UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

DR. JULIO FRENK UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT UNIVERSIDAD NACIONAL AUTÓNOMA DE MÉXICO, 1979

A fourth-generation physician whose paternal grandparents fled Germany in the early 1930s to build a new life in Mexico, Julio Frenk catalyzed his deep gratitude for the kindness of strangers into a lifelong mission to improve the health, education, and well-being of people around the world.

Dr. Frenk became the sixth president of the University of Miami in August of 2015. He also holds academic appointments as Professor of Public Health Sciences at the Leonard M. Miller School of Medicine and as Professor of Health Sector Management and Policy at the School of Business Administration.

Prior to joining the University of Miami, he was the dean of the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health and the T & G Angelopoulos Professor of Public Health and International Development, a joint appointment with the Harvard Kennedy School of Government.

Julio Frenk served as the Minister of Health of Mexico from 2000 to 2006. There he pursued an ambitious agenda to reform the nation's health system and introduced a program of comprehensive universal coverage, known as Seguro Popular, which expanded access to health care for more than 55 million previously uninsured Mexicans.

He was the founding director-general of the National Institute of Public Health in Mexico, one of the leading institutions of its kind in the developing world. He also served as executive director in charge of Evidence and Information for Policy at the World Health Organization and as senior fellow in the global health program of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, among other leadership positions.

Dr. Frenk holds a medical degree from the National University of Mexico, as well as a master of public health and a joint Ph.D. in Medical Care Organization and in Sociology from the University of Michigan. He has received honorary degrees from seven universities.

His scholarly production, which includes over 160 articles in academic journals, as well as many books and book chapters, has been cited more than 15,000 times. In addition, he has written three best-selling novels for youngsters explaining the functions of the human body.

He is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the U.S. National Academy of Medicine, and the National Academy of Medicine of Mexico. He serves on the boards of the United Nations Foundation and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. He has received numerous recognitions, including the Clinton Global Citizen Award for changing the way practitioners and policy makers across the world think about health, the Bouchet Medal for Outstanding Leadership presented by Yale University for promoting diversity in graduate education, and the Welch-Rose Award for Distinguished Service from the Association of Schools and Programs of Public Health.

DR. MARVIN DAWKINS FACULTY REPRESENTATIVE EDWARD WATERS, 1970

Dr. Marvin Dawkins, a distinguished professor in the Department of Sociology at the University of Miami, is in his seventh year as the Faculty Athletics Representative. He was named to the post in April 2012, replacing Clyde McCoy after his 17 years of service in that role.

In his FAR post, Dawkins is responsible for ensuring the academic integrity of students participating in University athletic programs and helping to oversee institutional control of the Department of Athletics. The Faculty Athletics Representative serves as a liaison between the University and the athletic department. This individual is the University's voting delegate to the ACC and represents UM with the NCAA and ACC.

Dawkins received his doctorate from Florida State and completed his postdoctoral research fellowships at Howard University and The Johns Hopkins University. He previously served on the faculties of the University of Maryland, Old Dominion University and the University of Wisconsin-Parkside.

His research focuses on issues of race and social equity in such areas as education, career aspirations and mobility, substance abuse prevention, and sports. He has published widely in these areas, including his most recent article titled "Race and Pathways to Power in the National Football League" (with Jomills H. Braddock and Erica Smith), which appears in American Behavioral Scientist (2012).

His research on golf includes book chapters, scholarly articles, and the book African American Golfers During the Jim Crow Era (Praeger 2000), coauthored with Graham C. Kinloch. Dawkins was recently appointed to the United States Golf Association Museum Committee and is currently completing a study on the media treatment of black golfers from the Jim Crow era to the present.

BLAKE JAMES DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS MINNESOTA STATE -MANKATO, 1992

Since taking over as the University of Miami's Director of Athletics in 2013, Blake James has transformed Miami Athletics, spearheading improvement in all aspects of the department, including postseason appearances, student-athlete support, facility upgrades, ticket sales and academic achievement.

Miami's recent success has garnered James and UM national recognition. In March 2017, James was selected as one of four Division I recipients of the 2016-17 Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year award, an honor given by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA). In June 2017, James began a two-year term as Chair of the NCAA Division I Council, the group responsible for the day-to-day decision-making for all of Division I.

James has placed a strong emphasis on academics during his fourplus years at Miami. In the most recent Graduation Success Rate figures released by the NCAA, Miami student-athletes posted a GSR mark of 90%. Ten Hurricane teams posted perfect 2015-16 scores on the latest Academic Progress Report (APR). In addition, Miami's football program received the 2016 AFCA Academic Achievement Award. In 2016, Hurricane student-athletes also ranked among the nation's best in time committed towards community service.

In the department's continuing efforts to better support student-athletes and coaches, the Hurricane Club -- the fundraising arm of Miami Athletics -- completed a record-setting year in 2016-17. The Hurricane Club raised $49 million, an all-time record and an increase of more than 80 percent from the previous record of $26.5 million, set in 2010-11. The Hurricane Club's membership of more than 11,000 members represents an over 100-percent jump from its membership of 5,140 in 2010.

Prior to the 2016 football season, James led the university's football coaching search which resulted in the hiring of Hurricane alum Mark Richt as the football program's new head coach. Richt paid immediate dividends in 2016 as the Hurricanes posted a 9-4 record, won their first bowl game in 10 years and finished ranked #20 in the final Associated Press poll, their first season-ending ranking since 2009.

During the 2015-16 academic year, Miami was the only school in NCAA Division I to have its football team play in a bowl game, its men's and women's basketball teams advance to the NCAA Tournament and its baseball team advance to the College World Series. Overall, Miami had 10 sports programs advance to postseason competition to secure its highest finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup standings in 13 years, an indication of broad-based athletic department success.

