THE SERIES

- The Hurricanes carry a perfect 4-0 all-time record against Michigan State into Saturday's game; the two teams have not matched up since 1989.
- In Miami's last game against Michigan State, the No. 2-ranked Hurricanes topped the Spartans in East Lansing by a final score of 26-20 on Sept. 30, 1989, a year Miami would go on to win its third national championship. UM is 3-0 all-time against Michigan State in games played in Miami.

THE HURRICANES

- The Miami Hurricanes return 19 of 22 starters from a 2020 team that finished 8-3 overall and 7-2 in Atlantic Coast Conference play. The Canes, who ended the year in the 2020 Cheez-It Bowl, became the third Miami team to win seven games in ACC play since joining the conference in 2004.
- The Hurricanes feature several returners who opted for another season at The U over the NFL Draft, led by one of college football's most electric players, QB D'Eriq King. In his first season as starting quarterback, King finished with 2,686 passing yards, 538 rushing yards and 27 total TDs.
- Last time out, the Miami Hurricanes won their home opener against Appalachian State on Sept. 11. Trailing 23-22 with less than five minutes remaining, freshman K Andy Borregales kicked a 43-yard field goal - his third field goal of the game - to seal the victory versus upstart App State.
- Miami was ranked #14 in the Associated Press preseason top 25 and #16 in the USA TODAY Sports AFCA Coaches Poll released in August.
- Miami was ranked #18 in the final College Football Playoff rankings of 2020; it was UM's second time being included in the final CFP rankings.
- For head coach Manny Diaz, 2021 will mark a return to his roots as the program's defensive signal caller and defensive coordinator. Diaz was hired by Mark Richt in 2016 as the program's defensive coordinator, a role he served in for three seasons before being named head coach in January of 2019.
- In addition to re-assuming his role as defensive coordinator, Diaz hired Travaris Robinson - former defensive coordinator at South Carolina - to coach defensive backs, added Ishmael Aristide from Texas A&M to coach strikers and promoted DeMarcus Van Dyke from recruiting operations to coach corners. Diaz also brought back defensive line coach Jess Simpson, who spent the previous two years as d-line coach of the Atlanta Falcons.
- Several Miami Hurricanes were selected as preseason candidates for major college football awards; in addition to King, who was named a candidate for nearly every offensive award, Miami had Bubba Bolden named to the Thorpe Award watch list, Will Mallory to the Mackey Award, Lou Hedley to the Ray Guy Award, Mike Harley to the Biletnikoff Award, both Zion Nelson and Jarrod Williams to the Outland Trophy watch list, and others.
- Miami has more production returning than all but three Power 5 programs in America (Arizona State, UCLA, Rutgers) at 91%; the national average of returning production from 2020 into 2021 was 76.7% across FBS. UM was the only team in the ACC to rank in the top 25 of FBS returning production.

QUICK HITS

CANES HOST MICHIGAN STATE AT NOON

- #24/RV Miami continues its home slate with a nonconference matchup against RV/RV Michigan State on Sat., Sept. 18. Kickoff is set for noon on ABC.
- The Hurricanes have not matched up with a BIG team in the regular season since hosting Nebraska on Sept. 19, 2015 - a 36-33 overtime win.
- UM's last game against a BIG team was the 2018 New Era Pinstripe Bowl vs. Wisconsin; UM also matched up with UW in the 2017 Capital One Orange Bowl.
- The Hurricanes finished 4-1 at home in 2020 and are 25-6 in 31 regular season home games since Manny Diaz joined the UM staff as defensive coordinator in 2016.

RETURN OF THE KING IN CORAL GABLES

- After recovery from reconstructive surgery on a torn ACL and meniscus in his right knee suffered in Miami's 2020 bowl game, D'Eriq King is slated for the 14th start of his UM career against Michigan State on Sept. 18 at Hard Rock Stadium.
- King is responsible for more than 10,000 yards in his collegiate career: 7,990 passing yards, 2,048 rushing yards, 520 receiving yards, 29 punt return yards and 260 kick return yards - a total of 10,847 yards.
- King spent the first four seasons of his career at Houston; the Manvel, Texas native was selected to the watch lists for the Davey O'Brien Award, Johnny Unitas Award and Maxwell Award this preseason.

'TURNOVER CHAIN' ICONIC ACROSS CFB

- Since the unveiling of the Turnover Chain during the 2017 season, Miami has ranked among the leaders in all of Power 5 in turnovers forced over the last four seasons.
- Entering the 2021 season, the Hurricanes were tied with Iowa and Syracuse with 92 turnovers forced since the chain's inception - the third-most in Power 5, behind only Clemson (97) and Alabama (95).
- The Hurricanes' average of 1.84 turnovers forced per game since the unveiling of the chain is also the third-most among all Power 5 teams.
- Miami's newest chain - featuring a sapphire-encrusted helmet charm - made its debut in the season opener vs. Alabama.

