC-leading 47 RBI. Also hitting above .300 are Matt Wright (.308) and Nick Johnson (.305).

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI HEAD COACH JIM MORRIS - 18TH SEASON

2001, 1999, & 1994 National Coach of the Year • 2008 ACC COACH OF THE YEAR

In his 18th season at Miami, no other program, nor head coach, has qualified for the College World Series as much as Morris and his Hurricanes. Miami, which has qualified for the NCAA Tournament a NCAA-record 38 consecutive years, has made it to Omaha in 11 of Morris' 17 seasons in Coral Gables. Morris set an NCAA record for guiding a program to the CWS in each of his first six years at UM. In addition, Morris won a record 13 consecutive NCAA Regionals from 1994-2006. His teams have qualified for NCAA Regionals for the last 26 years, 17 at Miami and nine at Georgia Tech.

Morris has directed the Hurricanes to a 800-310-3 (.719) mark since arriving in 1994. Including his 12 seasons at Georgia Tech (1982-93), Morris has forged a 1,304-554-4 (.700) Division I record in 29 years as a head coach. Overall, Morris has been the head coach at the collegiate level for 32 seasons, spending the first four at DeKalb (Ga.) C.C. (now Georgia Perimeter College) from 1976-79, and has recorded a 1,435-595-4 (.706) mark.

In addition to carrying on Miami's great baseball reputation in the last 18 years, Morris has personally led the charge in the construction of Alex Rodriguez Park, and has logged hundreds of hours raising funds for the new stadium project.

MORRIS IS A REGIONAL REGULAR

Jim Morris earned his 26th consecutive NCAA regional bid in 2010 when he guided the 'Canes to the NCAA Coral Gables Regional. He has led Miami to a regional in each of his 17 seasons (1994-2010), winning 15 of his last 17 appearances. The 13 consecutive regional championships (94-06) was an NCAA record. He also went to nine straight regionals from 1985-93 with Georgia Tech. Additionally, Miami has advanced to nine Super Regionals under Morris.

Affectionately known as "3" by those surrounding the UM program, Morris has led the 2010 Hurricanes to their 38th-straight NCAA Tournament. Five players from the 2010 team were selected in last year's Major League Baseball Draft. In 2008, the 'Canes reached the College World Series after winning the Atlantic Coast Conference, widely considered one of the toughest - if not the toughest - collegiate baseball conference in the country.

MORRIS IN HIS 33RD SEASON AS A COLLEGE COACH

Morris currently has a 1,304-554-4 (.700) record at the Division I level. As a head coach overall, he has compiled a 1,435-595-4 (.706) record over 30-plus years.

Jim Morris notched his milestone 1,000th win against his former school, Georgia Tech, with a 16-13 win on April 4, 2004. Thirteen days later he notched win No. 500 at Miami with a 7-3 win against Florida State on April 17. Morris' 1,000th win as a head coach, including four years at DeKalb Junior College, came in a 5-3 win over Northeastern on March 23, 2001.

Prior to his 17 seasons in Coral Gables, Morris went 504-244-1 at Georgia Tech from 1982-1993. In his first stint as a head coach, he guided DeKalb Junior College to a 131-41 mark from 1976-79.

JIM MORRIS MAKING HISTORY

- Guided the Miami Hurricanes to College World Series National Championship in 1999 and 2001.
- The only coach in NCAA history to take a school to the College World Series in each of his first six years at a program. Morris has gone to Omaha with Miami in 11 of 17 seasons and led Miami to 13 straight NCAA Regional Championships, an NCAA record.
- Named National Coach of the Year five times while at Miami, by Baseball America in 1994 and by the ABCA and Collegiate Baseball in 1999 and 2001.

SHORTSTOPS AND JIM MORRIS

Morris, who played shortstop during college at Elon and then in the Boston Red Sox organization, has had great success developing the position while a head coach. Over the last decade Morris has taught prominent shortstops such as Nomar Garciaparra at Georgia Tech and Bobby Hill and Alex Cora at Miami.

Morris worked with Javy Rodriguez, who entered 2002 as a preseason All-American. Rodriguez led UM in just about every category as a junior in 2001, including a national-high 66 stolen bases. He currently works with sophomore Stephen Perez, a slick-fielding switch-hitter expected to bat near the upper-half of the order this year for the 'Canes.

Morris coached Hill, who played for the San Diego Padres, from 1997-99. Before Hill, it was Cora and Mike Metcalfe. Both players went on to play at the Major League level with the Los Angeles Dodgers. Cora is currently with the Nationals. Garciaparra played under Morris during the coaches' final two seasons in Atlanta and went on to become an All-Star with the Red Sox and played for the Oakland A's in 2009.

