- UM will be celebrating the life of Howard Schnellenberger on Thursday night with an on-field ceremony, a special jersey patch and more planned.

THE SERIES

- Thursday's game between the Miami Hurricanes and Virginia Cavaliers is the 19th all-time meeting in the series; Miami leads, 11-7, including 7-2 in games played in Miami. Due to scheduling issues related to COVID-19, the Cavaliers are traveling to Miami for the third straight year dating to 2019.
- Miami has won five of the last six matchups dating back to 2015 and is looking for its third straight win over the Coastal Division foe Cavaliers.

THE HURRICANES

- The Miami Hurricanes return 19 of 22 starters from a 2020 team that finished 8-3 overall and 7-2 in Atlantic Coast Conference play. The Canes, who ended the year in the 2020 Cheez-It Bowl, became the third Miami team to win seven games in ACC play since joining the conference in 2004.
- The Hurricanes feature several returners who opted for another season at The U over the NFL Draft, led by one of college football's most electric players, QB D'Eriq King. In his first season as starting quarterback, King finished with 2,686 passing yards, 538 rushing yards and 27 total TDs.
- Last time out against Central Connecticut State (Sept. 25), Miami topped the Blue Devils, 69-0, at Hard Rock Stadium. Making the first start of his collegiate career, QB Tyler Van Dyke threw for 270 yards with three touchdowns, while S James Williams had three tackles and an interception.
- In its home opener on Sept. 11, the Hurricanes won against Appalachian State. Trailing 23-22 with less than five minutes remaining, freshman K Andy Borregales kicked a 43-yard field goal - his third made field goal of the game - to seal the victory versus the upset-minded Mountaineers.
- For head coach Manny Diaz, 2021 marks a return to his roots as the program's defensive signal caller and defensive coordinator. Diaz was hired by Mark Richt in 2016 as the program's defensive coordinator, a role he served in for three seasons before being named head coach in January of 2019.
- In addition to re-assuming his role as defensive coordinator, Diaz hired Travaris Robinson - former defensive coordinator at South Carolina - to coach defensive backs, added Ishmael Aristide from Texas A&M to coach strikers and promoted DeMarcus Van Dyke from recruiting operations to coach corners. Diaz also brought back defensive line coach Jess Simpson, who spent the previous two years as d-line coach of the Atlanta Falcons.
- Several Miami Hurricanes were selected as preseason candidates for major college football awards; in addition to King, who was named a candidate for nearly every offensive award, Miami had Bubba Bolden named to the Thorpe Award watch list, Will Mallory to the Mackey Award, Lou Hedley to the Ray Guy Award, Mike Harley to the Biletnikoff Award, both Zion Nelson and Jarrid Williams to the Outland Trophy watch list, and others.
- Miami had more production returning than all but three Power 5 programs in America (Arizona State, UCLA, Rutgers) at 91%; the national average of returning production from 2020 into 2021 was 76.7% across FBS. UM was the only team in the ACC to rank in the top 25 of FBS returning production.

THREE AND OUT

CANES CLOSE OUT HOMESTAND VS. UVA

- Miami wraps up a four-game homestand with its conference opener against Virginia on Thursday, Sept. 30. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. on ESPN.
- Miami has a 10-7 record all-time in ACC openers since joining the conference in 2004, and won last year's opener, 47-34, over Louisville on the road.
- The Hurricanes finished 4-1 at home in 2020 and are 26-7 in 33 regular season home games since Manny Diaz joined the UM staff as defensive coordinator in 2016.
- Miami is opening conference play at home for only the second time in the last eight years dating back to 2014 (2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2020).

VAN DYKE REPLACED D'ERIQ VS. CCSU

- After recovery from reconstructive surgery on a torn ACL and meniscus in his right knee suffered in Miami's 2020 bowl game, D'Eriq King made the 14th start of his UM career against Michigan State on Sept. 18 at Hard Rock Stadium.
- King hurt his shoulder in Miami's game against the Spartans, missing his first game since arriving in Coral Gables in January 2020 last time out vs. CCSU (Sept. 25).
- King is responsible for more than 10,000 yards in his collegiate career: 8,378 passing yards, 2,055 rushing yards, 520 receiving yards, 29 punt return yards and 260 kick return yards - a total of 11,242 yards.

SCHNELLENBERGER CEREMONY PLANNED

LAST TIME OUT: HURRICANES TOP CCSU, 69-0, AT HARD ROCK STADIUM

- The Hurricanes captured a win in their home matchup with Central Connecticut State, 69-0, on Sept. 25 at Hard Rock Stadium. Miami was playing the Blue Devils for the first time in program history.
- QB Tyler Van Dyke, making the first start of his Miami career in place of an injured QB D'Eriq King, finished 10-for-11 for 270 yards. QB Jake Garcia also saw action, finishing 11-for-14 for 147 yards.

RB Cam/Ron Harris had 100 yards and a pair of touchdowns, as Miami piled up 322 yards and five rushing touchdowns in the win.