BY THE NUMBERS

The Hurricanes, who ranked No. 4 in FBS with in tackles for loss last year, are the only school to rank in the top five in TFLs in FBS each of Manny Diaz's five seasons at The U (2016 - 2020). Miami is averaging 9.0 TFLs through two games.

11

QB D'Eriq King is one of just 11 quarterbacks in FBS with more than 30 career starts at QB. Saturday's game will mark King's 33rd start.

14

In 14 home openers at Hard Rock Stadium - including last week's game against App State - the Miami Hurricanes have managed a perfect 14-0 record.

64.1

QB D'Eriq King ranked No. 2 in Miami history in single-season completion percentage by completing 64.1 percent of his passes in 2020 (211-for-329).

133

WR Michael Harley ranks eighth all time in career receptions at Miami in 2020 with 133 career catches; he had five versus App State.

169

Few offensive lines in the country can match Miami's 164 combined starts at the FBS level - in fact, UM trails only Minnesota (190) in combined FBS experience on the offensive line.

10,847

QB D'Eriq King is responsible for more than 10,000 yards during his illustrious career - 7,990 passing yards, 2,048 rushing yards, 520 receiving yards, 29 punt return yards and 260 kick return yards.

#24/RV HURRICANES HOST MICHIGAN STATE AT HARD ROCK STADIUM

- #24/RV Miami continues its early-season home stretch on Sat., Sept. 18 against Michigan State at Hard Rock Stadium. Kickoff for the matchup is set for 12 p.m. with national broadcast on ABC.
- After opening its season against #1/#1 Alabama in Atlanta, Miami is in the midst of a four-game home stretch followed by a bye week - 41 days will have elapsed in between non-home games for the Hurricanes. Miami's next scheduled road game - its first of the year - is Oct. 16 at North Carolina.
- The Hurricanes are matching up with the Spartans for the first time since 1989, when No. 2-ranked Miami traveled to East Lansing, Mich., and delivered a 26-20 win en route to the 1989 national title.
- Head coach Manny Diaz is entering his third season at the helm in Coral Gables; Diaz led Miami to an 8-3 record in 2020, including a 7-2 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play. Miami won seven games in ACC play for just the second time in program history in 2020 - UM finished 7-1 in ACC play in 2017.
- UM's game versus the Spartans is slated for broadcast on 560 WQAM, WMYM 990 AM & WVUM 90.5.

LAST TIME OUT: BORREGALES BOOTS MIAMI PAST APP STATE, 25-23

- The Miami Hurricanes opened their 14th season at world-class Hard Rock Stadium with a 25-23 win over Appalachian State on Sept. 11. A 43-yard field goal by freshman K Andy Borregales with 2:04 remaining in the contest pushed UM past the upstart Mountaineers, who took a fourth-quarter lead.
- Borregales nailed three of four field goal attempts on the day, including two in the fourth quarter. He hit a 37-yard field goal earlier in the fourth before connecting on the career-long, game-winning kick.
- QB D'Eriq King threw for 200 yards and added 79 rushing yards. STRK Amari Carter wore the turnover chain for the first time in 2021 on an interception off a tipped pass from DE Chantz Williams.
- Miami held Appalachian State's patented outside zone rushing game to just 127 rush yards in the win.
- With the victory over App State, Miami improved to 14-0 all-time in home openers at the stadium.

RUN IT BACK: MIAMI AMONG NATION'S MOST EXPERIENCED TEAMS

- By nearly every metric, the Hurricanes entered 2021 as one of the nation's most experienced groups. QB D'Eriq King's December 2020 announcement regarding his plans to return for another year spurred a flurry of similar announcements from veterans across offense, defense and special teams.
- The Hurricanes returned 19 of 22 starters on offense and defense; Miami only lost TE Brevin Jordan (Houston Texans, fifth round), DE Jaelan Phillips (Miami Dolphins, first round) and DE Quincy Roche (Pittsburgh Steelers, sixth round) to the 2021 NFL Draft, as well as K Jose Borregales on special teams.
- According to Bill Connelly of ESPN, Miami returns 91% of its production from 2020 into 2021 - the highest of any program in the Atlantic Coast Conference, the fourth-most among any Power 5 program and the 13th-most in FBS. The national average for all of FBS entering 2021 was 76.7%.