Hurricanes Set for ACC Showdown in the Tar Heel State...

For the second time in as many weeks, the University of Miami will have a short turnaround after a Wednesday contest. The Hurricanes will hop aboard a flight Thursday morning for a much-anticipated showdown with the University of North Carolina Tar Heels at Boshamer Stadium in Chapel Hill. The Hurricanes took all three games from the Tar Heels last season in Coral Gables in what has become a storied rivalry since entering Maryland, UMiami head coach Jim Morris recorded his 800th win as skipper for the Hurricanes. Now enjoying his 18th year at the helm of the Hurricanes program, Morris registered his 1,300th career victory earlier this season.

Morris Enters Elite Company with Win No. 1,300...

Over the weekend, Jim Morris earned his 1,300th career Division I victory with Miami's 14-13 victory in 10 innings over NC State on Saturday, April 9. The 18th-year UMiami skipper enters elite company with the win, joining just four other active Division I coaches to achieve the honor - Augie Garrido (Texas), Gene Stephenson (Wichita State), Mike Martin (Florida State) and Mark Marquess (Stanford).

Others close to the honor include Pete Dunn (Stetson) and Jim Gilligan (Lamar).

Miami Back in Familiar Territory...

Miami dropped to No. 20 in the Collegiate Baseball Newspaper poll, but the Hurricanes are ranked in all four major polls this week - the first time for the occurrence since Feb. 21. The Canes are ranked in all six collegiate baseball polls, and use their highest ranking at No. 20 in the CBN poll, while sitting at No. 24 in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll.

An Eye for a Walk...

Packing the Park...

Miami's 10th Anniversary of the 2001 NCAA College World Series Championship game against NC State on April 9, marked a season-high in attendance at Alex Rodriguez Park with a crowd of 3,908 on hand for the Canes dramatic win, as well as the honoring of the CWS title team.

Recapping the Last Game – at Maryland, Second Game of Doubleheader (April 17)...

Brad Fieger's two-run homer in the seventh inning pushed the 19th-ranked University of Miami past homestanding University of Maryland in the second game of Sunday's Atlantic Coast Conference baseball doubleheader, 5-2, at Bob "Turtle" Smith Stadium. The win allowed UMiami to collect the series win – their fifth of the season in league play.

With the win, University of Miami head coach Jim Morris – now enjoying his 18th year at the helm in Coral Gables – picked up his 800th win as the skipper of the Miami Hurricanes.

With Harold Martinez on second base in the seventh inning and the game tied at two, freshman third baseman Brad Fieger picked up his first home run of the year with a deep shot to left centerfield to bolt Miami (24-12, 13-4 Atlantic Coast Conference) out to a 4-2 advantage.

The Canes added an insurance run in the ninth off Maryland (17-20, 4-14 ACC) reliever Corey Wacker, with Fieger picking up his third RBI of the game on a sacrifice fly to left that crossed Rony Rodriguez from third. Rodriguez kicked off the inning with a leadoff double for the Hurricanes.

After collecting the opening game of Sunday's doubleheader, 10-2, the Terrapins had a 2-1 lead after three innings of action.

Catcher Aaron Etchison scored the first of two Terrapins runs in the frame on a sacrifice bunt by Corey Wacker – but the throw from UMiami third baseman Brad Fieger was high, allowing Etchison to score. Wacker was called out on the same play at third trying to advance.

The second run came in with Alfredo Rodriguez stealing home plate after Ryan Holland was caught between first and second for the third out of the inning – but he stalled long enough for Rodriguez to score before the tag, giving Maryland a 2-1 lead.

Miami tied the game in the fourth inning when sophomore shortstop Stephen Perez and freshman catcher Shane Rowland completed a double-steal, but Rowland was seemingly caught in a pickle between first and second. Rowland avoided the tag, and then went to second while Perez came around for the score – knotting the contest at 2-2.

Miami scored first in the second inning after Zeke DeVoss laced a single to right field, and then an error on right fielder Charlie White allowed UMiami freshman right fielder Dale Carey to cross from second.

Miami starter E.J. Encinosa collected the win to up his record at 3-2 on the campaign, tossing seven complete innings, allowing two runs – both unearned- on six hits with five strikeouts. The loss went to Maryland reliever Eric Potter, dropping his record at 3-5 for the year.

Junior hurler Daniel Miranda collected his 10th save of the year with an inning tossed in the ninth, allowing a single and striking out one.

Without factoring into the decision, Maryland starter Chuck Ghysels tossed 5 1/3 innings with two earned runs on five hits scattered and striking out five Canes and walking eight. Corey Wacker finished the game on the mound for the Terrapins.

