- In addition to re-assuming his role as defensive coordinator, Diaz hired Travaris Robinson - former defensive coordinator at South Carolina - to coach defensive backs, added Ishmael Aristide from Texas A&M to coach strikers and promoted DeMarcus Van Dyke from recruiting operations to coach corners. Since the start of the 2015 season, the Hurricanes rank second in the Atlantic Coast Conference and trail only Clemson in conference wins with 35.

160

WR Michael Harley ranks third all time in career receptions at Miami with 160; he had three last time out against Georgia Tech.

204

Few offensive lines in the country can match Miami's 204 combined starts at the FBS level - in fact, UM trails only Minnesota (225) in combined FBS experience on the line.

325

QB Tyler Van Dyke became the first Miami quarterback since the legendary Bernie Kosar in 1984 to throw for 325 yards in three straight starts.

11,242

QB D'Eriq King is responsible for more than 11,000 yards during his illustrious career - 8,378 passing yards, 2,055 rushing yards, 520 receiving yards, 29 punt return yards and 260 kick return yards.

HURRICANES LOOK TO STRETCH STREAK TO FIVE OVER FLORIDA STATE

- Coming off a 33-30 win over Georgia Tech, Miami is looking to stretch its winning streak over rival Florida State to five straight games on Nov. 13. Kickoff is set for 3:30 p.m. in Tallahassee on ESPN.
- The rivalry is the longest running consecutive series for the Hurricanes, with Saturday's matchup representing 53 consecutive seasons where the programs have met at least once, dating to 1969.
- The Hurricanes have a 35-30 all-time series lead, aided by wins in the last four meetings (2017, 2018, 2019, 2020). UM has not won five straight vs. FSU since a stretch of six straight from 2000-2004.
- Head coach Manny Diaz is currently in his third season at the helm in Coral Gables; Diaz led Miami to an 8-3 record in 2020, including a 7-2 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play. Miami won seven games in ACC play for just the second time in program history in 2020 - UM finished 7-1 in ACC play in 2017.
- Miami's game versus the the Seminoles is slated for broadcast on 560 WQAM and WMYM 990 AM.

LAST TIME OUT: MIAMI TOPS JACKETS, 33-30, FOR THIRD STRAIGHT 'W'

- Miami captured its third straight win last time out, topping Georgia Tech, 33-30, at Hard Rock Stadium on Nov. 6. The win was UM's first over the Jackets since 2017; the two teams did not meet in 2020.
- QB Tyler Van Dyke, making the sixth straight start for Miami, delivered another dominant outing in Miami's win. The first-year starter finished with 389 passing yards and three touchdowns in the victory.

- RB Jaylan Knighton had one of the best outings of his career, finishing with a career-high 162 yards - the first 100-yard rushing game of his career - on a career-high 32 carries with one touchdown.
- S Kam Kinchens had seven tackles with two PBUs while DL Leonard Taylor had 2.5 tackles for loss.

A LOOK BACK: UM DOMINATED FSU, 52-10, IN HISTORIC GAME IN 2020

- In the 2020 rivalry game, Miami continued its undefeated start to the 2020 season with a 52-10 thumping of rival Florida State - the 52 points were the most ever scored by Miami against FSU.
- Miami scored 38 points in the first half of the game - the most ever by either team in one half in the rivalry's history. The 35-point deficit was Florida State's second biggest ever halftime deficit in program history, while the 50-point performance was the first by either team in the rivalry's history.
- QB D'Eriq King threw for 267 yards and two touchdown passes in the win, while Miami's rushing attack totaled 200 yards and four touchdowns - including a pair by freshman RB Donald Chaney, Jr.
- Miami's defense total 13 tackles for loss and six sacks and also forced three turnovers in the win.

