TOUCHDOWN RINGS ARE BACK, HAVE COME OUT OFTEN EARLY IN 2020

- When RB Cam'Ron Harris took a 4th-and-1 carry 66 yards in the first quarter of Miami's win over UAB, a familiar jewelry made its season debut on the Miami sidelines: the Touchdown Rings, version 2.0.
- Also designed by famous Miami-based jeweler Anthony Machado, the Touchdown Rings are made of orange and green sapphires and contain 829 stones. The rings weigh 100 grams combined.
- The rings, which took roughly three months to complete, spell out the words "THE CRIB" when held together - an homage to a quote from Broward County-born DL Nesta Jade Silvera, who, on National Signing Day 2018, asked, "Why not make the crib great?" in announcing his decision to sign with the Hurricanes. Miami's coaching and recruiting staffs rallied behind Silvera's proclamation on NSD '18.

SOUTH FLORIDA SUN SENTINEL (Feb. 16, 2018) — On National Signing Day, Nesta Silvera walked onto the stage at American Heritage in Plantation with a handful of his teammates, three of whom — like him — were among the most highly recruited high school football prospects in the nation.

And on that stage, in the spotlight cast by ESPN, Silvera smiled and uttered a phrase that thrilled the Miami coaching staff and immediately endeared him to the Hurricanes fan base.

"Why not make the crib great?" Silvera responded when asked why he'd just signed with Miami while three of his Heritage teammates had chosen to attend Florida, Alabama and Georgia. "I could go to Tuscaloosa, I could go to Gainesville, I could go to Tallahassee and make those schools great. Why not make the crib great?"

In Coral Gables, Hurricanes coaches cheered his words — and shared that celebratory video on social media. Across South Florida, Miami fans latched on to a new rallying cry and Silvera, almost immediately, became the bright spot on a day when the Hurricanes weren't able to sway a few of their late recruiting targets.

BOLDEN BREAKING OUT IN SECONDARY AS A TOP DEFENSIVE PERFORMER

- One of Miami's top defenders this season has been S Bubba Bolden, who has started three of five games and who leads the Hurricanes with 33 tackles this season. He has also added four tackles for loss.
- Bolden, who had 11 total tackles in an injury-shortened 2019 season, was named ACC Defensive Back of the Week and Jim Thorpe Award Player of the Week after a standout game against Louisville on Sept. 19.
- Bolden matched his 2019 season tackle total with a career-high 11 vs. UofL and added a forced fumble.
- In Miami's game at #1 Clemson (Oct. 10), Bolden totaled 10 tackles, two blocked field goals and a forced fumble. He won his second ACC Defensive Back of the Week Award for his performance against the Tigers.

WREAKING HAVOC: ACC POTW ROCHE ANCHORING DISRUPTIVE D-LINE

- Despite the decision of Gregory Rousseau to opt out of 2020, Miami has a pair of talented book ends on the defensive line in redshirt junior Jaelan Phillips and redshirt senior Quincy Roche. Those two ends start outside of interior linemen Nesta Jade Silvera, a first-year starter for Miami, and returner Jon Ford.
- No player in FBS has more tackles for loss than Roche (9.5), who is tied for the FBS lead in total TFLs.
- The four starting defensive linemen combined for a disruptive opener, totaling 13 total tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss, three quarterback hurries and one sack. Silvera led the way with five total tackles against UAB.
- Though both ends had never suited up for Miami, Phillips was previously ranked the No. 1 recruit in the country out of high school and spent the first two years of his career at UCLA. He redshirted 2019 while recovering from multiple ankle injuries and a wrist injury suffered during a car accident on his scooter.
- Roche was named the American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 2019. Roche was ranked among the FBS leaders in sacks and tackles for loss in 2019; he is tied for second in the ACC with 5.5 TFLs. Last time out, Phillips had the first interception of his career in the win over Florida State.

