BY THE NUMBERS

1

D'Eriq King became the first quarterback in Miami history to rush for more than 100 yards in a game when he totaled 105 in a come-from-behind win at NC State.

3

The Hurricanes became just the second FBS team (South Alabama) in history to block three field goals in a single game on Oct. 10, managing the feat at No. 1 Clemson.

8.5

The Hurricanes, who ranked No. 4 in FBS and led the ACC with an average of 8.3 tackles for loss per game last year (108 total), are one of only seven teams in FBS averaging 8.5 tackles for loss or more (8.5) this year.

28.5

No active player in FBS has more career sacks than DE Quincy Roche, who has totaled 28.5 during his playing career.

31

Miami led all ACC programs with 31 former players on active NFL 53-man rosters entering Week 1 of the 2020 NFL season.

57

K Jose Borregales, who has stabilized Miami's kicking game this year, hit the second-longest field goal by any player in FBS this year with a 57-yard boot at Louisville in Week 2.

535

D'Eriq King's 535 yards of total offense in a win at NC State was the fourth-most by an FBS player this season, trailing UCF's Dillon Gabriel (650), Mississippi State's K.J. Costello (585) and UNC's Sam Howell (571).

#9/#9 MIAMI TRAVELS TO DUKE, LOOKING FOR FIFTH STRAIGHT 'W'

- Winners of four straight, #9/#9 Miami (7-1, 6-1 ACC) hit the road again for a matchup at Duke on Dec. 5. The Hurricanes were originally slated to travel to Wake Forest before the game was postponed due to COVID-19-related issues inside the Wake Forest Football program. Kickoff is set for 8 p.m.
- The Hurricanes have a commanding 13-4 all-time lead in the series, including a 12-3 lead in games played since Miami joined the ACC's Coastal Division, which also includes Duke, prior to 2005.

HARLEY EMERGING AS FORCE AT WIDE RECEIVER IN SENIOR SEASON

- WR Michael Harley was named ACC Receiver of the Week after a standout performance against Virginia on Oct. 24; Harley hauled in a career-high 10 passes for a career-high 170 yards with one touchdown.
- The senior doubled down with another dominant game versus NC State; Harley had eight catches totaling 153 yards including two touchdowns to capture his second straight ACC Receiver of the Week honor.
- Harley leads the Hurricanes in receptions (41) and receiving yards (548) and has added four touchdowns.
- The Fort Lauderdale native has 109 catches totaling 1,364 yards and seven touchdowns for his career.
- Through eight games, Harley has already eclipsed his entire 2019 output (38 catches, 487 yards, 3 TDs).
- Harley became the third Hurricane with back-to-back 150-yard receiving games, joining Phillip Dorsett and Andre Johnson. He became just the sixth Hurricane to record multiple 150-yard receiving games ever.
- Harley's 170 yards vs. UVA were the most versus an ACC team since Allen Hurns had 173 vs. Pitt in 2013.
- Harley's 10 vs. UVA catches were tied for the second-most by a Miami player since Miami joined the ACC and came two short of tying the program record; it marked the most catches by a Hurricane since 2017.
- The 170 yards were the most by a Hurricane since Phil Dorsett had 201 versus Arkansas State in 2014.
- Harley's 10 catches tied TE Christopher Herndon (10 versus Syracuse in 2017) and were two shy of tying Dorsett (12 versus USF in 2012) for the most by a Hurricane player since Miami joined the ACC in 2004.

BOLDEN BREAKING OUT IN SECONDARY AS A TOP DEFENSIVE PERFORMER

- One of Miami's top defenders this season has been S Bubba Bolden, who has started five of eight games and who leads the Hurricanes with 43 tackles this season. He has also added four tackles for loss.
- Bolden, who had 11 total tackles in an injury-shortened 2019 season, was named ACC Defensive Back of the Week and Jim Thorpe Award Player of the Week after a standout game against Louisville on Sept. 19.
- Bolden matched his 2019 season tackle total with a career-high 11 vs. UofL and added a forced fumble.
- In Miami's game at #1 Clemson (Oct. 10), Bolden totaled 10 tackles, two blocked field goals and a forced fumble. He won his second ACC Defensive Back of the Week Award for his performance against the Tigers.
- Bolden, a high school teammate of Miami TE Brevin Jordan at national power Bishop Gorman in Las Vegas, spent his freshman year of 2017 at Southern Cal before transferring to UM prior to the 2019 season.

