BOLD - team leaders

News & Notes

BYE-SONS

We are the "BYE-SONS" at Lipscomb. Don't confuse us with North Dakota State where they are pronounced the "BYE-ZIN". Act like you are from the south.

The most commonly accepted plural of "bison" is bison, but at Lipscomb we are the BISONs with an S. The unabridged Oxford English dictionary includes Bisons as a proper usage.

ASUN CONFERENCE

When referring to our conference, please use "ASUN Conference" or "ASUN".

Refrain from using "Atlantic Sun Conference". The league underwent a rebranding in April of 2016 which dropped the usage of "Atlantic Sun."

RETURNING BISONs

Lipscomb returns more than 63% of its scoring and 68% of its rebounding from last season. They return 4 of the top 5 scorers and 3 of the top 5 rebounders.

The leading returner is Ahsan Asadullah, who averaged 14.1 ppg, 8.0 rpg and 3.4 apg.

The top loss was guard Romeo Ferguson, who averaged 13.3 ppg, 5.3 rpg, 1.9 apg and 1.5 spg.

KING ASADULLAH

Ahsan Asadullah is where it all begins for the Bisons. At the time of his injury, the big man ranked among the top leaders in the country in defensive rebounds per game (9.17 - 2nd), double-doubles (4 - 6th), and RPG (9.8 - 23rd).

He is coming off back-to-back unanimous ASUN First Team selections where he averaged 18.6 ppg, 10.1 rpg and 3.9 apg in 2019-20, and 14.1 ppg, 8.0 rpg and 3.4 apg last season.

His line in 2019-20 made him only the 2nd player in Division I since 1992-93 to average that much. Ben Simmons of LSU was the only other.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES

Asadullah has earned plenty of praise in the preseason after earning nods to the Lou Henson National Player of the Year and the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year Watch Lists.

He has already brought home 2 ASUN Player of the Week awards the first two weeks of the season, giving him 6 for his career.

TRANSFER ADDITION

The Bisons picked up transfer Jacob Ognacevic from Valpo in the offseason. He adds length, athleticism and shooting after spending one season in college.

He averaged 6.3 ppg, 2.0 rpg last season while shooting 54.5% from the floor and 51.7 % from three-point range in 28 games as a true freshman.

His 23 triples last season would have ranked 4th on the Bisons despite a limited role at Valpo.

SUPER MURR-IO

After a legendary high school career at Lindsey Lane Christian School in Athens, Alabama, Murr joined the Bisons last season and played in just 11 games while he adjusted to the college game. He showed flashes, but averaged just 3.5 ppg and made 4-of-19 from deep (21.1).

This season he has taken a huge leap with three games in double-digits, including a 22-point effort on the road at College of Charleston and a 19-point outing in the road win at Dayton.

He is averaging 8.6 ppg in 19.0 minutes and is shooting 46.8% from the floor, but is locked in from long distance, where he is a 50.0% clip on 14-of-28 shooting, despite being 1 for his last 7. He would rank 15th in the nation in 3pt FG%.

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS

Lipscomb was picked to finish fifth in the Preseason ASUN Coaches Poll and was tied for 3rd in the media poll.

News & Notes

J.O.

J.O. has been a dominant force on offense for the purple and gold this season. He leads the team in scoring at 18.6 ppg and is shooting 60.9% (38th nationally) from the floor and 63.6% from beyond the arc in just 26.2 minutes per game. He would lead the nation in 3pt% if he qualified for attempts (min. 2.5 made per game)

He's also been near automatic at the free throw line, knocking down 47-of-52 trips for a 90.4% clip. His 47 makes are 7th most in Division I.

Riding 4-straight games of 20+ points, he has eclipsed the 20-point mark five times this season, including 30 in his Bison debut, and has hit 12 of his last 16 three-point attempts. He has hit 5+ FG in 7-of-9 games, while the other two outings he scored just 2 and 4 points.

ASADULLAH IN THE ASUN

The ASUN's active career scoring leader ranks 74th in the league's record books with 1,334 points. That puts him as the 9th leading scorer among Lipscomb's NCAA era players. He needs just 115 points to jump into the top-50 of the ASUN.

His 760 career rebounds places him 25th in ASUN history and is 3rd in the school's NCAA era.

