THE SERIES

- Saturday's game versus the Panthers is the 41st all-time matchup in the series, which Miami leads, 28-11-1, including a 13-6 advantage in Pittsburgh.
- The Coastal foes have met every year since 2013 (Pitt's first year in the ACC), and Miami has a 6-2 lead in those games, including three straight wins.
- The Hurricanes won last year's matchup 31-19, at Hard Rock Stadium on Oct. 17, 2020. Manny Diaz is 2-0 as head coach against the Panthers.

THE HURRICANES

- The Miami Hurricanes returned 19 of 22 starters from a 2020 team that finished 8-3 overall and 7-2 in Atlantic Coast Conference play. The Canes, who ended the year in the 2020 Cheez-It Bowl, became the third Miami team to win seven games in ACC play since joining the conference in 2004.
- On Oct. 11, head coach Manny Diaz announced starting QB D'Eriq King would miss the rest of the season due to shoulder surgery resulting from an injury versus Michigan State. In his first season as starting quarterback, King finished with 2,686 passing yards, 538 rushing yards and 27 total TDs.
- Last time out against NC State (Oct. 23), the Hurricanes pulled off a 31-30 victory over NC State Wolfpack at Hard Rock Stadium. Making the fourth start of his career, QB Tyler Van Dyke threw for 325 yards on 25-for-33 passing with four touchdowns and no interceptions in his best outing yet.
- RB Jaylan Knighton was named ACC Rookie of the Week for his performance against UNC, where he finished with 165 all-purpose yards & three TDs.
- In its home opener on Sept. 11, the Hurricanes won against Appalachian State. Trailing 23-22 with less than five minutes remaining, freshman K Andy Borregales kicked a 43-yard field goal - his third made field goal of the game - to seal the victory versus the upset-minded Mountaineers.
- For head coach Manny Diaz, 2021 marks a return to his roots as the program's defensive signal caller and defensive coordinator. Diaz was hired by Mark Richt in 2016 as the program's defensive coordinator, a role he served in for three seasons before being named head coach in January of 2019.
- In addition to re-assuming his role as defensive coordinator, Diaz hired Travaris Robinson - former defensive coordinator at South Carolina - to coach defensive backs, added Ishmael Aristide from Texas A&M to coach strikers and promoted DeMarcus Van Dyke from recruiting operations to coach corners. Diaz also brought back defensive line coach Jess Simpson, who spent the previous two years as d-line coach of the Atlanta Falcons.
- Several Miami Hurricanes were selected as preseason candidates for major college football awards; in addition to King, who was named a candidate for nearly every offensive award, Miami had Bubba Bolden named to the Thorpe Award watch list, Will Mallory to the Mackey Award, Lou Hedley to the Ray Guy Award, Mike Harley to the Biletnikoff Award, both Zion Nelson and Jarrod Williams to the Outland Trophy watch list, and others.
- Miami had more production returning than all but three Power 5 programs in America (Arizona State, UCLA, Rutgers) at 91%; the national average of returning production from 2020 into 2021 was 76.7% across FBS. UM was the only team in the ACC to rank in the top 25 of FBS returning production.

THREE AND OUT

MIAMI TRAVELS TO STEEL CITY OCT. 30

- The Hurricanes are looking for their third straight win over the Panthers on Saturday, and have won six of eight games against their Coastal Division foes since Pitt joined the conference prior to the 2013 season.
- Head coach Manny Diaz is 2-0 against Pitt all-time; Miami topped the Panthers, 16-12, in 2019 and emerged with a 31-19 win at Hard Rock Stadium last year.
- Miami leads the all-time series, 28-11-1, including a 13-6 lead in games played in the Steel City.

KING, HARRIS TO MISS REST OF SEASON

- After recovery from reconstructive surgery on a torn ACL and meniscus in his right knee suffered in Miami's 2020 bowl game, D'Eriq King made the 14th start of his UM career against Michigan State.
- King hurt his shoulder in Miami's game against the Spartans and missed the first two starts of his career. Head coach Manny Diaz announced on Oct. 11 that King would miss the remainder of the season due to shoulder surgery.