WREAKING HAVOC: ROCHE, PHILLIPS ARE DISRUPTIVE DUO AT D-END

- Despite the decision of Gregory Rousseau to opt out of 2020, Miami has a pair of superstar book ends on the defensive line in redshirt junior Jaelan Phillips and redshirt senior Quincy Roche. Those two ends start outside of interior linemen Nesta Jade Silvera, a first-year starter for Miami, and returner Jon Ford.
- Miami is one of just seven teams in all of FBS averaging 8.5 tackles for loss or more per game (8.5).
- Roche and Phillips are two of just 23 players in FBS with 10 or more tackles for loss, while Roche ranks first in active career sacks in FBS with 28.5. The duo has combined for 21.5 tackles for loss this season.
- Over his last two games, Phillips has 18 tackles, 6.0 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks in back-to-back wins.
- After an eight-tackle game that included 4.5 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks at Virginia Tech on Nov. 14, Phillips was named ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week and Chuck Bednarik National Player of the Week.
- Though both ends had never suited up for Miami, Phillips was previously ranked the No. 1 recruit in the country out of high school and spent the first two years of his career at UCLA. He redshirted 2019 while recovering from multiple ankle injuries and a wrist injury suffered during a car accident on his scooter.

HEDLEY, BORREGALES MAKE UP TOP SPECIAL TEAMS DUO IN ALL OF FBS

- Miami has been bolstered this season by arguably the best punter / kicker combination in the country: P Lou Hedley, in his second season with the Hurricanes, and K Jose Borregales, in his first year at The U.
- Thanks to the work of Hedley, Miami ranks No. 4 in FBS in net punting, averaging a whopping 44.67 net yards per punt. Hedley has won ACC Specialist of the Week twice this year and ranks No. 5 in FBS punting.
- Borregales, who is ranked among the ACC leaders with 73 points (15 field goals, 28 XPs), is 15-for-16 on field goal attempts this year and was named ACC Specialist of the Week after a standout performance against Louisville where he tied the Hurricanes record with a 58-yard field goal and went 4-for-4 on FGs.
- Hedley ranked No. 26 in FBS in punting in his first year at The U (2019), averaging 43.9 yards per punt.
- Borregales is tied for No. 2 in FBS in career field goals made with 65, trailing only Jake Verity of ECU (74).

MALLORY CARRYING ON FOOTBALL FAMILY, TIGHT END U LEGACIES

- Though he returned at Virginia Tech, UM had missed All-ACC TE Brevin Jordan for the prior three games.
- In Miami's three games without Jordan, TE Will Mallory has totaled 10 catches, 187 yards and three TDs.
- Mallory had just three catches totaling 32 yards with one touchdown through the first four games in 2020.
- The junior is on pace to shatter his sophomore numbers, when he had 16 catches, 293 yards and two TDs.
- A football legacy, Mallory's grandfather Bill Mallory is the winningest coach in Indiana University history. His father, Mike, is currently the assistant special teams coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars.