Miami was led offensively in the game by Fieger's three-RBI performance on his only hit – that being the round-tripper in the seventh. Zeke DeVoss had a two-hit performance in three trips, adding a RBI of his own, and walking twice.

The Maryland Terrapins used the bat of Austin Kilbourne and Tim Kiene to lead the way, each posting 2-for-3 performances at the dish.

Miami returns to the diamond Wednesday, April 20, against non-conference opponent Bethune-Cookman at Alex Rodriguez Park beginning at 6 p.m.

Athletics Gets a Changing of the Guard...

On April 12, 2011, the University of Miami officially announced the hiring of Shawn Eichorst as the new Director of Athletics for the Hurricanes. He took over for Interim Director of Athletics, Tony Hernandez, who was serving in the position vacated by former AD Kirby Hocutt who left in March for a similar position at Texas Tech University. Eichorst comes to UMiami from the University of Wisconsin, having also served in the Department of Athletics at the University of South Carolina.

Rony Rodriguez Picks Up Weekly ACC Award for Canes...

After hitting .750 and producing his team-leading fourth home run in helping the University of Miami to a perfect 3-0 week, junior infielder Rony Rodriguez has been selected as the Atlantic Coast Conference Baseball Co-Player of the Week for the week of March 28 – April 3. He shares the award with Clemson infielder Richie Shaffer for the week of April 4. On the week, Miami defeated Florida Gulf Coast and Boston College, respectively.

Rodriguez, who started all three games last week for the Hurricanes at first base, led Miami in batting average with a .750 clip, producing six hits in eight official at-bats – including two walks and scoring seven runs. His 80.0 percent on-base percentage is the best for any Hurricanes performer in a week at this point on the campaign.

The Sunset High alum and former Miami Dade College product, now in his second year as a UMiami student-athlete, helped keep the Hurricanes perfect on the road in ACC play at 5-0 – using a doubleheader sweep of Boston College on Sunday in 19-4 and 7-6 (5 innings) wins in Chestnut Hill, Mass. His slugging percentage for the week was 1.125, and he was perfect defensively with 14 putouts and an assist, all coming at the first base position.

Against Boston College, Rodriguez was 2-for-2 with three runs scored and two walks in the doubleheader opener, only to follow with a 2-for-3 performance in the nightcap – registering a solo home run in the fifth, which proved to be the game-winning RBI for the 7-6 decision in the curfew rule enforced five inning affair.

Last Time vs. Bethune-Cookman (4/20/10)...

The ninth-ranked University of Miami baseball team continued its recent home run barrage on Tuesday, hitting three solo shots en route to a 5-2 win over Bethune-Cookman on a wet night at Alex Rodriguez Park. The win was Miami's fifth straight against a mid-week opponent and 13th win in its last 15 games overall.

In addition to solo homers by Yasmani Grandal, Harold Martinez and Ryan Perry, the Canes (28-9) got 6 2/3 strong innings from David Gutierrez, who has won each of his first three starts this year.

Gutierrez (4-0) allowed two runs on six hits while walking two and striking out six before Sam Robinson got the final out of the seventh on strikeout. Eric Whaley then came on and tossed a scoreless eighth before Daniel Miranda picked up his third save of the year after a scoreless ninth.

Grandal finished the night 2-for-2 with the homer, a single, two walks and two runs scored while Martinez went 2-for-4 with three RBI. The Hurricanes have now hit 10 home runs in their last four games - adding three Tuesday night to the seven UM hit against UNC this past weekend.

B-CU starter Ramon Lancara (3-2) suffered the loss, allowing four runs in five innings before Justin Dahl and Chris Anselmo went the rest of the way. Peter O'Brien led B-CU (23-15) offensively, going 2-for-4 with a run batted in.

A two-out single to right by Martinez scored Frankie Ratcliff from third and Grandal from second to put UM up 2-0 after one.

Back-to-back RBI singles by O'Brien and Emmanuel Castro in the top of the third put B-CU on the board and tied the game up 2-2.

The 'Canes re-took the lead for good in the fourth on back-to-back solo homers by Grandal and Martinez to lead off the frame. Grandal's opposite field shot to right proved to be the game-winner, while Martinez's bomb down the line in left was his team-leading 12th of the season.

Perry's third homer in as many games - a line shot over the scoreboard in left - pushed the 'Canes lead to three in the bottom of the sixth.

The Hurricanes will now turn their attention to No. 6 Florida State, who Miami will play in Tallahassee this weekend. Game one of the three game series between the Hurricanes and the Seminoles is slated for Friday, April 23 at 6 p.m.

