- In his first game as a Hurricane, QB D'Eriq King finished 16-for-24 for 144 passing yards and one touchdown. He rushed for 83 yards and another score, extending his own FBS record to 16 games with at least one rushing TD and one passing TD - this time a four-yard strike to TE Brevin Jordan.
- RB Cam'Ron Harris rushed for 134 yards on 17 carries with two touchdowns - he was one carry shy of tying a career high (18) and two yards shy of tying a career mark (136). He scored on a career-long 66-yard rush in the game's first quarter, and keyed a running attack that totaled 337 yards - the second-most rush yards versus an FBS team since UM joined the ACC in 2004 and most since 2014.
- Freshmen Jaylan Knighton (59 yards) and Donald Chaney, Jr. (52) added to Miami's ground game.

A NEW KING IN CORAL GABLES: D'ERIQ NAMED MIAMI'S STARTING QB

- QB D'Eriq King was announced as Miami's starting quarterback by head coach Manny Diaz on July 27. King transferred to Miami in January for his final year of eligibility after four years at Houston.
- King, who totaled 6,346 yards of offense at UH, entered 2020 with an FBS record of 15 straight games with at least one passing and one rushing TD; he broke Tim Tebow's record (14) in his final UH start. He extended that record to 16 straight games in Miami's 31-14 victory over UAB on Sept. 10.
- King had a prolific career with the Cougars, totaling 82 total touchdowns (50 passing, 28 rushing, three receiving, one kickoff return), 4,925 passing yards and 1,421 rushing yards in just 22 starts.
- King, who split time at wide receiver and quarterback as a true freshman with the Cougars in 2016, became the first player in school history to throw a touchdown, catch a touchdown and return a kickoff for a touchdown in the same game when he managed the feat at Texas State.
- The Manvel, Texas native was named to the watch list for the Maxwell Award (nation's most outstanding player) and Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback) during the 2020 preseason.

THREE MORE GRAD TRANSFERS OFF TO GOOD STARTS IN FINAL YEARS

- It wasn't just QB D'Eriq King who elected to spend 2020 at The U; DE Quincy Roche (Temple), K Jose Borregales (FIU) and OL Jarrid Williams (Houston) will also be suiting up for the Hurricanes.
- Roche delivered a dominant career at Temple, totaling 137 tackles, 39.5 tackles for loss and 26.0 sacks in three seasons. He was named American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 2019, ranking No. 5 in FBS with 13 sacks and No. 11 in FBS with 19.0 tackles for loss with the Owls.
- Roche had four tackles and his FBS-leading 27th career sack - his first as a Hurricane - versus UAB.
- Borregales, the all-time leading scorer at crosstown FIU, finished his Panthers career with 281 career points. He was a Lou Groza Award finalist as FBS' top kicker in 2018 and has 50 career field goals.
- Borregales connected on his only field goal versus UAB, a 25-yarder, and went 4-for-4 on extra points.
- Williams, who started the season opener at right tackle for Miami, started all 13 games at the position for the Cougars in 2018. He saw action in four games last year before suffering a season-ending injury.

TOUCHDOWN RINGS 2.0 MAKE DEBUT IN SEASON OPENER VERSUS UAB

- When RB Cam'Ron Harris took a fourth-and-one carry 66 yards in the first quarter to tie the game 7-7, a familiar jewelry made its season debut on the Miami sidelines: the Touchdown Rings, version 2.0.
- Designed by famous Miami-based jeweler Anthony "AJ The Jeweler" Machado, the Touchdown Rings are made of orange and green sapphires and contain 829 stones. The rings weigh 100 grams combined.
- The rings, which took roughly three months to complete, spell out the words "THE CRIB" when held together - an homage to a quote from Broward County-born DL Nesta Jade Silvera, who, on National Signing Day 2018, explained, "Why not make the crib great?" in announcing his decision to sign with the Hurricanes. Miami's coaching and recruiting staffs rallied behind Silvera's proclamation on NSD '18.
- QB D'Eriq King shared the Touchdown Rings with his offensive linemen after his rushing touchdown.

DEFENSIVE LINE FEATURED THREE NEW STARTERS IN SEASON OPENER

- Despite the decision of Gregory Rousseau to opt out of 2020, Miami has a pair of talented book ends on the defensive line in redshirt junior Jaelan Phillips and redshirt senior Quincy Roche. Those two ends started alongside Nesta Jade Silvera, making his first start, and returning starter Jon Ford.
- The four starting defensive linemen combined for a disruptive opener, totaling 13 total tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss, three quarterback hurries and one sack. Silvera led the way with five total tackles.
- Though both ends had never suited up for Miami, Phillips was previously ranked the No. 1 recruit in the country out of high school and spent the first two years of his career at UCLA. He redshirted 2019 while recovering from multiple ankle injuries and a wrist injury suffered during a car accident on his scooter.
- Roche was named the American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 2019; he was one of just two players in FBS to record 6.0 solo tackles for loss in a game last season, when he managed the feat against Tulane. He was ranked among the nation's leaders in both sacks and tackles for loss in 2019.
- In addition to Rousseau, OL Kai-Leon Herbert and OL Zalon'tae Hillery both opted out of the season.