HEDLEY, BORREGALES MAKE UP TOP SPECIAL TEAMS DUO IN ALL OF FBS

- Miami has been bolstered in the early going by arguably the best punter / kicker combination in the country: P Lou Hedley, in his second season with the Hurricanes, and K Jose Borregales, in his first year.
- Thanks to the stellar work of Ray Guy Award candidate Hedley, Miami ranks No. 2 in the nation in net punting, averaging a whopping 46.35 net yards per punt. Hedley was named to the Ray Guy watch list.
- Borregales, who is second among ACC kickers with 45 points this season (eight field goals, 21 XPs), is a perfect 8-for-8 on field goal attempts and was named ACC Specialist of the Week after a standout performance against Louisville where he tied the UM record with a 58-yard field goal and went 4-for-4.
- Hedley ranked No. 26 in FBS in punting in his first year at The U (2019), averaging 43.9 yards per punt.
- Borregales ranks No. 2 in FBS in career field goals made with 58, trailing only Jake Verity of ECU (69).

A LOOK BACK: MIAMI DOMINATES FLORIDA STATE IN HISTORIC 52-10 W

- Miami scored 38 points in the first half of the game - the most ever by either team in one half in the rivalry's history. The 35-point deficit was Florida State's second biggest ever halftime deficit in program history, while the 50-point performance was the first by either team in the rivalry's history
- QB D'Eriq King threw for 267 yards and two touchdown passes in the win, while Miami's rushing attack totaled 200 yards and four touchdowns - including a pair by freshman RB Donald Chaney, Jr.
- Miami's defense total 13 tackles for loss and six sacks and also forced three turnovers in the win; junior CB Al Blades, Jr., S Bubba Bolden and DE Jaelan Phillips all recorded interceptions vs. FSU.
- Among Miami's top statistical performers in the win over Florida State were Bolden (four tackles, 2 TFLs, one forced fumble, one interception) and DE Quincy Roche (three tackles, 2 TFLs, one sack).
- King was named ACC Quarterback of the Week for the second straight week after the victory.

GAME 2: MIAMI WINS TOP-20 SHOOTOUT, 47-34, AT LOUISVILLE

- Miami earned its first road win over a top-20 opponent since 2009 when it toppled the host #18/#16 Louisville Cardinals, 47-34, at Cardinal Stadium on Sept. 19. The win improved Miami to 2-0 overall.
- QB D'Eriq King threw for 325 yards and three touchdown passes in the win, while TE Brevin Jordan recorded seven receptions for 120 yards with one touchdown. RB Cam'Ron Harris (134 yards, 75-yard rushing touchdown) and RB Jaylan Knighton (two total touchdowns) helped lead the offense.
- Miami's defense total 10 tackles for loss and forced three turnovers, with CB Al Blades, Jr., becoming the first Hurricane to rock the new Turnover Chain (v 4.0) after a second-quarter interception.
- One of Miami's most impactful performers was K Jose Borregales, who tied the Miami record with a 57-yard field goal. Borregales went 4-for-4 on field goals and totaled 17 points against Louisville.
- King (quarterback), Bolden (defensive back) & Borregales (specialist) were ACC Players of the Week.

GAME 1: MIAMI RUNS ROUGHSHOD IN SEASON OPENER, TOPS UAB 31-14

- RB Cam'Ron Harris rushed for 134 yards on 17 carries with two touchdowns - he was one carry shy of tying a career high (18) and two yards shy of tying a career mark (136). He scored on a 66-yard rush in the game's first quarter, and keyed a running attack that totaled 337 yards - the second-most rush yards versus an FBS opponent since the Hurricanes joined the ACC in 2004 and most since 2014.
- The active FBS sacks leader, DE Quincy Roche recorded his 27th career sack and first as a Hurricane.
- In the modern era of Miami Hurricanes football (since 1979), UM has opened the season at home 18 times and is 16-2 in those games. Miami is now 30-11 in regular season openers dating to 1979.

