Trending In The Right Direction

FAU posted its third consecutive winning season in 2020-21, making Dusty May the first head coach to lead a team to three straight winning seasons in the Owls' NCAA Division I history. Back in 1992, Tim Loomis coached the Owls to three straight seasons with a winning percentage above .500 while the team was a member of NCAA DII.

The Owls won five straight headed into the C-USA Championship quarter-finals, sweeping Southern Miss and Middle Tennessee before a first round victory over UTEP.

Cleaning the Glass

Offensive rebounding was a point of emphasis for the Owls in '20-'21, and the message was well received. FAU averaged 12.5 offensive boards per game, which ranked No. 1 in Conference USA and No. 29 in the nation last year.

Adding in defensive rebounds (27.9 per game, second in C-USA and 28th in DI), the Owls' rebounding total a night of 40.4 was also first in the league and ninth nationally.

FAU also ended the year No. 1 in C-USA and No. 13 in the nation in rebounding margin (+7.8).

2021-22 FAU MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Long-Range Bombers

The 2020-21 Owls were one of the more prolific 3-point shooting teams in the nation in terms of shots made from distance and long-range efficiency.

The Owls finished top among all C-USA teams with a 3-point success rate of 38.0%, which also ranked them 16th in the country. That went towards an overall 46.3 field goal percentage, third highest in the league. With 9.7 made 3-pointers per game, the squad wrapped the season third in C-USA and 17th in the nation.

Finally, FAU's overall scoring of 78.1 ppg was third in C-USA, and the teams' scoring margin of +11.3 was second, as well as No. 20 in the country.

Seeing the Forrest For the Threes

Michael Forrest was one of the most prolific 3-point shooters in Conference USA in '20-'21. The junior guard - the Owls' leading scorer at 12.5 per game - finished No. 3 in the league and No. 34 in the nation in 3-point field goals made per game, averaging 2.8 per contest. He was also No. 3 in the conference and No. 42 in the nation in 3-point field goal percentage at 39.3%.

His 166 career 3-point field goals made currently ties for fifth the FAU all-time chart, and he's only eight makes away from passing Jackson Trapp for fourth place. He also enters the 2021-22 season just 165 points away from the 1,000-point club (see more about his chase on Page 6).

Sharing Is Caring

Bryan Greenlee was the Owls' leading playmaker last season, averaging 3.0 assists per game, ranking him 15th in C-USA. He was also the team's fourth-leading scorer, averaging 10.0 points per game. With his 68 assists and his 81 field goals, Greenlee directly or indirectly accounted for 22.9% of FAU's made field goals (149-of-652).

Knocking on the Door to 1K

The Owls have only had 13 players crack the 1,000-point plateau in their career. Michael Forrest is currently at 898 in his three seasons with the program. If he continues to score at his career average, he could become member No. 14 before the calendar turns to 2022 (at 10.0 ppg, it would take 10 games, or Dec. 17).

Here are the current members of this prestigious 1,000-point club:

1. Greg Gantt (2009-13) .....	1,972
2. Earnest Crumbley (2000-04) .....	1,559

An FAU Win Would ...

- Be the 49th career victory for Coach May
- Push the Owls over .500
- Mark the second straight home win over UM
- Be better than a loss

Last Time Out - FAU 78, Warner 56

The Owls took their home opener on Saturday evening, defeating Warner, 78-56, on Abessinio Court at FAU Arena.

QUOTABLE

Head Coach Dusty May:

"Definitely excited to find a way to win, we didn't play very well. We definitely wanted to get home and put on a better representation of where we are to our fans. We have a homestand coming up, so we just have to play better basketball, play more together with much more edge. Very very proud of Alejandro Ralat, the energy he brought, the tenacity and the teamwork he brought to the table."

THE BEGINNING

In the first half, the Owls led for all but 44 seconds, but early on, by no more than five. A late run, when FAU scored 10 of the half's last 15, meant an 11-point lead heading into the locker room at 32-21.

THE TURNING POINT

The second half began sloppily – on both sides – until the Owls' offense turned it on. They scored 12 points in a row over the span of 1:38 to extend the advantage from nine to 21 points, 46-25, at the 14:54 mark. In the run, Alejandro Ralat had a one-on-one opencourt steal and an assist ahead on Bryan Greenlee's fastbreak layup, followed by back-to-back Brandon Weatherspoon, and ending on two technical free throws by Ralat.

THE FINISH

The Owls got their biggest lead at the end, on a 12-3 run. Bogdan Zimonjic scored the first seven points of his career, Dardan Kapiti threw down a dunk off a Zimonjic assist, and Johnell Davis hung in the air for an above-the-rim lay-in.