2021 HURRICANES ALSO FEATURE NEW FACES, FIRST-TIME STARTERS

- In addition to several key returners, the Miami Hurricanes have seen several newcomers and first-year starters feature through the first two games of the season on offense, defense and special teams.
- Miami's offense has featured three new starters so far this season: WR Key'Shawn Smith, who saw limited action as a backup last year, WR Charleston Rambo, who transferred from Oklahoma and is in his first year at The U, and OL Jalen Rivers, who has started left guard in the first two games of 2021.
- In addition to those three players, OL Justice Oluwaseun - a UNLV transfer - started versus App State.
- On defense, LB Corey Flagg and LB Keontra Smith both started through the first two games of the season - Smith was injured versus App State. DE Zach McCloud and DE Jahfari Harvey are in their first full seasons as starters; both started in the 2020 Cheez-It Bowl for the first time at defensive end.
- On special teams, K Andy Borregales took over for older brother Jose, who won the Lou Groza in 2021 as the nation's top kicker. Last time out, Borregales had the game-winning 43-yard field goal.
- 13 Hurricanes have made their debuts through two games in 2021, including eight true freshmen.

SMITH OFF TO FAST START IN YEAR TWO, AMONG LEADERS AT WIDEOUT

- After seeing limited action in 2020 and finishing his true freshman season with just two catches, WR Key'Shawn Smith has played a big role for the Hurricanes' offense early on in 2021.
- Smith earned a starting wide receiver spot after a strong offseason, and has earned the role with eight catches totaling a team-high 110 yards through the first two games of the season. Last time out against App State, Smith had a game-high 70 yards on four receptions including one acrobatic grab.
- Originally a Washington State signee, Smith was able to join the Hurricanes after a coaching change in Pullman. A native of San Diego, the young speedster totaled 46 catches for 808 yards as a HS senior.
- Headlined by Smith, Miami's group of four second-year freshmen wide receivers have combined for 13 catches and 186 yards in 2021; last year, the quartet totaled six catches for a combined 66 yards.

THE KING IS BACK IN CORAL GABLES: D'ERIQ A HEISMAN CANDIDATE

- After a dominant first season in Coral Gables, QB D'Eriq King announced his plans to return to the Hurricanes in 2021 on Dec. 26, 2020 - just before Miami's appearance in the 2020 Cheez-It Bowl.
- King, who tore the ACL and meniscus in his right knee during that bowl game, is fully recovered from the injury and will be under center when the Hurricanes take on Michigan State on Sept. 18.
- King spent the first four seasons of his career at the University of Houston; 2021 marks the first time since high school he has had the same coordinator in back-to-back years (Rhett Lashlee).
- The veteran entered 2021 as one of just 11 quarterbacks in FBS with more than 30 career starts at QB.
- King was named a preseason watch list for several major awards, including the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, the Davey O'Brien Award (top quarterback) and the Maxwell Award (player of the year).
- The Manvel, Texas native is responsible for more than 10,000 yards during his illustrious career - 7,990 passing yards, 2,048 rushing yards, 520 receiving yards, 29 punt return yards and 260 kick return yards - a total of 10,847 yards. He totaled 3,224 yards (2,686 passing, 538 rushing) at Miami in 2020.
- King set an FBS record with at least one rushing touchdown and one passing touchdown in 16 straight games, a streak that ended at Louisville in 2020; he bested Florida QB Tim Tebow's FBS record (15).
- King became the first Miami QB in history to rush for 100 yards in a game in a win at NC State in 2020.
- King had a prolific career with the Cougars, totaling 82 total touchdowns (50 passing, 28 rushing, three receiving, one kickoff return), 4,925 passing yards and 1,421 rushing yards in just 22 starts.
- King became the first player in Houston history to throw a touchdown, catch a touchdown and return a kickoff for a touchdown in the same game when he managed the feat for Houston at Texas State.

"BREAK OUT THE CHAIN AGAIN!" NEWEST CHAIN COMES OUT VS. BAMA

- When DL Jordan Miller recovered a fumble in the third quarter of Miami's season opener versus Alabama, fans across the country awaited the unveil of the newest turnover chain - version 5.0 for 2021.
- The chain has previously featured a charm in the shape of the iconic 'U' (2017), Sebastian the Ibis (2018), the notorious '305' Miami area code (2019) and the famous school logo inside the state of Florida (2020). The newest charm, in the shape of a Miami helmet, weighs one kilogram and is encrusted with 2,754 sapphires. The chain itself is 34 inches long and weighs roughly 3.5 kilograms.
- The chain took roughly three and a half months to complete, and was designed by famed jeweler Anthony "AJ the Jeweler" Machado. He is the architect behind all five chains and "Touchdown Rings."
- From the start of 2017 - the year of unveiling of the first turnover chain - through 2020, UM is tied for third among all Power 5 programs in turnovers forced (92) and ranks No. 3 in turnovers forced per game (1.84).

