THE SERIES

La Salle leads the all-time series 9-4, with all 13 meetings coming between 1951 and 1970. Complete series information can be found on page 3.

LAST TIME OUT

Senior Ramon Galloway, the Atlantic 10's top scorer, connected on six three-pointers on his way to a game-high 22 points as La Salle defeated Siena, 80-52, on Saturday night at the Times Union Center. Junior Tyreek Duren had 13 points while sophomore D.J. Peterson scored a career-high 11 for the Explorers, who continued their best start at 9-2 since the 1989-90 season. "I thought that was the best game we've played," head coach Dr. John Giannini said. "The reason I say that is that we were very good defensively and offensively, the numbers show that. It was just one of the nights where we started making three's and our effort was at a high level. I thought we played terrific."

Dr. John Giannini enters his ninth season as head coach at La Salle University in 2012-13 coming off a NIT berth and 21-win season a year ago.

Giannini is La Salle's all-time winningest coach in Atlantic 10 play and has produced the program's only winning A-10 records since joining the league in 1995-96. He is also the winningest coach in the University of Maine's history. When he left Rowan University, Giannini was the winningest active NCAA Division III head coach.

He was introduced as the 18th head coach in the history of Explorer men's basketball on August 23, 2004. The late-summer appointment made recruiting efforts impossible, leaving Giannini with a team consisting of only a handful of available scholarship players for most of the season.

Giannini quickly turned La Salle into a conference contender as two years later in 2005-06, the Explorers posted their most wins (18) in 14 years and a third place finish in the Atlantic 10 Conference, the school's highest showing since it joined the league for the 1995-96 season.

The 18-10 finish set records for most Atlantic 10 wins in a season (10), most Atlantic 10 road wins in a single season (four) and delivered a winning season to the La Salle community for the first time since the 1992-93 season. For his efforts, Giannini was named a Jim Phelan Award candidate for National Coach of the Year.

Giannini followed that impressive performance by recruiting one of the deepest and most highly-regarded incoming classes which included five freshmen who would have an immediate impact on the program. The Explorers experienced growing pains as five of the top seven players in the 2006-07 rotation were freshman. That group meshed together in 2008-09, winning 18 games and finishing in the top half of the Atlantic 10 for the third time in four seasons.

La Salle entered 2009-10 with high expectations, including a preseason fourth pick in the Atlantic 10 coaches poll, but injuries decimated the roster. Seniors Ruben Guillaudeau, Kimmani Barrett and Yves Mekongo missed a combined 46 games and the Explorers near 3,000 points on the bench were the most sidelined in the nation at one time.

In 2011-12, Giannini led the Explorers to a 21-win season and a trip to the NIT First Round, the first postseason appearance for the program in 20 years. The 21 wins were also the most since 1990.

Jerrell Wright became the fifth Explorer in the past six seasons to receive A-10 All-Rookie recognition in 2011-12, making La Salle the only team in the conference to have as many representatives during that time span.

Seven Explorers have earned All-Atlantic 10 recognition during Giannini's tenure, including two-time A-10 Player of the Year Steven Smith, one of four players in the 33-year history of the league to win the award multiple times. In addition, six players have been NABC All-District selections.

TWITTER LOVE

"Got bored tonight so watched some tape of La Salle's Ramon Galloway and Tyreek Duren. That might be most unsung backcourt in the country." - @franfrschilla

BEST KEPT SECRET

Jon Rothstein of CBS New York listed his 10 best kept secrets in college basketball and Tyreek Duren made the list. "Philadelphia has been the home of many great lead guards and Duren's game mirrors the city in which he plays. Tough, savvy, and incredibly cerebral, the junior point guard plays his best when it matters most..."

CAREER NIGHT

Tyreek Duren had a career-high 29 points in the 82-57 win over Penn State on December 5.. He shot 9-for-13 from the floor and 4-for-7 from three-point range.

A-10 AND BIG 5 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Tyreek Duren was named the Atlantic 10 and Big 5 Player of the Week on December 10 after averaging 20.5 ppg. in two La Salle wins. He also hit the game-winner with 1.2 seconds left in a 66-64 win at Northeastern on Saturday. It is the second time in three weeks he won the Big 5 honor.

MR. CLUTCH

Tyreek Duren has proved to be clutch through the first month of the season. He hit a game-tying three-pointer with seven seconds left in regulation to tie the game versus Villanova and his lay-up with 18 seconds gave the Explorers the lead and the win. At Northeastern, he hit a fadeaway with 1.2 seconds left to propel La Salle to a 66-64 win

SHOOTING THE THREE

La Salle made 16 three-pointers vs. Penn State, the most since the turn of the century and just two shy of tying a school record set on December 31, 1990 vs. Loyola Marymount and then again on December 28, 1991 vs. Oregon.

