- The Coastal foes have met every year since 2013 (Pitt's first year in the ACC), and Miami has a 5-2 lead in those games, including two straight wins.
- In last year's matchup in Pittsburgh, the Hurricanes pulled off a 16-12 win at Heinz Field, overcoming a fourth quarter deficit to win on the road.

THE HURRICANES

- Miami returns 11 starters and 39 letterwinners from a team that finished in the 2019 Walk-On's Independence Bowl in Manny Diaz's first year as coach.
- Miami was ranked No. 12 in the latest Amway Coaches Poll and No. 13 in the Associated Press top 25, released Oct. 11 - a fall from its previous rankings of #7 by both the AP and coaches. Last week's #7/#7 rankings (from Oct. 4) marked Miami's highest position in the polls since November 26, 2017.
- Last time out on Oct. 10, the Hurricanes fell to top-ranked Clemson, 42-17, at Clemson Memorial Stadium. The loss was Miami's first ever in Death Valley and snapped a three-game winning streak to open 2020. Miami was looking for a FBS-best 10th ever win over the No. 1 team in the country.
- Miami became the first school to participate in the game selected for the site of ESPN College GameDay three times in the first five weeks of the year in the show's history; Miami, who is now 15-9 in games selected for GameDay site, was picked for games versus Louisville, Florida State & Clemson.
- QB D'Eriq King, who has picked up ACC Quarterback of the Week honors after two of his four games, has thrown for 857 yards and six touchdowns while adding 241 rushing yards and two rushing scores. One of the nation's most electrifying players, King is a Heisman Trophy candidate at The U.
- On July 27, Diaz named King Miami's starting quarterback for the season. King, who announced his decision to transfer to Miami in January 2020, compiled 82 total touchdowns, 4,925 passing yards and 1,421 rushing yards during his 22 starts at Houston. He has 7,444 career yards of total offense.
- Diaz, who was the defensive coordinator for the Hurricanes from 2016-2018, retooled Miami's offensive staff this past offseason, hiring Rhett Lashlee as offensive coordinator from Southern Methodist. He also added wide receivers coach Rob Likens, who spent 2019 as offensive coordinator at Arizona State, and offensive line coach Garin Justice, who was offensive coordinator at UNLV. Diaz also added UM legend Ed Reed as Chief of Staff.

#12/#13 MIAMI LOOKING TO REBOUND IN HOME TILT WITH PITTSBURGH

- #12/#13 Miami (3-1, 2-1 ACC) returns home for the first of two straight games at Hard Rock Stadium; the Hurricanes play host to Pittsburgh on Oct. 17 in a matchup slated for broadcast on ACC Network.
- Miami has a dominant 27-11-1 mark against Pitt in 40 previous matchups, and is looking for its third straight win over Pitt. A fourth-quarter surger propelled Miami in last year's 16-12 win at Heinz Field.
- In Pitt's last trip to Hard Rock Stadium in 2018, the Canes knocked off the then-No. 25 Panthers, 24-3.
- With an adjusted 2020 slate due to COVID-19, Miami played just one nonconference game and has 10 ACC games scheduled; after its game versus Pitt, Miami has a home date with Virginia on Oct. 24.
- For the season, it was determined that the two teams with the best ACC record of the 15 members for 2020 will play in the ACC Championship Game; there is no Atlantic or Coastal Division for this fall.
- Saturday's game will represent the Hurricanes' sixth ever time playing on ACC Network, which debuted last fall; Miami is 3-2 in games all-time on ACC Network, including 3-1 in home games.
- Saturday's game will be broadcast live by 560 WQAM "The Joe" and Unanimo Deportes 990 AM.

A LOOK BACK: HURRICANES FALL SHORT VS. #1 TIGERS IN DEATH VALLEY

- Last time out, Miami lost to top-ranked Clemson in a top-10 showdown in Death Valley, falling 42-17.
- The loss was Miami's first in Death Valley; the Hurricanes had entered the game a perfect 2-0 all time at the stadium. The matchup versus Clemson was UM's first since the 2017 ACC Championship Game.
- The Hurricanes became only the second team in FBS history to block three field goals in a game in the loss to Clemson; S Bubba Bolden blocked two kicks while DL Jared Harrison-Hunte blocked one field goal that was returned by CB DJ Ivey for a touchdown with no time remaining in the first half.
- QB D'Eriq King finished 12-for-28 for 121 passing yards and totaled a season-high 84 rushing yards with one rushing touchdown. He threw his first two interceptions of the season in the loss.
- Bolden totaled a game-high 10 tackles with one forced fumble in addition to his two blocked kicks.
- Striker Gilbert Frierson had six tackles, three tackles for loss, one PBU and one fumble recovery.
- Ivey's blocked field goal returned for a touchdown was the first by a Miami player since CB Ladarius Gunter returned a field goal blocked by CB Artie Burns in a win at North Carolina on October 17, 2013.