D'ERIQ KING A TRUE DUAL THREAT QUARTERBACK FOR HURRICANES

- QB D'Eriq King has posted three of the top five rushing games by a QB since UM joined the ACC:

BORREGALES, ROCHE & WILLIAMS MAKING TRANSFER PORTAL IMPACT

- It wasn't just QB D'Eriq King who elected to spend 2020 at The U; DE Quincy Roche (Temple), K Jose Borregales (FIU) and OL Jarrid Williams (Houston) will be spending their final years at The U.
- Roche delivered a dominant career at Temple, totaling 137 tackles, 39.5 tackles for loss and 26.0 sacks in three seasons. He was named American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 2019, ranking No. 5 in FBS with 13 sacks and No. 11 in FBS with 19.0 tackles for loss with the Owls.
- Roche had three tackles and his FBS-leading 28th career sack versus FSU. He had 4.0 TFLs vs. Pitt.
- Borregales, the all-time leading scorer at crosstown FIU, finished his Panthers career with 281 career points. He was a Lou Groza Award finalist as FBS' top kicker in 2018 and has made 65 career field goals.
- The ACC Specialist of the Week for his game vs. Louisville, Borregales had a career-long 57-yard field goal and went 4-for-4 on field goals. He is the nation's second active leader in career field goals made.
- Williams, who has started seven games at right tackle for UM, started all 13 games at the spot for the Cougars in 2018. He saw action in four games last year before suffering a season-ending injury.

SOUTHRIDGE TRIO PLAYING KEY ROLES IN JUNIOR SEASONS FOR MIAMI

- Junior trio WR Mark Pope, OL DJ Scaife and WR Dee Wiggins are all playing important roles for the Hurricanes in 2020. The trio played together in high school, spending 2017 at Miami Southridge High.
- Scaife, last year's offensive team MVP, has started every game this year at right guard for Miami.
- Pope has had a breakout year, totaling 29 catches and 383 yards across his eight starts this fall.
- Wiggins has also started every game this year and ranks third in both catches (27) and in yards (337).

TOUCHDOWN RINGS ARE BACK, HAVE COME OUT OFTEN THIS SEASON

- When RB Cam/Ron Harris took a 4th-and-1 carry 66 yards in the first quarter of Miami's win over UAB, a familiar jewelry made its season debut on the Miami sidelines: the Touchdown Rings, version 2.0.
- Also designed by famous Miami-based jeweler Anthony Machado, the Touchdown Rings are made of orange and green sapphires and contain 829 stones. The rings weigh 100 grams combined.
- The rings, which took roughly three months to complete, spell out the words "THE CRIB" when held together - an homage to a quote from Broward County-born DL Nesta Jade Silvera, who, on National Signing Day 2018, asked, "Why not make the crib great?" in announcing his decision to sign with the Hurricanes. Miami's coaching and recruiting staffs rallied behind Silvera's proclamation on NSD '18.

SOUTH FLORIDA SUN SENTINEL (Feb. 16, 2018) — On National Signing Day, Nesta Silvera walked onto the stage at American Heritage in Plantation with a handful of his teammates, three of whom — like him — were among the most highly recruited high school football prospects in the nation.

And on that stage, in the spotlight cast by ESPN, Silvera smiled and uttered a phrase that thrilled the Miami coaching staff and immediately endeared him to the Hurricanes fan base.

"Why not make the crib great?" Silvera responded when asked why he'd just signed with Miami while three of his Heritage teammates had chosen to attend Florida, Alabama and Georgia. "I could go to Tuscaloosa, I could go to Gainesville, I could go to Tallahassee and make those schools great. Why not make the crib great?"

In Coral Gables, Hurricanes coaches cheered his words — and shared that celebratory video on social media. Across South Florida, Miami fans latched on to a new rallying cry and Silvera, almost immediately, became the bright spot on a day when the Hurricanes weren't able to sway a few of their late recruiting targets.

