THE SERIES

- Saturday's game versus the Yellow Jackets is the 26th all-time matchup in the series, which Georgia Tech leads by a slight 13-12 margin.
- The Coastal foes had met every year since Miami joined the ACC in 2004, but did not meet last year due to a game cancellation related to COVID-19.
- The Hurricanes have lost the last two games in the series to Georgia Tech, including a 28-21 overtime loss to the Yellow Jackets at home in 2019.

THE HURRICANES

- The Miami Hurricanes returned 19 of 22 starters from a 2020 team that finished 8-3 overall and 7-2 in Atlantic Coast Conference play. The Canes, who ended the year in the 2020 Cheez-It Bowl, became the third Miami team to win seven games in ACC play since joining the conference in 2004.
- On Oct. 11, head coach Manny Diaz announced starting QB D'Eriq King would miss the rest of the season due to shoulder surgery resulting from an injury versus Michigan State. In his first season as starting quarterback, King finished with 2,686 passing yards, 538 rushing yards and 27 total TDs.
- Last time out at Pittsburgh (Oct. 23), the Hurricanes pulled off a 38-34 win over the #17/#19 Panthers, representing Miami's second straight win over a top-20 ranked team. QB Tyler Van Dyke threw for a career-high 426 yards and was named ACC Rookie of the Week for the second straight week.
- DB James Williams was named ACC Defensive Back of the Week following UM's win in the Steel City, where he had nine tackles and an interception.
- In its home opener on Sept. 11, the Hurricanes won against Appalachian State. Trailing 23-22 with less than five minutes remaining, freshman K Andy Borregales kicked a 43-yard field goal - his third made field goal of the game - to seal the victory versus the upset-minded Mountaineers.
- For head coach Manny Diaz, 2021 marks a return to his roots as the program's defensive signal caller and defensive coordinator. Diaz was hired by Mark Richt in 2016 as the program's defensive coordinator, a role he served in for three seasons before being named head coach in January of 2019.
- In addition to re-assuming his role as defensive coordinator, Diaz hired Travaris Robinson - former defensive coordinator at South Carolina - to coach defensive backs, added Ishmael Aristide from Texas A&M to coach strikers and promoted DeMarcus Van Dyke from recruiting operations to coach corners. Diaz also brought back defensive line coach Jess Simpson, who spent the previous two years as d-line coach of the Atlanta Falcons.
- Several Miami Hurricanes were selected as preseason candidates for major college football awards; in addition to King, who was named a candidate for nearly every offensive award, Miami had Bubba Bolden named to the Thorpe Award watch list, Will Mallory to the Mackey Award, Lou Hedley to the Ray Guy Award, Mike Harley to the Biletnikoff Award, both Zion Nelson and Jarrid Williams to the Outland Trophy watch list, and others.
- Miami had more production returning than all but three Power 5 programs in America (Arizona State, UCLA, Rutgers) at 91%; the national average of returning production from 2020 into 2021 was 76.7% across FBS. UM was the only team in the ACC to rank in the top 25 of FBS returning production.

THREE AND OUT

MIAMI HOSTS JACKETS AT HARD ROCK

- Fresh off back-to-back wins over ranked opponents, the Hurricanes are looking for their third straight victory when they host Georgia Tech at Hard Rock Stadium on Nov. 6.
- Miami recorded back-to-back wins over ranked teams for the first time since winning games over Virginia Tech and Notre Dame consecutively in 2017.
- Head coach Manny Diaz has now led the Hurricanes to a win over a ranked opponent on the road in two straight seasons; Miami beat #18/#16 Louisville, 47-34, last season.
- Miami trails the all-time series to Georgia Tech, 13-12, but leads in games played in Miami or Miami Gardens, 6-3.

KING, HARRIS TO MISS REST OF SEASON

- After recovery from reconstructive surgery on a torn ACL and meniscus in his right knee suffered in Miami's 2020 bowl game, D'Eriq King made the 14th start of his UM career against Michigan State.
- King hurt his shoulder in Miami's game against the Spartans. Head coach Manny Diaz announced on Oct. 11 that King would miss the remainder of the season due to shoulder surgery.
- On Monday, Oct. 18, Diaz announced starting RB Cam/Ron Harris would miss the remainder of the 2021 season due to a lower extremity injury suffered vs. UNC.
- Miami is also missing starting OL Corey Gaynor and Jalen Rivers for the year.