IN GOOD HANDS

La Salle coughed up a season-low four turnovers vs. Penn State, the least allowed during head coach Dr. John Giannini's tenure.

DOMINANT DECEMBER

La Salle is 11-2 in December in the last two seasons.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

La Salle has held non-conference opponents under 53 points in wins at Hartford, Rider and Siena. It marks the eighth, ninth and tenth times that La Salle has held an opponent under 55 since the beginning of the 2011-12 season, which is as many as the previous eight years combined. La Salle is 10-0 when holding opponents under 55.

MAN OF STEAL

Ramon Galloway ranks fourth in the Atlantic 10 in steals per game (2.5 spg.) and is 21st nationally.

SCORING BACKCOURT

Tyreek Duren and Ramon Galloway form one of the best backcourt duos in the Atlantic 10. They are one of two guard teammates to rank in the top 10 in the A-10 in scoring, joining Saint Joseph's guards Carl Jones and Langston Galloway.

DUREN BIG 5 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Tyreek Duren was named the Philadelphia Big 5 Player of the Week, it was announced on Nov. 26. Duren averaged 19.0 ppg. in a pair of Explorer wins last week, including a 77-74 overtime victory over Villanova. Against the Wildcats, Duren scored 19 of his 23 points after halftime. His three-pointer with seven seconds remaining in regulation tied the game at 67-67. In overtime, his lay-up with 18 seconds left gave La Salle its first lead since late in the first half. His 23 points against Nova were one short of a career-high set last year against the Wildcats.

WHAT A HOMECOMING

Redshirt freshman Rohan Brown made quite an impression in his first game back playing in his hometown of Hartford. Brown had a double-double with a career-high 10 points and 12 rebounds. "Our vision for him was to rebound like a big guy but to be able to pass and be a good decision maker like a guard. He's the only guy in our program like that. He brings the physical toughness of a big guy and the decision-making and low turnovers of a guard." - Head coach Dr. John Giannini

SAM I AM

Sam Mills is second in the Atlantic 10 in minutes per game (37.5) and is 17th nationally according to statsheet.com. He averaged 35.5 mpg. last season, a team-best, and the fifth best in the league. Tyreek Duren is eighth in the A-10 in minutes per game (35.2).

#700

Head coach Dr. John Giannini coached his 700th game on December 8 at Northeastern.

SOMETHING ABOUT CCSU

Jerrell Wright had a game-high 18 points and career-best four assists in a 81-74 loss to Central Connecticut State on Nov. 18. He posted his career-high of 21 points vs. CCSU last season.

STUKES SIGNS NLI

Amar Stukes (Philadelphia, Pa. / La Salle College HS) has signed a National Letter of Intent to play men's basketball at La Salle University, head coach Dr. John Giannini announced today. Stukes will join the Explorers for the 2013-14 season. "I like everything about Amar Stukes as a person and as a player," Giannini said. "On the court he is a highly intelligent and unselfish playmaker. He is also a long, quick, and committed defender. "As a person, he will represent us with great character. I feel he will be a cornerstone player who we can depend upon and build around in future years." Stukes (6-1, 165), a first team All-Catholic League selection as a junior, averaged 13.4 ppg. last season. The team captain was also a third team All-Catholic League pick as a sophomore.

QUOTE BOARD

"We expect that from Tyreek and we'll continue to expect that from him," head coach Dr. John Giannini said. "He's a wonderful player and one of the best guards in America. We like our guards as a group against anyone. We think they're that good." - on Tyreek Duren's 29 points after the Penn State game.

ZACK ATTACK

Sophomore center had a breakout game in the season opener vs. Delaware, scoring a career-high 19 points in a career-best 38 minutes vs. Delaware. He tied a career-high with eight rebounds, drawing a tweet from ESPN's Fran Fraschilla "Who's jumping on Steve Zack bandwagon yet? 6'11" La Salle sophomore had 19 in win over Delaware. Averaged 1.4 last yr but staff loves him." Zack had a career-high 14 rebounds in 42 minutes vs. Villanova.

THAT'S WHY THEY ARE FREE

La Salle shot 23-for-25 (92%) from the foul line vs. Delaware, the best mark by the Explorers since making 14-of-15 (93.3%) vs. UMass on February 19, 2005.

PROTECT THE ROCK

La Salle committed only four turnovers vs. Penn State, the lowest since at least the 2001-02 season. The Explorers were 6-1 last season when committing single-digit turnovers and are 9-1 this season when committing less turnovers than their opponent.

BEST BACKCOURT?

College Chalk Talk ranked the Explorers as having the best backcourt in the Atlantic 10. "La Salle has the best three guard trio in the league in Tyreek Duren, Sam Mills and Ramon Galloway. If the criteria were just two guards then SJU would be our pick, but it isn't here. La Salle's guards are legit. And that's not even including Virginia Tech transfer Tyrone Garland, who's eligible at the mid-year." CCT also named Garland as the league's top transfer (along with Jake O'Brien of Temple).