MIAMI LOOKING FOR SECOND STRAIGHT WIN OVER RANKED OPPONENT

- Coming off a thrilling 31-30 win over #18/#18 NC State last time out, the Miami Hurricanes are looking for their second straight win over a ranked team when they travel to #17/#19 Pittsburgh on Oct. 30.
- The Hurricanes are 28-11-1 all-time against the Panthers, including a 6-2 lead in games played as ACC opponents. Manny Diaz is 2-0 in two previous matchups as head coach against Pitt (2019, 2020).
- Miami is making only its second true road trip of the 2021 season when it travels to the Steel City. After opening its season against Alabama in Atlanta on Sept. 4, Miami ended a four-game homestand on Sept. 30 vs. Virginia followed by an open date before playing North Carolina in Chapel Hill, N.C. on Oct. 16. 41 days elapsed between the Hurricanes' first two games away from home so far this season.
- Head coach Manny Diaz is currently in his third season at the helm in Coral Gables; Diaz led Miami to an 8-3 record in 2020, including a 7-2 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play. Miami won seven games in ACC play for just the second time in program history in 2020 - UM finished 7-1 in ACC play in 2017.
- UM's game versus the Panthers is slated for broadcast on 560 WQAM, WMYM 990 AM & WVUM 90.5.

LAST TIME OUT: MIAMI TOPS WOLFPACK, 31-30, BEHIND TVD'S BIG DAY

- The Hurricanes enjoyed a thrilling 31-30 win over #18/#18 NC State last time out, emerging victorious at home to snap a three-game losing streak. It was Miami's fourth straight win over the Wolfpack.
- QB Tyler Van Dyke, making the fourth straight start for Miami, delivered the best performance of his young career in the win. Van Dyke set career marks for completions, passing yards and touchdowns in a 25-for-33, 325-yard, four-touchdown effort. The Miami offense finished with 420 yards in the win.

- UM's defense held Pittsburgh to just 22 total rushing yards and 300 yards of total offense in the win.
- DE Quincy Roche was among Miami's top defensive performers in the win, finishing with a season-best seven tackles including a game-high four tackles for loss. He also forced and recovered a fumble.
- DL Jared Harrison-Hunte had two tackles for loss and a sack, while S Gurvan Hall had eight tackles.
- P Lou Hedley had one of his most outstanding performances, averaging 51.7 yards on six punts with a season-long 60 yarder - the best single-game average (six punt minimum) by a Hurricane since 2007.

'ROOSTER' NOW RB1, HAS SHINED IN BACK-TO-BACK WEEKS FOR CANES

- After RB Cam'Ron Harris suffered a season-ending leg injury in a loss to North Carolina on Oct. 16, RB Jaylan Knighton began preparations to assume lead back responsibilities against NC State on Oct. 23.
- Nicknamed 'Rooster' by former Pop Warner football coach named Dave Williams for his reddish hair in a mohawk style as a kid, Knighton was named ACC Rookie of the Week on Mon., Oct. 18 after posting the best outing of his career vs. the Tar Heels. Knighton totaled 165 all-purpose yards and three touchdowns.
- Knighton upped the ante with his start against the Wolfpack, finishing with 166 all-purpose yards, including a career-high 21 carries in the win. He was named ACC Running Back of the Week on Oct. 25.
- Knighton played in nine games and made two starts in his first year of college football in 2020 but was suspended for the first four games of 2021 due to a violation of team rules. He returned versus Virginia.
- Knighton was a consensus four-star prospect by all major scouting services. He was listed as the No. 88 player in the ESPN300 and rated the No. 11 running back nationally and No. 15 player in Florida by ESPN.