VAN DYKE ON FIRE IN LAST TWO STARTS

- QB Tyler Van Dyke will be making his sixth straight start under center when the Hurricanes take on the Yellow Jackets at Hard Rock Stadium.
- Van Dyke, who has compiled a 3-2 record in his five starts this season, threw for the ninth-most yards in a single game in Miami history and the second most ever by a Hurricanes freshman when he threw for 426 yards against #17/#19 Pitt on Oct. 30.
- Van Dyke, who has totaled 851 yards and seven touchdowns over his last two games, has totaled the most yards in back-to-back ACC games by a Miami QB since Stephen Morris had 1,012 yards vs. Georgia Tech and NC State in 2012.

The fifth iteration of the chain is 34 inches long and weighs 3.5 kilograms (with no charm).

- From the start of 2017 - the year of unveiling of the first turnover chain - through 2020, UM was tied for third among all Power 5 programs in turnovers forced (92) and ranks No. 3 in turnovers forced per game (1.84).

'THREE AMIGOS' SHOWING PROMISE AT WR IN FIRST SEASONS AT MIAMI

- Miami boasted three of the top-rated wide receivers in the Class of 2021: Romello Brinson, Jacolby George and Brashard Smith. All three freshmen scored touchdowns in Miami's win over Central Conn. State.
- The trio of wide receivers has been nicknamed the 'Three Amigos' - the three are close friends and live together with QB Jake Garcia. The trio combined for nine catches, 160 yards and three TDs vs. CCSU.
- All three are South Florida natives: Brinson and Smith are from Miami and George is from Fort Lauderdale.
- Both Brinson and George were ESPN300 prospects, while Smith was an Under Armour All-American.

SMITH HAS BEEN BALLING, HAULS IN FIRST TOUCHDOWN CATCH VS. PITT

- After seeing limited action in 2020 and finishing his true freshman season with just two catches, WR Key'Shawn Smith has played a big role for the Hurricanes' offense at the midpoint of 2021.
- Smith put together the best game of his collegiate career last time out against Pittsburgh (Oct. 30), hauling in three catches - including a career-long 57-yard catch - and a 13-yard touchdown, the first of his career.
- Smith earned a starting wide receiver spot after a strong offseason, and been up to the task with 27 catches totaling 352 yards through the first eight games of the season. In UM's game against Michigan State, Smith finished with four catches totaling 50 yards. He had a career-best seven catches versus North Carolina.
- Originally a Washington State signee, Smith was able to join the Hurricanes after a coaching change in Pullman. A native of San Diego, the young speedster totaled 46 catches for 808 yards as a HS senior.

DEFENSE RANKS No. 16 IN FBS IN TFLs THROUGH FIRST NINE WEEKS

- Miami was one of just 11 teams in FBS and the only one from ACC to record 10 tackles for loss in Week 1.
- UM was tied for No. 16 in FBS tackles for loss after Week 9; Miami is averaging 6.8 tackles for loss per game.
- The Hurricanes defense has featured at least one player with 15 tackles for loss for three straight years; Jaelan Phillips (15.5) in 2020, Gregory Rousseau (19.5) in 2019 and Jonathan Garvin (18.0) in 2018.
- Including Diaz's time as head coach, Miami has had multiple defensive players record double-digit tackles for loss in four of his five seasons at The U, including Phillips (15.5) and Quincy Roche (14.5) a season ago.
- The Hurricanes are the only team since Diaz's arrival to Coral Gables in 2016 to rank among the top five in all of FBS in tackles for loss each year; Miami was No. 4 in 2020 (8.6 per game), No. 4 in 2019 (8.3), No. 1 in 2020 (10.5), No. 4 in 2017 (8.5) and No. 5 in 2016 (8.3). - Earlier this year, Andy connected on a 55-yard field goal that was the longest by a freshman in UM history.
- After missing a kick off the uprights against Virginia as time expired in the fourth quarter, he rebounded with two field goals of 40+ yards in a close loss to North Carolina, hitting from both 44 yards and 42 yards.
- Andy connected on his lone two field goal attempts and one extra point attempt versus Alabama.
- The freshman went 3-for-4 vs. App State, including the game-winning 43-yard field goal with 2:04 left.
- Jose was Miami's first consensus All-America since 2004 in his lone season at The U, finishing 20-for-22 on field goal attempts and a perfect 37-for-37 on extra point attempts. He passed on #30 to his brother.

MIAMI SET FBS RECORD FOR NET PUNTING, HEDLEY OFF TO GOOD START

- A finalist for the Ray Guy Award honoring the nation's top punter a year ago, P Lou Hedley delivered one of the best seasons by a punter in FBS history in 2020 - his second year with the Miami Hurricanes.
- UM set the FBS record (minimum 40 punts) for net punting with an average of 44.96 yards per punt, besting the mark by San Diego State in 1996 (44.94). Hedley ranked second in FBS in punting (47.3).
- Hedley was named to the All-America Second Team by the Associated Press and the All-ACC Second Team. A former Australian Rules Football player, the 28-year-old Hedley hails from Mandurah Australia.

