Freshman Alyssa Ustby came off the bench to lead UNC with a careerhigh 17 points on 7-for-10 shooting. In 29 minutes of play, she also had eight rebounds and a career-high four steals. Ustby has been in the starting lineup for the two games since then. Janelle Bailey had her first double-double of the season with 14 points and a team-best 13 rebounds.

- The first Miami matchup was one of just three times this season the Tar Heels have trailed at halftime. UNC came back to win in the other two instances (High Point, home vs. Wake). The game at Miami is the only time this season UNC has trailed going into the fourth quarter (down 51-45). Additionally, it was the Tar Heels' lowest-performing first half of the year, with season lows in first-half points and field goal percentage (UNC trailed 33-23 at the break after shooting 31 percent).
- This is the first time since 2011-12 that the Tar Heels and Hurricanes have met twice in a season. The original schedule included one meeting, on Jan. 10 at Miami, but an additional one was added for Dec. 14 after

- Sunday's game will be Janelle Bailey's 100th in a Tar Heel uniform. She has started 98 of her 99 career games at UNC.
- UNC ranks in the top 10 in NCAA Division I in rebounding margin (6th), rebounds per game (7th), defensive rebounds per game (8th), field goal percentage defense (9th), and free throw attempts (9th)

First in total rebounding, offensive rebounding and assist-turnover ratio

Courtney Banghart Head Coach · Second Season at UNC

The 2020-21 season is the second at UNC for head coach Courtney Banghart. She was announced on April 30, 2019 as UNC's head coach, the first new face in the position since 1986. She came to Chapel Hill after 12 years as the head coach at Princeton, where her teams won seven Ivy League crowns and made eight NCAA Tournament appearances. (Before her arrival, Princeton hadn't reached the tournament even once.)

A New Hampshire native, Banghart was a three-year starter at Dartmouth, where she twice earned All-Ivy honors. She still holds the Ivy League record for career threepointers (273) and as a senior competed in the three-point shooting contest at Butler's

Hinkle Fieldhouse during the men's Final Four in Indianapolis.

More on Banghart:

- She was the 2015 Naismith National Coach of the Year and is the only current ACC coach to have won
- In 2015 she was named to Fortune's list of the World's 50 Greatest Leaders. Others on the list that year: Pope Francis, Bill and Melinda Gates, Chief Justice John Roberts Jr., LeBron James, Elon Musk and Taylor Swift.
- She holds a bachelor's degree in neuroscience and a master's degree in writing and leadership, both from Dartmouth. Her graduate thesis was on sport leadership.
- · She hitchhiked through Alaska after college, after ditching the outdoor leadership course in which she was enrolled.
- Right around the time she got the Princeton job, she and her brother were finalists to appear on "The Amazing Race."
- A four-time soccer state champion in high school, she planned to play that sport at Dartmouth until a coaching change made her rethink her path and talk the women's basketball coach into giving her a spot. (She also won two high school state titles in basketball and three in tennis.)

Second in scoring, scoring defense, scoring margin, defensive rebounding and rebounding margin

Third in assists and turnover margin

- Janelle Bailey is seven rebounds away from becoming the 10th player in program history with 1,500 points and 900 rebounds. Should she reach 1,000 career rebounds, she'll be the sixth player in UNC history with 1,500 points and 1,000 boards.
- Bailey is averaging a double-double in ACC play with 17.3 points and 10.3 rebounds over UNC's four league games. She's averaging 14.2 points and 8.8 rebounds in on the season.
- UNC has won the rebounding battle in all nine games this season. The Tar Heels lead the ACC in rebounding with 49.9 per game and rank second in rebounding margin at 16.56.
- UNC is 5-0 this season when shooting 70 percent or better from the free throw line.
- The win over Wake Forest on Dec. 20 marked the first time this season UNC has shot lower than 40 percent from the field and still won. It's just the second time this season (the other was Charlotte) that an opponent has shot better than 40 percent against UNC.
- In all seven wins this season, UNC has had four or more players in double figures. In each of the two losses, three players have scored in double figures.
- UNC scored 90 or more points in its first four games this season. The last time the Tar Heels reached 90 four games in a row was at the start of the 2007-08 season, in wins over Elon, Coppin State, Syracuse and Georgia State Nov. 13-19, 2007

Bailey Earns Weekly Honor

Senior center Janelle Bailey was named ACC Player of the Week on Dec. 21 following a week in which she averaged 19.3 points and 11 rebounds over three games for UNC.

Bailey scored a season-high 25 points and grabbed eight rebounds in a highly-efficient 24 minutes of play against the Orange. She was also 5-for-5 from the foul line and had two assists and two steals. She bookended that performance with a pair of double-doubles: at Miami on Monday, she finished with 14 points and 13 rebounds. Against Wake Forest on her home court at Carmichael Arena on Sunday, Bailey had 19 points and 12 rebounds in the win.