'O' STARTING TO CLICK WITH LONG SCORING DRIVES OVER LAST THREE

- Despite a myriad of different season-ending injuries to four opening day starters, the Hurricanes offense has begun to click over the last three games, all of which have been vs. Atlantic Coast Conference teams.
- Miami's offense had just five scoring drives of 70-plus yards over its first three games vs. Alabama, App State and Michigan State combined. It had five such drives last time out versus NC State (Oct. 23).
- After posting five scoring drives of 70-or-more yards over its first three games, the Hurricanes have managed 10 such drives over the last three games, including two versus Virginia (Sept. 30) and three versus UNC (Oct. 16). - When DL Jordan Miller recovered a fumble in the third quarter of Miami's season opener vs. Alabama, fans across the country awaited the unveil of the newest turnover chain - version 5.0 for 2021.

The fifth iteration of the chain is 34 inches long and weighs 3.5 kilograms (with no charm).

'THREE AMIGOS' SHOWING PROMISE AT WR IN FIRST SEASONS AT MIAMI

- Miami boasted three of the top-rated wide receivers in the Class of 2021: Romello Brinson, Jacoby George and Brashard Smith. All three freshmen scored TDs in Miami's win over Central Conn. State.
- The trio of wide receivers has been nicknamed the 'Three Amigos' - the three are close friends and live together with QB Jake Garcia. The trio combined for nine catches, 160 yards and three TDs vs. CCSU.
- All three are South Florida natives: Brinson and Smith are from Miami and George is from Fort Lauderdale.
- Both Brinson and George were ESPN300 prospects, while Smith was an Under Armour All-American.
- In a win over CCSU, Brinson had a one-handed catch in the end zone that made several national highlight reels as one of the top plays of Week 4. Smith showed off his speed with a 75-yard touchdown, while George - making his collegiate debut - was on the receiving end of a 44-yard scoring pass from Garcia.

SMITH OFF TO FAST START IN YEAR TWO, HAD CAREER-GAME VERSUS UNC

- After seeing limited action in 2020 and finishing his true freshman season with just two catches, WR Key'Shawn Smith has played a big role for the Hurricanes' offense at the midpoint of 2021.
- Smith earned a starting wide receiver spot after a strong offseason, and been up to the task with 24 catches totaling 270 yards through the first seven games of the season. In UM's game against Michigan State, Smith finished with four catches totaling 50 yards. He had a career-best seven catches versus UNC.
- Originally a Washington State signee, Smith was able to join the Hurricanes after a coaching change in Pullman. A native of San Diego, the young speedster totaled 46 catches for 808 yards as a HS senior.

DEFENSE RANKS No. 17 IN FBS IN TFLs THROUGH FIRST SIX WEEKS OF 2021

- Miami Football fans witness a familiar sight on Saturdays this fall as Manny Diaz assumed his responsibilities as playcaller and defensive coordinator; Diaz was defensive coordinator from 2016- 2019.
- Miami was one of just 11 teams in FBS and the only one from ACC to record 10 tackles for loss in Week 1.
- UM was tied for No. 17 in FBS tackles for loss after Week 7; Miami is averaging 6.6 tackles for loss per game.
- The Hurricanes defense has featured at least one player with 15 tackles for loss for three straight years; Jaelan Phillips (15.5) in 2020, Gregory Rousseau (19.5) in 2019 and Jonathan Garvin (18.0) in 2018.
- Including Diaz's time as head coach, Miami has had multiple defensive players record double-digit tackles for loss in four of his five seasons at The U, including Phillips (15.5) and Quincy Roche (14.5) a season ago.
- The Hurricanes are the only team since Diaz's arrival to Coral Gables in 2016 to rank among the top five in all of FBS in tackles for loss each year; Miami was No. 4 in 2020 (8.6 per game), No. 4 in 2019 (8.3), No. 1 in 2020 (10.5), No. 4 in 2017 (8.5) and No. 5 in 2016 (8.3). So far, Miami ranks No. 10 in FBS at 8.7 per game.