'ROOSTER' NOW RB1, HAD CAREER GAME LAST TIME OUT VS. GA TECH

- After RB Cam/Ron Harris suffered a season-ending leg injury in a loss to North Carolina on Oct. 16, RB Jaylon Knighton assumed responsibility as UM's lead back. He will make his fourth start of 2021 vs. FSU.
- Last time out against Georgia Tech (Nov. 6), Knighton finished with a career-high 162 yards on a career-high 32 carries for the first 100-yard rushing game of his career. He also scored a touchdown in the win.
- Nicknamed 'Rooster' by former Pop Warner football coach named Dave Williams for his reddish hair in a mohawk style as a kid, Knighton was named ACC Rookie of the Week on Mon., Oct. 18 after posting the best outing of his career vs. the Tar Heels. Knighton totaled 165 all-purpose yards and three touchdowns.
- Knighton upped the ante with his start against NC State on Oct. 23, finishing with 166 all-purpose yards, including 21 carries in the win. He was recognized as the ACC Running Back of the Week on Oct. 25.
- In a win versus Pitt (Oct. 30), Knighton finished with 17 carries totaling 80 yards with two touchdowns.
- Knighton played in nine games and made two starts in his first year of college football in 2020 but was suspended for the first four games of 2021 due to a violation of team rules. He returned in Week 5.
- Knighton was a consensus four-star prospect by all major scouting services. He was listed as the No. 88 player in the ESPN300 and rated the No. 11 running back nationally and No. 15 player in Florida by ESPN.

'O' STARTING TO CLICK WITH LONG SCORING DRIVES OVER LAST FIVE

- Despite a myriad of different season-ending injuries to four opening day starters, the Hurricanes offense has begun to click over the last five games, all of which have been vs. Atlantic Coast Conference teams.
- Miami's offense had just five scoring drives of 70-plus yards over its first three games vs. Alabama, App State and Michigan State combined. It had five such drives vs. NC State (Oct. 23) and four vs. Pittsburgh (Oct. 30). Last time out vs. Georgia Tech (Nov. 6), UM had its second-longest drive of 2021 by yards (93).
- After posting five scoring drives of 70-or-more yards over its first three games, the Hurricanes have managed 16 such drives over the last five games, including two versus Virginia (Sept. 30) and three versus UNC (Oct. 16). UM had a season-long 97-yard drive against the Tar Heels on its final scoring drive.
- In its 31-30 win over NC State, Miami compiled its longest scoring drive of the season by time (5:11).

VAN DYKE SHINING, EARNS THIRD STRAIGHT ACC ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

- Ever since his insertion into the starting lineup against Central Connecticut State on Sept. 25, QB Tyler Van Dyke has impressed with some of the best outings by a freshman in Miami Hurricanes history.
- Over Miami's current three-game winning streak, Van Dyke is averaging 380.0 passing yards per game, completing 72% of his passes and has compiled totals of 10 touchdowns and just one interception.
- Over the last 15 seasons in the ACC, Van Dyke is one of just four quarterbacks to have ever thrown for 300-plus passing yards and had three passing TDs in three straight ACC games, joining FSU's Jameis Winston (four in 2013), UNC's Sam Howell (three in 2019) and NC State's Russell Wilson (three in 2010).
- The 6-foot-4, 224-pound signal caller became the first Hurricane since the legendary Bernie Kosar in 1984 to record three consecutive games of at least 325 yards passing last time out vs. Georgia Tech.
- Van Dyke, who took over as starter after QB D'Eriq King suffered a season-ending injury on Sept. 18, completed 10-of-11 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns in the win vs. Central Connecticut State.
- Van Dyke has 15 touchdowns and four interceptions, completing 63.6 percent of passes for 1,879 yards.
- In a victory over NC State (Oct. 23), Van Dyke had the best game of his career by nearly every margin - he set career marks for completions, passing yards and touchdowns in a 31-30 victory. He one-upped himself against #17/#19 Pitt (Oct. 30), throwing for career-high 426 yards on 32-for-42 passing.
- Van Dyke has won three straight ACC Rookie of the Week honors following Miami's last three wins.
- Despite splitting reps for the majority of the CCSU game with fellow QB Jake Garcia, Van Dyke's 270 passing yards were the third-most by a UM quarterback making the first start of his career since 1999.
- Van Dyke was rated a four-star prospect by ESPN and Rivals coming out of high school. He ranked No. 105 nationally in the ESPN300 and was rated as the No. 2 pro-style quarterback nationally by ESPN.
- The Glastonbury, Conn., native totaled over 4,600 yards and 39 passing touchdowns over his final two high school seasons. He was named 2019 New England Prep Player of the Year after his final season.