NEW KING IN CORAL GABLES: D'ERIQ A HEISMAN CANDIDATE AT THE U

- QB D'Eriq King was announced as Miami's starting quarterback by head coach Manny Diaz on July 27. King transferred to Miami in January for his final year of eligibility after four years at Houston.
- King, who totaled 6,346 yards of offense at UH, entered 2020 with an FBS record of 15 straight games with at least one passing and one rushing TD; he broke Tim Tebow's record (14) at Houston.
- Though his FBS record streak came to an end at 16 games in Miami's win over Louisville, King has 857 passing yards and 241 rushing yards in four starts; he has eight total touchdowns and two turnovers.
- King was named ACC Quarterback of the Week, a Manning Award Star of the Week, Maxwell Award Offensive Player of the Week and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Player of the Week after Miami's win against Louisville. He was named ACC Quarterback of the Week after the win over Florida State.
- King had a prolific career with the Cougars, totaling 82 total touchdowns (50 passing, 28 rushing, three receiving, one kickoff return), 4,925 passing yards and 1,421 rushing yards in just 22 starts.
- King, who split time at wide receiver and quarterback as a true freshman with the Cougars in 2016, became the first player in school history to throw a touchdown, catch a touchdown and return a kickoff for a touchdown in the same game when he managed the feat for Houston at Texas State.
- The Manvel, Texas native was named to the watch list for the Maxwell Award (nation's most outstanding player) and Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback) during the 2020 preseason.

TOUCHDOWN RINGS ARE BACK, HAVE COME OUT OFTEN EARLY IN 2020

- When RB Cam'Ron Harris took a 4th-and-1 carry 66 yards in the first quarter of Miami's win over UAB, a familiar jewelry made its season debut on the Miami sidelines: the Touchdown Rings, version 2.0.
- Also designed by famous Miami-based jeweler Anthony Machado, the Touchdown Rings are made of orange and green sapphires and contain 829 stones. The rings weigh 100 grams combined.
- The rings, which took roughly three months to complete, spell out the words "THE CRIB" when held together - an homage to a quote from Broward County-born DL Nesta Jade Silvera, who, on National Signing Day 2018, asked, "Why not make the crib great?" in announcing his decision to sign with the Hurricanes. Miami's coaching and recruiting staffs rallied behind Silvera's proclamation on NSD '18.

SOUTH FLORIDA SUN SENTINEL (Feb. 16, 2018) — On National Signing Day, Nesta Silvera walked onto the stage at American Heritage in Plantation with a handful of his teammates, three of whom — like him — were among the most highly recruited high school football prospects in the nation.

And on that stage, in the spotlight cast by ESPN, Silvera smiled and uttered a phrase that thrilled the Miami coaching staff and immediately endeared him to the Hurricanes fan base.

"Why not make the crib great?" Silvera responded when asked why he'd just signed with Miami while three of his Heritage teammates had chosen to attend Florida, Alabama and Georgia. "I could go to Tuscaloosa, I could go to Gainesville, I could go to Tallahassee and make those schools great. Why not make the crib great?"

In Coral Gables, Hurricanes coaches cheered his words — and shared that celebratory video on social media. Across South Florida, Miami fans latched on to a new rallying cry and Silvera, almost immediately, became the bright spot on a day when the Hurricanes weren't able to sway a few of their late recruiting targets.

BOLDEN BREAKING OUT IN SECONDARY AS A TOP DEFENSIVE PERFORMER

- One of Miami's top defenders this season has been S Bubba Bolden, who has started three of four games and who leads the Hurricanes with 27 tackles this season. He has also added three tackles for loss.
- Bolden, who had 11 tackles in an injury-shortened 2019 season, was named ACC Defensive Back of the Week and Jim Thorpe Award Player of the Week after a standout game against Louisville on Sept. 19.
- Bolden matched his 2019 season tackle total with a career-high 11 vs. UofL and added a forced fumble.
- Last time out vs. Clemson (Oct. 10), Bolden totaled 10 tackles, two blocked field goals and a forced fumble.

