Raca is also the first player selected in the draft to be born in the country of Cyprus.

FRESH FACES

- Andrews earned a 90 overall rating and three-star status from ESPNW while being rated as the No. 14 wing player nationally by ESPNW. She was named as a McDonald's All-American Game nominee and finished her high school career as her school's all-time leading scorer (1,784 points) and rebounder (1,067).
- Conley earned a 91 overall rating and four-star status from ESPNW while being rated the No. 60 recruit in the country and the No. 11 wing player nationally by ESPNW. She was also McDonald's All-American nominee as a senior. YEAR TEN IN WINSTON-SALEM

Jen Hoover enters her 10th season at the helm of the Wake Forest women's basketball program in 2021-22. She was named the school's 10th coach in program history in May of 2012. Hoover came to Wake Forest after one season as the head women's basketball coach at High Point.

Hoover returned to Wake Forest to lead the program after starting for the Demon Deacons from 1987-91. She was a three-time All-ACC selection and is second on the school's career record charts for points (1,728) and rebounds (1,006). Hoover was a member of the ACC Academic Honor Roll and a member of the South team that won the bronze medal at the 1989 Olympic Festival in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She also led the Deacs to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1988. Hoover was inducted to the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002.

2020-21 - NCAA Tournament

The ninth season at Wake Forest for Hoover issued in a return to the national stage as she led the Demon Deacons to their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1987-88 and just the second time in program history. Hoover and the Deacs played one of the most challenging schedules in the country. In the first year of the NET, Wake Forest recorded six victories over top-50 NET ranked teams while also playing having the No. 2 average opponent NET ranking in the nation. It helped the Demon Deacons earn a No. 9 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

In the midst of the postseason push, Hoover became the program's all-time wins leader with win No. 126 tenure at her alumna mater. In the second round, the Deacs eliminated North Carolina from the ACC Tournament for the second consecutive season with an 82-71 victory. Over the last two seasons, Wake Forest is 4-1 against the Tar Heels.

The Deacs reached the ACC Tournament quarterfinals for the second consecutive season, marking the first time the Demon Deacons have accomplished this feat in back-to-back seasons since 2012 and 2013.

Three Demon Deacons earned All-ACC honors with Ivana Raca named to the First Team, Gina Conti to the Second Team and Jewel Spear to the All-Freshman Team. It is just the third time in program history the Demon Deacons have had multiple players selected to the top two All-ACC teams and is just the second time three members of the squad were honored in the same season by the league.

Ivana Raca ended her illustrious Wake Forest career ninth on the all-time scoring list with 1,482 points. She was one of just four players to finish her career in the top 10 in scoring and rebounding. Raca ended her four seasons with 715 rebounds, 10th in Demon Deacon history.

She went on to be taken in the 2021 WNBA Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks, becoming the second player in the Hoover era to be taken in the annual draft.

Equally as impressive, Hoover helped guide Gina Conti to the second spot on Wake Forest's all-time assist list with 494 in her career. She also became the 29th player in program history to reach the 1,000-point barrier during her senior campaign.

Additionally, a program record four student-athletes were named to Academic All-ACC Team: Jewel Spear earned her first Academic All-ACC honors this season while Ivana Raca, Gina Conti and Christina Morra were honored for the second time in their career.

2019-20

During the 2019-20 season, the Demon Deacons got off to one of the best starts in ACC play with a 3-1 start to conference play, the fastest start since the 1987-88 season. Wake went on to earn seven victories in ACC play, the most in the Hoover era. This included key victories over in-state foes Duke and North Carolina.

The Deacs seemed destined for postseason play after an impressive run in the ACC Tournament. Wake Forest defeated North Carolina for the second time in season in the opening round while knocking off Virginia Tech in the second round to reach the ACC Tournament Quarterfinal.

After earning second team All-ACC honors at the end of the regular season, junior Ivana Raca was even better in the tournament, averaging 20.33 points per game en route to first team All-ACC Tournament honors.

During the season, Alex Sharp and Raca became the 27th and 28th members of the 1,000-point club. Sharp rose to third in program history with 921 career rebounds and Gina Conti sat seventh with 379 career assists.

2018-19

Wake Forest started the 2018-19 season with a stellar 9-4 record in the non-conference portion of the schedule. The Demon Deacons would face a number of critical injuries, including the loss of leading scorers Elisa Penna and Alex Sharp who each played just 15 games. However, their absence allowed the accelerated development of a number of younger players who shined in 2019-20.

2017-18

In the 2017-18 season, the Deacs advanced to the second round of the ACC Tournament for the ninth time in the last 10 seasons. In the opening round victory over Pittsburgh, Hoover's Demon Deacons held the Panthers to just 38 points, the fewest points allowed in ACC Tournament and Wake Forest postseason history. The team's 34-point margin of victory is a Wake Forest postseason record and the second-largest margin of victory over an ACC foe in program history. During the season, the team had three active 1,000 point scorers in Amber Campbell, Elisa Penna and Ariel Stephenson. Penna and Stephenson reached the 1,000-point mark during the season, marking the first time in program history that the team had three 1,000-point scorers on its roster. Penna was named All-ACC Second Team at the end of the year while Campbell was named to the All-Defensive Team, the first All-Defensive honoree for the Deacs since 2004.

2016-17 - WNIT

Hoover guided the Demon Deacons to the postseason for the second consecutive season in 2017, as Wake Forest advanced to the second round of the WNIT. The postseason berth marked just the second time in program history in which the team advanced to postseason play in back-to-back seasons. Hoover led the Deacs to a road victory over No. 15/18 NC State on Feb. 19, the first road win over a ranked opponent since the 2012 season. Additionally, the Demon Deacons earned their highest ACC Tournament seed (No. 9) since 2012 while Alex Sharp was named to the ACC All-Freshman Team.

2015-16 - WNIT

Under Hoover's guidance, the Demon Deacons have continued their successful run in ACC Tournament play. In 2015-16, Wake Forest won an ACC Tournament game for the eighth-straight year, the longest stream in the ACC at the time. The Deacs won one game in 2016 and earned two victories as the No. 13 seed in the 2015 ACC Tournament, marking just the second time in program history Wake Forest had two wins in the league championship.

In 2015-16, Hoover helped guide the Demon Deacons to new heights as they won 17 games overall and six ACC regular-season contests. Both totals are highest since Hoover took over as head coach in 2012 and the six ACC victories tie for the third-most in a single season in program history. Wake Forest finished 10th in the ACC after being picked 14th in the preseason polls by both the Blue Ribbon Panel and the ACC's Head Coaches.

At season's end, Wake Forest earned its first postseason tournament berth since the 2011-12 campaign in earning an at-large bid to the WNIT. The Demon Deacons went on the road to top Charlotte in the first round before being eliminated by Florida Gulf Coast in the second round.

2014-15

Hoover had the rare opportunity to coach a player that broke her own program records. In 2014-15, Dearica Hamby broke her coach's records for career points and rebounds. Hamby went on to become the first Demon Deacon to ever be selected in the WNBA Draft when she was taken sixth overall by the San Antonio Stars.

2012-14

In Hoover's first two seasons leading the program, Wake Forest went 13-19 in year No. 1 in 2012-13, but she did guide the Deacs to an upset road victory over No. 18 Florida State. The win marked the school's first victory on the road over a ranked team since 1996. In 2013-14, the Deacs finished with an overall record of 15-16 with five ACC wins, including another victory over a ranked Florida State team. This time, the Deacs knocked off No. 23 FSU in Winston-Salem in convincing fashion, beating the Seminoles 78-54.