HURRICANES ARE 4-1 IN ACC OPENERS SINCE DIAZ'S ARRIVAL IN 2016

- Ever since his arrival as a member of Mark Richt's staff in January 2016, Manny Diaz and the Miami Hurricanes have enjoyed impressive success in ACC openers, compiling a 4-1 mark in five seasons.
- In Diaz's three years as defensive coordinator, the Canes dominated at Georgia Tech (2016), at Duke (2017) and at home vs. North Carolina (2018), winning those games by an average of 25.3 points.
- After falling to North Carolina in its 2019 ACC opener - Diaz's first year as head coach - Miami bounced back with a 47-34 win over top-25 Louisville on the road in a College Gameday site matchup last year.
- UM is opening conference play at home for only the second time in the last eight years dating back to 2014 (2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2020). In 2018, UM topped UNC, 47-10, in its ACC opener at home.

RUN IT BACK: MIAMI AMONG NATION'S MOST EXPERIENCED 2021 TEAMS

- By nearly every metric, the Hurricanes entered 2021 as one of the nation's most experienced groups. QB D'Eriq King's December 2020 announcement regarding his plans to return for another year spurred a flurry of similar announcements from veterans across offense, defense and special teams.
- The Hurricanes returned 19 of 22 starters on offense and defense; Miami only lost TE Brevin Jordan (Houston Texans, fifth round), DE Jaelan Phillips (Miami Dolphins, first round) and DE Quincy Roche (Pittsburgh Steelers, sixth round) to the 2021 NFL Draft, as well as K Jose Borregales on special teams.
- According to Bill Connelly of ESPN, Miami returned 91% of its production from 2020 into 2021 - the highest of any program in the Atlantic Coast Conference, the fourth-most among any Power 5 program and the 13th-most in FBS. The national average for all of FBS entering 2021 was 76.7%.

2021 HURRICANES ALSO FEATURE NEW FACES, FIRST-TIME STARTERS

- In addition to several key returners, the Miami Hurricanes have seen several newcomers and first-year starters feature through the first two games of the season on offense, defense and special teams.
- Miami's offense featured three new starters through three games: WR Key'Shawn Smith, who saw limited action as a backup last year, WR Charleston Rambo, who transferred from Oklahoma and is in his first year at UM, and OL Jalen Rivers, who started at left guard but is out for the season to injury.
- In addition to those three players, OL Justice Oluwaseun - a UNLV transfer - has made two starts.
- On defense, LB Corey Flagg and LB Keontra Smith both started through the first two games of the season - Smith was injured versus App State. DE Zach McCloud and DE Jahfari Harvey are in their first full seasons as starters; both started in the 2020 Cheez-It Bowl for the first time at defensive end.
- S James Williams made the first start of his career in a win over Central Connecticut State (Sept. 25).
- On special teams, K Andy Borregales took over for older brother Jose, who won the Lou Groza in 2021 as the nation's top kicker. Borregales had the game-winning 43-yard field goal versus App State.

'THREE AMIGOS' SHOWED OUT AGAINST BLUE DEVILS WITH THREE TDs

- Miami boasted three of the top-rated wide receivers in the Class of 2021: Romello Brinson, Jacolby George and Brashard Smith. All three freshmen scored touchdowns last time out in a win over CCSU.
- The trio of wide receivers has been nicknamed the 'Three Amigos' - the three are close friends and live together with QB Jake Garcia. The trio combined for nine catches, 160 yards and three TDs last time out.
- All three are South Florida natives: Brinson and Smith are from Miami and George is from Fort Lauderdale.
- Both Brinson and George were ESPN300 prospects, while Smith was an Under Armour All-American.
- In a win over CCSU, Brinson had a one-handed catch in the end zone that made several national highlight reels as one of the top plays of Week 4. Smith showed off his speed with a 75-yard touchdown, while George - making his collegiate debut - was on the receiving end of a 44-yard scoring pass from Garcia.

"BREAK OUT THE CHAIN AGAIN!" NEWEST CHAIN COMES OUT VS. BAMA

- When DL Jordan Miller recovered a fumble in the third quarter of Miami's season opener versus Alabama, fans across the country awaited the unveil of the newest turnover chain - version 5.0 for 2021.
- The chain has previously featured a charm in the shape of the iconic 'U' (2017), Sebastian the Ibis (2018), the notorious '305' Miami area code (2019) and the famous school logo inside the state of Florida (2020). The newest charm, in the shape of a Miami helmet, weighs one kilogram and is encrusted with 2,754 sapphires. The fifth iteration of the chain is 34 inches long and weighs 3.5 kilograms (with no charm).
- The chain took roughly three and a half months to complete, and was designed by famed jeweler Anthony "AJ the Jeweler" Machado. He is the architect behind all five chains and "Touchdown Rings."
- From the start of 2017 - the year of unveiling of the first turnover chain - through 2020, UM was tied for third among all Power 5 programs in turnovers forced (92) and ranks No. 3 in turnovers forced per game (1.84).