WREAKING HAVOC: DEFENSIVE LINE IMPRESSING THROUGH FOUR GAMES

- Despite the decision of Gregory Rousseau to opt out of 2020, Miami has a pair of talented book ends on the defensive line in redshirt junior Jaelan Phillips and redshirt senior Quincy Roche. Those two ends start outside of interior linemen Nesta Jade Silvera, a first-year starter for Miami, and returner Jon Ford.
- The four starting defensive linemen combined for a disruptive opener, totaling 13 total tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss, three quarterback hurries and one sack. Silvera led the way with five total tackles against UAB.
- Last time out against Clemson (Oct. 10), Silvera had one TFL and Phillips had the first solo sack of his Hurricanes career. DE Jahfari Harvey added a career-high two tackles for loss in the trip to Death Valley.
- Though both ends had never suited up for Miami, Phillips was previously ranked the No. 1 recruit in the country out of high school and spent the first two years of his career at UCLA. He redshirted 2019 while recovering from multiple ankle injuries and a wrist injury suffered during a car accident on his scooter.
- Roche was named the American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 2019. Roche was ranked among the FBS leaders in sacks and tackles for loss in 2019; he is tied for second in the ACC with 5.5 TFLs. Last time out, Phillips had the first interception of his career in the win over Florida State.

HEDLEY, BORREGALES AMONG TOP SPECIAL TEAMS PERFORMERS IN FBS

- Miami has been bolstered in the early going by arguably the best punter / kicker combination in the country: P Lou Hedley, in his second season with the Hurricanes, and K Jose Borregales, in his first year.
- Thanks to the stellar work of Ray Guy Award candidate Hedley, Miami ranks No. 6 in the nation in net punting, averaging a whopping 45.41 net yards per punt. Hedley was named to the Ray Guy watch list.
- Borregales, who leads all ACC kickers with 38 points this season (seven field goals, 17 extra points), is a perfect 7-for-7 on field goal attempts and was named ACC Specialist of the Week after a standout performance against Louisville where he tied the UM record with a 58-yard field goal and went 4-for-4.
- Hedley ranked No. 26 in FBS in punting in his first year at The U (2019), averaging 43.9 yards per punt.
- Borregales ranks No. 2 in FBS in career field goals made with 57, trailing only Jake Verity of ECU (66).

A LOOK BACK: MIAMI DOMINATES FLORIDA STATE IN HISTORIC 52-10 W

- King was named ACC Quarterback of the Week for the second straight week after the victory.

GAME 2: MIAMI WINS TOP-20 SHOOTOUT, 47-34, AT LOUISVILLE

- Miami earned its first road win over a top-20 opponent since 2009 when it toppled the host #18/#16 Louisville Cardinals, 47-34, at Cardinal Stadium on Sept. 19. The win improved Miami to 2-0 overall.
- QB D'Eriq King threw for 325 yards and three touchdown passes in the win, while TE Brevin Jordan recorded seven receptions for 120 yards with one touchdown. RB Cam'Ron Harris (134 yards, 75-yard rushing touchdown) and RB Jaylan Knighton (two total touchdowns) helped lead the offense.
- Miami's defense total 10 tackles for loss and forced three turnovers, with CB Al Blades, Jr., becoming the first Hurricane to rock the new Turnover Chain (v 4.0) after a second-quarter interception.
- One of Miami's most impactful performers was K Jose Borregales, who tied the Miami record with a 57-yard field goal. Borregales went 4-for-4 on field goals and totaled 17 points against Louisville.

- The active FBS sacks leader, DE Quincy Roche recorded his 27th career sack and first as a Hurricane.
- In the modern era of Miami Hurricanes football (since 1979), UM has opened the season at home 18 times and is 16-2 in those games. Miami is now 30-11 in regular season openers dating to 1979.

- Harris had a career-long 75-yard touchdown run in the win - Miami's longest rush since DeeJay Dallas had an 83-yard touchdown versus Duke in 2018. He ranks No. 11 in FBS with 311 rushing yards this year.

CAROL SOFFER INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY OPEN FOR BUSINESS

- On August 17, 2018, history was made at the University of Miami, as the Miami Hurricanes practiced inside the Carol Soffer Indoor Practice Facility.
- In September 2016, Miami announced the largest donation in the history of the athletics department as the lead gift for a state-of-the-art football indoor practice facility. In honor of their mother Carol, Jeffrey Soffer and Carol's other children made a $14 million commitment to Miami.
- Former coach Mark Richt pledged $1 million towards the facility and football alumnus and linebacker great Jon Beason was among those alumni to donate. Beason's gift was $250,000, as Miami alumni and former players teamed up to contribute more than $2 million for the project.
- The 81,800-square-foot facility features two field-turf fields – one 90 yards long and an additional 40-yard field directly connecting to the Squillante Strength and Conditioning Center.