OWL THE STATS

- Martin paced the squad with 17 points on 6-of-12 shooting, including 3-of-8 from beyond the arc
- Weatherspoon was next, making three 3's among his 15 points
- Johnell Davis chipped in with eight points, and as mentioned, Zimonjic poured in his flurry of seven in just 2:42. Michael Forrest also added seven
- The Owls outrebounded the Royals 46-34, including a 17-3 disparity on offensive boards
- Forrest led the way with seven rebounds, Madiaw Niang had six, and Martin and Giancarlo Rosado five apiece
- FAU's defense forced 21 Warner turnovers, which led to a 26-8 points-off-turnover advantage. Forrest had four steals and Ralat three

2021-22 FAU MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Head Coach Dusty May

Dusty May accepted the challenge of building Florida Atlantic University's men's basketball program into a team that will consistently compete on the national stage when he assumed the helm as FAU's Head Men's Basketball Coach after signing a five-year contract in late March of 2018.

"Dusty was my number one choice, and I am thrilled to have him lead our men's basketball program," said Brian White. "This hire is a clear demonstration of the ambition we have for our basketball program, our athletic department and our university. Dusty will bring tremendous passion, determination and work ethic to this position. The future of the FAU men's basketball program is bright."

May joined FAU after three years as an assistant coach at the University of Florida, where he helped the Gators compile a 69-37 record, including back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances. The Gators reached the second round of this year's tournament after advancing to the Elite Eight in 2017. As a full-time assistant, May's teams compiled a 274-166 record (.623 winning percentage).

May, who is FAU's ninth head men's basketball coach, spent the previous seven seasons on the coaching staffs of Florida coach Mike White, first at Louisiana Tech University for four seasons and then with the Gators. White is the older brother of Brian White, who was named FAU's vice president and director of athletics on March 3, 2018.

In his first season at the helm, May led the Owls to a winning record for the first time since 2011 and an appearance in the College Insider Tournament (CIT), just the third postseason appearance in school history. Graduate forward Xavian Stapleton was named Conference USA Co-Sixth Man of the Year and senior guard Anthony Adger made the All C-USA Third Team. For his efforts, May was a finalist for the Joe B. Hall Award, given to the best first year coach in Division I. As a team, the Owls set records for rebounds, rebounds per game, 3-pointers made, and free throw percentage. The Owls also scored 2,322 points, the second highest single season total in school history.

May continued the success in his second year, leading the Owls to their second winning season in a row, the first time that happened since the 1996-97 season. FAU won 14 home games, its most since joining Division I, while averaging 71.1 points per game, its highest average in nearly a decade. May also became the fastest FAU coach to reach 30 wins at the D-I level and collected 16 Conference USA wins and 34 overall wins in his first two seasons at the helm, the highest totals of any Owls' coach at the D-I level. May capped off the campaign by leading the Owls to a 66-56 win over Old Dominion at the C-USA Tournament. The victory was the first in-bracket, neutral site conference tournament win for FAU since 2002.

The 2020-21 season was another winning campaign, and as the third consecutive under May, he is now the first coach since the program joined Division I to do so. The Owls again notched a win at the C-USA Tournament, and were at the top of the league and among the nation's leaders in total rebounds (first, and No. 9 in the nation) offensive rebounding (first and 29th), rebounding margin (first and 13th), 3-point percentage (first and 16th), scoring margin (second and 20th), 3-pointers made (third and 17th), scoring (third and 38th), and field goal percentage (third and 59th).

"The opportunity to recruit in such a fertile region, the momentum this university is enjoying and the enormous potential here are ideal starting points," said May. "We will be winners here, and we will play with tremendous passion and energy. The vision of President John Kelly, the board of trustees and the athletic department under the leadership of Brian White made this move an easy decision. I can't wait to get started."

May was retained as an assistant at Louisiana Tech when Mike White took over the program entering the 2011-12 season, and the Bulldogs won three straight conference championships – the Western Athletic Conference title in 2013 and Conference USA crowns in 2014 and 2015. In their first season in Gainesville, the Gators rebounded from a sub-.500 record to finish 21-15 and advance to the quarterfinals of the National Invitational Tournament.

May served six seasons (2009-15) as assistant coach and associate head coach at Louisiana Tech. In his final season with the Bulldogs, the team went 27-9, including 15-3 in Conference USA to win the regular season championship by two games, and went 17-0 on its home court. Louisiana Tech won 49 of 50 home games from February 2012 through the end of the 2014-15 season.

May was a student manager for the Indiana University men's basketball team and after graduating began his professional career as an administrative assistant/video coordinator at USC from 2000-02. He returned to Indiana in an administrative role for three seasons before taking his first step as an assistant coach with Eastern Michigan (2005-06). He has also served as an assistant at Murray State (2006-07) and UAB (2007-09).

May and his wife, Anna, have three sons, Jack, Charlie and Eli.