During James' tenure, Miami has completed several facility enhancements, including the opening of the Schwartz Center for Athletic Excellence; the completion of the student-athlete training table, fueling station and dining hall; new artificial and natural playing surfaces and lights on the Greentree Practice Fields' and a center-hung scoreboard inside the Watsco Center.

James has also led multiple, multi-million dollar capital renovation projects, including renovations of the Hecht Center and the men's and women's basketball offices. Over the past year, Miami Athletics has secured six leadership gifts of seven figures-or-more, including the largest donation in department history – a $14 million gift from the Soffer Family, which will serve as the lead gift for the Hurricanes' $34 million Carol Soffer Football Indoor Practice Facility, which broke ground this year.

Ticket sales are also at an all-time high. In 2016, Miami sold a schoolrecord 42,000 football season tickets and ranked first among Power 5 programs in attendance percentage increase (23 percent) over 2015 attendance. The Hurricanes have also sold out their men's basketball season tickets in back-to-back seasons for the first time ever.

In addition, Miami has transformed its broadcast, communications and marketing departments into one of the nation's leaders in digital media and video production. In 2016, Miami aired more live events on ESPN3 than any other ACC institution. James was also instrumental in helping Miami strike one of the largest apparel deals in the country with adidas.

Prior to being named AD, James served Miami Athletics in the roles of Interim AD and Senior Associate AD for Development and Ticket Operations, where he oversaw the day-to-day operations of development, ticket sales and ticket operations. He also was a member of the Hurricanes' senior staff and provided sport supervision.

James came to UM after spending seven years at the University of Maine, where he first served as Senior Associate Athletic Director before serving as Director of Athletics from 2005 to 2010. During his tenure at Maine, athletics experienced tremendous success, including three trips to the Frozen Four for the men's ice hockey program and NCAA playoff berths for football, baseball (two), women's basketball and softball. James implemented a comprehensive $17 million facility improvement plan at Maine, which included an indoor practice facility and numerous other facility upgrades and renovations. Academically, the program flourished, earning the conference academic cup twice and student-athletes maintaining a 3.0 GPA or above.

Prior to his stint at Maine, James worked in athletic development at Providence College, where he established the "Friars Forever" campaign and the Friar Athletic Fund.

James is no stranger to South Florida, beginning his athletic career with the University of Miami, working in ticket sales, corporate sales and athletic development. In 1995, he was hired as Miami's Director of Ticket Sales, serving in that capacity until 1997, when he was named an athletic development officer at the University of Nebraska. He returned to Miami in 1998 as the Director of Major Gifts and Corporate Sales and was promoted to the Director of Athletic Development at Miami in 2000 before moving on to Providence in 2002.

James graduated from Minnesota State University - Mankato with a Bachelor's degree in Marketing in 1992 and later received his Master's degree in Sports Administration from St. Thomas University in 1994. He and his wife, Kelly, have two children: daughter, Haley, and son, Ryan.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

INTRODUCTION

JENNIFER STRAWLEY DEPUTY AD / CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER PENNSYLVANIA, 1998

Jennifer Strawley joined the University of Miami on June 18, 2012 and currently serves as Deputy Director of Athletics and Senior Women's Administrator.

As a member of the department's executive leadership team, Strawley provides strategic direction for the department and assists the Athletic Director with the day-to-day operations. She is the sport administrator for football, women's basketball and women's tennis. She leads the department's strategic planning initiatives, policy development and implementation, coordination of department and coaches meetings and gender equity and inclusion initiatives. Strawley oversees the areas of sports medicine, student-athlete drug testing, academic services, compliance, student-athlete development, and serves as a liaison to various campus groups, as well as to the ACC and the NCAA.

Strawley played a key role in the hiring of head football coach Mark Richt, serving on the selection committee. In addition, she was instrumental in the development of Miami's Celebration of Women's Athletics and spearheaded the Department's "It's on Us Campaign."

Actively engaged in intercollegiate athletics nationally, Strawley has served on various committees within the NCAA and the ACC. Strawley currently serves on the ACC Television Committee, the ACC Women's Basketball foresight committee, the ACC Equity Committee, the ACC Women's Tennis Committee, the ACC Infractions and Sportsmanship Review Committee, the ACC Football Schedulers Group, the NCAA Division I Council Football Recruiting Ad Hoc Working Group and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Oversight Advancement Committee.

Prior to UM, Strawley concluded her second tour with the NCAA as the Director of Academic and Membership Affairs. In this role, Strawley was instrumental in providing leadership in the areas of academic governance and development of academic policy. She was the staff liaison to the NCAA Division I Committee on Academic Performance and the NCAA Division I Academic Cabinet. Strawley served on the senior management team and was involved in a variety of other internal operations, including coordinating the internal operations for the department's senior management team.

Strawley rejoined the NCAA after serving as the Associate Athletics Director for Intercollegiate Sport Programs and Senior Woman Administrator at Columbia University from 2007-10. While at Columbia, she oversaw numerous varsity sport programs including football and was the athletics program liaison for gender equity and diversity initiatives. Strawley was a member of the department's Executive Management Team.

Prior to her tenure at Columbia, Strawley was the Director of Membership Services and Student-Athlete Reinstatement at the NCAA. In this role, she provided oversight of the student-athlete reinstatement process and was instrumental in the implementation of the student first philosophy. Strawley served as a liaison to numerous NCAA committees and task forces, including the NCAA Divisions I, II and III Student-Athlete Reinstatement Committees, the NCAA Olympic Sports Liaison Committee, and the working group appointed to review trends in initial eligibility.