BILETNIKOFF CANDIDATE RAMBO MADE HISTORY AGAINST GEORGIA TECH

- One of Miami's top playmakers this year has been WR Charleston Rambo, who arrived after spending the first four seasons of his career at Oklahoma, where had had 1,180 receiving yards and 76 career catches.
- Rambo delivered a scintillating performance last time out against Georgia Tech (Nov. 6), finishing with 210 receiving yards - only the fourth time a UM player has ever eclipsed 200 yards in a game - in a 33-30 win.
- Rambo's 210 yards were the most by any ACC receiver in a game this season and only the 18th 200-yard game by any receiver in FBS in 2021 through Week 10. It was the 13th-best single game total so far in 2021.
- On Nov. 3, Rambo was one of six players added to the midseason watch list for the Biletnikoff Award.
- In a game against #17/#19 Pitt (Oct. 30), Rambo had seven catches totaling 101 yards in a 38-34 victory.

- A football legacy, Mallory's grandfather Bill Mallory is the winningest coach in Indiana University history. His father, Mike, spent last season as assistant special teams coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars.

HURRICANES SIGNED RECRUITING CLASS RANKED AMONG NATION'S BEST

- The Hurricanes reeled in a top-10 recruiting class in 2021, nabbing signatures from 10 ESPN top 300 prospects and 10 players ranked in the 247Sports Composite Top 247. UM's class was rated #9 by ESPN. Miami signed 21 prospects during the early signing period, with 18 of them hailing from the state of Florida. 15 of those 21 players call either Miami-Dade, Broward or Palm Beach County home - otherwise known as "The State of Miami."
- The Hurricanes signed 10 players ranked in the Rivals' top 250 prospects for the Class of 2021.
- Four members were named to the Adidas All-American Bowl while another five players were named to the Under Armour All-America Game. Miami signed two five-star recruits for the first time since 2012.

VETERAN BACK HARRIS, NAMED ONE OF CFB'S "FREAKS" BUT WILL MISS REST OF SEASON

- RB Cam'Ron Harris cracked the annual "Freaks" list from college football writer Bruce Feldman of The Athletic, who named Harris No. 50 in his list of the top 100 freaky athletes in the sport entering 2021. Harris ran for 1,385 yards and 17 touchdowns in his first three seasons with the Hurricanes.
- Harris suffered a season-ending injury in Miami's loss at North Carolina and underwent surgery.
- Harris had posted back-to-back 100-yard games in two outings prior to the injury, marking the second time he has posted back-to-back performances and first time since doing it last year in the first two games.
- In a loss against Virginia (Sept. 30), Harris posted 111 yards on 14 carries with two touchdowns. Harris now has 22 career rushing touchdowns, which ranks 10th all-time at Miami. He surpassed Clinton Portis, who was previously 10th with 21 touchdowns, with his pair against the Cavaliers.

#50 Cam'Ron Harris, Miami, running back

"In three seasons Harris has run for 1,385 yards and 17 touchdowns. At 5-10, 214 pounds, he hit 23.07 MPH, which is one of the fastest speeds registered by anyone, college or pro, in game action. His 75-yard touchdown run against Louisville is a good example of that burst. His 3-cone time of 6.88 would've topped any running back at the 2020 combine. Harris also squats 525 pounds and benches 365."

FOUR PROCANES, TWO FIRST ROUNDERS SELECTED IN 2021 NFL DRAFT

- Four Hurricanes were selected in the 2021 NFL Draft: Jaelan Phillips (first round, Miami), Gregory Rousseau (first round, Buffalo), Brevin Jordan (fifth round, Houston) and Quincy Roche (sixth round, Pittsburgh.). For 47 consecutive years, Miami has had at least one player selected in the NFL Draft. With Phillips off the board at No. 18 and Rousseau at No. 30, UM had two first-round selections for the first time since 2015. UM had at least one DE drafted for the fifth straight year.
- The University of Miami leads all programs in the ACC in draft picks since 2000 (123). No program in the ACC had more alumni on NFL 53-man rosters than the Hurricanes did entering Week 1 of the 2020 NFL season, when Miami boasted 31 former players and more who were on practice squads. Miami had 25 players on active 53-man rosters as of the roster cutting deadline entering 2021.

