COMING UP

- The Hurricanes first road trip of the 2018 season will be to Guaynabo, Puerto Rico for the Puerto Rico Invitational.
- The Canes will face Towson on Aug. 31 and Missouri on Sept. 1 in their first trip to head coach Jose "Keno" Gandara's native country.
- The Puerto Rico Invitational is the first of two back-to-back road tournaments for the Canes.

COACHING MILESTONE

- Head coach Jose "Keno" Gandara won his 100th match at Miami after defeating FAU, 3-1, in the season opener.
- Gandara sits third on the all-time wins list in Miami volleyball history, and is just 15 wins behind Cheryl Holt (1978-81) for second place.

DOMINATING NEWCOMERS

- The Hurricanes welcome seven freshmen to the 2018 roster: Chloe Brown, Taylor Burrell, Emily Damon, Priscilla Hernandez, Maddie Naumann, Maya Sullivan and Sophie Walls.
- Miami also welcomes transfer Bridget Wallenberger to Coral Gables. The junior middle blocker enrolled at Miami in January after spending her first two seasons at Milwaukee.
- Of the seven, four produced quality work on the court for the Canes, with at least three freshmen starting every match.
- Brown led Miami with 19 kills in her debut match for the Canes and recorded 13 more in the 3-0 sweep of UCF to conclude the tournament.
- Damon has a team-leading 31 digs after three matches, including seven assists and three service aces.
- Wallenberger was hard to get past this weekend totaling 14 blocks.

INTERNATIONAL CANES

- Two of Miami's 15 players on the 2018 roster come from outside the United States: redshirt sophomore outside hitter Elizaveta Lukianova (Russia) and senior middle blocker Lucia Pampana (Italy).
- Damon has a team-leading 31 digs after three matches, including seven assists and three service aces.
- Damon has a team-leading 31 digs after three matches, including seven assists and three service aces.
- Wallenberger was hard to get past this weekend totaling 14 blocks.

HALEY'S SENIOR CAMPAIGN

- Haley Templeton enters her senior season after garnering her fourth-straight Preseason All-ACC Team selection.
- For the second-straight season, Templeton garnered Sunshine State Challenge All-Tournament Team recognition.
- Templeton controlled the offense with 111 assists, 11 kills and five service aces after the opening weekend.
- Templeton competed with the U.S. Collegiate National Team over the summer, participating in competition in Detroit and representing the U.S. in Croatia.
- The standout setter is a three-time All-ACC selection, most recently in 2017 she also was named AVCA All-America honorable mention and AVCA All-East Coast Region.
- Templeton was one of the best freshmen in the country in 2014, being named the ACC Freshman of the Year and the AVCA East Coast Region Freshman of the year.
- Templeton was also named to the 2014 ACC All-Freshman Team after winning five ACC Freshman of the Week awards.
- Templeton sits third in program history with 3,694 career assists, trailing Jill Robinson for second place by 1,243 assists.

TACKLING THE TIGERS

- The Canes will face two Tiger teams in Puerto Rico, including a first-time match up against Towson University of the Colonial Athletic Association and the third-ever match against SEC competition, Mizzou.
- Miami and the Mizzou Tigers' series is tied at one after Missouri evened the series in 2016 with a 3-1 win in Newark, Del.

COACHING STAFF

JOSE "KENO" GANDARA

Head Coach
Sixth Season
UC Santa Barbara, 1990

Jose "Keno" Gandara accepted the position of head volleyball coach at the University of Miami on March 20, 2013, becoming the second head coach since the program returned in 2001.

The Hurricanes returned the NCAA Championship in 2017 for the fourth time in five seasons under Gandara's leadership. Miami won its first postseason match since 2014, defeating the College of Charleston in the opening round of the tournament in a Gainesville, Fla. The Canes fell to No. 2 Florida in four sets in an exciting second round matchup to close the season 22-6 and finish with their best winning percentage since 2012.

Senior outside hitter Olga Strantzali was named ACC Player of the Year and AVCA East Coast Region Player of the Year. Strantzali was joined by redshirt junior setter Haley Templeton on the All-ACC First Team and AVCA All-East Coast Region team. Strantzali and Templeton topped off a memorable season with AVCA All-America Honorable Mention recognition. The Canes both started and finished the campaign strong, winning the first nine matches and the seven contests prior to falling to second-seeded Florida. Miami topped the ACC in service aces with 1.71 per set and finished the season in the top three of two additional categories – hitting percentage (second with .246) and kills (tied for third with 13.64 per set).