VETERAN BACK HARRIS NAMED ONE OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S "FREAKS"

- RB Cam'Ron Harris cracked the annual "Freaks" list from college football writer Bruce Feldman of The Athletic, who named Harris No. 50 in his list of the top 100 freaky athletes in the sport entering 2021. Harris ran for 1,385 yards and 17 touchdowns in his first three seasons with the Hurricanes.
- Harris leads the Hurricanes with 272 rushing yards in the team's first four games, averaging 5.3 yards per carry.

#50 Cam'Ron Harris, Miami, running back

"In three seasons Harris has run for 1,385 yards and 17 touchdowns. At 5-10, 214 pounds, he hit 23.07 MPH, which is one of the fastest speeds registered by anyone, college or pro, in game action. His 75-yard touchdown run against Louisville is a good example of that burst. His 3-cone time of 6.88 would've topped any running back at the 2020 combine. Harris also squats 525 pounds and benches 365."

The Hurricanes had at least one defensive end drafted for the fifth straight year.
- The University of Miami leads all programs in the ACC in draft picks since 2000 (123). No program in the ACC had more alumni on NFL 53-man rosters than the Hurricanes did entering Week 1 of the 2020 NFL season, when Miami boasted 31 former players and more who were on practice squads. Miami had 25 players on active 53-man rosters as of the roster cutting deadline entering 2021.

MANNY DIAZ

HEAD COACH | THIRD SEASON AT MIAMI (THIRD OVERALL) | 16-12

Manny Diaz, who has deep roots in the Miami community and catapulted the Hurricane's defense to elite status during his three years as the team's defensive coordinator from 2016-2018, was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program on Sun., Dec. 30.

"Manny is one of the nation's elite coaches and the Canes Family has already embraced him and his incredible work ethic over the past three years," said UM Director of Athletics Blake James upon his hiring. "He is absolutely the passionate and innovative leader that our program needs, and we will work together to build an incredible staff to move our program back into championship contention."

In his most recent season as head coach of the Hurricanes in 2020, Diaz led Miami to an 8-3 overall record, including a 7-2 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play, and an appearance in the Cheez-It Bowl. Miami won seven games in ACC play for the second time with Diaz on staff (2017) and the third time overall.

During his 20-year coaching career, Diaz, the son of a former Miami mayor, also named Manny Diaz, has coached in 19 bowl games, amassing a 13-6 record in bowls, and has coached numerous all-conference and NFL players at six collegiate institutions.

Diaz, who has an impressive resume during nearly two decades as a defensive specialist coaching several collegiate programs, accepted his dream job of leading a Hurricanes team he believes is destined to return to the top echelon of collegiate football in the years to come.

Miami delivered another stellar season on defense in 2018. The Hurricanes ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense and ranked No. 1 in several categories, including tackles for loss, third down conversion percentage and passing yards allowed. Defensive tackle Gerald Willis earned All-American honors from several outlets while linebacker Shaq Quarterman was named to the All-ACC First Team - one of eight all-conference picks.

Continuing the impressive trends from Diaz's first year running the defense, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss and ninth nationally in opponent yards per play. Five Hurricanes on the defensive side of the ball earned 2017 All-ACC honors while another three picked up Honorable Mention recognition. Thanks in large part to his dominating unit, Miami also ranked No. 5 nationally in turnover margin, No. 8 nationally in fumbles recovered and No. 15 nationally in passes intercepted.

Miami's defense enjoyed vast improvements under Diaz' watch and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in his first season in 2016. At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers, and the Hurricanes' trio of Zach McCloud, Michael Pinckney and Shaquille Quarterman helped anchor the unit. Three defensive players earned ACSMA All-ACC honors - senior defensive backs Corn Elder (second team) and Rayshawn Jenkins (honorable mention) and Quarterman at linebacker (honorable mention).

In 2015, Diaz's defensive unit helped Mississippi State to a 9-4 record and a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. His defensive unit held opponents to just 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense and tackles for loss.

GAME FIVE - VIRGINIA

Diaz spent one season, 2014, at Louisiana Tech and his impact was felt in a big way. The Bulldogs led the nation in turnovers gained (42) with 16 fumble recoveries and 26 interceptions. Before his stop at Louisiana Tech, Diaz coached three seasons at Texas (2011-13). His 2011 defensive unit ranked ninth in total yards per play.

In 2010, during his first stint at Mississippi State, Diaz guided a defense that ranked No. 22 in the nation in scoring defense (19.9 ppg), No. 17 in rushing defense (214.9 ypg) and No. 17 in tackles for loss (7.0 pg). MSU also finished ranked No. 13 in red-zone defense (.730) and No. 22 in turnovers forced (28) nationally in 2010.

Before his first stop at Mississippi State, Diaz spent four seasons as defensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee State. Diaz coached linebackers for two years after mentoring the safeties during his first two years.

Diaz spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons at NCSU as a graduate assistant working primarily with the linebackers. During that time, the Wolfpack went to two bowl games and became the first ACC team to beat Florida State in Tallahassee.

Diaz began his coaching career at Florida State in 1998. In his two years as a graduate assistant, he was on the same coaching staff as former Miami head coach Mark Richt and was part of the Seminoles' national title-winning coaching staff in 1999.

Diaz and his wife Stephanie have three sons: Colin, Gavin and Manny.
