"Not many future lottery picks would buy into this, but Scottie Barnes has. Since returning a few weeks ago from an ankle injury, Leonard Hamilton has opted to bring Barnes off the bench as a reserve. It's paying off. The 6-9 freshman hit a game-tying layup at the end of regulation last Saturday against Wake Forest and then had seven points, six assists, and no turnovers in Monday night's 21-point victory over Virginia. Barnes is engaged on the sidelines when he's not in the game and is visibly excited when his other teammates have success. He's not complaining about his current situation — he's embracing it. Another thing to remember: Florida State has had two of its reserves in the past two years — Mfiondu Kabengele and Patrick Williams — drafted in the first round of the NBA Draft."

SEMINOLES' HAMILTON NAMED TO NAISMITH NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

Florida State Head Coach Leonard Hamilton, who has led the Seminoles to a 13-3 overall record and an 9-2 mark in ACC play, has been named to the Late Season Watch List for the Werner Ladder Naismith National Coach of the Year. Hamilton is a candidate for the National Coach of the Year Award for the second consecutive season. He is one of two ACC coaches on the list. Hamilton and his staff have guided the Seminoles to a No. 11 national ranking just one season after losing three players to the NBA and a fourth who is enjoying a significant career as a professional player in Europe. Gone from last season's ACC Championship and NCAA Championship favorite are Patrick Williams (No. 4 overall pick of the Chicago Bulls in the 2021 NBA Draft), Devin Vassell (No. 11 overall pick of the San Antonio Spurs), Trent Forrest (a free agent signee who is currently earning playing with the Utah Jazz) and Dominik Olejniczak (currently averaging a double double in points and rebounds as a standout in the Polish Basketball League). The Seminoles have a 13-3 overall record with four wins over national ranked teams this season. The Seminoles have earned wins over No. 7 Virginia, No. 20 Clemson, No. 25 Florida and No. 25 Louisville and are tied for the ACC lead with four wins over nationally ranked teams this season. Florida State has also earned a win over Indiana in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge and has been ranked in the AP and USA Today Polls in 14 of 16 weeks since beginning the season ranked No. 21 in the AP Poll.

- ...Defeat Miami and gain a season-sweep of the regular season series between the two teams for the third consecutive season;
- ...Defeat Miami and win its seventh consecutive game against the Hurricanes. The Seminoles' current six-game winning streak is tied for their longest winning streak in the series which dates to the 1950-51 season. Quoting Florida State Basketball

"MJ Walker, in my mind, is the ACC Player of the Year."

LaPhonso Ellis ESPN

"I think MJ Walker has been, not only firstteam All-ACC good, but I think you could argue the player of the year conversation for the leaque."

> Jay Bilas ESPN

> > Totals

"Leonard Hamilton coached teams have always been known for their defense. And I think (people) underestimate, how good this team (Florida State) is offensively. This is the eighth-most efficient offense in the nation and a team that shoots 40 percent from the three-point line. That's also eighth in the nation. They have great balance on their front line.

LaPhonso Ellis ESPN

"RaiQuan Gray has been excellent. He checks every box in the box score. He'll get in every category."

> Jay Bilas ESPN

"Florida State is unlike a lot of teams you'll play. They make every catch hard, they switch every single screen, ball screen, off ball screen, they force you to spread the court, touch the paint and get a little bit aggressive to make the next pass. Their athleticism and their size is real."

Tony Bennett University of Virginia

"Florida State showed it is worthy of another ACC Championship. In a long-awaited showdown of the ACC's top two teams, the No. 16 Seminoles jumped all over No. 8 Virginia. FSU was out to a 20-point lead with over six minutes left in the first half on the way to an extremely comfortable 81-60 win over the Cavaliers."

Curt Weiler Tallahassee Democrat

"Florida State's 81-60 win over Virginia on Tallahassee was authoritative, surgical, and forceful all at the same time. The Seminoles had 10 different players play eight minutes or more in the victory and wore down Virginia possession by possession. Only two of Florida State's players — M.J. Walker and RaiQuan Gray — reached double figures. This team has the depth, balance, and offense. How good offensively are the Seminoles? In addition to scoring 81 points against Virginia, Florida State also shot 50 percent from the field and 54.2 percent from three-point range.