Strawley first joined the NCAA in 1998 as an enforcement services intern. She is a 1998 graduate of the University of Pennsylvania where she earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in history. During her time at Pennsylvania, she was a two-year captain for the Quakers' softball team. Strawley was inducted into the William Tennent High School Athletics Hall of Fame in January of 2014.

JASON LAYTON DEPUTY AD / CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER SAINT LEO, 1999

Jason Layton serves as the University of Miami Deputy Director of Athletics and Chief Financial Officer, a position he took over in August 2017. He initially joined Miami in December 2014 as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Communications and Sales.

In his current position, Layton is responsible for managing the department's business office, marketing, digital strategies, communications, ticket sales, ticket operations, client experience, video production and broadcast departments.

Additionally, Layton has oversight of all departmental licensing matters, Hurricane Sports Properties, serves as the department ACC Network liaison and is the sport administrator for men's basketball.

Since his arrival, Miami has seen exceptional growth in ticket sales and video production services in both content and broadcast with ESPN and the newly formed ACC Network.

Under his watch, Miami has seen an increased level of season ticket sales in football and men's basketball. Under Layton's guidance, Miami saw an unprecedented growth in football attendance during the 2016 season, as the Hurricanes totaled 42,000 season ticket holders and averaged 58,572 fans per game – the 27th-highest total in the nation and leader among all Power Five schools in percentage increase on a year-to-year basis (23 percent).

In addition, Miami sold out its entire 2015-16 and 2016-17 men's basketball season ticket allotment, marking the first time in Hurricane Athletics history that a team has sold out its entire season ticket allotment in back-to-back seasons.

Layton also serves as the primary contact for ESPN with the recent launch of the ACC Network, first in digital format in August 2016 and building to the linear network in fall of 2019. Since 2015, Miami has produced over 200 live events on ESPN3/ACC Network Extra – a figure that ranks near the top of all ACC schools.

Layton, a Florida native, arrived in Miami after spending the 2013 and 2014 seasons at Colorado State University where he served as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Sales and Marketing. During his time in Fort Collins, Colo., Layton's ticket sales plans drove double-digit increases in football, volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball revenue and tickets sold.

Before his arrival at Colorado State, Layton spent 13 years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In his 13 years with the club, he handled a variety of responsibilities from sales, marketing, ticketing and luxury suite operations to advertising, accounting, finance and purchasing. Layton began his career with the Buccaneers as a customer service representative in 1999 before elevating to the role of Senior Director of Business Administration in 2011. Layton received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Saint Leo University in Saint Leo, Fla.

David Wyman has empowered over 2,000 student-athletes with his signature creed. Now in his 23rd year, Wyman has advised and mentored a diverse population of student-athletes to become skilled professionals in many different careers.

Wyman is the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Academic Services at the University of Miami, a position he was promoted to in August 2017. Wyman is also the sport administrator for Miami's volleyball program.

He began his own career as an intern, and was quickly promoted to the full-time staff after working just two months in the academic services division. Wyman became the assistant director two years later, supervising the tutorial program and advising both the football and men's basketball teams. He was then promoted to associate director, taking on the responsibility of coordinating the NCAA eligibility certification for all 400 student-athletes.

Since 2004, Wyman has managed the Division of Athletic Academic Services, currently leading a staff of eight full-time professionals. Under his leadership, the department and sport programs have gained national recognition and honors for continued growth in both academic progress rates (APR) and graduation success.

A 2016 inductee to the Iron Arrow Society, Wyman has helped guide the football team to a pair AFCA Academic Achievement Awards for graduating 100 percent of student-athletes in the freshman classes of 2002 and 2009.

Wyman is a 1994 graduate of Florida A&M with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University in 1995. Born in Staten Island, N.Y., he is married to Jewyll, and the couple has three daughters: Rebecca, Dominique and Sarah. Wyman has been a Big Brother in the Miami-Dade Big Brother/ Big Sister Organization and is also a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, The National Leadership Honor Society and the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics.

JOSH BOONE SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD BUSINESS OPERATIONS ELON, 1995

After a pair of promotions, Joshua Boone now serves as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Business Operations at the University of Miami. Boone was hired in July 2012 as the Assistant AD for Business Operations, was elevated to Associate AD in March 2014 and took on his new title in August 2017.

In addition to his role within the business office, Boone is also the sport administrator for Miami's swimming and diving programs.

Boone, who spent the previous nine years working for the University of North Carolina, was promoted to associate director of business operations with the Tar Heels in November 2011. In his time in Chapel Hill, Boone supervised the day-to-day operations of a $72 million operating budget, served as the department liaison with accounting, development, disbursement, facility services and outside travel vendors, and also assisted in the athletic department's annual budget preparations. He began his time in the Tar Heels' Business Office as an accounting technician in December 2002.

Prior to working at UNC, Boone worked for the North Carolina High School Athletic Association from September 1999 to 2002. While at the NCHSAA, Boone designed, edited and published various publications, developed and maintained the organization's official website, and coordinated statewide media relations.

Boone received his bachelor's degree athletic training from Elon University in 1995 before earning his master's degree in athletic administration from East Carolina (1998) and his M.B.A from Elon in 2004. He has been an active member with the College Athletic Business Management Association since 2009, serving on the membership, publicity and program committees.

He currently lives in Coral Gables, Fla., with his wife, Emily, who is the assistant AD of annual giving for the Hurricane Club. The couple has two children, Mackenzie and Noah.

CARTER TOOLE SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD COMMUNICATIONS & DIGITAL STRATEGY NORTH CAROLINA, 1995

Carter Toole serves as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Communications and Digital Strategy at the University of Miami. He joined the Hurricanes as an associate AD in November 2016 and was promoted to his current role in August 2017.

