Hot Start

IUPUI has started each of the last three seasons winning the first two games on the schedule. The Jags will be looking to make it three-straight seasons with three-straight wins to begin the schedule against Miami. IUPUI has won the first road game on its schedule for the last three seasons.

The Williams Way

Junior Macee Williams was named Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year for the second-straight season. It comes after Williams was named Horizon League Player of the Year as a sophomore after averaging 16 points and almost nine rebounds. Williams is just 50 points shy of becoming the 26th player in IUPUI history to score 1,000 career points.

New Jags

IUPUI has two players for its 2019 signing class. The Jags have expanded their footprint in recruiting as both new Jaguars hail from outside of the Hoosier state.

The Jags signed Natalie Andersen out of Wisconsin and Ali Berg from Illinois Four of the last five freshman signees for IUPUI are from outside of Indiana.

Head Coach Austin Parkinson has signed three Jaguars for next season (2020). Those three players are Trinity Duckworth (Illinois), Anna Mortag (Wisconsin) and Jenna Cotter (Illinois). Parkinson's last five signees have all come from outside of the Hoosier State.

Transfer Power

IUPUI has gotten strong play from its last three transfers. Despite not having a pleyer from Indiana in either of the last two recruiting classes, the Jags have brought in three transfers in the past two years from the Indianapolis area.

Katelyn O'Reilly played last year after transferring from Florida Atlantic and finished the season as the fourth-leading scorer and second-leading rebounder on the team.

This season, Rachel McLimore and Destiny Perkins are in the lineup after transferring from DePaul and Akron, respectively. Through two games, McLimore is averaging 18 points per game and scored the game winner for IUPUI against Southern Illinois. Perkins has been a spark plug off the bench, guiding IUPUI's second unit and is averaging just under 10 points per game.

Home Sweet Home

IUPUI has had unprecedented success at home under Austin Parkinson. In Parkinson's nine-plus years, the Jags have won a school-record 91-wins on their home court. From 2012-2016, IUPUI won at least 11 games in those five seasons inside of the Jungle, including two program-best 13-win seasons.

IUPUI had not had a 10-win season at the Jungle in Division I history (since 1998-99) before Parkinson took over the program. Before the Jaguars transitioned to Division I, IUPUI had five seasons with 10+ wins on their home court.

Magic Number 70

Scoring 70 points is an important sign for the Jags under head coach Austin Parkinson. In Parkinson's first nine seasons, IUPUI is 83-15 when hitting the 70-point mark. In those 13 losses, the most points scored by the Jags in regulation was 74 points. If IUPUI scores 75 points in regulation, the Jags are 64-0 under Parkinson.

The most points ever scored in a loss by the Jags under Parkinson was 83 in a 96-83 overtime loss to Miami (Ohio) in 2017.

IUPUI had won its last ten games when scoring at least 70 points before losing to Southern Illinois. IUPUI has since won nine-straight when hitting the 70 points mark.

A New Horizon

IUPUI ushered in a new era in their program's history, joining the Horizon League for the 2017-18 season. The Jags began conference play with a bang, winning their first five conference games by an average score of 78.8 to 55.8. The 13 wins the Jags finished with in conference play were the most by a team in their first year in the Horizon League. The second-place finished in conference play was also the best finish by a debut team in Horizon League history.

Conference Success

Under Austin Parkinson, IUPUI has had unprecedented conference success. In the last seven seasons, IUPUI has never finished worse than third and has four second-place finishes. During that time, IUPUI has never had fewer than nine conference wins and has had at least 11 wins in the other five seasons. The Jags finished with a school-record 13 conference wins in each of the last two seasons.

IUPUI has increased its conference win total in each of the last three seasons, winning 11 in 2015-16, 12 in 2016-17 and 13 in 2017-18. Before Austin Parkinson took over, IUPUI only had three double-digit wins in conference play and only one second place finish.

The Jags have now finished in a tie for third or better in every season since 2012-13.

Postseason Party

IUPUI was selected to the WNIT for the fourth-straight season and the sixth season in the last seven. IUPUI had never made the WNIT before Austin Parkinson took over at the helm of the Jags.

The Jaguars lost to Middle Tennessee in the first round of the tournament, marking the third-straight first round exit for the Jags and the fourth-straight loss in the WNIT overall.

Hitting 20

With the win over Northern Kentucky, IUPUI won its 20th game of the season. The Jags have finished with four-straight seasons with 20 wins and it is the sixth season in the last seven that IUPUI hit the 20-win mark. The Jags have only two seasons before Austin Parkinson became head coach with 20 wins.

The Jags Against the Rest of Indiana

The Jaguars will take on two Division I Indiana schools this season, hosting Ball State and traveling to Butler. Overall, the Jags are 40-61 against Division I schools in Indiana. IUPUI has winning records against two of those schools, Evansville (8-6) and Purdue Fort Wayne (18-11).

IUPUI began the season with a 17-point win over Ball State to open the season.

It was the first time that since 2001 that IUPUI has played Ball State and the first time since 2012 that the Jags have played Butler. IUPUI is now 1-5 against the Cardinals all-time and 7-17 against Butler but have dropped the last four matchups with the Bulldogs.

Junior Heavy

IUPUI five juniors on its 11-man roster and this class has shown its importance to the squad. Last season, this junior class scored 37.2 of IUPUI's 65.5 points per game. The class also brings back 37.2 of IUPUI's returning 46.9 points per game.

Let's Hit the Road

IUPUI will go almost a month between home games as the Jags will be on the road for six games between Nov. 12 and Dec. 11. During that time IUPUI will play at Miami (Fla.), Butler, UT Martin and Ohio and will take part in UNLV's Thanksgiving Tournament. Last season, IUPUI posted a 9-7 record outside of the Jungle. IUPUI has had a winning record on the road in each of the last four seasons, posting at least nine wins in all four campaigns.