RESTREPO SEEING INCREASED ROLE, HAD CAREER GAME VERSUS CCSU

- Second-year WR Xavier Restrepo hauled in three passes totaling 55 yards, including the first score of his career on a 29-yard contested catch vs. Alabama on a connection with QB D'Eriq King in Atlanta.
- In a win over CCSU, Restrepo had a career-high four catches totaling a career-best 75 yards, including a 42-yard catch. Restrepo added an 18-yard catch vs. App State; he had just one 12-yard catch in 2020.

BROTHERLY LOVE: BORREGALES HITS LONGEST KICKER EVER BY A FROSH

- A year after his older brother Jose became the first Lou Groza Award winner in program history, Andres "Andy" Borregales entered his true freshman season at The U as Miami's starting placekicker for 2021.
- Earlier this year, Andy connected on a 55-yard field goal that was the longest by a freshman in UM history.
- After missing a kick off the uprights against Virginia as time expired in the fourth quarter, he rebounded with two field goals of 40+ yards in a close loss to North Carolina, hitting from both 44 yards and 42 yards.
- Andy connected on his lone two field goal attempts and one extra point attempt versus Alabama in the opener; he hit from 38 yards out at the end of the first half and also converted from 27 yards in the loss.
- The freshman went 3-for-4 vs. App State, including the game-winning 43-yard field goal with 2:04 left.
- Jose was Miami's first consensus All-America since 2004 in his lone season at The U, finishing 20-for-22 on field goal attempts and a perfect 37-for-37 on extra point attempts. He passed on #30 to his brother.

MIAMI SET FBS RECORD FOR NET PUNTING, HEDLEY OFF TO GOOD START

- In his three seasons entering 2021, Mallory has totaled 43 receptions, 659 yards and seven TDs.

Miami signed 21 prospects during the early signing period, with 18 of them hailing from the state of Florida. 15 of those 21 players call either Miami-Dade, Broward or Palm Beach County home - otherwise known as "The State of Miami."
- The Hurricanes signed 10 players ranked in the Rivals' top 250 prospects for the Class of 2021.

VETERAN BACK HARRIS, NAMED ONE OF CFB's "FREAKS", TO MISS SEASON

- RB Cam'Ron Harris cracked the annual "Freaks" list from college football writer Bruce Feldman of The Athletic, who named Harris No. 50 in his list of the top 100 freaky athletes in the sport entering 2021. Harris ran for 1,385 yards and 17 touchdowns in his first three seasons with the Hurricanes.
- Harris suffered a season-ending injury in Miami's loss at North Carolina and underwent surgery.
- Harris had posted back-to-back 100-yard games in two outings prior to the injury, marking the second time he has posted back-to-back performances and first time since doing it last year in the first two games of the 2020 season (vs. UAB, at Louisville). He has five career 100-yard games to his name.
- In a loss against Virginia (Sept. 30), Harris posted 111 yards on 14 carries with two touchdowns. Harris now has 22 career rushing touchdowns, which ranks 10th all-time at Miami. He surpassed Clinton Portis, who was previously 10th with 21 touchdowns, with his pair against the Cavaliers.

#50 Cam'Ron Harris, Miami, running back

"In three seasons Harris has run for 1,385 yards and 17 touchdowns. At 5-10, 214 pounds, he hit 23.07 MPH, which is one of the fastest speeds registered by anyone, college or pro, in game action. His 75-yard touchdown run against Louisville is a good example of that burst. His 3-cone time of 6.88 would've topped any running back at the 2020 combine. Harris also squats 525 pounds and benches 365."

- Four Hurricanes were selected in the 2021 NFL Draft: Jaelan Phillips (first round, Miami), Gregory Rousseau (first round, Buffalo), Brevin Jordan (fifth round, Houston) and Quincy Roche (sixth round, Pittsburgh.). No program in the ACC had more alumni on NFL 53-man rosters than the Hurricanes did entering Week 1 of the 2020 NFL season, when Miami boasted 31 former players and more who were on practice squads. Miami had 25 players on active 53-man rosters as of the roster cutting deadline entering 2021.