MALLORY NEXT UP AT TIGHT END U, CARRYING ON FAMILY LEGACY

- Following the departure of TE Brevin Jordan, who declared for the NFL after a standout career at UM, veteran Will Mallory is next in line to carry the torch for the tight end factory that is Miami Football.
- Mallory has flashed the ability to be a dominant figure during his three seasons at The U; during a three-game injury absence for Jordan last year, Mallory totaled 10 catches, 187 yards and three TDs.
- In his three seasons entering 2021, Mallory has totaled 43 receptions, 659 yards and seven TDs - four in 2020 alone. This season, Mallory has five catches totaling 28 yards in the first two starts in 2021.
- A football legacy, Mallory's grandfather Bill Mallory is the winningest coach in Indiana University history. His father, Mike, spent last season as assistant special teams coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars.

VETERAN BACK HARRIS NAMED ONE OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S "FREAKS"

- RB Cam'Ron Harris cracked the annual "Freaks" list from college football writer Bruce Feldman of The Athletic, who named Harris No. 50 in his list of the top 100 freaky athletes in the sport entering 2021.
- Harris ran for 1,385 yards and 17 touchdowns in his first three seasons with the Hurricanes.
- Harris leads the Hurricanes with 128 rushing yards in two games, averaging 4.3 yards per carry.

#50 Cam'Ron Harris, Miami, running back

"In three seasons Harris has run for 1,385 yards and 17 touchdowns. At 5-10, 214 pounds, he hit 23.07 MPH, which is one of the fastest speeds registered by anyone, college or pro, in game action. His 75-yard touchdown run against Louisville is a good example of that burst. His 3-cone time of 6.88 would've topped any running back at the 2020 combine. Harris also squats 525 pounds and benches 365."

MANNY DIAZ

HEAD COACH | THIRD SEASON AT MIAMI (THIRD OVERALL) | 15-11

Manny Diaz, who has deep roots in the Miami community and catapulted the Hurricane's defense to elite status during his three years as the team's defensive coordinator from 2016-2018, was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program on Sun., Dec. 30.

"Manny is one of the nation's elite coaches and the Canes Family has already embraced him and his incredible work ethic over the past three years," said UM Director of Athletics Blake James upon his hiring. "He is absolutely the passionate and innovative leader that our program needs, and we will work together to build an incredible staff to move our program back into championship contention."

In his most recent season as head coach of the Hurricanes in 2020, Diaz led Miami to an 8-3 overall record, including a 7-2 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play, and an appearance in the Cheez-It Bowl. Miami won seven games in ACC play for the second time with Diaz on staff (2017) and the third time overall.

During his 20-year coaching career, Diaz, the son of a former Miami mayor, also named Manny Diaz, has coached in 19 bowl games, amassing a 13-6 record in bowls, and has coached numerous all-conference and NFL players at six collegiate institutions.

Diaz, who has an impressive resume during nearly two decades as a defensive specialist coaching several collegiate programs, accepted his dream job of leading a Hurricanes team he believes is destined to return to the top echelon of collegiate football in the years to come.

Miami delivered another stellar season on defense in 2018. The Hurricanes ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense and ranked No. 1 in several categories, including tackles for loss, third down conversion percentage and passing yards allowed. Defensive tackle Gerald Willis earned All-American honors from several outlets while linebacker Shaq Quarterman was named to the All-ACC First Team - one of eight all-conference picks.

Continuing the impressive trends from Diaz's first year running the defense, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss and ninth nationally in opponent yards per play. Five Hurricanes on the defensive side of the ball earned 2017 All-ACC honors while another three picked up Honorable Mention recognition. Thanks in large part to his dominating unit, Miami also ranked No. 5 nationally in turnover margin, No. 8 nationally in fumbles recovered and No. 15 nationally in passes intercepted.

Miami's defense enjoyed vast improvements under Diaz' watch and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in his first season in 2016. At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers, and the Hurricanes' trio of Zach McCloud, Michael Pinckney and Shaquille Quarterman helped anchor the unit. Three defensive players earned ACSMA All-ACC honors - senior defensive backs Corn Elder (second team) and Rayshawn Jenkins (honorable mention) and Quarterman at linebacker (honorable mention).

In 2015, Diaz's defensive unit helped Mississippi State to a 9-4 record and a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. His defensive unit held opponents to just 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense and tackles for loss.