SLOPPY HANDLES

In Lipscomb's loss at Tennessee Tech before Thanksgiving, anyone might look at the box score and wonder if the score was a misprint.

When you shoot 64.4%, hit 10 threes and dish 22 assists, on most nights, that's a recipe for victory. It was the highest FG% for the Bisons in a game since Dec. 9, 2018 vs. Navy and their 66.7% mark from long distance was the highest since Jan. 25, 2020 vs. North Florida.

However, 22 turnovers leading to 24 points for Tech and allowing the Golden Eagles to score on 15 of their last 17 possessions was too much to overcome. Tech outscored the Bisons 52-36 in the second half.

Lipscomb has had 18+ turnovers in four games and 14+ in six. Their 15.1 turnovers per game ranks 282nd in DI.

DOWN GOES DAYTON

Lipscomb went on the road to Dayton in front of nearly 14,000 fans and destroyed the Flyers 78-59 on Nov. 17, leading wire-to-wire inside UD Arena. It was the Bisons 5th game in 10 days to begin the season and their third victory on the road.

Asadullah scored a game-high 21 points with 8 rebounds, 3 assists and 3 blocks, while Tommy Murr hit 5-of-5 triples for 19 points. Greg Jones added 15 with three 3's.

The team shot 59% overall and buried 10-of-18 from deep.

GARY THE GOAT

Lipscomb great Garrison "The Goat" Mathews has suddenly shocked life into the Rockets after signing a two-way deal with Houston.

A team that started the season 1-16, including a 15-game losing streak, has now won 6 consecutive games...5 of which Mathews started. He scored 25 points combined in his first four games, but since being given the green light to launch it, the professional shooter has 23 triples in the last six games and is averaging 15.6 ppg over that stretch.

The Rockets offensive rating per 100 possessions has jumped from 98.7 to 116.2 and their effective FG% spikes to 57.4 percent - a full percent above the Golden State Warriors league-leading 56.3 percent mark.

Mathews has gone from averaging 8.9 threes per 100 possessions to 12.8, leading the Rockets to believe the early returns should give him more run.

He is currently averaging 11.9 ppg and is shooting 48.8% from the floor and 42.0% from deep.

LENNIE ACUFF

Lennie Acuff was named the 19th head men's basketball coach at Lipscomb University on April 23, 2019.

With a 30-year storied coaching career, Acuff has established himself a proven winner and one of the best teachers in the game.

In his second season at the helm of the Bisons, Acuff and co. were tabbed preseason favorites by the league's head coaches with the likes of Ahsan Asadullah returning. In a year where nothing was normal, the purple and gold had their up and down moments. After winning the season opener against Lamar, the Bisons dropped five of their next six games. They then reeled off four straight dubs and got back above .500 with a 77-70 victory over reigning ASUN champion Liberty on New Year's Day. They then won three straight against Bellarmine and North Florida and guided their way to a 3rd-place finish in the league standings with a 9-6 record. After making the conference championship game the previous three years, Lipscomb's season was over in the first round of the tournament with a 72-60 loss to FGCU in Jacksonville.

In Acuff's first season in Nashville, his first coaching job at the Division I level, the Bisons had seven players, more than 7,700 career points and 3,000 career rebounds walk out the door prior to his arrival in 2019-20. Not only did he have to work eight first-year players into the roster, but there were only two guys on the team who had ever started a game.

But for a coach with more than 550 wins over his career, Acuff was ready for the challenge. He continued to tell anyone who would listen that 2019-20 would be a "jumping on point" for the program. Glancing back on his first D-I campaign, it sure looks like he was right. He pushed his team to its fullest potential and put the Bisons back in the ASUN Conference championship game for a third straight season.

He guided Lipscomb to a 16-16 overall record and coached a team picked fifth in the preseason to a third-place finish in the league (9-7) after winning eight of the final 10 games. The 16 wins were the most by a first-year head coach in Lipscomb's Division I era.

Acuff's creative game planning and offensive sets brought forth a different style of play Lipscomb fans had come accustomed to over the last few seasons. It enabled sophomore big man Ahsan Asadullah to post a season line that had only been accomplished once in Division I since 1992-93, averaging 18.6 ppg, 10.1 rpg and 3.9 apg. Former LSU star and current Philadelphia 76er point guard Ben Simmons was the only other player to achieve those numbers in 2015-16.