MANNY DIAZ

HEAD COACH | THIRD SEASON AT MIAMI (THIRD OVERALL) | 17-14

Manny Diaz, who has deep roots in the Miami community and catapulted the Hurricane's defense to elite status during his three years as the team's defensive coordinator from 2016-2018, was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program on Sun., Dec. 30.

"Manny is one of the nation's elite coaches and the Canes Family has already embraced him and his incredible work ethic over the past three years," said UM Director of Athletics Blake James upon his hiring. "He is absolutely the passionate and innovative leader that our program needs, and we will work together to build an incredible staff to move our program back into championship contention."

In his most recent season as head coach of the Hurricanes in 2020, Diaz led Miami to an 8-3 overall record, including a 7-2 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play, and an appearance in the Cheez-It Bowl. Miami won seven games in ACC play for the second time with Diaz on staff (2017) and the third time overall.

During his 20-year coaching career, Diaz, the son of a former Miami mayor, also named Manny Diaz, has coached in 19 bowl games, amassing a 13-6 record in bowls, and has coached numerous all-conference and NFL players at six collegiate institutions.

Diaz, who has an impressive resume during nearly two decades as a defensive specialist coaching several collegiate programs, accepted his dream job of leading a Hurricanes team he believes is destined to return to the top echelon of collegiate football in the years to come.

Miami delivered another stellar season on defense in 2018. The Hurricanes ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense and ranked No. 1 in several categories, including tackles for loss, third down conversion percentage and passing yards allowed. Defensive tackle Gerald Willis earned All-American honors from several outlets while linebacker Shaq Quarterman was named to the All-ACC First Team - one of eight all-conference picks.

Continuing the impressive trends from Diaz's first year running the defense, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss and ninth nationally in opponent yards per play. Five Hurricanes on the defensive side of the ball earned 2017 All-ACC honors while another three picked up Honorable Mention recognition. Thanks in large part to his dominating unit, Miami also ranked No. 5 nationally in turnover margin, No. 8 nationally in fumbles recovered and No. 15 nationally in passes intercepted.

Miami's defense enjoyed vast improvements under Diaz' watch and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in his first season in 2016. At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers, and the Hurricanes' trio of Zach McCloud, Michael Pinckney and Shaquille Quarterman helped anchor the unit. Three defensive players earned ACSMA All-ACC honors - senior defensive backs Corn Elder (second team) and Rayshawn Jenkins (honorable mention) and Quarterman at linebacker (honorable mention).

In 2015, Diaz's defensive unit helped Mississippi State to a 9-4 record and a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. His defensive unit held opponents to just 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense and tackles for loss.

GAME EIGHT - PITTSBURGH

Diaz spent one season, 2014, at Louisiana Tech and his impact was felt in a big way. The Bulldogs led the nation in turnovers gained (42) with 16 fumble recoveries and 26 interceptions. Before his stop at Louisiana Tech, Diaz coached three seasons at Texas (2011-13). His 2011 defensive unit ranked ninth in total yards per play.

In 2010, during his first stint at Mississippi State, Diaz guided a defense that ranked No. 22 in the nation in scoring defense (19.9 ppg), No. 17 in rushing defense (214.9 ypg) and No. 17 in tackles for loss (7.0 pg). MSU also finished ranked No. 13 in red-zone defense (.730) and No. 22 in turnovers forced (28) nationally in 2010.

Before his first stop at Mississippi State, Diaz spent four seasons as defensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee State. Diaz coached linebackers for two years after mentoring the safeties during his first two years.

Diaz spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons at NCSU as a graduate assistant working primarily with the linebackers. During that time, the Wolfpack went to two bowl games and became the first ACC team to beat Florida State in Tallahassee.

Diaz began his coaching career at Florida State in 1998. In his two years as a graduate assistant, he was on the same coaching staff as former Miami head coach Mark Richt and was part of the Seminoles' national title-winning coaching staff in 1999.

Diaz and his wife Stephanie have three sons: Colin, Gavin and Manny.