BORREGALES, ROCHE & WILLIAMS THREE IMPACT TRANSFER PORTAL ADDS

- It wasn't just QB D'Eriq King who elected to spend 2020 at The U; DE Quincy Roche (Temple), K Jose Borregales (FIU) and OL Jarrid Williams (Houston) will be spending their final years at The U.
- Roche delivered a dominant career at Temple, totaling 137 tackles, 39.5 tackles for loss and 26.0 sacks in three seasons. He was named American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 2019, ranking No. 5 in FBS with 13 sacks and No. 11 in FBS with 19.0 tackles for loss with the Owls.
- Roche had three tackles and his FBS-leading 28th career sack versus FSU. He had 4.0 TFLs vs. Pittsburgh.
- Borregales, the all-time leading scorer at Crosstown FIU, finished his Panthers career with 281 career points. He was a Lou Groza Award finalist as FBS' top kicker in 2018 and has made 58 career field goals.
- The ACC Specialist of the Week for his game vs. Louisville, Borregales had a career-long 57-yard field goal and went 4-for-4 on field goals. He is the nation's second active leader in career field goals made.
- Williams, who has started first four games at right tackle for UM, started all 13 games at the spot for the Cougars in 2018. He saw action in four games last year before suffering a season-ending injury.

HARRIS HAS HELPED CARRY MIAMI OFFENSE IN FIRST YEAR AS STARTER

- Making the fifth start of his career and his second as full-time starting running back, RB Cam'Ron Harris delivered a 134-yard performance in the Hurricanes' 47-34 on the road at Louisville on Sept. 19.
- Harris had a career-long 75-yard touchdown run in the win - Miami's longest rush since DeeJay Dallas had an 83-yard touchdown versus Duke in 2018. He ranks No. 11 in FBS with 311 rushing yards this year.
- Harris had a 134-yard, two-touchdown performance in Miami's 31-14 win over UAB in the season opener.
- Harris' 134 yards and 17 carries were just shy of tying his career high, set last year versus Georgia Tech.
- Not only did Harris record his first multi-rush TD game in the win over the Blazers, but he added a 66-yard touchdown run to open Miami's scoring. It was a career-long run - until he bested it at Louisville.
- A consensus four-star prospect by every major scouting service, Harris - who went by Cam'Ron Davis in 2018 but changed his last name to match his father's last name prior to the 2019 season - was ranked as the No. 9 running back in his high school class and No. 167 overall prospect in the 2018 class by ESPN.
- Harris played behind Travis Homer (2018) and DeeJay Dallas (2019), who are with the NFL's Seahawks.

- Miami boasts one of the nation's top tight end tandems in juniors Brevin Jordan and Will Mallory, who have been listed as co-starters on the offensive depth chart for the first four games of the season.
- Jordan, who has started all four games, put on a show versus Louisville, finishing with seven catches for 120 yards and a 47-yard touchdown. He added five catches for 41 yards with one touchdown against FSU.
- Mallory opened Miami's scoring with a 17-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter of the win at Louisville. He had the first multi-touchdown game of his career last time out against Pittsburgh (Oct. 17).
- Jordan, who was the only Hurricane selected to the All-ACC Preseason Team, was a Mackey Award finalist last year and was selected to the 2019 All-ACC First Team. He missed the Pitt game with a shoulder injury.

MCCLLOUD HAS BEEN AMONG TEAM LEADERS FOR MIAMI DEFENSE IN 2020

- One of Miami's most important returners for 2020 played in only four games last year: Zach McCloud.
- McCloud, who enrolled at Miami in January 2016, elected to redshirt 2019 to return for a final year. The veteran linebacker has totaled 157 career tackles in 48 career games including 19 so far this season.
- McCloud had one of the best games of his career in Miami's win over Louisville (Sept. 19), ranking second on the Hurricanes with nine tackles and adding one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one sack.
- The heart and soul of Miami's defense, McCloud started 31 games in four previous seasons, including 11 as a true frosh in 2016, when Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshman linebackers.
- McCloud is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) and the University of Miami Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. He was named UM's Community Service Man of the Year in 2019 and is on the watch list for the 2020 Wuerffel Trophy, honoring college football's man of the year.

- Former coach Mark Richt pledged $1 million towards the facility and football alumnus and linebacker great Jon Beason was among those alumni to donate. Beason's gift was $250,000, as Miami alumni and former players teamed up to contribute more than $2 million for the project.