MALLORY NEXT UP AT TIGHT END U, CARRYING ON FAMILY LEGACY

- Following the departure of TE Brevin Jordan, who declared for the NFL after a standout career at UM, veteran Will Mallory is next in line to carry the torch for the tight end factory that is Miami Football. Mallory has flashed the ability to be a dominant figure during his three seasons at The U; during a three-game injury absence for Jordan last year, Mallory totaled 10 catches, 187 yards and three touchdowns. He has started all eight games.
- In his three seasons entering 2021, Mallory has totaled 43 receptions, 659 yards and seven TDs. Over the last two games, Mallory has totaled six catches for 102 yards and has posted touchdowns in both of UM's last two wins.
- A football legacy, Mallory's grandfather Bill Mallory is the winningest coach in Indiana University history. His father, Mike, spent last season as assistant special teams coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars.

HURRICANES SIGNED RECRUITING CLASS RANKED AMONG NATION'S BEST

- The Hurricanes reeled in a top-10 recruiting class in 2021, nabbing signatures from 10 ESPN top 300 prospects and 10 players ranked in the 247Sports Composite Top 247. UM's class was rated #9 by ESPN. Miami signed 21 prospects during the early signing period, with 18 of them hailing from the state of Florida. 15 of those 21 players call either Miami-Dade, Broward or Palm Beach County home - otherwise known as "The State of Miami."
- The Hurricanes signed 10 players ranked in the Rivals' top 250 prospects for the Class of 2021.
- Four members were named to the Adidas All-American Bowl while another five players were named to the Under Armour All-America Game. Miami signed two five-star recruits for the first time since 2012.

VETERAN BACK HARRIS, NAMED ONE OF CFB'S "FREAKS", TO MISS SEASON

- RB Cam'Ron Harris cracked the annual "Freaks" list from college football writer Bruce Feldman of The Athletic, who named Harris No. 50 in his list of the top 100 freaky athletes in the sport entering 2021. Harris ran for 1,385 yards and 17 touchdowns in his first three seasons with the Hurricanes.
- Harris suffered a season-ending injury in Miami's loss at North Carolina and underwent surgery.
- Harris had posted back-to-back 100-yard games in two outings prior to the injury, marking the second time he has posted back-to-back performances and first time since doing it last year in the first two games.
- In a loss against Virginia (Sept. 30), Harris posted 111 yards on 14 carries with two touchdowns. Harris now has 22 career rushing touchdowns, which ranks 10th all-time at Miami. He surpassed Clinton Portis, who was previously 10th with 21 touchdowns, with his pair against the Cavaliers.

#50 Cam'Ron Harris, Miami, running back

"In three seasons Harris has run for 1,385 yards and 17 touchdowns. At 5-10, 214 pounds, he hit 23.07 MPH, which is one of the fastest speeds registered by anyone, college or pro, in game action. His 75-yard touchdown run against Louisville is a good example of that burst. His 3-cone time of 6.88 would've topped any running back at the 2020 combine. Harris also squats 525 pounds and benches 365."

FOUR PROCANES, TWO FIRST ROUNDERS SELECTED IN 2021 NFL DRAFT

- Four Hurricanes were selected in the 2021 NFL Draft: Jaelan Phillips (first round, Miami), Gregory Rousseau (first round, Buffalo), Brevin Jordan (fifth round, Houston) and Quincy Roche (sixth round, Pittsburgh.). With Phillips off the board at No. 18 and Rousseau at No. 30, Miami had two first-round selections for the first time since 2015. The Hurricanes had at least one defensive end drafted for the fifth straight year.
- The University of Miami leads all programs in the ACC in draft picks since 2000 (123). No program in the ACC had more alumni on NFL 53-man rosters than the Hurricanes did entering Week 1 of the 2020 NFL season, when Miami boasted 31 former players and more who were on practice squads. Miami had 25 players on active 53-man rosters as of the roster cutting deadline entering 2021.

HURRICANES HAVE FEATURED NEW FACES, FIRST-TIME STARTERS IN 2021

- In addition to several key returners, the Miami Hurricanes have seen several newcomers and first-year starters feature through the first eight games of 2021. S Kam Kinchens made his first career start last time out.

- In addition to those three players, OL Justice Oluwaseun - a UNLV transfer - has started, as has QB Tyler Van Dyke, who took over for QB D'Eriq King and has started the last five games under center. On defense, LB Corey Flagg has started all eight games while LB Keontra Smith started through the first two games before an injury versus App State. DE Zach McCloud and DE Jahfari Harvey are in their first full seasons as starters.