Toole oversees the communications, digital departments and video departments, as well as assists with publicity for the football program and head football coach Mark Richt.

Toole previously co-owned a Nashville-based marketing agency, Wheelhouse Marketing Advisors, which was acquired by a local technology firm (Atiba) at the end of 2015. Before launching Wheelhouse he served as Vice President, Digital, at another Nashville firm, January & Associates.

Prior to entering the agency business, Toole worked in the National Football League for nine seasons with four teams. After public relations stints with the Green Bay Packers, Tennessee Titans and Tampa Bay Buccaneers, he joined the Houston Texans as the club's first director of internet services & publications.

He was part of the Texans' communications staff that won the Pete Rozelle Award in 2004 as voted on by the Pro Football Writers Association of America. Toole has also worked eight Super Bowls as a member of the NFL's media relations staff.

Toole started his sports communications career in the media relations offices at Arizona State University and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he earned his bachelor's degree.

INTRODUCTION

CRAIG ANDERSON SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD COMPLIANCE PITTSBURGH, 2005

Craig Anderson arrived at the University of Miami in March 2013 and was elevated to the role of Senior Associate Athletic Director for Compliance and appointed to the department's executive senior staff in July 2015.

Anderson is responsible for managing all aspects of the University's compliance program, including educating coaches, student-athletes, boosters, athletic department staff and other University officials about NCAA and Atlantic Coast Conference rules and regulations.

Anderson is also responsible for overseeing all compliance processes and procedures dealing with the University's monitoring of recruiting, eligibility, financial and certification. Anderson is a member of the National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators (NAAC) and is the sport administrator for the Miami baseball program.

Prior to his position at the University of Miami he held positions in Compliance at NC State, University of Virginia, UNLV and Marshall University.

Anderson graduated from the University of Pittsburgh in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in political science and a year later, he graduated from Marshall University with a master's degree in athletic administration.

JESSE MARKS SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD DEVELOPMENT MIAMI, 2005, 2008

Jesse Marks was promoted to Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development in August 2016. He was previously promoted to associate AD for development in November 2012 following two years as assistant athletics director for major gifts.

Under the guidance of Director of Athletics Blake James, Marks is responsible for all development operations for the department of athletics, including campaign oversight, major giving, annual fund, donor stewardship, event hospitality and coordination with central advancement efforts. Marks is also the sport administrator for Miami's men's tennis program.

Since Marks' arrival in 2010, the Hurricane Club has seen significant growth in major giving and annual giving participation. Following the department's restructure in 2010, the Hurricane Club's development results have increased significantly across the board. Major Giving is up more than 70 percent since 2010, increasing from $14 million in 2010 to $26.6 million in 2011 and to an all-time high of $49 million in 2016-17.

Annual giving has also seen unprecedented growth through extensive marketing, philanthropic re-branding and digital strategy. Since 2010, annual Hurricane Club Membership has increased by more than 100 percent to an all-time record of 11,500 active members and over $14 million raised for student-athlete excellence. The Hurricane Club is consistently recognized nationwide for their use of cutting edge technology and unique campaigns to drive annual support.

Marks has been a part of two major capital campaigns at the University of Miami: The Momentum Campaign, (2000-2008) which raised over

$1 billion for the University, and Momentum2. Under Marks' leadership, athletics exceeded its goal of $68 million and raised more than $85 million dollars towards the Momentum campaign and raised over $118 million towards the university wide $1.6 billion Momentum2 Campaign.

Prior to his return to UM Athletics, Marks served as assistant director of development at Wake Forest University, where he managed relationships for over 150 athletic donors in the southeast, including South Carolina, Georgia, North Carolina and Florida. Prior to Wake Forest, Marks was as assistant athletics director for development at Florida International University, where he managed all fundraising operations related to the opening of their new football stadium in 2008.

Marks is an active member of the National Association of Athletic Development Directors (NAADD) and is an adjunct professor in the School of Education Sports Administration Program teaching Sport Promotions and Sales.

A two-time Miami graduate, Marks earned his bachelor's degree in 2005 and his master's degree in 2008.

TIM WISE SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD FACILITIES & EVENT OPERATIONS SOUTH CAROLINA, 1996

Tim Wise is in his seventh year as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Facilities and Event Operations at the University of Miami. Wise joined the UM staff in June 2012.

Wise has oversight of numerous areas within the department: facilities and maintenance services, capital projects/construction, facilities master planning, event management and guest services, camps/clinics, risk management, information technology, strength & conditioning and nutrition. He is also the liaison to the Watsco Center and Hard Rock Stadium, as well as serves as the sport administrator for Miami's soccer and rowing teams.

Wise, who has more than 20 years of experience in college athletics as an event manager, facilities director and administrator, was hired by the University of Wisconsin Athletic Department as assistant athletic director for events and facilities in August, 2008. In January 2012, he was named interim associate athletic director and elevated to the senior management team with additional oversight of the University Ridge Golf Course and $125 million in capital projects.

Wise also had supervisory oversight of the UW Athletics event management, facilities, food and beverage and guest services units and oversaw an annual budget of approximately $15 million. He also served in a lead role in administrative coordination of UW Athletics concerts, summer camps and event parking.

Wise served as the director of facility maintenance at the University of Connecticut from August 2005 to August 2008. He oversaw daily operations of athletic facilities, projects and event operations as the assistant athletics director for facilities and operations at Eastern Michigan University from November 2003 to June 2005.

Wise was hired as the athletics event manager at the University of Denver in August 2000 and promoted to the director of athletics events in August 2001 and served in that role until October 2003. Prior to his time at Denver, Wise was the event services manager at The Ohio State University's Schottenstein Center.