MANNY DIAZ

HEAD COACH | SECOND SEASON AT MIAMI (SECOND OVERALL) | 9-8 (.529)

Manny Diaz, who has deep roots in the Miami community and catapulted the Hurricane's defense to elite status during his three years as the team's defensive coordinator from 2016-2018, was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program on Sun., Dec. 30.

"Manny is one of the nation's elite coaches and the Canes Family has already embraced him and his incredible work ethic over the past three years," said UM Director of Athletics Blake James upon his hiring. "He is absolutely the passionate and innovative leader that our program needs, and we will work together to build an incredible staff to move our program back into championship contention."

The Hurricanes accepted a bid to the 2019 Walk-On's Independence Bowl in Diaz's first year at the helm in Coral Gables. The Hurricanes, who finished 4-4 in ACC play, saw three players selected to the All-ACC First Team in tight end Brevin Jordan, linebacker Shaquille Quarterman and defensive end Gregory Rousseau - who was also named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and a second-team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

Diaz, who has an impressive resume during nearly two decades as a defensive specialist coaching several collegiate programs, accepted his dream job of leading a Hurricanes team he believes is destined to return to the top echelon of collegiate football in the years to come.

During his 19-year coaching career, Diaz, the son of a former Miami mayor, also named Manny Diaz, has coached in 18 bowl games, amassing a 13-5 record in bowls, and has coached numerous all-conference and NFL players at six collegiate institutions.

Miami delivered another stellar season on defense in 2018. The Hurricanes ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense and ranked No. 1 in several categories, including tackles for loss, third down conversion percentage and passing yards allowed. Defensive tackle Gerald Willis earned All-American honors from several outlets while linebacker Shaq Quarterman was named to the All-ACC First Team - one of eight all-conference picks.

Continuing the impressive trends from Diaz's first year running the defense, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss and ninth nationally in opponent yards per play. Five Hurricanes on the defensive side of the ball earned 2017 All-ACC honors while another three picked up Honorable Mention recognition. Thanks in large part to his dominating unit, Miami also ranked No. 5 nationally in turnover margin, No. 8 nationally in fumbles recovered and No. 15 nationally in passes intercepted.

Miami's defense enjoyed vast improvements under Diaz' watch and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in his first season in 2016. At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers, and the Hurricanes' trio of Zach McCloud, Michael Pinckney and Shaquille Quarterman helped anchor the unit. Three defensive players earned ACSMA All-ACC honors - senior defensive backs Corn Elder (second team) and Rayshawn Jenkins (honorable mention) and Quarterman at linebacker (honorable mention).

In 2015, Diaz's defensive unit helped Mississippi State to a 9-4 record and a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. His defensive unit held opponents to just 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense and tackles for loss.

Diaz spent one season, 2014, at Louisiana Tech and his impact was felt in a big way. The Bulldogs led the nation in turnovers gained (42) with 16 fumble recoveries and 26 interceptions. Before his stop at Louisiana Tech, Diaz coached three seasons at Texas (2011-13). His 2011 defensive unit ranked ninth in total yards per play.

In 2010, during his first stint at Mississippi State, Diaz guided a defense that ranked No. 22 in the nation in scoring defense (19.9 ppg), No. 17 in rushing defense (214.9 ypg) and No. 17 in tackles for loss (7.0 pg). MSU also finished ranked No. 13 in red-zone defense (.730) and No. 22 in turnovers forced (28) nationally in 2010.

Before his first stop at Mississippi State, Diaz spent four seasons as defensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee State. Diaz coached linebackers for two years after mentoring the safeties during his first two years.

Diaz spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons at NCSU as a graduate assistant working primarily with the linebackers. During that time, the Wolfpack went to two bowl games and became the first ACC team to beat Florida State in Tallahassee.

Diaz began his coaching career at Florida State in 1998. In his two years as a graduate assistant, he was on the same coaching staff as former Miami head coach Mark Richt and was part of the Seminoles' national title-winning coaching staff in 1999.

Diaz and his wife Stephanie have three sons: Colin, Gavin and Manny.