Jon Rothstein CBS Sports

"They're (Florida State) really good. Coach Hamilton does a real good job, a great job and their depth, they have great depth, [they] play a lot of guys, [they] play hard."

FSU's Scottie Barnes Thriving As 6-9 Point Guard; South Florida Native Drawing Magic Johnson Comparisons

By Tom D'Angelo Palm Beach Post February 23, 2021

Let's start with the smile and the unbridled enthusiasm. Then the hugs for his teammates, whether on the court for making a big play or in the dining hall, where Florida State coach Leonard Hamilton has seen his freshman guard, Scottie Barnes, make sure to show how much he appreciates every teammates by giving each of them a hug before they sit down.

"He's always been like that," said Kathalyn Wilkins, Barnes' mom who lives in West Palm Beach.

Now to his size and style. A wiry 6-foot-9 with ball-handling skills and quickness that allow him to facilitate, take a defender off the dribble or back down smaller, helpless opponents.

We're talking about Barnes, but close your eyes and image that same player wearing a green Michigan State uniform four decades ago.

"I watched Magic Johnson a lot," Barnes said last week. "Highlights, Instagram. You see how much of a great point guard he was, how he could find people, get them shots, how flashy he was. Just what he brought to the game. He played with so much excitement. You could see the smile and joy on his face. That's something I got, smile and joy and bring a lot of fun and passion to the game.

"Get assists, score when he wants to score, rebound the ball, push it in transition. You could see all that."

Some get offended when young players are compared to legendary, once-in-a-generation Hall of Famers. Nobody is saying Scottie Barnes is on the same track as an NCAA champion, five-time NBA champion, 12 time All-Star and three-time NBA MVP.

But watch video from FSU's season — or tune in Wednesday when No. 11 Florida State (13-3) and Miami (7-13) tip off at 8:30 p.m. at the Watsco Center in Coral Gables — and when you see Barnes jumping into the arms of center Balsa Koprivica during the Georgia Tech game, you could be watching Magic hugging Kareem Abdul-Jabbar in his Lakers debut. Or when Barnes easily gets to the basket to beat Indiana or send the Wake Forest game into overtime, that could be Magic in the old Boston Garden crushing the Celtics.

Barnes Bound For NBA Draft Lottery

When you hear coaches say of the uber-versatile that they can play 1 through 5 ... Barnes can play 1 through 5.

Which means he can be un-guardable at times.

And with 6-9 point guards a luxury, don't think the NBA hasn't noticed. With a 7-2 wingspan and 9-foot standing reach, Barnes is a virtual lock for the lottery and likely a top-10 pick in this summer's draft.

"His best basketball is ahead of him," Hamilton said. "He's in the transition period and he's doing pretty good."

That transition from power forward to point guard is not one you typically see. Barnes grew up in West Palm Beach, attended Cardinal Newman High School for one year, moved onto University School in Fort Lauderdale for two years before completing high school at Montverde Academy.

While coaches saw a post player and a wing, one who could facilitate but still a forward, Hamilton knew immediately what was best for this unique talent.

"When you see him playing as a high school kid you see an athletic, hard-nosed, tough, physical guy who loves contact, who can rebound, drive," Hamilton said. "But what I saw was a high-IQ basketball player, a guy that has the ability to make everybody around him better. I saw unselfish spirit.

"He had ball handling skills, dribbling and passing skills unique for a guy of his size."

Hamilton's vision is a big reason Barnes chose FSU, becoming the highest-rated recruit in school history, No. 5 overall.

"At point guard the ball's in my hands I just make a lot of great plays," Barnes said. "Being here it's helped me develop a lot more. It's helped my game out a lot."

Barnes is averaging 10.3 points, third on the team behind M.J. Walker and RaiQuan Gray. He leads the Seminoles with 4.2 assist and averages 3.9 rebounds. He is second in the ACC with a 2.33 assist-to-turnover ratio. Twice he has been named the conference Freshman of the Week.

Looking for a weaknesses: Barnes is shooting .549 from the free throw line (25 of 51) and .258 on 3s (8 of 31). "He's had to make more of an adjustment than anybody in America," Hamilton said. "Most guys playing point guard at this level on a nationally-ranked team, they've been playing point guard since they were in eighth grade."