BRENT CRANK SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD SALES & MARKETING WISCONSIN-EAU CLAIRE, 2005

Brent Crank was promoted to Senior Associate Athletic Director for Ticket Sales and Marketing at the University of Miami in August 2017. He previously served as the associate AD for ticket sales and operations for three years after initially being hired as the assistant AD for ticket operations in July 2012.

Along with his duties in ticket sales and marketing, Crank is also the sport administrator for the Hurricanes' golf team.

Prior to Miami, Crank spent the previous year as director of ticketing at University of Alabama, and possesses extensive experience across the college athletics landscape.

While a member of the Alabama administrative staff, Crank managed the daily operations of the athletics tickets office, oversaw gameday operations of the home football and basketball schedules, and coordinated season ticket renewals for Alabama teams.

Prior to his time in Tuscaloosa, Ala., Crank spent three years as the assistant athletic director for ticket operations at Marquette University. While with the Golden Eagles, Crank managed the entire ticket operation (consisting of season tickets, single games, mini-packs, student tickets and postseason tickets), implemented a variable pricing structure for men's basketball that resulted in $5.3 million dollars in ticket revenue for the 2010-11 season, and helped increase overall ticket sales by 10 percent.

The University of Wisconsin – Eau Claire graduate (2005) has also worked in ticket operations for Tulane University and the University of Oregon. While at UW-Eau Claire, Crank majored in kinesiology and minored in business.

Shirelle Jackson is the Senior Associate Athletic Director of Student-Athlete Development at the University of Miami. Jackson initially joined Miami as the director of student-athlete development in March 2014 and was promoted to assistant AD in July 2016.

Elevated to her current title in August 2017, Jackson also oversees the Hurricanes' track and field programs.

Prior to joining the athletics department, Jackson spent the previous five years in various capacities in the College of Arts and Sciences at UM. Her initial position was a new role intended to enhance the athletic department's efforts to develop programming that will enhance the total development of our student-athletes.

Prior to arriving at UM, Shirelle was the director of athletic academic support services from 2005-08 at FIU, where she oversaw the management and operation of the school's academic support program for its 400 student-athletes. She also coordinated the academic and personal advising, class registration, tutors, study hall and study skills workshops. During her tenure at FIU, she saw her full-time staff increase to six and the student-athlete graduation rate improved by 16 percent.

She was the assistant director for student-athlete services for 11 months at Bowling Green State University in Bowling Green, Ohio. Her first athletics position was as assistant AD for student development from August 2002-July 2004 at Eastern Connecticut State.

Jackson was a four-year letter winner for the women's track and field team at Bowling Green. She received her bachelor's degree from Bowling Green in 1994 and her master's degree in counseling from Central Connecticut State in 1998. She is currently a doctoral candidate in higher education leadership at Nova Southeastern in Davie.

She is married to Jason Jackson, who is the television host and courtside reporter for Miami HEAT telecasts on Sun Sports. The couple has two children – Justin and Jordan.

HEAD COACH ALJOSA PIRIC

THIRD SEASON | RICHMOND, 2000

Hometown: Richmond, Va. | Head Coach: Miami (2016-pr.) and Old Dominion (2011-16)

Aljosa Piric (Al-O-sha PEEr-itch) came to Coral Gables after five seasons with Old Dominion University, where he was named the 2016 Wilson/ITA Coach of the Year for the Atlantic Region. In his last two seasons in Norfolk, Va., he led the Monarchs to a 37-8 record, propelling the mid-major team from unranked to a season-high No. 28 ITA mark in 2016.

A native of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Piric is familiar with the Atlantic Coast Conference after serving as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech for three seasons, where he helped the Yellow Jackets to the NCAA Sweet 16 and a No. 13 ranking in 2011. Piric also has been a Bosnia and Herzegovina Davis Cup Team member, directed the Stamford Indoor Tennis Academy in New England and was the top singles and doubles player for the Richmond Spiders while in college.

In his second season at Miami, Piric led the Hurricanes back to the NCAA Team Championship for the first time in seven years, where the Canes blanked in-state foe North Florida to cap their winningest season since 2011. Miami finished the season 15-13 overall, picked up four ACC victories - most since 2014 - and posted a phenomenal 12-2 home record for its highest win percentage at home since 2006. The Hurricanes notched four ranked victories, two against top-25 opponents, and were ranked top-50 nationally eight times over the course of the season before closing out the year at No. 42 in the Oracle/ITA rankings. For the first time in program history, three Hurricanes earned All-ACC honors - freshman Adria Soriano (Second Team), senior Christian Langmo (Third Team) and freshman Bojan Jankulovski (Third Team).

Piric, who was hired by ODU in June 2011, led the 2015-16 Monarchs to the championship match of the 2016 Conference USA Tournament, posting a 21-5 overall record and ending the season ranked No. 48 in the Oracle/ITA Collegiate Tennis Rankings. Old Dominion took down a total of four nationally ranked opponents that season: No. 25 NC State (4-1), No. 34 Dartmouth (4-3), No. 69 UNCW (6-1) and No. 70 William & Mary (4-0).

In 2015-16 Adam Moundir was named Conference USA Player of the Year and Most Outstanding Singles Player of the C-USA Championship, while garnering All-First Team honors for both singles as well as doubles. Teammate Jacob Nicolussi was named the C-USA Newcomer of the Year. Michael Weindl and Aziz Kijametovic represented the Tennis Monarchs on the All-Conference USA Singles Second. Kijametovic also earned All-Conference USA Doubles First Team with Moundir. In the fall, ODU's doubles tandem of Adam Moundir and Aziz Kijametovic claimed the Regional title and advanced to Nationals at the Billie Jean King Center in Flushing, New York.