HURRICANES HAVE FEATURED NEW FACES, FIRST-TIME STARTERS IN 2021

- In addition to several key returners, the Miami Hurricanes have seen several newcomers and first-year starters feature through the first eight games of 2021. S Kam Kinchens made his first career start last time out.
- Miami's offense featured three new starters in the early going: WR Key'Shawn Smith, who saw limited action as a backup last year, WR Charleston Rambo, who transferred from Oklahoma and is in his first year at UM, and OL Jalen Rivers, who started at left guard but is out for the season to injury.
- In addition to those three players, OL Justice Oluwaseun - a UNLV transfer - has started, as has QB Tyler Van Dyke, who took over for QB D'Eriq King and has started the last five games under center. On defense, LB Corey Flagg has started all eight games while LB Keontra Smith started through the first two games before an injury versus App State. DE Zach McCloud and DE Jahfari Harvey are in their first full seasons as starters.
- S James Williams made the first start of his career in a win over Central Connecticut State (Sept. 25) and has started five straight games. CB Tyrique Stevenson is also in his first year with the Hurricanes in 2021.

D'ERIQ KING'S SEASON OVER DUE TO SURGERY FOR SHOULDER INJURY, WAS POISED FOR BIG SEASON

- QB D'Eriq King spent the first four seasons of his career at the University of Houston; 2021 marked the first time since high school he has had the same coordinator in back-to-back years (Rhett Lashlee). The veteran entered 2021 as one of just 11 quarterbacks in FBS with more than 30 career starts at QB.
- King was named a preseason watch list for several major awards, including the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, the Davey O'Brien Award (top quarterback) and the Maxwell Award (player of the year). The Manvel, Texas native is responsible for more than 11,000 yards during his illustrious career - 8,378 passing yards, 2,055 rushing yards, 520 receiving yards, 29 punt return yards and 260 kick return yards - a total of 11,242. He totaled 3,224 yards (2,686 passing, 538 rushing) in 2020.
- King set an FBS record with at least one rushing touchdown and one passing touchdown in 16 straight games, a streak that ended at Louisville in 2020; he bested Florida QB Tim Tebow's FBS record (15). King became the first Miami QB in history to rush for 100 yards in a game in a win at NC State in 2020.

MANNY DIAZ

HEAD COACH | THIRD SEASON AT MIAMI (THIRD OVERALL) | 19-14

Manny Diaz, who has deep roots in the Miami community and catapulted the Hurricane's defense to elite status during his three years as the team's defensive coordinator from 2016-2018, was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program on Sun., Dec. 30.

"Manny is one of the nation's elite coaches and the Canes Family has already embraced him and his incredible work ethic over the past three years," said UM Director of Athletics Blake James upon his hiring. "He is absolutely the passionate and innovative leader that our program needs, and we will work together to build an incredible staff to move our program back into championship contention."

In his most recent season as head coach of the Hurricanes in 2020, Diaz led Miami to an 8-3 overall record, including a 7-2 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play, and an appearance in the Cheez-It Bowl. Miami won seven games in ACC play for the second time with Diaz on staff (2017) and the third time overall.

During his 20-year coaching career, Diaz, the son of a former Miami mayor, also named Manny Diaz, has coached in 19 bowl games, amassing a 13-6 record in bowls, and has coached numerous all-conference and NFL players at six collegiate institutions.

Diaz, who has an impressive resume during nearly two decades as a defensive specialist coaching several collegiate programs, accepted his dream job of leading a Hurricanes team he believes is destined to return to the top echelon of collegiate football in the years to come.

Miami delivered another stellar season on defense in 2018. The Hurricanes ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense and ranked No. 1 in several categories, including tackles for loss, third down conversion percentage and passing yards allowed. Defensive tackle Gerald Willis earned All-American honors from several outlets while linebacker Shaq Quarterman was named to the All-ACC First Team - one of eight all-conference picks.

Continuing the impressive trends from Diaz's first year running the defense, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss and ninth nationally in opponent yards per play. Five Hurricanes on the defensive side of the ball earned 2017 All-ACC honors while another three picked up Honorable Mention recognition. Thanks in large part to his dominating unit, Miami also ranked No. 5 nationally in turnover margin, No. 8 nationally in fumbles recovered and No. 15 nationally in passes intercepted.

Miami's defense enjoyed vast improvements under Diaz' watch and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in his first season in 2016. At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers, and the Hurricanes' trio of Zach McCloud, Michael Pinckney and Shaquille Quarterman helped anchor the unit. Three defensive players earned ACSMA All-ACC honors - senior defensive backs Corn Elder (second team) and Rayshawn Jenkins (honorable mention) and Quarterman at linebacker (honorable mention).

In 2015, Diaz's defensive unit helped Mississippi State to a 9-4 record and a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. His defensive unit held opponents to just 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense and tackles for loss.