HARRIS HAS HELPED CARRY MIAMI OFFENSE IN FIRST YEAR AS STARTER

- Making the fifth start of his career and his second as full-time starting running back, RB Cam'Ron Harris delivered a 134-yard performance in the Hurricanes' 47-34 on the road at Louisville on Sept. 19.
- Harris had a career-long 75-yard touchdown run in the win - Miami's longest rush since DeeJay Dallas had an 83-yard touchdown versus Duke in 2018. He ranks No. 11 in FBS with 311 rushing yards this year.
- Harris had a 134-yard, two-touchdown performance in Miami's 31-14 win over UAB in the season opener.
- Harris' 134 yards and 17 carries were just shy of tying his career high, set last year versus Georgia Tech.
- Not only did Harris record his first multi-rush TD game in the win over the Blazers, but he added a 66-yard touchdown run to open Miami's scoring. It was a career-long run - until he bested it at Louisville.
- A consensus four-star prospect by every major scouting service, Harris - who went by Cam'Ron Davis in 2018 but changed his last name to match his father's last name prior to the 2019 season - was ranked as the No. 9 running back in his high school class and No. 167 overall prospect in the 2018 class by ESPN.
- Harris played behind Travis Homer (2018) and DeeJay Dallas (2019), who are with the NFL's Seahawks.

TWO-HEADED TIGHT END MONSTER HAS DELIVERED FOR HURRICANES

- Miami boasts one of the nation's top tight end tandems in juniors Brevin Jordan and Will Mallory, who have been listed as co-starters on the offensive depth chart for the first six games of the season.
- Jordan, who has missed the last three game, put on a show versus Louisville, finishing with seven catches for 120 yards and a 47-yard touchdown. He added five catches for 41 yards with a TD against FSU.
- Mallory opened Miami's scoring with a 17-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter of the win at Louisville. He had the first multi-touchdown game of his career in a win over Pittsburgh (Oct. 17).
- Jordan, who was the only Hurricane selected to the All-ACC Preseason Team, was a Mackey Award finaliss last year and was selected to the 2019 All-ACC First Team. He missed the last two games due to injury.

MCCLLOUD HAS BEEN AMONG TEAM LEADERS FOR MIAMI DEFENSE IN 2020

- One of Miami's most important returners for 2020 played in only four games last year: Zach McCloud.
- McCloud, who enrolled at Miami in January 2016, elected to redshirt 2019 to return for a final year. The veteran linebacker has totaled 160 career tackles in 50 career games including 22 so far this season.
- McCloud had one of the best games of his career in Miami's win over Louisville (Sept. 19), ranking second on the Hurricanes with nine tackles and adding one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one sack.
- The heart and soul of Miami's defense, McCloud started 31 games in four previous seasons, including 11 as a true frosh in 2016, when Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshman linebackers.
- McCloud is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) and the University of Miami Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. He was named UM's Community Service Man of the Year in 2019 and is on the watch list for the 2020 Wuerffel Trophy, honoring college football's man of the year.

15 NEW HURRICANES, 11 FRESHMEN MAKE DEBUTS IN GAME VS. BLAZERS

- Among the 15 Hurricanes to make their debuts against the Blazers on Sept. 10, 11 were either true freshmen or redshirt freshmen. True freshmen with the most snaps in Week 1 included RB Jaylan Knighton and RB Donald Chaney, Jr. The redshirt freshman with the most was WR Jeremiah Payton.

FOUR MORE PROCANES SELECTED in 2020 NFL DRAFT #NFLU

- Four Hurricanes were selected in the 2019 NFL Draft: Shaq Quarterman (fourth round, Jacksonville), DeeJay Dallas (fourth round, Seattle), K.J. Osborn (fifth round, Minnesota) and Jonathan Garvin (seventh round, Green Bay). As of Sept. 7, 2020, all had secured spots on those teams' 53-man rosters.
- For 46 consecutive years, Miami has had at least one player selected in the NFL Draft; the University of Miami leads all programs in the ACC in draft picks since 2000 (119).
- No program in the ACC had more alumni on NFL 53-man rosters than the Hurricanes did entering Week 1 of the NFL season, when Miami boasted 31 former players and more who were on practice squads.
- Just this season, Frank Gore set the NFL record for most NFL games played by a running back, while #TightEndU veterans David Njoku, Greg Olsen and Jimmy Graham all scored TDs in Week 1 action.