Playing Extra

Last season, IUPUI played in five overtime games, going 3-2. The five overtime games are the most in a season for the Jaguars. None of the games went to double overtime and IUPUI has not played in a double overtime game since 2015-16.

Tournament Wins

IUPUI has won at least one game in its conference tournament in each of the last three seasons and in seven of the last eight years.

1,000-Point Mark

Two Jaguars have a shot of hitting the 1,000-career point mark this season as Macee Williams is just 50 points shy of the mark and Holly Hoopingartner is 262 points from reaching the plateau.

0-For-Ranked

IUPUI has never beaten a ranked team in 14 tries, losing both matchups against Green Bay a season ago and to Iowa this year. The Jags have lost by an average of 24.9 points against ranked teams and have only scored more than 50 points four times in those games.

Jags Fighting Through the Valley

IUPUI has two games against teams from the Missouri Valley Conference (Northern Iowa and Southern Illinois). The Jags beat Southern Illinois in the first game this season.

Against current Missouri Valley teams, IUPUI is 25-45 and are 13-9 with Parkinson at the helm.

A Little MAC-tion

The Jags hosted Ball State and will travel to Ohio on Dec. 7. It is the fifth-straight season that Jaguars have played a team from the MAC. IUPUI is now 5-2 against MAC schools in the last seven games. The Jags beat Ball State earlier this season for their first ever win over the Cardinals.

HEAD COACH AUSTIN PARKINSON

Austin Parkinson is entering his ninth year at the helm of the IUPUI women's basketball program. The program's all-time wins leader successfully transitioned the Jaguars from the Summit League to the Horizon League before the 2017-18 season and was named the 2017-18 Horizon League Coach of the Year for his success.

Parkinson guided his squad to a second-place finish in IUPUI's first Horizon League season after being picked to finish seventh in the Preseason Coaches' Poll. The Jags finished the season with the most conference wins (13) and the most road wins (13) in school history. IUPUI earned its fifth WNIT birth in the last six seasons and third-straight WNIT birth. Parkinson also coached Horizon League Freshman of the Year Macee Williams and Horizon League First-Team member Danielle Lawrence.

Parkinson inherited a three-win team when he took over as the head coach days prior to the start of the 2010-11 campaign, and has led IUPUI to three 20-win seasons in four years, five straight appearances in the Summit League Tournament, three postseason WNIT selections and the programs' first D-I postseason win in 2014. That postseason victory over Central Michigan in the WNIT marked the Jaguars 23rd of the year, which set a Division-I program record for wins in a season. In 2016, they once again defeated Central Michigan in the first round of the WNIT to add to their blossoming post season success.

During his tenure, Parkinson was named the Summit League Coach of the Year in 2012-13, but his success has been built around two primary philosophies - keeping Indiana players at home and defense. Of his five recruiting classes, over half of the players he has signed have been from inside state lines and all of his 16 players have either been from Indiana or bordering states. Once the student-athletes get on campus, they quickly get a taste for Parkinson's emphasis on defense. In his five seasons, the Jags have ranked in the Top 3 in the league in scoring defense three times and during that span, they had one of the best on-ball defenders in the region in Dee-Dee Bellamy, who was the Summit League Defensive Player of the Year in 2012-13.

In total, Parkinson has mentored ten players in his six seasons that have gone on to win Summit League honors, including six that have earned All-Summit League honors. Kerah Nelson and DeAirra Goss lead that group as Nelson was a four-time All-League selection, including two-time First-Team honoree, and Goss was a two-time All-League selection in her two seasons with the Jags. In 2016, Danielle Lawrence and Mikale Rogers became the first pair of underclassmen to both be named to the First-Team All-Summit League in program history, and the first teammates to do it since 2009.

The 2016-17 season was littered with historical achievements and program milestones, as the Jags soared to new heights in another widely successful campaign. Coach Parkinson led his team to a program single-season record 24 victories, going 24-9 with a 12-4 mark in Summit League play. He also became the all-time winningest coach in program history, surpassing Kris Simpson and eventually recording his 100th victory at IUPUI. The Jags finished second in the league standings and advanced to their first Summit League Tournament championship finale since 2008. Coach Parkinson coached his team to a pair of big victories, first defeating Missouri 73-45 on December 4 for the Jags first-ever victory against a Southeastern Conference (SEC) school. He followed that by defeating his alma mater, the Purdue Boilermakers, 67-62 in West Lafayette, Indiana on December 21, marking the first time ever that a Summit League team defeated the Big 10 powerhouse. The Jags defeated eight top-100 RPI schools, and make a strong case for making the Summit League a two-bid school for the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to leading the women's basketball program, Parkinson served as an assistant coach of the IUPUI men's basketball staff for two seasons and helped both Robert Glenn and Alex Young elevate to First Team All-Summit League honors in 2010. In addition, the Jags' 25 wins in 2009-10 were one shy of the program's single-season record in that category.

Parkinson was a four-year letterwinner at Purdue from 2000-04 and closed his career tied for tenth on the Boilermakers' all-time assist list after leading the squad in that category in both his sophomore and seniors seasons. Additionally, he led the Big Ten in assist-to-turnover ratio in each of his final three seasons. He received both his B.S. ('04) and Masters ('06) from Purdue in Organizational Leadership and Supervision.

Parkinson comes from impressive basketball pedigree as his father, Bruce, is Purdue's all-time assist leader and a member of the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame. His grandfather, Jack, played for the legendary Adolph Rupp at Kentucky and is a member of the Indiana and Kentucky Basketball Halls of Fame.

Parkinson and his wife Whittney live in Indianapolis. They welcomed their first child, Wren, to the world on Sept. 24, 2016.