Piric and the Monarchs were clicking on all cylinders during the 2014-15 season, as he led Old Dominion to a 16-3 overall record, while knocking off three nationally ranked opponents in the process: No. 60 Elon (7-0), No. 66 South Alabama (4-3) and No. 75 Rice (4-2). Piric had his Tennis Monarchs nationally ranked throughout the season.

That season, Piric placed two players on the All Conference USA singles teams (Carlos Lopez Villa and Adam Moundir), placed two squads on the All C-USA doubles teams (Carlos Lopez Villa/Javier Jover Maestre and Adam Moundir/Michael Weindl), as well as possessed the Freshman of the Year (Adam Moundir). Lopez Villa was also named to the Conference USA All-Academic Team, while five student-athletes garnered All C-USA Honor Roll recognition for having a 3.0 or higher cumulative grade point average.

Only adding to the esteemed coach's resume, Piric was tabbed to help out the 2014 Bosnia and Herzegovina Davis Cup team. In an impressive showing on April 10, while serving as team captain, Piric's Bosnian squad defeated Finland in the quarterfinals of group play in thrilling fashion by the score of 3-2.

In the spring of 2014, Piric led the Monarchs to another winning season with a 12-10 overall record, including an impressive 11-6 mark at home. The team took down the No. 64 ranked College of Charleston. Piric's team showed their resiliency by posting a 7-1 record following a loss, and had only lost two in a row once all season. He also helped guide Carlos Lopez Villa to the 2014 All-Conference USA Singles First Team. Piric's leadership proved to be influential off the court as well, as the team was honored for academic accomplishments in numerous ways. Lopez Villa was named to the C-USA All-Academic Team and also received the Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award. As a whole, the men's tennis team was recognized by the NCAA for a perfect APR performance.

In the fall of 2013, Piric guided junior Carlos Lopez Villa to a USTA/ITA Regional crown, as he became just the second male in school history to accomplish such a feat. Lopez Villa went on to win his first round match at the USTA/ITA National Indoor Intercollegiate Nationals before dropping his second round match to the eventual champion.

During the 2012-13 campaign, Piric's squad won its first match over a ranked opponent since 2009 by defeating No. 27 Harvard 4-3 (2/4). Piric coached Carlos Lopez Villa to First-Team All-Conference USA honors in singles and a ranking of No. 93 by the season's end. He also helped Lopez Villa and Can Cetinel achieve All-Conference USA Second-Team honors in doubles. The duo was ranked as high as No. 23 during the season.

Under his leadership, the men's tennis program has not only achieved success on the courts but also in the classroom, as the team posted a cumulative 3.1 GPA for the 2012-13 season. Additionally, Carlos Lopez Villa was named to the 2013 C-USA Men's Tennis All-Academic Team after posting a 3.75 GPA. Aljosa and 2012-13 Tennis Monarchs also captured Old Dominion's coveted Monarch Cup, which is given to one team at the school each year for their outstanding work in the community and service to those in need.

At Georgia Tech, Piric was an assistant coach for Kenny Thorne, the 2011 ITA Men's Coach of the Year. During his three years in Atlanta, Georgia Tech improved its national ranking from 49th in 2009 to 13th in 2011. He coached three-time All-American in Guillermo Gomez, the ITA National Indoor Championship finalist, ranked fifth nationally in 2010, and 13th in 2011. He also coached Juan Spir and Kevin King who were All-Americans in 2011 and NCAA doubles tournament semifinalists, with a national ranking of ninth.

Piric coached the Bosnian National boys 18-and-under junior team at the team European Championships in Catania, Italy. In 2015 he coached the Bosnian National boys 18-andunder junior team at the European individual championships in Closters, Switzerland.

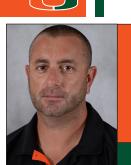

Piric graduated from the University of Richmond in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in business management. As a member of the Spiders tennis team, Piric played at No. 1 singles and doubles and served as team captain his senior season.

In 1999, Piric was selected to the Bosnian Davis Cup National team that competed against Egypt and Luxembourg in Cairo, Egypt.

He attended Mills Godwin High School in Richmond, Va., where he won the Virginia High School State Championship in both singles and doubles.

He and his wife, Jessica, have two children: daughter, Mila, and son, Luca.

COACHES & STAFF

ASSISTANT COACH

Third Season | Texas Tech, 2000

Danolic coaches the Hurricanes to a 15-13 overall record in his second season - the program's winningest campaign since 2011 - including four Atlantic Coast Conference victories, the best mark in seven years. The Canes went on to sweep North Florida, 4-0, in their return to the NCAA Team Championship since 2011 and finished the campaign No. 42 in the Oracle/ITA rankings.

In addition, he worked closely with the doubles duo of Adria Soriano and Christian Langmo, who became the first Miami pair to qualify for the NCAA Doubles Championship in a decade. In Winston-Salem, N.C., Danolic coached Langmo and Soriano to a straight-set victory over Arkansas' Oscar Mesquida and Adam Sanrujo in the opening round. The win was the duo's fifth over ranked opposition in 2018, with three victories coming against top-20 tandems and two against top-15 pairs. Langmo and Soriano peaked at No. 19 on April 10 - Miami's first top-20 doubles rankings since 2009 - and wrapped up the season ranked No. 29 nationally.

Danolic was an assistant coach in the collegiate ranks at his alma mater, Texas Tech, as well as at the University of Arizona. Most recently, he has been working as a private tennis coach in Bradenton, Fla., since 2012.