ROOKIE BIG MEN IN A-10

Jerrell Wright was one of three freshman A-10 big men to start on a NCAA or NIT team last season joining Chris Wright (Dayton) and Lavoy Allen (Temple). (Since 2000).

S.I. SAYS WRIGHT READY FOR BREAKOUT

Sports Illustrated writer Luke Winn wrote that Jerrell Wright is the #3 sophomore nationally to be ready for a breakout second campaign. Using a formula that only evaluates returning freshman who played 20 minutes per game or less that used at least 24% of possessions. Wright averaged 9.8 ppg. in 19.8 mpg. while being used in 26.5% of possessions. "According to kenpom.com's similarity scores, the player whose freshman season Wright's most closely matched was J.J. Hickson's 2008 at NC State -- and Hickson jumped to the NBA straight after that. Wright has real star potential in the Atlantic 10."

COACH'S CORNER

Head Coach Dr. John Giannini is in his ninth season, the second longest tenure by an Explorer coach since Speedy Morris coached for 15 years from 1986-2001. Giannini is also fourth all-time at La Salle in wins.

Speedy Morris	238	1986-01
Ken Loeffler	145	1949-55
Paul Westhead	142	1970-79
Dr. John Giannini	128	2004-

IN GOOD COMPANY

Junior Tyreek Duren has the most assists by an Explorer after his first two seasons since future NBA guard Doug Overton had 335 from 1987-89. Duren had 281 assists entering the 2012-13 season.

SUMMER TUTOR

Tyreek Duren has spent the past two summers working with NBA All-Star and former Saint Joseph's great Jameer Nelson.

21 WIN MARK IN 2011-12

La Salle's 21 wins in 2011-12 were the most since the 1989-90 team won 30 games (30-2). The Explorers had reached 18 wins two times previously under Dr. John Giannini.

UNIQUE PATH TO 20TH AND OLNEY

Redshirt senior Garvin Hunt has taken a unique path to La Salle this season. He enrolled at Penn in 2008-09 and played one season of basketball. Following that season, he stopped playing but remained at UP to finish his degree in architecture and graduated in May, 2012 with a 3.2 GPA. Looking to pursue a master's and return to basketball, he reached out to coach John Giannini and enrolled over the summer. He is in his final year of eligibility and is in the MBA program at La Salle.

TOP DUNKER BY ESPN

Senior Ramon Galloway was named one of the nation's top dunkers by ESPN.com's Myron Medcalf this summer. Galloway's dunk in the NIT First Round was a SportsCenter Top 10 play.

Sheehan walked onto the team for two seasons and is pursuing a master's in education.

COACH'S SON

ATLANTIC 10 TOURNAMENT TO BROOKLYN

Beginning in 2013, the Atlantic 10 Tournament will shift to Brooklyn, NY at the Barclays Center, home of the NBA's New Jersey Nets.

WHY ARE WE THE EXPLORERS?

La Salle University's nickname—the Explorers—was announced by the Collegian in March 1932 as the winning entry to a student contest. However, in the fall of 1931, a Baltimore sportswriter covering the La Salle/St. John's (Md.) football game erroneously alluded to La Salle as being named for the French explorer La Salle, not St. John Baptist de La Salle. Were the two events related? We'll never know for sure.

PHILADELPHIA BIG 5

The Explorers are a proud member of the Philadelphia Big 5, which is comprised of La Salle, Penn, Saint Joseph's, Temple and Villanova. The annual round-robin series is one of the great traditions in Philadelphia sports and college basketball.

Big 5 Schedule (1-0)

Nov. 25 vs. Villanova, W, 77-74, OT

Jan. 5 vs. Penn

Feb. 16 vs. Saint Joseph's (Palestra)

Feb. 22 at Temple

GIANNINI AUTHORS BOOK

Court Sense, written by Explorers head coach Dr. John Giannini, was released by Human Kinetics, the worldwide leader in publishing books on sports and fitness. HK's catalogue also features other titles from the likes of John Wooden, Pete Newell and others. The book has been released worldwide. The impetus for the book grew from a series of conversations Giannini had with Human Kinetics Vice President Ted Miller, about the poor performance of United States national teams in international competition and the general decline of fundamentals and team play. Notre Dame's Mike Brey wrote the foreword.

NEXT UP: PENN

La Salle will look to improve to 2-0 in the Big 5 when it hosts Penn on Saturday at 2 PM.

"Rohan greatly improved his strength and shooting during his redshirt year. He is unique in our program because of his mid-range size. With the guards we have, his greatest contribution could be as a big, perimeter defender who can help our rebounding. With low turnovers and high rebounding totals he could really help us." - head coach Dr. John Giannini