CAROL SOFFER INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY OPEN FOR BUSINESS

- On August 17, 2018, history was made at the University of Miami, as the Hurricanes practiced inside the Carol Soffer Indoor Practice Facility. The $34 million project changed the complexion of Miami Football.
- In September 2016, Miami announced the largest donation in the history of the athletics department as the lead gift for a state-of-the-art football indoor practice facility. In honor of their mother Carol, Jeffrey Soffer and Carol's other children made a $14 million commitment to Miami.
- Former coach Mark Richt pledged $1 million towards the facility and football alumnus and linebacker great Jon Beason was among those alumni to donate. Beason's gift was $250,000, as Miami alumni and former players teamed up to contribute more than $2 million for the project.
- The 81,800-square-foot facility features two field-turf fields – one 90 yards long and an additional 40-yard field directly connecting to the Squillante Strength and Conditioning Center

MANNY DIAZ

HEAD COACH | SECOND SEASON AT MIAMI (SECOND OVERALL) | 13-8 (.619)

Manny Diaz, who has deep roots in the Miami community and catapulted the Hurricane's defense to elite status during his three years as the team's defensive coordinator from 2016-2018, was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program on Sun., Dec. 30.

"Manny is one of the nation's elite coaches and the Canes Family has already embraced him and his incredible work ethic over the past three years," said UM Director of Athletics Blake James upon his hiring. "He is absolutely the passionate and innovative leader that our program needs, and we will work together to build an incredible staff to move our program back into championship contention."

The Hurricanes accepted a bid to the 2019 Walk-On's Independence Bowl in Diaz's first year at the helm in Coral Gables. The Hurricanes, who finished 4-4 in ACC play, saw three players selected to the All-ACC First Team in tight end Brevin Jordan, linebacker Shaquille Quarterman and defensive end Gregory Rousseau - who was also named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and a second-team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

Diaz, who has an impressive resume during nearly two decades as a defensive specialist coaching several collegiate programs, accepted his dream job of leading a Hurricanes team he believes is destined to return to the top echelon of collegiate football in the years to come.

During his 19-year coaching career, Diaz, the son of a former Miami mayor, also named Manny Diaz, has coached in 18 bowl games, amassing a 13-5 record in bowls, and has coached numerous all-conference and NFL players at six collegiate institutions.

Miami delivered another stellar season on defense in 2018. The Hurricanes ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense and ranked No. 1 in several categories, including tackles for loss, third down conversion percentage and passing yards allowed. Defensive tackle Gerald Willis earned All-American honors from several outlets while linebacker Shaq Quarterman was named to the All-ACC First Team - one of eight all-conference picks.

Continuing the impressive trends from Diaz's first year running the defense, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss and ninth nationally in opponent yards per play. Five Hurricanes on the defensive side of the ball earned 2017 All-ACC honors while another three picked up Honorable Mention recognition. Thanks in large part to his dominating unit, Miami also ranked No. 5 nationally in turnover margin, No. 8 nationally in fumbles recovered and No. 15 nationally in passes intercepted.

Miami's defense enjoyed vast improvements under Diaz' watch and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in his first season in 2016. At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers, and the Hurricanes' trio of Zach McCloud, Michael Pinckney and Shaquille Quarterman helped anchor the unit. Three defensive players earned ACSMA All-ACC honors - senior defensive backs Corn Elder (second team) and Rayshawn Jenkins (honorable mention) and Quarterman at linebacker (honorable mention).

In 2015, Diaz's defensive unit helped Mississippi State to a 9-4 record and a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. His defensive unit held opponents to just Diaz spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons at NCSU as a graduate assistant working primarily with the linebackers. During that time, the Wolfpack went to two bowl games and became the first ACC team to beat Florida State in Tallahassee.

Diaz began his coaching career at Florida State in 1998. In his two years as a graduate assistant, he was on the same coaching staff as former Miami head coach Mark Richt and was part of the Seminoles' national title-winning coaching staff in 1999.

Diaz and his wife Stephanie have three sons: Colin, Gavin and Manny.
