

Acting as a student host is an important service to the University of Miami and the Miami Athletics department. As a representative of the athletic department, appropriate conduct is required of you based on guidelines defined by the University of Miami, the ACC Conference and the NCAA. It is your responsibility to know and abide by all guidelines that relate to the recruitment of a prospective student-athlete. You should notify your Head Coach or the Athletics Compliance Office immediately with questions or concerns that pertain to serving as a Student-Athlete Host. Please carefully review the following NCAA rules:

STUDENT-ATHLETE HOST: _____ SPORT: _____

PROSPECT NAME: _____ DATE OF VISIT: _____

 To be completed by student-athlete at the beginning of an official visit ***

- A. No cash may be given to the prospect or anyone else accompanying him/her on the visit.
- B. A maximum of $75 per day may be provided to the student host to cover the entertainment expenses of the host, multiple hosts, the prospect and/or the prospect's parents, legal guardians or spouse.
- This money may not be used to entertain other individuals e.g., sister, brother, coach or friend who accompany the prospect on the visit. The cost of meals and admission to campus athletics events is excluded from this allowance.
 - These funds may not be used to purchase or otherwise provide the prospect with gifts of value e.g., clothing, souvenirs or memorabilia items. A host may also be provided an additional $40 per day for each prospect entertained by the host.
- C. You may only use your own transportation. You may not use a vehicle that is provided or arranged for by any institutional staff member or booster of the athletics program. A coach can however, provide you and the prospect with a ride during the official visit. Never allow the prospect to operate or use your vehicle.
- D. You may not entertain or transport the prospect or anyone accompanying the prospect more than 30 miles from the University of Miami main campus. As a student host, you may not engage or allow the prospect to engage in the following activities at any time:
- Underage consumption of alcohol or other activities that violate federal, state or local law
 - Use of drugs or sex-related activities
 - Gambling or sport wagering activities.
 - Attending any adult entertainment establishments
- E. You should not allow recruiting contact or conversations to occur on or off campus between the prospect and a booster of the athletics program. (If incidental contact occurs, only an exchange of greetings is permissible.)
- F. Personalized recruiting aids of any kind are not permissible and should not be designed to influence a prospect while on an official visit. This includes any decorative items or special additions to any location a prospect will visit regardless of whether the items include the prospect's name or picture.
- G. The prospect may participate in physical workouts or other recreational activities provided such activities are not organized or observed by the coaching staff and are not designed to test the athletic abilities of the prospect. If there is a fee charged for the use of a facility, this fee must be paid by the prospect. In addition, it is not permissible for an institution to provide the prospect with apparel, shoes or gear in order to participate in such activities. (Exception: Men's Basketball Prospects who engage in an on-campus evaluation)
- H. You may receive a complimentary admission (not a hard ticket) when accompanying a prospect to a campus athletic event. In addition, a host may receive a complimentary meal when accompanying the prospect to the meal.

Do you own a vehicle to use during the official visit? Yes No

If no, whose vehicle will you use? _____

I certify that I have read and understand the above guidelines and hereby acknowledge the receipt of $_____ for the purpose of hosting the above-named prospect on said date(s). I have also referenced the student-athlete handbook for student-hosting guidelines.