Series Sweep Comes for Canes Against NC State Wolfpack...

Game 1: The Wolfpack trekked down to Miami winners of eight of their last 10 games... The Hurricanes took two out of three in Raleigh last season, with Miami sweeping the series at Alex Rodriguez Park in 2009...Jim Morris went with a familiar lineup on Friday night with the usual cast...Designated hitter Chris Pelaez continued to make strides off an injury, making his third straight start...Miami continued its hot hitting from Wednesday night against Florida Gulf Coast with five hits in the first inning to jump out to a 3-0 lead, including knocks from the first three batters...Zeke DeVoss led off with a single, followed by an RBI double from Chantz Mack...Nathan Melendres then bunt singled, setting up a first and third situation...Two batters later, Rony Rodriguez knocked in Mack with a sacrifice fly for the second run...With two outs, Brad Fieger punched in Melendres for the third run with a single...Chris Pelaez also singled to cap off the inning and give Miami a 3-0 early lead that it would not concede...The Canes only registered one hit after the first inning, with the pitching carrying the team the rest of the way...Starter Bryan Radziewski recorded eight strikeouts on the night over his 5 2/3 innings pitched...The freshman improved to 5-2 on the year...Travis Miller came in and overpowered the Wolfpack hitters in his 2 1/3 innings of relief work...Daniel Miranda closed it out with an inning of work to earn his eighth save of the season...Nathan Melendres and Rony Rodriguez each had key sacrifice flies to account for half of the runs on the night...Chantz Mack also put down his third sacrifice bunt of the season...Zeke DeVoss swiped 18th stolen base of the season when he took third base in the bottom of the eighth...DeVoss leads the Atlantic Coast Conference in that category...Freshman Brad Fieger led the Canes with two hits in four trips to the plate...In his last 10 games, Fieger is 14-36 (.389)...Head track and field coach Amy Deem threw out the first pitch on Friday night...Deem will be the head coach of the United States Olympic Track and Field team for the 2012 Summer Olympics in London.

Game 2: With the win, head coach Jim Morris earned his 1,300th Division I victory...At four hours and five minutes (4hr, 5 mins) - tonight's game was the longest for the Hurricanes this season...David Villasuso's game-winning double was his sixth of the season and his first game-winning hit of the year...Miami's 14-runs scored are the fifth double-digit outpour in winning-fashion on the year for the Hurricanes...UM has scored an amazing 65 runs in its last six games dating back to the conclusion of the Georgia Tech series...Starting pitcher Eric Whaley has gotten out every first batter he's faced this season. In addition, the first inning double by NC State's Pratt Maynard was just the second hit Whaley's allowed in an opening inning this season...Tonight's attendance of 3,908 was the highest of the 2011 season inside Alex Rodriguez Park...Miami's first four runs were all scored with two outs in the third inning...Rony Rodriguez's eighth inning double was his sixth of the year...The two-bagger tied Rodriguez with Nathan Melendres for second on the team in doubles...Chantz Mack's fourth inning double was his fourth on the season...Cade Kreuter's 10th inning double was his fourth of the year, as well...Brad Fieger's three singles mark his second multi-hit game in a row, and the eighth overall for the freshman from Naples... Scoring eight runs in the eighth inning, the Wolfpack shredded the Hurricanes' nine-run lead to one, bringing the score to 13-12...NC State's eight runs came within one of the season record for the most runs given up in an inning by the Hurricanes (9 - vs. Georgia Tech, 3/26/11)...Tonight marked the eighth time this season that Miami hitters have gone three up, three down in the first inning at home.

Game 3: Sophomore right-hander E.J. Encinosa struck out 11 Wolfpack batters today in 7 innings of work...Encinosa left after throwing 99 pitches - 67 of which were for strikes... Miami took the lead on a single by Brad Fieger with two outs in the fourth inning...Freshman third baseman Brad Fieger has now produced three-straight multi-hit games after going 2-for-3 today...The Hurricanes' batters put the ball in play plenty today, striking out just five times...After a disappointing on Saturday evening, the UMIAMI bullpen combined for two scoreless innings on just one hit allowed...After blowing last night's save, Daniel Miranda retired all three batters in the 9th for his team-leading ninth save of the year...The Hurricanes, who are now 11-3 in the ACC, have swept four out of five ACC series this year (Virginia Tech, Wake Forest, Boston College and NC State)...Miami did not draw a single walk on the day...Every plate appearance for the Hurricanes resulted in an official at-bat today...NC State only had five balls leave the infield against Miami starter E.J. Encinosa - including four fly outs and a double.