This marks the third time in her career that Bailey has been named ACC Player of the Week. After earning Freshman of the Week honors seven times in her first season as a Tar Heel, she earned the Player of the Week recognition once as a sophomore and then shared the honor once as a junior.

Deeper Bench This Season

Although the UNC roster is slightly smaller this season (12 compared with 15), the Tar Heels are a far deeper team than last year and that has been evident in the first nine games. UNC is averaging 30.9 points per game off the bench, with a high of 57 against High Point and a low of seven at Wake Forest. (No other game has seen fewer than 24 points from the Tar Heel bench.)

• UNC's bench has outscored the opponent bench in all but the Syracuse game this season. (The Orange got 35 points off the bench while the Tar Heels got 26.) In comparison, last year's team saw its bench outscore the opposition just

New Season, New Numbers

Just two of the Tar Heels are sporting the same numbers they wore for UNC last season. In the case of seven of the 12, it's because they're new to Carolina uniforms. Three of the five returners will be in different numbers for 2000-21.

#O: ALEXANDRA ZELAYA

This season is Zelaya's debut in No. 0 and she took a circuitous path to get there, including pondering whether it's even a number in the first place. She wore jersey No. 3 through middle and high school but when she committed to UNC, she found out that Kennedy Todd-Williams already had dibs on that jersey. "At first I thought, 'That kind of sucks,' but then I realized I'm moving on from high school Ali to college Ali and this is a fresh start - different state, different people, different coaches, different teammates," Zelaya said. Within the family, her older sister (Adriana) had claimed No. 1 and her younger sister (Avalyn) had No. 5. Within her preferred parameter of odd single digits that weren't already taken in the Zelaya family, the basketball-eligible choices were, well, nil. "I brought up zero and at first my family didn't really like it - you think, 'Is zero even a number?' It's just really different. And I want to be different so that kind of highlighted everything I wanted it to be. So I picked zero and it's really grown on me."

#1: ALYSSA USTBY

When Ustby was a freshman in high school, she got jersey No. 21 because it was the only one left. She grew to love it and wanted to stick with it, but at UNC it belongs to Malu Tshitenge. So she wanted something close ... 12 is retired (Ivory Latta), 2 is taken (Petra Holešínská), so she picked No. 1. It has extra significance to Ustby because it was recently vacated by Taylor Koenen, a 2020 graduate who, like Ustby, is from Minnesota. "It's a special number," Ustby said, "and I'm keeping the Minnesota legacy going."

#2: PETRA HOLESINSKA

Holešínská wore jersey No. 13 at Illinois. When she came to Chapel Hill as a graduate student she wanted a fresh start and a new number, so went with jersey No. 2.

#3: KENNEDY TODD-WILLIAMS

Todd-Williams has worn No. 3 since she started playing basketball, around age 5. She liked that it was also the jersey number of greats Candace Parker and Chris Paul, some of her favorites. The number takes a deeper meaning from signifying the trio of her mother, her sister, Taylor, and herself.

#4: KENNADY TUCKER

Tucker wore No. 3 and No. 23 growing up but neither was available when she got to Chapel Hill, the former because it was then worn by Madinah Muhammad and the latter because it's retired for Charlotte Smith. So she chose 4, and wore it proudly last season. "And this year I just decided to stay with it," Tucker said. "It's my number now."

#5: STEPHANIE WATTS

Watts has worn No. 5 since high school, including the first four years she spent at UNC and last season at Southern California. She initially picked it because her father wore it when he played in college, at Long Island University. "It's stuck with me," Watts said. "When I got back here and I had the opportunity to get 5 again I thought, let me just continue it."

#11: ARIEL YOUNG

After transferring to UNC from Michigan in January of 2020, Young was listed as No. 5. This year, she's No. 11 because it's the closest she could get to No. 12, her traditional choice. She wore that number growing up because her father, C.Y., wore it during his playing career at Georgia Southern and overseas. Young was No. 12 at Michigan, but at UNC that jersey is retired for Ivory Latta. So 11 was the next best thing, but last year was worn by Emily Sullivan. This year, it belongs to Young.

#21: MALU TSHITENGE

Like Tucker, Tshitenge picked a new number as a freshman because her usual selection wasn't available. She wore 20 throughout high school, initially choosing it because her birthday is Nov. 20. When she got to UNC, Leah Church had 20 so Tshitenge went with 21. Now, 20 is available but Tshitenge isn't making the switch. "I've gotten used to it and I'm very superstitious so I don't want to change now," she said. "Things are going well in 21 so far."

#25: DEJA KELLY

Kelly wears the number in honor of her father, Darren, who played at the University of Texas and overseas. "Growing up watching him play inspired me," Kelly said. "I decided to pick his number at a really young age and it stuck."