In 2016, Gandara led a resilient Miami squad that proved to rise to the occasion when it stepped into an opponent's gym. The 2016 Hurricanes won 11 matches away from Coral Gables, picking up big road wins at Notre Dame and Louisville. Junior outside hitter Olga Strantzali developed into one of the best players in the country, receiving AVCA All-America honorable mention and earned AVCA All-East Coast Region and First Team All-ACC honors. Strantzali and freshman setter Hannah Sorensen were named to the All-ACC Academic Team in recognition of their success on the court and in the classroom.

Gandara led the Hurricanes to three straight NCAA Tournaments in his first three seasons at the helm of the Miami volleyball program. The Canes were selected to the 2015 NCAA Tournament, where they faced Iowa State in a first round match in Madison, Wis. The Canes finished the season 21-10 and 14-6 in the ACC, while Miami's 21 wins marked the second consecutive 20-win season under Gandara's leadership. The Hurricanes saw seniors Alexis Mourning and Taylor Scott, as well as sophomores Olga Strantzali and Haley Templeton, named to the 2015 All-ACC Second Team with Strantzali and Templeton also earning AVCA All-East Coast Region Honorable Mention.

Miami reached the NCAA Tournament for the sixth consecutive season in 2014 and seventh time in program history. The Hurricanes, who finished the season 22-9, defeated UCF in five sets in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The victory was Gandara's first NCAA Tournament win as a head coach. Miami's 22 wins also gave Gandara his first 20-win season at the helm of the program.

The Canes reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament before falling to No. 8 Florida in four sets. But Gandara helped develop several players to reach unprecedented levels of success.

Senior outside hitter Savannah Leaf was named 2014 ACC Player of the Year and a second team AVCA All-American, while freshman Haley Templeton earned ACC Freshman of the Year honors. Leaf was joined by senior middle blocker Emani Sims on the All-ACC First Team, while Templeton was picked for the All-ACC Second Team and the All-ACC Freshman Team. The accolades continued for the trio as Leaf and Sims were named AVCA East Coast All-Region selections and Templeton was tabbed as the AVCA East Coast Region Freshman of the Year.

The 2013 season was filled with firsts for Gandara. He secured his first win as a NCAA head coach on Aug. 30, when Miami defeated Austin Peay, 3-1. Gandara collected his first home win when Miami beat LSU in five sets on Sept. 14. The first-year head coach tallied his first ACC win when the Canes defeated Boston College in five sets on Sept. 28. Gandara also guided the Canes to their fifth straight NCAA Tournament appearance and first under his tutelage.

The Hurricanes dropped their first round match against Oregon in three sets, but 2013 was still a successful first season under Gandara. Miami had four players earn All-ACC distinction, including Savannah Leaf and Emani Sims (first team), Alexis Mourning (second team) and Ryan Shaffer (third team). The Canes defeated No. 12 North Carolina at home and earned one of the coveted 64 spots in the NCAA Tournament.

Gandara came to Miami after spending eight years as an assistant at the University of Washington. He previously served as an assistant at UNLV and his alma mater, UC Santa Barbara.

Gandara is a highly-respected teacher who has played and coached at the top levels of college and professional volleyball. Keno assisted former Washington head coach Jim McLaughlin with all aspects of coaching, including opponent scouting and contributing to the Huskies' defensive package.

Gandara began his coaching career at UCSB in 1992 as an assistant with the men's team and was an assistant with the women's team in 1994. He also spent one season as a head coach/player with the San Juan Volleyball club in the Puerto Rico Professional League.

A San Juan, Puerto Rico, native, Gandara graduated from UC Santa Barbara in 1990 after a successful volleyball career with the Gauchos as a middle blocker. Gandara was a first team All-America selection in 1989 and second team selection in 1988 after leading UCSB to the national title match. He was also a two-time all-conference honoree. Gandara has also been inducted into the UCSB Hall of Fame. He also represented both the United States and Puerto Rico in international competition as a member of their respective national volleyball teams.

Gandara is married to Stephanie Cox who was a standout setter at UCSB and played on the AVP Tour. The couple welcomed their first child, a son named Lucas, in April 2011.