Hoops Day and Night In West Palm Beach

Kathalyn Wilkins gets emotional talking about her son. She was overwhelmed when she walked into the Donald Tucker Center in Tallahassee for the first time to watch him play, and she was emotional last week talking about him during a phone interview.

"It brings tears to my eyes," she said. "I'm so proud of him. When I see him on TV, I say 'This is my son,' because I know how hard he worked for it.

"Ever since he was in the third grade he always walked around with a basketball. He'd run track. When he got home from track practice, he went straight to the Salvation Army to play basketball. I used to see him in the middle of the night in the road just practicing."

Wilkins raised Barnes and his three siblings alone from the time Scottie was around 11. They lived downtown, just north of what is now Rosemary Square. It wasn't easy. At times she doubted herself, saying sometimes as a single parent "you feel like you may have let them down."

But it was that reinforcement from her children that kept her strong.

"It was hard for her to raise four kids by herself," Scottie said. "We've been through a lot of things together. To see how strong she is, how she maintains herself. She gives it all for her kids."

Scottie would play at Alice Mickens Park or the Salvation Army, which is where he was discovered by a travel team, giving him is first real exposure. His one year at Cardinal Newman did not work out, at least on the court, although he still was named to the Palm Beach Post's All-Area Small Schools second team. He said he met a lot of great people and made a lot of friends at the school and loved school but ...

"I was a little immature coming in," he said about his basketball experience.

But he matured quickly and by his senior year at Montverde, he was finalist for the MaxPreps National Player of the Year and selected to play in the McDonald's All-American game, the Jordan Brand Classic and the Nike Hoop Summit. Barnes started the first seven games this season at FSU before turning an ankle and missing one game. Since, he's been coming off the bench, usually about two minutes after tipoff or after he has warmed up on the exercise bike.

"I think it's really helped him for a couple of minutes seeing the flow of the game and seeing how the other team's playing," Hamilton said. "In two minutes he's coming in giving us a lift."

For Barnes, it does not matter. He may not start, but he is certain to be on the floor at the end of a close game ... and probably towering over another smaller defender while making a pinpoint pass or backing him down for another crucial basket.

Game 2 -- Florida State 69, Indiana 67

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Freshman Scottie Barnes scored the game winning basket with 1.8 seconds remaining to play in overtime to lift No. 20 Florida State to a 69-67 win over Indiana at the Donald L. Tucker Center in the 22nd Annual ACC/Big Ten Challenge. Barnes was stellar in his first career overtime game as he scored his first career 3-point field goal and then hit the winner to help the Seminoles earn their 10th consecutive overtime victory. Barnes totaled nine points, five assists, four rebounds, and four steals to help the Seminoles improve to 2-0. The freshman opened and closed out the game with field goals in only his second game and second start in a Florida State uniform. Barnes is a candidate for the Bob Cousy award and has earned spots on the Naismith and Wooden Award watch lists. Indiana moved to 3-2 on the season. The win was Florida State's 67th in its last 70 games at home. The Seminoles have now won 25 consecutive home games and 40 straight non-conference games at home. Florida State turned up the defensive pressure in the overtime period. After surrendering an old-fashioned threepoint play to Indiana's Trayce Jackson-Davis to open the extra session, the Seminoles outscored the Hoosiers 7-2 over the final 4:38 of the extra session. The Hoosiers were unable to score from the floor and managed on two free throws in the final 4:38 of overtime

Game 3 -- Florida State 83, Florida 71

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Highly touted freshman Scottie Barnes scored 17 points and No. 20 Florida State extended its dominance against the Gators with an 83-71 victory that came after Florida suddenly lost its best player. The Seminoles led by as many as 18 in the second half. They ended up extending their winning streak against Florida to seven games, tying the longest by either team in the series. They also stretched their winning streak against nonconference opponents at home to 41 and won their 26th straight at home. Barnes, Anthony Polite and M.J. Walker made this one look easy most of the day. Barnes, the top-rated recruit of Hamilton's tenure in Tallahassee, had two thunderous dunks and was 7-of-10 shooting. It was a breakout game for the 6-foot-9 point guard many expect to be an NBA lottery pick.