The last time the 'Canes were swept by anyone at home was Clemson in 2006...Reliever Sam Robinson gave up a run in the top of the ninth inning...For Robinson, it was his first earned run given up after 17 2/3 innings this season... Today's match-up was the 78th all-time meeting between the two schools in a series that dates back to 1958...After committing a combined 10 errors in games on Wednesday (Florida Gulf Coast) and Friday (Georgia Tech), the Miami defense responded with back-to-back error-free performances on Saturday and Sunday against the Rambling Wreck.

Canes Overwhelm Eagles in Battle of the Birds (March 23)...

Zeke DeVoss started in center field tonight in place of Nathan Melendres – who served as designated hitter – and Chantz Mack suited up in left field with Rony Rodriguez over in right field...Late in the game, head coach Jim Morris made defensive substitutions with Martinez playing shortstop; Rodriguez moving to first base; Dale Carey going to center and Mack moving to right...DeVoss recorded his team-high tying fifth double of the night in the fourth inning, before swiping his team-leading 11th steal of the season – reaching safely at third...Junior pitcher Travis Miller saw action in his second game this year, picking up his first win since May 2, 2010...Miller toed the rubber in the fifth inning in relief of starter AJ Salcines...Miller's only other action came against Illinois State (March 8)...Daniel Miranda picked up his team-best sixth save of the year – sitting second-best in the ACC in that category...Miranda earned his fifth save in the last six games – and his fifth consecutive when toeing the rubber in relief...For the sixth consecutive game, the UMiami bullpen did not allow a single run, this time using the combination of Travis Miller – who earned the win, Adam Sargent, Sam Robinson and Daniel Miranda for the final five frames in relief of starter AJ Salcines who tossed the first four frames...Harold Martinez recorded a hit in his eighth straight game tonight, using a single to right in the sixth inning...Since making the move to first base in the series-opener against Virginia Tech on March 11, Martinez has a team-high .467 average at the plate – adding a team-leading 14 hits and a slugging percentage of .533 during that span.

Rodriguez Is Burnt Orange and Money Green...

After a blistering fall campaign, leading the Hurricanes in batting average and hits, junior infielder/outfielder Rony Rodriguez has burst out of the gates quickly as a team leader in the spring as well. Rodriguez was selected as the ACC Co-Player of the Week (April 4-10), and now leads the Canes in batting average (.313), home runs (5) and slugging percentage (.556).

Position Change...

In the second game of the series against Virginia Tech, Miami head coach Jim Morris elected to move All-American third baseman Harold Martinez to first, in a straight switch with freshman Brad Fieger. Since the move, Martinez has a .964 fielding percentage and has a .550 batting average. Fieger has also embraced the change well, committing just a single error in six games at the hot corner.

One Whale of a Game...

Sophomore pitcher Eric Whaley picked up his team-best third win of the year in Miami's series finale win (and series sweep) of Virginia Tech on Sunday, March 13, going a season-long tying seven innings — allowing just three hits and striking out three with zero walks issued to the Hokies. The Pompano Beach native has earned wins in all three home series finales on the campaign.

Miami Too Much for Demon Deacons on the Road...