Prior to moving into the private sector in 2012, Danolic spent time as a juniors coach in his home country of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and was an assistant collegiate coach in the United States.

He has been a certified member of the United States Professional Tennis Association since 2000, and is an International Tennis Federation level II coach. From 2007-12 he served as both the president of the professional board for the Tennis Association of Bosnia and Herzegovina and president of the National Coaches Association of Bosnia and Herzegovina. He has also educated more than 200 coaches as an ITF tutor, conducting more than 1,000 hours of on-court and classroom lecturing in coaches education.

Danolic was the tennis director and junior development coach for Tennis Club Mostar, where he led the club from fifth to first in the nation and won six national championships in the last year with the team. He was also the junior development coach for Tennis Head Academy, where he coached Europe's top junior player and helped the amateur improve from No. 350 to sixth in the ITF rankings.

In one year with the Tennis Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, he coached four players who won national championships and was a national coach for the Bosnian boys under-18s. For three summers, Danolic was also an ITF coach for the Tennis Europe under-14s and under-16s.

Danolic began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant for the Arizona women's tennis team for the 2003-04 campaign. He led Maja Mlakar and Dianne Hollands to the top doubles ranking in the country, while also coaching Hollands to a No. 7 ITA ranking. As a team, the Wildcats were ranked in the top 25 in the nation throughout the season. He then moved on to his alma mater of Texas Tech in 2005, helping the team to top-25 rankings for back-to-back seasons.

He also has experience working in academies in the United States. From 2000-03 he was a traveling coach on the professional and junior circuit for IMG Academy, working alongside players such as Jelena Jankovic, Maria Sharapova, Tatiana Golovin and Serena Williams. Then from 2007-09, he worked for the Future Stars Tennis Academy in New York, growing the Sandy Hollow Tennis Club camp from 350 children to more than 800 over just three summers.

Danolic earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science with a minor in psychology from Texas Tech University in 2000. While playing for the Red Raiders, he was ranked as high as No. 40 in singles and was a first team All-Southwest Conference honoree in 1996. When he graduated, he was the winningest player in Texas Tech history.

Miami was a member of the BIG EAST Conference from 1991-2004, but did not play a conference schedule during the regular season. Conference finish was determined by the outcome of the BIG EAST Tournament. The Hurricanes have competed as members in the ACC since 2005.

+ The championship match was suspended due to weather and Miami earned the NCAA bid based on conference policy

^ In 2006, Miami finished in a three-way tie for the regular-season ACC with Duke and Virginia

$ Advanced to the ACC Tournament finals.

% Andrew Burrow, who played at the No. 2 position, was declared ineligible for the 1984 season. Miami forfeited wins over Minnesota, Florida, Clemson, and Texas because Burrow's participation affected the outcome of those matches. Miami was 21-8 but is now 17-12.

NCAA TOURNAMENT

Miami has long been considered one of the most outstanding programs in all of men's tennis.

Since the NCAA began a dual-match, singleelimination team tournament in 1977. UM has earned a berth into the NCAA Tournament 23 times.

Throughout those 23 tournament appearances, the Hurricanes have won at least one or more matches nine times while advancing as far as the Round of 16 four times.

In what could be argued as the program's most impressive stretch at the NCAA Tournament, the Hurricanes advanced to at least the second round of the tournament four times from 1987 to 1991, including two trips to the quarterfinals.

Prior to 1994, the NCAA Tournament was made up of the nation's top 20 ranked teams. Since 1994, the NCAA expanded the tournament field from 20 teams to a minimum of 40 schools. With the increasing talent pool across the country, the NCAA Tournament format once again changed in 1999, enlarging to the current 64-team tournament beginning with 16, four-team regionals at campus sites.

ALL-AMERICANS

The University of Miami tennis program is one of the most successful in the country. The storied history of Hurricane tennis has been highlighted by one of the best dual match records in collegiate sports.

Since 1930 the Hurricanes have compiled a record of 1,171-442-9 for a .725 winning percentange. In fact, from 1957-1964, the Hurricanes rolled up 137 consecutive dual match victories, one of the most impressive winning streaks in collegiate athletics.

Through the years, the Hurricanes have also produced winning streaks of 72 and 57 straight dual match victories and have fielded only six non-winning seasons since 1950.

The program's presence on a national level has been quite dominating as the Hurricanes have qualified for the NCAA Championships 27 times since 1977.

The University of Miami tennis program officially became a member of the BIG EAST Conference in 1991 and went on to dominate the league during its tenure, winning the BIG EAST title eight times.

Miami then joined the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2004-05. The Hurricanes quickly rose to the top of the ACC ranks and in 2006, won a share of the regular-season title, while producing the league's Coach, Player and Freshman of the Year for the first time in conference history.

Throughout its history, the Hurricanes have produced great players, collecting four NCAA Championship singles titles and producing 28 All-Americans (52 selections) including Johan Donar (1987-89), Luigi D'Agord (2006-07), and Daniel Vallverdu (2006-08), UM's only four-time tennis All-American. Three players have achieved the coveted No. 1 national ranking - Francisco "Pancho" Segura in 1936 and 1937, Conny Falk in 1990 and Srjdan Muskatirovic in 1994.

Francisco "Pancho" Segura was the forerunner of the brilliant success of the program becoming one of the only two players to win three consecutive NCAA Singles Championships (1943-44-45). He captured his fourth NCAA Championship title, pairing with Thomas Burke to win the 1945 doubles championship.

All-Americans Pat Cramer and Luis Garcia brought home the second NCAA doubles title in 1970, while another All-American, Andrew Burrow, delivered the Hurricanes fourth single crown in 1987, defeating Michigan's Dan Goldberg in the title match.