HARRIS POSTS SECOND CAREER 100-YARD RUSH GAME IN 31-14 VICTORY

- Making the fourth start of his career and his first as full-time starting running back, RB Cam'Ron Harris delivered a 134-yard, two-touchdown performance in the Hurricanes' 31-14 win over UAB on Sept. 10.
- Harris' 134 yards were two shy of tying his career high, set last year vs. Georgia Tech. His 17 carries came just one shy of tying his career high - set in the same game versus the Yellow Jackets in 2018.
- Not only did Harris record his first multi-rush TD game in the win over the Blazers, but he added a career-long 66-yard touchdown run to open Miami's scoring and led UM with four catches in the game.
- A consensus four-star prospect by every major scouting service, Harris - who went by Cam'Ron Davis in 2018 but changed his last name to match his father's last name prior to the 2019 season - was ranked as the No. 9 running back in his high school class and No. 167 overall prospect in the 2018 class by ESPN.
- Harris played behind Travis Homer (2018) and DeeJay Dallas (2019), who are with the NFL's Seahawks.

CAROL SOFFER INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY OPEN FOR BUSINESS

- On August 17, 2018, history was made at the University of Miami, as the Miami Hurricanes practiced inside the Carol Soffer Indoor Practice Facility for the very first time during fall camp.
- In September 2016, Miami announced the largest donation in the history of the athletics department as the lead gift for a state-of-the-art football indoor practice facility. In honor of their mother Carol, Jeffrey Soffer and Carol's other children made a $14 million commitment to Miami.
- Former coach Mark Richt pledged $1 million towards the facility and football alumnus and linebacker great Jon Beason was among those alumni to donate. Beason's gift was $250,000, as Miami alumni and former players teamed up to contribute more than $2 million for the project.
- The 81,800-square-foot facility features two field-turf fields – one 90 yards long and an additional 40-yard field directly connecting to the Squillante Strength and Conditioning Center.

MANNY DIAZ

HEAD COACH | SECOND SEASON AT MIAMI (SECOND OVERALL) | 7-7 (.500)

Manny Diaz, who has deep roots in the Miami community and catapulted the Hurricane's defense to elite status during his three years as the team's defensive coordinator from 2016-2018, was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program on Sun., Dec. 30.

"Manny is one of the nation's elite coaches and the Canes Family has already embraced him and his incredible work ethic over the past three years," said UM Director of Athletics Blake James upon his hiring. "He is absolutely the passionate and innovative leader that our program needs, and we will work together to build an incredible staff to move our program back into championship contention."

The Hurricanes accepted a bid to the 2019 Walk-On's Independence Bowl in Diaz's first year at the helm in Coral Gables. The Hurricanes, who finished 4-4 in ACC play, saw three players selected to the All-ACC First Team in tight end Brevin Jordan, linebacker Shaquille Quarterman and defensive end Gregory Rousseau - who was also named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and a second-team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

Diaz, who has an impressive resume during nearly two decades as a defensive specialist coaching several collegiate programs, accepted his dream job of leading a Hurricanes team he believes is destined to return to the top echelon of collegiate football in the years to come.

During his 19-year coaching career, Diaz, the son of a former Miami mayor, also named Manny Diaz, has coached in 18 bowl games, amassing a 13-5 record in bowls, and has coached numerous all-conference and NFL players at six collegiate institutions.

Miami delivered another stellar season on defense in 2018. The Hurricanes ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense and ranked No. 1 in several categories, including tackles for loss, third down conversion percentage and passing yards allowed. Defensive tackle Gerald Willis earned All-American honors from several outlets while linebacker Shaq Quarterman was named to the All-ACC First Team - one of eight all-conference picks.

Continuing the impressive trends from Diaz's first year running the defense, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss and ninth nationally in opponent yards per play. Five Hurricanes on the defensive side of the ball earned 2017 All-ACC honors while another three picked up Honorable Mention recognition. Thanks in large part to his dominating unit, Miami also ranked No. 5 nationally in turnover margin, No. 8 nationally in fumbles recovered and No. 15 nationally in passes intercepted.

Miami's defense enjoyed vast improvements under Diaz' watch and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in his first season in 2016. At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers, and the Hurricanes' trio of Zach McCloud, Michael Pinckney and Shaquille Quarterman helped anchor the unit. Three defensive players earned ACSMA All-ACC honors - senior defensive backs Corn Elder (second team) and Rayshawn Jenkins (honorable mention) and Quarterman at linebacker (honorable mention).

In 2015, Diaz's defensive unit helped Mississippi State to a 9-4 record and a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. His defensive unit held opponents to just Before his first stop at Mississippi State, Diaz spent four seasons as defensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee State. Diaz coached linebackers for two years after mentoring the safeties during his first two years.

Diaz spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons at NCSU as a graduate assistant working primarily with the linebackers. During that time, the Wolfpack went to two bowl games and became the first ACC team to beat Florida State in Tallahassee.

Diaz began his coaching career at Florida State in 1998. In his two years as a graduate assistant, he was on the same coaching staff as former Miami head coach Mark Richt and was part of the Seminoles' national title-winning coaching staff in 1999.

Diaz and his wife Stephanie have three sons: Colin, Gavin and Manny.