The 'Canes opened up ACC play last Friday night with a win against the Virginia Tech Hokies. Miami has dominated Virginia Tech in Coral Gables, winning six of the seven match-ups on its home field. The 'Canes are now 5-3 all-time in ACC-opening games...Nathan Melendres returned to the lineup as well, playing center field after a four-game absence due to a hand injury...Playing Small Ball — Miami looked to manufacture runs against the Hokies, bunting six different times throughout the game — with four resulting in bunt singles and one in a sacrifice...UM also had three steal attempts on the night, with two successful tries by sophomore Stephen Perez...As a team, Miami improved to 17-22 with stolen bases on the season...Runners left on base plagued the Hurricanes once again in the opening game of the series, as they left 11 men on the base paths in tonight's game...The 'Canes left the bases loaded in three different innings, and two on in another, with each four of the innings ending in a strikeout...Freshman starting pitcher Bryan Radziewski tossed a gem in the series-opener, going seven shutouts innings to earn his second career victory...It was the longest start of his career; the second time he has gone 5-plus innings without giving up a run; and his third quality start of the season... Junior Sam Robinson pitched a perfect eighth, and has yet to give up a run on the season...Daniel Miranda came in and pitched a bumpy ninth, allowing his first run of the season, before closing the door on the Hokies...Freshman Dale Carey made a diving catch in the top of the ninth inning to rob shortstop Tim Smalling of a potential extra-base hit...The hit would have brought the tying run to the plate with nobody out...Carey was inserted into the game in the bottom of the eighth as a pinch-runner and later on Stephen Perez's RBI double...He stayed in the game as the right fielder, where he proceeded to make his clutch play...Sophomore right-hander E.J. Encinosa threw 96 pitches in eight and two-thirds innings of work. Encinosa earned his first win of the season and now stands at 1-2...On Saturday, Harold Martinez and Brad Fieger swapped positions at the corners Friday night and were back at the positions tonight...It's Fieger's second career start at third and Martinez's second start of the season at first...Martinez played 10 games at first base during the 2009 season...Harold Martinez recorded two singles in tonight for his second multi-hit game this season...Southpaw hurler Sam Robinson earned his second save of the season, throwing only two pitches to seal Miami's 2-1 win over Virginia Tech...Sam Robinson made his 10 appearances to date, including a string of the last six of eight contests this month...Sunday's 11 runs scored was the highest runs production for the Hurricanes all season. The previous high was 10 against Appalachian State in the series finale on February 26...Sunday's Starters — Six of today's starters collected hits, while all nine starters reached base safely. Harold Martinez posted multiple hits for the second time in as many games (third time this year), knocking in a season-high four RBI...Nathan Melendres registered a season-high three hits, adding a RBI and scoring twice...Rony Rodriguez and Stephen Perez both tallied multiple RBI in the series finale...Sophomore right-hander Eric Whaley had another solid production in his fourth start of the year...Whaley went seven innings on the hill, spreading out three hits with no runs, no walks and striking out eight batters...Whaley has a team second-best 23 strikeouts on the year...Scoring 11 runs on nine hits meant Miami scored runs with guys on base, moving them over with bunts and driving them in with timely hits...Miami began the game with three consecutive bunt singles...UMiami has tallied five-plus hits in each of the last six games, including 14 against Illinois State (March 8)...The Canes showed great plate awareness on Sunday, drawing 10 walks from six Virginia Tech pitchers...The 10 walks taken was a season-high for UM.

Catch Me If "U" Can...

This year's UMiami team is full of speed from all areas of the lineup, and through 33 games, it is quite prevalent. Head coach Jim Morris has preached aggressive base running throughout his illustrious career, with the Canes swiping 56-of-71 bases this season. Zeke DeVoss leads the way with an ACC-best 21 steals, followed by Nathan Melendres (9) and Stephen Perez (6).

Miami Jumps 12 Spots in Latest NCAA RPI Rankings...

Sitting at No. 37 just a week ago in the RPI standings, the University of Miami made a giant leap 12 spots this week to No. 25. In all, seven (7) Atlantic Coast Conference teams are ranked in the Top 50 of the latest NCAA RPI rankings.

The First Father/Son Duo...

Freshman catcher Shane Rowland has stepped right into the UMiami starting lineup and taken charge. He belted his first home run over the weekend against Appalachian State. The Tampa native is the son of former UMiami second baseman and current international scout for the New York Yankees, Donny Rowland. They are the first father/son duo to ever play baseball at the "U".

Miami Predicted to Finish Third In Coastal Division...

Miami baseball has been predicted to finish third in the Coastal Division of the Atlantic Coast Conference Coaches Preseason Poll. The poll is voted on by the league's 12 head coaches. Capturing a 20-10 league record in 2010, the Hurricanes finished the year third in the Coastal Division behind Virginia and Georgia Tech, respectively. Miami posted a 43-20 overall record en route to claiming the NCAA Coral Gables Regional title, and advancing to the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional.

Top-Ranked Gators Bite Back in Tough Gainesville Series...

Sophomore E.J. Encinosa came into Gainesville and pitched the game of his life...Facing the number one team in the country on the road, Encinosa went 7+ innings, allowing just five hits and one run to go along with three K's...Encinosa was the tough luck loser, as the Canes were unable to push a run across...Sam Abrams, a walk-on, saw his first action of the season when he came in the game in the bottom of the fourth after relieving freshman Bryan Radziewski...Abrams went 3 2/3 innings without giving up a run, giving a Miami a chance to claw their way back into the game...Dale Carey was the only man to reach base for the Hurricanes in game two of the series, as reached twice with a hit and hit by pitch...He also stole his first base of the season, but no 'Cane was able to drive him home...Despite the 'Canes struggles offensively, Shane Rowland quietly had himself a nice series against the Gators...Although just batting at a .222 average, Rowland posted an impressive .400 on base percentage, and had one of the six RBI's for the Hurricanes... Yet again, Sam Robinson pitched brilliantly out of the 'pen...In 2 2/3 innings, Robinson did not yield a run, while giving up three hits...On the season, he has not allowed a run in 7.2 innings pitched, and those three hits are the only three hits he's allowed...As the rest of the Hurricanes struggle to find their groove at the plate, Rony Rodriguez has been the only Canes player to hit with consistency... Through the first eleven games, he leads the team in batting average with a .286 mark, slugging percentage with a .536 mark, and doubles, with 4.