MANNY DIAZ

HEAD COACH | SECOND SEASON AT MIAMI (SECOND OVERALL) | 10-8 (.556)

Manny Diaz, who has deep roots in the Miami community and catapulted the Hurricane's defense to elite status during his three years as the team's defensive coordinator from 2016-2018, was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program on Sun., Dec. 30.

"Manny is one of the nation's elite coaches and the Canes Family has already embraced him and his incredible work ethic over the past three years," said UM Director of Athletics Blake James upon his hiring. "He is absolutely the passionate and innovative leader that our program needs, and we will work together to build an incredible staff to move our program back into championship contention."

The Hurricanes accepted a bid to the 2019 Walk-On's Independence Bowl in Diaz's first year at the helm in Coral Gables. The Hurricanes, who finished 4-4 in ACC play, saw three players selected to the All-ACC First Team in tight end Brevin Jordan, linebacker Shaquille Quarterman and defensive end Gregory Rousseau - who was also named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and a second-team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

Diaz, who has an impressive resume during nearly two decades as a defensive specialist coaching several collegiate programs, accepted his dream job of leading a Hurricanes team he believes is destined to return to the top echelon of collegiate football in the years to come.

During his 19-year coaching career, Diaz, the son of a former Miami mayor, also named Manny Diaz, has coached in 18 bowl games, amassing a 13-5 record in bowls, and has coached numerous all-conference and NFL players at six collegiate institutions.

Miami delivered another stellar season on defense in 2018. The Hurricanes ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense and ranked No. 1 in several categories, including tackles for loss, third down conversion percentage and passing yards allowed. Defensive tackle Gerald Willis earned All-American honors from several outlets while linebacker Shaq Quarterman was named to the All-ACC First Team - one of eight all-conference picks.

Continuing the impressive trends from Diaz's first year running the defense, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss and ninth nationally in opponent yards per play. Five Hurricanes on the defensive side of the ball earned 2017 All-ACC honors while another three picked up Honorable Mention recognition. Thanks in large part to his dominating unit, Miami also ranked No. 5 nationally in turnover margin, No. 8 nationally in fumbles recovered and No. 15 nationally in passes intercepted.

Miami's defense enjoyed vast improvements under Diaz' watch and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in his first season in 2016. At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers, and the Hurricanes' trio of Zach McCloud, Michael Pinckney and Shaquille Quarterman helped anchor the unit. Three defensive players earned ACSMA All-ACC honors - senior defensive backs Corn Elder (second team) and Rayshawn Jenkins (honorable mention) and Quarterman at linebacker (honorable mention).

In 2015, Diaz's defensive unit helped Mississippi State to a 9-4 record and a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. His defensive unit held opponents to just 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense and tackles for loss.

Diaz spent one season, 2014, at Louisiana Tech and his impact was felt in a big way. The Bulldogs led the nation in turnovers gained (42) with 16 fumble recoveries and 26 interceptions. Before his stop at Louisiana Tech, Diaz coached three seasons at Texas (2011-13). His 2011 defensive unit ranked ninth in total yards per play.

In 2010, during his first stint at Mississippi State, Diaz guided a defense that ranked No. 22 in the nation in scoring defense (19.9 ppg), No. 17 in rushing defense (214.9 ypg) and No. 17 in tackles for loss (7.0 pg). MSU also finished ranked No. 13 in red-zone defense (.730) and No. 22 in turnovers forced (28) nationally in 2010.

Before his first stop at Mississippi State, Diaz spent four seasons as defensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee State. Diaz coached linebackers for two years after mentoring the safeties during his first two years.

Diaz spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons at NCSU as a graduate assistant working primarily with the linebackers. During that time, the Wolfpack went to two bowl games and became the first ACC team to beat Florida State in Tallahassee.

Diaz began his coaching career at Florida State in 1998. In his two years as a graduate assistant, he was on the same coaching staff as former Miami head coach Mark Richt and was part of the Seminoles' national title-winning coaching staff in 1999.

Diaz and his wife Stephanie have three sons: Colin, Gavin and Manny.