For his efforts, Asadullah was named First Team All-ASUN and First Team All-District by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).

The Bisons opened the Acuff era in convincing fashion with a 104-55 victory over Rhodes College inside Allen Arena on Nov. 5, 2019. It was the most points by a Lipscomb team since 2008.

Growing pains set in after that game, and the Bisons lost their next four games – three of which were two-possession contests. Back-to-back road wins at Navy (65-61) and Tennessee Tech (78-65) put the team back on track heading into Thanksgiving break. Road games at #23 Xavier, Belmont, Vermont and #8 Auburn helped prepare the Bisons for the conference season, where they went on the road and held off a pesky new-look Stetson squad 66-63 to give Acuff his first ASUN victory on January 2.

At the midway point of ASUN play, after an 85-73 win over then co-leader North Florida, the Bisons were 8-13 and sat in eighth place in the league standings. They then opened the month of February with a disappointing loss to Stetson and dropped to 3-6 in conference games. That game would end up being a turning point for the team.

Behind Asadullah, the Bisons reeled off six straight wins and finished the second half of league play 7-1, including a 77-71 win over regular season champion Liberty in the home finale, to enter postseason play as hot as any team in the ASUN.

The day he was snubbed for conference Player of the Year, Asadullah carried Lipscomb to a 68-63 victory over FGCU in the first round of the ASUN tournament after scoring a career-high 40 points and grabbing 14 rebounds. It was the most points ever scored by a Bison inside Allen Arena.

Playing in the program's sixth-straight conference semifinal, the Bisons went on the road and came away with a 73-71 upset win over No. 2 North Florida as senior Andrew Fleming sunk the game-winning floater with 3.1 seconds on the clock to send Lipscomb to the championship game. Asadullah scored 27 points and pulled down a career-high 19 rebounds in the win.

Three days later, in a game no one expected Lipscomb to be in, the Bisons battled top-seeded Liberty on national television and in front of a record-breaking crowd for the ASUN crown. A 19-point first-half deficit ended up being too much to overcome for Lipscomb and when the final horn sounded, it was the Flames who had taken a 73-57 victory.

Many might have worried where the program would go after a two-year run that saw 52 wins, its first NCAA Tournament appearance and a cinderella run to the NIT championship game. But if 2019-20 is a glimpse of where Acuff has this program headed, you better jump on and buckle up.

Prior to arriving in Nashville, Acuff spent the previous 22 seasons at the helm of the University of Alabama in Huntsville, where he built the Chargers program into a national power with a 437-214 overall record.

Under Acuff, UAH won eight regular season and three Gulf South Conference tournament championships and earned 11 trips to the NCAA-DII tournament, including two trips to the Elite Eight after winning the NCAA-DII South Regional in 2011 and 2012.

During that time UAH was ranked in the national polls for 44 consecutive weeks including a No. 2 ranking to end the 2011-12 season. The team's achievements were also recognized on a national level as Acuff's team was the first Division II program invited to play in the NIT Season Tip-Off in 2012, and the Chargers defeated North Texas in the opening round of the prestigious event.

Acuff has been named the NABC District Coach of the Year four times (2000, 2011, 2012, and 2013) and has been honored as the GSC Coach of the Year a conference-record eight times (1999, 2003, 2005, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2015, and 2016). Highly respected by his peers in the collegiate coaching ranks, Acuff is one of just two NCAA-DII coaches to serve on the National Association of Basketball Coaches Board of Directors. And among all of the accolades and achievements, perhaps most impressively, Acuff has done that by recruiting student athletes to an academic institution with high expectations of all its students and an average incoming freshman ACT of 28.

Prior to his tenure at UAH, Acuff was head coach at Berry College in Rome, Georgia for four seasons, where he established it as one of the premier NAIA programs. At the age of 25, Acuff began his coaching career at Belhaven College in Jackson, Mississippi, and was the youngest head coach at a four-year college in the United States at the time.

A graduate of Shorter College in 1988, Acuff had an outstanding basketball playing career, setting a number of school records, and is a member of the Shorter Athletic Hall of Fame (2011).

He was a member of an Athletes in Action college all-star team which toured Asia and he represented the United States in the Pre-Olympic Tournament in Seoul, South Korea. Following his playing career, Acuff earned his master's degree from the University of North Alabama. Acuff and his wife, Kelly, have two children, Will and Molly.