Encinosa Has a Career Day in Gainesville...

Sophomore starting pitcher E.J. Encinosa went a career-long seven innings against top-ranked Florida (March 5). In a 1-0 loss to the Gators, Encinosa allowed just the one run on five hits and struckout three in a pitchers' duel with UF's Hudson Randall. Though not giving up the game-winning hit, Encinosa walked the first batter he faced in the eighth frame before being relieved out of the bullpen.

The 40-40 Club in Miami...

Once again, the Hurricanes achieved a 40-win season, finishing 43-20 and a spot in the NCAA Super Regional. All-time at UMiami, the 'Canes have achieved at least 40 wins 32 seasons – including 13 times under Jim Morris. In fact, UM has claimed 50-plus wins 19 times in school history, and 60-plus wins on three occasions. Miami posted at least 40 wins from 1973-1986, marking one of the longest streaks in NCAA history with a school collected 40 or more wins in consecutive years.

Miami Defeats Appalachian in Three-Game Home Affair...

Brad Fieger had a career series against Appalachian State, going 6-13 for in the series, scoring three runs and doubling in the Canes series win...Sophomore Stephen Perez went 5-11, but slugged a robust .818 with nine total bases, as he doubled twice and tripled...In the rubber match of the three game set, Eric Whaley pitched seven innings of shutout ball with nine strikeouts to lead the Canes to a much needed 10-0 win...It was Whaley's second win of the season, and dropped is ERA to 2.13...Joey Porro, who was the student-manager for the Hurricanes last year, made his first career start on Sunday as he started at second base...He singled twice and drove in three runs for his first career hits and RBI...The Miami offense, which had struggled through the first part of the season, woke up on Sunday, when the Canes banged out a season-high 10 runs on 10 hits...They scored all their runs in three different innings, as they put up three in the fourth and eighth innings, and four in the sixth...The UMiami bullpen pitched brilliantly during the series, allowing just two earned runs over 8 2/3 innings during the series...Adam Sargent and Daniel Miranda each appeared in two games and allowed zero runs, while Miranda had a save in the first game of the series...Freshman catcher Shane Rowland, who had made his first career start against Rutgers on a Sunday, started all three games over the course of the weekend...Rowland took over for David Villasuso, who recorded one start at DH.

Miami in the ACC...

The 2011 season marks the seventh season the Canes have played in the Atlantic Coast Conference, and last year's 20-10 regular season mark in league play was the program's second-best behind the 2008 ACC championship squad that won 23 regular season league games.

* coaches used different point system

Three catchers will be battling for playing time behind the plate this year, including junior David Villasuso. A season ago, Villasuso batted .245 with 20 RBI and five home runs while serving as a backup to MLB First Round Draft selection and 2010 ACC Player of the Year, Yasmani Grandal.

Others battling for playing time this season will be freshmen Corey Janson and Shane Rowland. After the fall season, Villasuso will probably make the start to begin the season, but don't be surprised if and when Rowland takes the spot behind the dish with improved confidence and skill.

Canes Start the 2011 Campaign with Series Win Over Rutgers...

The Canes trotted out Brad Fieger at first, Michael Broad at second, Stephen Perez at short, Harold Martinez at third and David Villasuso for the opening game...In the outfield, Nathan Melendres played center, while he was flanked by Zeke DeVoss in left and Chantz Mack in right...Bryan Radziewski started on the hill...Freshman infielder Brad Fieger started all three games at first base for the Canes in the season-opening series, the only freshman position player to start on Opening Day this season for Miami...Freshman hurler Bryan Radziewski became the first rookie starter in more than 18 years to pitch on Opening Night for the Miami Hurricanes...Zeke DeVoss started off the season hot, as he started in the leadoff slot for each of the opening series games against the Scarlet Knights...He posted a .533 on base percentage, a .727 slugging percentage, and scored two runs in the three game set...Bryan Radziewski became just the latest Hurricane starter to hurl a gem on opening night...With Radziewski's line of one run allowed in six innings while striking out eight, he became the fifth straight opening day starter to go at least five innings and give up just one run or less...Projected eighth and ninth inning men Sam Robinson and Daniel Miranda started the season off in style, as they both appeared in two games and gave up zero runs. Combined, they went 6 1/3 innings while striking out 9 and giving up just two hits and one walk... With the 'Canes 5-3 win on Sunday, Miami won their opening weekend series for the third consecutive season...They beat Rutgers two out of three last season, and swept Cincinnati in the 2008 campaign.