137: A LOOK BACK ON MIAMI'S AMAZING STREAK

In 1957, one of the more amazing streaks in collegiate athletics ended, the University of Miami's 137-match win streak in men's tennis.

The streak began the third match into the 1957 season with a 7-2 win over Presbyterian (S.C.). Seven years and 137 wins later it ended with a 5-4 loss to Princeton in the third to last match of the '64 campaign. This remarkable string of victories actually came on the heels of a 72-match win streak, giving the program a 209-1 record over the course of a decade.

Bill Lufler and Dale Lewis were the two men who coached the Hurricanes during this era. Lufler was coach for the first 20 victories and retired at the end of the '57 season. He started at Miami in '49 and also coached win streaks of 59 and 72 during his eight-year stint there. Lewis, who would coach through the '79 season, was at the helm for victories 21-137.

Both coaches are now in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) Men's Hall of Fame where there is a permanent display commemorating the streak they collaborated on. There's no better authority on college tennis than Dan Magill, the legendary Georgia coach for 34 years and ITA Hall of Fame curator, who calls the win streak "virtually unbreakable."

Magill, who coached Georgia to the '85 and '87 NCAA titles, lost to Miami six times during the streak, but was indirectly involved with it ending. "I can remember the streak ending well because my son, Ham, was on the Princeton team that ended it on those red clay courts in Coral Gables."

KEYS TO SUCCESS

Dave Harum was on the '57 Hurricane team that started the streak. Harum, an architect in Key Largo, Fla., who has designed several tennis facilities, including Miami's, credits much of his team's success to the atmosphere Coach Lufler fostered. "Bill Lufler kept us in a highly-competitive state," remembers Harum, an All-American in '57. "He was always 'sicking' us on one another during practice and that competitiveness would carry over to the matches."

Another Miami All-American John Skogstad (1960-61) credits some of the program's success to geography. "One of the keys to our success was being in South Florida," says Skogstad, who played a year at Baylor before transferring. "There was an abundance of organized tournaments throughout the year with great competition for us against college and pro players."

CHANGES IN THE NCAA FORMAT

How safe is this streak in tennis? In terms of NCAA Division I men's tennis it does appear unbreakable. It was the change to the NCAA championship format in 1977 that makes 137 in a row hard to top. Prior to '77 the NCAA Championships consisted of singles and doubles tournaments where schools received points towards an overall team score based on their players advancement in the singles and doubles draws. Starting in '77 a 16-school dual match tournament was added and used to determine the team champion. Since '77 only four teams have gone through a season unbeaten.

EAST VS. WEST

While Miami was piling up the wins, Southern California and UCLA were piling up the titles. USC and UCLA finished either first or second in the final NCAA tournament point standings every year from 1960-64. Miami finished fourth at the NCAA tournament four straight years from 1960-63 and tied for 13th in '64.

But doing well in the NCAA tournament didn't necessarily translate to doing well in the team format and vice versa. Skogstand and Harum both felt their Hurricane teams could have challenged the powerhouses in the West.

"Miami was the best in the East during this time, but unfortunately we did not go West and play UCLA or USC," Harum says. "All we could do was wonder. It would have been terrific to play them and I think we would have had very competitive matches."

"The prevailing thought was that we had a chance to beat those teams," says Skogstad, who lives in Atlanta and is in the steel industry. "We could have played with them on the (clay) courts and they'd have the advantage on the hard courts."

In addition to Skogstad and Harum, seven other players on those Miami teams, which actually had its best NCAA showing of second place in '65, earned All-America honors: Ed Rubinoff, Johann Kupferberger, Jerry Moss, Allen Quay, John Karabasz, Rod Mandelstam and John Hammill, who later coached the Hurricanes.

MIAMI GREAT: GARDNAR MULLOY

Gardnar Mulloy. Although the name might not be familiar to the current crop of Miami tennis players, they might not be Hurricanes if not for this man.

A Miami native, Mulloy organized the first University of Miami men's tennis team in 1935 and went on to great success as a tennis professional.

In 1939, he won his first U.S. Championship with his father in the Father and Sons doubles, but it certainly was not his last title. Teaming up with Bill Talbert, the duo was ranked No. 1 and won US Open doubles titles in 1942, 1945, 1946 and 1948. Pairing with Budge Patty in 1957, he set the record as the oldest player to have won men's doubles at Wimbledon. One year earlier, he advanced to the finals of mixed doubles at Wimbledon with Althea Gibson.

In addition, Mulloy was ranked among the world's top 10 in singles play for 14 years — including a No. 1 world ranking in 1952.

He helped the United States win three Davis Cup trophies — in 1946, 1948 and 1949 — and played for the US in 12 Davis Cup ties.

The tennis legend won a men's record 122 national and 19 international tennis titles and has won the World Senior Championship three times.

Mulloy has been inducted into nine sports hall of fames, including the International Tennis Hall of Fame in 1972.

In 2013, the City of Miami renamed a section of road near the 99-year-old's longtime home in Spring Gardens, calling it "Gardnar Mulloy Way."

In September of 2015, Mulloy was awarded the French Legion of Honour, the highest distinction in France, by the consulate general of France.

The French Legion of Honour, or in full the National Order of the Legion of Honour, was founded by Napoleon Bonaparte in 1802 to recognize eminent accomplishments of service to France.

In his late 20s, Mulloy served in the navy four years during World War II, earning the rank of lieutenant and commanding officer of a tank-landing ship, the USS Alameda County. His ship participated in the invasion of Southern France in August 1944.

Mulloy, who earned both his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Miami, played football and boxed for the Hurricanes before starting the tennis program. As the head coach, he recruited Pancho Segura, a three-time NCAA singles champion.