#30: JAELYNN MURRAY

Murray likes No. 30 because it (kind of) rhymes with her last name. She wore it in high school and through her first two years at UNC. Last season, she suffered an ACL injury in the preseason and missed the entire year. Janelle Bailey, a close friend since the two came on their recruiting visit together, wore Murray's jersey number in tribute. Murray, who was on the bench, wore Bailey's No. 44 for the season. Although incredibly grateful for Bailey's gesture, Murray is excited to be back on the court in her old number. "It was well-respected while I was gone, but having it back means so much," Murray said. "She took very good care of it – she repped it really well."

#31: ANYA POOLE

The number was handed to her as a seventh grader and she's stuck with it ever since.

#44: JANELLE BAILEY

Number 44 has been Bailey's since high school because her older sister, Gigi, wore it. The exception was the 2019-20 season, when she wore Jaelynn Murray's jersey No. 30 in tribute. Now she's back to 44.

six times all year. Last season the Tar Heels averaged just 8.5 points off the bench and in four games got zero points from subs.

- In four ACC games this season, UNC has averaged 20.3 points off the bench, with seven at Wake Forest, 24 at Miami, 26 against Syracuse and 24 at home vs. Wake Forest.
- UNC doesn't have a player ranked in the ACC's top 25 in minutes. Freshman Deja Kelly leads the team with an average of 28.3 minutes per game after playing 38+ minutes in each of the past two games, against Syracuse and Wake Forest. Petra Holešínská, who played a career-high 40 minutes in UNC's game at Wake Forest on Dec. 10, is just behind with 27.2 per game.

Staying flexible

Like most other teams, the Tar Heels have already had schedule revisions due to Covid. They were supposed to play at Louisville on Dec. 13 but found out on the evening of Dec. 11 that game would be postponed. After Miami also had an open Sunday, an impromptu match-up was arranged, with the ACC announcing on the evening of Dec. 12 that UNC would travel to Miami to play on the afternoon of Dec. 14.

- A Monday matchup gave UNC three games in the final week before the holiday break. It's the second time this year Carolina had played three times in a week: The Tar Heels opened with a trio of home games in five days, hosting Radford, UNCG and High Point on Nov. 25-29.
- The ACC announced on Dec. 28 that UNC's Dec. 31 game a Syracuse had been postponed and at that point the Tar Heels still expected to play at Pitt on Jan. 3. But that game eventually was postponed as well, giving Carolina a break of more than two weeks between its Dec. 20 game against Wake Forest and its Jan. 5 game at Louisville.
- Eventually that rescheduled Jan. 5 game at Louisville also was postponed, giving the Tar Heels three weeks of idleness between the Dec. 20 game against Wake and the Jan. 10 game against Miami

Preseason ACC Honors

Senior Janelle Bailey was named to the Preseason All-ACC Team and freshman Deja Kelly was picked for the Newcomer Watch List. The Tar Heels were consensus honorees.

• In the team rankings, the Tar Heels were fourth by the coaches and fifth by the Blue Ribbon panel, the highest since 2014.

Bigger than Basketball: Educate and Activate

Throughout the 2020-21 campaign, the UNC women's basketball team will highlight various causes, dedicating the season to advocating for and bringing awareness to issues that are near and dear to the Tar Heel student-athletes and coaching staff.

UNC hosts Miami on Sunday and the team has dedicated the game to raising awareness around the issue of gun violence, which includes any death or injury caused by a firearm. Gun violence comes in many different forms, including homicide, suicide, domestic violence, unintentional shootings and police shootings.

Some facts about gun violence:

- Approximately 38,000 Americans die of gun violence each year, an average of 100 per day. (Giffords.org)
- In 2018, nearly two in three firearm deaths in North Carolina were suicides. From 2008 to 2018, the number of children in the state who died by suicide with a gun doubled. (https://www.ncgv.org/)
- Americans are 25 times more likely to be killed in a gun homicide than people in other high income countries. (giffords.org)
- Gun violence is a major public health problem and is a leading cause of premature death in the U.S. (https://www.apha.org/topics-and-issues/gun-violence)

This week the team virtually spent time with representatives from North Carolinians Against Gun Violence learning more about the issue of gun violence and how they can use their voices to bring awareness to the cause. The team then put together a short video to help bring awareness to this issue.

You can help by advocating for gun safety, donating financially for research and resources, and making sure you and those around you are educated on gun safety and proper storage.

The following organizations offer opportunities to make an impact.

- The Coalition to Stop Gun Violence (csgv.org)
- $\bullet \ American \ Public \ Health \ Association \ (apha.org/topics-and-issues/gun-violence)$
- North Carolinians Against Gun Violence (ncgv.org)
- $\bullet \ Giffords \ (giffords.org)$

Together we can work toward ending gun violence.