Fresh Faces In the Dugout...

This season, head coach Jim Morris has one of his youngest teams in recent memory. UMiami has 13 newcomers on this year's roster (12 freshman

ALEX RODRIGUEZ PARK INFORMATION

Renovations to Alex Rodriguez Park are thanks in large part to a $3.9 million contribution by New York Yankees third baseman and 11-time MLB All-Star Alex Rodriguez. The gift - the largest ever to the University of Miami baseball program - has assisted the program in continuing to develop first-class facilities. The official announcement of his gift was made on Oct. 10, 2002.

Alex Rodriguez Park has taken form in a three-phase process:

- Phase I called for seating modifications, new dugouts, new stadium lighting and utility infrastructure and new rest rooms.
- Phase II entailed renovating below the grand stand area in addition to adding new concession areas.
- The final phase included adding a new clubhouse, weight room, training room, meeting room, video room and academic area. In addition, a new press box – along with four VIP suites – have been built atop the grandstand. This past offseason, addition seating was added down both lines while a new scoreboard was constructed in left field.

In 1971, former Miami Coach Ron Fraser had a dream of building a state-of-the-art college baseball field and Hurricane supporter George Light came forward with the funding. The field, dedicated in 1977, is named for Light's son, Mark, who died of muscular dystrophy.

and one sophomore transfer). The 'Canes lost 2010 ACC Player of the Year, Yasmani Grandal, to the MLB Draft—Grandal was selected 12th overall in the Draft.

Canes In the Classroom...

During the fall semester of 2010, the University of Miami baseball team recorded its highest team GPA ever. Freshman catcher Corey Janson collected a 4.0 GPA last semester, giving him one of the highest GPAs in the entire UMiami Athletic Department.

Rookie Gets the Ball...

In starting the season-opener against Rutgers, freshman pitcher Bryan Radziewski became the first Hurricanes rookie hurler to start an opening night game in the 18-year tenure under head coach Jim Morris. Radziewski, a Florida Christian School alum, was named the Florida Class 1-4A Player of the Year in 2010 as a senior in high school.

You've Gotta Start Somewhere...

Sophomore Joey Porro made his first collegiate start (second base) on Feb. 26 against Appalachian State; followed by another start against Illinois State (shortstop) on March 9. Porro was a student-manager for UM in 2010, only to earn two starts and post a .286 average with two hits, three runs driven in and one score thus far in 2011.

Join the Discussion...

One of the new features to the UMiami baseball game day experience this season is a live chat through Cover It Live, where fans can interact with members of the Hurricanes' Sports Media Relations Office and other fans, getting an in-depth look at the action and analysis of the games. Join the discussion at HurricaneSports.com.

Hurricanes On the Net...

University of Miami baseball games this season will be broadcast live on HurricaneSports.com with video webcasts for every home game, courtesy of Hurricanes All-Access. All road games will feature a live audio broadcast through WVUM—the student voice of all things UMiami.

Live Stats...

Live stats for all home games and most road games will be available on HurricaneSports.com to both media and fans. Click the GameTracker logo on the website to see play-by-play, player/team stats and much more.

Follow the "U" on Twitter...

Follow the Hurricanes all season long on the official Twitter feed of Miami Hurricanes baseball – www.Twitter.com/@CanesBaseball; in addition to Coach Morris' official twitter at www.Twitter.com/@Coach3morris.

TheUBaseball Blog...

The University of Miami baseball team has its very own blog dedicated to giving fans the freshest and most up-to-date information, featuring behind-the-scenes videos, press conferences and photo sets about the Hurricanes from an inside point of view. To view the website, simply visit TheUBaseball.com.

Sacrifice Yourself...

Under head coach Jim Morris, the Hurricanes have always believed in "team" play, and sacrifice hits have always been a part of that philosophy, dating back to the Ron Fraser days at UMiami. This season, Miami has four players with multiple sac bunts/fliers.

Jerseys On the Wall...

At UNC, they have jerseys in the rafters honoring the retired numbers/jerseys in basketball. For UMiami baseball, they have the numbers on the outfield wall. The names and numbers of retired jerseys are few, but they are known nationally around the collegiate baseball community and beyond.

Up Next for the Canes...

The Hurricanes will have little time to rest before traveling to No. 10 North Carolina for a three-game series on Friday, April 22, with the first pitch set for 7 p.m. All three games will be televised by CSS.