- QB D'Eriq King spent the first four seasons of his career at the University of Houston; 2021 marked the first time since high school he has had the same coordinator in back-to-back years (Rhett Lashlee). He totaled 3,224 yards (2,686 passing, 538 rushing) in 2020.

King became the first Miami QB in history to rush for 100 yards in a game in a win at NC State in 2020.
- King had a prolific career with the Cougars, totaling 82 total touchdowns (50 passing, 28 rushing, three receiving, one kickoff return), 4,925 passing yards and 1,421 rushing yards in just 22 starts. MANNY DIAZ

HEAD COACH | THIRD SEASON AT MIAMI (THIRD OVERALL) | 18-14

Manny Diaz, who has deep roots in the Miami community and catapulted the Hurricane's defense to elite status during his three years as the team's defensive coordinator from 2016-2018, was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program on Sun., Dec. 30.

"Manny is one of the nation's elite coaches and the Canes Family has already embraced him and his incredible work ethic over the past three years," said UM Director of Athletics Blake James upon his hiring. "He is absolutely the passionate and innovative leader that our program needs, and we will work together to build an incredible staff to move our program back into championship contention."

In his most recent season as head coach of the Hurricanes in 2020, Diaz led Miami to an 8-3 overall record, including a 7-2 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play, and an appearance in the Cheez-It Bowl. Miami won seven games in ACC play for the second time with Diaz on staff (2017) and the third time overall.

During his 20-year coaching career, Diaz, the son of a former Miami mayor, also named Manny Diaz, has coached in 19 bowl games, amassing a 13-6 record in bowls, and has coached numerous all-conference and NFL players at six collegiate institutions.

Diaz, who has an impressive resume during nearly two decades as a defensive specialist coaching several collegiate programs, accepted his dream job of leading a Hurricanes team he believes is destined to return to the top echelon of collegiate football in the years to come.

Miami delivered another stellar season on defense in 2018. The Hurricanes ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense and ranked No. 1 in several categories, including tackles for loss, third down conversion percentage and passing yards allowed. Defensive tackle Gerald Willis earned All-American honors from several outlets while linebacker Shaq Quarterman was named to the All-ACC First Team - one of eight all-conference picks.

Continuing the impressive trends from Diaz's first year running the defense, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss and ninth nationally in opponent yards per play. Five Hurricanes on the defensive side of the ball earned 2017 All-ACC honors while another three picked up Honorable Mention recognition. Thanks in large part to his dominating unit, Miami also ranked No. 5 nationally in turnover margin, No. 8 nationally in fumbles recovered and No. 15 nationally in passes intercepted.

Miami's defense enjoyed vast improvements under Diaz' watch and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in his first season in 2016. At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers, and the Hurricanes' trio of Zach McCloud, Michael Pinckney and Shaquille Quarterman helped anchor the unit. Three defensive players earned ACSMA All-ACC honors - senior defensive backs Corn Elder (second team) and Rayshawn Jenkins (honorable mention) and Quarterman at linebacker (honorable mention).

In 2015, Diaz's defensive unit helped Mississippi State to a 9-4 record and a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. His defensive unit held opponents to just 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense and tackles for loss.

GAME NINE - GEORGIA TECH

Diaz spent one season, 2014, at Louisiana Tech and his impact was felt in a big way. The Bulldogs led the nation in turnovers gained (42) with 16 fumble recoveries and 26 interceptions. Before his stop at Louisiana Tech, Diaz coached three seasons at Texas (2011-13). His 2011 defensive unit ranked ninth in total yards per play.

In 2010, during his first stint at Mississippi State, Diaz guided a defense that ranked No. 22 in the nation in scoring defense (19.9 ppg), No. 17 in rushing defense (214.9 ypg) and No. 17 in tackles for loss (7.0 pg). MSU also finished ranked No. 13 in red-zone defense (.730) and No. 22 in turnovers forced (28) nationally in 2010.

Before his first stop at Mississippi State, Diaz spent four seasons as defensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee State. Diaz coached linebackers for two years after mentoring the safeties during his first two years.

Diaz spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons at NCSU as a graduate assistant working primarily with the linebackers. During that time, the Wolfpack went to two bowl games and became the first ACC team to beat Florida State in Tallahassee.

Diaz began his coaching career at Florida State in 1998. In his two years as a graduate assistant, he was on the same coaching staff as former Miami head coach Mark Richt and was part of the Seminoles' national title-winning coaching staff in 1999.

Diaz and his wife Stephanie have three sons: Colin, Gavin and Manny.
